16 And all the people that were in Ai were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city.

17 And there was not a man left in Ai or Bethel, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

18 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in thy hand toward Ai; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear that is in thy hand, toward Ai; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joshua stretched out his hand: and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand: and they entered into the city, and took it, and hasted to set them to lye in waite betweene Beth-el and Ai, on the Westside of the citie.

19 And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and ranne as soon as he had stretched speare that hee had in his hand, toward the citie.

20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers.

21 And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the smoke of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people against Israel to battell, and pursued after Israel.

22 So that there were liers in ambush against him on the backeside of time appointed, before the plain: for he knew not that any lay in waite against him on the Westside of the citie.
29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until the even a desolation, unto this day.
28 So Joshua burnt Ai, and made it an heap for ever, word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua.
27 Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua.
26 For Joshua drew not his hand wherewith he smote it with the edge of the sword, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.
25 And all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai.
24 And it came to pass, when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness wherein they pursued them, and when they were consumed, that all Israel returned unto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword.
23 And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.
22 And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.
21 When Joshua and all Israel saw that they that fell of Ai were consumed, that all Israel returned unto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword.
20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, and saw the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: for the people that fled to the wilderness, turned backe upon the pursuers.
19 For the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned againe, and slew the men of Ai.
18 The other issued out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they let none of them remain or escape.
17 And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.
16 But Joshua made them desolate, and utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded concerning Ai.
15 Notwithstanding, there were of them fifteen hundred leftover slain, who fell by the edge of the sword, which were escaped, and went down into the wilderness by the way to the hormone of Egypt, untoizon.
14 But Joshua spared alive of them, that he might make them desolate unto this day, according to the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua.
13 And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it an heap for ever, unto this day.
12 Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua.
11 So Joshua burnt Ai, and made it an heap for ever, word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua.
10 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until the even a desolation, unto this day.
9 For Joshua made them desolate, as the LORD commanded concerning Ai.
8 But Joshua spared alive of them, that he might make them desolate unto this day, according to the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua.
7 Notwithstanding, there were of them fifteen hundred leftover slain, who fell by the edge of the sword, which were escaped, and went down into the wilderness by the way to the hormone of Egypt, untoizon.
6 And Joshua saved alive of them, that he might make them desolate unto this day, according to the word of the LORD which he commanded concerning Ai.
5 But Joshua made them desolate, and utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded concerning Ai.
4 Notwithstanding, there were of them fifteen hundred leftover slain, who fell by the edge of the sword, which were escaped, and went down into the wilderness by the way to the hormone of Egypt, untoizon.

2 For Joshua made them desolate, as the LORD commanded concerning Ai.
1 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until the even a desolation, unto this day.
And at the going down of the sun Joshua commanded, and they took his carcase down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and raised thereon a great heap of stones, that remaineth unto this day.

Then Joshua built an altar unto the LORD God of Israel in mount Ebal,

As Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of unhewn stones, over which no man had lift up any iron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings unto the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.

And he wrote there upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.

And all Israel, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, as well the stranger as the homeborn; half of them in front of mount Gerizim, and half of them in front of mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded, that they should bless the people of Israel first of all.

Then Joshua built an altar vnto the Lord God of Israel, in mount Ebal,

5 And olde shoes and clouted vpon their feete, and olde garments vpon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and mouldy.
6 So they came vnto Ioshua into the hoste to Gilgal,

They became hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation; as the princes had spoken unto them.

22 And Joshua called for them, and he spake unto them, saying, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, We are very far from you, when ye dwell among us?

23 Now therefore ye are cursed, and there shall never fail to be of you bondmen, both hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God.

24 And they answered Joshua, and said, Because it was certainly told thy servants, how that the Lord thy God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you; therefore we were sore afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing.

25 And now, behold, we are in thine hand: as it seemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do. And so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.

27 And Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of the Lord, unto this day; in the place which he should choose.
Now it came to pass, when Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them;

2 That they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty. {royal: Heb. cities of the kingdom}

3 Wherefore Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,

4 Come up unto me, and help me, and let us smite them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped against Gibeon, and made war against it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and lives because of you, and have done this thing.

Now it came to pass, when Adoni-zedek King of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had destroyed it, (for as he had done to Jericho and to the King thereof, so he had done to Ai and to the King there-of) and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them, 13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the nation had avenged themselves upon their enemies. (Is not this written in the book of Iasher?) So the sun abode in the middes of the heauen, and hasted not to goe downe for a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the Lord fought for Israel.

22 And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the Lorde hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the Lorde fought for Israel.

23 And these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

27 And Joshua said, Roll great stones unto the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them:
21 that all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 And it came to pass, when they brought forth those five kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed; be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.

26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and put them to death, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.

27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the pit of the cave.
And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.

And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.

And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sunne, Joshua gave commandment, that they should take them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain unto this very day.

Yet the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is this not written in the book of Jaazer? So the name of that place was called the valley of Aijalon unto this day.

And Joshua numbered the people, the men, the women, the shepherds, and all the men of war, by their armies: and he found an hundred thousand valiant men that could go forth to war, that were able to pass over Jordan to fight against Jericho.

And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear not, be strong and of good courage: for the LORD will be with you, even as he was with Moses.

And Joshua, the son of Nun, was full of wisdom, and the people of Israel hearkened unto him, as unto Moses.

And Joshua rose early in the morning, and laid burnt offerings before the LORD, and made glad sacrifices.
33 Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

34 And Joshua passed from Lachish, and all Israel with him, unto Eglon; and they encamped against it, and fought against it:

35 And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto Hebron; and they fought against it:

37 And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but he utterly destroyed it, and all the souls that were therein.

38 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir; and they fought against it:

39 And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining: as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof; as he had done also to Libnah, and to the
And they went out, they and all their hosts with Debir; and fought against it.

And when he had taken it, and the King thereof, and all the citie thereof, they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining: as he had done to Libnah, and to her king.

And it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor had heard those things, that he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Achshaph, 2 and to the kings that were on the north, in the hill country, and in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, and in the lowland, and in the heights of Dor on the west, 3 to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and in the lowland, and in the heights of Dor on the west, 4 and when he had taken it, and the King thereof, as he had done also to Libnah, and to her king.

And they went out, they and all their hosts with Debir, and fought against it.

And when he had taken it, and the King thereof, and all the citie thereof, they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein, he left none remaine: as he did to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the King thereof, as he had also done to Libnah, and to the King thereof.

And when he had taken it, and the King thereof, and all the citie thereof, they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein, he left none remaine: as he did to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the King thereof, as he had also done to Libnah, and to the King thereof.

And Jabin king of Hazor hearkened to this; and he sent messengers unto Iobab king of Madon, and unto the king of Riblah, and unto the king of the kings which were in Hazor: and he went out to meet them.

And he sent messengers unto Iobab king of Madon, and to the king of Riblah, and to the king of Hazor.

And all these kings fought with Joshua at Gilgal.

And all these kings took at one time, because the Lord God of Israel had utterly destroyed all them that breathed, as he had done to Libnah, and to her king.

And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

And afterwarde, Joshua and all Israel with him returned unto the camp in Gilgal.
And they smote all the souls that were therein.

And all these kings met together; and they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel. {spe...: Heb. assembled by appointment}

And the LORD said unto Joshua, Be not afraid because of them: for tomorrow at this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou shalt hough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.

Then came Joshua and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them.

And they came out and all their hostes with them, much people, even as the sand that is upon the sea shore for multitude, with horses and chariots exceeding many.

So all these Kings met together, and came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, for to fight against Israel.

Then the Lord sayd vnto Ioshua, Be not afrayd for them: for to morowe about this time will I deliuer them all slaine before Israel:

And they went out, they and all their hostes with them, in many.

And when all these kings were met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

And they houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

And they smote them as the Lord bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

And Joshua turned back at that time, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms.

And they smote all the souls that were therein.

6 All the inhabitants of the mountaines from Lebanon vnto Misrephothmaim, and all the Sidonians, I wil cast them out from before the children of Israel: only allot thou it by lot vnto the Israelites, to inherit, as I haue commanded thee.

7 Now therefore deuide this lande to inherite, vnto the nine tribes, and to the halfe tribe of Manasseh.

8 With him the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond
With whom the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond Jordan eastward, even as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them;

9 From Aroer, that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain of Medeba unto Dibon;

10 And all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon;

11 And Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto Salekah;

12 All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (the same was left of the remnant of the Rephaim; for these did Moses smite, and cast them out.

13 Nevertheless the children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maacathites: but Geshur and Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day.

14 Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance; but the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as he said unto them.

15 And Moses gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families.

8 For with half thereof the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moses gave them beyond Jordan Eastward, even as Moses the servant of the Lord had given them,

9 From Aroer that is on the brink of the river Arnon, and from the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain of Medeba vnto Dibon,

10 And all the cities of Sihon King of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, vnto the borders of the children of Ammon,

11 And Gilead, and the borders of the Geshurites and of the Maacathites, and all mount Hermon, with all Bashan vnto Salekah:

12 All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei: (who remained of the rest of the giants) for these did Moses smite, and cast them out.

13 But the children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites nor the Maacathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites euen vnto this day.

14 Onely vnto the tribe of Leui he gave none inheritance, but the sacrifices of the Lord God of Israel are his inheritance, as he saide vnto hym.

15 Moses then gaue vnto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance, according to their families.
And their coast was from Aroer, that is on the brink of the river Arnon, and from the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba; 17 Heshbon, and all her cities that are in the plain; 18 and Jahaz, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath; 19 and Kiriathaim, and Sibmah, and Zereth-shahar in the mount of the valley, 20 and Beth-peor, and Ashdoth-pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth, {Ashdoth-pisgah: or, the high places of Baal, and house of Baal-meon} 21 And all the cities of the plain; and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote with the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, which were dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country. 22 Balaam also the son of Beor, the soothsayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword, among the rest of their slain. 23 And the border of the children of Reuben according to their families, the middle of the valley, and all the plain by Medeba; 16 And their coast was from Aroer, that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba; 17 Heshbon, and all her cities that are in the plain; 18 and Jahaz, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath; 19 and Kiriathaim, and Sibmah, and Zereth-shahar in the mount of the valley, 20 and Beth-peor, and Ashdoth-pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth, {Ashdoth-pisgah: or, the high places of Baal, and house of Baal-meon} 21 And all the cities of the plain; and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote with the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, which were dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country. 22 Balaam also the son of Beor, the soothsayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword, among the rest of their slain. 23 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan, and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, the cities and the villages thereof. 24 And Moses gave unto the tribe of Gad, unto the children of Gad, according to their families. 25 And their border was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Aroer that is before Rabbah; 26 and from Heshbon unto Ramath-mizpeh, and Be-25 And their coast was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Aroer that is before Rabbah;
26 And from Heshbon unto Ramoth, Mizpeh, and Betonim: and from Mahanaim unto the borders of Debir;
27 And in the valley Beth-haram, and Bethnimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan and his border, even unto the edge of the sea of Chinnereth on the other side Jordan eastward.
28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad according to their families, the cities, and their villages.
29 And Moses gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Manasseh: and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families.
30 And their border was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair which are in Bashan, threescore cities,
31 And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, pertaining unto the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, 32 These are the countries which Moses did distribute by lot their families.
33 But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave none inheritance: the LORD, the God of Israel, is their God.
And these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them.

2 By lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe.

3 For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and an half tribe of the children of Joseph beyond Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance.

5 As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel divided the land; and they divided the land.

6 Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the LORD spake unto Moses the man of God concerning me and concerning thee in Kadesh-barnea.

7 Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of tribute in the plaine of Moab beyond Iorden, toward Iericho Eastward.

33 But vnto the tribe of Levi Moses gaue none inheritance: for the Lord God of Israel is their inheritance, as he said vnto them.

These also are the places which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the Priest, and Joshua the sonne of Nun and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed unto them,

2 By the lot of their inheritance, as the Lord had commanded by the hande of Moses, to giue to the nine tribes, and the halfe tribe.

3 For Moses had giuen inheritance vnto two tribes and an halfe tribe, beyond Iorde: but vnto the tribe of Levi Moses gaue none inheritance among them.

4 For the childe of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gaue no part vnto the Leuites in the lande, saue cities to dwell in, with the suburbs of the same for their beastes and for their substance.

5 As the Lord had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did when they deuided the land.

6 Then the children of Iudah came vnto Ioshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh the Kenizzite said vnto him, Thou knowest the thing that the LORD spake vnto Moses the man of God concerning me and concerning thee in Kadesh-barnea.

7 Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.

and to come in.

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake in that day; for thou heardest in that 11 As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war and to go out,

and to come in.

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake in that day; for thou heardest in that day how the Anakim were there, and cities great and fenced: it may be that the LORD will be with me, and I shall drive them out, as the LORD spake.

13 And Joshua blessed him; and he gave Hebron unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.
Therefore Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, unto this day; because that he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.

15 Now the name of Hebron beforetime was Kirjath-arba; which Arba was the greatest man among the Anakims.

And the lot for the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families was unto the border of Edom, even to the wilderness of Zin southward, at the uttermost part of the south.

2 And their south border was from the shore of the salt sea, from the point that looketh southward:

3 And it went out to the south side to Maaleh-acrabim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto Kadesh-barnea, and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaa: {Maalehacrebbim: or, the going up to Karkaa:}

4 From thence went it along to Azmon, and reached vnto the river of Egypt, and the end of that coast.
4 From thence it passed toward Amon, and went out unto the river of Egypt; and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south coast.

5 And the east border was the salt sea, even unto the end of Iorden. And their border on the North quarter from the point of the sea, and from the end of Iorden.

6 And this border goeth vp to Beth-hogla, and goeth along by ye Northside of Beth-arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben:

7 And the border went up toward Debir from the valley marching to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of the giants Northward.

8 And this border goeth vp to the valley of the sonne of Hinnom; on the Southside of the Iebusites; the same is Jerusalem: and this border goeth vp to the top of the mountain that lyeth before the valley of Hinnom Westward, which is by the end of the valley of ye gyants Northward.

9 So this border compasseth from the top of the mountaine vnto the fountaine of the water of Nephole, that is before the ascent of Adummim, which is on the Southside of the river: also this border goeth vp to the waters of En-shemesh, and the goings out thereof were at Enrogel:

10 And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom unto the Southside of the Jebusite southward:

11 And the border was drawn to Shikkeron, which is on the Westside: this shall be your South coast.

5 Also the Eastborder shalbe the salt Sea, vnto the end of Iorden: and the border on the North quarter from the point of the Sea, and from the end of Iorden.

6 And this border goeth vp to Beth-hogla, and goeth along by ye Northside of Beth-arabah: so the border from thence goeth vp to the stone of Bohan the sonne of Reuben.

7 Againe this border goeth vp to Debir from the valley of Achor, and Northwarde, turning toward Gilgal, that lyeth before the going vp to Adummim, which is on the Southside of the river: also this border goeth vp to the waters of En-shemesh, and endeth at En-rogel.

8 Then this border goeth vp to the valley of the sonne of Hinnom; on the Southside of the Iebusites: the same is Jerusalem. also this border goeth vp to the top of the mountain that lyeth before the valley of Hinnom Westward, which is by the end of the valley of ye gyants Northward.

9 So this border compasseth from the top of the mountaine vnto the fountaine of the water of Nephtoah, and goeth out to the cities of mount Ephron: and this border draweth to Baalah, which is Kiriathjeairim.
10 And the border compassed from Baalah westward unto mount Seir, and passed along unto the side of mount Jearim, which is Chesalon, on the north side, and went down to Bethshemesh, and passed on to to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, even Kiriath-arba of the father of Anak, which is Hebron.

12 And the west border was to the great sea, and the coast thereof. This is the coast of the children of Judah round about according to their families.

13 And unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a portion among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, even a field; and Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

15 And he went up thence against the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before time was Kirjath-arba, of Arba the father of Anak, which is Hebron. {the city...: or, Kirjatharba}

16 And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

17 And Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

18 And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

and passed along to mount Baalah, and went out at Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the sea.

12 And the west border was to the great sea, and the coast thereof. This is the coast of the children of Judah round about according to their families.

13 And unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a portion among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, even the city...: or, Kirjatharba}

14 And Caleb drove out thence the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmi, the children of Anak.

15 And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kirjathsepher. {the name of Debir beforetime was Kirjathsepher.}

16 Then Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, even to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

47 Ashdod with her townes and her villages: Azzah with her townes and her villages, unto the river of Egypt, and the great Sea was their coast.

48 And in the mountaines were Shamir, and Iattir, and Socoh, 63 And as for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out: but the Jebusites dwelt with the children of Judah at Jerusalem, unto this day.

And the lot for the children of Joseph went out from Jordan by Jericho unto the water of Jericho Eastward, and to the wilderness that goeth up from Jericho by the mount Beth-el:
2 And goeth out from Beth-el to Luz, and runneth along vnto the borders of Archiataroth,
3 And goeth down Westward to the coast of Iaphleti, unto the coast of Beth-horon the nether, and to Gezer: and the goings out thereof are at the sea.
4 So the children of Ioseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.
5 Also the borders of the children of Ephraim according to their families, euen the borders of their inheritance on the Eastside were Atrothaddar, vnto Beth-horon the upper;
6 And the border went out toward the sea to Michmethath on the north side; and the border went about eastward unto Japhleti, 7 And it went down from Ianohah to Ataroth, and the goings out thereof were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim according to their families; 9 together with the cities which were separated for the children of Ephraim in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

10 And they drove not out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer: but the Canaanites dwelt in the midst of Ephraim, unto this day, and served under tribute.

And this was the lot for the tribe of Manasseh; for he was the first born of Joseph, As for Machir the first born of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan.

2 And the lot was for the rest of the children of Ma-nesshe, for the children of Abiez-er, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hephir, and for the children of Shemida:
these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families. {Abiez-er, also called, Shemida}

3 But Zelophehad the son of Hephir, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah,
But Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah:

4 And they came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren; therefore according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ten parts to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side Iordan, 6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

7 And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethah that lieth before Shechem; and the border went along on the right hand unto the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim;

9 And the coast descended unto the river Kanah, southward of the river: these cities of Ephraim are and Tirzah.

4 And they came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren: therefore according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ten parts to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is beyond Jordan;

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

7 And the border of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath that is before Shechem; and the border went along on the right hand unto the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim.

9 And the border went down unto the brook of Kanah, southward of the brook: these cities belonged to Ephraim among the cities of Manasseh: and the border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook, and the goings out thereof were at the sea:

10 southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea was his border; and they reached to Asher on the north, and to Issachar on the east.

11 And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher Beth-shean and her towns, and Ibleam and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, even three countries.

12 Yet the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

13 Yet it came to pass, when the children of Israel were waxen strong, that they put the Canaanites to taskwork, but did not utterly drive them out.

14 And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, forasmuch as the LORD hath blessed me hitherto?

15 And Joshua answered them, If thou be a great people, get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the Rephaim; since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for thee.
And I will send them, and they shall arise, and walk through the land, and describe it according to their inheritance.

2 And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance.

3 And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, How long are ye slack to go in to possess the land, which the LORD, the God of your fathers, hath given you?

4 Appoint for you three men for each tribe: and I will send them, and they shall arise, and walk through the land, and describe it according to their inheritance.

5 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them.

6 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel, came together at Shiloh: for they set up the Tabernacle of the Congregation there; after the land was subject unto them.

7 2 Nowe there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet divided their inheritance.

8 3 And Joshua said vnto the children of Israel, How shal it be thine, and thou shalt cut it down: and the goings out thereof shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, though they haue yron charets, and though they be strong.

9 18 Therefore the mountaine shall be thine: for it is a wood, though it be strong:

10 16 Then the children of Joseph said, The mountaine will not be enouyth for vs: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the lowe countrye haue charrets of yron, aswell they in Beth-shean, and in the townees of the same, as they in the valley of Izreel.

11 17 And Joshua spake vnto the house of Joseph, to Ephraim, and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power, and shalt not haue one lot.

12 18 but the hill country shall be thine; for though it be strong.

13 17 And Joshua spake vnto the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power: thou shalt not haue one lot.

15 And the south quarter was from the end of Kirjath-jearim, and the border went out on the west, and went out to the well of waters of Nephtoah:

16 And the border went down to the uttermost part of the mountain that lieth before the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is in the vale of Rephaim northward; and it went down to the valley of Hinnom, to the lande, and described it by cities into seuen partes in a booke, and returned to Joshua into the campe at Shiloh.

10 And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the Lord, and there Joshua devided the land unto the children of Israel, according to their portions:

11 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came forth according to their families, and the cost of their lot lay between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.

12 And their border on the north side was from Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and went up through the mountains westward; and the goings out thereof were at the wilderness of Beth-horon southward; and the goings out thereof were in the wilderness of Beth-aven:

13 And this border goeth along from thence to Luz, even to the Southside of Luz (the same is Beth-el) and this border descendeth to Atroth-addar, neere the mount, that lieth on the Southside of Beth-horon the nether.

14 So the border turneth, and compasseth the corner of the Sea Southward, from the mount that lyeth before Beth-horon Southward: and the ends thereof are in the wilderness of Beth-aven:

15 And the Southquarter is from the end of Kirjath-jearim, a citie of the children of Judah: this was the west quarter.

border of their lot went out between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.

12 And their border on the north quarter was from Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the hill country westward; and the goings out thereof were at the wilderness of Beth-aven.

13 And the border passed along from thence to Luz, to the side of Luz, which is Bethel, southward; and the border descended to Ataroth-azar, near the hill that lieth on the south side of Beth-horon the nether.

14 And the border was drawn thence, and compassed the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that lieth before Beth-horon southward; and the goings out thereof were at Kirjathael, which is Kirjathjearim, a city of the children of Judah; this was the west quarter.

15 And the south quarter was from the end of Kirjathjearim, and the border went out on the west, and went out to the well of waters of Nephtoah:
16 And the border came down to the end of the mountain that lieth before the valley of the son of Hinnom, and which is in the valley of the giants on the north, and descended to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of Jebusi on the south, and descended to Enrogel, 17 And was drawn from the north, and went forth to Enshemesh, and went forth toward Geliloth, which is over against the going up of Adummim, and descended to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben, 18 And passed along toward the side over against Arabah northward, and went down unto Arabah:
19 And the border passed along to the side of Bethhoglah northward: and the outgoings of the border were at the north bay of the salt sea at the south end of Jordan: this was the South coast.
20 And Jordan was the border of it on the east quarter. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families.
21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and Emek-keziz;
22 and Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel;
23 And Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah,
24 And Chephar-ammonai, and Ophni, and Gaba; and Atheliearim, and this border goeth out Westward, and commeth to the fountain of waters of Nephtoah.
16 And this border descendeth at the ende of the mountaine, that lyeth before the valley of Ben-hin-nom, which is in the valley of the gyants Northward, and descendeth into the valley of Hinnom by the side of Jebusi Southwarde, and goeth downe to Enrogel,
17 And compasseth from the North, and goeth foorth to En-shemesh, and stretcheth to Geliloth, which is toward the going vp vnto Adummim, and goeth downe to the stone of Bohan the sonne of Reuben.
18 So it goeth along to the side ouer against the plaine Northward, and goeth downe into the plaine.
19 After, this border goeth along to the side of Beth-hoglah Northward: and the endes thereof, that is, of the border, reach to the point of the salt Sea Northward, and to the ende of Iorden Southward:
this is the Southcoast.
20 Also Iorden is the border of it on the Eastside:
this is the inheritance of the children of Benjamyn according to their families.
21 Nowe the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families, are Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and Emek-keziz;
22 and Beth-arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel;
23 And Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah,
24 And Chephar-ammonai, and Ophni, and Gaba;
and Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth;
25 and Mizpeh, and Chephira, and Mozah;
26 and Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah;
And the second lot came out to Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Judah.

2 And they had for their inheritance Beer-sheba, or Sheba, and Moladah;
3 And Hazar-shual, and Balah, and Ezem;
4 And Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah;
5 And Ziklag, and Bethmarcaboth, and Hazarsusah;
6 And Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhen; thirteen cities and their villages:
7 Ain, Rimmon, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities and their villages:
8 And all the villages that were round about these cities to Baalath-beer, Ramah of the South. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.

40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

49 So they made an end of distributing the land for inheritance by the borders thereof; and the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua me son of Nun in the midst of them:

50 according to the commandment of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim: and he...
48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families: that is, these cities and their villages.

49 When they had made an end of deuding the land by the coasts thereof, then the children of Israel gaue an inheritance vnto Ioshaun the sonne of Nun among them.

50 According to the worde of the Lord they gaue him the city which he asked, euyn Timnath-serah in mount Ephraim: and hee built the citie and dwelt therein.

51 These are ye heritages which Eleazar the Priest, and Ioshaun the sonne of Nun, and the chiefe fathers of the fathers’ houses of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the Lord at the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation: so they made an ende of deuding the country.

The Lord also spake vnto Ioshaun, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, and say, Assign you cities of refuge, whereof I spake vnto you by the hand of Moses:

3 That the slayer that killeth any person unwittingly and unwittingly may flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

4 And he that doeth flee vnto one of those cities, built the city, and dwelt therein.

51 These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, and Ioshaun the sonne of Nun, and the heads of the fathers’ houses of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tent of meeting. So they made an end of dividing the country.

And the LORD spake vnto Ioshaun, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, and say, Assign you cities of refuge, whereof I spake vnto you by the hand of Moses:

3 That the manslayer that killeth any person unwittingly and unawares may flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

4 And when he that doth flee vnto one of those cities, shall stand at the entering of the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.

5 And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbour unwittingly, and hated him not before time:

6 But he shall dwell in that city, until he stand before the congregation for judgment, or until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled.

7 And they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kirjath-arba (which is Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

8 And beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.

9 These were the appointed cities for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person at unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation.

7 And they appointed Kedesh in Galilee in mount Naphtali, and Shechem in mount Ephraim, and Kirjatharba, which is Hebron, in the mountaine of Judah. {appointed: Heb. sanctified}

8 And on the other side Jordan by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.

9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person at unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation.
Then came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of Israel; and they spake unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle.

3 And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, according to the commandment of the LORD, these cities with their suburbs.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron ye Priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

10 And the rest of the children of Merari according to their families had out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, seven cities.

11 And they spake unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle.

12 And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites, out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.

13 So the children of Israel gave unto the Levites, according to their families, these cities in the land of Canaan.

Then came near the principal fathers of the Leuites vnto Eleazar the Priest, and vnto Ioshua the sonne of Nun, and vnto the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, and spake vnto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The LORD commanded by the hande of Moses, to giue vs cities to dwell in, with the suburbes thereof for our cattle.

3 And the children of Israel gave vnto the Leuites, out of their inheritance, according to the commandement of the Lord these cities with their suburbes.

36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with her subsurbs, and Jahazah with her suburbs,

37 Kedemoth with her suburbs, and Meephaath with her suburbs: four cities.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer;

39 Heshbon with her suburbs, and Jazer with her sub urbs: four cities in all.

40 All the cities for the children of Merari by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.

41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were forty and eight cities with their suburbs.

42 These cities lay every one severally with their suburbs round about them: thus it was with all these cities.

43 So the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein.

44 And the LORD gave them rest round about,
her suburbs; four cities.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslay er, and Mahanaim with her suburbs;

urbs; four cities in all.

40 All these were the cities of the children of Merari according to their families, even the rest of the fami lies of the Levites; and their lot was twelve cities.

41 All the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the children of Israel were forty and eight cities with their suburbs.

42 These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them: thus it was with all these cities.

43 So the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein.

44 And the LORD gave them rest round about,
according to all that he had sworne unto their fathers:

6 So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away: and they went unto their tents.

7 Now unto the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given possession in Bashan: but unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them.

8 And he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment: divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.

9 So the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by Iorden, to see to, which is in the land of Canaan, to goe unto the country of Gilead to the land of their possession, which they had obteyned, according to ye word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

10 And when they came vnto the borders of Jordan, that is in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to goe vnto the land of Gilead to the land of their possession, which they had obtayned, according to ye word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

11 And the children of Israel heard say, Behold, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered unto their tents, he blessed them.

12 And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered 13 And the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest; 14 and with him ten princes, of every chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Israel: for every one was chief of their fathers’ houses among the thousands of Israel. 15 And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, and spake with them, saying, 16 Thus saith the whole congregation of the Lord, What trespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Israel, in that ye have builded you an altar, to turn away this day from following the Lord? in that ye have builded you an altar, to turn away this day from following the Lord? 17 Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves unto this day, although there came a plague upon the congregation of the Lord, 18 that ye must turn away this day from following the Lord, to go up to war against them. 19 And when the children of Israel heard it, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh haue built an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan vpon the borders of Iorden at the passage of the children of Israel: 20 against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel. 21 That great altar to see to. 22 Beholde, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasseh haue built an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan vpon the borders of Iorden at the passage of the children of Israel: 23 that tomorrow he will be wroth against them. 24 And the children of Israel heard say, Beholde, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasseh haue built an altar in the forefront of the land of Canaan vpon the borders of Iorden at the passage of the children of Israel: 25 that tomorrow he will be wroth against them.
17 Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD, and if we have not rather out of carefulness done that which we have done, and studying ye rebel to day against the LORD, that to morrow he will be wroth with the whole congregation of Israel, 18 But that ye should turn away from following the LORD; and it will be, seeing ye rebel to day against the LORD, that to morrow he will be wroth with the whole congregation of Israel, 19 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, come ye over unto the land of the possession of the LORD, wherein the LORD'S tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the Lord, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar beside the altar of the Lord our God. 20 Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell upon all the congregation of Israel? and this man alone perished not in his wickedness.

21 Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh answered, and said unto the heads of the thousands of Israel, 22 The LORD God of gods, he knoweth, and Israel himselfe shall know: if it be in rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, (save us not this day,) (save thou us not this day,) if we have not rather out of carefulness done this, and of purpose, saying, In time to come your offering or meal offering, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings thereon, let the LORD himself require it; 23 That we have built us an altar to turn from rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, wherein the LORD'S tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the Lord, nor rebell against vs in building you an altar, beside the altar of the Lord our God.

24 and if we have not rather out of carefulness done this, and of purpose, saying, In time to come your offering or meal offering, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings thereon, let the LORD himself require it;
23 If we have built vs an altar to returne away from the Lord, either to offer thereon burnt offering, or meat offering, or to offer peace offerings thereon, let the Lord himself require it;

24 And if we have not rather done it for feare of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might speak unto our children, saying, What have ye to do with the LORD God of Israel? {In time...: Heb. To morrow}

25 For the LORD hath made Jordan a border betwene vs and you, ye children of Reuben and children of Gad: therefore ye have no part in the LORD: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the Lord.

26 Therefore we said, We will nowe go about to make vs an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice, 27 But it shall be a witnesse betweene us and you, and betwene our generations after vs, to execute the service of the LORD before him in our burnt offerings, and in our sacrifices, and in our peace offerings, that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the LORD.

28 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifices; but it is a wit

25 for the LORD hath made Jordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben and children of Gad; ye have no part in the LORD: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the Lord.

26 Therefore we said, Let us nowe prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice:

27 But that it may be a witness between us, and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the LORD before him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the LORD.

28 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a wit...
nor for sacrifice, but it is a witness betwenee vs and y you.
 29 God forbid, that we should rebell against the Lord, and turne this day away from the Lord to builde an altar for burnt offering, or for meate offering, or for sacrifice, saue the altar of the Lord our God, that is before his Tabernacle.
30 And when Phinehas the Priest, and the princes of the Congregation and heads over the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the wordes, that the children of Reuben, and children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spake, they were well content.
31 And Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest said vnto the children of Reuben and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive, that the Lord is among vs, because ye have not done this trespass against the Lord: This day we perceiue, that the LORD is in the midst of us, because ye have never commited this trespass against the LORD: nowe ye have deliuered the children of Israel out of the hand of the Lord.
32 Then Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the Priest with the princes returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, vnto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them answere.
33 And the saying pleased the children of Israel: and the children of Israel blessed God, and minded not LORD our God that is before his tabernacle.
30 And when Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation, even the heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spake, it pleased them well.
31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive that the LORD is among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against the LORD: now ye have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.
32 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again.
33 And the thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed God, and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

34 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar Ed: for it shall be a witness between us that the LORD is God. {Ed: that is, A witness}

And it came to pass a long time after that the LORD had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, and Joshua was old and stricken in age,

And it came to pass after many days, when the LORD had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, and Joshua was old and well stricken in age; {stricken...: Heb. come into days}

And Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said unto them, I am old and stricken in years:

And Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said unto them, I am old and stricken in age.

Also ye have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto all these nations because of you; for the LORD your God is he that hath fought for you.

Behold, I have deuided vnto you by lot these nations that remaine, to be an inheritance according to the portion of the tribes of Israel.

And Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said vnto them, I am old and stricken in age.

So spake Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, unto the children of Israel.

And a long season after that the LORD had giuen rest vnto Israel from all their enemies round about, and Iowa was old, and stricken in age, 2 Then Joshua called all Israel, and their Elders, and their heads, and their, and their, and their officers, and said vnto them, I am old, and stricken in age.

And IJoshua the son of Nunu, the servant of the LOR, spake vnto Israel, saying: And before all these things happened, the LORD had giuen rest vnto Israel from all their enemies round about.

And IJoshua the son of Nunu, the servant of the LOR, spake vnto Israel, saying: And before all these things happened, the LORD had giuen rest vnto Israel from all their enemies round about.

And IJoshua the son of Nunu, the servant of the LOR, spake vnto Israel, saying: And before all these things happened, the LORD had giuen rest vnto Israel from all their enemies round about.

And IJoshua the son of Nunu, the servant of the LOR, spake vnto Israel, saying: And before all these things happened, the LORD had giuen rest vnto Israel from all their enemies round about.

And IJoshua the son of Nunu, the servant of the LOR, spake vnto Israel, saying: And before all these things happened, the LORD had giuen rest vnto Israel from all their enemies round about.
11 Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, that ye love the LORD your God.
12 Else, if ye go back, and cleave unto the rest of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go unto them, and they to you:

13 Know ye for certain, that the LORD your God will no more drive these nations from out of your sight; but they shall be a snare and a trap unto you, and a scourge in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

14 And, behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spake con-
14 And behold, this day do I enter into the way of all ye world, and ye know in all your heart and in all your soul, that nothing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God promised you, but all are come to passe vnto you: nothing hath failed thereof.

15 Therefore as all good things are come vpon you, which the Lord your God promised you, so shall the Lord bring vpon you euery euil thing, until he haue destroyed you out of this good land, which ye Lord your God hath giue you.

16 When ye shall transgresse the couenant of the Lord your God, which he commanded you, and shall goe and serue other gods, and bowe your selues to them, then shall the wrath of the Lord waxe hote against you, and ye shall perish quicly out of the good lande which he hath giuen you.

And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

2 And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt of old time beyond the River, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nahor: and they served other gods.

3 And I took your father Abraham from beyond the River, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan,
And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt beyond Jordan; and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, and ye possessed their land; and I destroyed them from before you.

4 And I gave unto Isaac Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto Esau mount Seir, to possess it; but Iaakob and his children went down into Egypt.

5 And I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, and his children went downe into Egypt.

6 And I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and ye came unto the sea; and the Egyptians pursued after you.

7 Then they cried unto the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have seene what I have done in Egypt also

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt beyond Jordan; and they fought against Israel; and he sent and called Balak the son of Beor to curse you:

And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you.

Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam to curse the children of Israel.

But I would not hearken unto Balaam; wherefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand.

And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods; ye dwelt in the wilderness a long season.

And ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho; and I gave you a land, wherein ye had not laboured, and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; of the vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not do ye eat.

Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth; and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side Jordan; and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye possessed their country, and I destroyed them out of your sight.

Also Balak the son of Zippor King of Moab arose and warred against Israel, and sent to call Balaam the son of Beor to curse you:

But I would not heare Balaam; therefore he curse you not but I delivered you out of his hand.

Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served that were beyond the flood, and served them; of the vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not.

And I have given you a land, wherein ye did not labour, and not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

After, I brought you into the land of the Amorites, and not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

And I sent hornets before you, which drove them out before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

And I gave you a land whereon thou hadst not laboured, and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; of the vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not do ye eat.
unto the LORD, the God of Israel.

He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods; for he is our God.

19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the LORD: for he is an holy God; he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

20 If ye forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you evil, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay; but we will serve the LORD.

22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses.

23 Now therefore put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD, the God of Israel.
21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay; but we will serve the LORD.

22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses.

23 Now therefore put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel.

24 And the people said unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people the same day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

26 And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there under an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

27 And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us; for it hath heard all the words of the LORD which he spake unto us: it shall be therefore a witness unto you, lest ye deny your God.

28 So Joshua sent the people away, every man unto his inheritance.

29 And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old.

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of the mountain of Gaash.

31 And Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, and had known all the work of the LORD, consume you, after that hee hath done you good.

21 And the people said vnto Joshua, Nay, but we will serue the Lord.

22 And Ioshua saide vnto the people, Yee are witnesses against your selues, that yee haue chosen you the Lord, to serue him: and they sayd, We are witnesses.

23 Then put away nowe, saide he, the strange gods which are among you, and bowe your hearts vnto the Lord God of Israel.

24 And ye people saide vnto Ioshua, The Lord our God wil we serue, and his voyce wil we obey.

25 So Ioshua made a covenant with the people the same day, and gaue them an ordinance and lawe in Shechem.

26 And Ioshua wrote these woordes in the booke of the Lawe of God, and tooke a great stone, and pitched it there vnder an oke that was in the Sanctuarie of the Lord.

27 And Joshua saide vnto all the people, Beholde, this stone shall be a witnesse vnto vs: for it hath heard all the words of the Lord which he spake with vs: it shall be therefore a witnesse against you, lest yee deny your God.

28 So Joshua let the people depart, euery man vnto his inheritance.

24 And the people said unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and unto his voice will we hearken.

25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

26 And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and he took a great stone, and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

27 And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness against us; for it hath heard all the words of the LORD which he spake unto us: it shall be therefore a witness against you, lest ye deny your God.

28 So Joshua sent the people away, every man unto his inheritance.

29 And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua that he had wrought for Israel.

32 And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in the parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for an hundred pieces of silver: and they became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.

33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him in the hill of Phinehas his son, which was given him in mount Ephraim.
After that Joshua was dead, the children of Israel asked ye Lord, saying, Who shall goe vp for vs against the Canaanites, to fight first against them?

2 And the Lord said, Judah shall goe vp: behold, I have given the land into his hand.

3 And Judah said vnto Simeon his brother, Come vp with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites: and I likewise will goe with thec into thy lot: so Simeon went with him.

4 Then Judah went vp, and the Lord deliuered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands, and they slew of them in Bezek ten thousand men.

5 And they founde Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they smote of them in Bezek ten thousand men.

6 But Adoni-bezek fled, and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off the thumbes of his hands and of his feetes.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, Seuentie Kings hauing their thumbes and their great toes cut off, gathered bread vnder my table: as I haue done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8 (Nowe the children of Iudah had fought against Jerusalem, and there he died.)

9 And there they gathered their meat under my table: as I have done, having their thumbes and their great toes cut off, gathered bread vnder my table: as I haue done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

10 And the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, Who shall goe up for us first against the Canaanites, to fight first against them?
9 And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountain, and towarde the South, and in the low country.

10 And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron: (now the name of Hebron beforetime was Kiriath-arba:) and they smote Sheshai, and Ahiman and Talmai.

11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Debir, and the name of Debir in old time was Kiriath-sepher.

12 And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kiriath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

14 And when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field, and she lighted off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou?

15 And she answered him, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.

16 And the children of Keni, Moses’ brother, went vp out of the citie of the palme trees with the sword, and set the city on fire.

17 And they came to the inhabitants of Jericho, and lighted on, and smote the men of the city with the edge of the sword, and took the city, and smote it with the edge of the sword.

18 And they took the field of Eglon, and the field of Hebron, and the field of Jecoreia, which were nearunto Jerusalem, and the field of Shaveh-kirjath-jearim, (which are yet called Kirjath-jearim, because of the fields thereof.

19 And Caleb gave them Achsah his daughter to wife.

20 And he spake yet this other thing; If ye will go up, let us go up to Shaxer, and destroy it; for I will give you his daughters to wives, and it shall be a blot unto Shaxer.

21 And they went up, and smote Shaxer, and destroyed it with the edge of the sword, and gave them wives unto them to wife.

22 And out of the tribe of Judah they gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.
22 And the house of Joseph, they also went up in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which is in the south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people.

17 And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they smote the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called Hormah.

18 Also Judah took Gaza with the border thereof, and Ashkelon with the border thereof, and Ekron with the coast thereof.

19 And the LORD was with Judah; and he drave out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron. (drave...: or, possessed the mountains)

20 And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses had said, and he expelled thence the three sons of Anak.

21 But the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites, that inhabited Jerusalem: therefore the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto this day.

22 They also that were of the house of Joseph, went up into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people.

23 And the house of Joseph sent to spy out Beth-el. And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Beth-el: and the LORD was with them, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it, and called the name of the city Hormah.

18 Also Judah took Gaza with the coast thereof, and Askelon with the coast thereof, and Ekron with the coast thereof.

19 And the Lord was with Judah, and he possessed the mountaines: for he could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had charrets of iron.

20 And they gave Hebron vnto Caleb, as Moses had said, and hee expelled thence the three sonnes of Anak.

21 But the children of Beniamin did not cast out the Iebusites, that inhabited Ierusalem: therefore the Iebusites dwell with the children of Beniamin in Jerusalem vnto this day.

22 They also that were of the house of Ioseph, went vp to Beth-el, and the Lord was with them, 23 And the house of Joseph caused to viewe Beth-el (and the name of the citie beforetime was Luz) unto this day.

(Now the name of the city beforetime was Luz.)
24 And the watchers saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and we will deal kindly with thee.

25 And when he had shewed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man go and all his family.

26 Then the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz: which is the name thereof unto this day.

27 Neither did Manasseh drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shean and her towns, nor Taanach and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns: but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

28 And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out.

29 Likewise Ephraim expelled not the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

30 Neither did Zebulun expell the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol, but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributary.

31 Asher drave not out the inhabitants of Acco, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and we will shew thee mercy.

32 And when he had shewed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man and all his family go depart.

33 Then the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz which is the name thereof unto this day.

34 Neither did Manasseh destroy Beth-shean with her towns, nor Taanach with her towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor with her towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam with her towns, neither the inhabitants of Megiddo with her towns: but the Canaanites dwelled still in that land.

35 Neuertheless when Israel was strong, they put the Canaanites to tribute, and expelled them not wholly.

36 Likewise Ephraim expelled not the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer, but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

37 Neither did Zebulun expell the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol, but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

38 Neither did Asher cast out the inhabitants of Acco, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and we will shew thee mercy.

39 And when he had shewed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man and all his family depart.
31 Neither did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Ach-cho, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob:
32 But the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.
33 Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath, but dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath became tributaries unto them.
34 And the Amorites drove the children of Dan into the mountaine: so that they suffered them not to come downe to the valley.
35 But the Amorites would dwelle in mount Heres in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim: yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became tributaries:
36 And the border of the Amorites was from the going up to Akrabbim, from the rock, and upward. {the going...: or, Maalehakrabbim}

And an Angel of the Lord came vp from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you to go vp out of Egypt, and have brought you vnto the land which I sware to your fathers; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you:
2 and ye shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land: ye shall break down their altars: but nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob, 32 But the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitantes of the lande: for they did not drive them out.

33 Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitantes of Beth-shemesh, nor the inhabitantes of Beth-anath, but dwelt among the Canaanites the inhabitantes of the lande: neuerthelesse the inhabitantes of Beth-shemesh, and of Beth-anath became tributaries vnto them.
34 And the Amorites drove the children of Dan into the mountaine: so that they suffered them not to come downe to the valley.
35 And the Ammonites dwelt still in mount Heres in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim, and when the hand of Josephs familie preuailed, they became tributaries:
36 And the coast of the Amorites was from Maal-eh-akrabbim, euen from Selah and vpward.
unto your fathers; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you. {angel: or, messenger}

2 And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars: but ye have not obeyed my voice: why have ye done this?

3 Wherefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be as thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare unto you.

4 And when the Angel of the Lord spake these words unto all the children of Israel, the people lift up their voice, and wept.

5 Therefore they called the name of that place Bochim:
and they sacrificed there unto the Lord. {Bochim: that is, Weepers}

6 Now when Joshua had sent the people away, the children of Israel went every man unto his inherit ance to possess the land.

7 And the people served the Lord all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the Lord, that he had wrought for Israel. {outlived: Heb. pro longed days after}

8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the Lord, died, being an hundred and ten years old.

9 And they buried him in the border of his in heritance in Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of the mountain of Gaash.

10 And also all that generation were gathered unto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which knew not the LORD, nor yet the work which he had wrought for Israel.
north side of the hill Gaash. [Timnathares: called elsewhere, Timnathserah]

10 And also all that generation were gathered unto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which knew not the LORD, nor yet the works, which he had done for Israel.

11 Then the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lord, and served Baalim, which brought them out of the lande of Egypt, and followed other gods, even the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed unto them, and provoked the Lord to anger.

12 And forsooke ye Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the lande of Egypt, and forsooke the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the lande of Egypt, and followed other gods, even the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed unto them, and provoked the Lord to anger.

13 So they forsooke the Lord, and served Baal, and Ashtaroth.

14 And the wrath of the Lord was hote against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoylers, that spoyled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could no longer stande before their enemies.

15 Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the Lord was against them for evil, as the Lord had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed.

16 Nevertheless the Lord raised up judges, which delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them, and delivered them out of the hands of their oppressours.

11 And the children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, and served the Baalim:

12 and they forsook the Lord, the God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the peoples that were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the Lord to anger.

13 And they forsook the Lord, and served Baal, and the Ashtaroth.

14 And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoylers, that spoyled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could no longer stande before their enemies.

15 Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the Lord was against them, as ye Lord had sayd, and as the Lord had sworn unto them: so he punished them sore.

16 And the Lord raised up judges, which saved them out of the hand of those that spoold them.

17 And yet they hearkened not unto their judges, for they went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves down unto them: they turned aside quickly out of the way wherein their fathers walked, obeying the commandments of the Lord; but they...
17 But yet they would not obey their Judges: for they went a whoring after other gods, and worshipped them, and turned quickly out of the way, wherein their fathers walked, obeying the commandments of the Lord: they did not so.

18 And when the Lord had raised them up Judges, the Lord was with the Judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the Judge: for the Lord had compassion on their groanings, because of them that oppressed them and tormented them.

19 Yet when the Judge was dead, they returned, and did worse than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them: they ceased not from their own inventions, nor from their rebellious way.

20 Wherefore the wrath of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he said, Because this people hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice;

21 Therefore will I no more cast out before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died: that by them I may prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the Lord to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not.

23 So the Lord left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

18 And when the Lord raised them up Judges, then the Lord was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it repented the Lord because of their groaning by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.

19 But it came to pass, when the judge was dead, that they returned, and corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; they ceased not from their doings, nor from their stubborn way.

20 And the anger of the Lord was hot against Israel; and he said, Because this nation have transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice;

21 Therefore will I no more cast out before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died: that by them I may prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the Lord to walk therein, as their fathers kept it, or not.

23 So the Lord left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.
22 That through them I may prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it or not.
23 Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua. {left: or, suffered}

These nowe are the nations which the Lord left, that he might prove Israel by them (euen as many of Israel as had not known all the warres of Canaan,
2 Only to make the generations of the children of Israel to know, and to teach them warre, which doubtes their predecessors knew not)
3 Fiue princes of the Philistims, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Huiuotes that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon until one come to Hamath.

Now these are the nations which the LORD left, to prove Israel by them, even as many as had not known all the wars of Canaan;
2 only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as beforetime knew nothing thereof;
3 Namely, five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon unto the entering in of Hamath.
4 And they were for to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.
5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites:
6 And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

6 And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

7 And the children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgat the LORD their God, and served the Baalim and the Asheroth.
8 Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushman-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia: and the

3 Fiue princes of the Philistims, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Huiuotes that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon until one come to Hamath.
4 And these remayned to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would obey the commandements of the Lord, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.
5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that beforetime knew nothing thereof;

7 And the children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgat the LORD their God, and served the Baalim and the Asheroth.
8 Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Cushan-rishathaim eight years.

9 And when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised up a saviour to the children of Israel, who saved them, even Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother.

10 And the spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel, and he went out to war: and the LORD delivered Cushan-rishathaim King of Aram-naharaim, and the children of Israel served Cushan-rishathaim eight years.

11 So the land had rest forty years, and Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 And the children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

13 And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon and Amalek; and went and smote Israel, and they possessed the city of palm trees.

14 And the children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab the years.

15 But when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised them up a saviour, Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a man lefthanded:

their gods.

7 So the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the LORD, and forgat the LORD their God, and served Baalim, and Asheroth.

8 Therefore the wrath of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushan rishathaim King of Aram-naharaim, and the children of Israel served Cushan rishathaim eighteen years.

9 And when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised up a saviour, Ehud

10 And the spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and 11 And the land had rest forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

13 And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon and Amalek; and went and smote Israel, and they possessed the city of palm trees.

14 And the children of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

15 But when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised them up a saviour, Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjamite, a man lefthanded:
23 Then Ehud went forth into the porch, and shut the doors of the parlour upon him, and locked them.

24 and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and they possessed the city of palm trees.

25 But when the children of Israel cried unto the Lord, the Lord stirred them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera the son of Iemini, a man lame of his right hand: and the children of Israel sent a present by him unto Eglon King of Moab.

26 And Ehud made him a dagger with two edges of a cubite length, and he did gird it vnder his rayment upon his right thigh.

27 And he presented ye gift vnto Eglon King of Moab (and Eglon was a very fat man)

28 But he turned againe from the quarris, that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand to thee, O King. Who said, keepe silence: and all that stood about him, went out from him.

29 Then Ehud came vnto him. (and he sate alone in a sommer parller, which he had for himself alone. And Ehud said, I have a message vnto thee from God. Then he arose out of his throne,

30 And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly:

31 And he said, I have a message from God vnto thee. Then he arose out of his seat, 22 So that the hafte went in after the blade, and the fatte closed about the blade, so that he could not drawe the dagger out of his bellie, but the dirt came out.

23 Then Ehud gate him out into the porch, and shut the doores of the parlor vpon him, and locked them. And when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlor were locked, they sayd, Surely he doeth his easement in his somer chamber.

25 And they taryed till they were ashamed: and, behold, he opened not the doors of the parlor; therefore they took the key, and opened them, and behold, their lord was fallen dead on the earth.

26 And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed the quarris, and escaped vnto Seirah.

27 And it came to pass, when he was come, that he blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went downe with him from the mountaine, and he went before them.

28 Then said he vnto them, Follow after me: for the Lord hath deliuered your enemies, euen Moab into your hand. And they went downe after him, and tooke the passages of Iorden towarde Moab, and suffred not a man to passe over.

24 Now when he was gone out, his servants came; and they saw, and, behold, the doors of the parlour were locked; and they said, Surely he covereth his feet in his summer chamber.

25 And they taryed till they were ashamed: and, behold, he opened not the doors of the parlour; therefore they took a key, and opened them: and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

26 And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the quarries, and escaped unto Seirath.

27 And it came to pass, when he was come, that he blew a trumpet in the mountain of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went downe with him from the mount, and he before them.

30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest fourscore years.

31 And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath, which smote of the Philistines six hundred men with
And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead. 2 And the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor, whose captain of whose host was Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles.

3 Then the children of Israel cried unto the LORD: (for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.)

4 And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time.

5 And she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Beth-EL in the hill country of Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

6 And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh-naphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the LORD, the God of Israel, commanded, saying, Go and draw unto mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun? 7 And I will draw unto thee to the river Kishon Sisera, the captain of Jabin’s army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand.

8 And he said unto them, Follow after me: for the LORD hath delivered your enemies the Moabites.

9 So Moab was subdued that day, under the hand of Israel: and the land had rest fourscore years.

10 And the children of Israel again did that which was sore (lustily) against the LORD, when Ehud was dead.

11 And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin, king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor, whose captain of whose host was Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles.

12 And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD: (for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.)

16 And he said unto them, Follow after me: for the LORD hath delivered your enemies the Moabites.

17 So Moab was subdued that day, under the hand of Israel: and the land had rest fourscore years.

18 And the children of Israel began again to do wickedly in the sight of the Lord when Ehud was dead.

19 And the Lord sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor, whose chief Captaine was called Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles.

20 And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD: (for he had nine hundred chariots of yron, and twen tie yeeres he had vexed the children of Israel very sore)

21 And at that time Deborah a Prophesiess the wife of Lapidoth judged Israel.

22 And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead. 23 And the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor, the captain of whose host was Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles.

24 And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD: (for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.)

29 And they slew of the Moabites the same time about ten thousand men, all fed men, and all were warriours, and there escaped not a man.

30 So Moab was subdued that daye, vnder the hand of Israel: and the land had rest fourscoure yeeres.

31 And after him was Shamgar the sonne of Anath, of Israel: and the land had rest fourescore yeeres.
8 And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, I will not go.

9 And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour: for the Lord shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men at his feet: and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of Zebulun and of the children of Naphtali, was in the hill-country of Ephraim, and pitched his tent by the oak in Zaanannim, which is by Kedesh. And Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand.

12 And they told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Zebulun and of the children of Naphtali.

13 And Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Haroseth of the Gentiles, unto the river Kishon.

14 And Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this is the day in which the Lord hath delivered Sisera into thine hand: is not the Lord gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

15 And this Deborah dwelt under a palm tree, between Ramah and Beth-el in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

16 Then she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kadesh of Naphtali, and said vnto him, Hath not the Lord God of Israel commanded, saying, Goe, and drawe towards mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

17 And I wil drawe vnto thee to the riuer Kishon Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude, and wil deliuer him into thine hand. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

18 Then she sent and called Barak the sonne of Abinoam out of Kadesh of Naphtali, and sayd vnto him, Hath not the Lord God of Israel commanded, saying, Goe, and drawe towards mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

19 And Deborah shewed Barak, and spake unto him: Say not, I will go, but this iourney that thou takest, shall not be for thine honour: for the Lord shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

20 Then shee sent and called Barak the sonne of Abinoam out of Kadesh of Naphtali, and sayd vnto him, Hath not the Lord God of Israel commanded, saying, Goe, and drawe towards mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

21 And Deborah said vnto Barak, Go, and drawe towarde mount Tabor, and say with me, There is the Lord's hand vnder a palm tree, betwene Ramah and Beth-el in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

22 So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men with him, and said vnto Deborah, Thy servant went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men with me: lo, I see a man out of the wilderness coming to me only. And Deborah said vnto Barak, Art not thou the man of valiant heart, as the Lord thy God hath said vnto thee?

23 For the Lord hath sold Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, into thine hand: there is not a man left, of all that were with him, save a few captives, all the rest are dead. So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.
15 And the LORD discomfited Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet.

16 But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; there was not a man left.

17 Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor, and between the house of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite.

18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not. And he turned in unto her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug.

19 And he said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

20 And he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man doth come and inquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, No.

21 Then Jael Heber's wife took a tent-pin, and took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the pin into his temples, and it pierced the playne of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh.) through into the ground; for he was in a deep sleep; so he swooned and died.

22 And, behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seest. And when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the nail was in his temples.

23 So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel.

24 And the hand of the children of Israel prevailed more and more against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

I save Israel? behold, my family is the poorest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.

22 And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord GOD! for because I have seen an angel of the LORD face to face, I shall die.

23 And the LORD said vnto him, Peace be vnto thee: thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there vnto the Lord, and called it Jehovahshalom: unto this day it is in Ophrah, of the father of the Ezrites.

25 And the same night the Lord sayd vnto him, Take thy fathers yong bullocke, and an other bullocke of seuen yeares olde, and destroy the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut downe the grove that is by it, 27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

28 And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built.

29 Therefore they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: for he hath broken down the altar of Baal, and hath also cut down the grove that was by it.

31 And Joash said unto all that stood against him, Will ye plead for Baal? or will ye save him? he that will plead for him, let him be put to death whilst it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself because one hath broken down his altar.

32 And in that day was Gideon called Jerubbaal, that is, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath broken down his altar.

33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and they of ye East, were gathered together, and passed over, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel.

34 But the spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon; and he blew a trumpet, and Abiezer was joined after him.

36 And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, 37 behold, I will put a fleece of wool on the threshing place: if the dew come on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said.
38 And so it was: for he rose vp early on the morrow, and thrusted the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.
39 And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be kindled against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

40 And God did so that same night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel.
34 But the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet; and Abiezer was gathered after him. {came...: Heb. clothed} {gathered: Heb. called}
35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali; and they came up to meet them. {gathered: Heb. called}
Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Harod: so that the host of the Midianites was on the Northside of them in the valley by the hill of Moreh.

2 And the Lord said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee, are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, and say, Mine own hand hath saved me.

3 Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Whosoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and depart early from mount Gilead. And there remained ten thousand.

4 And the Lord said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many: bring them down unto the water, and the Lord said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many: bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go.

5 So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that lapeth the water with his tongue, as a dog lapeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink.

Then Jerubbaal (who is Gideon) rose vp early, and all the people that were with him, and pitched beside the well of Harod, so that the hoste of the Midianites was on the Northside of them in the valley by the hill of Moreh.

2 And the Lord said vnto Gideon, The people that are with thee, This man shall not goe with thee, the same shall not goe.

3 Now therefore go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Whosoever is fearful or afraid, let him return and depart from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people two and twentie thousand: so ten thousand remayned.

4 And the Lord said vnto Gideon, The people are yet too many: bring them downe vnto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and of whome I say vnto thee, This shall goe with thee, the same shall goe with thee; and of whomsoever I say vnto thee, This shall not goe with thee, the same shall not goe.

5 So he brought downe the people vnto the water.
6 And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the LORD said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place.

8 So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel, every man unto his place.

9 And it came to pass the same night, that the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley.

10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host:

11 And thou shalt hear what they say; and afterward shall thine hands be strengthened to go down unto the camp. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the armed men that were in the camp.

12 And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like locusts for multitude; and their camels were without pith of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth,
12 And the Midianites, and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand which is by the sea side for multitude.
13 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that tolde a dreame vnto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dreame, and, lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came vnto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along.
14 And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing els saue the sword of Gideon the sonne of Joash a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God deliuered Midian, and all the hoste.
15 And it was so, when Gideon heard the dreame tolde, and the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and a man of Israel: into his hand God hath delivered Midian, and all the host.
16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man’s hand, with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers. {a trumpet...: Heb. trumpets in the hand of all of them}

HEBREW - WTT

And the men of Ephraim said unto him, Why hast thou served us thus, that thou calldest us not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? and they chide with him sharply. {Why...: Heb. What} {sharply: Heb. strongly}

2 And he said unto them, What have I now done in comparison of you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?

3 God hath delivered into your hand the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their anger was abated toward him.

4 And Gideon came to Jordan, and passed over, he, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan.

5 And he said vnto the men of Succoth, Giue, I pray you, loaves of bread vnto the people that follow me; for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.

25 And they took two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock Mount Hor, and Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond Jordan.

And the men of Ephraim said unto him, Why hast thou served us thus, that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? and they chide with him sharply.

2 And he said unto them, What have I now done in comparison of you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?

3 God hath delivered into your hand the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their anger was abated toward him. {anger: Heb. spirit} {sharply: Heb. What}

4 And Gideon came to Jordan, and passed over, he, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond Jordan.

5 And he said vnto the men of Succoth, Giue, I pray you, loaves of bread vnto the people that follow me; for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.

25 And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb, and slew Oreb upon the rocke Oreb, and slew Zeeb at the wineprese of Zeeb, and pursed the Midianites, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyonde Iorden.

Then the men of Ephraim sayde vnto him, Why hast thou serued vs thus that thou calledst vs not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? And they did chide with him sharply.

2 To whom he said, What haue I now done in comparison of you? is not the gleaning of grapes of Ephraim better, then the vintage of Abiezer?

3 God hath deliuered into your handes the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? and when he had thus spoken, then their spirits abated toward him.

4 And Gideon came to Iorden to passe ouer, hee, and the three hundred men that were with him, faint, yet pursuing them.

5 And he said vnto the men of Succoth, Giue, I pray you, loaves of bread vnto the people that follow me; for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.
5 And he said unto the men of Succoth, Give, I pray you, loaves of bread unto the people that follow me; for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.

6 And the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thine army?

7 Gideon said: Therefore when the LORD hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers. {tear: Heb. thresh}

8 And he went up thence to Penuel, and spake unto them likewise: and the men of Penuel answered him, as the men of Succoth had answered.

9 And he spake also unto the men of Penuel, saying, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower.

10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers. {tear: Heb. thresh}

11 And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwelt in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and discomfited all the host.

12 And Zebah and Zalmunna fled; and he pursued after them; and he took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and smote the host; for the host was secure.

13 And Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle from the ascent of Heres.

6 And the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thine army?

7 Gideon then sayde, Therefore when the Lord hath deliuered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, I will teare your flesh with thornes of the wildernes and with breers.

8 And he went vp thence to Penuell, and spake vnto them likewise, and the men of Penuell answered him, as the men of Succoth answered.

9 And he sayd also vnto the men of Penuell, When I come againe in peace, I will breake down this towre.

10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hostes with them, about fiftie thousand, all that were left of all the hostes of them of the East: for there fell an hundred and twentie thousand men, that drew swordes.

11 And Gideon went through them that dwelt in Tabernacles on the East side of Nobah and Iogbehah, and smote the hoste: for the hoste was carelesse.

12 And Zebah and Zalmunna fled; and he pursued after them; and he took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the host.
And he caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, concerning whom ye did taunt me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in thine hands, that we should give bread unto thy weary men?

16 Then he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth.

17 And he brake down the tower of Penuel, and slew seventy and seven men.

18 Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they whom ye slew at Tabor?

19 And he said, They were my brethren, even my mothers children: as the Lord liveth, if ye had saved one resembled the children of a king.

20 And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, and slay them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. And hoste.

13 So Gideon the sonne of Ioash returned from battle, the sunne being yet hie, and inquired of him: and he wrote to him the princes of Succoth with them.

14 And he came vnto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, by whome ye vpbrayed me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread vnto thy weary men?

15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did upbraide me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in thine hands, that we should give bread vnto thy weary men?

16 Then he took the Elders of the citie, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and did teare the men of Succoth with them.

17 Also he brake downe the towre of Penuel, and slew the men of the city.

18 Then saide he vnto Zebah and Zalmunna, What was the men of the city.

19 And he said, They were my brethren, even my mothers children: as the Lord liueth, if ye had saued one resembled the children of a King.

20 And he said, They were my brethren, even my mothers children: as the Lord liueth, if ye had saued one resembled the children of a King.

21 And he said, They were my brethren, even my mothers children: as the Lord liueth, if ye had saued one resembled the children of a King.

22 And they answered, As thou art, so were they: euery maner of men were they, whom ye slew at Tabor?

23 And he said, As thou art, so were they; each resembled the children of a king.
And he said, They were my brethren, even the sons of my mother: as the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you.

And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, and slay them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet a youth.

Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength.

And Gideon arose, and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the ornaments that were on their camels’ necks. [ornaments: or, ornaments like the moon]

And the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son’s son also: for thou hast saved us out of the hand of Midian.

And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: the LORD shall rule over you.

And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the earrings of his prey. (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

And they answered, We will willingly give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the earrings of his prey.

And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold; beside the crescents, and the pendants, and the purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that were about their camels’ necks.

And Gideon made an ephod thereof, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah: and all Israel went a whoring after it there: and it became a snare unto Gideon, and to his house.
28 So Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, and they lifted up their heads no more. And the land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went, and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gideon had threescore and ten sons of his body begotten: for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine that was in Shechem, she also bare him a son, and he called his name Abimelech.

32 And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

33 And it came to pass, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and went a whoring after Baalim, and made Baal-berith their God.

34 And the children of Israel remembered not the LORD their God, which had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side:

35 Neither shewed they mercy on the house of Jerubbaal, or Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shewed unto Israel.
And Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem unto his mother's brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

2 Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you, that all the sons of Jerubbaal, which are threescore and ten persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember also, that I am your bone and your flesh.

3 Then his mother's brethren spake of him in the audience of all the men of Shechem, all these words: and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, He is our brother.

4 And they gave him threescore and ten pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vain and light fellows, which followed him.

5 And he went unto his father's house at Ophrah, and slew his brethren the sons of Jerubbaal, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: but Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself.

6 And all the men of Shechem assembled themselves together, and all the house of Millo, and went and made Abimelech king, by the oak of the pillar that was in Shechem.
And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

9 But the olive tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to wave to and fro over the trees? {go...: or, oak}

10 And the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, and reign over us.

11 But the fig tree answered them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to wave to and fro over the trees?

12 Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou, and reign over us.

13 But the vine said unto them, Should I leave my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to wave to and fro over the trees?

14 Then said all the trees unto the bramble, Come thou, and reign over us.

15 And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of my shadow:

16 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and went, and made Abimelech king in the playne, where the stone was erected in Shechem.

7 And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you.

8 The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said unto the olive tree, Reign thou over us.

9 But the olive tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to wave to and fro over the trees?

10 And the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, and reign over us.

11 But the fig tree answered them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees? {go...: or, oak}

12 Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou, and reign over us.

13 But the vine said unto them, Should I leave my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over ye trees? {go...: or, oak}

14 Then said all the trees unto the bramble, Come thou, and reign over us.

15 And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of my shadow:

16 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and went, and made Abimelech king in the playne, where the stone was erected in Shechem.
14 Then said all the trees unto the bramble, Come thou, and reign over us.

20 But if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon.

16 Now therefore, if ye have dealt truly and uprightly with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done unto him according to the deserving of his hands; then come and put your trust under my shadowe: and if not, the fire shall come out of the bramble, and consume the men of Shechem, and the house of Millo; and let fire come out from Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you:

19 If ye then have dealt truly and sincerely with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice ye in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you:

21 And Abimelech was prince over Israel three years.

23 And God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem
21 And Iotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.
22 So Abimelech reigned three years over Israel.
23 But God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech, and the men of Shechem: and the men of Shechem spake evil one against another.
24 That the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal might come, and that their blood might be laid upon Abimelech their brother, which slew them; and upon the men of Shechem, which had ayed him to kill his brethren.
25 And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.
26 Then Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.
27 Therefore they went out into the field, and gathered in their grapes and trode them, and made merrie, and went into the house of their gods, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.
28 And Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him?
29 But Abimelech dealt treacherously with Abimelech:
30 And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the 28 Then Gaal the son of Ebed sayde, Who is Abimelech? and who is Shechem, that wee should serue him? Is he not the sonne of Jerubbaal? and Zebul is his officer? Serue rather the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serue him?

29 Now would God this people were under mine hand: then would I put away Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 And when Zebul the ruler of the citie heard the words of Gaal the sonne of Ebed, his wrath was kindled.

31 Therefore he sent messengers unto Abimelech prивily, saying, Beholde, Gaal the sonne of Ebed and his brethren be come to Shechem, and beholde, they fortifie the citie against thee.

32 Now therefore arise by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and set upon the citie: and when he and the people that is with him, shall come out against thee, then mayest thou doe to them as thou shalt find occasion. {as thou shalt find occasion: {as thou shalt find occasion: {as thou shalt find occasion: {as thou shalt find occasion: {as thou shalt find occasion: {as thou shalt find occasion: {as thou shalt find occasion:

words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled.

31 And he sent messengers unto Abimelech prīvily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren are come to Shechem; and, behold, they fortifie the citie against thee.

32 Now therefore up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lay in wait in the field:

33 And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sunne is vp, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city:

34 So Abimelech rose vp, and all the people that was with him, from the gate of the city: and Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

35 Then Gaal the sonne of Ebed went out and stood by the middle of the land, and one 34 And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies.

35 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him, from lying in wait.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the tops of the mountains: and Zebul said vnto him, The shadowe of the mountains seeme men vnto thee.

37 And Gaal spake againe, and said, See, there come people downe by the middle of the land, and another company cometh by the way of the plaine of Meonenim. {mid-dle: Heb. navel} {Meonenim: or, the regarders of times}

38 Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy mouth, that said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? Go out now, I pray thee, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 But Abimelech pursued him, and he fledde before him, and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the entering of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul drave out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 And it came to pass on the morowe, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech.

43 And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field; and he looked, and, behold, the people came forth out of the city: and he rose up against them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the companies that were with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two companies rushed upon all that were in the field, and smote them.

45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that company.
And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech.

And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and beheld, the people were come forth out of the city; and he rose up against them, and smote them.

And Abimelech, and the bands that were with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two other companies ran upon all the people that were in the fields and slew them.

And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard that, they entered into an hold of the house of the god Berith.

And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

And Abimelech gate him up to mount Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people that were with him, What ye have done day; and he took the city, and slew the people that was therein: and he beat down the city, and sowed it with salt.

And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard that, they entered into the hold of the house of El-berith.

Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

9 And the children of Ammon passed over Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sore distressed.

10 And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, saying, We have sinned: do thou unto us whatsoever seemeth good unto thee; only deliver us, we pray thee, this day.

11 And the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Did not I save you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, and from the children of Ammon, and from the children of Moab, and from the Philistines?

12 The Zidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, did oppress you; and ye cried unto me, and I delivered you out of their hand.

13 Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: wherefore I will save you no more.

14 Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

15 And the children of Israel said unto the LORD, We have sinned: do thou unto us whatsoever seemeth good unto thee; only deliver us, we pray thee, this day.

4 And it came to pass in process of time, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel. {in process...: Heb. after days}

5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob:

6 And they said unto Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight against the children of Ammon.

7 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father’s house? how then come you unto me now in time of my distress?

8 Then the Elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Is it not ye hate me, and drive me out of my father’s house? therefore are we turned again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight with the children of Ammon.

9 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight with the children of Ammon, and thou shalt be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

10 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Shall I be your head?

11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and Jephthah spake all his words before the LORD and the people made him head and chief over them:

12 And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come unto me to fight against the children of Ammon, and thou shalt be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

13 And the king of Ammon answered the Elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father’s house? why then do ye now come unto me when ye are in my land?

14 And the king of the children of Ammon answered Jephthah, Because Israel made war against Israel.

15 And when the children of Ammon fought with Israel, the elders of Gilead went to see Jephthah out of the land of Tob.

16 And they said unto Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight against the children of Ammon.

17 And Jephthah then answered the Elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father’s house? how then do ye now come unto me in time of your tribulation?

18 Then the Elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turne againe to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight with the children of Ammon, and bee our head ouer all the inhabitants of Gilead.

19 And Jephthah said vnto the Elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home againe to fight against the children of Ammon, and thou shalt be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

20 Therefore are we turned againe to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight with the children of Ammon, and I will be your head.

21 And Jephthah went with the Elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and chief over them: and Jephthah spake all his words before the LORD in Mizpah.

22 And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come unto me to fight against my land?

23 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, Because Israel made war against Israel.

24 And when the children of Ammon fought with Israel, the elders of Gilead went to see Jephthah out of the land of Tob.

25 And they said unto Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

26 And Jephthah then answered the Elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father’s house? how then do ye now come unto me in time of your tribulation?

27 Then the Elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turne againe to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight with the children of Ammon, and bee our head ouer all the inhabitants of Gilead.

28 And Jephthah said vnto the Elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home againe to fight against the children of Ammon, and thou shalt be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

29 Therefore are we turned againe to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight with the children of Ammon, and I will be your head.

30 And Jephthah went with the Elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and chief over them: and Jephthah spake all his words before the LORD in Mizpah.

31 And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come unto me to fight against my land?

the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land

20 But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

21 And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto Iabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan.

22 And they possessed all the border of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

23 So now the LORD God of Israel hath dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possess it?

25 And now art thou any thing better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them, 26 When Israel dwelt in Heshbon and in her townes, and in Aroer and in her townes, and in all the cities that be along by the coasts of Arnon, three hundreth yeeres? why did ye not then recover them in that space?

27 Wherefore I have not offended thee: but thou doest me wrong to warre against me. The Lord the Judge be judge this day betweene the children of Israel, and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not vnto the wordes of Iphtah, which he had sent him.

29 Then the Spirit of the Lord came vpon Iphtah, and he passed ouer to Gilead and to Manasseh, and came to Mizpeh in Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he went vnto the children of Ammon.

30 And Iphtah vowed a vowe vnto the Lord, and said, If thou shalt deliuer the children of Ammon into mine handes, 31 Then that thing that commeth forth of the doores of mine house to meete me, when I come home in peace from the children of Ammon, shall be the Lordes, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering.

32 And so Iphtah went vnto the children of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD delivered them into his hand.

33 And he smote them from Aroer until thou come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and unto Abel-cheramim, with a very great slaughter. So the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

34 And Jephthah came to Mizpah unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances: and she was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter.

35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the LORD, and I cannot go back.

36 And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD, do unto me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

37 Also she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: for I have opened my mouth unto the Lord, and I cannot go back.

38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and lamented her virginity upon the mountains.

when I called you, ye delivered me not out of their hands. 3  So when I saw that ye delivered me not, I put my life in mine hands, and went vpon the children of Ammon: so the Lord delivered them into mine handes. Wherefore then are ye come vpon me nowe to fight against me? 4  Then Iphthah gathered all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye Gileadites are runnagates of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites. 5  Also the Gileadites tooke the passages of Iorden before the Ephraimites, and when the Ephraimites that were escaped, saide, Let me passe, then the men of Gilead said vnto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay, 6  Then said they vnto him, Say now Shibboleth: and he said Sibboleth: for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him, and slew him at the passages of Jordan: and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites forty and two thousand. 7  And Iphthah judged Israel sixe yeere: then dyed Iphthah the Gileadite, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead. 8  After him Ibzan of Beth-lehem judged Israel,

And the children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord; and the Lord deliuered them into the handes of the Philistims fourtie yeere.
2 Then there was a man in Zorah of the familie of the Danites, named Manoah; and his wife was barren, and bare not.
3 And the angel of the Lord appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceive, and bear a son.
4 Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and drink no wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazirite unto God from the womb to the day of his death.
8 Then Manoah entreated the LORD, and said, Oh Lord, I pray thee, let the man of God whom thou didst send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born.
9 And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah her husband was not with her.
10 And the woman made haste, and ran, and told her husband, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day.
11 And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? And he said, I am.
12 And Manoah said, Now let thy words come to pass: what shall be the manner of the child, and what shall be his work?
13 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware.
14 She may not eat of any thing that cometh of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing; for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb: and he shall begin to saue Israel out of the handes of the Philistims.
15 And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, I pray thee, let us detain thee, that we may make ready a kid for thee.
16 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah,

Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread: and if thou wilt make a burnt offering, thou must offer it unto the LORD: for Manoah knew not that he was an angel of the LORD.
17 And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, What is thy name, that when thy sayings come to pass, we may do thee honour?

18 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is secret?

19 So Manoah took a kid with a meat offering, and offered it upon a rock unto the LORD: and the angel did wondrously; and Manoah and his wife looked on.

20 For it came to pass, when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife looked on it, and fell on their faces to the ground.

21 (So the Angel of the Lord did no more appear unto Manoah and his wife.) Then Manoah knew that he was an angel of the LORD.

22 And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because we have seen God.

23 But his wife said unto him, If the LORD were to kill us, he would not have received a burnt offering and a meal offering at our hands, neither would he have shewed us all these things, nor would he have told us such things as these.

24 And the woman bare a son, and called his name Samson: and the child grew, and the LORD blessed him.

25 And the spirit of the LORD began to move him in Mahaneh-dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.
25 And the Spirit of the Lord began to strength-en him in the host of Dan, betweene Zorah, and Eshtoal.

Nowe Samson went downe to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philis-tims,

2 And he came vp and told his father and his mother, to Timnah, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and, behold, a young Lyon roared against the Philistims: for at that time the Philistims reigned over Israel.

5 Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnah, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and, behold, a young Lyon roared against the Philistims: nowe therefore giue me her to wife.

4 But his father and his mother knewe not that it was of the Lord, that he should seeke an occasion against the Philistims: for at that time the Philistims reigned over Israel.

3 Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and, behold, a young Lyon roared against the Philistims: now threfore giue me her for me to wife.

2 And he came vp, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistims: now therefore get her for me to wife.

Is there never a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou must go to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistims? And Samson sayd vnto his father, Giue mee her, for she pleaseth me well.

And Samson said vnto his father, Giue mee her, for she pleaseth me well. {pleaseth...: Heb. is right in mine eyes}
6 And the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he tare him, as one should have rent a kid, and had nothing in his hand, neither told he his father nor his mother what he had done.
7 And he went down, and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.
8 And after a while he returned to take her, and he received her, he went aside to see the carcase of the lion: and, behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcase of the lion.
9 And he took thereof in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother, and gave unto them, and they did eat: but he told not them that he had taken the honey out of the body of the lion.
10 So his father went down unto the woman: and his father went down unto the woman: and he turned aside to see the carcase of the lion: and, behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcase of the lion.
11 And when they saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him.
12 And Samson said unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you: and if you can certainly declare it me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty change of garments: {sheets: or, shirts} 13 But if ye cannot declare it me, then shall ye give riddle.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samsons wife, Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy fathers house with fire: have ye called us to impoverish us? is it not so?

16 And Samsons wife wept before him, and said, Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle vnto the children of my peo... plowed with my heiffer, yee had not found out my riddle.

19 And the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, and he went downe to Ashkelon, and slew thirtie men of them, and took their spoil, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle. And his wrath was kindled, and he went vp to his fathers house.

20 Then Samsons wife was giuen to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.

But within a while after, in the time of wheate harvest, Samson visited his wife with a kid, saying, I wil go in to my wife into the chamber: but her father would not suffer him to go in.

2 And her father said, I verily thought that thou hadst utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she?

3 And Samson said concerning them, Now shall I be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do them a displeasure. {more...: or, blameless from the Philistines though, etc}

4 And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in ye middes between two tailes.

5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks and the standing corn, and also the oliveyards.

6 Then the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And they said, Samson, the son in law of the Timnite, because he hath taken his wife, and given her to his father's house. {spoil: or, apparel}

20 But Samson's wife was giuen to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.

But it came to pass after a while, in the time of wheate harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid; and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in.

2 And her father said, I thought that thou hadst utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to thy companion. Is not her yonger sister fayrer then she? take her, I pray thee, in stead of the other.

3 And Samson said unto them, This time shall I be blamelesse in regard of the Philistines, when I do them a mischief.

4 And Samson went, and tooke three hundreth foxes, and took firebrands, and turned them taile to taile, and put a firebrand in ye middes betweene two tailes.

5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks and the standing corn, and also the oliveyards.
And when he had set the brands on fire, he sent them out into the standing corne of the Philistims, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corne, with the vineyards and olives.

But surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him to his companion. And the Philistims came up, and burnt her and her father with fire.

They answered, Samson are we come vp, and to do to him as he hath done to us. Wherefore then hast thou done thus vnto vs? And he answered them, As they did vnto me, so have I done vnto them.

But surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him to his companion. And the Philistims came up, and burnt her and her father with fire.

And they answered, Samson are we come vp vnto vs? And they answered, To binde Samson are we come vp, and to do to him as he hath done to vs. And they answered, Samson are we come vp, and to do to him as he hath done to vs. Wherefore then hast thou done thus vnto vs? And he answered them, As they did vnto me, so have I done vnto them.

They answered, Samson are we come vp, and to do to him as he hath done to us. Wherefore then hast thou done thus vnto vs? And he answered them, As they did vnto me, so have I done vnto them.
12 And when he came unto Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the ropes that were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands dropped from off his hands.

13 And he found a new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand, and took it, and slew a thousand men therewith.

14 And Samson said, With the jawbone of an ass, heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men.

15 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place Ramath-lehi.

16 And he was sore athirst, and called on the LORD, and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised.

17 But God clave the hollow place that is in Lehi, and there came water thereout; and when he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived: wherefore the name thereof was called En-hakkore, which is in Lehi, unto this day.

6 And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, that is, the lifting up of the jawbone, or, casting away of the jawbone.

5 And the lords of the Philistines came up unto Delilah.

4 But God clave an hollow place that was in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Enhakkore, which is in Lehi unto this day.

3 And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and tooke the doores of the gates of the city, and were quiet all the nyght, saying, In the morning, when it is day, we shall kill him.

2 And it was tolde to the Azzahites, Samson is come hither. And they went about, and laied wayte for him all night in the gate of the citie, and were quiet all the nyght, saying, Abide till the morning early, and we shall kill him.

Then went Samson to Azzah, and sawe there an harlot, and went in vnto her.

Then went Samson to Gaza, and saw there an harlot, and went in unto her.

Then went Samson to Hebron.

2 And it was tolde the Gazites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they compassed him in, and laied wayte for him all night in the gate of the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, In the morning, when it is day, we shall kill him.

3 And Samson slept till midnight, and arose at midnight, and called on the Lord, and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?

Then God brake the cheeke tooth, that was in the jaw, and water came thereout: and when he had drunk, his Spirit came againe, and he was reuiued:

woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Deli-lah. {in...: or, by the brook}

5 And the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee.

6 And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee.

7 And Samson said unto her, If they bind me with seven green withes that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought her seven green withes which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. {green...: or, new cords: Heb.
moist} {another: Heb. one}

9 Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with pieces of silver. {afflict: or, humble}

10 And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: tell me where-cite, and the two postes and lift them away with the barres, and put them vpon his shoulders, and carried them vp to the top of the mountaine that is before

11 And he said unto her, If they only bind me with seven green withes that were never dried, then shall I become weak, and be as another man.

therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon

13 And Delilah said unto Samson, Hitherto thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: tell me where-wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee.

14 And Delilah said unto Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee.

15 And he said unto her, If they bind me with new ropes wherewith no work hath been done, then shall I become weak, and be as another man.

16 So Delilah took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And the liers in wait were abiding in the inner chamber. And he brake them from off his arms like a thread.
with thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her, If thou weavest the seven locks of my head with the web, and sayest these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth, then shall I be weak, and be as another man. (that never...: Heb.)

15 After Delilah said unto Samson, See, thou hast mocked me, and toldest mee lies. I pray thee nowe, tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound.

16 Then he answered her, If they bind me mee with newe ropes that never were occupied, then shall I be weak, and be as an other man.

17 Delilah therefore took newe ropes, and bound him therewith, and saide vnto him, The Philistines be vpon thee, Samson. And he brake them from off his armes, as a thread.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath told me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought the money in their hand.

19 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and he told her all his heart, and said unto her, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound.

20 Then she pressed him daily with her words, and vexed him, that his soul was vexed unto death.

21 And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, that his soul was vexed unto death.

22 And he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I have been a Nazirite unto God from my mother’s womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.

23 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath told me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought the money in their hand.

24 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and he awaked out of his sleep, and plucked away the pin of the beam, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web.
And they set him between the pillars. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times, and shake myself. But he wist not that the LORD was departed from him.

20 And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself, and his strength went from him.

21 And the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes; and they brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison house.

22 And the hear of his head began to growe againe, and he called a man, and made him to shaue off the seven lockes of his head, and shee began to vexe him, and his strength was gone from him.

23 And the lords of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.

24 And when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hand our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, which hath slain many of us.

25 And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison house; and he made sport before them: and they set him between the pillars.

26 And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times, and shake myself. But he wist not that the LORD was departed from him.

27 And he called unto the LORD, and said, O my Lord, save me this day, I pray thee, I pray thee. And he said unto him, I will shew thee that which thou dost not know.

28 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called a man, and made him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him.

29 There came up unto her, and brought money in their hand.

30 And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out now as at other times, and shake my selfe, but he knewe not that the Lord was departed from him.

31 Therefore the Philistines took him, and brought him downe to Azzah, and brought the money in their handes.
26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them.

27 Now the house was full of men and women; and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson played.

28 Then Samson called unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, I pray thee, strengthen me at this time onely, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house rested, and leaned upon them, the one with his right hand, and the other with his left.

30 And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life.

31 Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the buryingplace of Manoah his father. And he judged Israel twenty years.
And there was a man of the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Micah.
2 And he said unto his mother, The eleven hundred pieces of silver that were taken from thee, about which thou didst utter a curse, and didst also speak concerning them, I have restored to thee; and my soul shall be with the Lord.
3 And he restored the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother, and his mother said, I verily gave it; and my son restored the money out of mine hand for a thing of naught.
4 And when he restored the money unto his mother, his mother said, I verily gave it, and my son restored the money in mine hands again for a thing of naught.
5 And the man Micah had an house of gods, and he made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.
6 In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.
7 And there was a young man out of Beth-lehem-judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the city, out of Bethlehem-judah, to sojourn where he could find a place: and he came to the hill country of Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he journeyed.

9 And Micah said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, I am a Levite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place.

10 And Micah said unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me a father and a priest, and I will give thee ten pieces of silver by the year, and a suit of apparel, and thy victuals. So the Levite went in.

11 And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons.

12 And Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then said Micah, Now know I that the LORD will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest.
In those days there was no king in Israel; and in those days the tribe of Dan sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 Therefore the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts, men of valour, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: and they came to the hill country of Ephraim, unto the house of Micah, and lodged there.

3 When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned aside thither, and said unto him, Who art thou? And the young man was unto him as one of his sons.

4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus hath Micah dealt with me, and he hath hired me, and I am become his priest.

5 And they said unto him, Ask counsel, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And the priest said unto them, Go in peace: before the LORD is your way wherein ye go.

7 Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt and journeyed. [as he...: Heb. in making his way]

So the Leuite went in. {a suit...: or, a double suit, etc: Heb. an order of garments}

11 And the Leuite was content to dwel with the man; and the young man was vnto him as one of his owne sonnes.

12 And Michah consecrated the Leuite, and was in the house of Michah.
14 Then answered the five men that went to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who when they went by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou to do here?

4 And he answered them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hired me, and I am his priest.

5 Again they said unto him, Arise, and let us go up against that is in the earth. For we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are ye still? be not slothful to go and enter in to possess the land.

6 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people secure, and secure; and there was no magistrate in the land, that might put them to shame in any thing; and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man. For there was none in the land, possess land, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure; for there was no man made any trouble in the land, or surped any dominion: also they were farre from the Zidonians, and had no businesse with other men.

7 Then the five men departed and came to Laish, being turned in thither, they said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

9 And they answered, Arise, that we may goe vp against them: for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good: and are ye still? be not slouthful to goe, and to enter to possess the land.

10 When ye goe, ye shall come unto a people secur, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

14 Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said vnto their brethren, Do ye know that there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image? Nowe therefore consider what ye haue to do.

15 And they turned thitherward and came to the house of the yong man the Leuite, euen vnto the house of Micah, and saluted him. [saluted...: Heb.

18 And when these went into Micah’s house and fetched the graven image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image, the priest said unto them, What do ye?

19 And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest: is it better for thee to be priest unto the house of one man, or to be priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?

And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

Then the five men that went to spy out the land, went in thither, and took the graven image and the Ephod, and the Teraphim, and the molten image; and the Priest stood by the entering of the gate with the six hundred men, that were appointed with weapons of war,

And the other went into Michah's house and fetched the graven image, the Ephod, and the Teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the Priest vnto them, What doe ye?

And they answered him, Holde thy peace: lay thine hande vpon thy mouth, and come with vs to be our father and Priest. Whether is it better that thou shouldest be a Priest vnto ye house of one man, or that thou shouldest be a Priest vnto a tribe and to a familie in Israel?

And the Priestes heart was glad, and hee tooke the Ephod and the Teraphim, and the grauen image, and went among the people.

And they turned and departed, and put the children, and the cattell, and the substance before them. When they were farre off from the house of Michah, the men that were in the houses neere to Micahs house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.

And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company?

And he said, Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and are gone away, and what have I more? and how then say ye unto me, What aileth thee?

And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows fall upon you, and thou lose thy life, with the lives of thy household.

13 And they turned aside thither, to go in and to lodge at Gibeah: and when he went in, he sat him down in the street of the city; for there was no man that took him into his house to lodge.

18 And he said unto him, We are passing from Bethlehemjudah toward the side of mount Ephraim; from thence am I: and I went to Bethlehemjudah, but I am now going to the house of the LORD; and there is no man that receiveth me to house. {receiveth: Heb. gathereth}

19 Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the boy that is with thy servants: there is no want of any thing.

20 And the old man said, Peace be with thee; howsoever let all thy wants lie upon me; only lodge not in the street.

21 So he brought him into his house, and gave provender unto the asses: and they washed their feet, and did eat and drink.

22 As they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of Belial, beset the house round about, beating at the door; and they spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him.

23 And the man, the master of the house, went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay, my brethren, I pray you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into mine house, do not this folly.

24 Behold, here is my daughter a maiden, and his concubine; them I will bring out now, and humble ye them, and do with them what seemeth good unto you: but unto this man do not any such folly.

25 But the men would not hearken to him: so the man laid hold on his concubine, and brought her forth unto them; and they knew her, and abused her all the night until the morning: and when the day began to spring, they let her go.

26 Then came the woman in the dawning of the day and fell down at the door of the man’s house where her lord was, till it was light.

27 And her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way: and, behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, with her hands upon the threshold.

28 And he said unto her, Up, and let us be going: but none answered: then he took her up upon the ass; and the man rose up, and gat him unto his place.

29 And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and sent her throughout all the borders of Israel.

30 And it was so, that all that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day: consider of it, take counsel, and speak.
28 And he said unto her, Up, and let us be going. But none answered. Then the man took her up upon an ass, and the man rose up, and gat him unto his place.

29 And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the coasts of Israel.

30 And it was so, that all that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day: consider of it, take advice, and speak your minds.

Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the LORD at Mizpeh.

2 And the chiefs of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen that drew sword.

3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh.) Then said the children of Israel, Tell us, how was this wickedness committed?

Then all the children of Israel went up to Mizpah.) And the children of Israel said, Tell us, how was this wickedness brought to pass? And none answered. Then the man took her up upon an ass, and the man rose up, and gat him unto his place.

4 And the Levite, the husband of the woman that was murdered, answered and said, I came into Gibeah that belongeth to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge.

5 And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night; me they thought to have slain, and my concubine they forced, and she is dead.

6 And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel: for they have committed lewdness and folly in Israel.

7 Behold, ye children of Israel, all of you, give here your advice and counsel.

Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, vnto the Lord in Mizpeh.

2 And the chief of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God foure hundreth thousand footemen that drew sword.

3 (Now the children of Beniamin heard that the children of Israel were gone vp to Mizpah) Then said the children of Israel saide, Howe is this wickednesse committed?
4 And the Levite, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said, I came into Gibeah that belonged to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge.

5 And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night, and thought to have slain me: and my concubine have they forced, that she is dead. {forced: Heb. humbled}

6 And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel: for they have committed abomination and villenye in Israel.

7 Behold, ye are all children of Israel: give here your advice and counsel.

8 Then all the people arose as one man, saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn unto his house.

9 But now this shall be the thing which we will do to Gibeah: we wil goe vp by lot against it, and we will take ten men of an hundred through all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victual for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought in Israel.

11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together, as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is come to pass among you?

13 Now therefore deliver up the men, the sons of Belial, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel.

33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baaltamar:

34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: but they knew not that evil was near them.

35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and an hundred men: all they could handle the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin said: Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways.

37 And the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah.

38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke rise up out of the city.

39 And the men of Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle.

40 But when the cloud began to arise up out of the city in a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and, behold, the whole of the city went up in smoke to heaven.

41 And the men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle followed hard after them; and they which came out of the cities destroyed them in the midst thereof.

43 They enclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trode them down at their rest-place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar: and the men that lay in wayte of the Israelites came forth of their place, euen out of the medowes of Gibeah, and they came ouer against Gibeah, ten thousand chosen men of all Israel, and the battel was sore: for they knewe not that the euill was neere them.

35 And the Lord smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites the same day five and twenty thousand and an hundreth men: all they could handle the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin sawe that they were striken downe: for the men of Israel gaue place to the Benjamites, because they trusted to the liers in wait, which they had set beside Gibeah.

37 And the liers in wait hasted, and brake forth toward Gibeah, and the ambushment drewe them selues along, and smote all the citie with the edge of the sword. {drew...: or, made a long sound with the trumpet}

38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke rise vp out of the citie.

39 And when the men of Israel retired in the bat tel, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirtie persons: for they said, Surely they are striken downe before vs, as in the first battell.
39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle. {to smite...: Heb. to smite the wounded}

40 But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and, behold, the flame of the city ascended up to heaven. {the flame of: Heb. the whole consumption of}

41 And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them. {was come...: Heb. touched them}

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them: and them which came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them.

43 Thus they inclosed the Benjamites round about, and pursued them at ease, and overran them, even over against Gibeah toward the sunrising. {with ease...: or, from Menuchah, etc} {over...: Heb. unto over against}

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valour.

45 And they turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and followed hard after them unto Gidom, and smote of them two thousand men.

46 So that all which fell that day of Benjamin, were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of valour.

47 But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness vsnto the rocke of Rimmon, and abode in the place, as far as over against Gibeah toward the sunrising.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valour.

45 And they turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and followed hard after them unto Gidom, and smote of them two thousand men.

47 But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon, and abode in the place, as far as over against Gibeah toward the sunrising.
Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpeh, saying, None of us shall give his daughter unto Benjamin to wife.

2 And the people came to Beth-el, and sat there till even before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept sore.

3 And said, O LORD God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that this day one tribe of Israel should want?

4 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

5 And the children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that came not up in the assembly unto the LORD? For they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up unto the LORD to Mizpah, saying, He shall surely be put to death.

6 And the children of Israel repented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.

7 How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?

8 And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up unto the LORD to Mizpah?

9 Then came the men of Israel, and set up there an altar, and offer sacrifice, and ate and rejoiced, for the LORD had made them rejoice that day.

10 And afterward came the men of Benjamin, and said, How shall we do for wives for us? seeing we have left none of us to be left as a name, or that our tribes be numbered among all the tribes of Israel.

11 And the people of Israel answered them, saying, Surely ye have been righteous in all that ye have done, seeing ye have taken your brethren in pity, and have not given them into the hand of the Philistines. For I have heard that they will make war against you, and deliver you, for all Israel is in the hand of the Philistines.

12 And they said, We have found grace in the sight of our God, and in the sight of all the assembly of our brethren. Take them, and be unto us wives, and give us sons, that we may be populated, and that we may be numbered among all the people of Israel. And the people of Israel answered, and brought them wives from among all the tribes of Israel. And the Israelites gave them wives from the daughters of the Amalekites; and they gave them sons.

13 And it came to pass, when the Amalekites saw the towers of the Philistines, that they said, These is the sanctuary of the Israelites; and they turned away, and would not come thither.

14 And they turned aside, and were not come to Michmash, which is on the border of Benjamin.

15 And the men of Israel said, How shall we do for wives for us, seeing we have left none of us to be left as a name, or that our tribes be numbered among all the people of Israel? For the men of Israel repented them again unto the LORD, and said, We have sinned, because we have not stood on the LORD our God in fighting against our enemies.

16 And they sent messengers to the Philistines, saying, Return the things we left behind in the camp of the Philistines, and we will not dealing with them.

17 And the men of the Philistines answered, What things are these? And they said, It is of the kings, and of the princes of the land, and of the leaders of the people.

18 And they said, Take these things, and return unto the men of our brethren, and say, Behold, your things which were left behind in the camp of the Philistines are returned unto you.

19 And the men of the Philistines came, and brought them up from the camp of the Philistines, and delivered them into the hands of the Israelites.

20 And the Israelites took the Philistines' things, and slew them with a great slaughter, and fetched their spoil.

So the Israelites returned unto the camp at Mizpah, and the Philistines returned to their own places. And these were the men of valor that were numbered among the captains of Israel.

And the property of Benjamin was taken from the city of Benjamin, and all the men of Benjamin, great and small, were numbered among the army, and there were thirty thousand men in Benjamin.

HEBREW - WTT
And it came to pass in the days when the judges judged, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehem-judah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.

2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem-judah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there.

3 And Elimelech Naomi's husband died; and she was left, and her two sons.

4 And they took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died both of them; and the woman was left of her two sons and her husband.

6 Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had visited his people in giving them bread.

7 Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her; and they went on the way to return unto the land of Judah.

8 And Naomi said unto her two daughters in law,
Go, return each of you to her mother’s house: the LORD deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me.

9 And the LORD grant you that ye may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them; and they lifted up their voice, and wept.

10 And they said unto her, Nay, but we will return unto her land, and unto her people, and unto her god: return thou with thee unto thy people.

11 And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters: why will ye go with me? are there yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have an husband. If I should have an husband also to-night, yea, if I had borne sons, would ye therefore tarry till they were grown?

13 Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? nay, my daughters; for it grieveth me much for your sakes, for the hand of the LORD is gone forth against me.

14 And they lift up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother in law; but Ruth clave unto her.

15 And she said, Behold, thy sister in law is gone back unto her people, and unto her god: return thou after thy sister in law.
16 And Ruth said, Intreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God:
17 Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: the Lord do so to me, and more also, if ought but death depart thee and me.
18 Whe she saw that she was stedfastly minded to go with her, she left speaking vnto her.
19 So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to Beth-lehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they said, Is not this Naomi?
20 And she said unto them, Call me not Naomi, call me Mara: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me. {Naomi: that is, Pleasant} {Mara: that is, Bitter}
21 I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again empty: why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me?
22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, daughter in law with her, which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of barley harvest.
Then Naomi had a kinsman of her husband’s; a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was Boaz. {Boaz: Gr. Booz}

2 And Ruth ye Moabitess said vnto Naomi, I pray thee, Let me go to the field, and gather eares of corne after him, in whose sight I finde fauour. And she saide vnto her, Goe my daughter.

3 And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: so she came, and hadh continued even from the morning until now, that she said vnto her, Go, my daughter.

4 And, behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said vnto the reapers, The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless thee.

5 Then saide Boaz vnto his seruant that was ap pointed ouer the reap, Whose damsel is this?

6 And the servuant that was set over the reapers, answered, and said, It is the Moabitish damsel that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab: and she said vnto her, Goe my daughter.

7 And she said vnto vs, I pray you, let mee gleane and gather after the reapers among the sheaues: so she came, and hath continued from that time in the field, and gleaned in the sheaues acher whos shee met, and her hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech, and his name was Boaz.

8 Then said Boaz vnto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither pass from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens.

And Naomi had a kinsman of her husband’s, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was Boaz.
morning unto now, saue that she taried a little in the house.

8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? goe to none other feldes to gather, neither goe from hence: but abide here by my maydens.

9 Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and goe thou after the maydains, that they touche thee not? Moreover, when thou art a thirst, goe vrnto ye vessels, and drinke of that which ye seruants haue drawn.

10 Then shee fell on her face, and bowed her selfe to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thy sight, that thou shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger?

11 And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been shewed me, all that thou hast done unto thy mother in lawe, since the death of thine husband, and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come vnto a people which thou knewest not heretofore.

12 The Lord recompense thy worke, and a ful re reward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust.

13 Then she said, Let me finde fauour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken friendly unto thine handmaid, though I be not like unto one of thine handmaidens. {Let me be not like unto one of thine handmaidens.}}

9 Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and goe thou after them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which ye seruants have drawen.

10 Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thy sight, that thou shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger?

11 And Boaz answered, and said vnto her, All is told me, seeing I am a stranger?

12 The LORD recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust.

13 Then she said, Let me finde fauour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken friendly unto thine handmaid, though I be not like unto one of thine handmaidens. {Let me be not like unto one of thine handmaidens.}
14 And Boaz said unto her, At mealtime come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dippe thy morsell in the vinegar. And she sate beside the reapers: and he reached her parched corn, and she did eat, and was sufficed, and left thereof.

15 And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his seruants, saying, Let her gather among the sheaues, and doe not rebuke her.

16 Also let fall some of the sheaues for her, and leave it, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field until even; and she beat out that she had gleaned, and it was about an Ephah of barley.

18 And she took it up, and went into the city: and her mother in law saw what she had gleaned: Also she tooke forth, and gaue to her that which she had reserved, when she was sufficed.

19 Then her mother in law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he that did take knowledge of thee. And she shewed her mother in law with whom she had wrought, and said, The mans name with whom I wrought to day is Boaz.

20 And Naomi said unto her daughter in law, Blessed be he of the Lord, who hath not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is nigh of kin unto us, one of our near kinsmen.

21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, Yea, he said unto me, Thou shalt keep fast by my young men, until 14 And Boaz said vnto her, At the meale time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dippe thy morsell in the vineger. And she sat beside the reap- ers, and hee reached her parched corne: and shee did eate, and was sufficed, and left thereof.

15 And when she arose to gleane, Boaz commanded his seruants, saying, Let her gather among the sheaues, and doe not rebuke her.

16 Also let fall some of the sheaues for her, and let it lie, that she may gather it vp, and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field vntill euening, and she thresshed that shee had gathered, and it was about an Ephah of barly.

18 And she tooke it vp, and went into the citie, and her mother in law saw what she had gathered: Also she tooke foorth, and gaue to her that which she had reserued, when she was sufficed.

19 Then her mother in law saide vnto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he, that knewe thee. And she shewed her mother in lawe, with whome she had wrought, and saide, The mans name, with whom I wrought to day, is Boaz.

20 And Naomi said vnto her daughter in law, Blessed be he of the LORD, who hath not left off his kindess to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is nigh of kin unto us, one of our near kinsmen.

Afterward Naomi her mother in law said vnto her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest for thee, that it may be well with thee?

And Naomi her mother in law said vnto her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest for thee, that it may be well with thee?

2 And now is there not Boaz our kinsman, with whose maides thou wast? Behold, he winnoweth barley to-night in the threshing-floor.

22 And Naomi answered vnto Ruth her daughter in law, It is best, my daughter, that thou goe out with his maides, that they meete thee not in an other fielde.

5 And she said unto her, All that thou sayest I will do.

6 And she went down unto the threshing-floor, and did according to all that her mother in law bade her.

in rest, until he have finished the thing this day.

Then went Boaz up to the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz spake came by: unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down.

2 And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

3 And he said unto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come againe out of the countrey of Moab, will sell a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelechs.

4 And I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy it befor the assistants, and before the Elders of my people. If thou wilt redeeme it, redeeme it: but if thou wilt not redeeme it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none besides thee to redeeme it, and I am after thee. Then he answered, I will redeeme it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitesse the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

6 And the kinsman answered, I can not redeeme it, for I cannot redeem it. lest I marre mine own inheritance, redeem thou my right of redemption on thee; for I cannot redeem it.

7 Then he answered, I will redeeme it.

8 And I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy it before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeeme it, redeeme it: but if thou wilt not redeeme it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none besides thee to redeeme it, and I am after thee. Then he answered, I will redeeme it.

9 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitesse the wife of the dead, to stirre vp the name of the dead, vpon his inheritance.

10 Now this was the custom in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging.
7 Now this was the manner in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and changing concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee. So he drew off his shoe.

9 And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilions and Mahlons, of the hand of Naomi.

10 Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, haue I bought to be my wife, to stirre vp the name of the dead vpou his inheritance, and that the name of the dead be not put out from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. The LORD make the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

12 And that thine house be like the house of Pharez, and like Leah, which twaine did build the house of Israel:

13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and the LORD gave her of this yong woman.

and he went in unto her, and the Lord gave her his neighbour, and this was a sure witnes in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman sayd to Boas, Buy it for thee: and he drew off his shoe.

9 And Boaz sayd vnto the Elders and vnto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I haue bought all that was Elimelechs, and all that was Chilions and Mahlons, of the hand of Naomi.

10 And moreover, Ruth the Moabistesse the wife of Mahlon, haue I bought to be my wife, to stirre vp the name of the dead vpou his inheritance, and that the name of the dead be not put out from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are wit- nesses this day.

all things: a man did plucke off his shoee, and gauue it to his neighbour, and this was a sure witnes in Israel.

Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite:

2 And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 And this man went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests unto the LORD, were there.

4 And when the day came that Elkanah offered, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters portions:

5 But unto Hannah he gave a double portion: for he loved Hannah, but the LORD had shut up her womb.

6 And her adversary vexed her sore, forasmuch as the LORD had made her barren.

7 (And so did he year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat. {when...: or, from the time that she, etc: Heb. from her going up}

8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why makest thou fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb.

9 So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh,
9 So Hannah rose up after that they had eaten and drunk in Shiloh (and Eli the priest sate upon a stoole by one of the postes of the Temple of the Lord)

10 And she was troubled in her minde, and prayed vnto the Lord, and wept sore:

11 Also she vowed a vowe, and sayd, O Lord of hosts, if thou wilt looke on the affliction of thine handmaide, and remember me, and not forfet thine handmaide, but giue vnto thine handmaide a man childe, then I will giue him vnto the Lord all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come vpon his head.

12 And as she continued praying before the Lord, Eli marked her mouth.

13 Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voyce was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had bene drunken.

14 And Eli said vnto her, Howe long wilt thou be drunken? Put away thy drunkennesse from thee.

15 Then Hannah answered and sayd, Nay my lord, I am a woman troubled in spirit: I haue drunke neither wine nor strong drinke, but haue powred out my soul.

16 Count not thine handmaide for a daughter of Belial: for of the abundance of my complaint and my provocation have I spoken hitherto.
24 And when she had weaned him, she took him up griefe haue I spoken hitherto.
17 Then Eli answered, and sayd, Go in peace, and and the God of Israel graunt thy petition that thou hast asked of hym.
18 She sayd againe, Let thine handmayd finde grace in thy sight: so the woman went her way, and did deate, and looked no more sad.
19 Then they rose vp early, and worshipped before the Lord, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah. Nowe Elkanah knewe Hannah his wife, and the Lord remembred her.
20 For in processe of time Hannah conceiued, and bare a sonne, and she called his name Samuel, Be-because, said she, I haue asked him of the Lord.
21 So the man Elkanah and all his house went vp to offer vnto the Lord the yeerely sacrifice, and his vowe:
22 But Hannah went not vp: for she sayd vnto her husband, I will tarie vntill the childe be weined, then I will bring him, that hee may appeare before the Lord, and there abide for euer.
23 And Elkanah her husband sayd vnto her, Do what seemeth thee best: tarry vntill thou have weined him; only the Lord establish his word. So the woman tarried and gave her son suck, until she woman tarried and gave her son suck, until she weaned him.

And then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide for ever.

23 And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; for only the LORD establish his word. So the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

24 And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks, and one ephah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the LORD in Shiloh: and the child was young.

25 And they slew a bullock, and brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, Oh my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD.

27 For this child I prayed; and the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him:

28 Therefore also I have lent him to the LORD; as long as he liveth he is granted to the LORD. And she brought him unto the priest Eli.

And Hannah prayed, and said, My heart rejoiceth in the Lord, mine horn is exalted in the Lord:

with her, with three bullocks, and one ephah of meal,
and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the LORD in Shiloh: and the child was young.

he worshipped the LORD there.

And Hannah prayed, and said, Mine heart rejoiceth in the Lord, mine horn is exalted in the Lord: my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; because I rejoice in thy salvation.

2 There is none holy as the LORD; for there is none beside thee: neither is there any rock like our God.

3 Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let not arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by him actions areweighed.

4 The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled are girded with strength.

5 They that were full have hired out themselves for out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: the Lord shall judge the ends of the world, and shall give power unto his King, and exalt the horn of his Anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house, and the childe did minister vnto the Lord before Eli the Priest.

12 Now the sons of Eli were wicked men, and knewe not the Lord.

13 For the Priestes custome toward the people was this: when any man offered sacrifice, the Priestes boy came, while the flesh was seething, and a fleshhooke with three teeth, in his hand,

14 And thrust it into the kettle, or into the caldron, or into the panne, or into the potte: all that the fleshhook brought up, the priest took for himselfe: thus they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites, that came thither.

15 Yea, before they burnt the fat, the Priestes boy came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to rost for the priest: for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw.

16 And if any man said vnto him, Let them burne the fat presently, and then take as much as thy soul desireth; then he would answer him, Nay; but 17 And the sinne of the young men was very great before the Lord: for men abhorred the offering of the Priest.

18 But Samuel ministered before the Lord, being a child, girded with a linen ephod.

19 Moreover his mother made him a little robe, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The Lord give thee seed of this woman for the loan which was lent to the Lord. And they went unto

26 (Now the child Samuel profited and grew, and was in favour both with the Lord and also with men)

27 And there came a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Did I plainly appear unto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house?

28 And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, and to burn incense, and to wear an ephod before me, and I gave unto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel.

29 Wherefore kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have commanded in my habitation; and honourest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the Lord saith, It shall not be so: for them that honour me, I will unto the house of thy father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire?

Wherefore kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have commanded in my habitation; and honourest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the Lord saith, It shall not be so: for them that honour me, I will unto the house of thy father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire?

31 Behold, the days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt behold the affliction of my habitation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and there shall not be an old man in thine house for ever.

33 And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increase of thine house shall die in the flower of their age.

34 And this shall be the sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas; honour, and they that despise me shall be despised.

31 Behold, the days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt see an enemy in my habitation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and there shall not be an old man in thine house for ever.

33 Neuerthelesse, I will not destroy euery one of thine from mine altar, to make thine eyes to faile, and to make thine heart sorowfull: and all ye multitude of thine house shall die when they be men.

34 And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, that shall come vpon thy two sonnes Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die both.

35 And I will stirre me vp a faithfull Priest, that shall do according to that which is in mine heart and in my mind: and I wil build him a sure house; and he shall walk before mine Anointed for ever.

36 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thine house shall come and bowe downe to him for a piece of siluer and a morsell of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priests offices, that I may eate a morsel of bread.

in one day they shall die both of them.

35 And I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in mine heart and in my mind: and I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before mine anointed for ever.

36 And all that are left in thine house, shall come and bowe downe to him for a piece of siluer and a morsell of bread, and shall say, Appoint me, I pray thee, to one of the priestes offices, that I may eate a morsel of bread.
And the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before Eli. And the word of the LORD was precious in those days: there was no open vision.

2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not see;

3 And ere the lamp of God went out in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was, Samuel lay down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not see;

4 That the LORD called Samuel: and he answered, Here am I.

5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again.

6 And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And he went and lay down.

7 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he went and lay down.

8 Then the Lord called Samuel: and he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again.

9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak,
And the LORD called Samuel again the third time: and they arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child.

Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth.

And Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he said, Here am I.

And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath spoken unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide it not from me. God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide it not from me.

Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and if he call thee, then say, Speak, LORD, for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and slept in his place.

And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak; for thy servant heareth.

Then Samuel said, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went, and slept in his place.

And it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle.

And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli’s house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

And the iniquity of Eli’s house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.
And the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Eben-zer: and the Philistines pitched in Aphek.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

3 And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us today before the Philistines? Let as fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh, that he may go out again, and save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 And one of the elders of Israel answered, and said, Are not the breasts of all of us equal? is one man more than another in Israel? why then doth thy servant speak these words? consider, I pray thee, that I am an old man, and full of leanness.

5 And he answered, Say not so, my lord Samuel; I have not failed to speak all that was in mine heart.

6 And Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have heard thy voice in saying, Say not so.

7 Now therefore hear me, thou people.

8 For the LORD did not send me to notify thee of sin, but of things that are good.

9 And the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh, and come hither: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Eli the priest, and his sons.

10 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth resonated.

11 And the Philistines heard the noise of the shout of shouting of Israel: and they said: What is this noise of shouting in the camp of the Hebrews? Now the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come abroad into the camp of the Hebrews.

12 And the earth quaked, because of the noise of shouting; and the Philistines said, The gods are come in to fight with us."
And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men. {they}

3 So when the people were come into the camp, the Elders of Israel said, Wherefore hast the Lord smitten vs this day before ye Philistines? let vs bring the Arke of the covenant out of Shiloh vsnto vs, that when it commeth among vs, it may save vs out of the hande of our enemies.

4 Then the people sent to Shiloh, and brought from thence the Arke of the covenant of the Lord of hosts, who dwelleth betwixt the Cherubims: and there were the two sonds of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the Arke of the covenant of the Lord came into the hoste, all Israel shouted a mighty shoute, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistims heard the noyse of the shoute, they said, What meaneth the sound of this mightie shoute in the host of the Ebrewes? and they understoode, that the Arke of the Lord was come into the hoste.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, and saide, God is come into the hoste: therefore saide they, Wo vnto us, that it may come among us, and save us out of the hande of our enemies.

8 Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hande of our enemies? these are the gods that smote the Egyptians with all manner of plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined the battell, Israel was smitten downe before the Philistines: who slewe of the armie in the field about foure thousand men.

3 Then the people sent to Shiloh, and brought from thence the Arke of the covenant of the Lord of hosts, who dwelleth betwixt the Cherubims: and there were the two sonds of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

4 Then the people sent to Shiloh, and brought from thence the Arke of the covenant of the Lord of hosts, who dwelleth between the Cherubims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the Lord came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, that when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hande of our enemies.

6 And when the Philistims heard the noyse of the shoute, they said, What meaneth the sound of this mighty shoute in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, and said, God is come into the camp: therefore said they, Wo vnto vs: for it hath not bene so heretofore.
7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us!

for there hath not been such a thing heretofore. {heretofore: Heb. yesterday, or, the third day}

8 Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mightie Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistims, that ye be not servants unto the Ebrewes, as they haue serued you: be valiant therefore, and fight.

10 And the Philistims fought, and Israel was smitten downe, and fled every man into his tent: and there was an exceeding great slaughter: for there fell of Israel thirtie thousand footemen.

11 And the Arke of God was taken, and the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas died.

12 And there ranne a man of Beniamin out of the armie, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head.

13 And when he came, loe, Eli sat upon a seate by the way side watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth this tumult? And the man hasted and came and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety and eightie yeere olde, and his eyes were dimme that hee could not see.

16 And the man said unto Eli, I am he that came out of the army, and I fled today out of the army. And he said, How went the matter, my son?

17 And he that brought the tidings answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God is taken.
14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli.
15 Now Eli was nine and eight years old; and his eyes were dim, that he could not see. {were dim: Heb. stood}
16 And the man said unto Eli, I am he that came out of the army, and I fled this day out of the hoste: and he said, What is there done, my son? {is...: Heb. is the thing}
17 Then the messenger answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistims, and there hath bene also a great slaughter among the people: and moreouer thy two sonnes, Hophni and Phinehas are dead, and the Arke of God is taken.
18 And when he had made mention of the Arke of God, Eli fell from his seate backward by the side of the gate, and his necke was broken, and he died: for he was an olde man and heauie: and he had iudged Israel fourtie yeeres.
19 And his daughter in lawe Phinehas' wife was with child neere her trauell: and when she heard the report that the Arke of God was taken, and that her father in lawe and her husband were dead, she bowed her selfe, and trauailed: for her pains came vpon her.
20 And about the time of her death, the women that stood by her said unto her, Feare not: for thou hast borne a sonne: but she answered not, nor regarded it.
21 And she named the childe Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel, because the Arke of God was taken, and because of her father in lawe and her husband.
22 And she said, The glory is departed from Israel; for the ark of God is taken.

18 And it came to pass, when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off his seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck brake, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.
19 And his daughter in law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed; for her pains came upon her. {be delivered: or, cry out} {came: Heb. were turned}
And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from Eben-ezer unto Ashdod.

2 And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon.

3 And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the threshold; only the stump of Dagon was left to him.

4 And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; and they took Dagon, and set him in his place again.

5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon’s house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, unto this day.

6 But the hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with tumours, even Ashdod and the borders thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon our god.

8 They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of Ashdod, unto this day.

9 And they brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon.

10 And the glory is departed from Israel: because the ark of God is taken.

11 A man of Ashdod said, What shall I do? And a man said, Shall it not be so, that the ark of the Lord went from Israel unto the house of Dagon?

12 When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it from Eben-ezer unto Ashdod.

13 And when they of Ashdod rose the next day in the morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; and they took it from Ashdod unto Ekron: and when they brought it into the house of Dagon, it came to pass, that Dagon said, I will return again: for I fell down at the first before a god.

14 But when the ark of the LORD came into Ashdod, the hand of the LORD was severe upon Ashdod and upon the people of Ashdod: and he smote the people of Ashdod with tumours: and he smote Ashdod also, and all the borders thereof.

15 Therefore the men of Ashdod said, We shall not again make mention of the ark of the Lord: and it came even to pass, that the ark of the Lord remained with the family of Ahimelech the priest.

16 And when the Israelites were passed over the Jordan, the house of Phinehas the son of Eleazar the son of Aaron took it.

17 And it came to pass, that there was no son to Aaron, because the Lord said, Let no one of the house of Aaron be among the deacons for life, because they offered the bread of their God with levity: behold, a fire is come forth from the Lord, and hath consumed them.

18 Now the Philistines had taken the ark of God, and they brought it from Eben-ezer unto Ashdod.

19 And when Phinehas the son of Eleazar the son of Aaron took it, he went up from Ashdod unto Lel: he went up from Lel, and came unto Hebron.

20 And about the time of her death the women that stood by her said unto her, Fear not: for thou hast born a son. But she answered not, neither did she regard it. (neither...: Heb. set not her heart) of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither.

9 And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction, and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

10 Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron: and as soone as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither.

11 They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath: and they carried the ark of the God of Israel about.

9 And when they had carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction, and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

10 Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron: and as soone as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither.

11 They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath: and they carried the ark of the God of Israel about.
And the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months.

2 And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith we shall send it to its place.

3 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty; but in any wise return him a guilt offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you.

4 Then said they, What shall be the guilt offering which we shall return to him? They answered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines: for one plague was on you all, and on your lords.

5 Wherefore ye shall make images of your tumours, and images of your mice that mar the land; and ye shall give glory unto the God of Israel: peradventure he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land:

6 Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when he had wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go and they departed?

7 Now therefore take and prepare you a new cart,
The number of the princes of the Philistines: for one plague was on you all, and on your princes.
5 Wherefore ye shall make the similitudes of your emerods, and the similitudes of yourmise that destroy the land: so ye shall give glory unto the God of Israel, that he may take his hand from you, and from your gods, and from your land.
6 Wherefore then should ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts?
7 Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on which there hath come no yoke, and tie them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home:
8 And take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which ye return him for a trespass offering, in a coffer by the side thereof;
9 And see, if it goeth up by the way of his own coast and send it away, that it may go.
10 And the men did so; and took two milch kine, and milked them to the cart, and brought their calves home from them:
11 And they put the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their tumours.
12 And the kine took the straight way by the way to Beth-shemesh; they went along the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh.
13 And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.
14 And the kine went by the way to Beth-shemesh, then he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us, it was a chance that happened to us.
15 And see, if it goeth up by the way of its own coast and send it away, that it may go.
16 And the men did so: for a guilt offering, in a coffer by the side thereof;
17 And the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their tumours.
18 And they did so: and took two kine that gaue milke, and tied them to the cart, and shut the eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.
11 And they laid the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their emerods.

12 And the kine took the straight way to the way of Beth-shemesh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left: and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh.

13 And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Beth-shemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they clave the wood of the cart, and offered up the kine for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

15 And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and offered the kine for a burnt offering unto the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and they clave the wood of the cart, and offered sacrifices the same day unto the LORD.

16 And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

17 And these are the golden emerods which the Philistines returned for a guilt offering unto the LORD: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Ashkelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one; and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their emerods.

18 and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities and of country villages: even unto the great stone, wherein they set down the ark of the LORD, which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite.

19 And he smote of the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD, even he smote of the people seventy men, and fifty thousand men: and the people mourned, because the similitudes of their emerods.

20 And the kine sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the LORD.
And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and 19 And he smote of the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked in the ark of the Lord: he slew even among the people fifty thousand men and three score and ten men. and the people lamented, because the Lord had slain the people with so great a slaughter.

20 And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God? and to whom shall he go up from us?

Then the men of Kirjath-jearim came, and took up the ark of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the Lord.

And it came to pass, from the day that the ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented after the Lord.

3 And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the Lord with all your heart, then put away the strange gods and the Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the Lord, and serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away the Baals, both of fenced cities, and of country villages,

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and Philistims gaue for a sinne offering to the Lord: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, and for Ekron one,

18 And golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistims, belonging to the five princes, both of walled townes, and of townes vn-walled, unto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set the Arke of the Lord: which stone remaineth unto this day in the fielde of Ioshua the Beth-she 21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistims haue brought againe the Arke of the Lord: which stone remaineth unto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set the Arke of the Lord: which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite.

And the men of Kirjath-jearim came, and fetched up the ark of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the Lord.
of Abinadab in the hill: and they sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

2 (For while the ark abode in Kirjath-earim, the time was long, for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

3 Then Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the LORD, and serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of ye Philistims.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and served the Lord onely.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you unto the Lord.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

7 When the Philistims heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the princes of the Philistims went vp against Israel: and when the children of Israel heard that, they were afraid of the Philistims.

8 And the children of Israel sayd to Samuel, Cease to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistims.

9 And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a whole burnt offering unto the LORD: and Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel; and the LORD answered him.

10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistims drew near to battle against Israel:
but the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistims, and discomfited them; and they were smitten down before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah, and pursued the Philistims, and smote them, until they came under Beth-car.
12 Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and called the name of it Ebenezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.

13 So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more into the border of Israel: and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron unto Gath: and Israel delivered the coasts of the same out of the hands of the Philistines: and there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.
And it came to pass, when Samuel was old, that he made his sons judges over Israel.

2 Now the name of his firstborn was Joel; and the name of his second, Abiah: they were judges in Beer-sheba.

3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment.

4 Wherefore all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah:

5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all nations.

6 But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the LORD.

7 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto their voice: howbeit when they say unto thee, Deliver us from man: for it is because they have forsaken the LORD, and have not worshipped in his sanctuary, that he hath removed them from before thee.

8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, in that they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit thou shalt protest solemnly unto them, and shalt peace betweene Israel and the Amorites.

15 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

16 And went about yeere by yeere by Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places.

17 Afterward he returned to Ramah: for there was his house, and there he judged Israel: also he built an altar there vnto the Lord.
And Samuel told all the words of the LORD unto the people that asked of him a king.

10 And he said, This shall be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: he will take your sons, and appoint them unto him for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

11 And he said, This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over them: he will take your sons, and appoint them unto him for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

12 Also he will make them his captains over thousands, and captains over fifties, and will set them to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

13 He will also take your daughters and make them unto the people that ask of him a king.

14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give to his officers, and to his servants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, even the best of them, and give to his officers, and to his servants.

16 And he will take the tenth of your flocks: and ye shall not reject the thee, but they have rejected me, 17 He will take the tenth of your flocks: and ye shall be his servants.

18 And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the LORD will not answer you in that day.

19 But the people refused to hearken unto the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay; but we will have a king over us;

20 That we also may be like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.

21 Therefore when Samuel heard all ye words of ye people, he rehearsed them in ye ears of ye Lord.

22 And the LORD said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a King. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go ye every man unto his city.
Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a Benjamite, a mighty man of valour.

2 And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a young man and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people.

3 And the asses of Kish Saul’s father were lost. And Kish said to his son that was with him, Come and let us return; lest my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought for us.

4 And he passed through mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

5 And when they were come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come and let us return; lest my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought for us.

6 And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honourable man; all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.

7 Then said Saul to his servant, Well then, let us now go thither; peradventure he can shew us what way we may goe. So the servant of Saul said, Let us turn back again and go. But the servant of the Lord said to Saul his master, Behold, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honourable man; all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.

8 And he said to his servant that was with him, Come and let us return; lest my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought for us.

9 And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honourable man; all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.
7 Then said Saul to his servant, But, behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what have we? {is spent:...}

8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have here in my hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way. {I have...: Heb. there is found in my hand}

9 (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to enquire of God, thus he said, Come, and let us go to the Seer: for he that is now called a Prophet, was in the old time called a Seer.)

10 Then said Saul to his servant, Well said: come, let us go. So they went into the city where the man of God was. {Well said: Heb. Thy word is good}

11 And as they were going up the ascent to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here? {the hill...: Heb. in the ascent of the city}

12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before thee: make haste now, for he is come to day into the city: for the people have a sacrifice in the high place:

13 As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall find him, before he go up to the high place: for the people will not eat until he come, and then eate: for the people will not eat until he come, be he is before thee: make haste now, for he is come to day into the city:

14 And as they were going vp the hie way to the city, they found maydes that came out to draw wa

15 ing our journey wheareon we go.

16 That then said Saul to his servant, But, behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what have we?

17 8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have found about me the fourth part of a shekel of siluer: that will I giue to the man of God, to tell vs our way.

18 9 (Beforetime in Israel when a man went to seeke an answere of God, thus he spake, Come, and let vs go to the Seer: for he that is called nowe a Prophet, was in the olde time called a Seer)
14 And they went up into the city: and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, to goe vp to the high place.

15 Now the LORD had revealed unto Samuel a day before Saul came, saying, tomorrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin: him shalt thou anoint to be governor over my people Israel, that he may save my people out of the hands of the Philistines:

16 To morrow about this time I will send thee a man from the gate of the city, that shall come unto thee, and he shall say unto thee, Behold the man whom I spake to thee of! this is the man of whom I spake to thee of!

17 When Samuel therefore sawe Saul, the Lord answered him, See, this is the man whom I spake to thee of! this is the man of whom I spake to thee of!

18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the Seers house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the Seer: goe vp before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me today: and in the morning I will let thee go.

20 And as for thine asses that were lost three dayes ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And for whom is set all the desire of Israel? is it not vpon thee and on all thy fathers house?
21 But Saul answered, and said, Am not I the sonne of Iemini of the smallest tribe of Israel? and my familie is the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin. Wherefore then speakest thou so to me?

22 And Samuel tooke Saul and his servant, and brought them into the chamber, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden: which were about thirtie persons.

23 And Samuel said vnto the cooke, Bring forth the portion which I gaue thee, and whereof I said vnto thee, Keepe it with thee.

24 And the cooke tooke vp the shoulder, and that which was vpon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Beholde, that which is left, set it before thee, and eate: for hitherto hath it bene kept for thee, saying, Also I haue called the people. So Saul did eate with Samuel that day.

25 And when they were come downe from the hie place into the citie, he communed with Saul vpon the top of the house.

26 And when they arose early about ye spring of the day, Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out, both he, and Samuel.

27 And when they were come downe from the ende of the citie, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the seruant goe eat with me to day, and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart.

20 And as for thine asses that were lost three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on thee, and on all thy father’s house? {three...: Heb. to day three days}

21 But Saul answered, and said, Am not I the sonne of Iemini of the smallest tribe of Israel? and my familie is the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin. Wherefore then speakest thou so to me? {so...: Heb. according to this word}

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee.

24 And the cook took up the shoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which hath been kept for thee since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

25 And when they were come down from the high place into the city, he communed with Saul vpon the top of the house.

26 And when they arose early about ye spring of the day, Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out, both he, and Samuel.

27 And when they were come downe from the ende of the citie, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the seruant goe eat with me to day, and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart.
31 After that thou shalt come to the hill of God, place into the city, Samuel communed with Saul upon the top of the house.

When they arose early: and it came to pass about the spring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.

Then Saul took a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because the LORD hath anointed thee to be captain over his inheritance?

Then Saul took the vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because the LORD hath anointed thee to be prince over his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not that I may shew thee the word of God. {a while: Heb. us, (and he passed on,) but stand thou still a while, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he went) but stand thou still nowe, that I may shew thee the worde of God.

3 Then shalt thou go on forward from thence, and thou shalt come to the plain of Tabor, and there shall stand thee still at this place, saying, What shall I do for my son? {care: Heb. business} As they were going down to the end of the city, they found two men by Rachel's sepulchre, in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they said, And, lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and soroweth for you, saying, What shall I doe for my son?

2 When thou art departed from me today, then thou shalt find two men by Rachel's sepulchre, in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek are found: and, lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and soroweth for you, saying, What shall I do for my son? {care: Heb. business}

27 As they were going down at the end of the city, they found two men by Rachel's sepulchre, in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they said, And, lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and soroweth for you, saying, What shall I doe for my son?

2 When thou shalt depart from me this day, thou shalt finde two men by Rahels sepulchre, in the border of Beniamin, euen at Zelzah, and they will say vnto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seeke, are founde: and, lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and soroweth for you, saying, What shall I doe for my son? {care: Heb. business}

2 When thou art departed from me to day, then thou shalt finde two men by Rahels sepulchre in the border of Beniamin, euen at Zelzah, and they will say vnto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seeke, are founde: and, lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and soroweth for you, saying, What shall I doe for my son? {care: Heb. business}

27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, they found two men by Rachel's sepulchre, in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek are found: and, lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and soroweth for you, saying, What shall I do for my son? {care: Heb. business} meet thee three men going up to God to Bethel, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine:

And they will salute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread; which thou shalt receive of their hands. {salute...: Heb. ask thee of peace}

After that thou shalt come to the hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines: and it shall come to pass, when thou art thereto the city, that thou shalt meet a band of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a tabret, and a pipe, and an harpe before them; and they shall prophesy:

And the Spirit of the LORD will come mightily upon them. and thou shalt prophesie among them.

Therefore when these signs are come unto thee, that thou do as occasion serve thee; for God is with thee. {And...: Heb. And it shall come to pass, that...: Heb. do for thee as occasion...}

And thou shalt come to the hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines: and it shall come to pass, when thou art come thither to the city, thou shalt meet three men going up to God to Bethel: one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine:

And they will salute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread; which thou shalt receive of their hands.

After that thou shalt come to the hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines: and it shall come to pass that day.

And it was so, that when he had turned his back to goe from Samuel, God gaue him another heart: and all those tokens came to passe that same day.
10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold, the company of Prophets meete him, and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11 Therefore all the people that knewe him before, when they saw that he prophesied among the Prophets, saide eche to other, What is come vnto the sonne of Kish? Is Saul also among the Prophets?

12 And one of the same place answered, and said, One man to his neighbour, Is this that is come vnto the sonne of Kish? Is Saul also among the Prophets?

13 And when he had made an ende of prophesying, he came to the hie place.

14 And Sauls vncle saide vnto him, and to his servaunt, Whither went ye? And he saide, To seeke the asses: and when we sawe that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Saulsauncle said unto me, Tell me, I pray thee, what is this that is come vnto the sonne of Kish? Is Saul also among the Prophets?

16 And Saul said vnto his vncle, He tolde vs plainely Samuel said vnto you.

17 And Samuel assembled the people vnto the Lord at Mizpah;

18 And he saide vnto the children of Israel, Thus saith the Lord to Mizpah;

19 but ye have this day rejected your God, who prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?

12 And one of the same place answered and said, And who is their father? Therefore it became a proverbe, Is Saul also among the prophets?

13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 And Sauls uncle said unto him and to his servaunt, Whither went ye? And he saide, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were not found, we came to Samuel.

15 And Sauls uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said vnto you.

16 Then Saul saide to his vncle, He tolde vs plainely that the asses were founde: but concerning the king, he tolde us not.

17 And Saul called the people together unto the LORD to Mizpah;
And Samuel called the people together unto the LORD to Mizpeh; and said unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms that troubled you.

And ye have said unto him, Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands.

When he had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken. When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found.

Therefore they asked of the LORD further, if that man should yet come thither. And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff. And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward.

Then Samuel tolde the people the duetie of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

17 And Samuel called the people together unto the LORD to Mizpeh; and said unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the handes of all kingdomes that troubled you.

18 But ye have this day rejected your God, who onely deliuereth you out of all your aduersitie and tribulations: and ye said vnto him, No, but appoint a King ouer vs. Nowe therefore stand ye before the Lord according to your tribes, and according to your thousands.

20 And when Samuel had gathered together all the tribes of Israel, the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

21 Afterwarde he assembled the tribe of Benjamin according to their families, and the familie of Matri was taken. So Saul the sonne of Kish was taken, and when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they asked the Lord againe, if that man should yet come thither. And the Lord answered, Beholde, he hath hid himselfe among the stuffe.

23 And they ranne, and brought him thence: and when he stoode among the people, he was hier then any of the people from the shoulders vpwarde.

24 And Samuel saide to all the people, See ye not him, whom the Lord hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? and all the people shouted and saide, God saue the King.

25 Then Samuel tolde the people the duetie of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

And Saul also went to his house to Gibeah; and of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the handes of all kingdomes that troubled you.
24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him whom the LORD hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, God save the king. {God...: Heb. Let the king live}

25 Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26 Saul also went home to Gibeah; and there followed him a band of men, whose heart God had touched, 27 But the wicked men said, How shall this man save us? So they despised him, and brought him no presents: but he held his peace.

28 Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and besieged Jabesh-gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee.

29 But certain sons of Belial said, How shall this be saved? And they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he held his tongue.

30 Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh-gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee.

31 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that all your right eyes be put out; and I will lay it for a reproach upon all Israel.

32 But the children of Belial said, How shall he save us? So they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he held his tongue.

33 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us seven days’ respite, that we may send messengers unto all the borders of Israel: and then, if there be none to save us, we will come out to thee.

34 Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and spake these words in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voice, and wept.

35 And, behold, Saul came following the oxen out of the field; and Saul said, What aileth the people that they weep? And they told him the words of the men of Jabesh.

36 And the spirit of God came mighty upon Saul before the Lord, and Samuel sent all the people away every man to his house.

37 But the wicked men said, How shall this be saved? So they despised him, and brought him no presents: but he held his peace.

Then Nahash the Ammonite came vp, and besieged Jabesh Gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said vnto Nahash, Make a covenant with vs, and we will be thy servants.

2 And Nahash ye Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for a reproach vpon all Israel.

3 To whome the Elders of Iabesh said, Giue vs seven daies respite, and then we will send messengers vnto all the borders of Israel. And all the Elders of Jabesh said vnto Nahash, If thou wilt giue vs this condition, that all your right eyes be put out; and I will lay it for a reproach vpon all Israel.

27 But certain sons of Belial said, How shall he save us? So they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he held his tongue.

26 Saul also went home to Gibeah; and there followed him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched,

25 Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the Lord. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him whom the LORD hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, God save the king. {God...: Heb. Let the king live}
12 And the people said unto Samuel, Who is he that shall go out for us? And Saul said unto Samuel, I have determined to go out for thee, because thou wast anointed with the ointment of the LORD.

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, Tomorrow we will do according to thine saying.

11 And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and smote the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 And the people said unto Samuel, Who is he that shall go out for us? And Saul said unto Samuel, I have determined to go out for thee, because thou wast anointed with the ointment of the LORD.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall his oxen be served. And the fear of the Lord fell on the people, and they came out with one consent.

8 And when he numbered them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

9 Then they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, ye shall have deliverance. And the messengers came and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voices, and wept.

10 And Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and smote the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 And the people said unto Samuel, Who is he that shall go out for us? And Saul said unto Samuel, I have determined to go out for thee, because thou wast anointed with the ointment of the LORD.
said, Shall Saul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death.

13 And Saul said, There shall not a man be put to death this day: for to day the LORD hath wrought salvation in Israel.

14 Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there.

15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and made Saul King there before the Lord in Gilgal: and there they offered peace offerings before the Lord: and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced exceedingly.

morrow, by that time the sun be hot, ye shall have help. And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Jabesh; and they were glad. (help: or, deliverance)

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, To morrow we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you.

11 And when the morowe was come, Saul put the people in three bandes, and they came in vpon the hoste in the morning watche, and slew the Amnonites vntill the heat of the day: and they that remained, were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 Then the people said vnto Samuel, Who is he that said, Shall Saul reigne ouer vs? bring those men that we may slaye them.

13 But Saul said, There shall no man die this day: for to day the Lord hath saued Israel.

14 Then saide Samuel vnto ye people, Come, that we may goe to Gilgal, and renue the kingdome there. Saul and all the men of Israel rejoicd greatly.
And Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto your voice in all that ye said unto me, and have made a king over you.
2 And now, behold, the king walketh before you: and I am old and gray-headed; and, behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.
3 Here I am: witness against me before the LORD, and before his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith, and will I restore it you?
4 And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken aught of any man's hand.
5 And he said unto them, The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found aught in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.
6 And Samuel said unto the people, It is the LORD that advanced Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.
7 Now therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD, which he did to you and to your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.
8 And now, behold, the king walketh before you: and I am old and gray-headed; and, behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.
9 For you are not yet returned from the evil ways of your fathers, which have not sought the LORD their God, and the splendour of his Presence was not seen by your fathers.

1 Samuel then said vnto all Israel, Behold, I haue hearkened vnto your voyce in all that ye sayde vnto mee, and haue appoynted a King ouer you.
2 Nowe therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD, which he did to you and to your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.
3 Beholde, here I am: beare recorde of me before the LORD, and before his Anointed. Whose oxe haue I taken? or whose asse haue I taken? or whome haue I done wrong to? or of whose hand haue I oppressed? whom haue I hurt? or of whose hande haue I receiued any bribe, to blinde mine eyes therewith, and I will restore it you?
4 Then they sayde, Thou hast done vs no wrong, nor hast hurt vs, neither hast thou taken ought of any mans hand.
5 And he saide vnto them, The Lord is witnesse against you, and his Anointed is witnesse this day, that yee haue founde nought in mine handes. And they answered, He is witnesse.
6 Then Samuel sayde vnto the people, It is the Lord that made Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers out of the land of Egypt.
7 Nowe therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the Lord according to all the righteous-nesse of the Lord, which he shewed to you and to you before the LORD of all the righteous acts of the LORD, which he did to you and to your fathers.

8 After that Iaakob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried unto the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron which brought your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they forgat the LORD their God, he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried unto the LORD, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, which he did to you and to your fathers.

11 Therefore the Lord sent Jerubbaal and Bedan and Iriphath, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies, and ye dwelled safe.

12 And when ye saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, Nay; but a king shall reign over us: when the LORD your God was your king.

13 Now therefore behold the king whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have asked for: and, behold, the LORD hath set a king over you.

8 When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried unto the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they forgat the LORD their God, he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried unto the LORD, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, which he did to you and to your fathers.

11 Therefore the Lord sent Jerubbaal and Bedan and Iriphath, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies, and ye dwelled safe.

12 Notwithstanding when you saw, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said vnto me, No, but a King shall reigne over us: when yet the Lord your God was your King.

13 Nowe therefore beholde the King whome yee haue chosen, and whome yee haue desired: loe there therefore delier us out of the handes of our enemies, and we will serue thee.
14 If ye will fear the Lord and serve him, and hearken unto his voice, and not disobey the word of the Lord, both ye and the King that reigneth over you, shall follow the Lord your God.

15 But if ye will not obey the voice of the Lord, but disobey the Lordes mouth, then shall the hand of the Lord be upon you, and on your fathers.

16 Nowe also stande and see this great thing which the Lord will doe before your eyes.

17 Is it not nowe wheat harvest? I wil call vnto the Lord, and he shall send thunder and raine, that yee may perceiue and see, howe that your wickednesse is great, which ye haue done in the sight of the Lord in asking you a King.

18 Then Samuel called vnto the Lord, and the Lord sent thunder and raine the same day: and all the people feared the Lord and Samuel exceedingly.

19 And all the people said vnto Samuel, Pray for thy seruaunts vnto the Lord thy God, that we die not: for we haue sinned in asking vs a King, beside all our other sinnes.

20 And Samuel said vnto the people, Fear not. (ye haue indeede done all this wickednesse, yet depart not from following the Lord, but serve the Lord with all your heart, 21 Neither turne yee backe: for that shoulde be after great, which ye haue done in the sight of the Lord in asking you a King.

13 Now therefore behold the king whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired! and, behold, the Lord hath set a king over you.

14 If ye will fear the Lord, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the Lord, then shall both ye and also the king that reigneth over you continue following the Lord your God: {commandment: Heb. mouth} {continue...:}

15 but if ye will not obey the voice of the Lord, or rebel against the commandment of the Lord, then shall the hand of the Lord be against you, as it was against your fathers.

16 Now therefore stand still and see this great thing, which ye haue done in the sight of the Lord in asking you a king.

17 Is it not wheat harvest today? I will call unto the Lord, and he shall send thunder and rain, that ye may perceive and see, howe that your wickednesse is great, which ye haue done in the sight of the Lord, in asking you a King.

18 So Samuel called unto the Lord; and the Lord sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly feared the Lord and Samuel.

19 And all the people said unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the Lord thy God, that we die not: for we haue added unto all our sins this evil, to 20 And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have done all this wickedness: yet turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart; 21 And turn ye not aside: for then should ye go after vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain. 22 For the LORD will not forsake his people for his great Names sake: because it hath pleased the LORD to make you his people. 23 Moreover God forbid, that I should sin against the Lord, and cease praying for you, but I will shew you the good and right way. 24 Only fear the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider how great things he hath done for you. 25 But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall perish, both ye, and your King.

9 And Saul said, Bring a burnt offering to me and peace offerings: and he offered a burnt offering.

10 And assone as hee had made an ende of offering the burnt offering, beholde, Samuel came: and Saul went forth to meete him, to salute him.

11 And Samuel said, What hast thou done? Then Saul said, Because I saw that the people was scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the daies appoynted, and that the Philistims gathered themselues together to Michmash, 12 Therefore said I, The Philistims will come downe nowe vpon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication vnto the Lord. I was bolde therefore and offered a burnt offring.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandement of the Lord thy God, which he commanded thee: for the Lord had nowe stablished thy kingdome vpon Israel for euer.

14 But nowe thy kingdom shall not continue: the Lord hath sought him a man after his owne heart, an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him. {salute: Heb. bless} an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him.

11 And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselves together at Michmash;

12 therefore said I, Now will the Philistines come down upon me to Gilgal, and I have not entreated the favour of the LORD: I forced myself therefore, and offered the burnt offering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever.

14 But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the LORD hath sought him a man after his own heart.
16 And Saul and Jonathan his son, and the people that were present with them, abode in Geba of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Michmas.

17 And there came out of the host of the Philistines three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to Ophrah, unto the land of Shual:

18 And another company turned the way to Bethhoron: and another company turned the way of the border that looketh down upon the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

19 Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears:

20 But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, his mattock, and his axe, and his weeding hook.

21 Yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the mattocks, and for the picke forkes, and for the axes, and for to sharpen the goades.

22 So it came to pass in the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found.

23 And the garrison of the Philistines went out unto the pass of Michmas.
Now it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the sonne of Saul sayde vnto the yong man that bare his armour, Come and let vs goe over towarde the Philistims garison, that is yoner side, but he tolde not his father.

2 And Saul taried in the uttermost part of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree which was in Migron: and the people that were with him were about sixe hundreth men;

3 And Ahiah the sonne of Ahitub, Ichabods broth, the sonne of Phinehas, the sonne of Eli, the LORD'S priest in Shiloh, wearing an ephod: And the people knewe not that Jonathan was gone. {Ahiah: called Ahimelech}

4 And between the passes, by which Jonathan sought to goe over unto the Philistines garison, there was a sharpe coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to sharpen the goads. {a file: Heb. a file with mouths}

5 The one crag rose up on the north in front of Geba.
6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come and let us goe over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for there is no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few.

7 And his armourbearer said unto him, Do all that was there founde.

23 And the garison of the Philistines came out to the passage of Michmash.
4 And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

5 The forefront of the one was situate northward over against Michmash, and the other southward over against Gibeath. {forefront: Heb. tooth}

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for there is no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few.

7 And his armourbearer said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: goe where it pleaseth thee: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over unto the forefront of the one that is situate northward unto Gibeah.

9 If they say thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them.

10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand: and this shall be a sign unto us.

11 So they both shewed themselves unto the men, and we will discover ourselves unto them.

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me: for the LORD hath shewed us this day the thing that he will do.

13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armourbearer slew them after him.

14 And they fell before Jonathan; and his armourbearer slew upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and 13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and delivered them into the hand of Israel.

10 But if they say, Come vp unto vs, then we will goe vp: for the LORD hath deliuered them into our hande: and this shall be a signe vnto vs.

11 So they both shewed themselves vnto these men, and we will discover ourselves vnto them.

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me: for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand: and this shall be a signe unto us.

13 And he that bare his armour, said vnto him, Doe all that is in thine heart: goe where it pleaseth thee:

14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men within as 21 Now the Hebrews that were with the Philistines and there was a very great discomfiture. And Saul and all the people that were with him and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. Then Jonathan said vnto his armour bearer, Come vp after me: for the Lord hath deliuered them into the hand of Israel.

13 So Jonathan went vp ypon his hands and vpon his feete, and his armour bearer after him: and some fell before Jonathan, and his armour bearer sware others after him.

14 So the first slaughter which Jonathan and his armurbearer made, was about twenty men, as it were half a furrow's length in an acre of land.

15 And there was trembling in the hoste, and in the field, and among all the people: the garison also, and the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it were half a furrow of an acre of land, which a yoke of oxens plowe.

16 Then the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looke; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went hither and thither.

17 Then said Saul vnto the people that were with him, Search nowe and see, who is gone from vs. And when they had nombred, behold, Jonathan and his armurbearer were not there.

18 And Saul said vnto Ahiah, Bring hither the Arke of God (for the Arke of God was at that time with the priest, Withdraw thine hand.

19 And it came to pass, while Saul talked unto the people that were with him, and his armurbearer were not there.
19 And while Saul talked unto the Priest, the noyse that was in the hoste of the Philistims, spred farther abroade, and encreased: therefore Saul said vnto the Priest, Withdraw thine hand.
20 And Saul was assembled with all the people that were with him, and they came to the battell: and behold, euery mans sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.
21 Moreover, the Ebrewes that were with the Phil-istims beforetime, and were come with them into all partes of the hoste, euen they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.
22 Also all the men of Israel which had hid themselues in mount Ephraim, when they heard, that the Philistims were fled, they followed after them in the battell.
23 And so the Lord saued Israel that day: and the battell continued vnto Beth-auen.
24 And at that time the men of Israel were pressed with hunger: for Saul charged the people with an othe, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth food till night, that I may be auenged of mine enemies: so none of the people tasted any sustenance.
25 And all they of the land came to a wood, where hony lay vpon the ground.
24 And the men of Israel were distressed that day:
25 And all they of the land came to a wood; and there was honey upon the ground.
26 And when the people were come into the wood,
27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged
28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father made the people to swear, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth sustenance this day: and the people were faint.
29 Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes were made clear, because I have tasted a little of this honey:
30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for now hath there been no great slaughter among the Philistines?
31 And they smote of the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon: and the people were very faint.
32 So the people turned to the spoil, and took sheepe, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eate them with the blood.
33 Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there.
34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there.
35 And Saul built an altar unto the LORD; the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.
31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon; and the people were very faint.

32 And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat with the blood.

33 Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people are very faint: and Jonathan told him, and said, Ye have trespassed: roll a great stone vnto me this day. (transgressed: or, dealt treacherously)

34 And Saul said, Let us goe downe after the Philistimes by night, and spoile them vntill the morning shine, and let vs not leaue a man of them. And they saide, Doe whatsoeuer thou thinkest best. Then saide the Priest, Let vs drawe neere hither vnto God.

35 Then Saul made an altar vnto the Lord, and that was the first altar that he made vnto the Lord.

36 And Saul said, Let vs goe downe after the Philistimes by night, and spoile them vntill the morning light, and let us not leaue a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, Let us draw near hither unto God.

37 And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I goe downe after ye Philistimes? wilt thou deliuer them into the hands of Israel? But he answered him not at that time.

38 And Saul said, All ye chiefe of the people, come ye hither, and knowe, and see by whom this sinne is done this day.

39 Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people: and know and see wherein this sin hath been this day.

40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD, the God of Israel, Shew the right. And Jonathan and Saul were taken by lot: but the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I did certainly taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand; and, lo, I must die.

44 And Saul said, God do so and more also: for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath so mightily delivered Israel? God forbid: as the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people delivered Jonathan that he died not.

46 Then Saul came up from the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 So Saul held the kingdom over Israel, and
And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? And he gathered an host, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melchishua: and the names of his two daughters, the elder was called Merab, and the younger was named Michal.

And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of the captain of his host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

And Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any mighty man, or any valiant man, he took him unto him.
And Samuel also said unto Saul, The LORD sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the Lord.

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he set himself against him in the way, when he came up out of Egypt.

3 Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

4 And Saul summoned the people, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to the city of Amalek, and laid wait in the valley.

6 And Saul said unto the Kenites, Go, depart, get down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for ye shewed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And Saul Smote the Amalekites, from Havilah as thou goest to Shur, that is before Egypt.

Afterward Samuel said vnto Saul, The Lord sent me to anoint thee King ouer his people, ouer Israel: nowe therefore obey the voyce of the words of the Lord.

2 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I remember what Amalek did to Israel, howe they laide waite for the in ye way, as they came vp from Egypt.

3 Nowe therefore goe, and sinite Amalek, and destru ye al that perteyneth vnto them, and haue no compassion on them, but slay both man and woman, both infant and suckling, both oxe, and sheepe, both camell, and asse.

4 And Saul assembled ye people, and nombred them in Telaim, two hundreth thousande footemen, and ten thousand men of Iudah.

5 And Saul came to a citie of Amalek, and set watch at the riwer. {laid...: or, fought}

6 And Saul said vnto the Kenites, Goe, depart, and get you downe from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for ye shewed mercie to all the children of Israel, when they came vp from Egypt. So the men departed from among the Amalekites.

22 And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken is better than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

24 And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and the words: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, take away my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD.

26 But Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him, The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.

29 And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that should repent.

30 Then he said, I have sinned: yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God.
29 And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent.

30 For in deed the strength of Israel will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man that hee should repent.

31 Then he said, I have sinned: yet honour mee now, and before the Elders of my people, and before Israel, and turne againe with mee, that I may worship the LORD thy God.

32 Then he saide, I haue sinned: but honour mee, I pray thee, before the Elders of my people, and before Israel, and turne againe with mee, that I may worship the Lord thy God.

33 And Saul worshipped the LORD.

34 Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag ye King of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past.

35 And Samuel said, As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother bee childless among other women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgal.

36 Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went vp to his house to Gibeah of Saul.

37 Then Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.
And the LORD said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from being king over Israel? fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Bethlehemite: for I have provided me a king among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take an heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD. [v. 3: {combing: Heb. meeting}]

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.

4 And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city trembled at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he answered, Peaceably: I am come to doe sacrifice to the Lord. [v. 6: {with thee: Heb. in thine hand}]

6 And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the LORD'S anointed is before him.

7 But the LORD said vnto Samuel, Looke not on his countenance, nor on the height of his stature; because the LORD seeth not as man seeth: for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart.

8 And Samuel said, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with oyle, and come, I will send thee to Ishai the Bethlehamite: for I haue prouided mee a King among his sonnes.

9 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Go, anoint him: for he is the one whom I name vnto thee.

10 But the LORD said vnto Samuel, How long wilt thou remainere in Bethleham? I haue provided thee a king among his sonnes.

11 So Samuel did that the Lord bade him, and came, I will send thee to Jesse the Bethlehemite.

The Lord then saide vnto Samuel, Howe long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I haue cast him away from reigning ouer Israel? fill thine horn with yole and come, I will sende thee to Ishai the Bethlehemite: for I haue prouided mee a King among his sonnes.

58 And the LORD said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from being king over Israel? fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Bethlehemite: for I have provided me a king among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take an heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to the LORD. [v. 3: {combing: Heb. meeting}]

6 And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the LORD'S anointed is before him.

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and set him: for we will not sit downe, till he be come hither.

14 But the Spirit of the L ORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

15 And Saul’s servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.
16 Let our Lord therefore command thy servants, that are before thee, to seek a man that is a cunning player upon the harp: that when the evil spirit of God cometh upon thee, he may play with his hand, and thou maist be eased.

17 Saul then said unto his servants, Prouide me a man, I pray you, that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of his servants, Behold, I haue seene a sonne of Ishai, a Bethlehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty valiant man, and a man of warre and wise in matters, and a comely person, and the Lord is with him.

19 Wherefore Saul sent messengers vnto Ishai, and said, Send me Dauid thy sonne which is with the sheepe.

20 And Jesse took an ass laden with bread and a flagon of wine and a kidde, and sent them by the hand of Dauid his sonne vnto Saul.

21 And Dauid came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him verie well, and he was his armour bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let Dauid nowe remaine with me: for he hath found fauour in my sight.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants, which are before thee, to seek out a man who is a cunning player on the harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of the young men, and said, Behold, I have seene a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty man of valour, and a man of war, and prudent in speech, and a comely person, and the LORD is with him.

19 Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armour bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David nowe remaine with me: for he hath found fauour in my sight.
22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favour in my sight.

23 And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was eased: for the evil spirit departed from him.

Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and they were gathered together at Socoh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Sochoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim. {set...: Heb.}

2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

3 And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

4 And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubites and a span.

5 And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and a coat was five thousand shekels of brass. {armed: Heb.}

6 And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a shield-bearer went before him.

7 And the staff of his spear was like a weaver’s beam; and his spear’s head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and his shield-bearer went before him.

8 And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel,
16 And the Philistine drew near morning and even.

7 And the shaft of his spear was like a weavers beam: and his speare head weyed sixe hundreth shekels of yron: and one bearing a shielde went before him.

8 And he stood and cried against the armies of Israel, and saide vnto them, Why are yee come to set your battell in array? am not I a Philistim, and ye servants to Saul? chuse you a man for you, and let him come downe to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and kill me, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.

10 Also the Philistim saide, I defie the hoste of Israel this day: giue mee a man, that we may fight together.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those wordes of the Philistim, they were discouraged, and greatly afraide.

12 Nowe this Dauid was the sonne of an Ephrathite of Beth-lehemjudah, named Ishai, which had eight sons: and this man was taken for an olde man in the days of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sonnes of Ishai went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

14 And David was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 Now David went to and fro from Saul to feed his father’s sheep at Beth-lehem.

16 And the Philistine drew near morning and even.

and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.

10 And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel, and saide vnto them, Why are yee come to set your battell in aray? am not I a Philistim, and you servaunts to Saul? chuse you a man for you, and let him come downe to me.

If he be able to fight with me, and kill me, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us. but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serue vs.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those wordes of the Philistim, they were discouraged, and greatly afraide.

12 Nowe this Dauid was the sonne of an Ephrathite of Beth-lehemjudah, named Ishai, which had eight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul.
13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.
14 And David was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.
15 But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem.
16 And the Philistines drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.
17 And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and take their pledge.
18 And carry these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge.
19 And carry these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren; and looke howe thy brethren fare, and receiue their pledge.
20 And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheepe with a keeper, and took and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle.
21 For Israel and the Philistines put the battle in ar ning, and presented himself forty days.
22 And David left the things, which hee bare, vnder
the handes of the keeper of the cariage, and ranne
ing, and presented himself forty days.
21 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God? 22 And David left his carriage in the hand of the young man, and ran into the army, and said, Who is this? for whom did he tarry in the camp? who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God? 23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the armies of the Philistines, and spake according to the same words: and David heard them.

24 And he turned away from him toward another, and spake after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner.

25 For every man of Israel said, Saw ye not this man that commeth up? euen to reuile Israel is he come vp: and to him that killeth him, wil the king giue great riches, and will giue him his daughter, yea, and make his fathers house free in Israel. 26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God? 27 And the people answered him after this manner, Heb. from his face

And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art a boy, and he is a man of warre from his youth. 34 And David answered vnto Saul, Thy servant kept his fathers sheepe, and there came a lyon, and likewise a beare, and tooke a sheepe out of the flocke, and tooke it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by the beard, and smote him, and slew him. 36 So thy seruant slue both the lyon, and the beare: therefore this vnircircumcised Philistim shall be as one with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thine heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle. 29 Then Davieth sayde, What haue I nowe done? Is there not a cause? 30 And hee departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same manner, and the people answered him according to the former wordes. 31 And they that heard the wordes which Davieth spake, rehearsed them before Saul, which caused him to be brought. 32 So Davieth said to Saul, Let no mans heart faile him, because of him: thy seruant wil goe, and fight with this Philistim. 33 And Saul sayde to Davieth, Thou art not able to goe against this Philistim to fight with him: for thou art a boye, and he is a man of warre from his youth. 34 And Saul said to David, Go, and the LORD shall be with thee. 38 And Saul clad Davieth with his apparel, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head, and he clad him with his store armours, and with his sword, and with his shoules of brass. 39 And they answered David, and said, Behold, thou art as gods, and not as man, which thou art come down to see the battell. 33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go forth with me to war, let me go and fight with this Philistim. 32 And Davieth said to Saul, Let no man’s heart fail because of him: thy seruant will go and fight with this Philistim. 31 And when the wordes were heard which Davieth spake, they rehearsed them before Saul; and he sent for him. 30 And he turned from him toward another, and spake after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner. 32 And Davieth said to Saul, Let no man’s heart fail because of him: thy seruant will go and fight with this Philistim. 31 And Davieth said to Saul, What haue I nowe done? 53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem, and put his armour in his tent.

55 When Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the captain of his host, Abner, whose son is this young man? And Abner answered, As thy soul liueth, O King, I can not tell.

56 And the king said, Enquire thou whose son the stripling is.

57 And when David was returned from the slaugh-

58 And Saul saide to him, Whose sonne art thou,

And when he had made an ende of speaking vnto
Saul, the soule of Ionathan was knit with the soule of Daud, and Ionathan loued him, as his owne soule.

2 And Saul tooke him that day, and woulde not let him returne to his fathers house.

3 Then Ionathan and Daud made a couenant: for he spake vnto Saul, that the soule of Ionathan was knit with the soule of David, and Ionathan loved him as his owne soule.

4 And Ionathan put off the robe that was vpon him, cause he loved him as his owne soule.

returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with timbrels, with joy, and with instruments of music.

7 And the women sang one to another in their play, and said, Saul hath slain his hundreds, and David his ten thousands.
5 And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 When they came againe, and Dauid returned from the slaughter of the Philistin, the women came out of all cities of Israel singing and dancing, to meete king Saul, with timbrels, with instruments of joy, and with rebeckes.

7 And the women sang by course in their play, and sayd, Saul hath slyne his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousand.

9 And Saul eyed Dauid from that day and forward. {behaved...: or, prospered}

10 And it came to pass on the morowe, that an evil spirite of God came mightily upon Saul, and he prophecied in the midst of the house: and Dauid played with his hand, as he did day by day: and Saul had his spear in his hand.

11 And Saul tooke the speare, and sayd, I will smite Dauid through to the wall. But Dauid avoided out of his presence.

12 And Saul said, Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the valiant for me. and fight the LORd'S battles. For ter Merab, her will I give thee to wife: only be thou valiant for me. and fight the LORd'S battles. For Saul said, Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the 20 And the king said, Call me Zavul, and I will shew thee what thy servant will say.

21 And Dauid said unto the king, What hast thou to do with me Zavul? yeld me thine hand, that I may know what thou hast to say.

13 Therefore Saul put him from him, and made him a captain over a thousand, and he went out and in before the people.
14 And David behaved himselfe wisely in all his ways: for the Lord was with him.
15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he was very wise, he was afeard of him.
16 For all Israel and Iudah loued David, because he was a valiant sonne vnto me, and fight the Lordes battels: For all Israel and Iudah loved David, because he was valiant to fight the Lord's battles.
17 And Saul sayd to David, Behold mine eldest daughter Merab, her I will giue thee to wife: onely be thou my sonne in law, and fight the LORD'S battles. {valiant: Heb. a man of valour}
18 And David answered Saul, What am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be sonne in law to the King?
19 But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been giuen to David, she was giuen vnto Adriel the Meholathite to wife.
20 Then Michal Saul's daughter loued Dauid: and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him.
21 And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter Merab, her I will giue thee to wife: onely be thou my sonne in law, and fight the LORD’S battles. {valiant: Heb. a man of valour}
22 And Saul commandad his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son in law.
23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be the king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?
24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, On this manner spake David.

And I will go out and stand by my father in the field where thou art, and will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell thee.

And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David: because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good:

For he did put his life in danger, and slew the Philistine, and the LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and thou rejoicedst: wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

Then Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan, and Saul spake good of David to Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, but his works have been to thee-ward very good.

And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and Jonathan shewed him all those things, and Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as in times past.

And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan, and Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan, and Jonathan shewed him all those things, and Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as in times past.

10 And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul’s presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night.

11 Saul also sent messengers unto David’s house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal David’s wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to night, to morrow thou shalt be slain.

12 So Michal let David downe through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 And Saul sent the messengers againe to see David, and they also prophesied; and Saul sent the messengers againe the third time, and they also prophesied. And Saul sent messengers to take David, saying, Bring him to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.

15 And Saul sent the messengers againe to see David, saying, Bring him to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, behold, there was an image in the bed, with a pillow stuffed with goates heare vnder the head of it, and covered with a clotth. (image: Heb. teraphim)

17 And Saul said vnto Michal, Why hast thou mocked me so, and sent away mine enemie, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said vnto me, Let me go; why should I kill thee?

18 So Dauid fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel in Ramah.

19 And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.

20 And Saul sent messengers to take David: and they also prophesied; and Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied.

21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied; but hee turned aside out of Saul’s presence, and he smote the speare against the wall: but Dauid fled, and escaped the same night.

22 Then went he also to Ramah, and came to the great well that is in Secu: and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah.

23 And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah: and the spirit of God came upon him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.
18 So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.

19 But one tolde Saul, saying, Beholde, Dauid is at Naioth in Ramah.

20 And Saul sent messengers to take Dauid: and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God fell vpon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.

21 And when it was tolde Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also.

22 Then went he himselfe to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Sechu, and he asked, and sayd, Where are Samuel and Dauid? and one sayd, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah.

23 And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah: and the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24 And he stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down naked all that day and all that night: therefore they say, Is Saul also among the Prophets?

13 And Jonathan answered, God keep that from thee: for if I knewe that wickednesse were concluded of my father to come vpon thee, would not I tell it thee?

10 Then said Davuid to Jonathan, Who shall tell me, or what if thy father answer thee cruelly?

11 And Jonathan said unto Davuid, O Lorde God of Israel, when I have groped my fathers minde to morow at this time, or within this three dayes, and if it be well with Dauid, and I then send not vnto thee, and shew it thee, 9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knewe that wickednesse were concluded of him.

8 Therefore dealt kindly with thy servant; for thou hast joyned thy seruant into a covenant of the Lorde with thee, notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquitie, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

7 If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that evil is concluded of him.

6 Therefore shalt thou deal kindly with thy servant; for thou hast brought thy seruant into a covenant of the Lorde with thee: notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquitie, slay me thy self: for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

5 And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me peace: but if he be angrie, be sure that wickednesse is concluded of him.

4 And if the Lorde shew thee also, and sende thee away, that thou mayest goe in peace: and the Lorde be with thee, as he hath bene with my father.

3 He shew me also, and sende thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the Lorde be with thee, as he hath bene with my father.

2 If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that evil is concluded of him.

15 But I require that thou cut not off thy kindness from me for ever: no, not when the Lord hath destroyed the enemies of David, every one from the earth.

16 So Jonathan made a bond with the house of David, saying, Let the Lord require it at the hands of its enemies.

17 And againe Jonathan sware vnto David, because he loved him (for he loved him as his owne soule).

23 As touching the thing which thou and I haue spoken of, beholde, the Lord be betweene thee and me for euer.

24 So Dauid hid him selfe in the field: and when the first day of the moneth came, the King sate to cate meate.

25 And the King sate, as at other times vpon his seate, euen vpon a seat by the wall: and Ionathan arose, and Abner sate by Sauls side, but Dauids place was emptie.

27 But on the morowe which was the second day of the moneth, Dauids place was emptie againe: and Saul sayde vnto Ionathan his sonne, Wherefore cometh not the sonne of Ishai to meate, neither yesterday nor to day?

28 And Ionathan answered vnto Saul, Dauid earnestly required of me, that he might goe to Beth-lehem.

29 For he sayde, Let me goe, I pray thee: for our famyly hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found fauour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray
29 Then he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table.

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of a perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion and shame of thy mother?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the earth, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom: Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherefore should he be put to death? what hath he done?

33 And Saul cast his spear at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to put David to death.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow after the king of Israel: and Jonathan shot at the king.

37 And Saul was very much amazed; for the thing was strange unto him.

38 And Jonathan said to the young man that was with him, Which way did the arrow go down? And he said, Behold, it went down after the king.

39 Then Jonathan called a great slaughter of the people, saying, Sanctify ye the people, that they may pursue after their king.

40 But the king said, Wherefore dost thou pursue after the people? for the king's son is escaped.

41 And Jonathan said, Indeed, as the Lord liveth, the king shall not be put to death: for there is not one left of the house of Jacob to-day.

42 AndJonathan set the people in lines, which are on this side the left, and which are on that side the right, those that did eat with him, and those that did eat not with him.

43 And he said, Stand ye in a circle, according to the tribes of Israel, thy father's house in a circle, and thy mother's house in a circle.

44 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto the people, that Joab the son of Zeruiah led after the people.

45 And the people answered Joab, as well the people of Judah as the people of Jerusalem, saying, If thou goest out, and goest not, this day shall the kingdom be divided to the Egyptians.
And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him. {beyond...: Heb. to pass over him}

And when the lad was come to the place where the arrow was that Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste and stand not still: and Jonathan’s lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

Then Jonathan gave his artillery unto his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry them to the city. {artillery: Heb. instruments} {his lad: Heb. the lad that was his}

And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place toward the South, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded.

And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD shall be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed, for ever.

And he arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the city.
Then came David to Nob to Ahimelech the priest, and Ahimelech was astonished at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee? {Ahimelech: also called, called Ahiah}

2 And David said unto Ahimelech, The king hath commanded me a certaine thing, and hath sayd vnto me, Let no man know whereabout I sende thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my seruants to such and such places.

3 Nowe therefore if thou hast ought vnder thine hand, give me fiue cakes of bread, or what commeth to hand.

4 And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread vnder mine hande, but here is halowed bread, if the yong men haue kept themselfes at least from women.

5 Dauid then answered the Priest, and sayde vnto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three dayes, since I came out, and the vessels of the yong men were holy, though the way

6 So the priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the showbread that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg, the Edomite, the chiefest of Saul's herdmen.

8 And David said unto Ahimelech, Is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste.

9 And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is none other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me.

10 And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

11 And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

12 And David laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13 And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down when it was taken away.

14 And he changed his behaviour before them, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

15 And they put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

16 And the servants of Achish said vnto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

17 And he said, He answered me: this is thy place, O King; for thyself; and thy people have seen my face, because I said, I will make this my house, and my people shall sacrifice together before the LORD.

18 Also thou shalt see my face when I speak with thee: and thou shalt see my face no more, except thou shuttest thyself in thy chamber, as men shut themselves in houses.

19 And David was greatly afraid of the words of Achish the king of Gath.
12 And David considered these words, and was sore afraid of Achish the King of Gath.

13 And he changed his behaviour before them, and fayned him selfe mad in their hands, and scabbred on the doors of the gate, and let his spettle fall downe vpon his beard.

14 Then said Achish vnto his seruants, Lo, ye see the man is beside him selfe, wherefore haue ye brought him to me?

15 Haue I neede of mad men, that ye haue brought this fellowe to play the mad man in my presence? shall he come into mine house?

David therefore departed thence, and saued him selfe in the caue of Adullam: and when his brethren and all his fathers house heard it, they went downe thither to him.

2 And there gathered vnto him all men that were in trouble and all men that were in dette, and all those that were vexed in minde, and he became their prince, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them: and there were with him about foure hundreth men. {was in debt: Heb. had a creditor}

3 And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said vnto the king of Moab, Let my father and my father's house come and abide with you, till I father and my mother come and abide with you, till I know what God will do for me.

priests that were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king.
12 And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.
13 And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, and lye in wayte as appeareth this day?
14 And Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who among all thy servants is so faithful as David, which is the king's son in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?
15 Did I then begin to enquire of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?
16 Then the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's house.
17 And the king said unto the guard that stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he fled, and did not disclose it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.
18 And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and ran upon the Priests, and slew that same day foure score and five persons that did weare a linen Ephod.

19 Also Nob the citie of the Priestes smote he with the edge of the sword, both man and woman, both childe and suckling, both oxe and asse, and sheepe with the edge of the sword.

20 But one of the sons of Ahimelech the sonne of Ahitub (whose name was Abiathar) escaped and fled after Dauid.

21 And Abiathar shewed Dauid that Saul had slain the LORD’S priests.

22 And Dauid said unto Abiathar, I knew it that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy fathers house.

23 Abide thou with me, fear not; for he that seeketh my life seeketh thy life: for with me thou shalt be in safeguard.
23 Abide thou with me, and fear not: for he that seeketh my life, shall seeke thy life also: for with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

Then they tolde Dauid, saying, Beholde, the Philistims fight against Keilah, and spoyle the barnes.

2 Therfore Dauid asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shal I goe and smite these Philistims? And the Lord answered Dauid, Go and smite the Philistims, and saue Keilah.

3 And Dauids men said vnto him, See, we be afrayde here in Iudah, howe much more if we come to Keilah against the hoste of ye Philistims?

4 Then Dauid asked counsell of the Lord againe. And the Lord answered him, and sayd, Arise, go downe to Keilah: for I wil deliever the Philistims into thine hand.

5 So Dauid and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistims, and brought away their cattell, and smote them with a great slaughter: thus Dauid saued the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 (And when Abiathar the sonne of Ahimelech fled to Dauid to Keilah, he brought an Ephod with hym)

7 And it was tolde Saul that Dauid was come to Keilah, and Saul sayd, God hath deliered him into 7 And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. And Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a town that hath gates and bars.

8 And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

9 And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod.

10 Then said David, O LORD God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod.

11 Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? and will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the LORD said, He will come down.

12 Then said David, Will the men of Keilah deliver me up, and my men that are with me, into the hand of Saul? And the Lord said, They will deliver thee up.

13 Then David and his men, which were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he forbare to go forth.

14 And David abode in the wilderness in holds, and remained in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand.

15 And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in mine hand: for he is shut in, seeing he is come into a citie that hath gates and barres.

16 And Saul called all the people together to warre, for to go downe to Keilah, and to besiege Dauid and his men.

17 And Saul knew that David was come to the holdes, and he remained in the hill country in the wilder-

18 ness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand.

19 And Dauid hauing knowledge that Saul imagined mischief against him, saide to Abiathar the Priest, Bring the Ephod.
14 And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him not into his hand.

15 And David said that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood.

16 And Jonathan Saul’s son arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God. And he said unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee; and thou shalt be King over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and also Saul my father knoweth it.

17 And he said unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee; and thou shalt be King over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and that also Saul my father knoweth it.

18 And they two made a covenant before the LORD: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

19 Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in the strong holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the right hand of Ieshimon? [or... Heb. on the right hand} {Ieshimon: or, the wilderness}

20 Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king’s hand.

21 And Saul said, Blessed be ye of the LORD; for ye have had compassion on me.

22 Goe, I pray you, make yet more sure, and know and see his place where his haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me that he dealeth very subtly.

23 See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me of a certainty, and I will go with you:

24 And Saul abode in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the vineyards were in En-bol: and the men of Saul’s house had two hundred servants.

25 And David was in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph.

26 And Saul said, Wherefore follow ye me? I will surely seek occult. Now therefore, come down, according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king’s hand.

27 And Saul said, Wherefore follow ye me? I will surely seek occult. Now therefore, come down, according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king’s hand.

28 And Saul said, Wherefore follow ye me? I will surely seek occult. Now therefore, come down, according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king’s hand.

29 And Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should seek occult. Now therefore, come down, according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the king’s hand.

30 And Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

31 And it was told Saul, saying, Jonathan hath made covenant with the son of Jesse, but his hand shall be in David till death.

32 And Saul was very sore against Jonathan; and this thing was very grievous in Saul’s eyes, that Jonathan had made covenant with the son of Jesse.

33 And the king said unto Jonathan, Thy sister the daughter of the king shall go to David, to sanctify him with me to-morrow in the house.

34 Then said Jonathan, Accept me, I pray thee, for thine hand, in that thou hast wrought with thine hand to save my life; and I will also save thine life.

35 Then Saul said, Go in peace. And Jonathan went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God. And David went to his house.
22 Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see gis place where his haunt is, and who hath seen him there: for it is told me that he dealeth very subtilly.
and craftie.
23 See therefore and know all the secret places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will goe with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah.

24 Then they arose and went to Ziph before Saul, but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the plaine on the right hande of Ieshimon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seeke him, and they told David: wherefore he came downe vnto a rocke, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he folowed after David in the wildernes of Maon.

26 And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them.

27 But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come: for the Philistims have invaded the land. {invaded...: Heb. spread themselves upon, etc}

28 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing David, and went against the Philistims. Therefore they called that place, Sela-hammahlekoth.

29 And David went up from thence, and dwelt in the strong holds of En-gedi.
And Daud went thence, and dwelt in holds at En-gedi.

2 When Saul was turned from ye Philistines, they told him, saying, Behold, Daud is in the wilderness of En-gedi.

3 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek Daud and his men upon the rocks among the wilde goates.

4 And he came to the sheepecoates by the way, saying, Behold, Daud is in the wilderness of Engedi.

5 And it was told him, saying, Behold, Daud is in the wilderness of Engedi.

6 And he said unto his men, The LORD forbid that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then Daud arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul’s robe.

And it came to pass, when Saul was returned from pursuing after Daud, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place Setahammahlekeloth. {Setaham-mahlekeloth: that is, The rock of divisions}

And it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi.

And he came to the sheepecoates by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to cover his feet; and Daud and his men remained in the sides of the cave.

Then Daud arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul’s robe privily. {Saul’s...: Heb. the robe which was Saul’s}

Then Daud arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul’s robe privily. {Saul’s...: Heb. the robe which was Saul’s}

Then Daud arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul’s robe privily. {Saul’s...: Heb. the robe which was Saul’s}

Then Daud arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul’s robe privily.

Then Daud arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul’s robe privily.

Then Daud arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul’s robe privily.

And Daud went thence, and dwelt in holds at En-gedi.

And it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi.
8 So David arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, "My lord the king.

9 And David said to Saul, Wherefore didst thou hear to-day out of the mouth of men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?

10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee this day into mine hand in the cave, and some bade me kill thee, but I had compassion on thee, and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against thee: for he is the LORD'S anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, see thou and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet thou hast sought my soul to take it.

11 Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, I killed thee not. Know thou and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, neither haue I sinned against thee; yet thou hast sought my soul to take it.

12 The LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee.

13 As saith the proverb of the ancients, Out of the wicked cometh forth wickedness: but mine hand shall not be upon thee.

14 After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, after a wickedness in me, neither have I sinned against thee, therefore let mine hand not be upon thee: for thou hast shewed kindness unto thy servant, according to the love of the LORD which is in thine heart.

15 And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and did obeisance.

16 And when Saul saw that David had done nothing either good or bad toward him, he said, "It is the son of David; there is grace in David.

17 And Saul said, "Doth David now show this kindness to me, because I have害 him? For who is Smyth in the field? whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, after a wickedness in me, neither have I sinned against thee, therefore let mine hand not be upon thee: for thou hast shewed kindness unto thy servant, according to the love of the LORD which is in thine heart. 11 Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, I killed thee not. 13 As saith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand shall not be upon thee.

14 After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, after a flea.

15 The LORD therefore be judge, and judge betwixt me and thee, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of thine hand. {deliver: Heb. judge}

16 And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, {delivered: Heb. shut up}

17 And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast rendered unto me good, whereas I have rendered unto thee evil.

18 And thou hast declared this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the LORD had delivered me up into thine hand, thou killedst me not.

19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day.

20 And now, behold, I know that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand.

21 Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father’s house.

22 And David sware unto Saul. And Saul went home; but David and his men gat them up unto the high place.

And thus shall ye say to him that liveth in prosperity, Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.

And they girded on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword.

Wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes; for we come in a good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoeuer cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.

And when Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days that break away every man from his master.

And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days that break away every man from his master.

And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.

And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.

9 And when David's young men came, they told Nabal all those wordes in the name of David, and held their peace.

10 Then Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: for we come in a good season: give, I pray thee, whatsoeuer cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

11 Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be? {flesh: Heb. slaughter}

12 So Dauids seruants turned their way, and went againe, and came, and tolde him all those things.

13 And David said vnto his men, Girde euery man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword: and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode by the stuff.

14 But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of all the while they were in Carmel.

15 And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now the shepherds which were with us, we hurt them not, neither was there ought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.

16 And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now the shepherds which were with us, we hurt them not, neither was there ought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.

17 And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword, and David also girded on his sword; and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode by the stuff.
21 Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept his sword about him. And they girded every man his sword: and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode by the stuff.

14 But one of the young men told Abigail Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he rayled on them.

15 Notwithstanding the men were very good unto us, and we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields:

16 They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

17 Now therefore take heed, and see what thou wilt do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a son of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him.

18 Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of bread, and an hundred dressed cakes, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses. {clusters: or, lumps}

19 And David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he rayled on them.

20 And it was so, as she rode on her ass, and came down by the covert of the mountain, that, behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them.

21 Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept
And she said unto her servants, Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal.

20 And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and, behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them.

21 Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that pertain unto him by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall.

22 And when Abigail saw David, she hasted, and lighted off her ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground.

23 And when Abigail saw David, she hasted, and fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, I have sinned: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine handmaide saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send. {regard: Heb. lay it to his heart}

24 And she fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, I have sinned: and let thine handmaide, I pray thee, speak to thee, and hear thou the words of thine handmaide. {audience: Heb. ears}

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this wicked man Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I thine handmaide saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send. {regard: Heb. lay it to his heart}

26 Now therefore my lord, as the LORD liueth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath with thee all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath returned me evil for good.

27 And now this present which thy servant hath brought unto my lord, let it be given unto the young man whom thou shalt send: for we have found out how to light so much as one man child.

28 And David received her word, and said, Shall I henceforth look upon the face of any of his enemies? for the LORD hath spoken to deliver up all that pertain to him into my hand.

29 So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, and more also do God unto the enemies of Nabal.

30 And Abigail did quickly rise up, and mounted the ass, and said to her servants, Go on before me; for the place where the young men are shall be reached before us. And she sought David, and caught him, and said unto him, Didst thou not hear, my lord, how they say that I have sinned against my lord, in speaking these words?

31 And David said, In deede I haue kept all in vaine that pisseth against the wall.

32 And she said, Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this wicked man Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I thine handmaide saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send. {regard: Heb. lay it to his heart}

33 And David received her word, and said, Shall I henceforth look upon the face of any of his enemies? for the LORD hath spoken to deliver up all that pertain to him into my hand.

34 And Abigail did quickly rise up, and mounted the ass, and said to her servants, Go on before me; for the place where the young men are shall be reached before us. And she sought David, and caught him, and said unto him, Didst thou not hear, my lord, how they say that I have sinned against my lord, in speaking these words?

35 And David said, In deede I haue kept all in vaine that pisseth against the wall.

36 And she said, Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this wicked man Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I thine handmaide saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send. {regard: Heb. lay it to his heart}
26 Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD liveth, and as the soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath withheld thee from coming to shed blood, and from avenging thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal. {avenging...: Heb. saving thyself}

27 And now this blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that follow my lord. {blessing: or, present} {follow...: Heb. walk at the feet of, etc}

28 I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handmaid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord fighteth the battles of the LORD, and evil shall not be found in thee all thy days.

29 Yet a man hath risen up to persecute thee, and to seek thy soul, but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God: and as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath with me avenged myself with mine own hand, now let thine enemies be as Nabal, and they that seek evil to my lord, none euill hath bene found in thee in all thy life.

30 And though man be risen up to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul, yet the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God; and evil shall not be found in thee all thy days.

31 then shall it be no griefe vnto thee, nor offence of minde vnto my lord, that he hath not shed blood of thine enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the hollow of a sling.

32 And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meete me.

33 and blessed be thy wisdom, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from bloodguiltiness, and from avenging myself with mine own hand.

to take her to him to wife.

40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, DAVID sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife.

41 And she arose, and bowed herself with her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.

42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife. {after her: Heb. at her feet}

43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they were also both of them his wives.

44 But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David’s wife to Palti the Son of Laish, which was of Gallim.
And the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Ieshimon?

2 Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Ieshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness.

4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come of a certainty.

5 And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the people pitched round about him.

6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee.

7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the place of the wagons, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head: and Abner and the people lay round about his head: and Abner and the people lay round about Saul.
7 So David and Abishai came downe to the people by night: and beholde, Saul lay sleeping within the fort, and his speare did sticke in the ground at his head: and Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 Then saide Abishai to David, God hath closed thine enemie into thine hande this day: now therefore, I pray thee, let me smite him once with the speare to the earth, and I will not smite him againe.

9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can lay his hand on the Lordes anointed, and be gildlesse?

10 Moreouer David said, As the Lord liueth, eyther the Lord shall smite him, or his day shall come to dye, or he shall descend into battel, and perish.

11 The Lord forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the Lordes anointed, and be guiltlesse?

12 So David took the spear and the pot of water from Saul’s bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor marked it, neither did any awake, but they were all asleep: for a deep sleep from the Lord was fallen upon them.

13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the toppe of an hill afar off, a great space being between them:

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saving, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then 8 Then said Abishai to David, God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day; now therefore, I pray thee, let me smite him once with a speare to the earth, and I will not smite him againe.

9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can lay his hand on the Lordes anointed, and be gildlesse?

10 And David said furthermore, As the Lord liueth, eyther the Lord shall smite him, or his day shall come to dye, or he shall descend into battel, and perish.

11 The Lord keepe mee from laying mine hand against the Lordes anointed: but, I pray thee, take now the spear that is at his head, and the pot of water, and let vs goe hence.

12 So Dauid tooke the speare and the pot of water, and let us goe hence.

13 Then David and Abishai came downe to the people by night: and beholde, Saul lay sleeping within the fort, and his speare did sticke in the ground at his bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him.
KJV  I SAMUEL 26  GNV

Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king?
15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord.
16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept watch over your lord, the LORD’S anointed. And now, see where the king’s spear is, and the pot of water that was at his bolster.
17 And Saul knew David’s voice, and said, Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.
18 And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?
19 Now therefore, I beseech thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD have smitten me, he may accept an offering: but if it be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day that I should not cleave unto the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods.
20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth betwixt them.

Abner answered, and said, Answerest thou not, Abner?
Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to that man? and who is like thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king for? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord.
16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, the LORD’S anointed. And now, see where the king’s spear is, and the pot of water that was at his bolster. {worthy to die: Heb. the folke in to destroy the King thy lord.
17 And Saul knew David’s voice, and said, Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.
18 And he said, Wherefore doth my lord pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?
19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the king of Israel is come out to seek a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains.

21 Then said Saul, I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.

22 And David answered and said, Behold the king’s spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

23 And the Lord shall render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: forasmuch as the Lord delivered thee into my hand today, and I would not stretch forth mine hand against the Lord’s anointed.

24 And, behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the Lord, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.
And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand. {perish: Heb. be consumed}

2 And David arose, and he, and the six hundred men that were with him unto Achish, the son of Maoch, king of Gath.

3 And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's wife.

4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: so he sought no more again for him.

5 And David said unto Achish, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some other city of the country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwel in the head of thine house, when I may sit on some better place?

6 Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto the kings of Judah unto this time.

7 And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months. {a full year: Heb. a full year of days} {the number of days}

2 And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for 3 Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.

4 And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came, and pitched in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa.
5 And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.
6 And when Saul enquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets.
7 Then said Saul to his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may goe to her, and enquire of her. And his servants said to him, Beholde, there is a woman at En-dor that hath a familiar spirit, and inquired of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at En-dor.
8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, Divine unto me, I pray thee, by the familiar spirit, and bring Achish to David, Be sure, thou shalt go out with me to battle, and thou shalt have thy men.
2 And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt knowe, what thy servant can do. And Achish sayde to David, Surely I will make thee keeper of mine head for euer.
3 (Samuel was then dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah his owne cite: and Saul had put away the sorcerers, and the soothsayers out of the land) 4 Then the Philistines assembled themselves, and came, and pitched in Shunem: and Saul assembled all Israel, and they pitched in Gilboa.
5 And when Saul saw the hoste of the Philistins, he was afraid, and his heart was sore astonied.
6 Therefore Saul asked counsel of the Lord, and the Lord answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by 7 Then saide Saul vnto his seruants, Seeke me a woman that hath a familiar spirite, that I may goe

Achish said to David, Surely thou shalt knowe, what thy seruant can doe. And Achish sayde and thou shalt have thy men.

came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee.

9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath destroyed the sorcerers, and the southsayers out of the land: wherefore then seest thou to take me in a snare to cause me to die?

10 And Saul swears to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what seest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth.

14 Then he said unto her, What form is he of? And she answered, An old man cometh up, and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and bowed himself. {What...: Heb. What is his form?}

15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me up whomsoever I shall name unto thee.

9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?

10 And Saul swears to her by the Lord, saying, As the Lord liveth, no harme shall come to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up, whom I shall name unto thee. And Saul answered, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him vp. {What...: Heb. What is his form?}

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loude voyce, and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

14 Then he said vnto her, What facion is hee of? And she answered, An olde man commeth vp lapped in a mantel: and Saul knewe that it was Samuel, and bowed him selfe.

15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me vp? Then Saul answered, I pray thee, coniecture vnto me by the familiar spirite, and bring me him vp whome I shall name vnto thee.

9 And the woman saide vnto him, Beholde, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath destroyed the sorcerers, and the southsayers out of the land: wherefore then seekest thou to take me in a snare to cause me to die?

10 And Saul sware to her by the Lord, saying, As the Lord liueth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring vp unto thee? And he answered, Bring me vp Samuel.

18 Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day.

19 Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and tomorrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD shall deliver the host of Israel also into the hand of the Philistines.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then doest thou aske of me, seeing the Lord is gone from thee, and is thine enemie?

21 And the woman came unto Saul, and said that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee, to eat, that thou mayest eat and get strength, when thou goest on thy way.

23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, constrained him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.

24 And the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof:

25 Then she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

Now the Philistines gathered together all their hosts to Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by the fountain which is in Jezreel.

2 And the princes of the Philistines went forth by hundreds, and by thousands: and David and his men passed on in the rearward with Achish.

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul, the son of Jesse the Bethlemite?

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me these days, or these years, and I have found nothing in him, since he dwelt with me unto this day?

4 But the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him, and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make this fellow return, that he may go againe to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with vs to battle, lest in the battle he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should this fellow reconcile himself unto his master? should it not be with the heads of these men?

5 Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

6 Then Achish called David, and said unto him, Surely, as the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host is good in my sight: for I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless the lords favour thee not.

7 Wherefore nowe returne, and go in peace, that thou displease not the lords of the Philistines.

8 And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been before thee unto this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord?
the king?
9 And Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, as an angel of God: notwithstanding the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle.
10 Wherefore now rise up early in the morning with thy master's servants that are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, have light, depart.
11 So David rose up early, he and his men, to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

And it came to pass, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire;
2 And had taken captive the women and all that were therein: they slew not any, either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way.

3 So David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was burnt with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters were taken captives.

4 Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And David's two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David strengthened himself in the LORD his God. {grieved: Heb. bitter}

7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech, I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod. And Abiathar brought the Ephod to David.

8 And David enquired at the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and shalt without fail recover all.

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those that were left behind stayed.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor:

11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and they gave him water to drink:

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins; and when he had eaten, his spirit came back again, and he refreshed himself.

13 And when he had eaten and drunk, he became strong; and he set him on his horse, and rode with him.

14 And David said to Abiathar the priest, son of Ahimelech, I pray thee, bring me thither the ephod.

15 And Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David. And David inquired at the LORD, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and shalt without fail recover all.

16 And David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

13 And David said unto him, Canst thou bring me down to this troop? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me up into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this troop.
14 And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking, and feasting, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and upon that which belongeth to Judah, and upon the South of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.

17 And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels, and fled. {the next...: Heb. their morrow}

18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all.

20 And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before those other cattle, and said, This is David's spoil.

21 And David came to the two hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: and when David came near to the people, he saluted them. {saluted...: or, asked them how they did}

22 Then answered all the wicked men and men of Belial, of those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them aught of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away: David recovered them all.

23 Then said David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the LORD hath given unto us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the troop that came against us into our hand.

24 And who will hearken unto you in this matter? for as his share is that goeth down to the battle, so 23 Then said David, Ye shall not so, my brethren; but as his part which goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.
24 For who will obey you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be, that tarieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.
25 So from that day forward he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.
26 When David therefore came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, Behold a present for you of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD; to them which were in Beth-el, and to them which were in south Ramoth, and to them which were in Jattir,
27 And to them which were in Aroer, and to them which were in Siphmoth, and to them which were in Eshtemoa,
28 And to them which were in Rachal, and to them which were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to them which were in the cities of the Kenites, 29 And to them which were in Hormah, and to them which were in Chor-ashan, and to them which were in Athach, 30 And to them which were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men had hanted.
Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa. {slain: or, wounded}

2 And the Philistines pressed sore upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul’s sons.

3 And when the battle went sore against Saul, the archers hit him; and he was sore wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he feared Saul, and was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell upon his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all his men that same day together.

7 And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they that were beyond Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Stand, I pray thee, beside me, and slay me: for anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I stood beside him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen:

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them; and likewise all the men that were with him:

12 They mourned, and wept, and fasted until evening, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were slain by the sword.

13 And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.

14 And David said unto him, How wast thou not afraid, to put forth thine hand to destroy the LORD’S anointed?

15 And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died.

And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul, and over Jonathan his son:

18 (Also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the bow: behold, it is written in the book of Jasher.)

19 The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places: how are the mighty fallen!

20 Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Ashkelon; lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

21 Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew nor rain upon you, neither let there be fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided: they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

24 Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet delicately, who put ornaments of gold upon your apparel.
25 How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thine high places.

26 Wo is me for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women: howe are the mighty overthrown, and the weapons of warre destroyed!

After this, Daid asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shall I go vp into any of the cities of Judah? And the Lord sayd vnto hym, Goe vp. And Daid said Whither shall I goe? Hee then answered, Vnto Hebron.

2 So Daid went vp thither, and his two wiues also, Ahinoam the Izreelite, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite.

3 And Daid brought vp the men that were with hym, euery man with his houshold, and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

22 And he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years.

23 But the house of Judah followed David.

24 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of Ishbosheth went out from Mahanaim, took Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him to Mahanaim, 25 And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabeshgilead, and said vnto them, Blessed are ye of the Lord, that ye haue shewed such kindenes vnto your lord Saul, that you haue buried him.

21 And Abner said, Turn thee either to the right hande, or to the left, and take one of the yong men, and take thee his weapons: and Asahel would not depart from him.

22 And Abner saide to Asahel, Depart from me: wherefore shoulde I smite thee to the grounde? howe then shoulde I be able to holde vp my face to Ioab thy brother?

23 And when he woulde not depart, Abner with the hinder ende of the speare smote him vnder the fift ryb, that the speare came out behind him: and he fell downe there, and dyed in his place. And as many as came to the place where Asahel fell downe and dyed, stoode still.

24 Ioab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sunne went downe, when they were come to the hill Ammah, that lieth before Giah, by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour for euer? knowest thou not, that it will be bitterness in the latter ende? howe long then shall it be, or thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

27 And Joab said, As God liveth, if thou hadst not spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone away, nor followed every one his brother.

Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, but the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2 And unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; and his second, Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; and the sixth, Ithream by Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine named Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And Ish-bosheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in unto my father's concubine?

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am I a dog's head, which against Judah do shew kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of Saul the father, to his brethren, and to his friends.
unto him, Go, return: and he returned.

10 To translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, even so I do to him, 11 And he durst not answer Abner another word, because he feared him.

12 Then Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying also, Make covenant with me, and, behold, mine hand shall be with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee.

13 And he said, Well; I will make a league with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee.

14 Then David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul’s son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, Saul’s daughter, when thou comest to see my face.

15 And Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from her husband Phaltiel the son of Laish.

16 And her husband went with her, weeping as he went, and followed her to Bahurim. Then said Abner unto him, Go, return: and he returned.

David, and yet thou chargest me this day with a fault concerning this woman?

9 So do God to Abner, and more also, except, as the Lord hath sworn to Daud, even so I do to him;

10 To translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, that the throne of Daud may be stablished over Israel, and over Judah, even from Dan to Beer-sheba.

11 And he durst no more answer Abner: for he feared him.

12 Then Abner sent messengers to Daud on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? who should have seen my face except thou bring Michal Sauls daughter when thou commest to see me.

13 Who saide, Well, I will make a covenant with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that is, Thou shalt not see my face except thou bring Michal Sauls daughter when thou commest to see me.

14 Then Daud sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Sauls sonne, saying, Delier me my wife Michal, which I marrieed for an hundreth foreskinnes of the Philistims.

15 And Ish-bosheth sent, and tooke her from her husband Phaltiel the sonne of Laish. {Phaltiel: also called, Phalti}
16 And her husband went with her along weeping behind her to Bahurim. Then said Abner unto him, Go, return. And he returned.

17 And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David in times past to be king over you; in times past: Heb. both yesterday and the third day.

18 Nowe then doe it: for the Lord hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my seruant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistims, and out of the handes of all their enemies.

19 Also Abner spake to Beniamin, and afterward Abner went to speake with Daviud in Hebron, concerning all that Israel was content with, and the whole house of Beniamin.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, hauing twenty men with him, and Daviud made a feast vnto Abner, and to the men that were with him. Then Abner went also to speake in the ears of David in Hebron, concerning all that Israel was content with, and the whole house of Benjamin.

21 Then Abner sayde vnto Daviud, I will rise vp, and goe gather all Israel vnto my lorde the King, that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all that thy soul desireth. And Daviud let Abner depart, who went in peace.

22 And, behold, the servants of David and Joab came from a foray, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.

23 When Joab and all the hoste that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, vnto him, Go, and returne. So he returned.
with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.

23 When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why hast thou sent him away, and he is departed?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner: for he came to deceive thee, and to know thy going out and thy coming in, and to know all that thou doest.

26 And when Joab was gone out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him againe from the well of Siriah unknowing to David.

27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly, and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

28 And afterward when David heard it, he said, I must needs fetch the blood of Abner the son of Ner, and my kingdom be guiltless before the LORD for ever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner: {blood: Heb. bloods}

29 Let the blood fall on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that hath an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a staffe, or that doeth fall on the head of Joab, and upon all his fathers house, that the house of Joab be neuer

30 (So Ioab and Abishai his brother slewe Abner, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.}

31 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were come, men tolde Ioab, saying, Abner the sonne of Ner came to the King, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

32 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were come, men tolde Ioab, saying, Abner the sonne of Ner came to the King, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

33 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were come, men tolde Ioab, saying, Abner the sonne of Ner came to the King, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

34 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were come, men tolde Ioab, saying, Abner the sonne of Ner came to the King, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

35 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were come, men tolde Ioab, saying, Abner the sonne of Ner came to the King, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

36 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were come, men tolde Ioab, saying, Abner the sonne of Ner came to the King, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

37 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were come, men tolde Ioab, saying, Abner the sonne of Ner came to the King, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

38 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were come, men tolde Ioab, saying, Abner the sonne of Ner came to the King, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.
And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rent your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the bier.

And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a fool dieth?

Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before wicked men, so didst thou fall. And all the people wept again over him.

And all the people came to cause David to eat meat while it was yet day; but David sware, saying, So doe God to me and more also, if I taste bread, or ought els till the sunne be downe.

And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people.

And I am this day weak, though anointed king; Joab one that hath an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

because he had slaine their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

And when they had buryed Abner in Hebron, the King lift vp his voyce, and wept beside the sepulchre of Abner, and all the people wept.

And the King lamented ouer Abner, and sayde, Dyed Abner as a foole dyeth?

Thine handes were not bounde, nor thy feete tyed in fetters of brasse: but as a man falleth before wicked men, so diddest thou fall. And all the people wept againe for him.

And all the people came to cause David to eat meate while it was yet day, but Dauid sware, saying, So doe God to me and more also, if I taste bread, or ought els till the sun be down.

And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people.

Joab one that hath an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread. {fail: Heb. be cut off}
And when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, then his handes were feeble, and all Israel was afraide,

2 And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands: the one called Baanah, and the other called Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite of the children of Benjamin. (for Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin; {other: Heb. second})

3 And the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and have been sojourners there until this day. (for Beeroth also is reckoned to Benjamin: {other: Heb. second})

4 Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was lame of his feet. He was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, as he took his rest at noon.

6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they

And when Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands became feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled.

And as she made haste to flee, the child fell, and beganne to

And these men the sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me: the Lord reward the doer of euill according to his wickedness.

and these men the sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me: the LORD shall reward the wicked doer according to his wickednesse.
And the sonnes of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon. And they came thither unto the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheate; and they smote him under the fift rib, and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bed chamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and gat them away through the plain all night. And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto Dauid to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth Sauls sonne thine enemy, which sought thy life; and the Lord hath avenged my lorde the King this day of Saul, and of his seed.

And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the Lord liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity, when one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, thinking to have brought good tidings, I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him for his tidings. How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed, shall I not now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth? And David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up beside the pool in Hebron. But Then came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and said thus, Behold, we are thy bones and thy flesh.

2 And in time past when Saul was our King, thou leddest Israel in and out: and the Lord hath said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.

3 So all the elders of Israel came to the King to Hebron; and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the Lord: and they anointed David king over Israel.

4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six mouths: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in hither.

7 Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion; the same is the city of David.

8 And when David reigned over all Israel, he reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel seven and thirty years.

9 And he took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

10 Wherefore they called that place The Brow of Abner: unto this day it is called The Brow of Abner.

11 And they hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them vp over the poole in Hebron.

12 And David commanded his young men, and they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the grave of Abner in Hebron.
5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in hither.

7 Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: this is the city of David.

8 And David said on that day, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites, and getteth up to the gutters of Jerusalem, and smiteth the blind and the lame, which Davids soule hateth, I will preferre him: therefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into that house.

9 So David dwelt in that forte, and called it the city of David. And David built round about from Millo and inward.

10 And David waxed greater and greater; for the Lord God of hosts was with him. {went...: Heb. went, going and growing}

11 And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons: and they built David an house.

12 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israels sake.

13 And these be the names of those that were born unto him in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon,

14 And when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David; and David heard of it, and went down to the hold.
18 Now the Philistines had come and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.
19 And David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up: for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thine hand.
20 And David came to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there; and he said, The LORD hath broken mine enemies before me, like the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place, Baal-perazim.
21 And there they left their images, and David and his men took them away.
22 And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.
23 And when David inquired of the LORD, he said, Thou shalt not go up: make a circuit behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.
24 And it shall be, when thou hearest the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself: for then is the LORD gone out before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.
25 And David did so, as the LORD commanded.
smote them there, and said, The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breath of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Baalperazim. [Baalperazim: that is, the plain of breaches]

And there they left their images, and David and his men burned them. [burned... or, took them away]

21 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his error; and hee answered, Thou shalt not go vp, but turne about behinde them, and come vpnon them ouer against the mulberry trees.

And when they came to the threshing-floor of Nacon, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen stumbled.

And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Judah, to bring vp from thence the ark of God, whose name is called by the name of the LORD of hosts that sitteth even the name of the LORD of hosts that sitteth upon the cherubim.

Then Dauid did so as the Lord had commanded before thee, to smite the hoste of the Philistines.

And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in the hill: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart.

And David again gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, euen thirtie thousand,

2 And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Judah to bring vp thence the ark of God, whose name is called by the Name, which was in the hill, with the ark of God: and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.

And did so, as the LORD had commanded him; and smote the Philistines from Geba until thou come to Gazer. {Geba: also called, Gibeon}

And David again gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, euen thirtie thousand,

2 And David arose and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Judah to bring vp from thence the Arke of God, whose name is called by the Name, which was in the hill, with the ark of God: and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.

And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart.

And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab, that was in the hill: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart.

5 And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD with all manner of instruments made of fir wood, and with harps, and with psalteryes, and with timbrels, and with castanets, and with cymbals.

6 And when they came to the threshing-floor of Nacon, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen stumbled.

7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his error; and his men burnt them.

22 Againe the Philistims came vp, and spred themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And when Dauid asked counsell of the Lord, hee answered, Thou shalt not go vp, but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

24 And when thou hearest the noyse of one going in the toppes of the mulberie trees, then remoue: for then shall the LORD goe out before thee, to smite the hoste of the Philistims.

25 Then Dauid did so as the Lord had commanded before thee, to smite the hoste of the Philistims.

24 And when thou hearest the noyse of one going in the toppes of the mulberry trees, then remove: for then shall the Lord go out before thee, to smite the host of the Philistims.

25 Then David did as the LORD had commanded him; and smote the Philistines from Geba, until thou come to Gazer.

Againe Dauid gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, euen thirtie thousand,

2 And Dauid arose and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Iudah to bring vp from thence the Arke of God, whose name is called by the Name, which was in the hill, with the ark of God: and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.
And David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod.

3 And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was at Gibeah, and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart. {set: Heb. made to ride} {Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, did drive the new cart.}

4 And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab, that was at Gibeah, accompanying the ark of God: {accompanying: Heb. went before the ark,} and Ahio went before the ark. {accompanying: Heb.}

5 And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of firre, and on harpes, and on Psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cymbals.

6 And when they came to Nachon's threshingfloor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen shook it. {Nachon: also called Chidon} {shook it: or, stumbled}

7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah, unto this day.

8 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the LORD of hosts, was called upon}

9 Therefore David that day feared the LORD, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come unto me?

10 So David would not bring the Arke of the Lord unto him into the city of David; but David carried it there he died by the ark of God.

11 And the Ark of God remained in the house of Obed-edom three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his house.

12 And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth to him, because of the ark of God. And David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with joy.

13 And it was so, that when they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling.

14 And David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a linen ephod.

15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.
16 And it was so, as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at the window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place, in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

18 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19 And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, both to men and women, to every one a cake of bread, and a portion of flesh, and a cake of raisins. So all the people departed every one to his house.

20 Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who uncovered himself today in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself!

21 And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, which chose me above thy father, and above all his household, to appoint me prince over the people of Israel; and I gave thee unto him, and thou hast lain unto man. And the LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he hath, because of the ark of God: therefore David went and brought the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom, into the city of David with gladness:

11 And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

12 And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that hee pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.

13 And when they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.

14 And David danced before the Lord with all his might, and was girded with a linen ephod.

15 So David and all the house of Israel, brought the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And as the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked through a window, and sawk King David leape, and dance before the Lord, and shee despised him in her heart.

17 And when they had brought in the ark of the Lord, they set it in its place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.
And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel this day, who uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself!

And David said unto Michal, It was before the Lord, which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the Lord, over Israel: therefore will I play before the Lord.

And I will be yet more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: but of the handmaids which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour.

And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.
And it came to pass, when the king sat in his house, and the LORD had given him rest round about from all his enemies,
2 The King said unto Nathan the Prophet, Behold, now I dwell in an house of cedar, but the Arke of God remayneth within the curtaines.
3 Then Nathan sayde vnto the King, Go, and doe all that is in thine heart; for the LORD is with thee.
4 And the same night the worde of the Lord came vnto Nathan, saying,
5 Go and tell my servaunt David, Thus saith the Lord, Shalt thou build me an house for my dwellinge?
6 For I haue dwelt in no house since the time that I brought the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but haue walked in a tent and tabernacle.
7 In al the places wherein I haue walked with all the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my children of Israel, spake I a word with any of the children of Israel, and said not, Why haue ye not builded me an house?
23 When the King sate in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies, enemie, Afterwarde when the King sate in his house and the Lord had given him rest rounde about from all his enemies,

9 and I have been with thee wheresoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

10 And I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and I will cause thee to rest from all thine enemies: moreover the LORD telleth thee, that he will make thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

11 And as since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel; and I will give thee rest from all thine enemies: also the LORD telleth thee, that he will make thee an house.

12 And when thy days be fulfilled, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, and I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy body, and shall be ruler over my people, over Israel: from following the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel.

13 He shall build an house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

14 I will be his father, and he shall be my son: if he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men; but my mercy shall not depart from him, as I have put away before thee.

15 Notwithstanding I will not take away the kingdom from his sons for David's sake, but will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever, as I have promised thee and as I have done.

16 And thine house and thy kingdom shall be made sure for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established forever. The children of Israel, spake I one word with any of the tribes of Israel when I commanded the judges to feede my people Israel? or sayde I, Why build ye not me an house of cedar trees? 8 Nowe therefore so saynto my servant Daud, Thus saieth the Lord of hostes, I took thee from the sheepecote following the sheepe, that thou mightest be ruler over my people, over Israel. 9 And I was with thee wheresoever thou hast walked, and haue destroyed all thine enemies out of thy sight, and haue made thee a great name, like vnto the name of the great men that are in the earth. 10 (Also I will appoynt a place for my people Israel, and will plant it, that they may dwell in a place of their owne, and move no more; neither shall wicked people trouble them any more as before time, 11 And since the time that I set Iudges ouer my people of Israel) and I will giue thee rest from all your enemies beforetime,

12 and as from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, whom I commanded to feede my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not me an house of cedar trees? 8 Now therefore so shalt thou saynto my seruant Dauid, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I took thee from the sheepcote, that thou mightest bee ruler ouer my people, ouer Israel. 9 And I was with thee wheresoever thou wentest, and haue destroyed all thine enemies out of thy sight, and haue made thee a great name, like vnto the name of the great men that are in the earth. 10 (Also I will appoynt a place for my people Israel, and will plant it, that they may dwell in a place of their owne, and move no more; neither shall wicked people trouble them any more as before time, 11 And since the time that I set Iudges ouer my people of Israel) and I will giue thee rest from all your enemies beforetime, 14 I will be his father, and he shall be my sonne: and if he sinne, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the plagues of the children of men.
15 But my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul whom I have put away before thee.
16 And thine house shall be stablished and thy kingdom for ever before thee, even thy throne shall be stablished for ever.
17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, Nathan spake thus vnto Dauid.
18 Then King Dauid went in, and sate before the Lord, and sayde, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?
19 And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord, and sayde, Who am I, O Lord God? and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?
20 And what can Dauid saye more vnto thee? for thou, Lord God, knowest thy seruant.
21 For thy wordes sake, and according to thine owne heart hast thou wroughe all these greatnesse, to make thy servant knowe it.
22 Wherefore thou art great, O Lord God: for thou art great, and doest great things; and thou knowest thy servant.
23 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem unto himselfe for a people, and to make him a name, and to do great things for you, and terrible things for thy land, before thy people, which thou redeemeasted to thee out of Egypt, from the nations and their gods?
24 And thou didst establish to thyself thy people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.
25 And now, O LORD God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, confirm thou it for ever, and do as thou hast said.
26 And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee.
27 For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, hast revealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee.

23 And what one people in the earth is like thy people, like Israel? whose God went and redeemed them to himselfe, that they might be his people, and that hee might make him a name, and do for you great things, and terrible for thy land, O Lord, euene for thy people, whomse thou redeemdest to thee out of Egypt, from the nations, and their gods?
24 For thou hast ordeyned to thy selfe thy people Israel to be thy people for euer: and thou Lord art become their God.
25 Nowe therefore, O Lord God, confirme for euer the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy seruant and his house, and doe as thou hast sayde.
26 And let thy Name bee magnified for euer by them that shall say, The Lord of hostes is the God ouer Israel: and let the house of thy seruant Dauid be stablished before thee.
27 For thou, O Lord God, (for thou art God, and thy words be true, and thou hast tolde this goodnes vnto thy seruant)
28 Therefore nowe let it please thee to blesse the 28 And now, O Lord GOD, thou art that God, and thy words be true, and thou hast promised this goodness unto thy servant:

29 Therefore now let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O Lord GOD, hast spoken it: and let the house of thy servant be blessed for ever, with thy blessing.

After this now, David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and David took the bridle of bondage out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, making them to lie down on the ground: and he measured two lines to put to death, and with one full line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so the Moabites became David’s servants, and brought presents. And the Lord gave victory to David whithersoever he went.

3 David smote also Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his dominion at the river Euphrates. {Hadadezer: or, Hadarezer}

3 Then the Aramites of Damascus came to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, as he went to recover his border at the River.

3 After this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and David took the bridle of bondage out of the hand of the Philistines.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for an hundred chariots. {from:... or, Methegammah: or, the bridle of Ammah}

4 And David took from him a thousand and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for an hundred chariots.

5 Then came the Aramites of Damascus to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, as he went to recover his dominion at the river Euphrates. {Hadadezer: or, Hadarezer}

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, David smote of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus: and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought presents. And the LORD gave victory to David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

13 So David gave a name after that he returned, and had slayne of the Aramites in the valley of salt eighteen thousand men.

14 And he put a garison in Edom: throughout all Edom put he souldiers, and all they of Edom became David's servants: and the Lord kept David whithersoever he went.

15 Thus David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgement and justice unto all his people.

16 And Joab the sonne of Zeruiah was over the host, and Ioshaphat the sonne of Ahilud was recorder.

17 And Zadok the sonne of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the sonne of Abiathar were the Priests, and Seraiah was the scribe; {scribe: or, secretary}

18 And Benaiah the sonne of Iehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief rulers. {chief rulers: or, princes}

16 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; {recorder: or, remembrancer, or, writer of chronicles} and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were priests.

17 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were the Priests, and Seraiah was the recorder: or, remembrancer, or, writer of chronicles

18 And Benaiiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief rulers.

And David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him kindness for Jonathan's sake?

And David said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar.

5 Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar. And Mephiboseth, the son of Jonathan, the son of David, was lame on his feet, born in the day of the battle between Saul and Jonathan.

6 And Mephiboseth had a great store of provisions in the city, for he was well provided: for the Lord had blessed him.

7 Now it came to pass, when David had fetched him out of the house of Machir, that he demanded of him of his provision, and gave him, of his storehouse, and of his winepress, and of his cattle, and of his servants, and of his servants' wives, and of that which was in the city, and of that which was in the fields.

8 And Mephiboseth had much provision in the city: for he was well provided: for so the king had given him of the provision of the house, and of the flesh of her manger.
of Saul, came unto David, and fell on his face, and did obeisance. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant!

7 And David said unto him, Fear not: for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and wilt restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.

8 And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such a dead dog as I am?

9 Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, All that pertained to Saul and to all his house have I given unto thy master's son.

10 And thou shalt till the land for him, thou, and thy sons, and thy servants; and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have bread to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread alway at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king commandeth his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the kings sons.

12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Mica. And all that dwelt in the house of Machir, Saul's servant, was Ziba. And when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, Thy servant is he. said unto him, I have given unto thy master’s son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master’s son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master’s son shall eat bread alway at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king’s sons.

12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Micha. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth.

13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king’s table; and was lame on both his feet.

And it came to pass after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

2 Then sayd Daud, I will shewe kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindness unto me. And Daud sent to comfort him by the hand.

After this, the King of the children of Ammon dyed, and Hanun his sonne reigned in his steade.

11 Then sayd Ziba vnto the King, According to all that my lord the King hath commadde his seruant, so shal thy seruant do, that Mephibosheth may eate at my table, as one of the Kings sonnes.

12 Mephibosheth also had a yong sonne named Micha, and all that dwelled in the house of Ziba, were seruants vnto Mephibosheth.

13 And Mephibosheth dwelt in Ierusalem: for he did eate continually at the Kings table, and was lame on both his feete.
of his servants for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hast not David rather sent his servants vnto thee, to search the citie, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shewed off the halfe of their beard, and cut off their garments in the middle, euen to their buttockes, and sent them away.

5 When it was told vnto David, he sent to meete them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and sent them away.

6 And when the children of Ammon sawe that they stanke in the sight of Dauid, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Aramites of Bethrehob, and the Aramites of Zoba, twenty thousande foote men, and of King Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-tob twelve thousande men.

7 And when Dauid heard of it, he sent Ioab, and all the hoste of the mighty men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put their armie in araye at the entring in of the gate: and the battle was set against them before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians of Zobah, and of Rehob, and the men of Tob and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.

9 Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians:

10 And the rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai his brother, and he put them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.

12 Be strong and let us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which is good in his eyes.

13 And Joab, and the people that was with him, joined in battle with the Syrians, who fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians fled, they fled also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15 And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together.

So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

And it came to pass, at the return of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem.

And it came to pass, at the return of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah: but David remayned in Jerusalem.

And when the yeere was expired in the time when Kings goe forth to battell, Dauid sent Ioab, and his seruantes with him, and all Israel; and they made peace with Israel, and servd them. So the Syrians feared to helpe the children of Ammon any more.

And when the woman conceived, and she sent and told David, and said, I am purged from my uncleanness; and she returned unto her house. And one said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite? And David sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?

And when all the Kings, that were seruants to Hadarezer, saw that they fell before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and servd them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

And it came to pass in the morning, that David called Uriah the Hittite, to come unto him. But Uriah washed his feet, and returned to his place.

And when Uriah was come unto him, David dealeth with him, saying, Art thou not come from a journey? wherefore didst thou not go down unto thine house?

And Uriah answered David, and said unto him, The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in booths; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open field; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.

12 And David said to Uriah, Tarry here today also, and tomorrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow.

13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

14 And it came to pass in the morning, that David sent to Uriah the Hittite, and said, Go down to thy house, and wash thy feet. So Uriah departed out of the king's palace, and the king sent a present after him.

15 And Uriah received of the king a mess of meat from the king, and wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's palace, and the king sent a present after him.

16 Then Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

17 When they had told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Art thou not come from a journey? wherefore didst thou not go down unto thine house?

18 Then they tolde David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and commest thou not from thy iourney? why didst thou not go down unto his house.

19 But Uriah slept at the door of the Kings palace with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

20 And the woman conceived: therefore shee sent and tolde David, and sayd, I am with childe. And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

21 And David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and commest thou not from thy iourney? why didst thou not go down unto thine house.

22 And Uriah answered David, and said unto him, The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in booths; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open field; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.

I will not do this thing.

22 So the messenger went, and came and shewed David all that Joab had sent him for.
23 And the messenger said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate.
24 And the shooters shot at thy servants from off the wall; and some of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.
25 Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing trouble thee, for the sword devoureth one as well as another: make thy battell more strong against the city, and destroy it, and encourage thou him.
26 And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she made lamentation for her husband.
27 And when the mourning was past, David sent and took her home to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.
26 And when the wife of Uriah heard that her husband Uriah was dead, she mourned for her husband.
27 So when the mourning was past, David sent and took her into his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son: but ye thing that David had done, displeased the Lord.

Then the Lord sent Nathan unto David, who came to him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city, the one rich, and the other poor.

2 The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds:
3 But the poor man had none at all, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own morsel, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

And the rich man said, I will fetch her to my house, and she became his wife, and she grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own morsel, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

And the LORD sent Nathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.

And there came a traveler unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man’s lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

And David’s anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this thing shall surely die:

And David was exceeding wroth with the man, and said to Nathan, The man that hath done this thing, shall surely die, and because he had no pity.

And he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he hath done this thing, and had no pity thereof.

Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul, and gaue thee thy master’s house, and thy master’s wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of the children of Ammon.

And I gave thee thy master’s house, and thy master’s wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of the children of Ammon.

Wherefore hast thou despised the commandement of the LORD, to do evil in his sight? thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up unto thee thine enemies, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die.

LORD struck the child that Uriah’s wife bare unto David, and it was very sick.

16 David therefore besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night upon the earth.

17 And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eate meate with them.

The LORD also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die.

14 Howbeit because by this deed thou hast caused the enemies of the Lord to blaspheme, the child that is borne unto thee shall surely die.

The Lord also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die.

13 Then David sayde vnto Nathan, I haue sinned before all Israel, and before the sunne.

12 For thou didst it secretly: but I will do this thing befoere all Israel, and before the sunne.

11 Thus sayth the Lord, Behold, I will rayse vp euil against thee out of thine owne house, and will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wiues in the sight of this sunne.

10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for from thine house, because thou hast despised me, and taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.
18 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead? {vex: Heb. do hurt}

19 But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore they said, He is dead.

20 Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the LORD, and worshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat.

21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread.

22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted, and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether GOD will be gracious to me, that the child may live?

23 But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

24 And David comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, and he called his name Solomon. And the LORD loved him;

25 and he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet, and he called his name Jedidiah, for the LORD's sake.

26 Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, yea, I have taken the city of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it: lest I take the city, and it be called after my name.

29 And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.
24 And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her, and she bare a son, and he called his name Solomon: also the Lord loved him.

25 For the Lord had sent by Nathan the Prophet: therefore he called his name Iedidjah, because the Lord loved him.

26 Then Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the citie of the kingdom. And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I haue fought against Rabbah, and haue taken the citie of waters.

27 Therefore Joab sent messengers to David, saying, I haue fought against Rabbah, and haue taken the citie of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, that thou mayest take it: lest the victorie be attributed to me.

29 So Dauid gathered al the people together, and went against Rabbah, and besieged it, and tooke it. And he tooke their Kings crowne from his head, (which weighed a talent of golde, with precious stones) and it was set on Davids head: and he brought away the spoyle of the citie in exceeding great abundance.

30 And he carried away the people that was therein, and put them vnder sawes, and vnder yron harowes, and vnder axes of yron, and cast them into the tyle kyln: euen thus did he with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.
And it came to pass after this, that Absalom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her.

2 And Amnon was so vexed that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin, and it seemed hard to Amnon to do any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David’s brother: and Jonadab was a very subtil man.

4 And he said unto him, Why art thou the King’s son so lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? Then Amnon answered him, I love Tamar my brother Absalom’s sister.

5 And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and feign thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and let her dress me in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

6 So Amnon lay down, and feigned himself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon’s house, and dress him food.

8 And he sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon’s house, and dress him food.

9 And it came to pass after this, that Absalom the son of David haying a faire sister, whose name was Tamar, Amnon the son of David loued her.

2 And Amnon was so sore vexed, that he fell sicke for his sister Tamar: for she was a virgin, and it seemed hard to Amnon to doe any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend called Jonadab, the sonne of Shimeah Dauids brother: and Ionadab was a very subtile man.

4 Who sayde vnto him, Why art thou the Kings sonne so leane from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? Then Amnon answered him, I loue Tamar my brother Absaloms sister.

5 And Ionadab sayd vnto him, Lie downe on thy bed, and make thy selfe sicke: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say vnto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and giue me meate, and let her dresse meate in my sight, that I may see it, and eat of her hand.

6 So Amnon lay downe, and feigned himself sicke: and when the King came to see him, Amnon sayde to his father, I love Tamar my brother Absaloms sister.
6 So Amnon was laid down, and made himself sick; and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she took the pan, and poured them out before him. And Amnon said unto her, Bring the meat that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar said, Nay, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: commit not this folly.

11 And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister.

12 But she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not thou this folly.

13 And I, whither shall I cause my shame to goe? and as for me, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the King, for he will not withhold me from thee.

14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: but being stronger than she, he forced her, and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated her with exceeding great 13 And, if, willest thou cause my shame to go and as for thee, thou shal be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee.
14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: but, being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her.
15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love, wherewith he had loved her: and Amnon said vnto her, Vp, get thee hence.
16 And she answered him, There is no cause: this euill (to put mee away) is greater then the other that thou diddest vnto me: but he would not heare her voice, but being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her.
17 Then he called his servaunt that ministered unto him, and sayd vnto her, Arise, be gone. (exceedingly: Heb. with great hatred greatly)
18 (And she had a garment of diuers coulours vpon her hand on her head, and went her way crying.) Then his servaunt brought her out, and bolted the doore after her.
19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent the corner of divers colours that was on her; and she went her way crying.
20 And Absalom her brother said vnto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but now hold thy peace; my sister: he is thy brother; take not this thing to heart. So Tamar remayned desolate in her brother Absalom’s house.
21 But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.
22 And Absalom spake unto Amnon neither good nor denie me vnto thee.
23 Nevertheless Amnon would not hearken to her voice; for her voice was vnto him more than all other voices.
24 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent the corner of divers colours that was on her; and she went her way crying.
25 Then Absalom her brother said vnto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but now hold thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; take not this thing to heart. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom’s house.
26 But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.
27 And Absalom spake unto Amnon neither good nor denie me vnto thee.
28 And Amnon was wroth exceedingly with Tamar, and loved her not more than before.
29 Wherefore Amnon said vnto her, Arise, be gone. (exceedingly: Heb. with great hatred greatly) 30 And she answered him, Not so, because this great hatred greatly exceedeth the love, wherewith he had loved her.
31 But he would not hearken unto her voice: but, being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her.
32 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love, wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said vnto her, Vp, get thee hence.
33 And she answered him, There is no cause: this euill (to put mee away) is greater then the other that thou diddest vnto me; but he would not heare her, but being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her.
34 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love, wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said vnto her, Vp, get thee hence.
35 And she answered him, There is no cause: this euill (to put mee away) is greater then the other that thou diddest vnto me: but he would not heare her, but being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her.
36 And she answered him, There is no cause: this euill (to put mee away) is greater then the other that thou diddest vnto me; but he would not heare her, but being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her.
37 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love, wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said vnto her, Vp, get thee hence.
38 And she answered him, There is no cause: this euill (to put mee away) is greater then the other that thou diddest vnto me; but he would not heare her, but being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her.
39 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love, wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said vnto her, Vp, get thee hence.
40 And she answered him, There is no cause: this euill (to put mee away) is greater then the other that thou diddest vnto me; but he would not heare her, but being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her.
41 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love, wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said vnto her, Vp, get thee hence.
42 And she answered him, There is no cause: this euill (to put mee away) is greater then the other that thou diddest vnto me; but he would not heare her, but being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her.
43 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love, wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said vnto her, Vp, get thee hence.
44 And she answered him, There is no cause: this euill (to put mee away) is greater then the other that thou diddest vnto me; but he would not heare her, but being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her.
45 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love, wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said vnto her, Vp, get thee hence.
28 And Absalom commanded his servants, saying,

27 But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and his servants go with thy servant.

25 And the king said to Absalom, Nay my son, let us not all go, lest we be burdensome unto thee.

24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold my brother Amnon goe with vs? And the king answered him, Why should he go with thee?

23 And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had sheepsheapers in Baalhazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

22 And Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

21 But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

20 And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but thanked him.

19 Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto Amnon, Why should he go with thee?

18 But Absalom was instant vpon him, and he sent for Amnon, and bad him come vnto him.

17 Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon, I pray thee, brother Amnon, the king sent for thee vnto that thou shouldest sleeue Tamar my sister.

16 And Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled.

15 But when King Dauid heard all these things, he was very wroth.

14 And Absalom sayde vnto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

13 And after the time of two yeeres, Absalom had sheepshepers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim, and Absalom called all the Kings sons.

12 And Absalom came to the King and sayd, Beholde now, thy seruant hath sheepesherers: I pray thee, and his servants go with thy seruant.

11 And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had sheepsheapers in Baalhazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

10 But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

9 Absalom's house. {Amnon: Heb. Aminon} {regard...: Heb. and desolate}

8 But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

7 And Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons go with him.

6 But the king answered Absalom, Nay my sonne, I pray thee, let vs go to the wine, and when I say vnto you, Smite Amnon, kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant.

5 And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but thanked him.

4 But Absalom was instant vpon him, and he sent for Amnon, and bad him come vnto him.

3 And Absalom had commanded his servants, saying,

2 And Absalom said vnto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

1 And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had sheepsheapers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.
28 Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon’s heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not; have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant. {have...: or, will you not, since I have commanded you?} {valiant: Heb. sons of valour}

29 And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king’s sons arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled. {gat...: Heb. rode}

30 And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David saying, Absalom hath slain all the king’s sons, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the king arose, and rent his garments, and lay on the ground; and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent.

32 And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David’s brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men the king’s sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Absalom this hath been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar. {appointment: Heb. mouth} {determined: or, settled}

33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing so grievously, to think that all ye Kings sons are dead: for Amnon only is dead.

34 But Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind him.

35 And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king’s sons are come: as thy servant said, so it is.

36 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king’s sons came, and lifted up their voice, and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept very sore.
Then Joab the sonne of Zeruiah perceyued, that the Kings heart was toward Absalom,

2 And Joab sent to Tekoah, and brought thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourning woman, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman, and say unto him. So Joab put the words in her mouth.

Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king’s heart was toward Absalom.

and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead:

3 And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Joab put the words in her mouth.

4 And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king. {Help: Heb. Save}

5 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead: And she said, Help, O King. {Help: Heb. Save}

6 And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and killed him.

7 And, behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and we will destroy the heir also: and we will destroy the heir also: so they shall quench my sparkle which is left, and shall not leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon the face of the earth. {upon...: Heb. upon the face of the earth}

8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give charge concerning thee.

9 And the woman of Tekoa said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father’s house: and the king and his throne be guiltless.

10 And the king said, Whosoever saith aught unto my lord the king, and shall leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon the face of the earth, {none...: Heb. no deliverer between them}

11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember the LORD thy God, that the avenger of blood destroy not any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, As the LORD liveth, there shalt not one hair of thy son fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray, thy son fall to the earth.

13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou spoken unto me this manner of words, since I know that thou shalt do no harm unto my son?
1 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O King, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house, and the King and his throne be guiltless.

2 And the king said, Bring him to me that speaketh against thee, and he shall taste of thee no more.

3 Then the woman said, I pray thee, let the king remember me, and remember my son, and cause him to come to me.

4 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again.

5 Neither doeth God respect any person: yet doeth he devise such a thing against the people of God? for the king hath not fetched home again his banished one.

6 Now therefore seeing that I am come to speak of this word unto my lord the King, the cause is that the king doth not fetch home again his banished.

7 And the woman answered and said, As my lord, O King, the iniquity be on me, and on my son together out of the inheritance of God.

8 But as for me, give, I beseech thee, thy servant the king, all that pertaineth to me of the field of the forest.

9 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again;

10 that the revenger of blood do not multiply to destroy.

11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember me, and remember my son, and cause him to come to me.

12 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again;

13 that the king doth not fetch home again his banished.

14 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again;

15 neither doeth God spare any person, yet doeth he devise such a thing against the people of God? for the king will perform the request of his servant.

16 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again;

17 that the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his banished.

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Say on.

19 And the king said, Is the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As 15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king: it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid.

16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God.

17 Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comfortable: for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad: therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee. {comfortable: Heb. for rest} {to discern: Heb. to hear}

18 Then the king answered, and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king know that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:

19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, I will not turne to the right hand nor to the left, from ought that my lord the King hath spoken: for as an angel of God, to know all things good and bad: therefore the Lord thy God be with thee in all this? And the woman answered, and said, Let my lord the King now speake.

20 To fetch about this form of speach hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things.

21 And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again.

22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and did obeisance, and blessed the king: end Joab said, Today thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath performed the request of his servant.

23 So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, but let him not see my face. So Absalom turned to his own house, and saw not the king’s face.

25 Now in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.
26 And when he polled his head, (for it was at every year’s end that he polled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the king’s weight.

27 And unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a fair countenance.

28 And Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem; and he saw not the king’s face.

29 Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king; but he would not come to him: and he sent again a second time, but he would not come.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab’s field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom’s servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?

32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it was better for me to be there still: now therefore let me see the king’s face; and if there be iniquity in me, let him kill me.
28 So Absalom dwelt in Jerusalem two full years, and saw not the King's face.

29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the King; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again, he would not come.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, Behold, Joab's field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?

32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the King, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? It had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the King's face; and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

33 So Joab came to the King, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the King, and the King kissed Absalom.
After this, Absalom prepared him chariots and horses, and fifty men to runne before him.

2 And Absalom rose vp early, and stooed hard by the entring in of the gate: and euery man that had any matter, and came to the King for judgement, him did Absalom call vnto him, and sayde, Of what cite art thou? And he answered, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.

3 Then Absalom said vnto him, See, thy matters are good and righteous, but there is no man deputed of the King to heare thee.

4 Absalom sayd moreouer, Oh that I were made Judge in the lande, that euery man which hath any matter of controueresie, might come to me, that I might do him iustice.

5 And when any man came neere to him, and did him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and tooke him, and kissed him.

6 And on this maner did Absalom to al Israel that came to the King for iudgement: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 And after fourtie yeeres, Absalom sayd vnto the King, I pray thee, let me go to Hebron, and render my vowe which I haue vowed vnto the Lord.

And it came to passe after this, that Absalom prepared him a chariot and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controverse came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel. {came: Heb. to come}

3 And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right; but there is no man deputed of the King to heare thee. {there...: or, none will hear thee}

4 Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the lande, that euery man which hath any matter of controueresie, might come to me, that I might do him iustice.

5 And it was so, that when any man came neere to him, and did him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and tooke him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the King for iudgement: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 And it came to pass after forty yeeres, that Absalom had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called vnto him, and sayde, Of what citie art thou? And he answered, Thy seruant is of one of the tribes of Israel. {came: Heb. to come}

8 And when any man came nigh to him, and did him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took hold of him, and kissed him.

9 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took hold of him, and kissed him.

10 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.
11 And it came to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.

12 Then David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, let us flee; for else none of us shall escape from Absalom: make speed with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for we shall not else escape from Absalom. Make speed to depart, lest he overtake us quickly, and bring none of us to destruction.

13 And there came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.

14 And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for else none of us shall escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us quickly, and bring down evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king’s servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do according to all that my lord the king shall command.

8 For thy servant vowed a vow when I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the Lord shall bring me again in peace into Jerusalem, then I will serve the Lord.

9 And the king said unto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 Then Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, When ye hear the sound of the trumpet, Ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Jerusalem.

11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called; and they went in their simplicity, knowing nothing.

12 Also Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David’s counsellor, from his city Giloh, while he offered sacrifices: and the conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom.

13 Then came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are turned after Absalom.

14 Then David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Vp, and let vs flee: for we shall not escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he come suddenly and take us, and bring euill upon vs, and smite the citie with the edge of the sword.

15 And the kings servants sayd vnto him, Behold, thy seruants are ready to do according to all that my lord the king shall command.

37 So Hushai David’s friend went into the city: and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

And when David was a little past the top of the hill, behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and an hundred bunches of raisins, and an hundred of summer fruits, and a bottle of wine.

2 And the king said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, The asses be for the king’s household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as be faint in the wilderness may drink.

3 And the king said, And where is thy master’s son? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem: for he said, To day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

4 Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertaineth unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, I do obeissance; let me find favour in thy sight, my lord, O king.

5 And when king David came to Bahurim, behold, there came out thence a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera: he came out, and cursed still as he came.

When David was a little past the top of the hill, behold, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and an hundred bunches of raisins, and an hundred of dryed figges, and a bottel of wine.

2 And the King said unto Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, They be asses for the kings household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as be faint in the wilderness may drink.

3 And the king sayde, But where is thy masters son? Then Ziba answered the King, Beholde, he abideth at Jerusalem. Then the King said, And where is thy master’s son? And Ziba said, He abideth at Jerusalem: for he said, Today shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

4 Then the king said to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertaineth unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, I do obeissance; let me find favour in thy sight, my lord, O king.

5 And when king David came to Bahurim, behold, there came out thence a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera: he came out, and cursed still as he came.
6 And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

7 And thus said Shimei when he cursed, Come out, thou bloody man, and thou man of Belial: come forth, thou dead dog, and man of Belial; why doeth this dead dog curse my lord the king? let me goe, I pray thee, and take away his head.

8 The Lord hath brought vpon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and the Lord hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and beholde, thou art a bloody man, and man of Belial: come out, thou man of blood, and man of Belial:

9 And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? Because he curseth, and because he curseth, and because he curseth, and because he curseth.

10 And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? Who art thou that thou shouldest intermeddle with me to-day? I also shall go out against thee, and the king shall be as a man of war against thee.

11 And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life: how much more may this Benjamite now do it? let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD hath hended him.

12 It may be that the LORD will look on the wrong done unto me, and that the LORD will requite me.
19 And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill side over against him, cursing as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust. {cast...: Heb. dusted him with dust}

20 Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, Give your counsel what we shall do.

21 And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in unto thy father’s concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art ab
19 And moreouer vnto whom shall I doe service? not to his sonne? as I serued before thy father, so will I before thee.
20 Then spake Absalom to Ahithophel, Giue counsel what we shall doe.
21 And Ahithophel said vnto Absalom, Goe in to thy fathers concubines, which he hath left to keepe the house: and when all Israel shall heare, that thou art abhorred of thy father, the hands of all that are with thee, shall be strong.
22 So they spread Absalom a tent vpon the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his fathers concubines, which he hath left to keepe the house; and all Israel shall heare that thou art abhorred of thy father, the hands of all that are with thee, shall be strong.
23 And the counsell of Ahithophel which he counselled in those dayes, was as if a man had enquired at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with Daud and with Absalom. {oracle: Heb. word}

Moreover Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after Daud this night:
2 And I will come vpon him while he is weary and weake handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him shall flee; and I will smite the king only:
3 And I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace.
4 And the saying pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel.
5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he saith.
6 And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken
After this manner: shall we do after his saying? if not, speak thou.
7 And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath given is not good at this time.
8 For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father, and his men, that they be strong men, and are chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a valiant warrior, and will not lodge with the people.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some cave, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will think that which followeth Absalom, be overthrown.

10 Then he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are mighty men.

11 But I counsel that all Israel be gathered together unto thee, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that thou go to battle in thine own person.

12 And I will bring against all the people vnto thee, and when all shall returne, (the man whome thou seest being slaine) all the people shall be in peace.

13 And the saying pleased Absalom well, and all the people that are with him shall flee: and I will smite the man whom thou seest as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace.

14 And I will bring againe all the people vnto thee, and when all shall returne, (the man whome thou seest being slaine) all the people shall be in peace.

15 And I will bring againe all the people vnto thee, and when all shall returne, (the man whome thou seest being slaine) all the people shall be in peace.
18 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the LORD had ordained to destroy the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom. {ap
19 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.
20 Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, Of this and that manner did Ahithophel counsel Absalom: and thus and thus have I counselled.
21 And Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not taken into consideration, therefore he said, I will go, and I will return into my house: and Absalom will surely say, I have counselleth me. And it shall be, when I depart, that whosoever cometh out of the city, he is to shew according to all the counsel of Hushai the Archite.
22 Then said Ahithophel unto Absalom, Go in also unto the field of the wildernesse, and lodge not at the fords of the wilderness; but in any wise pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.
23 SoAbsalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the LORD had appointed the counsel of Hushai the Archite is better, then the counsel of Ahithophel: for the Lord had determined to destroy the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring euill vpon Absalom.
24 Now therefore sende quickely, and shewe Dauid, saye, There is a slaughter among the people that follow with him, stout men.
25 And they went down thither.
26 And a lad saw them, and told Absalom: and they went both of them away quickly, and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down thither.

And they went down thither. And a lad saw them, and told Absalom: and they went both of them away quickly, and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down thither.

11 Therefore my counsell is, that all Israel be gathered vnto thee, from Dan euen to Beer-sheba as the sand of the sea in number, and that thou goe to battle in thine owne person.
12 So shall we come vpon him in some place, where dewe falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the men that are with him, we will not leave one small stone founde there.
13 Moreover if he be gotten into a citie, then shall all the men of Israel bring ropes to that citie, and we will draw it into the riuer, vntill there be not one as one.
14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel sayde, saying, Tarie not this night in the fieldes of the wildernesse, but rather get thee ouer, lest the King be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him there shall not be left so much as one.
15 Then said Hushai vnto Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, Of this and that maner did Ahithophel counsel Absalom: and thus and thus have I counselled.
16 Then Absalom and all the men of Israel sayde, Lodge not this night at the fords of the wilder-ness, but in any wise pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.
17 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.
18 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the LORD had ordained to destroy the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring euill vpon Absalom.
19 Then said Hushai vnto Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, Of this and that maner did Ahithophel counsel Absalom: and thus and thus have I counselled.
20 Now therefore sende quickely, and shewe Dauid, saye, There is a slaughter among the people that follow with him, stout men.
21 And a lad saw them, and told Absalom: and they went both of them away quickly, and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down thither.
22 Then said Hushai vnto Zadok and to Abiathar the Priests, Of this and that maner did Ahithophel counsel Absalom: and thus and thus have I counselled.
23 And Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not taken into consideration, therefore he said, I will go, and I will return into my house: and Absalom will surely say, I have counselleth me. And it shall be, when I depart, that whosoever cometh out of the city, he is to shew according to all the counsel of Hushai the Archite.
24 Now therefore sende quickely, and shewe Dauid, saye, There is a slaughter among the people that follow with him, stout men.
25 And they went down thither. And a lad saw them, and told Absalom: and they went both of them away quickly, and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down thither.
13 Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by Enrogel; for they might not be seen to come into the city: and a woman went and told them; and they went and told king David.

18 Nevertheless a young man saw them, and told Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, which had a well in his court; whereinto they went down.

19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and nothing was known.

20 And Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house; and they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman answered them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And as soon as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and went and told King David, and said unto him, Arise ye, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you.

22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not come over Jordan.

23 And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and got him home unto his city, and set his house in order, and hanged himself; and he died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

24 Then David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.
25 And Absalom set Amasa over the host instead of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man, whose name was Ithra the Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab’s mother.

26 And Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim,

28 brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and meal, and parched corn, and beans, and lentils, and parched pulse,

29 and honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.
Then David numbered the people that were with him, and set over them captains of thousands and captains of hundreds.

2 And David sent forth the third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and the third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah; Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite, and the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also.

3 But the people said, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but thou art worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou be ready to succour us out of the city.

4 And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you into the battle: and the people went out to meet King David.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim.

7 And the people of Israel were smitten there before the children of Ammon, and Mahanaim, and the children of Ammon, and Gilead, and the children of Ephraim.

8 And the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim.

9 And the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom. And the king said unto Joab, 'Thou shalt be with the people, thou shalt go thou with me into the battle.'
the servants of David, and there was a great slaughter there that day of twenty thousand men.

8 For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

9 And Absalom chanced to meet the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went.

10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak.

11 And Joab said unto the man that told him, And behold, thou sawest it, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten pieces of silver, and a girdle.

12 And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand pieces of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king’s son: for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Beware that none touch the young man Absalom.

13 Otherwise if I had dealt falsely against his life, (and there is no matter hid from the king,) then thou thyself wouldst have stood aloof.

therefore nowe it is better that thou succour vs out of the citie.

4 Then the King said vnto them, What seemeth you best, that I will doe. So the King stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreths and by thousands.

5 And the King commanded Ioab and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Entreate the yong man Absalom gently for my sake. and all the people heard whe the King gaue al the captaines charge concerning Absalom.

6 So the people went out into the fielde to meete Israel, and the battell was in the wood of Ephraim:

7 Where the people of Israel were slaine before the seruants of Dauid: so there was a great slaughter that day, euen of twenty thousand.

8 For the battel was skattered ouer all the countrey: and the wood deuoured much more people that day, then did the sworde.

9 Nowe Absalom met the seruants of Dauid, and Absalom rode vpon a mule, and the mule came vnder a great thicke oke: and his head caught holde of the oke, and he was taken vp betweene the heauen and the earth: and the mule that was vnder him went away.

10 And one that sawe it, tolde Ioab, saying, Beholde, I sawe Absalom hanged in an oke.
11 Then Joab said unto the man that told him, And hast thou in deede scene? why then diddest thou not smite him to the ground, and I would have giuen thee ten shekels of siluer, and a girdle?

12 Then the man said vnto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand shekels of siluer in mine hande, yet woulde I not lay mine hande vpon the Kings sonne: for in our hearing the King charged thee, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Beware, least any touche the yong man Absalom.

13 If I had done it, it had bene the danger of my life: for nothing can be hid from the King: yea, thou thy selfe wouldest haue bin against me.

14 Then saide Joab, I will not thus tary with thee. And he tooke three dartes in his hande, and thrust them through Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak. {with...: Heb. before thee}

15 And tenne seruants that bare Joabs armour, compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.

14 Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with thee. And he tooke three dartes in his hande, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

15 And ten young men that bare Joab’s armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.

16 Then Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab helde backe the people.

16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab helde backe the people.

17 And they tooke Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the forest, and layed a mightie great heape of stones vpon him: and all Israel fled euery hand} {Beware...: Heb. Beware whosoever ye be of, young man Absalom. {receive: Heb. weigh upon mine hand}
16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people.

17 And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent.

18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name, and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place.

19 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, I pray thee, let me run and beare tidings that the Lord hath delivered him out of the hande of his enemies.

20 And Joab said vnto him, Thou shalt not be the messenger to day, but thou shalt beare tidings another time, but to day thou shalt beare none: for the Kings sonne is dead.

21 Then said Joab to Cushi, Goe, tel the king, what thou hast seene. And Cushi bowed himselfe vnto Joab, and ran.

22 Then saide Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok againe to Joab, and ran.

23 Yet what if I runne? Then he saide vnto him, If thou be not the messenger to day, but thou shalt beare no tidings to day, but thou shalt beare tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the kings son is dead.

24 Now Dauid sate betweene the two gates. And the watchman cried, and told the king.

25 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my sonne, seeing that thou hast no tidings to runne, my sonne, seeing that thou hast no tidings to runne, my sonne, seeing that thou hast no tidings to runne?

26 And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not be the messenger to day, but thou shalt beare tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead.

27 And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings.

28 And he ran by the way of the plain, and ouerwent Cushi.

29 And Joab said vnto him, But howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cushi. And Joab said, Wherefore will thou run, and ouerwent Cushi.

30 Then said Joab vnto Cushi, Go tell the king what thou hast seene. And Cushi bowed himselfe vnto Joab, and ran.

31 Then said Joab vnto Cushi, Goe, tel the king, what thou hast seene. And Cushi bowed himselfe vnto Joab, and ran.

32 Then saide Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadok againe to Joab, What, I pray thee, if I also runne after Cushi? And Joab said, Wherefore now wilt thou runne, my sonne, seeing that thou hast no tidings to bring?

33 Yet what if I runne? Then he saide vnto him, Runne. So Ahimaaz ranne by the way of the plaine, and ouerwent Cushi.

34 Now Davud sat betweene the two gates. And the watchman went up to the roof of the gate unto the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, a man running alone.

35 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near.

36 And the watchman saw another man running: and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold, another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings.

37 And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings.
28 And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, All is well. And he bowed himself before the king with his face to the earth, and said, Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king.

29 And the king said, Is it well with the young man Absalom? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, even me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was.

30 And the king said, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still.

31 And, behold, the Cushite came; and the Cushite said, Tidings for my lord the king: for the LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee.

32 And the king said unto the Cushite, Is it well with the young man Absalom? And the Cushite answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise up against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is.

33 And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!
And it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom.

2 And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day all the evil that hath befallen thee from thy youth

And it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom.

2 And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day all the evil that hath befallen thee from thy youth.
And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah. {victory: Heb. to the heart of thy servants}

And the people went that day into the city, {fortably...: Heb. to the heart of thy servants} as people being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.

So the King hid his face, and the King cried with a loud voice, My son Absalom, Absalom my sonne, my sonne.

Then Joab came into the house to the King, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, which this day have saved thy life and the lives of thy sones, and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wiues, and the liues of the concubines,

In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends: for thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither thy princes nor servants: therefore this day I perceive, that if Absalom had liued, and we all had dyed this day, that then it would have pleased thee well.

Nowe therefore vp, come out, and speake comfortably vnto thy seruants: for I sweare by the Lord, except thou come out, there will not tarie one man with thee this night: and that wil be worse vnto thee, than all the euill that fell on thee from thy youth hitherto.

Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Beholde, the king doeth sit in the gate: and all the people came before the king, to bring him to his house.

And king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, to bring him to his house.

Ye are my brethren, ye are my bone and my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king?

And say ye to Amasa, Art thou not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the room of Joab.
8 Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king: for Israel had fled every man to his tent.
9 And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom.
10 And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle: therefore why art thou so slow to bring the King againe?
11 But King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speake vnto the Elders of Iudah, and say, Why are ye behind to bring the King againe to his house, (for the saying of al Israel is come vnto the king, euen to his house) 12 Ye are my brethren: my bones and my flesh are ye: wherefore then are ye the last that bring the King againe?
13 Also say ye to Amasa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king over Jordan.
14 And he bowed the heartes of all the men of Iudah, even as the heart of one man; so that they sent this doeth sit in the gate: and all the people came before the King: for Israel had fled every man to his tent.
20 For thy servant doth know that I have sinned:
therefore, behold, I am come this day the first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.
21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD’S anointed?

22 And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be adversaries unto me? Shall not Shimei die for this, because he cursed the LORD’S anointed?

23 And the king said unto him, Eliezer, shall I now cause blood to be taken of the LORD’S anointed? And he said, Let her be put to death; for she cursed the LORD’S anointed, and the LORD shall cause it to be repaid unto her.”

24 And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king; and he had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came home in peace.

25 And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth?

26 And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant perversely the day that my lord the king departed; for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go with the king; because thy servant is lame.

27 And he hath blasphemed my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes.

28 For all my father’s house were but dead men; and to conduct him over Iorden.

29 And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, when the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart.

30 And the king said unto Shimei, thou shalt not die. And the king sware unto him.

31 And they went over Jordan before the king.

32 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king.

33 And there went over a ferry boat to carry over his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king.

34 And they went over Jordan before the king.

35 And they came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

36 And Shimei the son of Gera, which was of Bahurim, hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David; and they went over Iorden before the king.

37 And the king said unto Shimei, thou shalt not die. And the king sware unto him.

38 And the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart.

39 And Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, What haue I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be adversar of the house of Joseph to go downe to meete my lord the King.

40 For thy servant doeth knowe, that I haue done that which my lord the king charged me to do.

41 Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth?

42 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei die for this, because he cursed the LORD’S anointed?”

43 But the king said, What have I to do with thee, thou sonne of Zeruiah? Is it not thou also of my houesold? therefore be not thou wroth at me, that I have spoken a truth in thy ears.

44 Nevertheless, as the LORD liveth, which hath delivered me out of the hand of mine enemies, of the hand of all them that would destroy me, 45 Even as the LORD liveth, the king shall not impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant did perversely the day that my lord the king departed; for my lord the king knoweth well that I sinned.

46 And the king said, Go to the king’s house, and abide there: and when thy brethren shall come againe, and enquire after thee, and sayest, Where is thy master? then shalt thou say unto them, Thus shall ye say unto him, Thy servant could not forbear to say, Neither Am I worthy of my lord’s house, being an alien.

47 And Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Are not all we Israelites brethren, one man? therefore why wilt thou be the first to go downe to the king? let not all the sons of Israel rise up to go to the king: wherefore shoulde the king impute wickednesse vnto me, nor remember that which thy servant did when my lord the king departed out of Jerusalem, that the King shoule take it to his heart.

48 And they went over Jordan before the king.

49 And there went over a ferry boat to carry over the house of Ioseph, that am come to goe downe to meete my lord the King.

50 For thy servant doeth knowe, that I haue done thing that thy seruant did wickedly when my lorde the king imputed wickednesse vnto me, nor remember that which thy servant did when my lord the king departed out of Jerusalem, that the King should take it to his heart.

51 And the king said, What haue I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be adversaries unto me? shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I knowe that I am this day king over Israel?

52 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD’S anointed?
I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice between good and bad? can thy servant taste what this day I am fourscore years old: can I discern with the king unto Jerusalem?

35 I am this day fourscore years old: can I discern between good and bad? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of Zeruiah, that this day ye should be adversaries vnto me? shall there any man die this day in Israel? for doe not I know that I am this day king over Israel?

23 Therefore the king saide vnto Shimei, Thou shalt not die, and the king spake vnto him.

24 And Mephiboseth the sonne of Saul came down to meete the king, and had neither washed his feete, nor dressed his beard, nor washed his clothes the day the king departed, vntill he returned in peace.

25 And when he was come to Jerusalem, and met the king, the king said vnto him, Wherefore wentest thou with me, Mephibosheth?

26 And he answered, My lorde the king, my seruant deceiued me: for thy seruant said, I would haue mine assadled to ride thereon, for to goe with the king, because thy seruant is lame.

27 And he hath accused thy seruant vnto my lorde because thy seruant is lame.

28 For all of my father's house were but dead men: and he deceiued me: for thy seruant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and goe to the king; wherefore wentest thou with me, Mephibosheth?

29 And the king said vnto him, Yea, let thy matters be therefore what is good in thine eyes. doe therefore thy pleasure.

30 And Mephibosheth said vnto the king, Yea, let me take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come in peace unto his owne house: yet didst thou set thy seruante among them that did eat at thine owne table. What right therefore have I yet that I should crye any more vnto my lord the king?
before my lord the king: yet didst thou set thy serv-right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the

And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, Thou and Ziba divide the land.

And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house.

And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old: and he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man.

Come thou over with me, and I will feede thee with me in Jerusalem.

How long haue I to liue, that I should goe vp with the king to Jerusalem?

I am this day fourescore yeere olde: and can I discerne between be good or euill? Hath thy seruant any taste in that I eat or in that I drinke? Can I heare any more the voyce of singing men and women?
wherefore then should thy servant be yet a burden unto my lord the king?

Thy servant would but just go over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?

Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, by the grave of my father and my mother. But behold, thy servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee.

And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee.

And the king said vnto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I haue said, Thou, and Ziba deuide the landes.

And Mephibosheth said vnto the king, Yea, let him take all, seeing my lorde the king is come home in peace.

Then Barzillai the Gileadite came downe from Rogelim, and went ouer Iorden with the king, to conduct him ouer Iorden.

Nowe Barzillai was a very aged man, euen fourscore yeere olde, and he had prouided the king of sustenance, while he lay at Mahanaim: for he was a man of very great substance.

And the king said vnto Barzillai, Come ouer with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem.

I am this day fourescore yeere olde: and can I discerne betweene good or euill? Hath thy seruant any taste in that I eat or in that I drinke? Can I heare any more the voyce of singing men and women?
wherefore then should thy seruant be anymore a burthen vnto my lord the king?

Thy servant will goe a litle way ouer Iorden with the King, and why wil the king recompence it me of singing men and singing women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet a burden unto my lord the king?

Thy servant would but just go over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me
with such a reward?

Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, by the grave of my father and my mother. But behold, thy servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee.

And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee.

And all the people went over Jordan, and the king went over: and the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned unto his own place.

So the king went over to Gilgal, and Chimham went over with him: and all the people of Judah brought the king over, and also half the people of Israel.

And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king; and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and brought the king, and his household, over Jordan, and all David's men with him?

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king’s cost? or hath he given us any gift?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king; and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

36 Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?

37 I pray thee, let thy servant turne backe againe, that I may die in mine owne citie, and be buryed by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant Chimham; let him goe with my lorde the king, and doe to him what shall please thee.

38 And the king answered, Chimham shall goe with me, and I will do to him that thou shalt be content with: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee.

39 So all the people went ouer Iorden: and the King passed ouer: and the King kissed Barzillai, and blessed him, and hee returned vnto his owne place.

40 Then the King went to Gilgal, and Chimham went with him, and all the people of Judah conduced the king, and also halfe ye people of Israel.

41 And behold, all the men of Israel came to the King, and sayd vnto the King, Why haue our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and haue brought the King and his houshold, and all Dauids men with him ouer Iorden?

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the King is neere of kin to vs: and wherefore now be ye angry for this matter? haue we eaten of the Kings cost, or haue any bribes?
Then there was come thither a wicked man (named Sheba the son of Bichri, a man of Lemience) and hee blew the trumpet, and said, We have no part in Dauid, neither have we inheritance in the sonne of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So euery man of Israel went from Dauid, and followed Sheba the sonne of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave fast vnto their king, from Iorden euen to Jerusalem.

3 When Dauid then came to his house to Ierusalem, the King tooke the ten women his concubines, that hee had left behinde him to keepe the house, and put them in warde, and fed them, but lay not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 Then said the king to Amasa, Call me the men of Judah together within three days, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went to call the men of Judah together: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And Dauid said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou thy lord’s servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape out of our sight.

And there happened to be there a man of Belial, whose name was Sheba, the sonne of Bichri, a Benjamite: and hee blew the trumpet, and said, We have no portion in Dauid, neither have we inheritance in the sonne of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So euery man of Israel went from after Dauid, and followed Sheba the sonne of Bichri: the men of Judah were fiercer then the wordes of the men of Iudah. {despise...: Heb. set us at light}

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, Wee haue ten partes in the King, and haue also more right in David than ye: Why then did ye despise vs, that our aduise should not bee first had in restoring our King? And the wordes of the men of Judah were fiercer then the wordes of the men of Israel.
When he saw that every one that came by him stood high and cast a garment over him, all the people stood still, he carried Amasa out of the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that he took Amasa by the beard with his hand, so he smote him therewith in the belly, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him in the loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in the right hand to kiss him. And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his hand, and he fell him to the ground, and struck him in the loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

Joab's hand: so he smote him therewith in the belly, and as he went forth it fell out.

And Joab's garment was girded with his apparel of war that he had put on, and upon it was a sword girded, which hanged on his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

When they were at the great stone, which is in Gibeah, Amasa came to meet them. And Joab was girded with his apparel of war that he had put on, and thereon was a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

Joab's men, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they departed out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeah, Amasa came to meet them. And Joab was girded with his apparel of war that he had put on, and upon it was a sword girded, which hanged on his loines in the sheath thereof, and as hee went forth it vsed to fall out.

And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou therefore thy lords seruants and pursue after him, lest he get him walled cities, and escape vs.

And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou therefore thy lords seruants and pursue after him, lest he get him walled cities, and escape vs.
10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab’s hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 And one of Joabs men stood by him, and said, He that fauoureth Joab, and he that is of Dauids part, let him go after Joab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and to Beth-maacah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of SOl, and to Beth-maacah, and all the Berites: and they cast up a mount against the city, and it stood against the rampart: and all the people that were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down. {in the trench: or, against the outmost wall} {battered: Heb. marred to throw down}

16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, I pray you, say unto Joab, Come thou hither, and hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.

17 And he came near unto her, and the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake, saying, they were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19 I am of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?

3 And David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you, and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of the Lord? 4 The Gibeonites then answered him, Wee will have no silver nor gold of Saul nor of his house, neither for vs shall thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I do for you. 5 Then they answered the King, The man that consumed vs and that imagined euill against vs, so that we are destroyed from remaining in any coast of Israel, 6 Let seuen men of his sonnes be deliuered vnto vs, and we will hang them vp vnto the Lord in Gibeah of Saul, the Lordes chosen. And the King said, I will give them. 7 But the King had compassion on Mephibosheth, the sonne of Jonathan the sonne of Saul, because of the Lordes oath, that was betweene them, betweene Dauid and Jonathan the sonne of Saul. 8 But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Saul, whom she bare to Adriel the sonne of Barzillai the Meholathite. 9 And hee deliuered them vnto the handes of the Gibeonites, which hanged them in the mountain of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginne of barley harvest. 10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and wept for them by night, and the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night. 11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done. 12 And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh-gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, and put them in a coffin in the sepulture of Saul in the field at Jabesh-gilead. 13 And hee sealed the coffins, and cut them up the bones of them, and brought them againe to Jerusaleme: and hee buried them in the sepulture of Saul in the sepulture of Saul at Gibeah. 14 And hee said, Lest the avenger of blood pursue me, and I be slain beside the dead. Therefore made hee them葬 in the sepulture of Saul. 15 And the Gibeonites said unto him, Why hast thou done this thing? and hee said, As they say that I haue done, so haue I done. 16 And when Saul was died, the Gibeonites went vp against the house of Saul. 17 And they said, How long will ye delay to go up to the house of the Lord? turn you, and go vp; for ye haue done foolishly. And hee went vp into the house of the Lord. 18 And when David was come to Zion, the women of Jerusalem went out to meet him, with timbrels, with dances: and they rejoiced before him, saying, Sing us a song of joy.

in the day that the Philistines slew Saul in Gilboa:
13 and he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.
14 And they buried the bones of Saul and of Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the sepulchre of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that God was entreated for the land.
15 And the Philistines had war again with Israel;
and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint.
16 and Ishbi-benob, which was of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David.
17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the lamp of Israel.
18 And it came to pass after this, that there was again war with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbecai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was of the sons of the giant.
And Dauid went downe, and his seruants with him, and they fought against the Philistims, and Dauid fainted.

16 Then Ishi-benob which was of the sonnes of Haraphah (the head of whose speare wayed three hundreth shekels of brasse) euen he being girded with a newe sword, thought to haue slaine Dauid.

17 But Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistim, and killed him. Then Dauids men sware vnto him, saying, Thou shalt goe no more out with vs to battell, lest thou quench the light of Israel.

18 And after this also there was a battell with the Philistims at Gob, then Sibbechai the Hushathite slewe Saph, which was one of ye sonnes of Haraphah.

19 And there was yet another battel in Gob with the Philistims, where Elhanah the sonne of Iaare-oregim, a Bethlehemite slewe Goliath the Gittite: the staffe of whose speare was like a weauers beame.

20 Afterward there was also a battel in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on euerie hand sixe fingers, and on euerie foot sixe toes, foure and twentie in nomber: who was also the sonne of Haraphah.

21 And when hee reuiled Israel, Jonathan the sonne of Shimei Dauid’s brother slew him.

19 And there was again war with the Philistines at Gob; and Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim the Bethlehemite slew Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver’s beam.

20 And there was again war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant.

21 And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimei David’s brother slew him.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.
And David spake unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.

2 And he said, The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my saviour, thou savest me from violence.

3 The God of my rock; in him will I trust: he is my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge; thou savest me from mine enemies.

4 I will call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

And Daud spake the woordes of this song vnto the Lord, what time the Lord had deliuered him out of the handes of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.

2 And he sayd, The Lord is my rocke and my fortress, and he that deliuereth mee.

3 God is my strength, in him will I trust; my shield, and the horne of my saluation, my high tower, and my refuge, my saviour; thou hast saued me from violence.

4 I will call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant. {defied: or, reproached} {Shimea: also called, Shammah}

21 And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Saul: {defied: or, Rapha}

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

22 These foure were borne to Haraphah in Gath, and died by the hande of Dauid and by the hands of his enemies.

Jonathan the son of Saul:
23 For all his judgments were before me: and as for the floods of vngodlinesse haue made mee afraied.
6 The sorowes of the graue compassed mee about: the snares of death ouertook mee.
7 But in my tribulation did I call vpon the Lord, and hee was angrie.
8 Then the earth trembled and quaked: the foundations of the heauens were laid bare, by the rebuke of his displeasse.
9 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.
10 He bowed the heauens also, and came downe, and darkenes was vnder his feete.
11 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: and he was seen vpon the winges of the winde.

19 They came upon me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.
20 He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

And the channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered by the rebuking of the Lord, and at the blast of the breath of his nostrils. He sent from above, he took me; he drew me out of many waters; many: or, great He delievered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me. He delievered me from my strong enemie, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me. They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay. He brought me forth also into a large place: by my God do I run upon a troop: by my God did I leap over a wall. For he maketh his feet like hinds’ feet: and setteth perfect in his way. God is my strong fortress: and he guideth the rock, save our God? For who is God, save the LORD? and who is a rock, save our God? God is my strong fortress: and he guideth the perfect in his way. He maketh his feet like hinds’ feet: and setteth perfect in his way.
27 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the frowarde thou wilt shew thyself unsavoury.

28 And the afflicted people thou wilt save; but thine eyes are upon the haughty, that thou mayest bring them down.

29 For thou art my lamp, O LORD: and the Lord will lighten my darkness.

30 For by thee I have run through a troop: by my God have I leaped over a wall.

31 As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all them that trust in him.

32 For who is God besides the Lord? and who is a rock, save our God?

33 God is my strength and power: and he maketh my way perfect.

34 He maketh my feet like hinders' feet: and setteth me upon my high places.

35 He teacheth my hands to war; so that a bowe of steel is broken by mine arms.

36 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy gentleness hath made me great.

37 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me; and my feet have not slipped.

38 I have pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them; neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

39 And I have consumed them, and smitten them through, that they cannot arise; yea, they are fallen under my feet.

40 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.

41 Thou hast also made mine enemies turn their backs unto me, that I might cut off them that hate me.

42 They looked, but there was none to save; even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.

43 Then did I beat them small as the dust of the earth, I did stamp them as the mire of the streets, and did spread them abroad.

40 For thou hast girded me with strength to battle: them that rose up against me hast thou subdued under me. {subdued: Heb. caused to bow}

41 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.

42 They looked, but there was none to save; even unto the Lord, but he answered them not.

44 Thou hast also delivered me from the contentions of my people, thou hast preserved me to be the head ouer nations: the people which I knewe not, doe serue me.

45 Strangers shall submit themselves unto me: as soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me.

46 The strangers shall fade away, and shall come trembling out of their close places.

47 The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and exalted be the God of the rock of my salvation:

48 Even the God that executeth vengeance for me, and bringeth down peoples under me, 49 And that bringeth me forth from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above them that rise up against me: thou deliverest me from the violent man.

50 Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the nations, and will sing praises unto thy name.

51 Great deliverance giveth he to his king: and sheweth lovingkindness to his anointed, to David and to his seed, for evermore.
Now these be the last words of David. David the son of Jesse said, and the man who was raised up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, and the sweet psalmist of Israel:

2 The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue.

3 The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, ye strength of Israel, and one that ruleth over men righteously, that ruleth in the fear of God. {He...: or, Be thou ruler, etc}

4 Euen as the morning light when the sunne riseth, shining after rain.

5 He shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, a morning without clouds; when the sun is up, he shall appear; and he shall go up from the snow and the frost of the earth, even as the warm grass springeth out of the earth, through clear shining after rain.

6 And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, and ruleth in the fear of God. {He...: or, Be thou ruler, etc}

7 But the man that toucheth them must be armed with iron and the staff of a spear; and they shall be utterly burned with fire in their place.

8 These be the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-basshebeth a Tahchemonite, chief of the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite, against and God, euen the force of my salvation be exalted.

9 It is God that giueth me power to reuenge me, and subduethe the people vnder me,

10 And rescueth me from mine enemies: (thou also hast lifted me vp from them that rose against me, thou hast deliuered me from the cruel man.

11 Therefore I will praise thee, O Lord among the heathen, and I will sing praises to thy name.

12 The spirit of the LORD spake by me, and his word was in my tongue.

13 The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, ye strength of Israel, and one that ruleth over men righteously, that ruleth in the fear of God. {He...: or, Be thou ruler, etc}

14 And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, shining after rain.

15 He is the tower of salvation for his king: and exalted be the God of the rock of my salvation.

16 Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord among the heathen, and I will sing praises to thy name.

17 The Rock of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, ye strength of Israel, and one that ruleth over men righteously, that ruleth in the fear of God. {He...: or, Be thou ruler, etc}

18 And God, euen the force of my salvation be exalted.

19 It is God that giueth me power to reuenge me, and subduethe the people vnder me,

20 And rescueth me from mine enemies: (thou also hast lifted me vp from them that rose against me, thou hast deliuered me from the cruel man.

23 The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, ye strength of Israel, and one that ruleth over men righteously, that ruleth in the fear of God. {He...: or, Be thou ruler, etc}

24 And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, shining after rain.
the morning, I say, without clouds, so shall mine house be, and not as the grasse of the earth is by the bright raine.
5 For so shall not mine house be with God: for he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, perfite in all pointes, and sure: therefore all mine health and whole desire is, that he will not make it growe so.
6 But the wicked shalbe every one as thornes thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands:
7 But the man that shall touch them, must be fenced with yron, or with the shaft of a speare: and they shall be burnt with fire in the same place.
8 These be the names of the mighty men whom Dauid had. He that sate in the seate of wisdome, being chiefe of the princes, was Adino of Ezni, he slew eight hundreth at one time.
9 And after him was Eleazar the sonne of Dodo, the sonne of Ahohi, one of the three worthies with David, when they defied the Philistims gathered there to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away.
10 He arose and smote the Philistims uNTill his hande was wearie, and his hande claue vnto the ground.
11 After him was Shammah the sonne of Age the Hararite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistims that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away:
12 But he stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and slew the Philistims: and the LORD wrought a great victorie the same day; and the people returned after him only to spoil.
13 And three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of Adullam; and the troop of the Philistims were encamped in the valley of Rephaim.
14 And David was then in the hold, and the garrison of the Philistims was then in Beth-lehem.
15 And David longed and said, Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Beth-lehem which is by the gate!
16 And David once again went down, and smote the Philistims, and he gathered to him thirtie men.
17 And when he came to King Saul to give him counsel, he was with him in warre; and he became one of Saul's officers.

8 These be the names of the mighty men whom David had: The Tachmonite that sat in the seat, chief among the captains; the same was Adino the Ezni: he lift up his spear against eight hundred, whom he slew at one time. {The Tachmonite...: or, Joshebbassebet}
9 And after him was Eleazar the sonne of Dodo, the sonne of Ahohi, one of the three mighty men with David, being chiefe of the princes, was Adino of Ezni, he slew eight hundreth at one time.
10 He arose and smote the Philistims until his hand was weary, and his hande claue vnto the ground.
11 After him was Shammah the sonne of Age the Hararite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistims gathered there to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away:
12 But he stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and slew the Philistims: and the LORD wrought a great victorie the same day; and the people returned after him only to spoil.
13 And three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of Adullam; and the troop of the Philistims were encamped in the valley of Rephaim.
14 And David was then in the hold, and the garrison of the Philistims was then in Beth-lehem.
15 And David longed and said, Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Beth-lehem which is by the gate!
And Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the three. And he lifted up his hand against Daveh: and he smote him, and killed him. (three...: or, the three captains over the thirty)

And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. For the Philistines pitched at a town, where was a piece of ground full of lentiles: and the people fled from the Philistines. (three...: or, for foraging)

And he said, Be it far from me, O Lord, that I should drink the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the LORD.

20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, slew the two sons of Ariel of Moab: he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow:

19 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me to drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!

And the three mighty brake into the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink of the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men.

18 And Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the three. And he lifted up his hand against Daveh: and he smote him, and killed him. (three...: or, the three captains over the thirty) thereof, but poured it out unto the LORD.

And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men.

And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and slew them, and had the name among three. {and slew them: Heb. slain} 19 Was he not most honourable of three? therefore he was their captain: bowdrie he attained not unto the first three.

And Abishai the son of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chiefe among the three, and he lifted vp his speare against three hundreth, and slewe them, and he had the name among the three.

20 And Beniay the sonne of Iehoiada the sonne of a valiant man, of Kabzeel, who had done many actes, he slew two lionlike men of Moab: he went downe also, and slewe a lyon in the middes of a pit in the time of snowe.

21 And he slewe an Egyptian a man of great stature, and the Egyptian had a speare in his hande: but he went downe to him with a staffe, and plucked the speare out of the Egyptians hand, and slewe him with his owne speare.

22 These things did Beniay the sonne of Iehoiada, and had the name among the three worthies.

and had a name among the three mighty men.

23 He was more honourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the first three. And David set him over his guard.

24 Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem;

And again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them, in that he said, Go, number Israel and Judah.

2 And the king said to Joab the captain of the host, Now the LORD thy God increase the people an hundredfold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doeth my lord the king delight in this thing?

3 And Joab said unto the king, The Lord thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, an hundredfold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing?

4 Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host: And Joab went out from the presence of the king, and against the captains of the host. And Joab said, I have an prayer to make to the king.

5 And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in Aroer, and to all the people of Israel.

6 Wherefore the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host: And Joab went out from the presence of the king, and against the captains of the host. And Joab said, I have an prayer to make to the king.

7 And they came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, at Beer-sheba.
6 Then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to Danjaan, and about to Zidon, [land of Tahtim-hodshi: or, nether land newly inhabited].

7 And came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to Heersheba.

8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel eight centuries, and a hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword;
and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 And David’s heart smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, I have sinned greatly in that I have done: there nowe, Lord, I beseech thee, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

11 And when David rose up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet Gad, David’s seer, saying,

12 Go, and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I shall doe vnto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and shewed him, and 8 So when they had gone to and fro through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel eight centuries, and a hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword;
and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 And David’s heart smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, I have sinned greatly in that I have done: there
nowe, Lord, I beseech thee, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

11 And when David rose up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet Gad, David’s seer, saying,

12 Go, and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I shall doe vnto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and shewed him, and des of the valley of Gad and toward Iazer.
13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall seven years of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou see three months before thine enemies, while thou pursueth thee? or that there be three days’ pestilence in thy land? nowe devise, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me.

14 And David said vnto Gad, I am in a great strait: let vs fall now into the hand of the Lord, (for his mercies are great) and let mee not fall into the hand of man.

15 So the Lord sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed: and there dyed of the people from Dan even to Beer-sheba sevenite thousand men.

16 And when the Angel stretched out his hande upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented of the euil, and said to the Angel that destroyed the people, It is sufficient, holde nowe thine hand. And the Angel of the Lord was by the threshingplace of Araunah the Jebusite. (Araunah: also called, Ornan)

17 And David spake vnto the Lord when he sawe the Angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these sheep, what have they done? let thine hande, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father’s house.

18 So Gad came the same day to Daviud, and said vnto him, Wilt thou that seuen yeres famine come vpon thee in thy lande, or wilt thou flee three moneths before thine enemies, they following thee, or that there bee three dayes pestilence in thy lande? nowe devise, and see, what answere I shall giue to him that sent me.

19 And David went up according to the saying of Gad, as the LORD commanded.

20 And Araunah looked forth, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. [Araunah:
Heb. Araniah]

And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded.

And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground.

And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the King come to his servant? Then David answered, To bye the threshing floor of thee for to build an altar unto the LORD, that the plague may cease from the people.

Then Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer what seemeth good unto him:
behold, there be oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing instruments and other instruments of the oxen for wood.

All these things did Araunah, as a king, give unto the king. And Araunah said unto the king, The LORD thy God accept thee.

And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee at a price; neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the LORD my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshing-floor, and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD was entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

Now king David was old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat.

2 Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin: and let her stand before the king, and cherish him; and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat.

3 So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag a Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

4 And the maid was exceeding fair; and cherished the king, and ministered to him; but the king knew her not.

5 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and he also was a very goodly man; and his mother bare him after Absalom.

7 And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest: and they following Adonijah helped him.

8 But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Joiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men which belonged to David, were not with Adonijah.

30 Even as I swear unto thee by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day.

31 Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, Let my lord king David live for ever.

32 And King David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king.

33 Then the king said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lorde, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to Gihon:

34 And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answer the king, and say, God save king Solomon.

35 Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah.

36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen: the LORD, the God of my lord the king, ratifie it.

37 As the LORD hath been with my lorde the king, even so be he with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.

38 So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David’s mule, and brought him to Gihon.

39 And Zadok the priest took the horn of oil out of the Tent, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, God save king Solomon.
38 So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David’s mule, and brought him to 39 And Zadok the priest tooke an horne of oyle out of the Tabernacle, and anointed Salomon: and they blewe the trumpet, and all the people said, God saue king Salomon.

40 And all the people came vp after him, and the people piped with pipes, and reioyced with great ioye, so that the earth rang with the sound of them.
41 And Adonijah and all the ghestes that were with him, heard it: (and they had made an ende of eat-he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an up-

42 While he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said unto him, Come in; for thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings.

Verely our lord King Dauid hast made Salomon

45 and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city rang again.
This is the noise that ye have heard.

Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet. {shed: Heb. put} 6 Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave with blood.

9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave in peace.

10 And David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

11 And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

12 And Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly.

13 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, vnto Abner the sonne of Ner, and vnto Amasa the sonne of Iether: whome he slew, and shed blood of battell in peace, and put the blood of warre vpon his girdle that was about his loynes, and in his shoes that were on his feete.

6 Doe therefore according to thy wisdome, and let thou not his hoare head goe downe to the graue in peace.

7 But shew kinde and vnto the sones of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eate at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Abasa lom thy brother.

8 And, behold, there is with thee Shimei the sonne of Gera, the Benjamite, of Bahurim, which cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came downe to mee at Jordan, and I sware to him by the Lord, saying, I will not put the blood of warre vpon his girdle that was about his loynes, and in his shooes that were on his feet.

9 But thou shalt not count him innocent: for thou art a wise man; and thou wilt know what thou oughtest to do thereto; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave.

10 So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

20 Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee: I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay.

21 And she said, Let Abishag the Shunamite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, Say on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay: then the king said vnto her, Ask on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay.

23 Then king Solomon sworn by the LORD, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his owne life.

24 Now therefore as the LORD liveth, who hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me an house, as he promised, Adonijah shall surely die this day.

25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died.

26 Then the King said vnto Abiathar the Priest, Go thee to Anathoth vnto thine owne fieldes; for thou art mine elder brother, and hath for him the sonne of Zeruiah.

27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest vnto the LORD; that he might fulfill the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 And the tidings came to Joab: for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled unto the Tent of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon, Joab is fled unto the Tent of the LORD, and, behold, he is by the altar.
27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; that he might fulfil the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 And Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and fell upon him, and slew him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom.

30 Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and caught hold on the horns of the altar, and said unto his lord, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and smite him, and bury him, that thou mayest take away the blood, which Joab shed without cause, and fell upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest not be accountable for the blood, which Joab shed without cause.

32 And the LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, because he fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, as the LORD spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

33 So shall their blood return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but unto David, and unto his seed, and unto his house, and unto his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD.

34 Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.
35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar.
36 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither.
37 For on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thine own head.
38 And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.
39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath.
40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.
41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.
42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for certain, that on the day thou goest out, and walkest
40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protest unto thee, saying, Know for certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment wherewith I charged thee with?

44 The king said moreover to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the LORD shall bring thy wickedness upon thine own head; and king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever.

46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.
And Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

3 And Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

4 And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

5 In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.

6 And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great kindness, according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a little child; I know not how to go out or come and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

8 And Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the Lord, and the wall of Jerusalem round about.

9 And Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

10 And the King went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the chief high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

11 And Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

12 And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great kindness, according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

14 And Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the Lord, and the wall of Jerusalem round about.

15 And Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.
1 Kings 3:7 And now, O Lord my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a little child: I know not how to go out or come in.

8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

9 Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy great people?

10 And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked riches for thyself, neither hast asked richnes and honor, so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee.

12 Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

13 And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches and honour, so that there shall be none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, even a great people which cannot be told nor nobred for multitude.

9 Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy great people?

10 And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had desired this thing.

11 And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies, but hast asked for thyself this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life;

12 behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there hath been none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

13 And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches and honour, so that there shall be none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days.
15 And Solomon awoke, and, behold, it was a dream: and he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and made peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

16 Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, and stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, Oh my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.

18 And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, this woman was delivered also: and we were in the house together: no stranger was with us in the house, save we two in the house.

19 And this woman’s son died in the night: for it came to pass, the child did walk, then I will lengthen thy days.

20 And she rose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear.

22 And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son.

23 Then arose the king, and sat in a seat by the wall, and called for a sword.

24 And he said, Divide the living child in two, and give one half unto the one, and bring the other half unto the other.

25 Then she said, Split it not among thee. But my last word shall be, I will not let either of you do this thing.

26 Split it not among thee. But my last word shall be, I will not let either of you do this thing.

27 And the king said, Give her the living child, and smite the other dead.

28 Then said the woman of the nurses, whose handmaid she was, Behold, my lord, let this child be my son, and this be thy servant: and let me not suffer the child to be put to death.

29 Then said the king, Give the one child, and let not the woman do the thing that is in her heart: for all Israel know how that thou art a woman; and they said, Behold, thy word is good, and I will do according to thy judgment.

30 Then arose the woman of the nurses, and bowed herself to the king, and did homage; and the king received counsel of the woman.

31 Then said the king, Render the woman of the nurses the judgement: for she said, Render the living child to me.

32 And he also judged that the saying of the woman of the nurses was right. And he gave the living child unto the woman of the nurses: and she beare it. For the woman was the mother of the child.

33 And it came to pass, as soon as the child was born, she took up the child, and washed it, and made it clean, and presented it unto her lord.

34 And the king gave unto the woman of the nurses the young child, and the mother took it up: and the old woman also took it up, and gave thereof to her lord.

35 And the king said, Shall I suffer the woman of the nurses and her child to live? And the woman answered, Yea, my lord, O king: let her be the one that spoiled my mouth: for I gave my son unto thee, and my lord kept me by a oath, and restored me the child again.

36 And the woman came and fell upon her face to the ground before the king, and said, Behold, I am a widow, and mine husband is dead: and the child was my only comfort in my old age.

37 And the one woman's heart was so affectionate in her kindness to her child, that she cast up her hands, and said, O my lord, I said not, that I would set thee at naught, or take away the child from thee, but when I knew that I had no child, I cast it in mine wrath.

38 For besides this, I said, I will give mine handmaid unto the woman, that she may give me the child, to nurse it, and I shall give the child to her again.

39 And it was so, when she had cast it, that she repented in her heart, and said, Nay, my lord, she said not so.

40 And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king.

41 Then the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give one half unto the one, and bring the other half unto the other.

42 And this woman said, O my lord, let this child be mine own, and give it unto me, and let not this child go unto the other.

43 And the other woman said, It shall not be so: but let my lord give the child unto me, for he is mine.

44 And the king answered, Give the one child unto this woman, and smite the other dead.

45 And when the woman came to take her child from the hand of the king, she said, O my lord, let this girl be my servant, and I will nurse it for thee, that I may give it to thee again, and I will give the child unto my lord, and there be without sin.

46 Then said the king, I will give thee the one child, and let the other go to thee.

47 Then said the woman of the nurses, Behold, my lord, the very thing that I said when I did come to my lord at first, the speech of mine heart spake, and I have laid it before my lord: for I knew not, that I should plead with the woman, or that I should speak unto her thus.

48 And it was so, when she pressed upon the king that he gave unto the woman of the nurses the child, and she caused it to suck, that she said, Behold, my lord, behold, the mother of the child is mine own, and she stood before me in the gate.

49 And it was so, when the woman of the nurses was returned, that she took her child, and washed it, and gave it unto her lord: then he saw that the child was her own.

50 And the man of the house of David said unto the king, Why, my lord, have thou made this woman to sin against herself? for the woman called, and cried, saying, My lord, O king, give life to me.

51 And the king answered and said unto the man of the house of David, Is this your son, that ye have cast him out of the gate to die? Then said the man unto the king, And the word that I spake was but a foolishness in mine heart.

52 And the king said, Is not this again a word of mine which came unto me, saying, There shall no prophet, nor he that is sanctified, nor anyone that doeth any manner of work of the Lord, die in the land of Judah. And the king commanded all them that had judgment over the land, saying, Let the men of Judah hear, and let the inhabitant of Jerusalem hear.

53 Then said the king, No such thing shall be done: for thou hast consulted God to make thee a wise man; therefore receive also the woman, and do as she saith: for she is the mother of the wise man.
Thus they spake before the king.

22 Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and mine alive: thus they spake before the King.

23 Then said the King, Bring me a sword: and they brought a sword before the king.

24 And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.

25 Then spake the woman, whose the living child was, unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

26 Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof.

27 Then all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do judgment.
And King Solomon was king over all Israel.
2 And these were the princes which he had; Azariah the son of Zadok the priest,
3 Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, scribes;
4 And Benaiyah the son of Jehoiada was over the host, and Zadok and Abiathar, the priests,
5 And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers: and Zabud the son of Nathan was principal officer, and the king's friend,

7 And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the King and his house: each man had to make provision for a month in a year made provision.

20 Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry.
21 And Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.
22 And Solomon’s provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal:
21 And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 And Solomon’s provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal, {provision: Heb. bread} {measures: Heb. cors}

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside harts, and roebucks, and fallowdeer, and fatted fowl.

24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tipsah even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side the river: and he had peace on all sides round about him.

25 And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon. {safely: Heb. confidently}

26 And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And those officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon’s table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing.

28 Barley also and straw for the horses and dromedaries brought they unto the place where the officers waited the officers.

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen of the pastures, and an hundred sheepe, beside hartes, and buckes, and bugles, and fat foule.

24 For he ruled in all the region on the other side of the Riuwer, from Tiphsah even vnto Azzah, ouer all the Kings on the other side the Riuwer: and he had peace round about him on euyry side.

25 And Iudah and Israel dwelt without feare, every man vnder his vine, and vnder his fig tree, from Dan, euen to Beer-sheba, all the dayes of Salomon.

26 And Salomon had fourtie thousande stalles of horses for his charretes, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And these officers prouided vitaile for king Salomon, and for all that came to King Salomons table, euyry man his moneth, and they suffred to lacke nothing.

28 Barley also and strawe for the horses and mules brought they vnto the place where the officers were, euyry man his charge.

29 And God gaue Salomon wisdome and understanding exceeding much, and a large heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore,

30 And Salomons wisdome excelled the wisedome of all the children of the East and all the wisedome of Egypt.
31 For he was wiser than any man: yea, then were Ethan the Ezrahite, the Heman, then Chalcol, then Darda the sons of Mahol: and he was famous throughout all nations round about.
32 And Salomon spake three thousand proverbs:
and his songs were a thousand and five.
33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon, even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.
34 And there came of all people to hear the wise-dome of Salomon, from all Kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisedome.

And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Salomon, (for he had heard, that they had anointed him King in the roume of his father) because Hiram had euer loued Dauid.

31 For he was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about.
32 And he spake three thousand proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five.
33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

34 And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Salomon, from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Salomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him King in the room of his father: for Hiram was ever a lover of David. {Hiram: also called, Huram}
2 And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying,

1 Thee knowest how that David my father could not build an house unto the Name of the LORD his God, for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

4 But now the Lord my God hath given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent.

5 And, behold, I purpose to build an house unto the Name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build an house for my name.

6 Now therefore command thou that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants: and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the Sidonians.

7 And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the LORD this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this great people.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have considered the things, for the which thou sentest vnto me: I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir.

5 And, behold, I purpose to build an house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build an house for my Name.

6 Now therefore command thou that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants; and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the Sidonians. {app: Heb. say}

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have considered the things, for the which thou sentest vnto me: I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir.

5 And, behold, I purpose to build an house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build an house for my name.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have considered the things, for the which thou sentest vnto me: I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir.

9 My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea: and I will make them into rafts to go by sea unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be broken up there, and thou shalt receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household.

10 So Hiram gave Solomon timber of cedar and tim-will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir. {considered: Heb. heard}

9 My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea: and I will convey them by sea in rafts unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household. {appoint: Heb. send}

10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees, euen his full desire.

11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year. {measures: Heb. cors}

12 And the Lord gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him. And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and they two made a league together.

13 And king Solomon raised a summe out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men. {levy: Heb.

14 Whome he sent to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and Adoniram was over the levy.

15 And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand masons in the mountaines;

16 besides Solomon’s chief officers that were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

17 And the king commanded, and they hewed out great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with wrought stone.

18 And Solomon’s builders and Hiram’s builders and the Gebalites did fashion them, and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.
16 Besides the princes, whom Salomon appointed over the worke, even three thousande and three hundredth, which ruled the people that wrought in the worke.

17 And the King commanded them, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and hewed stones, to make the foundation of the house.

18 And Salomons workemen, and the workemen of Hiram, and the masons hewed and prepared timber and stones for the buylding of the house.

And it came to pass in the four hundred and eighthieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, and in the fourth yere of the reigne of Salomon ouer Israel, in the moneth Zif, (which is the second moneth) he built the house of the Lord.

2 And the house which King Salomon built for the Lord, was three score cubites long, and twentie broade, and thirtie cubites hie.

3 And the porch before the Temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth thereof thirty cubits.

4 And for the house he made windows of fixed lattice-work.

5 And against the wall of the house he built stories round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle: and he made side-chambers round about:

6 The nethermost story was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for on the outside he made re-batements in the wall of the house round about, that the beams should not have hold in the walls of the house.

And it came to pass in the four hundred and eighthieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD. He built the house, and ten cubites before the house. The breadth of the house; and ten cubites was the breadth thereof. The length thereof was thirty cubits.

3 And the porch before the Temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth thereof thirty cubits.

4 And for the house he made windows of narrow

5 And against the wall of the house he built stories round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle: and he made side-chambers round about:

6 The nethermost story was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for on the outside he made re-batements in the wall of the house round about, that the beams should not have hold in the walls of the house.
And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle: and he made chambers round about: against the wall: or, upon, or, joining to the wall: chambers: Heb. built floors: made chambers: Heb. made ribs
6 The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house. narrowed: Heb. narrowings, or, rebatements
7 And when the house was built, it was built of stone made perfect, before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.
8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up by winding stairs into the middlemost, and out of the middlemost into the third.
9 So he built the house and finished it, and sieled the house, while it was in building.
10 And then he built chambers against all the house, each five cubits high: and they rested on the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle: and he made narrowed rests round about the beams, and made chambers round about.
11 And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying,
12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walk in mine ordinances, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I establish my word with thee, concerning this house.
13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, which I spake unto David thy father. And I will not forsake my people Israel.
14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.
15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar; from the floor of the house unto the walls of the cieling, he covered them on the inside about the Temple and the oracle, and made chambers round about.
16 The nethermost gallery was five cubits broad, and the middlemost six cubits broad, and the third seven cubits broad: for he made rests round about without the house, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.
17 And when the house was built, it was built of stone made perfect, before it was brought, so that there was neither hammer, nor axe, nor any toole of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.
18 The doore of the middle chamber was in the right side of the house, and men went vp with winding stairies into the middlemost, and out of the middlemost into the third.
19 So he built the house and finished it, and sieled the house being wawted with sieling of cedar trees. And the vaultbeams and the panellings with cedar.
20 And he built the stories against all the house, and will not forsake my people Israel.
21 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.
22 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.
23 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar; from the floor of the house unto the walls of the cieling, he covered them on the inside about the Temple and the oracle, and made chambers round about.
24 The nethermost gallery was five cubits broad, and the middlemost six cubits broad, and the third seven cubits broad: for he made rests round about without the house, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

26 The doore of the middle chamber was in the right side of the house, and men went vp with winding stairies into the middlemost, and out of the middlemost into the third.
27 So he built the house and finished it, and sieled the house being wawted with sieling of cedar trees. And the vaultbeams and the panellings with cedar.

| 11 And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying,
12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father:
13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.
14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it,
15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, from the floor unto the walls, etc
16 And he built twenty cubits in the sides of the house, and will not forsake my people Israel.
17 But the house, that is, the Temple before it, was forty cubits long.
18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with knops, and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen.
19 Also he prepared the place of the oracle in the midst of the house within, to set the Ark of the covenant of the Lord there.
20 And the place of the oracle within was twenty cubits long, and twenty cubits broad, and twenty cubits high: and they rested on the house with wood: and he covered the floor of the house with boards of fir.
21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he covered the altar with cedar.
22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until all the house was finished: also the whole altar that belonged to the oracle he overlaid with gold.
23 And in the oracle he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high.
24 And the cedar of the house within was carved with knops, and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen.
25 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he covered the floor of the house with boards of fir.
26 And he drew chains of gold across before the oracle, even for the most holy place.
27 And in the oracle he overlaid with gold.
24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of one of his wings unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.
25 Also the other cherub was of ten cubits: both the cherubim were of one measure and one size.
26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.

And he overlaid the cherubim with gold.

And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubim and palm trees, and carved upon them carvings of cherubim and palm trees in breadth and twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold;
and so covered the altar which was of cedar.

And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive wood: the lintel and door posts were a fifth part of the wall.

So he made two doors of olive wood; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold;
and so covered the altar which was of cedar.

And he made two doors of olive wood; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubim and palm trees;

So he made two doors of olive wood; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubim and palm trees; and overlaid them with gold;

And he overlaid the cherubim with gold.
and he spread the gold upon the cherubim, and upon the palm trees.

33 So also made he for the entering of the temple door posts of olive wood, out of a fourth part of the wall;
34 and two doors of fir wood; the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.
35 And he carved thereon cherubim and palm trees and open flowers: and he overlaid them with gold fitted upon the graven work.
36 And he built the inner court with three rows of hewn stone, and a row of cedar beams.
37 In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Ziv.
38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it.
And Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house.

2 He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the forty and five beams, that were upon the pillars; fifteen in a row.

4 And there were prospects in three rows, and light was over against light in three ranks.

5 And all the doors and posts were square in prospect: and light was over against light in three ranks.

6 And he made the porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits; and a porch before them; and pillars and thick beams before them.

7 And he made the porch of the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from floor to floor.

8 And his house where he might dwell, the other court within the porch, was of the like work. He made also an house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom Solomon had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

9 All these were of costly stones, even of hewn
And he made two columns of molten brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits was against the column, and column was against column.

Then he made a porch for the throne, where he might judge, even a porch of judgment, and it was walled up with cedar from pavement to pavement.

And in his house, where he dwelt, was an other court, and his house where he dwelt had another court more inward than the porch which was of like work. Solomon made also a house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

And he made also a house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch. Solomon also made an house forPharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

And he made two columns of molten brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits was against the column, and column was against column.

And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his works in brass.

And he made also an house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.}

And he made also a house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch. Solomon also made an house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

And he made also an house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch. Solomon also made an house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and so did he for the other chapiter.

19 And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits.

20 And the chapiters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly within the networke pomegranates: for two hundreth pomegranates were in the two rankes about upon either of the chapiters.

21 And he set vp the pillars in the porche of the Temple. And when hee had set vp the right pillar, he called the name thereof Boaz: and when he had set vp the left pillar, he called the name thereof Boaz.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was worke of lilies: so was the workemanship of the pillars finisht.

23 And he made a molten sea, ten cubites from the brim to brim, rounde in compasse, and five cubites, and a line of thirtie cubites did compass it round about.

24 And under the brim of it round about there were knops which did compass it, for ten cubits, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, to his brim {from...: Heb. from his brim}

25 It stood upon twelve bulles, three looking toward the South, and three looking toward the East: and the sea was set above, ouer against the belly within the networke:

26 And it was an handbreadth thick; and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it held two thousand baths.

27 And he made the ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it.

28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had borders; and there were borders between the ledges:

29 and on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and upon the ledges there was a pedestal above: and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work.

30 And every base had four brasen wheels, and axles of brass: and the four feet thereof had undersetters: beneath the laver were the undersetters molten, with wreaths at the side of each.

In the Plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.

46 And the sea was made of cast brass. It was round about thirty cubits, and twenty cubits was its height, and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

47 It had two hundred pomegranates cast for rows between the networks; and the height of a wheele was a cubite and halfe a cubite.

48 And there were four charret wheele under the sea; and their axletrees were all molten.

49 And the workman that wrought them was Uriah the Tyrian: and there was an overseer of all the workmen, that had oversight of all the workmen that wrought in brass.

50 The king also made a molten image of eight cubits high: and nine cubits was the breadth thereof.

51 And he made a molten charret to go before it, of four cubit high: and the length thereof was five cubits. So he made a molten image, an image of an atad of brass.

52 And he made likewise ten bases for the ten bases, which were before the atad at the enterence of the house of the LORD: and the height of the base was a cubite and halfe a cubite.

53 And upon every one of the ten bases one laver, and the pots, and the shovels, and the basons: even all these vessels, which Hiram made for king Solomon, in the house of the LORD, were of burnished brass.

46 In the Plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.

And upon every one of the ten bases one laver.

39 And he set the bases, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward the south.

And Hiram made the lavers, and the shovels, and the basons. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he wrought for king Solomon in the house of the LORD:

41 the two pillars, and the two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the pillars; and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the pillars;

42 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that were upon the pillars;

43 and the ten bases, and the ten lavers on the bases; 44 and the one sea, and the twelve oxen under the sea;

And the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, foursquare, not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels were joined to the base:

33 And the facion of the wheels was like the facion of a charret wheele, their axletrees, and their naues, and their felloes, and their spokes were all molten.

34 and the work of the wheels was like the work of a charret wheele: their axletrees, and their naues, and their felloes, and their spokes, were all molten.

35 And in the toppe of the base was a rounde compass of half a cubite high: and on the toppe of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 And upon the tables of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof he did graue Cherubims, lions, and palmtrees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about.

37 Thus made he the tenne bases, They had all one casting, one measure, and one syse.

38 Then made he ten caldrons of brasse, one caldron was vpon one base throughout the base itself.

39 And he set the bases, five on the right side of the house eastward, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward.

39 And he set the bases, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward.

38 Then made he ten caldrons of brass: one caldron was upon one base throughout the base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 And upon the tables of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof he did graue Cherubims, lions and palmetrees, on the side of euery one, and additions round about.

37 Thus made he the ten bases, They had all one casting, one measure, and one syse.

38 Then made he ten caldrons of brasse, one caldron was vpon one base throughout the base itself.

39 And he set the bases, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward.

38 Then made he ten caldrons of brass: one caldron was upon one base throughout the base itself.

38 Then made he ten caldrons of brass: one caldron was upon one base throughout the base itself.

47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: the weight of the brass could not be found out.

48 And Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of the LORD: the golden altar, and the table whereupon the shewbread was, of gold; 49 and the candlesticks, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, of pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold; 50 and the cups, and the snuffers, and basons, and the spoons, and the firepans, of pure gold; and the hinges, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple, of gold.

51 Thus all the work that king Solomon wrought in the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated, even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.
49 And the candlesticks, five at the right side, and five at the left, before the oracle of pure gold, and the flowers, and the lamps, and the snuffers of gold, and the hinges of gold for the doors of the house within, even for the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the Temple.

51 So was finished all the worke that king Salomon made for the house of the Lord, and Salomon brought in the things which Daviud his father had dedicated: the silver, and the golde, and the vessels, and the exceeding multitude of the things which David his father had dedicated; even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, and the vessels of gold, and the vessels of silver, and the vessels of gold for the service of the house of the Lord, and Solomon made all the vessels that pertained.

Then Solomon assembled the Elders of Israel, and euyn all the heads of the tribes, the chiefe fathers of the children of Israel, unto king Salomon in Jerusalem, to bring vp the Arke of the covenant of the Lord from the citie of Dauid, which is Zion.
2 And all the men of Israel assembled vnto King Salon at the feast in the moneth of Ethanim, which is the seventh moneth.
3 And all the Elders of Israel came and the Priests took the Arke.
4 They bare the Arke of the Lord, and they bare the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle: those did the Priestes and Leuites bring vp.
5 And King Salomon and all the Congregation of Israel, that were assembled vnto him, were with him before the Arke, offering sheepe and beeues, which could not be tolde, nor numbered for multitude.
6 So the Priestes brought the Arke of the covenant of the Lord vnto his place, into the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, euen under the wings of the Cherubims.
7 For ye Cherubims stretched out their wings over the place of the Arke, and the Cherubims couered the Arke, and the barres thereof above.
8 And they drewe out the barres, that the endes of the staves were seen out in the holy place before the oracle, and they were not seen without: and there they are 50 And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them:

51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron:

52 That thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee.

53 For thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54 And when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the Lord, he arose from before the altar of the Lord, from kneeling on his knees with his hands his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant.

57 The Lord our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us:

58 that he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.

59 And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the Lord, be nigh unto the Lord our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel, as every day shall require:

60 that all the peoples of the earth may know that the Lord, he is God; there is none else.

61 Let your heart therefore be perfect with the Lord our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

62 And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the Lord.

63 And Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto the Lord, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

64 The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings: because the brasen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 So Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the brook of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days.

66 On the eighth day he sent the people away, and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David his servant, and to Israel his people.
64 The same day did the King hallow the middle of the court, that was before the house of the Lord: for there he made burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar that was before the Lord, was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 And Salomon made at that time a feast and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, even fourteen days.

66 And the eighth day he sent the people away: and they thanked the King and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart, because of all the goodness that the Lord had done for Dauid his servant, and for Israel his people.

And it came to pass when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the king’s house, and all Solomon’s desire which he was pleased to do,

2 that the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gibeon.

3 And the LORD said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built, to put my name there for ever; and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

4 And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in.uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments;

5 then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom over Israel for ever; according as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.

6 But if ye shall turn away from following me, ye or your children and not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but shall go and serve other gods, and worship them:

7 then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hal-house, and all Solomon’s desire which he was pleased to do,

2 Then the Lord appeared vnto Solomon the second time, as he appeared vnto him at Gibeon.

3 And the Lord sayd vnto him, I haue heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I haue halowed this house (which thou hast built) to put my Name there for euer, and mine eyes, and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

4 And if thou wilt walke before mee (as Daud thy father walked in purenesse of heart and in righteousnesse) to doe according to al that I haue commanded thee, and keepe my statutes, and my judgements,

5 Then will I establish the throne of thy kingdome vpon Israel for euer, as I promised to Daud thy father, saying, Thou shalt not want a man vpon the throne of Israel.

6 But if ye shall at all turn from following me, ye or your children, and will not keepe my commandments, and my statutes (which I haue set before you) but goe and serue other gods, and worship them,

7 Then will I cutt off Israel from the lande which I haue giuen them, and the house which I haue halowed for my Name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a prouerbe and a common talke among all people:

8 Euen this hie house shall bee so: euery one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house?

9 and they shall answer, Because they forsook the LORD their God, which brought forth their fathers out of the lande of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the LORD brought all this evil upon them.

10 And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king’s house, 11 (now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they pleased him not.

And this is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised; for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.

For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Solomon’s wife.

17 And Solomon built Gezer, and Bethhoron the nether,

18 And Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land of Judah,

19 And all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon and in all the land of his dominion.

20 All the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel, 21 Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able utterly to destroy, upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of bondservice unto this day.

22 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of warre and his seruants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen.

These were the chief officers that were over Solomon’s work, five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

But Pharaoh’s daughter came up out of the city of David unto her house which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo.

And three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, burning incense therewith, upon the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

And king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.

And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon.

And they came to Ophir, and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.
And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Jerusalem, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

3 And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not any thing hid from the king which he told her not.

4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, and the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and the service of his servants, and the attendance of his princes, and the beauty of all Jerusalem, she communed with him of all the things that were in her heart.

5 And the queen of Sheba spake and praised the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, and the meat of his table, and the sitting of his princes, and the apparel of his servants, and his chariots, and his horsemen.

6 These were the princes of the officers that were over Salomons worke: even five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

7 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his princes, and the apparel of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and the servants that ministered unto his table, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by his servants, and all his rule over the people that wrought in the work.

8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.

9 These were the princes of the officers, that were over Salomons worke: even five hundred and fifty, and they ruled the people that wrought in the work.

10 And Hiram sent with the nauie his seruants, that were mariners, and had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Salomon.

11 These were the chief of the officers that were over Salomons worke: euen fiue hundred and fiftie, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

12 And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thine acts, and of thy wisdom.

13 And the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the Lord, she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and brought it to King Salomon.

14 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, and the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and the servants that ministered unto his table, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by his servants, and all his rule over the people that wrought in the work; then did he buylde Millo.

15 And these were the chief of the officers that were over Salomons worke: euen fiue hundred and fiftie, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

16 Therefore also he built Millo between the two walls thereof. And he covered it with beams and stones, and he built it. And there was he the place of judgment. And there he judged Israel all the days of Solomon.

17 And Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba all that she desired, whatsoever she asked, beseeching nothing else, neither did she return to the king any more. So he built Millo.

18 But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of Dauid unto her house which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo.

19 And Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of Dauid, and went up unto the house of the LORD; there she saw the burnt offering and the sacrifice, and they served the LORD.

20 And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the Lord, she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and brought it to King Salomon.
came to prove him with hard questions.

9 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the LORD loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice.

10 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

11 Then the Queene of Sheba sawe all Solomonys wisdome, and the house that he had built, and the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the order of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

12 And the king made of the almug trees pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, and for all his domes.

13 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that nothing was hid from the King, which he expounded not vnto her.

14 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold,
9 Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the Lord loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice.

10 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of sweete odours as the Queene of Sheba gave to King Salomon.

11 The nauie also of Hiram (that caried gold from Ophir) brought likewise great plente of Almuggim trees from Ophir and precious stones.

12 And the King made of ye Almuggim trees pillars for the house of the Lord, and for ye Kings palace, and made harpes and psalteries for singers. There came no more such Almuggim trees, nor were any more scene vnto this day.

13 And King Salomon gaue vnto the Queene of Sheba, whatsoeuer she would aske, besides that which Salomon gaue her of his kingly liberalitie: so she returned and went to her owne countrey, both shee, and her servants.

14 Also the weight of golde, that came to Salomon in one yeere, was sixe hundreth three score and six talents of gold, and went to her own country, she and her servants.

15 Besides that he had of marchant men and of the traffic of the merchants, and of all the kings of the mingled people, and of the governors of the country.

16 And King Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of gold went to one target.

17 And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pounds of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon;

18 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the finest gold.

19 There were six steps to the throne, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays.

20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom.

21 And all king Solomon’s drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

22 For the king had at sea a navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram: once every three years came the navy of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory,智慧。

15 beside that which the chapmen brought, and the traffic of the merchants, and of all the kings of the mingled people, and of the governors of the country.

16 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of gold went to one target.

and apes, and peacocks.
23 So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the dearth in riches and in wisdom.
24 And all the earth sought the presence of Solo-mom, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.
25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.
26 And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.
27 And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycomore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance.
28 And the horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt; and the king’s merchants received them in droves, each drove at a price.
29 And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.
22 For the king had at sea a navy of Tharshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. {ivory: or, elephants' teeth}
23 So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.
24 And all the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. {sought to:} Hebr. sought the face of 25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

27 And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he as the sycomore trees that are in the vale, for abundance. {made: Heb. gave} 28 Also Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen for a price.
29 There came up and went out of Egypt some chariots, worth six hundred shekels of silver: that is, one horse, an hundred and fifty and thus they brought horses to all the kings of the Hittites and to the Kings of Aram by their meanes.
Now king Solomon loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites;
2 of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Goe not in to them, nor let them come in to you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods, to them, I say, did Salomon ioyne in loue.
3 And he had seven hundred wives, that were princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.
4 For when Salomon was olde, his wiues turned away his heart.
5 For Salomon followed Ashtaroth the god of the Zidonians, and Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.
6 And Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father.

Bvt King Salomon loved many outlandish women: both the daughter of Pharaoh, and the women of Moab, Ammon, Edom, Zidon and Heth,
2 Of the nations, whereof the Lord had sayd unto the children of Israel, Goe not ye in to them, nor let them come in to you: for surely they will turn your hearts after their gods, to them, I say, did Salomon ioyne in loue.
3 And he had seven hundred wives, that were princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.
4 For when Salomon was olde, his wiues turned away his heart after other gods, so that his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as was the heart of Daud his father.
5 For Salomon followed Ashtaroth the god of the Zidonians, and Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.
6 So Salomon wrought wickednesse in the sight of the Lord, but continued not to follow the Lord, as did Daud his father.
8 And so did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.
9 And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, which had appeared unto him twice,
10 and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that, which the LORD had commanded him.
11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I commanded thee, 12 Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.
13 Howbeit I will not rent all the kingdom; but I will give one tribe to thy son, for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.
14 And the LORD raised up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom.
15 For it came to pass, when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, and had smitten every male in Edom;
23 And God raised up another adversary unto him, which was in Edom.
15 For when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host had smitten all the males in Edom, and was gone vp to bury ye slain,
16 (For six moneths did Joab remaine there, and all Israel, till he had destroyed all the males in Edom)
17 Then this Hadad fled and certaine other Edomites of his fathers seruants with him, to goe into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little childe.
18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran, and tooke men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypt vnto Pharaoh king of Egypt, which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and maide him lande.
19 So Hadad found great favoure in the sight of Pharaoh, and he gaue him to wife the sister of his owne wife, euen the sister of Tahpenes the Queene.
20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath, and Genubath was in Pharaohs house among the sonnes of Pharaoh.
21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt, that Dauid was dead, Hadad sayde to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may goe to mine owne countrey.
22 But Pharaoh said vnto him, What hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine owne countrey? And he answered, Nothing: howbeit let me depart in any wise.
20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath, and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sonnes of Pharaoh.
19 And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his owne wife, euen the sister of Tahpenes the queene.
18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran, and tooke men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypt vnto Pharaoh king of Egypt, which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and maide him lande.
17 Then this Hadad fled and certaine other Edomites of his fathers seruants with him, to goe into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little childe.
16 (for Joab and all Israel remained there six moneths, until he had cut off every male in Edom;)

Rezon the son of Eliada, which had fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah:
24 And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a troop, when David slew them of Zobah:
and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus.
25 And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.
26 And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, Solomon’s servant, whose mother’s name was Zeruah, a widow woman, he also lifted up his hand against the king.
27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king. When Salomon built Millo, he repaired the broken places of the city of David his father.
28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, and he gave him charge over all the labour of the house of Joseph.
29 And at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; now Ahijah had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field.
30 And Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that lacked with me, that thou wouldest thus go to thine own country? And he answered, Nothing, but in any wise let me go.
And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field.

And Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces:

And he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee:

But he shall have one tribe for my servant David’s sake, and for Jerusalem’s sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:

Because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon; and they have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did David his father.

Howbeit I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him prince all the days of his life, for David my servant’s sake, whom I chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes:

but I will take the kingdom out of his son’s hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes.

And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a lamp alway before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen to put my name there.
37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel.

38 And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that which is right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; that I will be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee.

39 And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever.

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam: but Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 The rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

42 The time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel, was forty years.

43 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.
And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (who was yet in Egypt, whithersoever he fled from the presence of king Solomon, and dwelt in Egypt);

3 Then they sent and called him: and Jeroboam and all the Congregation of Israel came, and spake vnto Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Depart yet for three days, then come againe to me. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men, that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do ye advise that I may answer this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men that were grown up with him, that stood before

9 And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for al Israel were come to Sheche, to make him king.

2 And whe Ieroboam ye sonne of Nebat heard of it (for he was yet in Egypt, whither Ieroboam had fled from king Salomon, and dwelt in Egypt);

3 Then they sent and called him: and Ieroboam and all the Congregation of Israel came, and spake vnto Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous seruice of thy father, and his sore yoke which he put vpon vs, lighter, and we will serue thee.

5 And he said vnto them, Depart yet for three dayes, then come againe to me. And the people departed.

6 And King Rehoboam tooke counsell with the olde men that had stande before Salomon his father, while he yet liued, and said, What counsell giue ye, that I may make an answere to this people?

7 And they spake vnto him, saying, What counsell giue ye that I may make an answere to this people?

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had giuen him, and took counsell with the young men that were grown up with him, that stood before Solomon his father, and they spake vnto him, saying, Thus and so shoulde thou answe the people that spake vnto vs:
15 So the king hearkened not unto the people; for he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him; and spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scorpions.

9 And he said vnto them, What counsel giue ye that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken vnto thee, saying, Thy father made thy yoke heauie, I will yet make thy yoke heauier: my father hath made our yoke heauie, but make thou it lighter to us; My least part shalbe bigger then my fathers loynes.

11 Now where as my father did burden you with a grieuous yoke, I will yet make your yoke heauier: my father hath chastised you with rods, but I will correct you with scourges.

10 Then the yong men that were brought vp with him, and which stood before him:

12 Then Ieroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me againe ye thirde day.

13 And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him; and spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered all the house of Judah with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, and to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they shall kill me, and return every man to his house; for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the Lord, and returned, according to the word of the Lord.

22 But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

23 Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and unto all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

24 Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is of me. They obeyed therefore the word of the Lord and returned, and departed, according to the word of the Lord.

25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Nowe shall the kingdom returne to the house of Dauid. And when he gathered all the house of Judah with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were good warriours to fight against the house of Israel, and to bring the kingdom againe to Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon. 1 KINGS 12

27 If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn againe vnto their lorde, even to Rehoboam King of Iudah: so shall they kill me and goe againe to Rehoboam King of Iudah.
28 Whereupon the King tooke counsell, and made two calues of golde, and saide vnto them, It is too much for you to goe vp to Jerusalem: beholde, O Israel, thy gods, which brought thee up out of the lande of Egypt.
29 And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan.
30 And this thing turned to sinne: for the people went (because of the one) euen to Dan.
31 Also he made an house of hie places, and made Priestes of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sonnes of Leui.
32 And Jeroboam made a feast the fifteenth day of the eight moneth, like vnto the feast that is in Iudah, and offred on the altar. So did he in Beth-el and offered vnto the calues that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the Priestes of the hie places, which he had made.

29 And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan.
30 And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan.
31 And he made houses of high places, and made priests from among all the people, which were not of the sons of Levi.
32 And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he went up unto the altar; so did he in Beth-el, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made.
33 And he went up unto the altar which he had made in Beth-el on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart: and he ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and went up unto the altar, to burn incense.

stood by the altar to burn incense. {burn: or, offer}

At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick.

2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam: and get thee to Shiloh, and come to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age.

3 And take with thee ten loaves, and cracknels, and a cruse of honey, and go to him: he shall tell thee what shall become of the child.

4 And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age.

5 And the LORD said unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam; and get thee to Shiloh: behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, which told me that I should be king over this people.

6 Therefore when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam; why feignest thou thyself to be another woman.

7 Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee prince over my people his wicked way, but turned againe, and made of the lowest of the people Priests of the hie places. Who would, might consecrate him selfe, and be of the Priestes of the hie places.

At that time Abijah the sonne of Ieroboam fell sick.

2 And Ieroboam said vnto his wife, Up, I pray thee, and disguise thy selfe, that they know not that thou be not known to be the wife of Ieroboam, euen to roote it out, and destroy it from the face of the earth.

5 And Ieroboam cometh to inquire of thee concerning her sonne, for he is sicke: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her: for it shall be, when shee cometh in, shee shall feigne her selfe to be another woman.

6 Therefore when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, thou wife of Ieroboam; why feignest thou thyselfe to be another woman? for I am sent to thee with heavy tidings.

10 Therefore behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, as a man taketh away dung, till it be all gone.

11 Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the Lord hath spoken it.

12 Arise thou therefore, get thee to thine house: and when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die.

13 And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him; for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave: because in him there is found some good thing toward the LORD, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam.

7 Go, tel Jeroboam, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Forasmuch as I have exalted thee from among the people, and have made thee prince over my people Israel, 14 Moreover the LORD shall raise him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day: but what? even now.

15 For the LORD shall smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and he shall root up Israel out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the river, because they have made their Asherim, provoking the LORD to anger.

16 And he shall give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, who did sin, and who made Israel to sin. For the LORD shall smite Israel, as when a reede is shaken in the water; and he shall root up Israel out of their good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their groves, provoking the LORD to anger.

17 And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah: and as she came to the threshold of the door, the child died.

18 And they buried him; and all Israel lamented for him; according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by the hand of his servant Ahijah the prophet.

30 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and his son Abijam his son reigned in his stead.

And in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat, reigned Abijam over Judah.

2 Three years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah the daughter of Abishalom. And Abijam his son reigned in his stead. {Abijam: also called, Abishalom}
3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father.

4 Nevertheless for David's sake did the LORD his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, and set vp his sonne after him, and established Ierusalem,
5 Because David did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him, all the days of his life.

15 Also he brought in the holy vessels of his father, silver, and gold, and vessels. {things: Heb. holy}

16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

17 And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, so that he would let none go out or in to Asa king of Judah.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

19 There is a league betweene me and thee, and a present of silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

20 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-

Nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect with the LORD all his days.

15 And he brought into the house of the LORD the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

17 And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

19 There is a league betweene me and thee, and a present of silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

20 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-19 There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; come and break the league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

20 So Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts, which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maachah, and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

21 And when Baasha heard thereof, he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.

22 Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none was exempted: and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had builded; and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.

23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.

24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead.

25 And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote...
Iudah, and reigned over Israel two years.
26 And he did evil in the sight of the Lord, walking in the way of his father, and in his sin where with he made Israel to sin.
27 And Baasha the sonne of Ahijah of ye house of Issachar conspired against him, and Baasha slue him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistims: for Nadab and all Israel layde siege to Gibbethon.
28 Even in the third yeere of Asa King of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his steade.
29 And when he was King, he smote all the house of Ieroboam, he left none aliue to Ieroboam, vntill hee had destroyed him, according to the word of the Lord which he spake by his seruant Ahijah the Shilonite, 30 Because of the sinnes of Ieroboam which he committed, and wherewith he made Israel to sinne, by his prouocation, wherewith he provoked the Lord God of Israel.
31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
32 And there was warre betweene Asa and Baasha king of Israel, all their dayes.
33 In the thirde yeere of Asa King of Judah, began Baasha the sonne of Ahijah to reigne over all Israel him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.
28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead.
29 And it came to pass, that as soon as he was king, he smote all the house of Jeroboam; he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him; according unto the saying of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite:
30 Because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation wherein he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.
31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
And the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,

2 Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over my people Israel; and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me with their sins,

3 Behold, I will take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house, and will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

4 Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat.

5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

6 And Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah; and Elah his son reigned in his stead.

7 And moreover by the hand of the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he smote him.

8 In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned foure and twenty yeeres.

34 And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sinne, where with he made Israel to sinne.

Then the word of the Lord came to Iehu the sonne of Hanani against Baasha, saying,

2 Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee captnaue over my people Israel, and thou hast walked in the way of Ieroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sinne, to prouoke me with their sinnes,

3 Beholde, I will take away the posteritty of Baasha, and the posteritty of his house, and will make thine house like the house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat.

4 He that dyeth of Baashas stocke in the citie, him him that dyeth of his in the fieldes shall the foules of the ayre eate.

5 Now the rest of the actes of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

8 In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years.

9 And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him: now he was in Tirzah, drinking, till he was drunken in the house of Arza steward of his house in Tirzah.

10 And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah.

11 And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha, not leaving thereof one to pisse against a wall, neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends. {neither...: Heb. which was over}

12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

13 And the house of Baasha was broken up: for Zimri destroyed him.

16 And also by the hand of the prophet Hanani came the word of the LORD against Jeroboam, and to his house, that he should be like the house of Ieroboam, even for all the wickedness that he did in the sight of the Lord, in provoking him with the worke of his hands, and because he killed him.

21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver; and he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, Samaria. {Samaria: Heb. Shomeron}

25 But Omri did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and dealt wickedly above all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he shewed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years.

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD above all that were before him.

31 And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

20 And the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: for halfe the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath to make him King, and the other halfe followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri, preuayed against the people that followed Tibni the sonne of Ginath: so Tibni dyed, and Omri reigned.

23 In the one and thirtie yeere of Asa King of Iudah bega Omri to reigne ouer Israel, and reigned twelve yeere. Sixe yeere reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the mountaine Samaria of one Shemer for two talents of siluer, and buylt in the mountaine, and called the name of the citie, which he buylt, after the name of Shemer lord of the mountaine, Samaria.

25 But Omri did euil in the eyes of the Lord, and did worse then all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, and in his sinnes wherewith he made Israel to sinne in prouoking the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.

27 And the rest of the acts of Omri, that hee did,
And his strength that he shewed, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

28 And Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 Nowe Ahab the sonne of Omri began to reign ouer Israel, in the eyght and thirtie yeere of Asa king of Iudah: and Ahab the sonne of Omri reigned ouer Israel in Samaria two and twenty yere.

30 And Ahab the sonne of Omri did worse in ye sight of the Lord then al that were before him.

31 For was it a light thing for him to walke in the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, except hee tooke Iezebel also the daughter of Ethbaal King of the Zidonians to wife, and went and serued Baal, and worshipped him?

32 Also he reared vp an altar to Baal in the house of Baal, which he had buylt in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his dayes did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho: he layed the foundation thereof in Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, according to the worde of the LORD, which he spake by Ioshua the sonne of Nun.
And Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the LORD God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

3 Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

4 And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.

5 So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook.

7 And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

8 And the word of the LORD came unto him, say ing,

9 Arise, get thee to Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee.

10 So he arose, and went to Zarephath: and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow woman was there gathering sticks: and he called to her, and she answered him, and said, Here is a little water, and here a morsel of bread, wherewith thou mayest now day and night, because the LORD hath said, He will surely prosper thee.

11 And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her household, did eat many days, for the word of the LORD came to Elijah, saying, 12 Behold, there shall be rain neither dew nor rain these years, according to my word which I have spoken in thy ears.

10 So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

12 And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in the barrel, and a little oil in the cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.

13 And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said, but make me thereof a little cake first, and afterward make for thee and for thy son.

14 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The meale in the barrel shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Eliiah.

15 And she went, and did as Eliiah sayd, and she did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days. [many...: or, a full year]

16 The barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Elijah.

17 And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sicke, and his sicknesse was so sore, that I may drink.

18 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

19 And she went, and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days.

20 And she said, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said, but make me thereof a little cake first, and afterward make for thee and for thy son.

21 And after these things, the son of the wife of the house fell sicke, and his sickness was so sore, that there was gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.
which he spake by Eliaah. [by: Heb. by the hand of]

17 And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she said unto Eliaah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?

19 And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him vp into a chamber, where he abode, and laid him upon his owne bed.

20 Then he called vnto the Lord, and sayde, O Lord my God, hast thou punished also this widowe, with whom I soiourne, by killing her sonne?

21 And he stretched himselfe vpon the childe three times, and called vnto the Lord, and saide, O Lord my God, I pray thee, let this childes soule come into him againe.

22 And the Lord heard the voice of Eliaah; and the soule of the child came into him againe, and he revived.

23 And Eliaah took the child, and brought him downe out of the chamber into the house, and deliuered him vnto his mother, and Eliaah sayd, Behold, thy sonne liueth.

24 And the woman said to Eliaah, Now I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in thy mouth is truth.
And it came to pass after many days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, Go, shew thyself unto Ahab; and I will send rain upon the earth.

2 And Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab. And there was a sore famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah, which was the governor of his house: (and Obadiah feared God greatly: for it was so, when Jezebel destroyed the Prophets of the Lord, Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them, by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)

4 For it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water. (Jezebel: Heb. Izebel)

5 And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all the fountains of water, and unto all the brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, lest we deprive the lande of the beastes.

6 So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Is it thou, my lord Elijah?

8 And he answered him, It is I: go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, Wherein have I sinned, that thou
And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah,
17 And when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?
18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel, but thou, and thy fathers house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.
19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal foure hundred and fiftie, and the prophets of the groves foure hundredth, which eate at Jezebel's table.
20 So Ahab sent vnto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together vnto mount Carmel.
21 And Eliiah came vnto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the Lord be God, follow him: but if Baal be he, then goe after him. And the people answered him not a worde.
22 Then said Eliiah vnto the people, I onely remaine a Prophet of the Lord: but Baals prophets are foure hundred and fiftie men.
23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire vnder, and I will prepare the other bullock, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire vnder, and I will know who is the Lord, and it shall come to passe, that the man that Iezebels table.

26 And they cried aloud, and cut them selves after their manner, with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them.

27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Crye loude: for he is a god: either he talketh or pursueth his enemies, or is in his iourney, or it may be he is musing, or he is gone aside, or he is in a journey, or he sleepeth, and must be awaked.

28 And they cryed loude, and cut them selues as their maner was, with kniues and launcers, till the blood gushed out vpon them.

29 And when midday was passed, and they had prophesied vntil the offring of the euening sacrifice, there was no voice, nor any that answered: and they leapt uppon the altar that was made.

30 And Eliiah said vnto all the people, Come to me. And he repayred unto me; and all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the Lord that was broken downe.

31 And Elias took an hyperett, and prepared a bullock, and laid it upon the hyperett, and said to them, Fill twelve caldrons with water, and pour it vpon the hyperett, and send it vpon the hyperett.

32 And he sent one, and said, Fill thine hyperett with water, and pour it vpon the hyperett, and send it vpon the hyperett.

33 And he sent on the second time, and said, Fill thine hyperett with water, and pour it vpon the hyperett, and send it vpon the hyperett.

34 And he sent on the third time, and said, Fill thine hyperett with water, and pour it vpon the hyperett, and send it vpon the hyperett.

Then Ahab went up and came to Jezreel.

46 And the hand of the Lord was on Elijah, and he girded vp his loynes, and ran before Ahab till he came to Jezreel.

Now Ahab tolde Iezebel all that Eliiah had done, and how he had slaine all the prophets with the sword.

2 Then Iezebel sent a messenger vnto Eliiah, saying,

The gods doe so to me and more also, if I make not thy life like one of their liues by to morowe this time.

3 When he sawe that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which is in Iudah, and left his servant there.

4 And he himself went a day’s journey into the wildernesse, and came and sat down under a juniper tree:

And he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.

5 And he lay down and slept under a juniper tree; and, behold, an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat.

6 And he looked, and, behold, there was at his head a cake baken on the coals, and a cruse of water. And

And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount of the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake:

5 And the angel of the LORD came againe the seconde time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat: for thou hast a great journey.

8 Then he arose, and did eate and drinke, and walked in the strength of that meat foureteene days and fourtie nights, vnto Horeb the mount of God.

9 And there he entred into a cave, and lodged there: and beholde, the Lord spake to him, and said vnto him, What doest thou here, Eliiah?

10 And he answered, I haue bene very ielous for the Lord God of hostes: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenent, broken downe thine altars, and slayne thy Prophets with the sword, and I onely, 11 And he said, Come out, and stand upon the mount before the Lord. And, behold, the Lord passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake the rocks before the Lord: but the Lord was not in the wind:

12 And after the wind came fire: but the Lord was not in the fire: and after the fire came a still small voice.

13 And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah?

14 And he answered, I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Go return on thy way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when thou comest, thou shalt anoint Hazael to be king over Syria:

16 and Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel: and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room.

17 And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth from the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay;

18 Yet will I leave me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.
16 And Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel: and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room. {Elisha: Gr. Eliseus}

17 And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth from the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay.

18 Yet will I leave seven thousand in Israel, even all the knees that have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth that hath not kissed him. {I have...: or, I will leave}

19 So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and was with the twelfth: and Elija went towards him, and cast his mantel upon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. Who answered him, Go back again; for what have I done to thee?

21 And when he went back againe from him, he took a couple of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eate. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered vnto him.

19 So he departed thence, and found Elisha, the son of Shaphat, who was plowing, with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed over unto him, and cast his mantle upon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. And he said unto him, Go back again; for what have I done to thee?

21 And he returned from following him, and took the yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered vnto him.

3 Thy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, It is according to thy saying, my lord, O king; I am thine, and all that I have.

5 And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy women, and thy children, I will send unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children; or els I will send my servants vnto thee by to morow this time: and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy seruants: and whatsoeuer is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall take it in their handes, and bring it away.

And Ben-hadad said unto him, The cities which I had obtained of kids; but the Syrians filled the country. [were all...]

And he said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.

31 And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard say that the Kings of the house of Israel are mercifull Kings: we pray thee, let vs put sacke cloth about our loynes, and ropes about our heads, and goe out to the King of Israel: it may be that he will saue thy life.

32 Then they gyrded sackecloth about their loynes, and put ropes about their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let vs put sacke cloth about our loynes, and ropes about our heads, and goe out to the King of Israel: it may be that he will saue thy life.

33 Now the men tooke diligent heede, if they could catch any thing of him, and made haste, and sayd, 33 Now the men observed diligently, and hasted to catch whether it were his mind; and they said, Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him.

Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.

34 And Ben-hadad said unto him, The cities which will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

29 And they pitched one ouer against the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and there fel a wall vpon seuen and twenty thousand men that were left: and Ben-hadad fled into the city, and came into a secret chamber.

31 And his seruants sayd vnto him, Beholde nowe, we haue heard say that the Kings of the house of Is and goe out to the King of Israel: it may be that he 28 And there came a man of God, and spake unto 27 But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and there fel a wall in one day. And the wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left: and Benhadad fled into the city, into an inner chamber. {into an...: or, from chamber to chamber} {into an...: or, from chamber to chamber: Heb. into a chamber within a 26 And the king of Israel was vnder the wall, and there was a great noise in the camp of Israel. And they said, the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the Lord, Because the Aramites haue sayd, The Lord is God of the mountaines, and not God of the valleis, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

my father took from thy father I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will let thee go with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and let him go.

35 Then a certain man of the sons of the prophets said unto his neighbour by the word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him.

36 Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him and slew him.

37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, smiting and wounded him. {so that...: Heb. smiting and wounding}

38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with his headband over his eyes.

39 And when the King came by, he cried unto the King, and said, Thy servant went into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver.

40 And as thy servant was busy here and there, he let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.

33 Now the men did diligently observe whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said, Thy brother Benhadad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him. Then Benhadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.

34 And Ben-hadad said unto him, The cities, which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will let thee go with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and let him go.

35 Then a certain man of the children of the Prophets said vnto his neighbour by the comandement of the Lord, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him.

36 Then sayd he vnto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voyce of the Lord, beholde, as soone as thou art departed from me, a lyon shall slay thee. So when he was departed from him, a lyon found him and slew him.

37 Then he founde another man, and sayde, Smite mee, I pray thee. And the man smote him, and in smitinge wounded him.

38 So the Prophet departed, and wayted for the King by the way, and disguised himselfe with ashes vpon his face.

39 And when the King came by, he cried vnto the King, and said, Thy seruant went into the middes

43 And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.

And it came to pass after these things, that Naboth
the Izreelite had a vineyard, which was in Izreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spoke unto Naboth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house; and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it: or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money.
3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The LORD forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee.

pleased because of the word which Naboth the Jez-

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The LORD keepe me from giuing the inheritance of my father vnto thee.

4 Then Ahab came into his house heauie and displeased, because of the word which Naboth the Izreelite had spoken to him: for hee had sayde, I will not giue thee the inheritance of my fathers, and he lay upon his bed, and turned his face, and would eate no bread.

5 Then Iezebel his wife came to him and said vnto him, Why is thy spirit so sad that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Izreelite, and sayd vnto him, Give me thy vineyard for money, or if it please thee, I will giue thee the worth of it in money.

7 Then Iezebel his wife sayde vnto him, Why is thy spirit so sad that thou eatest no bread?

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, and that dwelt with Naboth.

1 Kings 21

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.
9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people; {on high... Heb. in the top of the people} and stone him that he may die.
10 And set two men, sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the King: then carry him out, and stone him that he may die.
11 And the men of his city, even the Elders and the nobles who dwelt in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them.
12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people, 13 And there came in two men, sons of Belial, and sat before him, and the men of Belial witnessed him against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the King. And then carry him out, and stone him that he died.
14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.
15 And when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, Jezebel sayd to Ahab, Vp, and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which she had sent vnto them.
16 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
17 Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which dwelleth in Samaria: behold, he is in the yard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters vnto the Elders, and to the nobles that were in his citie dwelling with Naboth.
9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaime a fast, and set Naboth vpon high among the people, {on high...} and stone him that he may dye.
10 And set two wicked men before him, and let them witnesse against him, saying, Thou diddest blaspheme God and the King: then carry him out, and stone him that he may dye.

And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead.

And when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

And the word of the Lord came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which is in Samaria: loe, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to take possession of it.

Therefore shalt thou say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the Lord, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine.

And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD.

Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, as well him that is shut up, as him that is left in Israel, and I will make thine house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation whereby thou hast provoked me to anger, and hast made Israel to sin.

And of Jezebel also spake the Lord, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the rampart of Jezreel.

Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

And they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.
2 And it came to pass in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.
3 (Then the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye not that Ramoth Gilead is ours, and we be still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria?)
4 And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle against Ramoth Gilead? And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and mine horses as thine horses.

And they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.

2 And in the third year did Jehoshaphat the King of Judah come down to ye King of Israel.
3 (Then the King of Israel said vnto his servants, Knowe yee not that Ramoth Gilead was ours? and wee stay, and take it not out of ye hand of the King of Aram?)
4 And he sayde vnto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou goe with mee to battel against Ramoth Gilead? And Jehoshaphat said vnto the King of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and mine horses as thine horses.
5 Then Jehoshaphat said vnto the King of Israel, Aske counsaile, I pray thee, of the Lord to day.
6 Then the King of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said vnto them, Shall I goe against Ramoth Gilead to battel, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go vp; for the Lord shall deliever it into the hands of the King.
7 And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him?

And they continued three yeere without warre betweene Aram and Israel.

2 And it came to pass in the third yeere, that Jeho-shaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Isra-eil.
3 And the king of Israel said vnto his servaunts, Know ye that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, and we bestill, and take it alone? And they said, Go vp, for ye Lord shall let it alone.
4 Then Iehoshaphat saide vnto the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and mine horses as thine horses.
5 Then Iehoshaphat saide vnto the King of Israel, Woe unto me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not aske the Lord today.
6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets of Aram (which were foure hundreth), and said vnto them, Shall I go vpon Aram to battel, or shall I stay? And they answered, Go vp, the Lord shall deliver it into the hands of the King.
7 And Iehoshaphat saide vnto the King of Israel, Is there here neuer a prophet of the Lord more, that we might enquire of him?
11 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron: and he said, Thus saith the LORD, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou hast consumed them.

12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

13 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good.

14 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, what the LORD saith unto me, that will I speak.

15 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go up, and prosper; and the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.
16 And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou speak unto me nothing but that which is true in the name of the Lord? 17 And he said, Therefore hear thou the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left. 18 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil? 19 And he said, Therefore hear thou the word of the Lord: These have no master, let every man return to his house in peace.

20 And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.

21 And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him.

22 And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets; and do so.

23 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets; and you shall entice him, and shalt prevail also: go forth, and do so.

24 And the king said vnto him, Goe vp, and prosper: and the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

25 Then there came forth a spirit, and stood before the Lord. I saw the Lord sitting on his throne, and all the hoste of heauen stood about him on his right hand and on his left.

26 And the king said vnto him, Againe he said, Heare thou therefore the worde of the Lord. I sawe the Lord sit on his throne, and on his left.

27 And the king said vnto him, Therefore hear thou the word of the Lord. I sawe all Israel scattered vpon the hills, as sheep that haue not a shepherd: and the Lord sayde, These haue no master, let euery man returne vnto his house in peace.

28 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesie no good vnto me, but euil? 29 And Againe he said, Heare thou therefore the worde of the Lord. I sawe all Israel scattered vpon the mountains, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the Lord sayde, These haue no master, let every man returne vnto his house in peace.

30 And the king said vnto him, How oft shall I charge thee, that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the Name of the Lord? 31 Then he said, I sawe all Israel scattered vpon the hoste of heaven standing by him on his right hand.

32 And the king said vnto him, Wherewith? 33 And he said, I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets; and shall entice him, and shall prevail also: go forth, and do so.

34 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets; and you shall entice him, and shall prevail also: go forth, and do so.

35 And the king said vnto him, Therefore hear thou the word of the Lord: I sawe all Israel scattered vpon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the Lord sayde, These haue no master, let euery man returne vnto his house in peace.
22 And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: go forth, and do so.

23 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.

24 But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

25 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself. {into...: or, from chamber to chamber: Heb. a chamber in a chamber}

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

27 and say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.

28 And Micaiah said, If thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.

29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramothgilead.

30 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.

31 Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty and two captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel: then shall thy princes take reward of him, and thy servants shall take reward of him.

32 And they said, Wherefore didst thou say, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel? for then would we have added honor unto thee. Now therefore receive a reward of the king of Israel.

33 And the chariots came up against him: and the Syrians drew back: for the Syrians said, God is a God of the Hebrews, and not of the Syrians.

34 So the king of Israel gathered together all the remnant of the people that were left in the city, and his officers, and his horsemen, and his chariots, and he went forth: and he chose of his officers thirty thousand chariots, and all the people that were left in the city, even seven thousand horsemen.

35 And they went out against him, and caught the Syrians coming against them; and they said, The Lord hath delivered Sennacherib the king of Assyria into the king's hand of Israel.

36 Then the king of Israel said, The Lord hath delivered up the king of the Assyrians to me: behold, I have obtained a victory over the king of the Assyrians in the valley...
30 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle. {I will...: or, when he was to disguise himself, and enter into the battle}

31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.

32 And when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, Surely it is the King of Israel, and they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried.

33 And when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the King of Israel, they turned backe from pursuing him.

34 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am wounded. {at a...: Heb. in his simplicity} {wounded: Heb. made sick}

35 And the battle increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the middes of the charet.

36 And there went a cry throughout the host about the going downe of the sunne, saying, {wounded: Heb. in his simplicity} {blood: Heb. made sick} {I will...: or, when he was to disguise himself, and enter into the battle}

37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And they washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; (now the harlots washed themselves there;) according unto the word of the LORD which he spake.

Nebat, which made Israel to sinne.
53 For he served Baal and worshipped him, and provoked the Lord God of Israel unto wrath, according vnto all that his father had done.
Then Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.

2 And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this disease.

3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?

4 Wherefore thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not come down from the bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

5 And the messengers returned unto him, to whom he said, Why are ye now returned?

6 And they answered him, There came a man and met us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?

7 And he said unto them, What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these things?

8 And they said unto him, There came up a man to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Is it because there is no God in Israel, that ye go to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?

9 Then the Angel of the Lord said to Eliah the Tishbite, Arise, and go up to meet the messengers of the King which sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?
7 And he said unto them, What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words? {What...: Heb. What was the manner of the man?}

8 And they answered him, He was an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.

9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and, behold, he sat on the top of an hill. And he spake unto him, O man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. So fire came down from the heavens, and devoured him and his fifty.

10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume him and his fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

11 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. Who spake, and said unto him, O man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. So fire came down from the heavens, and devoured him and his fifty.

12 But Elijah answered, and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, let fire come down quickly.

13 And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with him which came and met you, and told you these words?

8 And they said vnto him, He was an heare man, and girded with a girdle of lether about his loynes. Then sayde he, It is Eliiah the Tishbite.

9 Therefore the King sent vnto him a capteine owr fiftie with his fiftie men, who went vp vnto him: for beholde, he sate on the toppe of a mountaine, and he saide vnto him, O man of God, the King hath commanded that thou come downe.

10 But Eliiah answered, and saide to the capteine owr the fiftie, If that I be a man of God, let fire come downe from the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fiftie. So fire came downe from the heauen and deuoured him and his fiftie.

11 Againe also he sent vnto him another capteine owr fiftie with his fiftie. Who spake, and saide vnto him, O man of God, the King hath com: Come downe quickly.

12 But Eliiah answered, and saide vnto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come downe from the heauen, and deuoure thee and thy fiftie. So fire came downe from the heauen and deuoured him and his fiftie.

13 Yet againe he sent the third capteine owr fiftie with his fiftie. And the thirde capteine owr fiftie went vp, and came, and fell on his knees before Elii-
And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight. {fell: Heb. bowed}

Ah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life and the life of these fifty thy servants be precious in thy sight.

14 Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the angel of the Lord said unto Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of his presence. So he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

16 And he said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, is it because there was no God in Israel to enquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down from the bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt die the death.

17 So he died according to the word of the Lord which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram began to reign in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, because he had no son.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah, that he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?
And it came to pass, when the LORD would take up Elijah by a whirlwind, that Elijah went up to heaven. And it came to pass, when the LORD would take up Elijah, that he went up by a whirlwind into heaven. 12 And Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof: and he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

15 And when the sons of the prophets which were at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doeth rest on Elisha: and they came to meet him, and fell to the ground before him,

16 And said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men: let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send. {strong...: Heb. sons of strength} {some mountain: Heb. one of the mountains}

17 Yet they were instant upon him, till he was ashamed: wherefore he said, Sende. So they sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

18 Therefore they returned to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did not I say unto you, Go not?

19 And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, we pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as thou, my lord, seest, but the water is naught, and the land baren. {barren: Heb. causing to miscarry}

20 Then he said, Bring me a newe cruse, and put salt therein. Then he went from thence to Jericho, and stood by the waye, and there was an old woman gathering sticks. And she said, Wherefore art thou stood here, my lord?

21 And he answered, And is this my life, now I am come to thee, and have sold myself to die? And she said, It is well spoken.

22 And he said, As the LORD liveth, I will receive none other reward than this.

23 Moreover he said unto her, What nowest thou? And she said, I have little leaven. And he said, Give it unto me. And she gave it him, not knowing that it was the mantel of the LORD's anointing.

24 Then he took his mantle, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the spirit of Elijah doeth rest on Elisha? And so he also, after he had striken the waters, so that they were divided this way and that way, went ouer, euen Elisha.

25 And when the children of the Prophets, which were at Jericho, saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doeth rest on Elisha: and they came to meet him, and fell to the ground before him,
And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast there the salt, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have healed these waters; death shall no more come thereof, neither barrenness to the ground.

So the waters were healed vntil this day, according to the word of Elisha which hee had spoken.

And he went vp from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

Now Jehoram the sonne of Ahab beganne to reigne over Israel in Samaria, the eighteenth yeere of Iehoshaphat King of Judah, and reigned twelve yeeres.

And he wrought euill in the sight of the Lord, but not like his father nor like his mother: for he tooke of the sinnes of Israel which they did, and abominable images hee adworke in the citie.

Nevertheless, he cleaued vnto the sinnes of the king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.
Nevertheless he cleaved unto the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

4 And Mesha king of Moab was a sheepmaster, and he rendered unto the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambs, and an hundred thousand rams, with the wool.

5 But it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 And king Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time, and numbered all Israel.

7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against the king of Israel.

8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way of the wilderness of Edom.

9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they made a circuit of seven days’ journey: and there was no water for the host, nor for the beasts that followed them.

10 And the king of Israel said, Alas! for the LORD host, nor for the beasts that followed them.

of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD by him? And one of the King of Israel’s servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which poured water on the hands of Elijah.

12 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath not aught to do with thee, nor seest thou him? And one of the king of Israel’s servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which poured water on the hands of Elijah.

14 Then Elisha said, As the Lord of hostes liueth, that we may enquire of the LORD by the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not have looked towarde thee, nor seene thee. Surely, were it not that I regard the word of the LORD, that I regard the word of the LORD, that we may enquire of the LORD.

15 But nowe bring me a minstrel. And when the minstrel played, the hand of the Lord came vpon him.

16 And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make this valley full of ditches.

17 For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall neither see wind, nor see raine, yet the valley shalbe filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your catte, and your beastes.

18 And he spake againe vnto the king, saying, Thus saith the Lord, Make this valley full of ditches.

19 Then spake he vnto the king, saying, Heare, vnderstand ye not what the Lord saith, that he hath called these three kings together, to giue them into the hand of Moab.

20 And the king of Israel said vnto the king of Edom, And vnto the king of Israel. And Elisha said, As the Lord of hostes liueth, the hand of Moab.

21 And Elisha said vnto the king of Israel, What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to giue them into the hand of Moab.

22 And Elisha said to the king, What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to giue them into the hand of Moab.

23 The word of the LORD came vnto him. Therefore the King of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, and the King of Edom went downe to him.

24 And Elisha said, As the Lord of hostes liueth, that we may enquire of the Lord.

25 Then the king of Israel said vnto Elisha, What shall I say vnto this people, when they say vnto me, A prophet spaketh vnto thee? And he answered, Say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not see winde nor see raine, yet the valley shalbe filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye and your cattel, and your beastes.
18 And this is but a light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will also deliver the Moabites into your hand.

19 And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all fountains of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.

20 And in the morning when the meat offering was offered, that, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on harness, and vpwarde, and stood in their border.

22 And they rose earely in the morning, when the sunne arose vpon the water, and the Moabites saw the water ouer against them as red as blood:

23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely destroyed, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil.

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country.

25 And they destroyed the cities: and on all the good field euery man cast his stone, and filled them and they stopt all the fountains of water, and felled tle and your beasts.

18 But this is a small thing in the sight of the Lord: for he will give Moab into your hand.

19 And ye shall smite every strong towne and every chiefe citie, and shall fell every faire tree, and shall stoppe all the fountains of water, and marre every good fielde with stones.

20 And in the morning whe the meat offring was offred, beholde, there came water by the way of Edom: and the countrie was filled with water.

21 And when al the Moabites heard that the Kings were come vp to fight against them, they gathered all that was able to put on harnesse, and vpwarde, and stood in their border.

22 And they rose earely in the morning, when the sunn was vpon the water, and the Moabites saw the water ouer against them, as red as blood.

23 And they saide, This is blood the Kings are surely slaine, and one hath smitten another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoyle.

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose vp and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them, but they inuaded them, and smote Moab.

25 And they destroyed the cities: and on all the good field euery man cast his stone, and filled them and they stopt all the fountains of water, and felled
25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land they cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kir-hareseth left they the stones thereof, howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it.

26 And when the King of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through unto the king of Edom: but they could not.

27 Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

And one of the wives of the sons of the Prophets cryed vnto Elisha, saying, Thy seruant mine husband is dead, and thou knowest, that thy seruant did feare the LORD: and the creditor is come to take my two sons to be bondmen.

2 Then Elisha saide vnto her, What shall I do for thee? tell mee, what hast thou at home? And she said, Thine handmaid hath nothing at home, saue a little oil, and an honeycomb.

21 And Elisha said vnto her, What is this little oil for? and she answered, Thine handmaid, when she saw that the oil was expir'd, prepared this little, and lent it to a friend; and, behold, it is not used.

22 And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through unto the wall: so that Israel was sore grievued, and they departed from him, and returned to their country.

Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy seruant my husband is dead: and thou knowest that thy servant did feare the LORD: and the creditor is come to take unto him my two children to be bondmen.

2 And Elisha said vnto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil.

3 Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all the good trees: only in Kirharaseth left they the stones thereof: howbeit they went about it, and smote it.
3 And he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few. {borrow not...: or, scant not}
4 And thou shalt go in, and shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.
5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons; they brought the vessels to her, and she poured out.
6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is no more vessels. And the oil ceased.
7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.
8 And on a time Elisha came to Shunem, and there was a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. {it fell on a day: Heb. laid hold on him}
9 And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which passeth by us continually.
10 Let us make, I pray thee, a little chamber on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.
And he said to his servant, Carry him to his mother.

11 And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber and lay there.

12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto her, Behold, thy son shall return unto thee alive.

14 Againe he said, What is then to be done for her? Then Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old.

15 Then said he, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

16 And he said, At this season, when the time cometh round, as Elisha had sayd vnto her, according to the season, that Elisha had said vnto her, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not liye unto thine handmayd.

17 So the woman conceiued, and bare a son at that same season, according to the time of life, that Elisha had sayd vnto her.

18 And when the childe was growen, it fell on a day, that he came thither, and to the reapers.

19 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood in the door.

20 Nay, my lord, thou man of God, doe not liye to the time of life, thy son shall embrace a son, and her husband is old. And she answered, I dwell among mine owne people.

21 Then said he, Cal her. And hee called her, and shee answered, I dwell among mine own people.

22 30 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

23 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the King or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.

24 And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old.

25 And he said, At this time appointed, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Oh my Lord, thou man of God, doe not liye vnto thine handmayd.

26 And he said, At this season appointed, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Oh my Lord, thou man of God, doe not liye vnto thine handmayd.

27 And he said, At this season appointed, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Oh my Lord, thou man of God, doe not liye vnto thine handmayd.

28 And he said, At this season appointed, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Oh my Lord, thou man of God, doe not liye vnto thine handmayd.

29 And he said, At this season appointed, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Oh my Lord, thou man of God, doe not liye vnto thine handmayd.
18 And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.
19 And he said unto his father, My head, my head.
20 And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.
21 And she went, and came unto the man of God to the well.
22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.
23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him today? it is neither new moon nor sabbath. And she answered, It shall be well.
24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; slacken me not the riding for me, except I bid thee.
25 So she went, and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is the Shunammite:
26 Runne nowe, I say, to meete her, and say vnto her, Is it well with the child? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well.
27 And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught hold of his feet. And Gehazi came...
27 And when shee came to the man of God vnto the mountaine, she caught him by his feete: and Gehazi went to her, to thrust her away: but the man of God said, Let her alone: for her soule is vexed within her, and hath not told it mee.

28 Then she said, Did I desire a sonne of my lord? did I not say, Deceiue me not?

29 Then he sayd to Gehazi, Gird thy loynes, and take my staffe in thine hand, and goe thy way: if thou meete any, salute him not: and if any salute thee, answere him not: and laye my staffe vpon the face of the childe.

30 And the mother of the childe sayde, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. Therefore he arose, and followed her.

31 But Gehazi was gone before them, and had layed the staffe vpon the face of the childe, but he neither spake nor heard: wherefore hee returned to meete him, and told him, saying, The childe is not waken.

32 Then came Elisha into the house, and beholde, the childe was dead, and layed vpon his bedde.

33 He went in therefore, and shut the doore vpon them twayne, and prayed vnto the Lord.

34 After he went vp, and lay vpon the child, and answer him not again: and laye my staffe vpon the face of the childe, but he neither spake nor heard: wherefore hee returned to meete him, and told him, saying, The childe is not awaked.

35 And he arose, and followed her.

36 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with the child? is it well with thy husband? is it well with thy soul liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee.

37 And he arose, and followed her. And he said, Is it well with the child? is it well with thy husband? is it well with thy soul liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee.

38 And he arose, and followed her. And he said, Is it well with the child? is it well with thy husband? is it well with thy soul liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee.

39 And he arose, and followed her. And he said, Is it well with the child? is it well with thy husband? is it well with thy soul liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee.

40 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staffe vpon the face of the childe; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he returned to meete him, and told him, saying, The childe is not waken.

41 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staffe vpon the face of the childe; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he returned to meete him, and told him, saying, The childe is not waken.

42 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staffe vpon the face of the childe; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he returned to meete him, and told him, saying, The childe is not waken.

43 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staffe vpon the face of the childe; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he returned to meete him, and told him, saying, The childe is not waken.

44 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staffe vpon the face of the childe; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he returned to meete him, and told him, saying, The childe is not waken.

45 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staffe vpon the face of the childe; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he returned to meete him, and told him, saying, The childe is not waken.

35 Then he returned, and walked in the house once to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. 36 And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her, which came in unto him. and sayde, O thou man of God, death is in the pot: and they could not eate thereof.
41 Then he said, Bring meale. And hee cast it into the potte, and sayde, Powre out for the people, that they may eate: and there was none euill in the potte.
42 Then came a man from Baal-shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, euen twenty loaves of barley, and full eares of corne in the huske. And hee saide, Giue vnto the people, that they may eate.
43 And his seruant answered, How should I set this before an hundreth men? He said againe, Giue the people, that they may eate.
44 So he set it before them, and they did eate, and lefte thereof, according to the word of the LORD.

Now was there one Naaman captaine of the hoste of the king of Aram, a great man, and honourable in the sight of his lorde, because that by him the Lord had given deliuerance unto Syria: he was also a mightie man in valour, but he was a leper.
2 And the Syrions had gone out by bands, and had brought away captaine out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Naaman's wife.
3 And she said unto her mistresse, Would God my lord were with the prophet that is in Samaria! then would he recover him of his leprosy.
4 And one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel.
5 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will bring the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full eares of corn in the huske. And hee saide, Giue vnto the people, that they may eate.

42 And there came a man from Baal-shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh eares of corn in his sack. And he said, Giue unto the people, that they may eate.
43 And his servitor said, What, should I set this befoere an hundreth men? He said againe, Giue unto the people, that they may eate.
44 So he set it before them, and they did eate, and lefte thereof, according to the word of the LORD.

Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him the LORD had given vniuersall deliuerance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper.
2 And the Syrians had gone out by bands, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Naaman's wife.
3 And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were with the prophet that is in Samaria! then would he recover him of his leprosy.

2 Kings 5

1 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited upon Naaman’s wife. {waited...: Heb. in his hand}
2 And one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel.
3 And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were with the prophet that is in Samaria! for he would recover him of his leprosy.
4 And he went in, and tolde his lorde, saying, Thus said the little maid; and she waited on Naaman’s wife. {wait...: Heb. in his hand}
5 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the King of Israel. And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten change of raiment,
6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, And now when this letter is come unto thee, understand, that I haue sent thee Naaman my seruant, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy.
7 And when the king of Israel had read the letter, he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make life, that this man doth send to mee, that I should heale a man from his leprosie? wherfore consider, I pray you, and see howe he seeketh a quarel against me.
8 But when Elisha the man of God had heard that the King of Israel had rent his clothes, hee sent vnto the King, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me.

9 And she said vnto her mistres, Would God my lord were with the prophet that is in Samaria! for he 10 And hee sent Naaman my seruant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy.
11 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter vnto the King of Israel. And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and sixe thousand pieces of golde, and ten change of raiments,
12 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come vnto thee, vnderstand, that I haue sent thee Naaman my seruant, that thou maiest heale him of his leprosy.
13 And when the King of Israel had read the letter, hee rent his clothes, and sayde, Am I God, to kill and to giue life, that hee doth send to mee, that I should heale a man from his leprosie? wherfore consider, I pray you, and see howe he seeketh a quarrel against me.
14 But when Elisha the man of God had heard that the King of Israel had rent his clothes, hee sent vnto the King, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me.
15 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter vnto the King of Israel. And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten change of raiments,
16 And he brought the letter to the King of Israel to this effect, Now when this letter is come vnto thee, vnderstand, that I haue sent thee Naaman my seruant, that thou maiest heale him of his leprosy.
17 And when the King of Israel had read the letter, hee rent his clothes, and sayde, Am I God, to kill and to giue life, that hee doth send to mee, that I should heale a man from his leprosie? wherfore consider, I pray you, and see howe he seeketh a quarrel against me.
8 And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes,

9 So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash thee in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come againe to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Beholde, I thought, He will surely come out to stand, and call on the name of the Lord his God, and wave his hand over the place, and recover the leper.

12 Are not Abanah and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash mee in them, and bee cleansed? so he turned, and went away in a rage.

13 And his servants came, and spake vnto him, and said, Father, if the Prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?

14 Then went he downe, and washed himself seven times in Iorden, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came againe, like vnto ye flesh of a litle child, and he was cleane.

15 And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said, Behold now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, a present of thy servant.

16 But he said, As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it: but he refused.

17 And Naaman said, If not, yet I pray thee let there be given to thy servant two mules’ burden of earth; for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt

18 And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes,

21 Then went he downe, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came againe like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

22 But he said, As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it: but he refused.

24 And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes,

25 So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

26 And Elisha sent a messenger vnto him, saying, Go and wash thee in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come againe to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Beholde, I thought, He will surely come out to stand, and call on the name of the Lord his God, and wave his hand over the place, and recover the leper. {Abana: or, Amana}

Knowe that there is a Prophet in Israel.

If not, yet I pray thee let there be given to thy servant two mules’ burden of earth; for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt

And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes,

So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash thee in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come againe to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.

Are not Abanah and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better then all the waters of Israel? may I not wash mee in them, and bee cleansed? so he turned, and departed in displeasure.

But his servants came, and spake vnto him, and sayd, Father, if the Prophet had commanded thee a great thing, wouldst thou not have done it? howe much rather then, when hee sayth to thee, Wash and be cleane?

Then went he downe, and washed him selfe seven times in Iorden, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came againe, like vnto ye flesh of a little child, and he was cleane.

16 But he said, As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will not receive it. And he would have constrained him to receive it, but he refused.

17 Moreover Naaman said, Shall there not be giuen to thy servant two mules load of this earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt sacrifice nor offering unto any other god, saue vnto the Lord.

18 Herein the Lord bee mercifull vnto thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon, to worship there, and leaneth on mine hand, and I bowe my selfe in the house of Rimmon: when I doe bowe downe, I say, in the house of Rimmon, the Lord be mercifull vnto thy servant in this point.

19 Unto whome he said, Goe in peace. So he departed from him about halfe a dayes iourney of grounde.

20 But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared this Aramite Naaman, receiuing not those things at his hand that he brought: as the Lord liueth, I will runne after him, and take somewhat of him.

21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw one running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all well? 22 And he said, All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from the hill country of Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets; give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of raiment.

23 And Naaman said, Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of raiment, and laid it upon two mules. 24 Then said he to his servant that was in-keeping of his horses, Run now, I pray thee, and return unto him again, and say unto him, Let now mine master take instead of the gift.
them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him.
24 And when he came to the hill, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house: and he let the men go, and they departed. {tower: or, secret place} 25 But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went no whither. {no whither: Heb. not hither or thither}

21 But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, as the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him.
22 So Gehazi followed speedily after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted downe from the charret to meete him, and said, Is all well?
23 And he answered, All is well: my master hath set me, saying, Behold, there be come to me, eu'n nowe from mount Ephraim two yong men of the children of the Prophets: giue them, I pray thee, a talent of siluer, and two change of garments.
24 And Naaman said, Yea, take two talents: and he compelled him, and bound two talents of siluer in two bagges, with two change of garments, and gaue them vnto two of his seruants, that they might beare them before him.
25 And when he came to the towre, he tooke them out of their handes, and laide them in the house, and sent away the men: and they departed.
26 Then he went in, and stooed before his master. And Elisha said vnto him, Whence commest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy seruant went no whither. {no
whither: Heb. not hither or thither}
And the sons of the prophets said unto Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell before thee is too strait for us.

2 Let us go, we pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go ye.

3 And one said, Vouchsafe, I pray thee, to go with us. And he answered, I will go.

4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down wood.

5 But as one was felling a tree, the axe head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master! for it was borrowed.

6 And the man of God said, Where fell it? And he cast it in thither, and made the iron to swim.

7 Therefore said he, Take it up to thee. And he put it in his hand, and took it.

8 Now the king of Syria warred against Israel; and he took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my camp.

9 And the man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are coming down.

10 And the king of Israel sent to the place which Then he said, Take it vp to thee. And he stretched out his hand, and took it.

The King of Aram was warring against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall my camp be set, and thither the Syrians are come down.

Therefore the man of God sent unto the King of Israel, saying, Beware thou goe not ouer to such a place: for there the Aramites are come downe.

So the King of Israel sent to the place where the man of God tode him, and warned him of, and saved saide vs, Will ye not shewe me, which of vs is for the king of Israel?

And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O King, but Elisha the Prophet that is in Israel, telleth the King of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy priuie chamber.

Therefore the man of God told him and warned him of; and he saved himselfe there, not once nor twice.

And he said, Alas, my master! how shall we do?

Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about.

And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed him about.

And the king of Israel sent to the place where he was, saying, Beware thou goe not owre to such a place: for there the Aramites are come downe.

And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them.

And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and,
16 And he answered, Fear not: for they be with us more than they be with thee.

17 And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw, and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

18 And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will lead you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria.

19 And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. And he led them to Samaria. {follow...: Heb. come ye after me}

20 And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, open the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

21 And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, My father; shall I smite them? shall I smite them?

22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: for then a hoste compassed the citie with horses and chariots. Then his servaunt sayde vnto him, Alas, master, howe shall we doe?

23 And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with vs, are moe then they that be with them. And his servaunt said unto him, Alas master, howe shall we doe?

24 And he answered, wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.

25 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the bands of Syria came early to goe out, beholde, an hoste compassed the citie with horses and chariots. Then his servaunt sayde vnto him, Alas master, howe shall we doe? and he answered, Fear not: for they that be with vs, are moe then they that be with them.
22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them:
doest thou not smite those whom thou hast taken cap-with thy sword and with thy bowe? but set bread and tive before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.

23 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunken, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

24 And it came to pass after this, that Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria.

25 So there was a great famine in Samaria: for loe, they besieged it, until an ass’s head was sold for fourscore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a kab of dove’s dung for five pieces of silver.

26 And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O king.

27 And he said, If the LORD do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the barnfloor, or out of the winepress? {If...: or, Let not the LORD save thee}

28 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy

29 So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him: and she hath hid her son.

30 And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes; and the people looked, and, behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh.

31 And the LORD sent one captain of the host of the LORD unto him: and when the captain of the host of the LORD came, he said unto Ben-hadad, king of Syria, Doest thou not smite them that thou hast taken captive with thy sword and thy bowe?
but set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.

32 And he made great preparation for them: and when they had eaten and drunken, he sent them away:
and they went to their master. So ye bands of Aram came no more into the land of Israel.

33 But afterward Ben-hadad King of Aram gathered all his hoste, and went vp, and besieged Samaria.

24 But afterward Ben-hadad King of Aram gathered all his hoste, and went vp, and besieged Samaria.

25 So there was a great famine in Samaria: for loe, they besieged it vntill an asses head was at foure score pieces of siluer, and the fourth part of a kab of doues doung at fiue pieces of siluer.

26 And as the King of Israel was going vpon the wall, there cryed a woman vnto him, saying, Helpe,
my lord, O King.

27 And he said, Seeing the Lord doeth not succour thee, howe shoulde I helpe thee with the barne, or with the wine presse?

28 Also the King said vnto her, What ayleth thee? And she answered, This woman sayde vnto me, Giue thy sonne, that we may eate him to day, and we will eate my sonne to morowe,

29 So we sod my sonne, and did eate him: and I came no more into the land of Israel.

24 And it came to pass after this, that Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria.

25 And there was a great famine in Samaria: and, behold, they besieged it, until an ass’s head was sold

29 So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may

Then he said, God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.

32 (Now Elisha sat in his house, and the Elders sat with him.) And the King sent a man before him: but before the messenger came to him, he said to the Elders, See ye not how this murderer's son hath sent to take away mine head? look, when the messenger commeth, shut the door and handle him roughly at the door: is not the sound of his masters feet behind him?

33 While he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came downe unto him, and said, Behold, this euill commeth of the LORD; what should I wait for the LORD any longer?

HEBREW - WTT
11 And he setted his countenance stedfastly, until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt dash their children, and rip up their women with child.

13 Then Hazael said, But what is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD hath shewed me, that thou shalt be king over Syria.

14 So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldest surely recover.

15 And it came to pass on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 And in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign. {began...: Heb. reigned}

17 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

19 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy Judah, for David his servant’s sake, as he promised him to give with the sword, and wilt dash in pieces their little ones, and rip up their women with child. 13 And Hazael said, But what is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD hath shewed me, that thou shalt be king over Syria. 14 So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? 20 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.

21 Then Joram passed over to Zair, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled into their tents.

22 So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then did Libnah revolt at the same time.

23 Concerning the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

24 And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead. (Ahaziah: also called, Hazael, and Jehoahaz)

25 In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign.

26 Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord.
27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the Lord, like the house of Ahab: for he was the son in law of the house of Ahab.

28 And he went with Ioram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

29 And king Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel, because he was sick.

Then Elisha the Prophet called one of ye children of the Prophets, and said unto him, Gird thy loynes, and take this boxe of oyle in thine hand and get thee to Ramoth-gilead.

And Elisha the prophet called one of the children of the prophets, and said unto him, Gird up thy loins, and take this box of oil in thine hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead:

Then Elisha the Prophet called one of ye children of the Prophets, and sayde vnto him, Gird thy loynes and take this boxe of oyle in thine hand and get thee to Ramoth-gilead.

LORD, as did the house of Ahab: for he was the son in law of the house of Ahab.

28 And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

29 And king Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which ye Aramites had giuen him at Ramah, whe he fought against Hazael King of Aram. And Ahaziah the sonne of Iehoram King of Judah went downe to see Ioram the sonne of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sicke.

And Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said unto him, Gird up thy loins, and take this vial of oil in thine hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead.

2 And when thou comest thither, look out there Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brethren, and carry him to an inner chamber.

3 Then take the vial of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and tarry not.

4 So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.
2 And when thou comest thither, look out there Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brethren, and carry him to an inner chamber; {inner...: Heb. cham-ber in a chamber}

Then take the box of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith the Lord, I have anointed thee for King over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and flee without any tarrying.

So the servant of ye Prophet gate him to Ramoth Gilead.

And when he came in, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he answered, To thee, O captain.

And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel.

And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the Prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the Lord of the hand of Iezebel.

And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.

And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man and what his talk was.

5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he answered, To thee, O captain.

And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel.

And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the Prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the Lord of the hand of Jezebel.

And for the whole house of Ahab shall perish: and I will cut off from Ahab every man child, and him that is left at large in Israel.

And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.

And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man and what his talk was.
9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah:
10 And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.
11 Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came ye this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication.
12 And they said, It is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel.
13 Then they hasted, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king.
14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had kept Ramothgilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria.)
15 And King Joram returned to be healed in Izreel of the wounds, which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.
16 And one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication.
17 Now the watchman stood on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?
18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, that is left in Israel.

What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again.
25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden upon him;

26 Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and I will requite thee in this plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.

27 But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house: And Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot: and they smote him at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and died there.

28 And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of David.

29 And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.

30 And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, and tired her head, and looked out at the window.

31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Is it peace, thou Zimri, thy master’s murderer?
28 And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of David.

29 And in the eleventh year of Ioram the son of Ahab, began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.

30 And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it, and painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.

31 And as Jehu entered at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, who slew his master?

32 And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs.

33 And he said, Cast her down: and they cast her down, and he sprinkled of her blood upon the wall, and upon the horses: and he trode her under foot.

34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink; and he said, See now to this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king’s daughter.

35 And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.

36 Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This is the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 28 And his seruants caried him in a charet to Ierusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the citie of David.

29 And in the eleuenth yere of Ioram the sonne of Ahab, began Ahaziah to reigne ouer Iudah.

30 And when Iehu was come to Izreel, Iezebel heard of it, and painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a windowe.

31 And as Iehu entred at the gate, shee sayde, Had Zimri peace, which slewe his master?

32 And he lift vp his eyes to the windowe, and sayd, Who is on my side, who? Then two or three of her Eunuches looked vnto him.

33 And he sayde, Cast her downe: and they cast her downe, and hee sprinkled of her blood vpon the wall, and vpon the horses, and he trode her vnder foote.

34 And when he was come in, he did eate and drinke, and sayde, Visite now yonder cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a Kings daughter.

35 And they went to bury her, but they foud no more of her, then the skull and the feete, and the palmes of her handes.

36 Wherefore they came agayne and tolde him. And he said, This is the worde of the Lord, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
And Ahab had nowe seuentie sones in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria vnto the rul-ers of Iezreel, and to the Elders, and to the bringers vp of Ahabs children, to this effect, 3 Consider therefore which of your masters sonnes is best and most meete, and set him on his fathers throne, and fight for your masters house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand?

5 And he that was over the household, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and they that brought up the children, sent to Jehu, saying, We are brought up the children, sent to Jehu, saying, We are with your master’s sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour;

6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be on my side, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master’s sons, and come to me to Iezreel by tommorow this time. Now the king’s sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which

Then there came a messenger and tolde him, saying, They haue brought the heads of the Kings sons, and slewe the seuentie persons, and layde their heads in baskets, and sent them vnto him to Izreel.

nothing of the word of the Lord, which the Lord spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the Lord spake by his servant Elijah.

18 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshippers, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal;
And he tooke him vp to him into the chariet.
And he sayde, Come with me, and see the zeale that I haue for the Lord: so they made him ride in his chariet.
And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained vnto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the Lord, which he spake to Elijah.
Then Iehu assembled all the people, and sayd vnto them, Ahab serued Baal a little, but Iehu shall serue him much more.
Now therefore call vnto me all ye prophets of Baal, all his seruants, and all his priests, and let not a man be lacking: for I haue a great sacrifice for Baal: whosoeuer is lacking, he shall not liue. But Iehu did it by a subtiltie to destroy ye seruants of Baal.
Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it. {Proclaim: Heb. נָהֳג] (נָהֳגין)}:
So Iehu sent vnto all Israel, and all the seruants of Baal, and all his priests, and let not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from ende to ende.
And he said vnto them, Ahab served Baal a little, but Iehu shall serve him much more.
Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his seruants, and all his priests, and Search, and look that there be none of the servants of the Lord, but worshippers of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled from one end to another. {full:... or, so full that they stood mouth to mouth}
So Iehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled from one end to another. {full:... or, so full that they stood mouth to mouth}
And Iehu said, Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it.
21 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal; and he said unto the worshippers of Baal, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he spake to them.
22 And he said unto him that was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal.
23 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal; and he said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only.
24 And they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt of- ferings. Now Jehu had appointed him fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I bring into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, his life shall be for the life of him.
25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made as end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and slay them;

Nebat, who made Israel to sin. Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Bethel, and that were in Dan.

And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, therefore shall thy sons unto the fourth generation sit on the throne of Israel.

But Jehu regarded not to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sin.

In those days the LORD began to cut Israel short: and Hazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel; from Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan.

Concerning the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his valiant deeds, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

And Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.

And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

the pillar, as the manner was, and the captains and the trumpeters by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, treason.

15 But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds that had the rule of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth between the ranks; and him that followeth her slay with the sword: for the priest said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD.

16 So they made way for her; and she went by the way of the horses’ entry to the king’s house: and there was she slain.

17 And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD’S people; between the king also and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

19 And he took the captains over hundreds, and the Carites, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard unto the king’s house. And he sat on the throne.
2 Kings 11

In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2 And Jehoash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all his days wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

3 But the high places were not taken away: for the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

4 And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the dedicated things that is brought into the house of the LORD, even the money of every one that passeth by the way of the gate of the house of the LORD, that it cometh into any man’s heart to bring into the house of the LORD, the priests take it to them, every man from his house of the LORD.

5 So they gave that which was brought into the house of the LORD, into the hand of the priests, every man in whose hand was the mouth of knowledge; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king’s house. And he sat on the throne of the kings.

6 But all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet: for they had slain Athaliah with the sword beside the Kings house.

7 Seven years old was Jehoash when he began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

8 And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guards and people, she came to the house of the Lord: and she looked, and, behold, the king stood by his column at the entering of the gate, and the captains and the guard, and all the people of the land.

9 So Athaliah took all the princes, and chief officers, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king’s house. And she came into the king’s house, and slew the king with a swordbeside the king’s house.

10 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword: and the kingdom was established over the children of David.

11 The priests departed not out of the priesthood to the people.

12 Now the word of the LORD came to Jehoiada the priest. So he called all the captains of the army, and said unto them, Carry you each man his trumpets; and come ye after me, and strike the kings’ house: but let none come near me: and the captains did so.

13 And he said, Stand ye, every man upon his watchmast, and also upon the watchmast; and, behold, I come to you. So the captains stood upon their watchmasts.

14 Then he divided to his servants, and set them over his watchmasts, even over the king’s house, and set him on the throne of the kingdom. And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword beside the Kings house.

15 And Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

16 And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the dedicated things that is brought into the house of the LORD, even the money of every one that passeth by the way of the gate of the house of the LORD, that it cometh into any man’s heart to bring into the house of the LORD, the priests take it to them, every man from his house of the LORD.

17 Yet the priests exacted tribute of the people, and oppressed them with burdens to bring into the house of the LORD.

18 But the hand of the LORD was upon Jehoiada the priest; and he was diligent to seek the good of the LORD; and so he was seated in the house of the LORD: and he spake unto the king between the香火架．

19 Then he took the captains of hundreds, and the other captains, and the guards, and all the people of the land, and came by the way of the gate of the garde to the Kings house: and he sate him downe on the throne of the Kings.

20 And all the people of the land rejoiced: for they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

5 Let the priests take it to them, every man of his

6 But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house. {three...: Heb. twentieth year

7 Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the Temple? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the repair of the breaches of the house.
8 And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the decayed places of the Temple.
9 But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored an hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD: and the priests that kept the door put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.
10 And when they saw there was much money in the chest, the Kinges Secretarie came vp and the money that was weighed out into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders, that wrought upon the house of the LORD,

13 Howbeit there was not made for the house of the LORD cups of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD: but they gave that to the workmen, and repaired therewith the house of the LORD.

14 Moreover they reckoned not with the men, into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully.

15 The money of the trespass offering and the money of the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the Lord: it was the Priests.

17 Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it: and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

18 And Jehoash king of Judah took all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD; and of the king’s house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and he went away from Jerusalem.
19 And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And his servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and slew Joash at the house of Millo, which goeth down to Silla: and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah King of Judah, Iehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, wherewith he made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

3 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael the king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, continually.

4 And Jehoahaz besought the LORD, and the LORD hearkened unto him: for he saw the oppression of Israel, how that the king of Syria oppressed them.

3 And the Lord was angry with Israel, and delievered them into the hand of Hazael King of Aram, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, all his daies.

4 And Jehoahaz besought the Lord, and the Lord heard him: for he saw the oppresion of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them.

5 (And the Lord gave Israel a saviour, so that they came out from under the hand of the Aramites: And the children of Israel dwelt in their tents as beforetime.

6 Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel sin, and departed not there from.

7 Neither did he leaue of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty men, that the king of Syria might not make his house like dust beaten to pouder.

14 When Elisha fell sicke of his sickenes, whereof he dyed, Ioash the King of Israel came downe vnto him, and wept vpon his face, and sayd, O my father, my father, the charret of Israel, and the horsemen thereof!
15 And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows: and he took unto him bow and arrows.
16 And he said to the king of Israel, Put thine hand upon the bow: and he put his hand upon it. And Elisha laid his hands upon the king's hands.
17 And he said, Open the window eastward: and he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot: and he shot.
18 And he said, The LORD'S arrow of victory, even the arrow of victory over Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou have consumed them.

And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground. And he smote thrice, and stayed.

Then the man of God was angry with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times; then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it, where now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.

So Elisha dyed, and they buried him. And certain bandes of the Moabites came into the land that yeere.

And as they were burying a man, behold, they saw the soldiery: therfore they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha. And when the man was downe, and touched the bones of Elisha, he reuied and stood up on his feet.

And Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

But the LORD was gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, and had respect unto them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his presence as yet.

And Hazael king of Syria died; and Ben-hadad his son reigned in his stead.

And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Three times did Joash smite him; and recovered the cities of Israel.

In the second year of Joash son of Joahaz king of Israel, began Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah to reign.

2 He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not as David his father.

4 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

5 And it came to pass, as soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, that he slew his servants which had slain the king his father:

6 but the children of the murderers he put not to death: according to that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, as the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin.

7 He slew of Edom in the Valley of Salt ten thousand, and took Sela by war, and called the name of it Joktheel, unto this day.

8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the king of Israel, saying,

9 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the king of Israel, saying,

10 For my father Joash said unto me, Take heed, and hear what thou shalt hear: and, Behold, I am dead: but this lewdness of Israel shall not be amended until theconsummation of days.

11 Now therefore, behold, I counsel thee to strengthen thyself, and prepare to meet the face of the face of the adversary: for he shall come to meet thee.

12 But Amaziah would not hearken thereunto; for he trusted in his own heart, that because he was very strong, he would be as great as Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz.

13 Nevertheless the army of Amaziah turned not away, according to the counsel of Jehoash.

14 Therefore it came to pass, as she entered into the gate of the city, that the children of Bethshemesh delivered her into the hand of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz.

15 And he slew of Edom in the Valley of Salt ten thousand, and took Sela by war, and called the name of it Joktheel, unto this day.

16 And Amaziah the king of Judah召 the captains of the hundred, and said unto them, Assemble yourselves to me, and be with me in battle, that we may take much spoil from the children of Ammon, and from the children of Moab, and from the children of Edom, and will take possession of the wilderness of Zobah.

17 And the captains of the hundred answered the king, saying, As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, we will do as thou sayest.

18 And they gathered themselves together at the pool, that is in the king’s garden: for there were very many potters’ vessels there, and the pool was large: and all the soldiers made them stand by the pool.

19 And Amaziah sat among the people: and they built him an altar, and made him king there by the pool of Gihon, in the street of the new gate.

20 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that Amaziah and the captains of the forces took them, to bring them to the house of the LORD, with the men of Judah, and with the children of Jerusalem.

21 And Amaziah gathered the people, and asked them, saying, Who is wise and understanding, that may go out before me, and hear the words of the LORD? and he will go out before me.

22 But Hazael king of Aram oppressed Israel all the days of Amaziah.

23 Therefore the Lord had mercy on them, and delivered them out of the hand of Hazael.

24 So Hazael the King of Aram dyed: and Benhadad his son reigned in his stead.

25 And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Ben-hadad the cities which he had taken away from his father according to the covenant which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father: for the children of Jeroboam son of Nebat had slain him, and reigned in his stead.

26 Therefore the Lord had mercy on them, and delivered them out of the hand of Hazael.

27 But Amaziah would not hearken thereunto; for he trusted in his own heart, and in the strength of his kingdom because of the large revenue that he had.

28 And the king of Edom came up against Amaziah by the river that is in Gihon, and smote him, and took away the cities of Judah, even Joakim, Bethshemesh, and Aijalon.

29 And Amaziah went to seek strength against the king of Babylon: but he delivered him into the hand of the king of Babylon, who slew him at Babylon.

30 And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

31 After this did Amaziah send messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, saying, I have smote Edom; now therefore deliver me from the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, which is king of Syria.

32 But Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz would not return by the way of Amaziah king of Judah; for the LORD said, I will deliver the children of Israel again out of the hand of the king of Syria, because they served the children of Ammon.

33 And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Ben-hadad the cities, which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father: for the children of Jeroboam son of Nebat had slain him, and reigned in his stead.

34 Therefore the LORD had mercy on them, and delivered them out of the hand of Hazael.

35 But Amaziah would not hearken thereunto; for he trusted in his own heart, that because he was very strong, he would be as great as Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz.

36 Nevertheless the army of Amaziah turned not away, according to the counsel of Jehoash.

37 And it came to pass, as she entered into the gate of the city, that the children of Bethshemesh delivered her into the hand of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz.

38 And he slew of Edom in the Valley of Salt ten thousand, and took Sela by war, and called the name of it Joktheel, unto this day.

48 And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

49 After this did Amaziah send messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, saying, I have smote Edom; now therefore deliver me from the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, which is king of Syria.

In the twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign. (Azariah; also called, Uzziah) departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne.

25 He restored the coast of Israel, from the entering of Hamath, unto the Sea of the wildernesse, according to the word of the Lord God of Israel, which he spake by his servant Ioseph the sonne of Amittai the Prophet, which was of Gath Hepher.

26 For the Lord saw the exceeding bitter affliction of Israel, so that there was none shut up, nor any left, neyther yet any that could helpe Israel.

27 Yet the Lord had not decreed to put out the name of Israel from vnder the heauen: therefore he preserued them by the hand of Jeroboam the sonne of Ioash.

28 Concerning the rest of the actes of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his valiant deedes, and how he fought, and how he restored Damascus, and Hamath to Iudah in Israel, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? 29 So Jeroboam slept with his fathers, euen with the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

20 In the seuen and twentieth yeere of Ieroboam king of Israel, began Azariah sonne of Amaziah King of Judah to reigne. {Azariah: also called, Uzziah} 21 Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem: and Jotham the kings son was over the general house. And Jotham the king's son was over the house of Judah, for Israel, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel; and Zachariah his son reigned in his steade.

22 In the twenty and seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, began Azariah, sonne of Amaziah King of Judah to reign. 23 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

24 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

25 And the Lord smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a seuerall house. And Jotham the king's son was over the household, judging the people of the land:

19 Also Judah kept not the commandments of the Lord their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

20 And the Lord rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

21 For he rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drave Israel from following the Lord, 27 Finally they left all the commandments of the Lord their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

16 And they made their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used witchcraft and enchantments, yea, solde them selues to do euill in the sight of the Lord, to anger him.

22 And the children of Israel walked in all the sinnes of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from the way which he made.

19 Yet Judah kept not the commandements of the Lord their God, but walked according to the faction of Israel, which they vsed.

20 Therefore the Lord cast off all the seede of Israel, and put them out of his sight, and none was left but the tribe of Judah only.

21 For he cut off Israel from the house of Dauid, and Ieroboam drewe Israel away from following the Lord, and made them sinne a great sinne.

23 until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, therefore the Lord sent lions among them, which killed some of them.

24 And the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them; until he had cast them out of his sight.

25 And so it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD: therefore the Lord removed Israel out of his sight, and none was left but the tribe of Judah only.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast carried away, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought, and place him there in the city of Samaria, and let him be a stay to thee, and to all the people that are in these nations, and to the nations which thou hast carried away, and know not the manner of the God of the land:

and made them sin a great sin.

22 And the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them; until he had cast them out of his sight.

23 until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, therefore the Lord sent lions among them, which killed some of them.

24 And the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them; until he had cast them out of his sight.

25 And so it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD: therefore the Lord removed Israel out of his sight, and none was left but the tribe of Judah only.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast carried away, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

and made them sin a great sin.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them;

23 Until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

24 And the King of Assyria brought folk from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria in stead of the children of Israel: so they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And at the beginning of their dwelling there, they feared not the Lord: therefore the Lord sent lions among them, which slew some of them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed them in the cities of Samaria, knowe not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let him goe and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

28 So one of the priests whom they had carrie God of the country.

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared the LORD, and made unto them from among themselves priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations from among whom they had been carried away.

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law or after the commandment which the LORD command-thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 For the men of Babel made Succoth-Benoth: and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,

31 And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak: and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 Thus they feared the LORD, and appoynted out Priestes out of them selues for the hie places, who prepared for them sacrifices in the houses of the hie places.

33 They feared the LORD, but serued their gods after the maner of the nations whome they caryed thence.

34 Unto this day they doe after the olde maner:
they neyther feare God, neyther doe after their ordinances, nor after their customes, nor after the Lawe, nor after the commandement, which the Lord commanded the children of Iaakob, whom he named Israel,

35 And with whom the Lord had made a couenant, and charged them, saying, Feare none other gods,

ed the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel; 35 with whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 but the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a stretched out arm, him shall ye fear, and unto him shall ye bow yourselves, and to him shall ye sacrifice:

37 and the statutes and the ordinances, and the law and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods:

38 and the covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods:

39 but the LORD your God shall ye fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images; their children likewise, and their children's children, as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.
Now it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

2 Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah.

3 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

4 He removed the high places, and brake the pillars, and cut down the Asherah: And he brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had made; for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it; and he called it Nehushtan.

5 He trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among them that were before him.

6 For he clave to the LORD, he departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses.

7 And the LORD was with him; whithersoever he went forth he prospered: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.

8 He smote the Philistines unto Gaza and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the 9 He removed the high places, and brake the pillars, and cut down the Asherah: And he brake in pieces the brasen serpent that Moses had made; for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it; and he called it Nehushtan.

10 Howbeit they obeyed not, but did after their old custome.

11 So these nations feared the LORD, and served their images also: so did their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.
fenced city.

9 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 And at the end of three years they took it: even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken.

11 And the king of Assyria carried Israel away unto Assyria, and put them in Halah, and in Habor, on the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:

12 because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear it, nor do it.

13 Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.

14 And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that thou puttest on me will I bear.

15 And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

16 And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house.

18 And called to the King. Then came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was steward of the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder.

19 And Rabshakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to the king, saying, I am now come up against this land, and destroy it.

20 Thou sayest, (but they are but vain words,) I trust in the Lord our God: who is the maker of heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that therein is. And dost thou trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? Who trusteth the broken staffe of Egypt, to wit, on Egypt, on which if a man leane, it will goe into his hand, and pearce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt vnto all that trust in him.

21 Lo, thou trustest now in this broken staffe of Egypt, on which if a man leane, it will goe into his hand, and pearce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt vnto all that trust in him.

22 But if ye say vnto me, We trust in the Lord our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to the people, vnto the Lord sacrifice, who is over all the earth, and that ye shall sacrifice thereunto?

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two plates of gold.

24 How then canst thou turn away the face of one thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

25 Am I now come up without the LORD against this land, and destroy it? The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to the king, thus saith the great King, euen the king of Assyria, saying, Thus saith the king, I pray you, Thus saith the great King, euen the king of Assyria:

27 What counsel and strength are for the warre. On whom doth thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? {say: or, talkest} {vain...: Heb. word of the lips} {I know...: or, but counsel and strength are for the war}

28 Thou thinkest, Surely I haue eloquence, but wherein thou trustest?

29 But if ye say vnto me, We trust in the Lord our God: who is the maker of heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that therein is. And dost thou trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? Who trusteth the broken staffe of Egypt, to wit, on Egypt, on which if a man leane, it will goe into his hand, and pearce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt vnto all that trust in him.

Go up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field, 19 And Rabshakeh sayde vnto them, Tell ye Hezekiah, Thus saith the great King, euen the king of Assyria, saying, Thus saith the king, I pray you, Thus saith the great King, euen the king of Assyria:

20 Thou thinkest, Surely I haue eloquence, but wherein thou trustest?

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not with us in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear plates of the doores of the Temple of the Lord, and the pillars (which the sayd Hezekiah King of Iudah had couered ouer) and gave them to the King of Asshur.

28 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear

God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

24 How then canst thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master’s servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

25 Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not with us in the Jews’ language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

24 For how canst thou despise any captain of the least of my masters seruants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

25 Am I now come vp without the Lord to this place, to destroy it? the Lord sayd to me, Goe vp against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah, and Shebannah, and Joah said vnto Rabshakeh, Speake I pray thee, to thy seruants in the Aramites language, for we understand it, and talke not with vs in the Iewes tongue, in the audience of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rabshakeh said vnto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speake these words, and not to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eate their owne doung, and drinke their owne pisse with you?

28 So Rabshakeh stoode and cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes language, and spake, saying, Heare ye the word of the great king, the king of Assyria.

29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:

30 neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the Lord, saying, The Lord will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

31 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, The Lord will deliver us.

33 Hath any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34 Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

35 Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand?
ter sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you? {their own piss: Heb. the water of their feet}

28 Then Rabshakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be given over into the hand of the king of Assyria.

31 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, that every man may eate of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern: {Make...: or, Seek my favour: Heb. Make with me a blessing} {cistern: or, pit}

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olives and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto the wordes of the great King, of the king of Assyr. hand:

33 Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the King of Assyr?

34 Where is the god of Hamah, and of Arpad? where is the god of Sepharuaim, Hena and Iuah? how have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 Who are they among all the gods of the nations, that have delivered their lande out of mine hand, hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah, with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.
that the Lord should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand?
36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the King's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.
37 Then Eliakim, the sonne of Hilkiah which was steward of the house, and Shebna the chancellour, and Joah the sonne of Asaph the recorder came to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and tolde him the wordes of Rabshakeh.

And when King Hezekiah heard it, he rent his clothes, and put on sackecloth, and came into the house of the Lord, 2 And sent Eliakim which was the stewarde of the house, and Shebnah the chancellour, and the Elders of the Priestes clothed in sackecloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the sonne of Amoz.

And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackecloth, and went into the house of the LORD. 2 And he sent Eliakim which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the sonne of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and tolde him the wordes of Rabshakeh.

And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackecloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackecloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.
3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of tribulation and of rebuke, and blasphemous: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. {blasphemy: or, provocation}

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God; and will he reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that are left. {left: Heb. found}

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. {blasphemy: or, provocation}

7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and he shall be delivered from the hand of the king of Assyria.

8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he therefore departed and sent other messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah and to Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words which the king of Assyria hath sent unto thee: he is but a man; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land, and ye shall see him no more.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and thou shalt hear a rumour, and shall return to thy own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them, wherefore should it be said, The gods of the nations have delivered them? Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? and where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?

14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD, the God of Israel, that sittest upon the cherubim, thou art the God, even thou alone, of 10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah King of Judah, and say, Let not thy God deceive thee in whom thou trustest, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the King of Assyshur.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the Kings of Asshur have done to all lands, how they have destroyed them: and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed? as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Thelasar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the King of Arpad, and the King of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, Hara, and Iuah?

14 And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which dwellest between the cherubims, thou art very God alone over all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and the earth.

16 LORD, bow down thine ear, and hear: open, and heare the wordes of Sennerchib, which hath sent thee to reproach the living God.

17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, 18 and have cast their gods into the fire: for they had no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.

19 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save thou us, and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard thee.

24 I have digged and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of besieged places.
25 Hast thou not heard long ago how I have done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps. Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.
26 I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me. Because thy rage against me and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thou camest.
29 And this shall be the sign unto thee: ye shall eat this year that which groweth of itself, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.
30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.
31 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of mount Zion they that shall escape: the zeal of the LORD shall perform this.
32 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come unto this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall he come before it with shield, nor cast a mount against it.
33 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and he shall not come unto this city, saith the LORD.
34 For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.
35 And it came to pass that night, that the angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when men arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.
2 Kings 19

36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.
37 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.
In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the Prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying,

3 I beseech thee, O Lord, remember now, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiah wept sore.

4 And afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle of the court, the word of the Lord came to him, saying,

5 3 I beseech thee, O Lord, remember nowe, howe I have walked before thee in trueth and with a perfite heart: and Hezekiah wept sore.

6 And I will add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

7 And Isaiah said, Take a cake of figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

8 And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go into the house of the LORD?

9 Then said Isaiah, This is the sign unto thee, that the LORD doth heal thee; on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD.
people. Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I have healed thee, and ye third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD.

6 And I will add unto the days fifteen years, and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the King of Assyria, and will defend this city for mine own sake, and for Daud my seruants sake.

7 Then Isaiah sayde, Take a lumpe of dry figges. And they tooke it, and layed it on the Boyle, and he recovered.

8 For Hezekiah had saide vnto Isaiah, What shalbe the signe that the Lord will heale me, and that I shall goe vp into the house of the Lord the thirde day?

9 And Isaiah answered, This signe shalt thou haue of the Lord, that the Lord will do the thing that he hath spoken: shall the shadow goe forward ten degrees, or go backe ten degrees?

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadowe to passe forward ten degrees: not so then, but let ye shadow go backe ten degrees.

11 And Isaiah the Prophet called vnto the Lord, and he brought the shadowe ten degrees backward, by the degrees whereby it had gone downe in the diall of Ahaz. {dial: Heb. סְפָרִים וּמִנְחָה אֶל־חִזְקִיָּהוּ כִּי שָׁמַ֔ה חָלָ֖ה חִזְקִיָּֽהוּ׃}

12 At that time Berodachbaladan the sonne of Baladan King of Babel, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heare howe that Hezekiah was sick.

13 And Hezekiah hearkened unto them, and shewed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious oil, and the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion that Hezekiah shewed them not.

14 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon.

15 And he brought the shadow ten steps backward, by which it had gone down in the dial of Ahaz. {dial: Heb. סְפָרִים וּמִנְחָה אֶל־חִזְקִיָּהוּ כִּי שָׁמַ֔ה חָלָ֖ה חִזְקִיָּֽהוּ׃}

16 And he brought againe the shadowe ten degrees backe by the degrees whereby it had gone downe in the diall of Ahaz.

17 The same season Berodach Baladan the sonne of Baladan King of Babel, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heare howe that Hezekiah was sick.
13 And Hezekiah heard them, and shewed them all his treasure house, to wit, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, and in all his realm, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

14 Then Isaiah the Prophet came unto King Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekiah said, They be come from a farre countrey, euen from Babylon.

15 And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures, that I haue not shewed the.

16 And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD.

17 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have layed vp in store vnto this day, shall be caryed into Babylon: Nothing shall be left, saith the Lord.

18 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, Is it not so, if peace and truth shall be in my days?

20 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool, and the conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

21 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

of Israel, and worshipped all the hoste of heauen and served them. 4 Also he built altars in the house of the Lord, of which the Lord said, In Jerusalem will I put my name. 5 And he built altars for all the hoste of heauen and served them. 6 And he made his son to pass through the fire, and practised augury, and used enchantments, and dealt with them that had familiar spirits, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger. 7 And he set the graven image of Asherah, that he had made, in the house of which the Lord said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 neither will i cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land which i gave their fathers; if only they will observe to do according to all that i have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant moses commanded them.

9 but they hearkened not: and manasseh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the lord destroyed before the children of israel.

10 and the lord spake by his servants the prophets, saying,

11 because manasseh king of judah hath done such abominations, and hath wrought more wickedly than all the amorites (which were before him) made judah also to sin with his idols:

12 therefore thus saith the lord, the god of israel, behold, i bring such evil upon jerusalem and judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle.

13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down. {wiping...: Heb. he wipeth and turneth it upon the face thereof}

14 And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliever them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their adversaries,

15 Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.

16 Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; beside his sin wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. {from...: Heb. from mouth to mouth}

17 Concerning the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

18 And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

19 Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

20 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father.

21 And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them:

22 And he did not turn away from the sins of Manasseh his father, but walked in them; and he did not turn from them. And he did not turn away from the sins of Manasseh his father, but walked in them; and he did not turn from them.

23 So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

24 And Amon was twenty and two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

25 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father.

26 And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them: and worshipped them:

Aman was twenty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother’s name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

Amon was two and twenty years old, when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem: his mother’s name also was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

And he walked in all the way that his father Manasseh did, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them:

And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house.

And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and put the king to death in his own house.

But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

And he was buried in his sepulchre in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

And they buried him in his sepulchre in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

{Josiah: Gr. Josias}
Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty and one years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Bozath.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.

3 And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying,

4 Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum the silver which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the door have gathered of the people:

5 And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the Lord, to repair the decayed places of the house:

6 unto carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house;

7 Howbeit there was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand; for they dealt faithfully.

8 And he did moreover the that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.

9 And in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullah the chancellor to ye house of the LORD, saying,

10 4 Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum the silver which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the doore haue gathered of the people.

5 And let them deliuer it into the hande of them that doe the worke, and haue the overseyght of the house of the Lord, to repair the decayed places of the house:

6 To wit, vnto the artificers and carpenters and masons, and to bye timber, and hewed stone to repaire the house.

7 Howbeit, let no reckoning bee made with them of the money, that is deliuered into their hande: for they deale faithfully.
8 And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the book word again, and said, Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it unto the hands of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD. {gathered: Heb. melted}

10 Also Shaphan the chancellor showed the king, saying, Hilkiah the Priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king.

11 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent his clothes. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the Priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king's, saying, {Achbor: Abdon} {Micaiah: or, Micah} {Ahikam: or, Achikam: or, Micah}

13 Go ye, inquire of the LORD for me, and for the king's servant, saying,
14 So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college;) and they communed with her.

15 And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read:

17 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, to anger me with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

18 But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, As touching the words which thou hast heard,

19 because thine heart was tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou hearest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants of the same, to wit, that it should be destroyed and accursed, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me, I have also heard it, saith the LORD; therefore, thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which ye King of Judah hath read,

The inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee, saith the LORD.

20 Behold therefore, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be put in thy grave in peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. Thus they brought the King wordes again.

Then the King sent, and there gathered vnto him all the Elders of Iudah and of Jerusalem.

2 And the King went vp into the house of the Lord, with all the men of Iudah and all the inhabitants of Ierusalem with him, and the Priests and Prophets, and all the people both small and great: and he reade in their eares all the wordes of the booke of the covenant, which was found in the house of the Lord.

3 And the King stood by the pillar, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and keepe his commandements, and his testimonies, and his statutes with all their heart, and all their soul, to accomplish the wordes of this covenant written in this booke. And all the people stood to the covenant.

4 Then the King commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the doors, saying, Go up into the house of the LORD, and take out of the library of the high priest the book of the covenant of the LORD.
5 And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to all the host of heaven. {put...: Heb. Chemarim}

6 And he brought out all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba, and carried the ashes of them unto Beth-el.

7 And he brake down the houses of the sodomites, that were by the house of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the grove. {hangings: Heb.}

8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba, and carried the ashes of them unto Beth-el.

9 And he brake down the high places of the gates that were in the house of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the Asherah.

10 And he brake down the high places of the gates that were in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the common people.

11 And he brake down the houses of the sodomites, that were in the house of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the Asherah.

12 And he brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense vnto Beth-el.

13 And he brake down the high places of the gate that were in the citie. [ )

14 And he brake down the high places of the gates that were in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the dust thereof vpon the graues of the children of the people.

15 And he brake down the houses of the Sodomites, that were in the house of the Lord, where the women wove hangings for the grove.

4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of ye Temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the Asherah, and for all the hoste of heaven: and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the poudre of them into Beth-el.

5 And he put down the Chemarims, whom the Kings of Iudah had founded to burn incense in the hie places, and in the cities of Iudah, and about Jerusalem, and also them that burn incense vnto Baal, to the sunne and to the moone, and to all the hoste of heaven.

6 And he brought out the grove from the Temple of the Lord without Jerusalem vnto the valley of Kedron, and burnt it in the valley Kedron, and stampt it to pouder, and cast the dust thereof vpon the graues of the children of the people.

7 And hee brake downe the houses of the Sodomites, that were by the house of the Lord, where the women woue hangings for the groue. {hangings: Heb.}

8 Also he brought all the priests out of the cities of Iudah, and defiled the hie places where the Priests had burnt incense euen from Geba to Beer-sheba, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the dust thereof vpon the graues of the children of the people. of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city.

9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they did eat unleavened bread among their brethren.

10 He defiled also Topheth, which was in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man should make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech.

11 He put downe also the horses that the Kings of Judah had given to the sun at the entring in of the house of the Lord, by the chamber of Nathan-merlech the eunuch, which was ruler of the suburbs, and burnt the charrets of the sun with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the top of the chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city, which was in the suburbs, and burned the charrets of the sun with fire.

13 And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did not go vp to the altar of the Lord in Jerusalem, saue only they did eate of the vnleauened bread among their brethren.

14 Moreouer the King defiled the hie places that were before Jerusalem and on the right hand of the mount of corruption (which Salomon the King of Israel had builded, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the Lord, did the king brake downe, and brake them downe from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brooke Kidron.

15 And the high places that were in the cities of Judah did the kings of Judah destroy, and brake downe the hie places and burnt the charrets of the sun with fire.

16 Nevertheless the Priests of the hie places came not up to the altar of the Lord in Jerusalem, but they did eat unleavened bread among their brethren.

17 And he took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entring in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nethan-me lech the chamberlain, which was in the precincts; and he burned the charrets of the sun with fire.

18 And the altars that were on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king brake down, and beat them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron.

19 And he brake also the vases of the sea, and the vases of the oil, and put the coppers and the shew basons into the fire, and brake them downe, and cast the dust of them into the brooke Kidron.

20 And he brake in pieces the images of the gods also, and said to the images and the vases, ye gods, the work of the hands of men, ye shall be broken to pieces.

21 Yea and he brake downe also Bethel, and the altar of the sun, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and he brake downe the altars and the images.

22 And he brake downe also Topheth, which was in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man should make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech.

23 And he brake also the vases of the sea, and the vases of the oil, and put the hie places, and SVM and the vases into the fire, and brake them downe, and cast the dust of them into the brooke Kidron.
14 And he brake the images in pieces, and cut downe the groues and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 Moreover the altar that was at Beth-el, and the hie place made by Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne, both this altar and also the hie place, brake he downe, and burnt the hie place, and stampit it to powder and burnt the groue.

16 And as Josiah turned himselfe, he spied the groues, that were in the mount, and sent and toke the bones out of the groues, and burned them vpon the altar and polluted it, according to the word of the Lord, that the man of God proclaimed, which cryed the same wordes.

17 Then he sayde, What title is that that I see? And the men of the citie sayd vnto him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Iudah, and proclaimed these wordes.

18 Then sayde he, Let him alone: let none remooue his bones. So his bones were saued with the bones of men. {images: Heb. statues}

14 And he brake in pieces the images, and cut downe the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men. {images: Heb. statues}

15 Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake downe, and burned the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burned the grove.

16 And as Josiah turned himselfe, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount; and he sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned them vpon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the Lord, which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things.

17 Then he said, What title is that that I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Bethel.

18 Then he said, Let him alone; let no man move his bones. So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the altar of Bethel.

19 And all the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to anger the Lord, and did the king defile. {the mount...: that is, the mount of Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, which the kings of Israel had made, both that altar and also the hie place that was made by Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to sinne, both this altar and also the hie place, brake he downe, and burnt the hie place, and stampit it to powder and burnt the groue.

rael had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel. 20 And he slew all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burned men's bones upon them; and he returned to Jerusalem. 21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the LORD your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant. 22 Surely there was not kept such a passover from the days of the Judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Judah; 23 but in the eighteenth year of king Josiah was this passover kept to the LORD in Jerusalem. 24 Moreover them that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the teraphim, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the Lord. 25 And like unto him was there no King before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him. 26 Notwithstanding the Lord turned not from the mouth of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah, which had prepared a way for the Lord God; 27 But the Lord was moved to have compassion for his land, and for his house. 28 for the Lord saw that the land was corruptible, because of the wickedness of the inhabitants thereof; 29 and the Lord was moved to have compassion for his house. 30 Moreover Josiah took away all the high places that were in the land of Judah, and burned men's bones upon the altars. 31 And Josiah took away all the priests the priests of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, and burned their bones upon the altars: at that time he smote all the priests of the high places. 32 Nevertheless the people sacrificed still sacrifices of the priests of the high places to their gods in the high places of Judah, even till the day of Hammurabi the Babylonian king.
And like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses: neither after him arose there any like him.

26 Notwithstanding the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations that Manasseh had provoked him withal.

27 And the LORD said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.

28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

29 In his days Pharaoh-nechoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates:

30 Then his servants carried him dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his fathers stead.

31 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32 And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done.

33 And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in bondes at Megiddo, when he had seen him.

28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

29 In his days Pharaoh-nechoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates:

30 Then his servants carried him dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his fathers stead.

31 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32 And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done.

33 And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in bondes at Megiddo, when he had seen him.
2 Kings 23

32 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.
33 And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in bands at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.
34 And Pharaoh-nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah King in stead of Josiah his father, and turned his name to Jehoiakim, and tooke Jehoahaz away, which when he came to Egypt, dyed there.
35 And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the golde to Pharaoh, and taxed the land to giue the money, according to the commadement of Pharaoh: he leuyed of euery man of the people of the lande, according to his value, siluer and golde to giue vnto Pharaoh Nechoh.
36 Jehoiakim was fiue and twentie yere olde, when he began to reigne, and he reigned eleuen yeeres in Jerusalem. His mothers name also was Zebudah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.
37 And he did euill in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his fathers had done.
In his days came Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years:
then he turned and rebelled against him.
2 And the LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the Ammonites, and he sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by his servants the prophets.

3 Surely at the commandment of the Lord came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did;
4 And also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the Lord would not pardon.
5 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
6 So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

7 And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken, from the brook of Egypt unto the river Euphrates, all that pertained to the king of Egypt.
8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned in Jerusalem three months:

9 And his mother’s name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. {Jehoiachin: also called Jeconiah and Coniah}

10 At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. {was...: Heb. came into siege}

11 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came unto Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. {besieged: or, besieging} [his reign: Nebuchadnezzar’s eighth year]

12 Then he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the King’s house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the Lord, as the Lord had said.

13 And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; and the king’s mother, and the king’s wives, and his officers, and the chief men of the land, carried he into the king’s house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which the Lord, as the Lord had said.

14 And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths; none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.

15 And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; and the king’s mother, and the king’s wives, and his officers, and the chief men of the land, carried he into the king’s house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which the Lord, as the Lord had said.
14 And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.

15 And he carried away Jehoiachin into Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land, those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. (officers: or, eunuchs).

16 And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

17 And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah his father's brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

19 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

20 For through the anger of the Lord it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out of his sight. And Zedekiah rebelled against the King of Babylon.
And in the ninth yeere of his reigne, the tenth mon-

King of Babel came, he, and all his hoste against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and they built fortes against it round about it.

King Zedekiah.

2 KINGS 25

GNV
And in the fifth month, which is the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem: {captain... or, chief marshal}

9 And he burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire.

10 And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about.

11 And the residue of the people that were left in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carry away. {fu}

12 But the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the people, that were left in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude, did Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carry away. {fu}

13 Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.

14 The pots also and the besomes, and the instruments of musike, and the incense dishes, and all the vessels of brass where-with they ministered, took they away.

15 And the firepans, and the basons; that which was of gold, in gold; and that which was of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

18 Who hitherto waited in the king’s gate eastward: they were porters in the companies of the children of Levi.

19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, of the house of his father, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and their fathers had been over the host of the LORD, keepers of the gates of the temple of the congregation.

20 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over the gate of the tabernacle, by wards.

21 Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All these which were chosen to be porters in the gates were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer did ordain in their set office.

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and their fathers had been over the camp of the children of Levi unto the Kinges gate eastward:

24 On the four sides were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south.

25 And their brethren, and their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them:

26 for the four chief porters, who were Levites, were in a set office, and were over the chambers and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum was the chief.

18 For they were porters to this time by companies of the children of Levi into the Kings gate eastward.

the Levites, who remaining in the chambers were free: for they were employed in that work day and night.

These chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations; these dwelt at Jerusalem.

And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jehiel, whose wife’s name was Maachah:

36 And his firstborn son Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, 37 And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.

38 And Mikloth begat Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brethren at Jerusalem, over against their brethren.

39 And Ner begat Kish; and Kish begat Saul; and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Eshbaal.

40 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal: and Merib-baal begat Micah.

41 And the sons of Micah were Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, and Ahaz.

42 And Ahaz begat Jarah; and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza:

43 And Moza begat Binea; and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

35 And in Gibeon there dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jeiel, whose wife’s name was Maacah:

36 and his firstborn son Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab;

37 and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.

38 And Mikloth begat Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brethren at Jerusalem, over against their brethren.

39 And Ner begat Kish; and Kish begat Saul; and Saul begat Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab and Eshbaal.

40 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal: and Merib-baal begat Micah.

41 And the sons of Micah were Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, and Ahaz.

42 And Ahaz begat Jarah; and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza:

43 And Moza begat Binea; and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

44 And Azel had six sons, whose names are these; Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan: these were the sons of Azel.
Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines pursued after Saul and after his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua the sons of Saul.

3 And the battle was sore against Saul; and the archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and mocke at me: but his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid.

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell upon the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons; and all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And they stripped him, and took his head, and away, and the Philistims came, and dwelt in them.
8 And on the morrowe when the Philistims came to spoyle them that were slaine, they found Saul and his sonnes lying in mount Gilboa.
9 And when they had stripped him, they tooke his head and his armour, and sent them into the land of the Philistims round about, to publish it vnto their idoles, and to the people.
10 And they layd vp his armour in the house of their god, and set vp his head in the house of Dagon.
11 When all they of Iabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistims had done to Saul,
12 Then they arose (all the valiant men) and tooke the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sonnes, and brought them to Iabesh, and buryed the bones of them vnder an oke in Iabesh, and fasted seuen dayes.
13 So Saul dyed for his transgression, that he committed against the Lord, euen against the word of the Lord, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, 14 And enquired not of the LORD: therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdome vnto Dauid the sonne of Ishai.

5 And the inhabitants of Iebus said to Dauid, Thou shalt not come in hither. Neuertheles Dauid tooke the towre of Zion, which is the city of Dauid.
9 And David waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him. {waxed: Heb. went in going and increasing}

10 These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam, an Hachmonite, the chief of the thirty; he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time. {an Hachmonite: or, son of Hachmoni}

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam, the son of a Hachmonite, the chief among the thirty, who shewed himself strong with him in going and increasing; and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men. {an Hachmonite: or, son of Hachmoni}

13 He was with David at Pas-dammim, and there the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.

14 And they stood in the midst of the plot, and lifted up his spear against three hundred, whom he slew at one time. {as the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.}

15 And three of the thirty chief went down to a rocke to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistims were encamped in the valley of Rephaim. {Pasdammim: also called, Ephesdammim}

16 And when David was in the hold, and the garrison of the Philistims was then in Beth-lehem.
And they set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great deliverance.

15 Now three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines’ garrison was then at Bethlehem.

17 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem, that is at the gate!

18 Then these three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD, therefore he would not drink it: these things did the three mighty men.

19 And said, Let not my God suffer me to do this: shall I drink the blood of these men that have brought it with the jeopardy of their lives?

20 And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three; for he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and slew them, and had a name among the three.

21 Among the three he was more honourable than the two, and he was their captain: but he attained not to the first three.

22 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man) which had done many acts, and was of Kabzeel, he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow.

23 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, whose head was like the head of an horse, and he slew him with a spear. These things did the three mighty men.

24 And David longed, and said, Oh, that one would give me water to drink of the well of Beth-lehem, that is by the gate!

25 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, whose head was like the head of an horse, and he slew him with a spear.

31 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, whose head was like the head of an horse, and he slew him with a spear. These things did the three mighty men.

32 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, whose head was like the head of an horse, and he slew him with a spear.
23 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, even five cubits long, and in the Egyptians hand was a spear like a weavers beam: and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptians hand, and slew him with his own spear.

24 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three worthies.

25 Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, and had a name among the three mighty men.

And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David into the hold to the wilderness of men of might, and men of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as the roes upon the mountains; and as swift: Heb. as swift... as swift: Heb. as swift...

These are they that went over Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the West.

And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David.

And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine adversaries, seeing there is no wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it.

And then the spirit came upon Amasai, who was chief of the thirty, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers; for thy God

And David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren, that are left in all the land of Israel, with whom the priests and Levites are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us:

3 and let us bring again the ark of our God, the LORD that is, to Kiriath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to there was joy in Israel. {meat...: or, victual of meal}

4 And all the assembly said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David assembled all Israel together, from Shihor the brook of Egypt even unto the entrance of Hamath; to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.

6 And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring it out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drave the cart.

7 And they carried the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drave the cart.

8 And David and all Israel played before God with all their might: even with songs, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

9 Moreover they that were nigh them, even unto Israel, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and on oxen, even meate, flourre, figges, and reisins, and wine and oyle, and beeucs and sheepe abundantly: for there was ioy in Israel.

10 And Dauid counselled with the captaines of thousand and of hundrethes, and with all the gouer-
And when they came unto the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled. {Chidon: also called Nachon} {stumbled: or, shook it}

And when they came unto the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled. {Chidon: also called Nachon} {stumbled: or, shook it}

And the oxen stumbled. {Chidon: also called Nachon} {stumbled: or, shook it}

And when they came unto the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled.

And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put forth his hand to the ark: and there he died before God.

And David was displeased, because the LORD had broken forth upon Uzza: and he called that place Perez-uzza, unto this day.

And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

And David removed not the ark unto him into the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months: and the LORD blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.
And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, and masons and carpenters, to build him an house.

2 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, for his kingdom was exalted on high, because of his people Israel.

3 And David took more wives at Jerusalem: and Solomon; Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon;

5 and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpelet;

6 and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia;

7 and Elisama, and Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

8 And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David: and David heard of it, and went out against them.

9 Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim.

10 And David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there; and David said, God hath bro-upon the Arke: so he dyed there before God.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, Howe shall I bring in to me the Arke of God?

13 Therefore David brought not the Arke to him into the citie of Dauid, but caused it to turne into the house of Obed Edom, euen in his house three moneths: and the Lord blessed the house of Obed Edom, and all that he had.

Then sent Hiram the King of Tyrus messengers to David, and cedars trees, with masons and carpenters to build him an house.

14 And the ark of God remained in the house of Obed Edom, euen in his house three moneths. And the Arke of God remained in the house of Obed Edom, but carried it aside into the house of David, and Eliphelet.

14 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perezuzza to this day. {Perezuzza: that is, The breach of Uzza}
4 Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Salomon, And Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet, Nogah, and Nepheg, and Iaphia, Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphalet. Beeliada also called, Eliada.

5 And when the Philistims heard that David was anointed King over all Israel, all the Philistims went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them. So they came up to Baalperazim; and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place Baalperazim; Baalperazim: that is, A place of breaches.

6 And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire. And the Philistims yet again made a raid in the valley. And David inquired again of God; and God said unto him, Thou shalt not go up after them: turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees. And it shall be, when thou hearest the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone out before thee to smite the host of the Philistims; and they smote the host of the Philistims from Gibeon even to Gezer. And David did as God commanded him: and the fame of David went out unto all lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

But when the Philistims heard that David was anointed King over Israel, all the Philistims came vp to seeke David. And when David heard, he went out against them. And the Philistims came, and spred them selues in the valley of Rephaim. Then David asked counsel at God, saying, Shall I goe vp against the Philistims? and wilt thou deliuer them into mine hande? And the Lord saide vnto him, Goe vp: for I will deliuer them into thine hande. So they came vp to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there: and David said, God hath deuided mine enemies with mine hande, as waters are deuided: therefore they called the name of that place, Baal-perazim. And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire. And the Philistims yet again spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

6 Then Dauid saide, None ought to carie the Arke of God, but the Leuites: for the Lord hath chosen them to beare the Arke of the Lord, and to minister vnto him for euer.

7 And the Lord brought the feare of him vpon all na tions.

8 Therefore Dauid enquired again of God; and God said to him, Thou shalt not goe vp after them, but turne away from them, that thou mayest come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

9 And when thou hearest the noyse of one going in the toppes of the mulberie trees, then goe out to bat

20 Then David said, None ought to carie the Arke of God, but the Leuites: for them hath the Lord chosen to carie the Arke of God, and to minister vnto him for euer.
And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites.

5 Of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twenty; {brethren: or, kinsmen}

6 Of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and thirty:

7 Of the sons of Gershom; Joel the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty:

8 Of the sons of Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty:

11 And David called Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab;

12 And he said unto them, Ye are the chief fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye did it not at the first, the LORD our God made a breach among us: for we sought him not according to due order.

14 So the Priestes and the Leuites sanctified them and their brethren the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemira-

Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 and said unto them, Ye are the heads of the fathers’ houses of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye were not there at the first, the Lord our God made a breach among vs: for we sought him not after due order.

14 So the Priests and the Levites sanctified them selues to bring vp the Arke of the Lord God of Israel unto the place that I haue prepared for it.

15 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemira-

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren the singers, with instruments of music, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding aloud and lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 and with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemira-
15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of musick, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushahiah;

18 And with them their brethren in the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Iaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elizeph, and Mikneiah, and Obededom, and Ieiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed, with cymbals of brass to sound aloud;

20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with harps on Almamoth;

21 And Mattithia, and Elizeph, and Mikneiah, and Obededom, and Ieiel, the porters.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was over the song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Josaphat, and Nethanel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obededom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark.

25 So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obededom with joy:

26 And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites to bring up the ark of God, that they rose with joy: and the priests lifted up the ark.

27 Then David, and all Israel, went up, to bring up the ark of God with gladness.

28 And they brought up the ark of God, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle which David had pitched for it: and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the ark of God.

29 And David and all Israel brought up the ark of God with singing, and with the trumpets.

30 And as they came to Mount Zion, David made proclamation, and assembled the people, and the saints of Israel, a great congregation.

31 And they brought up the ark of God, and set it in the place that David had appointed for it: and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the ark of God.

32 And David and all the house of Israel were in great joy bringing up the ark of the LORD with singing, and with the trumpets.

33 And the singers went up and sang with one voice.

34 Now the days of David ended, when he had made an end of all his wars.

35 And David said unto all Israel, I have in my heart to build an house unto the name of the LORD God of Israel.

36 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

37 My son David, there are two things which I have this day commanded thee:}
ites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they sacrificed seven bullocks and seven rams.
27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen.
28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with psalteries and harps.
29 And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at the window, and saw king David dancing and playing; and she despised him in her heart.
29 And when the Ark of the covenant of the Lord came into the city of David, Micha the daughter of Saul looked out at a window and saw King David dancing and playing; and she despised him in her heart.

So they brought the Ark of God, and set it in the midst of the Tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of the Lord.

3 And he dealt to every one of Israel both man and woman, to every one a cake of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

3 And he dealt to every one of Israel both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a portion of flesh, and a cake of raisins.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people before God.

4 And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the Ark of the Lord, to record, and to thank and praise the Lord God of Israel:

4 And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the Ark of the Lord, and to celebrate and to thank and praise the Lord God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and

5 Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliaib, and Benaiah, and Obad-edom, and Jeiel, with psalteries and with harps; and Asaph with cymbals, sounding aloud;

6 and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually, before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 Then on that day did David first ordain to give thanks unto the Lord, by the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

8 O give thanks unto the Lord, call upon his name; make known his doings among the peoples.

9 Sing unto him, sing praises unto him; talk ye of all his wondrous works.

And they brought in the Ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of the Lord.

3 And he dealt to every one of Israel both man and woman, to every one a cake of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a bottle of wine.

4 And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the Ark of the Lord, and to rehearse and to thank and praise the Lord God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and

And they brought up the Ark of the covenant, and made music with psalteries and harps, and with cymbals, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

9 Sing unto him, sing praises unto him; talk ye of all his wondrous works.

8 O give thanks unto the Lord, call upon his name; make known his doings among the peoples.

20 And they went about from nation to nation, and very few, and sojourners in it;
19 When ye were but a few men in number; yea, the lot of your inheritance:
18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, to Israel for an everlasting covenant:
16 Even of the covenant which he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;
15 Remember his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations;
14 He is the LORD our God: his judgments are in all the earth.
13 O ye seed of Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.
12 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;
11 Seek ye the LORD and his strength; seek his face continually.
10 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them that seek the LORD rejoice that seek the LORD.
9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk ye of all his wonderful works.
8 Give thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, declare his works among the people.
7 Then on that day David delivered first this psalm beginning to give thanks to the Lord by the hand of Asaph and his brethren.
6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets and cymbals; {with psalteries...: Heb. with instruments, violes and harps}
5 Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed Edom, euen Ieiel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.
4 Then that time Daud did appoint at the beginning to give thanks to the Lord by the hand of Asaph and his brethren.
3 Praise the Lord and call upon his Name: declare his works among the people.
2 Sing unto him, sing praise vnto him, and talk of all his wonderful works.

29 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

30 Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved.

31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth.

32 Let the sea roar, and all that therein is: Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein.

33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because he cometh to judge the earth.

34 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

35 And say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us together and deliver us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praise.

36 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD.

37 So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required:

38 And Obededom with their brethren, threescore and eight; Obededom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be doorkeepers:

39 and Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at Gibeon,

40 to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of burnt offering continually morning and evening, even according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded unto Israel;

41 and with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever;
39 And Zadok the Priest and his brethren the Priests were before the Tabernacle of ye Lord, in the hie place that was at Gibeon, 40 To offer burnt offirings unto the Lord, vpon the burnt offering altar continually, in the morning and in the evening, euen according vnto all that is written in the law of the Lord, which hee commanded Israel. 41 And with them were Heman, and Ieduthun, and the rest that were chosen (which were appointed by names) to praise the Lord, because his mercie endureth for euer. 42 Euen with them were Heman and Ioduthun, to make a sound with the cornets and with the cymbals, with excellent instruments of musicke: and the sonnes of Ieduthun were porters. {porters: Heb. for the gate} 43 And all the people departed euerie man to his house: and Dauid returned to blesse his house.

Nowe afterward when Dauid dwelt in his house, he saide to Nathan the Prophet, Beholde, I dwell in an house of cedar trees, but the Arke of the Lordes covenant remaineth vnder curtaines. And it came to pass, when David dwelt in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the Lord remaineth under curtains.}

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee.
3 And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,
4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the Lord, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in: 5 for I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel, unto this day; but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another. 6 In all places wherein I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedar?

3 And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in: for I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought out the children of Israel unto this day, but I have bene from tent to tent, and from tabernacle to another. {have gone: Heb. have been}

5 For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I commanded judges to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built mee an house of cedar trees?

6 Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I one word to any of the judges of Israel (whome I commanded to feede my people) saying, Why have ye not built mee an house to dwell in:

7 Nowe therefore thus shalt thou say vnto my seruant Dauid, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I tooke thee from the sheepcote, even from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be a prince ouer my people Israel: {from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be prince over my people Israel:}

8 And I haue bene with thee whithersoeuer thou hast walked, and haue destroyed all thine enemies out of thy sight, and haue made thee a name, like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 (Also I will appoynt a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning,

10 and from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel; and I will subdue all thine enemies. Moreover I tell thee that the LORD will build thee an house.

11 And it shall come to pass, when thy days be fulfilled that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will establish his throne for ever.

13 I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee:

14 but I will settle him in mine house and in my heart: for God is with thee.
10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee that the LORD will build thee an house.

11 And if thy days shalbe fulfilled to go with thy fathers, then will I raise vp thy seede after thee, which shalbe of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will stablish his throne for euer.

13 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God, what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

14 But I will settle him in mine house, and in my kingdom for ever, and his throne shall be established for euer, and his sonne shall sit on his throne for a great while to come, and shall regard me according to all these great things.

15 According to all these wordes, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speake to Dauid.

16 And Dauid the king came in and sate before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 Yet thou esteeming this a small thing, O God, what is my house, that thou hast brought me thus far?

18 What can Dauid desire more of thee for the estate of a man of high degree, O Lord God.

19 O Lord, for thy sevants sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou wrought all this greatness, to make known all these great things.

20 O Lord, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeeme unto himself for a people, to make thee a name by great and terrible things, in driving out nations from before thy people, which thou redeemedst out of Egypt?
house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O LORD, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things. {greatnesses}

20 Lord, there is none like thee, neither is any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 Moreover what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whose God went to redeem them to be his people, and to make himself a Name, and to do great and terrible things by casting out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast delivered out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Israel didst thou make thine own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, O LORD, let the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be established for ever, and do as thou hast said, 24 And let thy name be established and magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, hast revealed unto the ear of thy servant, that thou wilt build him an house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray before thee.

26 And now, O LORD, thou art God, and hast promised this good thing unto thy servant:

27 and now it hath pleased thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O LORD, hast blessed, and it is blessed for ever.
And after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab, and the Moabites became servants to David, and brought gifts.

3 And David smote Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates. {Hadarezer: or, Hadadezer}

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots. {seven...: or, seven hundred}

5 Then came the Aramites of Damascus to succour Hadarezer king of Zobah, when he went to establish his border by the river Euphrates.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought presents. And the LORD gave victory to David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And from Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadarezer, David took very much brass, wherewith Solomon made the brasen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 Therefore thy servant hath been bold to pray before thee.

26 Therefore nowe Lord (for thou art God, and hast spoken this goodnesse vnto thy servant)
1 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help
2 Hadad, son of Ahab, king of Damascus; and there were twenty thousand men. {Damascus: Heb. Damascus}
3 and the Syrians became servants to David. And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.
4 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.
5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadad, but David slew of the Aramites two and twenty thousand.
6 And David put a garison in Aram of Damascus, and the Aramites became David's servants, and brought gifts: and the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.
7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

were chief about the king.
Now it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun to comfort him.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? Are not his servants come to thee for to search, and to spie out the land? {Thinkest...: Heb. In thy eyes doth David, etc}

4 Wherefore Hanun took David’s servants, and shewed them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesoba, and Naharaim and out of Aram Maachah, and out of Aram Naharaim and out of Aram Maachah, and out of

2 And Daud said, I will shew kinndesse vnto Ha-nun the sonne of Nahash, because his father shewed kinndesse to me. And Daud sent messengers to confort hym for his father. So the seruants of Daud came into the lande of the children of Ammon to Hanun to confort hym.

4 Wherefore Hanun tooke Daudis seruants, and shaued them, and cut off their garments by the halfe, and sent them away.

5 And there went certaine and tolde Daud concerning the men: and he sent to meete them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the King saide, Tarry at Iericho, vntill your beardes be growen: then returne.

6 When the children of Ammon saw that they stanke in the sight of Daud, then sent Hanun and the children of Ammon a thousande talents of siluer to hire them charets and horsemen out of Aram.
hired them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syriamaacah, and out of Zobah. {odious: Heb. to stink}

So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the hoste of the valiant men.

Then the children of Ammon came out, and set their battell in array at the gate of the citie. And the Kings that were come, were by them selues in the field.

When Joab saw that the front of the battel was set against him before and behinde, then he chose out of all the choyse of Israel, and set him selfe in array to meete the Aramites.

And he said, If Aram be too strong for me, then I will help thee. But if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

Be strong, and let vs shewe our selues valiant for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the Lord doe that which is good in his owne sight.
valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God:

and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river: and Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them. {river: that is, Euphrates} {Shophach:

also called, Shobach}

17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they took him with.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David

19 And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they

16 And when the Syrians saw that they were discomfited before Israel, they sent messengers and called the Aramites to come forth that were beyond

17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and went over Jordan, and came vnto them, and put him selfe in battel aray against them: And when Daud had put him selfe in battel aray to meete the Aramites, they fought with him.

18 But the Aramites fled before Israel, and Daud destroyed of the Aramites seuen thousand charrets, and fourtie thousand footemen, and killed Shophach the captaine of the hoste.

19 And when the seruants of Hadarezer sawe that they fell before Israel, they made peace with Dauid, and serued him. And the Aramites would no more succour the children of Ammon.

And when the yere was expired, in the time that Kings goe out a warfare, Ioab carried out the strength of the armie, and destroyed the countrey of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah (but Daud taryd at Jerusalem) and Ioab smote Rabbah and destroyed it.

2 Then Daud tooke the crowne of their King from off his head, and founde it the weight of a talent of golde, with precious stones in it: and it was set on Dauids head, and he brought away the spoyle of the citie exceeding much.

3 And he caried away the people that were in it, and cut them with sawes, and with harowes of yron, and with axes: euen thus did Daud with all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then Daud and all the people came againe to Jerusalem.

4 And after this also there arose warre at Gezer with the Philistims: then Sibbechai the Hushathite slewe Sippai, of the children of Haraphah, and they were subdued.

5 And there was yet another battell with the Philistims: and Elhanan the sonne of Iair slewe Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staffe of whose spearestaffe was like a weavers’ beam.

6 And there was againe war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were

And it came to pass, at the time of the return of the year, at the time that kings go out to battle, that Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And Joab smote Rabbah, and overthrew it.

2 And Daud took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon Dauids head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil from the city, exceeding much.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with sawes, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines: at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Sippai, that was of the children of Haraphah, and they were subdued.

5 And there was again war with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver’s beam.

7 And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of David’s brother slew him. {defied: or, reproached} {Shimea: also called Shammah}

8 These were born unto Haraphah at Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

9 And yet again there was war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were sixes, euen foure and twenty, and was also the sonne of Haraphah.

10 These were borne vnto Haraphah at Gath, and fell by the hand of Dauid, and by the hands of his servaunts.

And Satan stood vp against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

2 And therefore David said to Joab and to the princes of the people, Go, number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan; and bring me word, that I may know the sum of them.

3 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be; but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord’s servants? why doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of guilt unto Israel?

4 Nevertheless the king’s word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 And Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred three-and returned to Jerusalem.

5 And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king’s word was abominable to Joab.

7 And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel. {And...: Heb. And it was evil in the eyes of the LORD concerning this thing}

8 Then David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant: for I have done very foolishly.

9 And the LORD spake unto Gad, David’s seer, saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the Lord,
I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee. {offer: Heb. stretch

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king’s word was abominable to Joab.

7 And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing: but now, put away, I

9 And the Lord spake unto Gad Davuids Seer, say-

10 Goe and tell Dauid, saying, Thus saith the Lord,
I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it vnto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, and sayde vnto hym, Thus saith the Lord, Take to thee be consumed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtook thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore consider what answer

I shall return to him that sent me.

12 Either three yeeres famine, or three moneths to be destroyed before thine aduersaries, and the sword of thine enemies to take thee, or els the sword of the Lord and pestilence in the lande three days, that the Angel of the Lord may destroy throughout all the coastes of Israel: nowe therefore advise thee, what word I shall bring againe to him that sent me.

13 And David said vnto Gad, I am in a wonderfull strait: let me fall nowe into the hande of the LORD; for very great are his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of the man, {very great: or, very many}

14 So the Lord sent pestilence in Israel, and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent a pestilence against Jerusalem. Then David and the Elders of Israel, which were clothed in sacke, fell upon their faces.

16 And David lifted vp his eyes, and saw the Angel of the Lord stande betweene the earth and the heaven, {hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

17 And David said vnto God, I am in a great strait: let me nowe fall into the hande of the Lord: for very mercies are exceeding great, and let me not fall into the hand of man.

18 Then the angel of the Lord commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Iebusite.

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which saith the LORD, Choose thee {Choose...: Heb. hand of man.

20 And David went into the threshing-floor of Ornan the Iebusite. {Ornan: also called, Araunah}

21 And David lifted vp his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand betweene the earth and the heauen with his sworde drawen in his hand, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the Angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay nowe thine hand.

22 Then the Angel of the Lord stood by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite. {Ornan: also called, Araunah}

23 And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite. {Ornan: also called, Araunah}

24 And the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

25 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which saith the LORD, Choose thee {Choose...: Heb. hand of man.

26 And God sent the Angel into Jerusalem to destroy it. And as he was destroying, the Lord behelde, and repented of the euill and sayde to the Angel that destroyed, It is nowe yong, let thine hande cease.

27 Then the Angel of the Lord stoode by the thresshing floore of Ornan the Iebusite.

28 And David lifted vp his eyes, and saw the An

17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD, my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

18 Then the Angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 So David went vp according to the saying of Gad, which he had spoken in the Name of the LORD.

20 And Ornan turned back, and saw the Angel, and his four sons, that were with him, hid themselves, and Ornan threshed wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, Grant me the place of this threshingfloor, that I may build an altar thereon to the LORD: for the full price shalt thou give it me: that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which seemeth him good: loe, I give thee the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal offering: I give it all.

24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer a burnt offering without cost.

25 So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering.

18 Then the Angel of the Lord commanded Gad to say to Daud, that Daud should goe vp, and set vp an altar vnto the Lord in the threshing floore of Ornan the Iebusite.

19 So Daud went vp according to the saying of Gad, which he had spoken in the Name of the Lord. Kk

20 And Ornan turned about, and sawe the Angel, and his foure sonnes, that were with him, hid them selves, and Ornan threshed wheat.

21 And as Daud came to Ornan, Ornan looked and sawe Daud, and went out of the threshing floore, and bowed himselfe to Daud with his face to the grounde.

22 And Daud saide to Ornan, Give me the place of thy threshing floore, that I may builde an altar therein vnto the Lord: giue it me for sufficient mon ey, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 Then Ornan saide vnto Daud, Take it to thee, and let my lord the King do that which seemeth him good: loe, I giue thee bullockes for burnt offrings, and threshing instruments for wood, and wheat for the meal offering, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

24 And king Daud said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer a burnt offering without cost.

25 So Daud gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And Daud built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering.
23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes:
24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost.
25 So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.
26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering.
27 And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.
28 At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.
29 For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon.
30 But David could not go before it to enquire of God: for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.
Then David said, This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel.

2 And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the couplings; and brass in abundance without weight;

4 And cedar trees without number: for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

5 And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD must be exceeding magnificall, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore nowe prepare for it. So David prepared very much before his death.

6 Then he called Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my heart to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God:

8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made wars; and thou hast bought persons and sold persons, that thou mightest strengthen thy house. And his name shall be in the house of the LORD for evermore.
Thou hast shed much blood, and hast made great battles: thou shalt not build an house unto my Name: for thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 Behold, a sonne is borne to thee, which shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: therefore his name is Solomon: and I will send peace and quietnes vpon Israel in his dayes.

10 Hee shall build an house for my name, and he shall be my sonne, and I will be his father; and I will establishe the throne of his kingdome vpon Israel for ever.

11 Nowe therefore my sonne, the Lord shalbe with thee; and I will establish the throne of his kingdome vpon Israel for ever. {Solomon: that is, Peaceable} dance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto. {trouble: or, poverty}

15 Moreover there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all men that are cunning in any manner of work; of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number; arise and be doing, and the Lord will be with thee.

17 David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, Is not the Lord your God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the Lord, and before his people.

19 Now set your heart and your soul to seek after the Lord your God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the Lord God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the Lord.

So when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, and thou mayest add thereto.

15 Moreover there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all men that are cunning in any manner of work, for there was abundance: I have also prepared timber and stone, and thou mayest provide more thereto.

17 David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, Is not the Lord your God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath delivered the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the Lord and before his people.

19 Now set your heart and your soul to seek after the Lord your God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the Lord God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and the holy vessels of God, into the house built for the Name of the Lord.

Now David was old and full of days; and he made Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

24 These were the sons of Levi after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, that did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of twenty years and upward.

25 For David said, The LORD God of Israel hath given rest unto his people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever:

26 And also the Levites shall no more bear the Tabernacle and all the vessels for the service thereof.

27 Therefore according to the last words of David, the Levites were numbered from twenty years and above,

28 And their office was under the hand of the sons of Aaron, for the service of the house of the Lord in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and in the work of the service of the house of God;

The courses of the sons of Aaron were these.

The sons of Aaron were Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

1. Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.

2. David distributed them, even Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

3. And David with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their ordering in their service.

4. And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided: of the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen, heads of father's houses; and of the sons of Ithamar, according to their fathers' houses, eight.

5. Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for there were princes of the sanctuary, and princes of God, both of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

6. And Shemaiah the son of Nethanel the scribe, who was of the Levites, wrote them in the presence of the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.
4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers.

10 the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah;

9 the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin;

8 the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim;

7 Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

6 And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the Priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one principal household being reserved for Eleazar, and another reserved for Ithamar.

5 Thus they distributed them by lot the one from the other, and so the rulers of the Sanctuarie and the rulers of the house of God were of the sons of Eleazar and of the sons of Ithamar.

4 And there were found more of the sons of Eleazar by the number of men, then of the sons of Ithamar. and they divided them, to wit, among the sons of Eleazar, sixteen heads, according to the housohulde of their fathers, and among ye sonsne of Ithamar, according to the housolede of their fathers, eight.

5 Thus they distributed them by lot the one from the other, and so the rulers of the Sanctuarie and the rulers of the house of God were of the sons of Eleazar and of the sons of Ithamar.

30 13 The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin, the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah, the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, the one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul; the three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah.

19 This was the ordering of them in their service, to come into the house of the LORD according to the ordinance given unto them by the hand of Aaron their father, as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded him.

And Ahithophel was the king’s counsellor: and Hushai the Archite was the king’s friend:

And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar: and the captain of the king’s host was Joab.

34 And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar: and the general of the king's army was Joab.
And David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his sons, with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king stood upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me, it was in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God; and I had made ready for the building.

3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood.

4 Yet as the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father, to be King over Israel for ever (for in Judah would he choose a prince, and of the house of Judah is the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he liked me to make me King over all Israel: for he hath chosen Judah to be prince; and of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Solomon to be prince over me.

3 But God sayde vnto me, Thou shalt not buylde an house for my Name, because thou hast bene a man of warre, and hast shed blood.

Israel.

6 And he said unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 And I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

8 Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of the Lord, and in the audience of our God, observe and seek out all the commandments of the Lord, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the Lord, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the Lord your God, that ye may possess this good lande, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for euer.

9 And thou, Salomon my sonne, know thou the God of thy father, and serue him with a perfit heart, and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee, but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for euer.

9 And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for euer.

10 Take heed now, for the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

10 Take heede now, for the Lord hath chosen thee to buyld the house of the Sanctuarie: be strong therefore, and doe it.

11 Then David gaue to Salomon his sonne the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the Palace of all that he had in his minde.

11 Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner chambers thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof.

And for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot, even the cherubim, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 All this, said David, have I been made to understand in writing from the hand of the LORD, even all the works of this pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of a valiant courage and doe it: fear not, nor be afraid: for the Lord God, even my God, will be with thee: he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord.

21 Behold also, the courses of the priests and the Levites, for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with thee for all manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

Furthermore David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the Lord God.
2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God : gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood : onyx stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, I give it unto the house of my 5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the five thousand talents and ten thousand drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom precious stones were found, gave them to the treasure of ye house of the Lord, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.
9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly: for they offered willingly vnto ye Lord, with a perfect heart. And David the King also rejoiced with great joy.
10 Therefore David blessed the Lord before all the Congregation, and David sayde, Blessed be thou, O Lord God, of Israel our father, for euer and euer.
11 Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in heauen and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdome, O Lord, and thou excellest as head ouer all.
12 Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest ouer all, and in thine hand is power and strength, and in thine hande it is to make great, and to giue strength vnto all.
13 Now therefore, our God, we thanke thee, and giue strength vnto all.
14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort?
15 For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding. (abiding: Heb. expectation)

16 O Lord our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy Name, is of thine hand and all is thine. (in thine...: Heb. of thine hand)

17 I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in righteousness: I have offered willingly in the uprightness of mine heart all these things: now also have I seen with joy thy people, which are present here, to offer willingly unto thee. (present: Heb. found)

18 O Lord God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their hearts unto thee:

19 And give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for the which I have made provision.

20 And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the Lord your God. And all the congregation blessed the Lord, the God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the Lord and the King.

21 And they offered sacrifices unto the Lord, and on the morrow after that day, they offered burnt offerings and sacrifices, and the gladness of Israel was found there.
and the king.

21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel;

22 And did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him unto the LORD to be prince, and Zadok to be priest.

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, submitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

And Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

And Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

And Solomon said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

And Solomon went up thither to the brasen altar that was in the Tabernacle of the Lord: and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it.

But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

Moreover the brasen altar, that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, was there before the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the Lord had made in the wilderness.

But the Arke of God had Dauid brought vp from Kiriath-iearim, when Dauid had made preparation for it: for he had pitched a tent for it in Ierusalem.

Moreouer the brasen altar that Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur had made, he put before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it. {he put: or, was there}

The ark of God had David brought vp from Kirjath-jearim, to the place that David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

Kirjath-jearim was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the Lord had made in the wilderness.

The tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation of Israel went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the Tabernacle of the Congregation of God which Moses the servant of the Lord had made in the wilderness.

But the Arke of God had Dauid brought vp from Kiriath-iearim, when Dauid had made preparation for it: for he had pitched a tent for it in Ierusalem.

And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed me the greatness of thy kingdom, and the understanding of my heart, and hast made me king in his stead.

Then Salomon the sonne of Daud was confirmed in his kingdome: and the Lord his God was with him, and magnified him highly.

And Solomon spake vnto all Israel, to the captains of thousandes, and of hundreths, and to the judges, and to every prince in all Israel, the heads of the fathers’ houses.

Then Solomon the sonne of Dauid was confirmed in his kingdome: and the Lord his God was with him, and magnified him highly.

15 And the king made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycamore trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king’s merchants received the linen yarn at a price. {Solomon:... Heb. going forth of the horses which was Solomon’s}

17 And they fetched up, and brought out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they some chariot, worth six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they some chariot, worth six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they horses to all the Kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring horses out of Egypt, by their means. {means: Heb. hand}

Then Salomon determined to build an house for the Name of the Lord, and an house for his kingdom.

2 And Salomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand men to hew stones in the mountaine, and three thousand and six hundred men to oversee them.

3 And Salomon sent to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me. {Huram: or, Hiram}

4 Behold, I build an house to the name of the Lord, and an house for his kingdom. Then Solomon determined to build an house for the Name of the Lord, and an house for his kingdom.

14 And Solomon determined to build an house for the Name of the Lord, and an house for his kingdom.

2 And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand men to hew stones in the mountaine, and three thousand and six hundred men to oversee them.

3 And Salomon sent to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou hast done to David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, I build an house to the name of the Lord, my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him incense of sweet spices, and for the continual shewbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts of the Lord our God. This is dance.

16 And the horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt; the king’s merchants received them in droves, each drove at a price.

17 And they fetched up, and brought out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they horses to all the Kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.

Now Solomon purposed to build an house for the name of the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

2 And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand men to hew stones in the mountaine, and three thousand and six hundred men to oversee them.

3 And Salomon sent to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou hast done to David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, I build an house for the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him incense of sweet spices, and for the continual shewbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts of the Lord our God. This is.
Lord my God, to sanctify it unto him, and to burn sweet incense before him, and for the continual shewbread, and for the burnt offerings of the morning and evening, on the Sabbath days, and in the new months, and in the solemn feasts of the Lord our God: this is a perpetuall thing for Israel.

5 And the house which I builde, is great: for great is our God above all gods.

6 Who is he then that can be able to builde him an house, when the heauen, and the heauen of heauens cannot contain him? who am I then that I should builde him an house? but I do it to burn incense before him.

7 Sende me now therefore a cunning man that can work in gold, in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill to grave all manner of gravings, to be with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide.

8 Send me also cedar trees, firre trees and Algummim trees from Lebanon: for I knowe that thy servants can skill to hewe timber in Lebanon: and, behold, my servants shall be with thy servants, {algum: also called, almuggim}

9 That they may prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I doe buylde, is great and wonnderfull.

10 And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 Then Huram the king of Tyre answered in writ-
10 And behold, I will give to thy servants the cutters and the hewers of timber twenty thousand measures of beaten wheate, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oyle.

11 Then Huram King of Tyrus answered in writing which he sent to Solomon, Because the Lord hath loved his people, he hath made thee King over them.

12 Huram said moreover, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which made the heaven and the earth, and that hath given vnto Daud the King a wise sonne, that hath discretion, prudence and understanding to buylde an house for the Lord, and a palace for his kingdome.

13 Now therefore I haue sent a wise man, and of understanding of my father Hurams, 14 The sonne of a woman of the daughters of Dan: and his father was a man of Tyre, and he can skill to worke in golde, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson, also to grave any manner of graving, and to devise any device: that there may be a place appointed unto him with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord Daud thy father.

15 Now therefore the wheate and the barley, the oyle and the wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

16 and we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou shalt need: and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to Joppa; and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

2 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 And these are the measures, whereon Solomon was instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was three-score cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits. [instructed: Heb. founded]

4 And the porch that was in the front of the house, the length thereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And in the most holy house he made two cherubims wrought like children, and overlaid them with gold. [garved: Heb. covered] the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, overlaid he with gold; and graved cherubim on the walls.

6 And he garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim. [garved: Heb. covered] and chains.

7 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold. [garved: Heb. covered] and thereon palm trees and chaines.

8 And he overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubims on the walls.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the chambers with gold. [garved: Heb. covered] for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

10 And in the house of the most holy place he made two cherubims wrought like children, and overlaid them with gold. [garved: Heb. covered] and thereon palm trees.

11 And the wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long: the wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12 And the wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubim spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and and the second day, in the fourth yeere of his reign.
And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold. And in the most holy house he made two cherubims of image work, and overlaid them with gold.

And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were inward.

And he made the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought cherubims thereon.

Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty and five cubits high, and the chapiter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

And he made chains in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and he made an hundred pomegranates, and put them among the chains.

And he set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hande and the other on the left, and called that on the right hand Iachin, and that on the left Boaz.
Moreover he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof.

2 Also he made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

3 And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.

4 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

5 And the thickness of it was an handbreadth, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it received and held three thousand baths. {with flowers...: or, like a lilyflower}

6 He made also ten caldrons, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as belonged to the burnt offering they washed in them: but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

7 And he made the ten candlesticks of gold according to the ordinance concerning them; and he set

And he made an altar of brasse twenty cubites long, and twenty cubites broade, and ten cubites hie. And he made a molten Sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, rounde in compass, and fiue cubites hie: and a line of thirtie cubites did compass it round about.

3 And vnder it was ye facion of oxen, which did compass it rounde about, tenne in a cubite compassing the Sea about: two rowes of oxen were cast when it was molten.

4 It stooede vpon twelve oxen: three looked toward the North, and three looked toward the West, and three looked toward the South, and three looked toward the East, and the Sea stoode about vpon them, and all their hinder parts were inwarde.

5 And the thickenesse thereof was an hande breadth, and the brim thereof was like the worke of the brim of a cuppe with floures of lilies: it conteined three thousand baths.

6 He made also ten caldrons, and put fiue on the right hand, and fiue on the left, to wash in them; such things as belonged to the burnt offering they washed in them: but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

7 And he made the ten candlesticks of gold according to the ordinance concerning them; and he set
6 He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as they offered for the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

7 And he made ten candlesticks of gold according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left. And he made an hundred basins of gold. {basons: or, bowls} {finished: Heb. finished to make}

8 He made ten tables, and put them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left. And he made the doors of them with brass.

9 Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors thereof with brass.

10 And he set the Sea on the right side Eastward toward the South.

11 And Huram made pottes and besoms and basens, and Huram finished the worke that he should make for King Salomon for the house of God, 12 To wit, two pillars, and the bowls and the two chapioters which were on the top of the pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the pillars.

13 And four hundred pomegranates on the two chapioters which were on the top of ye two pillars, and two grates to cover the two bowles of the chapioters which were upon the toppe of the pillars:

14 He made also the bases, and the layers made he upon the bases;

15 one sea, and the twelve oxen under it.

16 The pots also, and the shovels, and the flesh-them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.
14 He made also bases, and made caldrons upon the bases:
15 And a Sea, and twelve bulles vnder it:
16 Pottes also and besomes, and fleshhookes, and all these vessels made Huram his father, to King Salomon for the house of the Lord, of shining brasse.
17 In the playne of Iorden did the King cast them in clay betwene Succoth and Zeredah.
18 And Salomon made al these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of brasse could not be reckoned.
19 And Salomon made al the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables, whereon the shewbread stoode.
20 Moreover the candlestickes, with their lampes to burne them after the manner, before the oracle, of pure golde.
21 And the floures and the lampes, and the snuffers of gold, which was fine golde.
22 And the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoones, and the ashpans of pure golde: the entrie also of the house and doores thereof within, euen of the most holy place: and the doores of the house, to wit, of the Temple were of golde.
Thus all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated: and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put them into the treasuries of the house of God.

2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, and the chief fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord from the city of David, which is Zion.

3 And all ye men of Israel assembled vnto the King at the feast: it was in ye seuenth moneth.

4 And all the Elders of Israel came, and the Levites took vp the Arke.

5 And they caried vp the Arke and the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle, these did the Priests and the Levites bring up.

6 And king Solomon and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled vnto him, were before ye ark of the covenant of the LORD unto its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the LORD unto its place, into the oracle of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold. And Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels, put them ha the treasuries of the house of God.

7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lord unto its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the LORD unto its place, into the oracle of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold. And Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels, put them ha the treasuries of the house of God.

So was all the worke finished that Salomon made for the house of the Lord, and Salomon brought in the things that Dauid his father had dedicated, with the silver and the golde, and all the vessells, and put them among the treasuries of the house of God.

2 Then Salomon assembled the Elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chiefe fathers of the children of Israel vnto Ierusalem to bring vp the Arke of the covenant of the Lord from the citie of Dauid, which is Zion.

3 And all ye men of Israel assembled vnto the King at the feast: it was in ye seuenth moneth.

4 And all the Elders of Israel came, and the Levites took vp the Arke.

5 And they caried vp the Arke and the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle, those did the Priests and Levites bring vp.

6 And king Salomon and all the Congregation of Israel that were assembled vnto him, were before ye Ark of the Covenant of the Lord, and Salomon brought in the things that Dauid his father had dedicated, with the silver and the gold, and all the vessels, put them among the treasuries of the house of God.
Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims:

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without: And there it is, unto this day.

10 Nothing was in the ark save the two tables, which Moses gave at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

sons and their brethren, being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the Arke, offering sheepe and bullocks, which could not be told nor nobred for multitude.

7 So the Priests brought the Arke of the covenant of the Lord vnto his place, into the Oracle of the house, down under the wings of the Cherubims.

8 For ye Cherubims stretched out their wings over the place of the Arke, and the Cherubims covered the Arke and the barres thereof aboue.

9 And they drew out the barres, that the barres might bee seene out of the Arke before the Oracle, but they were not seene without: and

Then Salomon sayd, The Lord hath sayde that he would dwell in the darke cloude:
2 And I haue built thee an house to dwell in, an habitation for thee to dwell in for euer.
3 And the King turned his face, and blessed all the Congregation of Israel (for all the Congregation of Israel stood there)

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no citie of al the tribes of Israel

7 And they were as one, blowing trumpets, and singing, and made one sounde to bee heard in pray sing and thanking the Lord, Singing, and making one sound to be heard of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel:

6 But I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel.

7 And it was in the heart of David my father to build an house unto the Name of the Lord God of Israel,

8 But the Lord said to David my father, For as I have risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel as the Lord promised, and have built an house to the Name of the Lord God of Israel,

9 Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my Name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart:

10 And the Lord hath spoken: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord spake; for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have built the house for the name of the Lord God of Israel.

11 And in it have I put the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, that he made with the children of Israel.

12 And he stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands,

13 (for Solomon had made a brasen scaffold, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven:)

14 And in it have I put the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord, that he made with the children of Israel.

15 And he stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands:

16 And he spake: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel as the Lord promised, and have built an house unto the Name of the Lord God of Israel,

17 And he stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands:

18 And he spake: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel as the Lord promised, and have built an house unto the Name of the Lord God of Israel,

19 And he stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands:
13 (For Salomon had made a brasen skaffold and set it in the middles of the court, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits of height, and vpon it he stood, and kneeled downe vpon his knees before all the Congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands toward heauen)

14 And said, O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in the heaven, or in the earth, who keepest covenant and mercy unto thy servants, that walk before thee with all their heart.

15 Thou that hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit vpon the throne of Israel; so that thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken vnto thy seruant David.

16 Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, Thou shalt not want a man in my sight, that shall sit vpon the throne of Israel; yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me.

17 Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou spakest vnto thy seruant David my father, that thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

18 But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have buylt!

14 and he said, O LORD, the God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in the heaven, or in the earth; who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants, that walk before thee with all their heart:

15 who hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou didst promise him: yea, thou spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

16 Therefore now Lord God of Israel, keepe with thy seruant David my father, that thou hast promisèd him, saying, Thou shalt not want a man in my sight, that shall sit vpon the throne of Israel: so that thy sonnes take heede to their wayes, to walke in my Lawe, as thou hast walked before me.

17 And now, O Lord God of Israel, let thy worde be verified, which thou hast spoken vnto thy seruant David.

18 (Is it true in deede that God will dwell with man on earth? behold, the heauens, and the heauens of heauens are not able to conteine thee: how much more vnable is this house, which I haue buylt?)

26 When heauen shall be shut vp, and there shalbe no rayne, because they have sinned against thee, and shall pray in this place, and confesse thy Name, and turne from their sinne, when thou doest afflict them,

27 Then hear thou in heaven, and pardon the sinne of thy servants, and of thy people Israel (when thou hast taught them the good way wherein they may walke) and giue rayne vpon thy lande, which thou hast giuen vnto thy people for an inheritance.

28 When there shalbe famine in the land, when there shalbe pestilence, blasting, or mildew, when there shalbe grashopper, or caterpiller, when their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatsoever plague or whatsoever sicknesse there be; {in the cities...: Heb. in the land of their gates}

29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when they shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee in this house: {be put...: or, be smitten} {in: or, toward}

30 then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, which thou hast giuen vnto thy people for an inheritance.

31 that they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, so long as they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

32 Moreover concerning the stranger, that is not of thy people Israel, when he shall come from a far country for thy great name’s sake, and thy mighty from their sin, when thou dost afflict them:

27 then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

28 If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillers; if their enemies besiege them in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore or whatsoever sickness there be; {in the cities...: Heb. in the land of their gates}

29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when they shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before this house, and be merciful, and giue euery man according vnto their sorowes and their sickenes.

30 Heare thou then in heauen, thy dwelling place, and be mercifull vnto euery one that shall pray in this place, and confess thy Name, and turne from their sinne, when thou dost afflict them; (for thou, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray)

31 that they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, so long as they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

32 Moreover concerning the stranger, that is not of thy people Israel, when he shall come from a far country for thy great name’s sake, and thy mighty
30 Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest;{in: or, toward} for thou only knowest the hearts of the children of men:

31 That they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, so long as they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers. {so long...: Heb. all the days which} {in the land: Heb. upon the face of the land}

32 Moreover concerning the stranger, which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and pray in this house;

33 Then hear thou from heaven, even from thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all the peoples of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built, is called by thy name.

34 If thy people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatsoever way thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:

35 Then hear thou from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. {cause: as thou dost knowe his heart (for thou onely knowest the hearts of the children of men)}

36 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive unto a land far off or near;

37 yet if they shall bethink themselves, in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done perversely, and have dealt wickedly;

41 Now therefore arise, O LORD God, into thy resting place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests sound the shophetim before thee: and let thy saints rejoice in goodness.

42 O LORD God, turn not away the face of thine anointed: remember the mercies of David thy servant.

And when Salomon had made an end of praying, fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices: and the glory of the Lord filled the house, 2 So that the Priests could not enter into the house of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord had filled the Lorde's house.

3 And when all the children of Israel saw the fire, and the glory of the Lord come downe vpon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the earth vpon the pauement, and worshipped and prayed the Lord, saying, For he is good, because his mercy lasteth for euer.

4 Then the King and all the people offered sacrifices before the Lord.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of two and twenty thousand bullockes, and an hundreth and twenty thousand sheepe: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came downe from heauen, and consumed the burnt offring and the sacrifices: and the glory of the Lord, which David the king had made to give thanks unto the LORD, for his mercy endureth for ever.

1 And when Salomon had made an end of praying, fire came downe vpon the house of the LORD, they bowed themselves with their faces to the earth vpon the pauement, and worshipped and gave thanks unto the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for euer.

2 And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the Lord had filled the Lorde's house.

3 And all the children of Israel looked on, when the fire came downe, and the glory of the LORD was upon the house; and they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground vpon the pavement, and worshipped, and gave thanks unto the LORD, sayinge, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for euer.

4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheepe: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.
12 And the Lord appeared to Solomon by night, in his own house, he prosperously effected.
11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the Lord, and the king’s house: and all that came into Solomon’s heart to make in the house of the Lord, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.
10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away unto their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.
9 And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly: for they had made the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.
8 And Solomon made a feast at that time seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt.
7 Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offering, and the fat.
6 And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites with the instruments of musicke of the Lord, which King Dauid had made to praise the Lord, Because his mercy lasteth for euer: whe Dauid prayed God by them, the Priests also blewe trumpets ouer against them: and all they of Israel stooed by.
5 10 And at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and the feast seven days. {a solemn...: Heb. a court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offering, and the fat.

3 8 And Salomon made a feast at that time of seuen days, and all Israel with him, a very great Congregation, from the entring in of Hamath, vnto the river of Egypt.
2 7 Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offering, and the fat.
1 6 And the Priests waited on their offices, and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood. {by their...: Heb. by their hand}
11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

12 And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place for myself to be an house of sacrifice.

13 If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the grashopper to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;

14 If my people, among whom my Name is called vpon, doe humble them selues, and pray, and secke my presence, and turne from their wicked wayes, then will I heare in heauen, and be mercifull to their sinne, and wil heale their land:

15 Then mine eies shalbe open and mine eares attent vnto the prayer made in this place.

16 For I haue nowe chosen and sanctified this house, that my Name may be there for euer: and my presence, and turne from their wicked wayes, then will I haue mercy upon whom my name is called.

17 And as for thee, if thou wilt walke before me, as Dauid thy father walked, to doe according vnto all that I haue commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments;

18 Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdome, according as I made the covenant with Dauid thy father, saying, Thou shalt not want a man to be ruler in Israel.

19 But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them:

20 then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my
According as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel. (There...: Heb. There shall not be cut off to thee)

19 But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them;

20 Then will I pluck them vp out of my lande, which I have giuen them, and this house which I have sanctified for my Name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proberbe and a common talke among all people.

21 And this house which is most hie, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus to this lande, and to this house?

22 And they shall answer, Because they forsooke the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the lande of Egypt, and haue taken holde on other gods, and haue worshipped them, and serued them, therefore hath he brought all this euill vpon them.

And after twentie yeere when Salomon had built the house of the Lord, and his owne house,

2 Then Salomon built the cities that Huram gaue to Solomon, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

4 And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath.

5 Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars;

6 and Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon built in Israel.

19 But if ye turne away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall goe and serue other gods, and worshippe them, 20 Then will I plucke them vp out of my lande, which I have giuen them, and this house which I have sanctified for my Name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proberbe and a common talke among all people.

21 And this house which is most hie, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it, so that he shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus to this lande, and to this house?

22 And they shall answere, Because they forsooke the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the lande of Egypt, and haue taken holde on other gods, and haue worshipped them, and serued them, therefore hath he brought all this euill vpon them.

And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his owne house,

2 That the cities which Huram had restored to Solo...
1 And Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, which he had built on the altar of the LORD, which he had built in Hamath.
2 And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the cities for his chariots, and the cities of his horsemen.
3 And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.
4 Then Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, which he had built there.
5 And Solomon built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars:
6 Also he built Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of his chariots and of his horsemen.
7 As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel;
8 But of their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, of them did Solomon make tribute until this day.
9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work: but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and of his horsemen.
10 And these were the chief officers of king Solomon’s officers, even two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people;
11 And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.
12 Then Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD, which he had built there.
13 And Solomon made tributaries out of the land of Hamath, and out of Syria, and out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of the Amorites.
14 He also made tribute out of Edom, twenty thousand hide, and one hundred thousand件 bars of incense every three years.
15 And Solomon had peace all his days.
16 And Solomon reigned forty and one years in Jerusalem, and in all the land of his dominion.
17 And Solomon built for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.
18 Also Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots, and the cities of the charioteers, even two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the city.
19 And he built all these cities for his horsemen, and for his chariots, and all that Solomon desired to build in Lebanon, and in Hamath.
20 And all the store cities, which he built in Hamath, Solomon furnished with chariots and horsemen.
21 And all the store cities, which he built in Judah and in Israel, furnished with provision for victual for king Solomon for all his days.
22 For he had reposed provision in abundance, for the chariots, and the horsemen; and他是一个 very great store of horses.
23 And these are the charges of the officers under him, and of the chief captains of the chariots, and of the chief captains of the horsemen, by the open sea, even unto Egypt, by the river.
24 For he ruled over all the East, and the West, and the South, and the North, and all the borders of the land.
25 And all the officers of king Solomon, and all the servants of the king, were assembled, and brought in the secret counsel of the king.
26 And they came and made an end of all the work that king Solomon had made.
27 And king Solomon brought up to Jerusalem out of Egypt quern-stones six hundred thousand, andøren-stones eight hundred thousand, and thirty thousand men-smiters.
28 And king Solomon gave to the king’s daughter, whom he had taken, twelve thousand dromedaries.
29 And he furnished his servants with victual, every man his dromedary, with victual, and his choice wine, and provision for all three years, without stint.
30 And when king Solomon had reposed provision for all his chariots and horsemen; and every man his dromedary, with victual, and his choice wine, provision for all three years, without stint.
31 And when Solomon had made an end of building the house of the LORD, and king Solomon’s house, and all the houses that Solomon desired to build,
32 Then king Solomon gave to the queen mother two hundred changes of apparel of gold, besides all the apparel of her that she used; and twelve thousand pieces of gold.
33 And she gave him twelve thousand dromedaries, and fourteen thousand pieces of gold.
34 And this is the summary of the provision which king Solomon gave to all the service of the house of his father.
35 And all the service of king Solomon was预备 for the altar of the LORD, and for the house of the LORD, and for king Solomon’s house.
36 And all the service of king Solomon was预备 for the altar of the LORD, and for the house of the LORD, and for king Solomon’s house.
37 And king Solomon reigned in Jerusalem, and in all the land of Israel, and in all the land of Judah.
38 And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and his wisdom, and all that he did, and all that he made, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?
39 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David, which he had built for him.
40 And Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.
41 And Rehoboam strengthened himself against Jeroboam, the son of嫩里, and went to war against him.
42 And Jeroboam smote him, and reigned over all Israel, ten years in the wilderness.
43 And Jeroboam did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and went not astray.
44 And he took away from Israel all the host of war, and the seamen, and made them servants for his workmen.
45 And he took away the horse from the chariots, and gave them to the workmen; and he built cities for the horsemen, and for his chariots.
46 And he kept strongholds in all the land of Israel, and had horses trained in all the chariots of Egypt, and in all the chariots of Assuit, and in all the chariots of Sepho.
47 And these officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that had service in king Solomon’s house, every man according to his portion, every day.
48 And these are the officers that provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that had service in king Solomon’s house; for every man according to his portion, every day.
49 And these are the officers that provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that had service in king Solomon’s house; for every man according to his portion, every day.
50 And these are the officers that provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that had service in king Solomon’s house; for every man according to his portion, every day.
51 And these are the officers that provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that had service in king Solomon’s house; for every man according to his portion, every day.
11 And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.

12 Even after a certain rate every day, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.

13 To offer according to the commandment of Moses euery day, in the Sabbath, and in the newe moons, and in the solemn feastes, three times in the yeere, that is, in the feast of the Unleauened bread, and in the feast of the Weekes, and in the feast of the Tabernacles.

14 And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the courses of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required: the porters also by their courses at every gate:

15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

16 Nowe Salomon had made prouision for all the people.

11 Then Salomon brought vp the daughter of Pharaoh out of the citie of Dauid, into the house that he had built for her: for he saide, My wife shall not dwell in the house of Dauid King of Israel: for it is holy, because that the Arke of the Lord came vnto it.

12 Then Salomon offered burnt offerings vnto the Lord, on the altar of the Lord, which he had built before the porche, 13 To offer according to the commandement of Moses euery day, in the Sabbath, and in the newe moons, and in the solemn feastes, three times in the yeere, that is, in the feast of the Unleauened bread, and in the feast of the Weekes, and in the feast of the Tabernacles.

14 And he set the courses of the Priestes to their offices, according to the order of Dauid his father, and the Leuites in their watches, for to praise and minister before the Priestes euery day, and the porters by their courses, at euery gate: for so was the commandement of Dauid the man of God.

15 And they declined not from the commandement of the King, concerning the Priestes and the Leuites, touching al things, and touching the treasures.

16 Nowe Salomon had made prouision for all the people.
And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she came to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon declared her all her questions, and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

3 Then the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, and the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and brought thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and took thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

And when the Queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Salomon, she came to prove Salomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great traine, and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he declared not vnto her.

5 And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thine acts, and of thy wisdom.

6 Howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half of works, from the day of the foundation of the house of the Lord, vntil it was finished: so the house of the Lord was perfite.

17 Then went Salomon to Ezion-geber, and to Eloth by the sea side in the lande of Edom.

18 And Huram sent him by the hands of his servants ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Salomon to Ophir, and fetched from thence four hundred and five hundred talents of golde, and brought them to king Salomon.

16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and untill it was finished. So the house of the LORD was perfected.
13 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon, and the order of his wafters, and their apparel, and his butlers, and their apparel, and his burnt offerings which he offered in the house of the Lord, and she was greatly astonished.

5 And she said to the king, It was a true report which I heard in mine own lande of thy sayings, and of thy wisdom:

6 Howbeit I belieued not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the one half of thy great wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stande before thee all waye, and heare thy wisdom.

8 Blessed be the Lord thy God, which delighted to set thee on his throne as King, in the stead of the Lord thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish it for ever, therefore he made thee king over them, to execute judgement and justice.

9 Then she gaue the King sixe score talents of golde, and of sweete odours exceeding much and precious stones: neither was there such sweete odours since, as the Queene of Sheba gaue vnto King Salomon.

10 And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Salomon which brought golde from Ophir, brought Algummim wood and precious stones.
11 And the King made of the Alummim wood staircases in the house of the Lord, and in the Kings house, and harps and violas for singers: and there was no such scene before in the land of Judah.
12 And King Solomon gave to the Queene of Sheba every pleasant thing that she asked, besides for that which she had brought vnto the King: so she returned and went to her owne country, both she, and her seruants.
13 Also the weight of golde that came to Solomon in one yeere, was sixe hundreth three score and six talents of golde.
14 Besides that which chapmen and merchants brought: and all the Kings of Arabia, and the princes of the countrye brought golde and siluer to Solomon.
15 And King Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten golde, and sixe hundreth shekels of beaten golde went to one target,
16 And three hundreth shields made he of beaten golde:	hree hundreth shields of golde went to one shield, and the King put them in the house of the wood of Lebaon.
17 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, in one year was six hundred and trescore and six talents of gold;
14 beside that which the chapmen and merchants brought: and all the kings of Arabia and governors of the countrye brought golde and siluer to Solomon.
15 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten golde: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.
16 And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays.
19 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom.
20 And all king Solomon’s drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: silver was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

21 For the king had ships that went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram: once every three years once came the ships of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. 22 So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. 23 And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart. 24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. 25 And Solomon had four thousand stalls of horses, and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it, (for he was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of king Solomon,) that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came, and they spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to 26 And he reigned over all the Kings from the River even unto the land of the Philistims, and to the border of Egypt.

27 And the King gave silver in Jerusalem, as stones, and gaue cedar trees as the wilde fig trees, that are abundant in the plaine.

28 And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

29 Concerning the rest of the acts of Solomon first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the Prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the Seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king.

26 And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

27 And the king made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and made silver in the low plains in abundance. {made silver: Heb. סננה חצץ}

28 And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

29 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the Prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the Seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

Then Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem came all Israel to make him king.
2 And when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it, (which was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Salomon the king) he returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him: so came Jeroboam and all Israel, and communed with Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: nowe therefore make thou the grievous servitude of thy father, and his sore yoke, that he put upon vs, lighter, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Depart yet three days, and the people departed.

6 And King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father, while hee yet liued, saying, What counsell giue ye me to return answer to this people, which haue spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put vpon us?

7 And they spake vnto him, saying, If thou be kinde to this people, and please them, and speake louing words to them, they will be thy seruants for euer.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel of the yong men that were brought vp with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may answere this people, which haue spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put vpon us?

10 And the young men that were grown up with him, did put upon us lighter?

11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king bade, saying, Com to me again the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam sent and called the three princes of Israel.
Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, and spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for it was brought about of God, that the LORD might establish his word, which he spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 And when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reign over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the levy; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. And king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel rebelled against the house of David, unto this day.
And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house; for this thing is of me. So they hearkened unto the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jerusalem.

5 And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah.

6 He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa, and Beth-zur, and Zicoah, and Adullam, 7 And Bethzer, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, fenced cities.

8 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and oil and wine.

9 And in every several city he put shields and turrets in them, and store of victual, and oil and wine.

10 And Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and turrets in them, and store of victual, and oil and wine.

13 And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

And after them out of all the tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

18 And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;

19 Which bare him children; Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham.

20 And after her he took Maacha the daughter of Absalom which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maacha the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam made Abijah the son of Maacha the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

And after her he took Maakah the daughter of Absalom which bare him Abiiah, and Atthai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah to be chief, even the prince among his brethren: for he was minded to make him king.

23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his sons throughout all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city: and he gave them victual in abundance. And he sought for them many wives.
And when Rehoboam had established the kingdom and made it strong, he forsooke the Lawe of the Lord, and all Israel with him.

And when the Lord saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves, therefore I will not destroy them, but I will send them deliverance shortly, and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

Nevertheless they shalbe his servants: so shall they knowe my seruice, and the seruice of the kingdomes of the earth.

Then Shishak king of Egypt came vp against Jerusalem, and tooke the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the Kings house he tooke euen all, and hee caried away the shields of golde, which Salomon had made.

In stead whereof King Rehoboam made shieldes of brasse, and committed them to the handes of the chiefe of the garde, that wayted at the doore of the Kings house.

And when the King entred into the house of the Lord, the garde came and bare them and brought them againe vnto the garde chamber.

And because hee humbled himselfe, the wrath of the Lord, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house; he brought them back into the guard chamber.

13 So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless they shall be his servants: that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.

And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

7 And when the Lord saw that they humbled themselves; and they said, The LORD is righteous.
In the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem: (his mother’s name also was Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah.) And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah joined battle with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: and Jeroboam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, who were mighty men of valour.

4 And Abijah stood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, to put his name there: and his mother’s name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

14 And he did that which was evil, because he prepared not his heart to seek the LORD. {Abijah: also called, Abijam}

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are not written in the histories of Shemaiah the prophet, and Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the citie of Dauid, and Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

In the eighteenth yeere of King Ieroboam began Abiah to reigne ouer Iudah.

2 He reigned three yere in Ierusalem: (his moth name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibea) and there was warre alway betweene Reho boam and Ieroboam.

14 And he did euill: for hee prepared not his heart to seeke the Lord.

15 The actes also of Rehoboam, first and last, are not written in the booke of Shemaiah the Prophet, and Iddo the Seer, in rehearsing the genealogie? and there were warre alway betweene Reho boam and Ieroboam.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the citie of Dauid, and Abiah his sonne reigned in his stead.

In the eighteenth yeere of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three yere in Jerusalem: (his mother’s name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah.) And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.
unto the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the peoples of other lands? so that whosoever cometh to consecrate him self with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.

But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and we have priests ministering unto the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and are a great multitude, and there are with you the golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods.

And Abijah stood vp upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel, hear ye me, and whosoever cometh to consecrate him self with a young bullock and seven rams, the same shall be a priest of them that are no gods.

Ver. 16. The 16th verse is not in the original Hebrew; but in 1 Kings x. 25, it is written, "and all Israel, hear ye me; 16 and whosoever cometh to consecrate him self with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods."
priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods. {to consecrate...: Heb. to fill his hand}

10 But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business:

11 And they burn unto the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense: the shewbread also set they in order upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him.

12 And, behold, God himself is with us for our captain, and his priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against the LORD, the God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.

13 But Jeroboam caused an ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them.

14 And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind them: and they cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand.

17 And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five thousand.
13 Then the men of Judah gave a shout; and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.
 16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand.
 17 And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men.
 18 Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD God of their fathers.
 19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and Ephraim with the towns thereof.
 20 Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD smote him, and he died.
 21 But Abijah waxed mighty, and took fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.
 22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.

17 And Abiiah and his people slewe a great slaugh-

19 And Abiiah pursued after Ieroboam, and tooke thereof, and Ieshanah with her villages, and Ephron with her villages.

20 And Ieroboam recovered no strength againe in the dayes of Abiiah, but the Lord plagued him, and he dyed.
21 So Abiiah waxed mightie, and married foureteene

And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an army of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and he came unto Mareshah.

Then Asa went out before him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah beside Mareshah.

And Asa cried unto the LORD his God, and said, "LORD, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name are we come against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee."

So the LORD smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them unto Gerar: and there fell of the Ethiopians so many that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil.

And they smote all the cities round about Gerar; for the fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was much spoil in them.
And the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Obed:

2 And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: The LORD is with you, while ye be with him: and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Now for long seasons Israel hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law:

4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 And nation was destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be slack: for your work shall be rewarded.

8 And when Asa heard these words, and the prophesie of Obed the Prophet, he was encouraged.

9 Then the Spirite of God came upon Azariah the sonne of Obed, and he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, O Asa, and all Iudah, and Beniamin, heare ye me. The Lord is with you, while ye be with him: and if ye seek him he wil be founde of you, but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

10 And in that time there was no peace to him, that did goe out and goe in: but great troubles were to all the inhabitants of the earth.

11 But whosoeuer returned in his affliction to the Lord God of Israel, and sought him, he was founde of them.

12 And in those times there was no peace to him, that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were to all the inhabitants of the countries.

13 They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

14 They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away plente of sheepe and camels, and returned to Jerusalem.
8 And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the LORD.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 And they offered unto the LORD the same time of the spoyle which they had brought, seven hundred drachm of gold, and seven thousand sheepe.

12 And they entered into the covenant to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and soul.

13 That whosoever would not seeke the LORD God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 And they sware unto the LORD with a loud voice; and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

and tooke away the abominations out of all the land of Judah, and Beniamin, and out of the cities which he had taken of mount Ephraim, and he renued the altar of the Lord, that was before the porche of the Lord.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Beniamin, and the strangrs with them out of Ephraim, and Manasæsh, and out of Simeon: for there felle many to him out of Israel, when they saw that the Lord his God was with him.

10 So they assembled to Ierusalem in the third moneth, in the fiftene yeare of the reign of Asa.

11 And they offred vnto the Lord the same time of the spoyle, which they had brought, euene seven hundreth bullockes, and seven thousande sheepe.

12 And they made a couenant to seeke the Lord God of their fathers, with all their heart and soule.

13 And whosoever will not seeke the Lord God of Israel, shalbe slaine, whether he were small or great, man or woman.

14 And they sware vnto the Lord with a loude voyce, and with shouting and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Iudah reioyced at the othe: for they had taken the small or great, whether man or woman.

16 And they sacrificed unto the Lord in that day, of the spoyle which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

17 And also Asa reioyced with all his might, for hee had sworne vnto the Lord with all their heart, and sought him; and hee found him.

18 And Asa the sonne of Abessai was strong with great might against Israell.

19 And all Iudah reioyced at the othe: for they had taken the small or great, whether man or woman.
And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

And also Maacah the mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa brake downe her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brooke Kidron.

And the LORD gave them rest rounde about.

In the sixth and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa came Baasha king of Israel vp against Iudah, and built Ramah, to let none passe out or goe in to Asa king of Iudah.

2 Then Asa brought out siluer and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king’s house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying, him with a whole desire, and he was founde of them.

And the Lord gaue them rest rounde about.

In the six and thirtieth yeere of the regne of Asa came Baasha king of Israel vp against Iudah, and built Ramah to let none passe out or goe in to Asa king of Iudah.

2 Then Asa brought out siluer and gold out of the treausres of the house of the LORD and of the king’s house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,
3 There is a league between me and thee, and there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto King Asa, and sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, he left building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and he built there with Geba and Mizpah.

7 And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast rested upon the host of the king of Syria, and hast not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubims a huge host, with chariots and horsemen exceeding many? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thine hand.

9 For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the 11 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel that he may depart from me.

12 And Benhadad hearkened unto King Asa, and sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

13 And when Baasha heard it, he left building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

9 For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro through the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein thou hast done foolishly; therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars. {or, strongly to hold with them, etc}
10 Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people the same time. {Heb. crushed}
11 And, behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.
12 And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet; his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians.
13 And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.
14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had hewn out for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries’ art: and they made a very great burning for him.

many? yet because thou diddest rest upon the Lord, he delivered them into thine hand.
9 For the eyes of the Lord beholde all the earth to shewe him selfe strong with them that are of perfite heart towards him: thou hast then done foolishly in this: therefore from henceforth thou shalt haue warres.
10 Then Asa was wroth with the Seer, and put him into a prison: for he was displeased with him, because of this thing. And Asa oppressed certaine of the people at the same time.
11 And behold, the actes of Asa first and last, loe, they are written in the booke of the Kings of Iudah and Israel.
12 And Asa in the nine and thirtieth yeere of his regn was diseased in his feete, and his disease was extreme: yet he sought not the Lord in his disease, but to the Phisicians.
13 So Asa slept with his fathers, and dyed in the one and fourtieth yeere of his regaine.
14 And they buryed him in one of his sepulchres, which he had made for him selfe in the citie of David, and layed him in the bed, which they had filled with sweete odours and diuers kindes of spices made by the arte of the apoticarie: and they burnt odours for him with an exceeding great fire.
And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken.

3 And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the deeds of Israel.

5 Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance.

6 And he lifted up his heart in the ways of the LORD: moreover he took away the high places and groves out of Judah.

7 And in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes Ben-hail, and Obadiah, and Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah;

8 And with them Levites, Shemaiah, and Netha-ramoth, and Tob-adonijah, the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests.
And of Benjamin; Eliada a mighty man of valour, and him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour: 16 And next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand: 15 And next to him Jehohanan the captain, and with him mighty men of valour three hundred thousand: 14 And these are the numbers of them according to their fathers’ houses: Of Judah, the captains of thousands, Adnah the captain, and with him mighty men of valour, Adnah three hundred thousand; Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Asaiah, and Zadok, and Elioenai, which were captains over thousands, and were captains over mightysmen in Benjamin: 13 And he had much business in the cities of Judah: and the men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem. 12 So Jehoshaphat prospered and grew up exceedingly: and he built in Judah castles, and cities of store. 11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat gifts and tribute silver, and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats. 10 And the fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdome of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. 9 And some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and silver for tribute; the Arabians also brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats. 8 And with them he sent Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebediah, and Asaiah, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Asahel, and Toeiah, and Tobadonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, priests. 7 And they taught in Judah, having the book of the law of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people. 6 And the fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdom of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. 5 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat gifts and tribute silver, and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats. 4 And there they taught in Judah, and had the booke of the Lawe of the Lord with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people. 3 And he built in Judah castles and cities of store. {castles: or, palaces} 2 And he had great works in the cities of Judah: and men of war, and valiant men in Jerusalem. 1 And he sent Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zadok, and Anyas, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobiah, and Tobadonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, priests. 14 And these are the numbers of them according to their fathers’ houses: Of Judah, the captains of thousands, Adnah the captain, and with him mighty men of valour, Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Asahel, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Adonijah. 13 And he had many works in the cities of Judah; and the men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem. 12 And Jehoshaphat waxed great exceedingly: and he built in Judah castles and cities of store. 11 And some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute silver; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats. 10 And the fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdom of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. 9 And they taught in Judah, having the book of the law of the LORD with them; and they went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught among their fathers’ houses: Of Judah, the captains of thousands, Adnah the captain, and with him mighty men of valour, three hundred thousand: 8 And with them he sent Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebediah, and Asaiah, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Asahel, and Toeiah, and Tobadonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, priests.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of destroying them, there were none that escaped.

24 And when Judah came to the watch-tower of the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem: put your trust in the Lord your God, and ye shall be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to hold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and there were none that escaped.

26 And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Beracah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of that place was called The valley of Beracah, unto this day.

27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the LORD.

29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the earth, when they had heard that the LORD had fought against ye enemies of Israel.

30 So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his God gave him rest on euery side.

31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD.

33 Howbeit the high places were not taken away; neither as yet had the people set their hearts unto the God of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Jehu.

the son of Hanani, which is inserted in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel; the same did very wickedly:

36 and he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Eziongeber.

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath broken thy works. and the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.
And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram; because he was the eldest.

4 Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a lamp to him and to his children alway.

Iehoshaphat then slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of Dauid: and Iehoram his son reigned in his steade.

2 And he had brethren the sons of Iehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Iehoshaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver and of golde, and of precious things, with strong citiies in Iudah: but the kingdom gave he to Iehoram: for he was the eldest.

4 And Iehoram rose vp vpon the kingdom of his father, and made himselfe strong, and slew all his brethren with the sworde, and also of the princes of Israel.

5 Iehoram was two and thirtie yeere olde, when he began to reigne, and he reigned eyght yeere in Ierusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the Kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife, and he wrought euill in 8 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.
9 Then Jehoram passed over with his captains, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, as the house of Ahab did; and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself:

14 Behold, the LORD will smite with a great plague thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy substance:

15 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and made the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like as the house of Ahab did; and he had forsaken the LORD, the God of his fathers.

16 So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made themselves a king.

17 But the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and because he had promised to give a light to him, and to his sons for ever.

18 And he walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat his father; nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, 19 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and committed great fornication, and led Judah astray.

15 and thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness, day by day.

16 And the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians which are beside the Ethiopians:

and they came up against Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king’s house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 And after all this the LORD smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, in process of time, at the end of two years, that his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years: and he departed without being desired; and they buried him in the city of David, but not among the sepulchres of the kings.
And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son King in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

2 Forty and two yeare old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one yeare in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri.

3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother counselled him to doe wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did euill in the sight of the Lord, for his mother counselled him to doe wickedly.

5 He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the sonne of Ahab King of Israel to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth gilead: and the Syrians smote Ioram.

6 And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah

7 Now the destruction of Ahaziah was of God, in the Kings.

And the inhabitants of Ierusalem made Athaliah the daughter of Omri king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. Therefore Ahaziah the sonne of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

2 Two and fourtie yeare olde was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one yeare in Jerusalem, and his mothers name was Athaliah the daugther of Omri.

3 He walked also in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother counselled him to doe wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did euill in the sight of the Lord, for his mother counselled him to doe wickedly.

5 And he walked after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the sonne of Ahab King of Israel to fight against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth gilead: and the Aramites smote Ioram.

7 And the destruction of Ahaziah was of God by coming to Ioram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.
8 And it came to pass, when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.
9 And he sought Ahaziah, and they caught him, (for Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his him to Jehu, and slew him; and they buried him, for they said; He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart. And the house of Aha-aziah had no power to hold the kingdom.

11 But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took

8 Therefore wheen Iehu executed judgement upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Iudah and the sons of the brethren of Ahaaziah that

9 And he sought Ahaaziah, and they caught him where he was hid in Samaria, and brought him to Iehu, and slew him, and buried him, because, sayd they, he is the sonne of Iehoshaphat, which sought the Lord with all his heart. So the house of Ahaaziah was not able to reteine the kingdome.
10 Therefore wheen Athaliah the mother of Ahaaziah

And in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the heads of fathers’ houses of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king’s son shall reign, as the LORD hath said of the sons of David.

4 This is the thing that ye shall do: A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the doors; {doors: Heb. thresholds}

5 And a third part shall be at the king’s house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

6 But let none come into the house of the LORD, save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites; they shall come in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and the Levites; they shall come in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

12 And he was with them hid in the house of God sixe yeeres, whiles Athaliah reigned ouer the land.

And in the seventh yeere Iehoiada waxed bolde, and tooke the captaine of hundrethes, to wit, Azariah the sonne of Ieroham, and Ishmael the sonne of Iehohanan, and Azariah the sonne of Obed, and Maaseiah the sonne of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the sonne of Zichri in couenant with him.

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Leuites out of all the cities of Iudah, and the chiefe fathers of Israel: and they came to Ierusalem.

3 And al the Congregation made a covenant with the King in the house of God: and he sayde vnto them, Behold, the Kings sonne must reigne, as the Lord hath sayd of the sons of Dauid.

4 This is it that ye shall do, The third part of you that come on the Sabbath of the Priests, and the Leuites, shalbe porters of the doore.

And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but ye shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the Lord.

Then they brought out the king’s son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony, and made him king: and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him; and they said, God save the king.

And when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD:

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges, and he that followeth her, let him dye by the sword: for the priest had said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they layde hands on her: and when she was come to the entry of the horsegate by the Kings house, they slew her there.

16 And Jehoiada made a covenant betweene him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORD'S people.

18 And Jehoiada appointed officers for the house of the Lord, under the hand of the Priests and Levites, whom David had distributed for the house of the Lord, to offer burnt offerings unto the Lord, as it is written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and singing by the appointment of David.

19 And he set porters by the gates of ye house of the Lord, that none which was unclean in any thing, should enter in.

20 And he took the captains of hundrethes, and the noble men, and the governours of the people, and all the people of the land, and he caused the King to come downe out of the house of the Lord, and they went thorowe the hie gate of the Kings house, and set the King vpon the throne of the kingdome.

Joash was seuen yere olde, when he began to reigne, and he reigned foutry yeere in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

19 And he set the porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was unclean in any thing, should enter in.

20 And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought downe the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the kings house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 So all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slaine Athaliah with the sword.

Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

4 And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded to repair the house of the LORD. {to repair: Heb. to renew}

5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in for the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness?

7 For wicked Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicat things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, vntill they had finished.

11 And when it was time, they brought the chest vnto the Kings officer by the hand of the Levites: and when they saw that there was much siluer, then the Kings Scribe (and one appoynted by the hie Priest) came and emptied the chest, and tooke it, and Ii carried it to his place againe: thus they did day by day, and gathered siluer in abundance.

12 And the King and Iehoiada gaued it to such as did the labour and worke in the house of the Lord, and hyred masons and carpenters to reparye the house of the Lord: they gaeue it also to workers of yron and brasse, to repayre the house of the Lord.

13 So the workmen wrought, and the worke amended through their hands: and they restored the house of God to his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the siluer before the King and Jehoiada, and he made thereof vessels for the house of the Lord: they offered vessels to minister, both morters and incense cuppes, and vessels of golde, and of siluer: and they offered burnt offringes in the house of the Lord continually all the dayes of Iehoiada.

15 But Jehoiada waxed old and was full of days, and he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and his house.

17 Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them.
15 But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days and dyed. An hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.
16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and his house.
17 And after the death of Jehoiada, came the princes of Judah, and did reverence to the King, and the King hearkened unto them.
18 And they left the house of the Lord God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem, because of this their trespass.
19 Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the Lord: and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.
20 And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the Lord, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the Lord, he hath also forsaken you.
21 And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the Lord.
22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The Lord look upon it, and require it.
23 And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the army of the Syrians came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus.

24 Though the army of Aram came with a small company of men, yet the Lord delivered a very great armie into their hand, because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers: and they gave sentence against Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his owne servants conspired against him for the blood of the children of Jehoiada the Priest, and slew him on his bed, and he dyed, and they buried him in the city of David: but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the Kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 But his sons, and the summe of the taxe gathered by him, and the foundation of the house of God, behold, they are written in the storie of the company of men; and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. So they executed judgment upon Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his owne servants conspired against him for the blood of the children of Jehoiada the Priest, and slew him on his bed, and he dyed, and they buried him in the city of David: but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the Kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him, Zabad the sonne of Shimrath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the sonne of Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the rebuilding of the house of God, behold, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.
