In those days, when there was again a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, he called unto him his disciples and, saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now continued with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 and if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint in the way; and some of them are come from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, Whence shall one be able to fill these men with bread here in a desert place?

5 And they asked him, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he brake, and gave to his disciples, to set before them; and they set them before the multitude.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and having blessed them, he commanded to set these also before them.

8 And they did eat, and were filled: and they took

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they would faint by the way: for divers of them came from farre.

4 Then his disciples answered him, Whence can a man satisfy these with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 They had also a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 And anon he entred into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they would faint by the way: for divers of them came from farre.

14 And they forgot to take bread; and they had not in the boat departed to the other side.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, be ware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned one with another, saying, We have no bread.

17 And Jesus perceiving it saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? do ye not yet perceive, neither understand? have ye your heart hardened?

18 ὃτι οὐκ ἀκούετε, καὶ οὐ μνημονεύετε, ὢτα ἔχοντες οὐ βλέπετε, καὶ ὦτα ἔχοντες πεπωρωμένην ἔχετε τὴν καρδίαν ὑμῶν;

asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he lef them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he said unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not, neither understand? have ye your heart yet darkened?

18 Haue yee eyes, and see not? and haue yee eares, and heare not? and doe ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among fiue thousand, how many baskets full of broken meate took ye vp? They said vnto him, Twelue.

20 And when I brake seuen among foure thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seuen.

21 Then he saide vnto them, Howe is it that ye do not understand?

22 And they come unto Bethsaida. And they bring to him a blind man, and beseech him to touch him.
23 And he took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village; when he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands upon him, he asked him, Seest thou aught?
24 And he looked up, and said, I see men; for I behold them as trees, walking.
25 Then again he laid his hands upon his eyes; and he looked stedfastly, and was restored, and saw all things clearly.
26 And he sent him away to his home, saying, Do not even enter into the village.
27 And Jesus went forth, and his disciples, into the villages of Caesarea Philippi: and in the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men tuylóν, καὶ παρακαλοῦσιν αὐτοῦ ἵνα αὐτοῦ ἀγνητι.
23 καὶ ἐπιλαβόμενος τῆς χειρὸς τοῦ τυφλοῦ ἐξήνεγκεν αὐτὸν ἐξὸ τῆς κόμης, καὶ πτῦσας εἰς τὰ δόματα αὐτοῦ, ἐπιθεὶς τὰς χεῖρας αὐτοῦ, ἐπηρώτα αὐτὸν, εἴ τι βλέπει;
24 καὶ ἀναβλέπων ἐλέγεν· βλέπω τοὺς ἀνθρώπους, ὦτα δένδρα ὁρῶ περιπατοῦντας,

26 καὶ ἀπέστειλεν αὐτὸν εἰς τὰς κώμας τῆς Ἡλείας, ἢ καὶ ἀπεκάθισεν αὐτοῦ ἡμῖν· μὴ εἰς τὴν κόμην εἰσέλθῃς.
27 Καὶ ἐξήνεγκεν ὁ Ἰησοῦς εἰς τὰς κόμας Καισαρείας τῆς Ἡλείας· καὶ ἐπὶ τὴν ἡμέραν ἡμῶν ἐπηρώτα τοῦ ὀφθαλμοῦ αὐτοῦ, ἐπιθεὶς τὰς χεῖρας αὐτοῦ, τίνα με λέγειν οἱ ἀνθρώποι εἰνάνθει;
28 οἱ δὲ δὲ διὰ τοῦτο λέγονται· ὠτος ἐφη τοῦ ὀφθαλμοῦ αὐτοῦ, ἢ τίνα με λέγησιν εἰς τοὺς ἀνθρώπους περί αὐτοῦ.
29 καὶ ἀπεκάθισεν τοῦτο εἰς τὰς κώμας Ἔλεαι, ἢ καὶ ἤρισκεν ἐκ τὸν Πέτρον ἐλέγειν· μὴ εἰς τὸν ἀνθρώπον πολλὰ παθεῖν, καὶ ἀποδοκιμασθῆναι

12 Then hee sighed deeply in his spirit, and saide, Why doeth this generation seeke a signe? Verely
I say vnto you, a signe shall not be giuen vnto this generation.
13 So he lef them, and went into the ship againe, and departed to the other side.
14 And they had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the shippe with them, but one loafe.
15 And he charged them, saying, Take heede, and beware of the leauen of the Pharisees, and of the leauen of Herod.
16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is, because we haue no bread.
17 And when Jesus knew it, he said vnto them, Why reason you thus, because ye have no bread? perceiue ye not yet, neither understande? haue ye your hearts yet hardened?
18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?
19 When I brake the fiue loaues among fiue thousand, how many baskets of the leauings of broken meate took ye vp? And they said vnto him, Seven.
20 And when I brake seuen among foure thousand, how many baskets of the leauings of broken meate tooke ye vp? They said vnto him, Twelue.
21 Then he saide vnto them, Howe is it that ye do not understand?
22 And he came to Bethsaida; and they brought a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw anything.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

27 And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the town of Caesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, Some say, Iohn Baptist: and some, Elias: and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he asked them, But whom say ye that I am? Then Peter answered, and said vnto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he sharply charged them, that concerning him they should tell no man.

31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel’s shall save it.

32 And he spake the saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But he turning about, and seeing his disciples, he said vnto him, Satan: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men.

34 And he spake the saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

35 But he turning about, and seeing his disciples, he said vnto him, Satan: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men.

36 For whosoever would save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel’s shall save it.

37 What doth it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

38 For what doth it profit a man, if he gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

39 For whosoever would save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel’s shall save it.

40 For what doth it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

41 For whosoever would save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel’s shall save it.
and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will follow me, let him forsake himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the Gospels, he shall save it.

For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.
And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding white; so as no fuller on earth can whiten them.

4 And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 Then Peter answered, and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make also three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 Yet hee knewe not what he saide: for they were sore afraid.

7 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

8 And as they were coming down from the mountaine, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seene, saue when the Sonne of man were ancie nated.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them, that they should tell no man what they had seene, saue when the Sonne of man were ancie nated.
man should have risen again from the dead.

10 And they kept the saying, questioning among themselves what the rising again from the dead should mean.

11 And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things: and how is it written of the Son of man, that he should suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, that Elias is come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and scribes disputing with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 Then he asked the scribes, What question ye with them? {with them: or, among yourselves}

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought my son to thee, which hath a dumb spirit:

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him, and he fometh, and gnasheth his teeth, and pineth.
21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22 And oft times it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, helpe vs, and haue compassion vpon vs.

23 And Jesus said vnto him, If thou canst beleeue it, vs al things are possible to him that beleeueth.

24 And straightway the father of the childe crying with teares, saide, Lord, I beleeue: helpe my vnbeliefe.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the vnceleane spirit, saying vnto him, Thou domme and deafe spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 Then the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him, and he was as one dead, in so much that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus tooke his hande, and lift him vp, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast it out; and they were not able.

19 Then he answered him, and said, O faithlesse generation, how long now shall I be with you! how long now shall I suffer you! Bring him vnto me.

20 So they brought him vnto him: and assoone as the spirit sawe him, hee tare him, and hee fell downe on the ground walowing and forming.

21 Then he asked his father, How long time is it since he hath bin thus? And he said, Of a childe.

22 And oft times he casteth him into the fire, and into the water to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, helpe vs, and haue compassion vpon vs.

23 And Jesus said vnto him, If thou canst beleeue it, vs al things are possible to him that beleeueth.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?
29 And he said vnto them, This kinde can be by no other meanes come forth, but by prayer and fasting.
30 And they departed thence, and went together through Galile, and hee would not that any should have known it.
31 For he taught his disciples, and saide vnto them, The Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the handes of men, and they shall kill him, but after that he is killed, he shall rise againe the third day.
32 But they vnderstooode not that saying, and were afraid to aske him.
33 After, he came to Capernaum: and when he was in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among you by the way?
34 And they helde their peace: for by the way they reasoned among themselves, who should bee the chiepest.
35 And he sate downe, and called the twelve, and said to them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servaunt vnto all.
36 And he tooke a little child, and set him in the middes of them, and tooke him in his armes, and he arose.

30 And they departed thence, and passed through Galile; and he would not that any man should know it.
31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.
32 But they understood not the saying, and were afraid to ask him.
33 And they came to Capernaum: and when he was in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?
34 And they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.
35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

The Son of man is delivered up into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and when he is killed, he shall rise again the third day.
31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, This kind can come out by nothing, save by prayer.
29 And he answered them, Why could not we cast it out?
28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, saying, We could not cast it out.
32 But they understood not the saying, and were afraid to ask him.
33 And they came to Capernaum: and being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?
34 And they held their peace: for they had disputed one with another in the way, who was the greatest.
35 And he sat down, and called the twelve; and he saith unto them, If any man would be first, he shall be last of all, and minister of all.
36 And he took a little child, and set him in the midst of them: and taking him in his arms, he said unto them, 36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, 37 Whosoever shall receive one of such little children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 Then John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followed us: and we forbade him, because he followed vs not.

39 But Jesus sayd, Forbid him not: for there is no man that can doe a miracle by my Name, that can lightly speake euill of me.

40 For whosoever is not against vs, is on our part.

41 And whosoever shall giue you a cup of water to drinke for my Names sake, because ye belong to Christ, verely I say vnto you, he shall not lose his rewarde.

42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones, that believe in me, it is better for him that a milstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were cast into the sea.

43 Wherefore, if thine hand cause thee to offend, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, rather than having two hands, to goe into hell, into the fire that neuer shalbe quenched.

44 Where their worme dyeth not, and the fire neuer goeth out.

38 And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followed us: and we forbade him, because he followed not us.

44 Where their worme dyeth not, and the fire neuer goeth out.
45 Likewise, if thy foot offend thee to offend, cut it off: it is better for thee to go halt into life, then having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched.
46 Where their worm dyeth not, and the fire is never quenched.

47 And if thine eye cause thee to offend, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:
48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is never quenched.

49 For every man shall be salted with fire: and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.
50 Salt is good: but if the salt have lost its saltiness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace one with another.

And he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judaea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 Then the Pharisees came and asked him, if it were lawful for a man to put away his wife, and tempted him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?
4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.
5 But Jesus said unto them, For your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment.
6 But from the beginning of the creation, Male and female made he them.

And he answered, and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardnesse of your heart he wrote you this precept.

But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

And they twaine shall be one flesh: so that they are no more twaine, but one flesh.

But at the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and marry another, she committeth adultery.

And if a woman shall put away her husband, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

And if a woman put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

And they brought unto him little children, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

And when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, she committeth adultery.

And if a woman shall put away her husband, and marry another, she committeth adultery.

And when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto him, Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein.

15 And they brought unto him little children, that he should touch them: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

3 And he answered, and said ye unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 And they sayed, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 Then Jesus answered, and sayd vnto them, For the hardnesse of your heart he wrote you this precept vnto you.

6 But at the beginning of the creation God made them male and female:

7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twaine shall be one flesh: so that they are no more twaine, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of that matter.

11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, she committeth adultery.

12 And if a woman put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 Then they brought litle children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife;

8 and the twain shall become one flesh: so that they are no more twaine, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house the disciples asked him again of that matter.

11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.
16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.
17 And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?
18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.
19 Thou knowest the commandments, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

22 But he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.
23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches possessions.
24 And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!
25 It is easier for a camel to go through a needle’s eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of commit adulterie. Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not hurt no man. Honour thy father and mother.

20 Then he answered, and said to him, Master, all these things I haue obserued from my youth.

God.
26 And they were astonished exceedingly, saying unto him, Then who can be saved?
27 Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.
28 Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have forsaken all, and have followed thee.
29 Jesus answered, and said, Verily I say unto you, there is no man that hath forsaken house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and for the gospel's sake, 30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.
31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.
32 And they were in the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going before them: and they were amazed; and they that followed were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were to happen unto him,
33 saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and the scribes; and they shall condemn him to sorowfull: for he had great possessions.
34 And Jesus answered again, and said, Verily I say unto you, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches, to enter into the kingdom of God!
35  And they that were to happen unto him, he took again the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were to happen unto him,
36  saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and the scribes; and they shall condemn him to sorowfull: for he had great possessions.
32 And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him.

33 Then James and John the sons of Zebedee, came unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest doe for us whatsoever we desire.

34 And they said unto him, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

35 And there came near unto him James and John, the sons of Zebedee, saying unto him, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall ask.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I shall drink of? or be baptized with the baptism that I shall be baptized in?

39 And they said unto him, We are able. And Jesus said unto them, The cup that I drink ye shall drink; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 but to sit on my right hand or on my left hand is not mine to give: but it is for them for whom it hath been prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be moved with indignation concerning James and John.
withal shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them. {are...:

or, think good}

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude,

Bartimaeus the son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the way side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and said, Call ye him. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good cheer: rise, he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, sprang up, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered him, and said, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And the blind man said unto him, Rabboni, that I may receive my sight.

52 And Jesus answered him, and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said vnto him, Lord, that I may receive sight. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

And when they cam neere to Hierusalem, to Bethphage and Bethania vnto the mount of Oliues, he sent forth two of his discipules,

2 And sayd vnto them, Goe your wayes into that towne that is over against you, and asoone as ye shall enter into it, ye shall finde a colte tied, whereon neuer man sate: loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say vnto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath neede of him; and straightway he will send him back hither. And they camed wyth their garments, and caste them on him, and he sat upon him.

7 And they bring the colt unto Jesus, and cast on him their garments; and he sat upon him.

And when they came nigh unto Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village that is over against you: and as soon as ye enter into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon no man ever sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither. And they camed wyth their garments, and caste them on him, and he sat upon him.

7 And they bring the colt unto Jesus, and cast on him their garments; and he sat upon him.
11 And they come to Jerusalem: and he entered into the temple; and when he had looked round about upon all things, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he went in and found nothing but leaves; for when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season of figs.

14 And he answered and said unto it, Mulet tis est. 15 So Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked about on all things, and now the eventide was come, he went forth vnto Bethania with the twelue.

16 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna: blessed be hee that commeth in the Name of the Lord.

17 And they loosed him. 18 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

19 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna: blessed be he that commeth in the Name of the Lord.

20 And they loosed him. 21 And when he had looked about on all things, and now it was euening, he went forth vnto Bethania; he was hungry:

22 And seeing a fig tree afarre off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season of figs.

23 And he answered and said unto it, Mulet tis est. 24 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna: blessed be he that commeth in the Name of the Lord.

25 And they loosed him. 26 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

27 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna: blessed be he that commeth in the Name of the Lord.

28 And they loosed him. 29 And when he had looked about on all things, and now it was euening, he went forth vnto Bethania; he was hungry:

30 And seeing a fig tree afarre off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season of figs.

31 And he answered and said unto it, Mulet tis est.
he went to see if he might find any thing thereon; but when he came vnto it, hee found nothing but leaves; for the time of figges was not yet.

14 Then Iesus answered, and sayd to it, Neuer man eate fruite of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 And they came to Hierusalem, and Iesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that solde and bought in the temple, and ouerthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seates of them that solde doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 Neither would hee suffer that any man should carry a vessell through the Temple.

18 And he taught, saying vnto them, Is it not written, Mine house shalbe called the house of prayer for all nations? but you haue made it a denne of theecues.

19 But when euen was come, Iesus went out of the citie.

20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the figge tree dried vp from the rootes.

21 Then Peter remembred, and said vnto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Iesus answering saide vnto them, Have faith, for he that believeth, what he saith cometh to pass; he shall have it.

23 Verily I say vnto you, Whossoever shall say vnto this mountain, Be thou taken up and cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that what he saith cometh to pass; he shall have it.

24 Therefore I say vnto you, All things whatsoever ye pray and ask for, believe that ye have received them, and ye shall have them.

25 And whencesoever ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have aught against any one; that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.
22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. [Have... or, Have the faith of God]

23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 When ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven, may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive you your trespasses.

27 Then they came again to Jerusalem: and as he walked in the temple, there came to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, 28 And said unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority, that thou shouldest do these things?

29 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? who gave him authority to baptize?
And he began to speak unto them in parables. A man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a pit for the winepress, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they took him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and they received him not, and treated him shamefully.

5 And he sent another; and him they killed: and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 He had yet one, a beloved son: he sent him last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard.

9 What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 Have ye not read even this scripture; The stone

18 And there come unto him Sadducees, which say that are God's. And they marveled greatly at him.

17 And Jesus said unto them, Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's. And they marveled greatly at him.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Caesar's.

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, And at him they cast stones, and brake his head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

13 And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees, and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words. And they left him, and went their way.

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the multitude; for they perceived that he spake the parable against them: therefore they left him, and went their way.

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes.

10 Haue ye not read so much as this Scripture? The stone which the builders did refuse, is made the head of the corner:

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

8 So they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let vs kill him, and the inheritance shalbe ours.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

5 And againe he sent another; and him they killed, and sent him away shamefully handled.

4 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest not for man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but of a truth teachest the way of God: Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not?

3 Then the parable against them: and they lefte him, and went away.

8 But as touching the dead, that they are raised; have ye not read in the book of Moses, in the place concerning the Bush, how God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

7 He is not the God of the dead, but of the living: and the God of Jacob?
23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 Then came one of the scribes that had heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 Jesus answered him, The first is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God, the Lord is one:

30 Thou shalt therefore love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Of a truth, Master, thou hast well said that he is one; and there is none other but he:

33 and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 And Jesus answered and said, as he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that the Christ is the son of David?

23 In the resurrection then, when they shall rise againe, whose wife shall she be of them? for seuen had her to wife.

24 Then Iesus answered, and saide vnto them, Are ye not therefore deceived, because ye knowe not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise againe from the dead, neither men marry, nor widows are married, but are as the Angels which are in heauen.

26 And as touching the dead, that they shall rise againe, haue ye not read in the booke of Moses, howe in the bush God spake vnto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob?

27 God is not ye God of the dead, but the God of the liuing. Ye are therefore greatly deceived.

28 Then came one of the Scribes that had heard them disputing together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, he asked him, Which is the first commandement of all?

29 Iesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, Israel, The Lord our God is the onely Lord.

30 Thou shalt therefore loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy mynd, and with all thy strength.

31 And the second is, namely this, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thyself.

32 And the scribe said, Of a truth, Master, thou hast well said that he is one; and there is none other but he:

33 and to loue him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to loue his neighbour as himself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Iesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said vnto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 Iesus answered and said, as he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that the Christ is the son of David?
of David?
36 David himself said in the Holy Spirit, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces,

39 And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces,

40 And in his teaching he said, Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and to have salutations in the marketplaces, and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts:

41 And he sat down over against the treasury, and beheld how the multitude cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a poor widow, and she cast in two mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than all they which are casting into the treasury:

44 for they all did cast in of their superfluity; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all thy minde, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandement.

31 And the second is like, that is, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. There is none other commandement greater then these.

32 Then that Scribe said vnto him, Well, Master, thou hast saide the truth, that there is one God, and that there is none but he,

33 And to loue him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soule, and with all the strength, and to loue his neighbour as himselfe, is more then all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 Then when Jesus saw that he answered discreetely, he saide vnto him, Thou art not farre from the kingdome of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.

35 And Jesus answered and said teaching in the Temple, Howe say the Scribes that Christ is the sonne of Dauid?

36 For David himself said by the Holy Ghost, The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

37 David himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and to have salutations in the marketplaces,

39 and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts:

40 they which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers; these shall receive greater condemnation.

41 And he sat down over against the treasury, and beheld how the multitude cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a poor widow, and she cast in two mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than all they which are casting into the treasury:

44 for they all did cast in of their superfluity; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all αὐτοῦ ἐστιν υἱός; καὶ ὁ πολὺς ὄχλος ἤκουεν αὐτοῦ ήδέως.

38 Moreover he said vnto them in his doctrine, Beware of the Scribes which loue to goe in long robes, and loue salutations in the markets, 39 And the chiefe seates in the Synagogues, and the first roumes at feastes, 40 Which deuoure widowes houses, euens under a colour of long prayers. These shall receiue the greater damnation.
41 And as Jesus satte ouer against the treasurie, he beheld how the people cast money into the treasurie, and many rich men cast in much.
42 And there came a certaine poore widowe, and she threw in two mites, which make a quadrin.
43 Then he called vnto him his disciples, and said vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, that this poore widowe hath cast more in, then all they which have cast into the treasurie.
44 For they all did cast in of their supernuclitie: but she of her pouertie did cast in all that she had, euens all her liuing.

And as he went forth out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, behold, what manner of stones and what manner of buildings! 2 And Jesus said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left here one stone upon another, which shall not be thrown down. 3 And as he sat on the mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately,

And as he sat upon the mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately,

Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

And Jesus answering them began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you:

For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake, for a testimony unto them.

But see that ye do not your work for men to see; for they shall build up stone upon a stone, that shall not be throwen downe.

And when ye see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand

But when ye see the abomination of desolation, standing where he ought not, let him that readeth understand,

And when ye see these things, the beginning of sorrows shall be; but the end shall not be yet.

For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.

But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, be not anxious beforehand what ye shall say, but whatsoever shall be given you in that same hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost.

For they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony unto them.

Then shall many be offended, and shall交付 them hatred one to another, and divisions shall be among all nations.

Then shall many be得罪 delivered up, and be killed, and they shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

Then shall many be delivered up, and they shall be hated of all men for my name's sake, and shall be persecuted, both by nations, and kings, and false prophets.

Then shall many be delivered up, and they shall be hated of all men for my name's sake, and shall be persecuted, both by nations, and kings, and false prophets.

Then shall many be delivered up, and they shall be hated of all men for my name's sake, and shall be persecuted, both by nations, and kings, and false prophets.

Then shall many be delivered up, and they shall be hated of all men for my name's sake, and shall be persecuted, both by nations, and kings, and false prophets.

Then shall many be delivered up, and they shall be hated of all men for my name's sake, and shall be persecuted, both by nations, and kings, and false prophets.

Then shall many be delivered up, and they shall be hated of all men for my name's sake, and shall be persecuted, both by nations, and kings, and false prophets.
that speake: for it is not ye that speake, but the holy Ghost.
12 Yea, and the brother shall deliever the brother to death, and the father the sonne, and the children shall rise against their parents, and shall cause them to die.
13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my Names sake: but whosoever shall endure vnto the end, he shalbe saued.
14 Moreuer, when ye shall see the abomination of desolation (spoken of by Daniel the Prophet) set where it ought not, (let him that readeth, consider it) then let them that be in Iudea, flee into the moutaines, 15 And let him that is vpom the house, not come downe into the house, neither enter therein, to fetch any thing out of his house.
16 And let him that is in the field, not turne backe againe to take his garment.
17 Then wo shalbe to the that are with child, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes.
18 Pray therefore that your flight be not in the winter.
19 For those dayes shalbe such tribulation, as was not from the beginning of ye creation which God created vnto this time, neither shalbe.
20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened those days.

21 And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible the very elect.

23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

27 And then shall he send his Angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the utmost part of the earth to the utmost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the door.

28 Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh;

29 even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that he is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, until all these things be accomplished.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

32 But of that day or that hour knoweth no one, not even the angels in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 It is as when a man, sojourning in another country, having left his house, and given authority to his servants, to each one his work, commanded also the porter to watch.

35 Watch therefore: for ye know not when the lord of the house cometh, whether at even, or at midnight, or at cockcrowing, or in the morning;

36 lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.
Now after two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to passe, knowe that the kingdom of God is neere, even at the doores.

30 Verely I say vnto you, that this generation shall not passe, till all these things be done.

31 Verily I say vnto you, that this generation shall not passe, but my woordes shall not passe away.

32 But of that day and houre knoweth no man, no, not the Angels which are in heauen, neither the Sonne himselfe, but the Father.

33 Take heede: watch, and praie: for yee knowe not when the time is.

34 For the Sonne of man is as a man going into a strange countrey, and leaueth his house, and giueth authoritie to his seruaunts, and to euery man his woork, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ye therefore, (for ye know not whe ye master of the house will come, at eue, or at midnight, or at the cocke crowing, or in the dawning,) Least if he come suddenly, he should finde you sleeping.

36 And those things that I say vnto you, I say vnto all men, Watch.

And two daies after followed the feast of the Pas-souer, and of vnleauened bread: and the hie Priests, and Scribes sought how they might take him by subtility, and kill him:

2 for they said, Not during the feast, lest haply there shall be a tumult of the people.

3 And while he was in Bethany in the house of Si-mon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster cruse of ointment of spikenard very costly; and she brake the cruse, and poured it over his head.

4 But there were some that had indignation among themselves, saying, To what purpose hath this waste of the ointment been made?

5 For this ointment might have been sold for above three hundred pence, and given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 But Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor always with you, and whensoever ye will ye can do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she hath anointed my body aforehand for the burying.

9 And verily I say unto you, Whereasover the gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, that kingdom of God shal be madeknowne to passe, knowe that this generation shall not passe, till all these things be done.

10 Καὶ Ἰούδας Ἰσκαριώθ, ὁ εἷς τῶν δώδεκα,
And when it was evening he cometh with the twelve.

17 And when it was evening he cometh with the twelve, and saith unto them, Let us go into the city, and there make ready for us, for I and my disciples have need of food.

16 And the disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

15 And he senteth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him;

14 and wheresoever he shall enter in, say to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is my guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him;

12 And on the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the passover, his disciples say unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and make ready that thou mayest eat the passover?

11 And they, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently deliver him unto them.

10 And Judas Iscariot, he that was one of the twelve, went away unto the chief priests, that he might betray him vnto them.

9 Verily I say vnto you, Wheresoeuer this Gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this shall be spoken of in remembrance of her.

8 She hath done what she coulde: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

7 For ye have the poor with you always, and when yee will yee may doe them good, but me yee shall not haue alwaies.

6 But Jesus said, Let her alone: why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good worke on me.

5 For it might haue bene sold for more then three hundred pence, and bene giuen vnto the poore, and they murmured against her.

4 Therefore some disdained among themselves, and sayde, To what ende is this waste of oyme? he saide, True it is, that so many thinges are done to me.

3 And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at table, there came a woman having a boxe of oyme of spikenarde very costly, and she brake the boxe, and powred it on his head.

2 But they sayde, Not on the feast day, lest there be any tumult among the people.

1 And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at table, there came a woman having a boxe of oyme of spikenarde very costly, and she brake the boxe, and powred it on his head.

also which this woman hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, that he might betray him vnto them.

11 And they, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently deliver him unto them.

12 And on the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the passover, his disciples say unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and make ready that thou mayest eat the passover?

16 And the disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 And when it was evening he cometh with the twelve.

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. {hymn: or, psalm}

27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended, yet will I not deny thee. And in like manner also said they all.

28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

31 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him.

32 And they come unto a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be greatly amazed, and sore troubled.

34 And he saith unto him, My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death: abide ye here, and watch. And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him.

35 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; remove this cup from me: howbeit not what I will, but what thou wilt.

36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; remove this cup from me: howbeit not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? coudest thou not watch with me one hour?

38 And he saith vnto them, This is my blood of the newe Testament, which is shed for many.

39  καὶ πάλιν ἀπελθὼν προσηύξατο τὸν αὐτὸν λόγον ἀσθενής.

40  γρηγορεῖτε καὶ προσεύχεσθε, ἵνα μὴ ἔλθητε ἀπὸ τὴν ὥραν γρηγορῆσαι; τὸ μὲν πνεῦμα πρόθυμον, ἡ δὲ σὰρξ ἀδημονεῖν, εἰς πειρασμόν. τὸ μὲν πνεῦμα πρόθυμον, ἡ δὲ σὰρξ ἀδημονεῖν, εἰς πειρασμόν. τὸ μὲν πνεῦμα πρόθυμον, ἡ δὲ σὰρξ ἀδημονεῖν, εἰς πειρασμόν. τὸ μὲν πνεῦμα πρόθυμον, ἡ δὲ σὰρξ ἀδημονεῖν, εἰς πειρασμόν.
30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 So he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed, that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee: take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 Then he came, and found them sleeping, and their eyes were very heavy; and they wist not what to answer him.

38 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake again: the spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

40 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee: take away this cup from me: nevertheless not that I will, but that thou wilt.

41 And he came the third time, and saith unto them, Sit ye here, till the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

42 Arise, let us be going: behold, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 And straightway, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 Now he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And when he was come, straightway he came to him, and saith, Rabbi; and kissed him.

46 And they laid hands on him, and took him.

47 But a certain one of them that stood by drew his sword, and smote the servant of the high priest, and should be offended at thee, yet would not I.

48 But he said more earnestly. If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee: likewise also said they all.

49 After, they came into a place named Gethsemane: then he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, till I have prayed.

50 And he went away, and began to be troubled, and in great heaviness, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

51 Then he came, and found them sleeping, and their eyes were heavy, and they knew not what to answer him.

52 And he went away again, and prayed, and spake the same words.

53 And he came the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough; the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

54 And they came, and laid hands on him, and took him. And Peter followed him, with a sword drawn, for he wist not what else to do.
struck off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves to seize me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but this is done that the scriptures might be fulfilled.

50 And they all left him, and fled.

51 And a certain young man followed with him, having a linen cloth cast about him, over his naked body: and they lay hold on him;

52 but he left the linen cloth, and fled naked.

53 And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and there come together with him all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Peter had followed him afar off, even within, into the court of the high priest; and he was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire.

55 Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found it not.

56 For many bare false witness against him, and their witness agreed not together.

57 And there stood up certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,
48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye be come out as against a thief with swordes, and with staues, to take me.
49 I was daily with you teaching in the Temple, and yee took me not: but this is done that the Scriptures should be fulfilled.
50 Then they all forsooke him, and fled.
51 And there followed him a certaine yong man, clothed in linnen vpon his bare bodie, and the yong men caught him.
52 But he left his linnen cloth, and fled from them naked.
53 So they led Jesus away to the hie Priest, and to him came together all the hie Priestes, and the Elders, and the Scribes.
54 And Peter folowed him afarre off, euen into the hall of the hie Priest, and sate with the seruants, and warned himselfe at the fire.
55 And the hie Priests, and all the Councill sought for witnesse against Iesus, to put him to death, but found none.
56 For many bare false witnesse against him, but their witnesse agreed not together.
57 Then there arose certaine, and bare false witnesse against him, saying, 58 We hearde him say, I will destroy this Temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.
59 But neither so did their witnesse agree together.
60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witnesse against thee?
61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and saith unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?
62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming with the clouds of heaven.
63 And the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What further need have we of witnesses?
64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? They all condemned him to be worthy of death.
65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophe-sy: and the officers received him with blows of their hands.
66 And as Peter was beneath in the court, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest; and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and saith, Thou also wast with the Nazarene, even Jesus.

58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.
59 And not even so did their witness agree together.
60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witnesse against thee?
61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing.
62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming with the clouds of heaven.

68 But he denied, saying, I neither know, nor understand what thou sayest: and he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.
69 And the maid saw him, and began again to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.
70 But he again denied it. And after a little while again they that stood by said to Peter, Of a truth thou art one of them; for thou art a Galilaean.
71 But he began to curse, and to swear, I know not this man of whom ye speak.
72 And straightway the second time the cock crew.

And Peter called to mind the word, how that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.
70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilaean, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

69 Then a maid saw him againe, and bega to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 But he denied it again: and anon after, they that stood by, sayde againe to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galile, and thy speach is like.

71 And he began to curse, and sweare, saying, I knowe not this man of whom ye speake.

72 Then the seconde time the cocke crowe, and Pet er remembered the woorde that Iesus had saide vnto him, Before the cocke crowe twise, thou shalt deny me thrise, and waying that with himselfe, he wept.

And anon in the morning, the chief priests helde a Councill with the Elders, and the Scribes, and the whole Council, and bound Iesus, and led him away, and deliuered him to Pilate.

2 Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And hee answered, and sayde vnto him, Thou sayest.

3 And the hie Priestes accused him of many things.

4 Wherefore Pilate asked him againe, saying, An swerest thou nothing? beholde howe many things they witnesse against thee.

Καὶ εὐθὺς πρωῒ συμβούλιον ἑτοιμάσαντες οἱ ἀρχιερεῖς μετὰ τῶν πρεσβυτέρων καὶ τῶν γραμματέων καὶ ὅλον τὸ συνέδριον, δήσαντες τὸν Ἰησοῦν ἀπήνεγκαν καὶ παρέδωκαν Πειλάτῳ.

2 καὶ ἐπηρώτησεν αὐτὸν ὁ Πειλᾶτος• σὺ εἶ ὁ βασιλεὺς τῶν Ἰουδαίων; ὁ δὲ ἀποκριθεὶς αὐτῷ λέγει• σὺ λέγεις.

3 καὶ κατηγόρουν αὐτοῦ οἱ ἀρχιερεῖς πολλά.

4 ὁ δὲ Πειλᾶτος πάλιν ἐπηρώτα αὐτὸν• οὐκ ἀποκρίνῃ οὐδέν; ἴδε πόσα σου κατηγοροῦσιν.

5 ὁ δὲ Ἰησοῦς οὐκέτι οὐδὲν ἀπεκρίθη, ὥστε θαυμάζειν τὸν Πειλᾶτον.

6 Κατὰ δὲ ἑορτὴν ἀπέλυεν αὐτοῖς ἕνα δέσμιον ὃν παραθήκησαν.

7 ήν δὲ ὁ λεγόμενος Βαραββᾶς μετὰ τῶν στασιάστων δεδεμένος, οἵτινες ἐν τῇ στάσει φόνον πεποιήκεισαν.

8 καὶ ἀναβὰς ὁ ὄχλος ἤρξατο αἰτεῖσθαι καθὼς ἐποίει αὐτοῖς.

9 καὶ θαυμάζει τὸν Πειλᾶτον ὃς ἐκεῖ ἦν τῶν Ἰουδαίων;

10 ἐγίνωσκεν γὰρ ὅτι διὰ φθόνον παραδεδώκεισαν αὐτὸν οἱ ἀρχιερεῖς.

11 οἱ δὲ ἀρχιερεῖς ἀνέσεισαν τὸν ὄχλον ἵνα μᾶλλον τὸν Βαραββᾶν ἀπολύσῃ αὐτοῖς.

12 ὁ δὲ Πειλᾶτος πάλιν ἀποκρίθησεν ἐλέγεν αὐτοῖς•
12 And Pilate again answered and said unto them, What then shall I do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?
13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.
14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.
15 So Pilate willing to content the people, loosed them Barabbas, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, that he might be crucified.

5 But Jesus answered no more at all, so that Pilate marueiled.
6 Nowe at the feast, Pilate did deliuer a prisoner vnto them, whomsoever they would desire.
7 Then there was one named Barabbas, which was bound with his fellows, that had made insurrection, who in the insurrection had committed murder.
8 And the people cried aloud, and began to desire that he woulde doe as he had euer done vnto them.
9 Then Pilate answered them, and said, Will ye that I let loose vnto you the King of ye Iewes?
10 For he knewe that the hie Priestes had deliuered him of envy.
11 But the high Priestes had moued the people to desire that he would rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.
12 And Pilate answered, and said againe vnto them, What will ye then that I doe with him, whom ye call the King of the Iewes?
13 And they cried againe, Crucifie him.
14 Then Pilate said vnto them, But what euill hath he done? And they cryed the more feruently, Crucifie him.
15 So Pilate, willing to content the people, led him out to crucifie him.

12 And they lead him out to crucify him.
13 And they mocked him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.
14 And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the purple, and put on him his garments. And they lead him out to crucify him.
15 And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

10 For he knew that the Chief Priests had delivered him for envy.
11 For he knew that the Chief Priests had delivered him unto you the King of the Jews?
12 And Pilate answered, and said again unto them, Will ye that I let loose unto you the King of the Jews?
13 And they cried againe, Crucifie him.
14 Then Pilate said vnto them, What evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly, Crucifie him.
15 And Pilate, wishing to content the multitude, released unto them Barabbas, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.
16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Praetorium; and they called together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head.

18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 And they brought him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretation, the place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on the right hand, and one on his left.

28 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ha! thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself, and come down from the cross.

29 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and saying, Ha! thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself, and come down from the cross.

30 save thyself, and come down from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reproached him. And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

31 In like manner also the chief priests mocking him among themselves with the scribes, said, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reproached him.

33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 καὶ τῇ ἐνάτῃ ὥρᾳ ἐβόησεν ὁ Ἰησοῦς φωνῇ μεθερμηνευόμενο• ὁ θεός μου ὁ θεός μου, εἰς τί ὡς ἐσμύρνησεν οἶνον• ὁ βασιλεὺς τῶν Ἰουδαίων καταβάτω νῦν ἑαυτὸν οὐ δύναται σῶσαι• ἅπασα ἡ γῆ ἕως ὥρας ἐνάτης.

35 καὶ τῇ ἐνάτῃ ὥρᾳ ἐβόησεν ὁ Ἰησοῦς φωνῇ μεθερμηνευόμενο• ὁ θεός μου ὁ θεός μου, εἰς τί ὡς ἐσμύρνησεν οἶνον• ὁ βασιλεὺς τῶν Ἰουδαίων καταβάτω νῦν ἑαυτὸν οὐ δύναται σῶσαι• ἅπασα ἡ γῆ ἕως ὥρας ἐνάτης.
And the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

42 And when even was now come, because it was the day before the sabbath,

And ye title of his cause was written aboeue, THAT KING OF THE JEWES.

27 They crucified also with him two theeeues, the one on ye right hand, and the other on his left.

28 Thus the Scripture was fulfilled, which sayth,

And he was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Hey, thou that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in three days, 30 Save thy selfe, and come downe from the crosse.

Lk 32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see, and believe. And they that were crucified with him reuled him.

Mt 33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

Jn 34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lamma-sabachthani? which is by interpretation, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

37 And Jesus uttered a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

39 And when the centurion, which stood by over against him, saw that he so gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 And there were also women beholding from afar: among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome;

41 who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him; and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.

42 And when even was now come, because it was the Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, which came up with him unto Jerusalem.
And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

Joseph of Arimathaea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

And the veil of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the toppe to the bottome.

Nowe when the Centurion, which stoode ouer against him, sawe that he thus crying gaue vp the ghost, he saide, Truely this man was the Sonne of God.

There were also women, which beheld afarre off, among whom was Marie Magdalene, and Marie (the mother of Iames the lesse, and of Ioses) and Salome, Which also when he was in Galile, followed him, and ministred vnto him, and many other women which came vp with him vnto Hierusalem.

And nowe when the night was come (because it was the day of the preparation that is before the Sabbath)

there came Joseph of Arimathaea, a councillor of honourable estate, who also himself was looking for the kingdom of God; and he boldly went in unto Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.

And Pilate marveled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

And when he learned it of the centurion, he granted the corpse to Joseph.

And he bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock; and he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.

And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

And the veil of the Temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.
And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun was risen.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment: and they were affrighted.

6 But he said unto them, Be not afraid: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; and behold, he is not here: remember how he was told you in the wilderness.

7 And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them: and they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

8 But Peter and the two companions of his went in, and they found the young man which was sitting on the right side, and the linen clothes laid by the face of the young man, and the napkin: and the napkin was not lying by itself, but had been folded together.

9 And he saith unto them, Be not amazed: Ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, which hath been crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold, the place where they laid him!

10 And when he knew the truth of the Centurion, he gave the body to Joseph:

11 Who bought a linen cloth, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen cloth, and laide him in a tomb that was hewen out of a rocke, and rolled a stone vnto the doore of the sepulchre:

12 And Marie Magdalene, and Marie Ioses mother, beheld where he was laid.

13 And when he was risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whether he had bene any while dead.
he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

6 But go your way, and tell his disciples and Peter that goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

7 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre:
for they trembled and were amazed: neither said
they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre:
for they trembled, and were amazed: neither said
they any thing to any man: for they were afraid.

9 Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, disbelieved.

12 And after these things he was manifested in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went, and told it to the remnant, neither believed they them.

14 Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. [at meat: or, together]

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

16 He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; whom he had cast out seven devils.

10 She went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 Finally, he appeared unto the eleven as they sate at meat, and reproached them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him, as he said unto you.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature.
but he that believeth not shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

16 He that shall believe and be baptized, shall be saved: but he that will not believe, shall be damned.

17 And these tokens shall follow them that believe, In my Name they shall cast out devils, and shall speake with newe tongues, 18 And shall take away serpents, and if they shall drinke any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them: they shall lay their handes on the sicke, and they shall recover.

19 So after ye Lord had spoken vnto them, he was receiued into heauen, and sate at the right hand of God.

20 And they went foorth, and preached euery where. And the Lord wrought with them, and confirming the worde with signes that folowed. Amen.
Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth the storie of those things, whereof we are fully persuaded,
2 As they have deliuered them vnto vs, which from the beginning saw them their selues, and were ministers of ye word,
3 It seemed good also to me (most noble Theophilus) assoone as I had searched out perfectly all things from the beginning, to write vnto thee thereof from point to point,
4 That thou mightest acknowledge the certaintie of those things, whereof thou hast bene instructed.
5 In the time of Herod King of Iудеa, there was a certaine Priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabet.
6 Both were iust before God, and walked in all the commandements and ordinances of the Lord, without reprove.
7 And they had no childe, because that Elisabet was barren: and both were well stricken in age.
8 And it came to passe, as he executed the Priestes office before God, as his course came in order,
9 According to the custome of the Priestes office, his lot was to burne incense, when he went into the Temple of the Lord.
10 And the whole multitude of the people were pray-

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink: and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother’s womb.
16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn unto the Lord their God.
17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.
18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife is of a great age.

11 Then appeared vnto him an Angel of the Lord standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

18 Then Zacharias said vnto ye Angel, Whereby shall I knowe this? for I am an olde man, and my wife is of a great age.

27 And a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And after these days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, Thus hath the Lord done unto me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men.

29 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: they perceived that he had seen a vision in the Temple: For he beckoned unto them, and remained dumb.

30 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 31 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

32 And the angel answered and said by afore him, I am Gabriel that stand in the presence of God, and I was sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these good tidings.

33 Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 34 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

35 Thus hath the Lord done unto me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men.

36 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: they perceived that he had seen a vision in the Temple: For he beckoned unto them, and remained dumb.

37 And it came to passe, when the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed unto his own house.

38 And after these days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, Thus hath the Lord done unto me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men.

39 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: they perceived that he had seen a vision in the Temple: For he beckoned unto them, and remained dumb.

40 And it came to pass, when the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed unto his own house.

41 And after these days Elisabeth his wife conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, Thus hath the Lord done unto me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men.
was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. {highly...: or, greatly accepted, or, of much grace}

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive a son in thy old age, and this is the sixth month with her that was called barren.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of God.

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that which is to be born shall be called holy, the Son of God.

31 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabet, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is her sixt moneth, which was called barren.

Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin’s name was Mary.

28 And he came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee.

29 But she was greatly troubled at the saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this might be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered, and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the most High shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of God.

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 And Mary said unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow thee: wherefore also that which is to be born shall be called holy, the Son of God.

36 And behold, Elisabeth thy kinswoman, she also hath conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her that was called barren.
37 For with God shall nothing be impossible.
38 Then Marie said, Behold the servant of the Lord: be it unto me according to thy woore. So the Angel departed from her.
39 And Marie arose in those daies, and went into yee hill country with hast to a citie of Iuda;
40 And entred into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.
41 And it came to passe, as Elisabeth heard the salutation of Marie, the babe leaped in her bellie, and Elisabeth was filled with the holy Ghost.
42 And she cried with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, because the fruit of thy wombe is blessed.
43 And whence commeth this to mee, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
44 For loe, assoone as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine eares, the babe sprang in my bellie for ioye,
45 And blessed is shee that beleued: for those things shall be perfourmed, which were tolde her from the Lord. {that...: or, which believed that there}
46 Then Marie sayde, My soule magnifieth the Lord, 47 And my spirite reioyceth in God my Saviour.
48 For hee hath looked on the poore degree of his hand-
60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

59 And it came to pass on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

58 And her neighbours and her kinsfolk heard that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

57 Now Elisabeth's time was fulfilled that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned unto her own house.

55 (As he spake unto our fathers) Toward Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

54 He hath holpen Israel his servant, That he might remember mercy, toward Abraham, and his seed for ever.

53 He hath filled the hungry with good things; And hath exalted them of low degree.

52 He hath put down princes from their thrones, and exalted them of lowe degree.

51 He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proude in the imagination of their hearts.

49 Because he that is mighty hath done for me great things, and holy is his Name.

48 And his mercie is from generation to generation on them that feare him.

47 He hath shewed great mercy upon her, and they rejoiced with her.
he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, blessing God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judaea.

66 And all they that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be!

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; For he hath visited and redeemed his people, 69 And hath raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David;

70 (As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets which have been since the world began),

71 Salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To shew mercy towards our fathers, And to re-circumcise the babe, and called him Zacharias after the name of his father.

60 But his mother answered, and said, Not so, but he shalbe called Iohn.

61 And they said vnto her, There is none of thy kindred, that is named with this name.

62 Then they made signes to his father, howe he would haue him called.

63 So hee asked for writing tables, and wrote, saying, His name is Iohn, and they marueiled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue, and he spake and praised God.

65 Then feare came on all them that dwelt neere vnto them, and all these woordes were noised abroade throughout all the hill country of Iudea.

66 And al they that heard them, laid them vp in their hearts, saying, What maner childe shall this be! and the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 Then his father Zacharias was filled with the holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, because he hath visited and redeemed his people, 69 And hath raised vp the horne of saluation vnto vs, in the house of his seruant David,

70 As he spake by ye mouth of his holy Prophets, which were since the world began, saying, éστιν τὸ ὄνομα αὐτοῦ. καὶ ἐθαύμασαν πάντες.

64 ἀνεῳγθε δὲ τὸ στόμα αὐτοῦ παραχρηματικὸν καὶ ἡ γλώσσα αὐτοῦ, καὶ ἐλάληε εὐλογημένον τὸν θεὸν.

65 καὶ ἔγενετο ἐπί πάντας φόβος τούς περιοικοῦντας αὐτούς, καὶ εἰν ὅλῃ τῇ ὀρεινῇ τῆς Ἰουδαίας διελαλεῖτο πάντα τὰ ῥήματα ταῦτα, 66 καὶ ἐγένετο πάντες οἱ ἀκούσαντες ἐν τῇ καρδίᾳ αὐτῶν, λέγοντες• τί ἄρα τὸ παιδίον τοῦτο ἔσται; καὶ γάρ χείρ κυρίου ἦν μετ᾽ αὐτοῦ.

67 Καὶ Ζαχαρίας ὁ πατήρ αὐτοῦ ἐπλήθης πνεύματος ἁγίου καὶ ὑποψιευθεῖσαν λέγοντες•

68 εὐλογητός κύριος ὁ θεός τοῦ Ἰσραήλ, ὅτι ἐπεσκέπασεν καὶ ἐποίησεν λύτρον τῷ λαῷ αὐτοῦ,

69 καὶ ἤγειρεν κέρας σωτηρίας ἐπὶ παιδὸς αὐτοῦ, καὶ ἐπεσκέπασεν καὶ ἐποίησεν λύτρον τῷ λαῷ αὐτοῦ,

70 καθὼς ἔλαλησεν διὰ στόματος τῶν ἁγίων ἁγίας αὐτοῦ,

71 σωτηρίαν ἐξ ἐχθρῶν ἡμῶν καὶ ἐκ χειρὸς πάντων τῶν μισούντων ἡμᾶς•

72 ποιῆσαι ἔλεος μετὰ τῶν πατέρων ἡμῶν καὶ μνησθῆναι διαθήκης ἁγίας αὐτοῦ, 73 ὃρκον ὃν ὤμοσεν πρὸς Ἀβραὰμ τὸν πατέρα ἡμῶν, τοῦ δοῦναι ἡμῖν,

74 ἀφόβως ἐκ χειρὸς ἐχθρῶν ῥυσθέντας λατρεύειν αὐτῷ;

75 ἐν ὁσιότητι καὶ δικαιοσύνῃ ἐνώπιον αὐτοῦ.

a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.
( taxed: or, enrolled)

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.
( taxed: or, enrolled)

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her firstborn son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock.

9 And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you glad tidings of great joy, which shall be to all the people:

11 for there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father’s business?

50 But they understoode not the saying which he spake unto them.

3 And he came into all the coastes about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sinnes,

7 He said therefore to the multitudes that went out to be baptized of him, Ye offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And even now is the axe laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 Then the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 He answered and said unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 And there came also publicans to be baptized, and they said unto him, Master, what must we do?

13 And he said unto them, Extort no more than that which is appointed you. And soldiers also asked him, saying, And we, what must we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither exact anything wrongfully; and be content with your wages.

14 And as the people were in expectation, and they said unto him, Master, what must we do? And he answered and said unto them, He that hath meat, let him do likewise.

16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.
17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

25 But of a truth I say unto you, There were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;
26 and unto none of them was Elijah sent, but only Naaman the Syrian.
27 And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian.
28 And they were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things;
29 and they rose up, and cast him forth out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might throw him down the broken hearted, that I should preach delierance to the captuies, and recouering of sight to the blinde, that I should set at libertie them that are bruised:

19 And that I should preache the acceptable yeere of the Lord.
20 And hee closed the booke, and gaue it againe to the minister, and sate downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagoge were fastened on him.
21 Then he began to say vnto them, This day is the Scripture fulfilled in your eares.
22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words, which proceeded out of his mouth, and said, Is not this Josephes sonne?
23 Then he said vnto them, Ye will surely say vnto mee this prouerbe, Physician, heal thy selfe: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, doe it here likewise in thine owne coutrye.
24 And he saide, Verely I say vnto you, No Prophet is accepted in his owne coutrye.

38 And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simeon’s house. And Simeon’s wife’s mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her; and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 Now when the sun was setting, all they that had sick any with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed, and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came to him, and kept him that he should not depart from them.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she rose up and ministered unto them.

40 Now at the sunne setting, all they that had sick folks of divers diseases, brought them vnto him, and he layd his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

Now it came to pass, while the multitude pressed upon him and heard the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret;

2 and he saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon’s, and asked him to put out a little from the land.

4 And when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answered and said, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes; and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them.

8 But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

Then it came to passe, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, that he stood by the lake of Gennesaret.

2 And saw two ships standing by the lakeside, but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nettes.

3 And he entred into one of the ships, which was Simon’s, and required him that he would thrust off a little from the land: and he sate down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he sayd vnto Simon, Lanch out into the deepe, and let downe your nettes to make a draught.

5 Then Simon answered, and sayd vnto him, Master, we haue trauiled sore all night, and haue taken nothing: neuerthelesse at thy worde I will let downe the net.

6 And when they had so done, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes, so that their net brake.

And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, sawing. Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

12 And it came to pass, while he was in one of the cities, behold, a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And he charged him that hee should tell no man: but Go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, as Moses hath commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went abroad the report of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed of their infirmities.

16 But he withdrew himself in the deserts, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on one of those days, that he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and doctors in the other ship, that they should come and helpe them, who came then, and filled both the ships, that they did sink.

8 Now when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus knees, seeing, Lord, go from me: for I am a sinfull man.

9 For he was vterly astonied, and all that were with him, for the draught of fishes which they tooke.

10 And so was also James and John the sons of Zebedeus, which were companions with Simon. Then Jesus sayde vnto Simon, Fear not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought the ships to land, they forsooke all, and followed him.

12 Nowe it came to passe, as he was in a certaine citie, beholde, there was a man full of leprosie, and when he saw Iesus, he fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

13 So he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, be thou clean. And immediately the leprosie departed from him.

14 And he commanded him that hee should tell it no man: but Go, sayth he, and shew thy selfe to the Priest, and offer for thy cleasing, as Moses hath commanded, for a witnes vnto them.

9 For he was amazed, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken;

12 Now it came to pass, as he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 So he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

18 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in, because of the multitude, they went up on the housetop, and let him down through the tiling.

19 And seeing their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins (he said unto him that was palsied), I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto thy house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his house, glorifying God.
25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom:

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 Then Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But they that were Scribes and Pharises among them, murmured against his disciples, saying, Why eate ye and drinke ye with publicanes and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole have no need of a physician; but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And Jesus said unto them, Can ye make the sons of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come; and when the bridegroom is taken away, then shall they fast;
And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the wedding chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agree not with the old.

And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

And it came to pass on the second Sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

And it came to passe on a sabbath, that he was going through the cornfields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

Now it came to pass on a sabbath, that he was going through the cornfields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 But certain of the Pharisees said, Why do ye that which it is not lawful to do on the sabbath day?

And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read even this, what David did, when he was an hungry, he, and they that were with him;

4 how he entered into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat save and his hand was restored whole as the other.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath?

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes,

16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor;

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judaea and Jerusalem,

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And all the multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.

11 Then they were filled full of madnes, and communed one with another, what they might doe to Jesus.

12 And it came to passe in those days, that he went into a mountaine to praye, and spent the night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called his disciples, and of them he chose twelue which also he called Apostles.

16 Iudas Iames brother, and Iudas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.)

17 Then he came downe with them, and stood in a plaine place, with the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Iudea, and Hierusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyrus and Sidon, which came to heare him, and to be healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were vexed with foule spirits, and they were healed.

And if ye do good to them that do good to you, have ye? for even sinners love those that love them.

But if ye love them that love you, what thank ye also to them likewise.

And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

Give to every one that asketh thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

And if ye do good to them that do good to you, for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

And hee lifted vp his eyes vpon his discipules, and sayd, Blessed be ye poore: for yours is the kingdom of God.

Blessed are ye that hunger nowe: for ye shall be satisfied: blessed are ye that wepe now: for ye shall laugh.

Blessed are ye when men hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproch you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of mans sake.

Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers to the false prophets.

Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you: for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger.

Woe be to you that are rich! for ye have receiued your consolation.

But woe be to you that are rich: for ye have receiued your reward is great in heaven: for in the same manner did their fathers unto the Prophets.

Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the same manner did their fathers to the false prophets.

Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger.

Woe be to you that are rich! for ye have receiued your consolation.

Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you: for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

But I say unto you which heare, Loue your enemie, doe well to them which hate you.

And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to take thy coat also.
30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 But if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

36 Be ye merciful, even as your Father is merciful.

37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

38 Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake also a parable unto them, Can the blind guide the blind? shall they not both fall into a pit?

40 The disciple is not above his master: but every one when he is perfect shall be as his master.

41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother’s eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Or how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me cast out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou seest the beam in thine own eye?
38 Giue, and it shalbe giuen vnto you: a good measure, pressed downe, shaken together and running ouer shall men giue into your bosome: for with what measure ye mete, with the same shall men mete to you againe.

39 And he speake a parable vnto them, Can the blinde leade the blinde? shall they not both fall into the ditches?

43 For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

that built a house upon the earth without a foundation; against which the stream brake, and straightway it fell in; and the ruin of that house was great.

After he had ended all his sayings in the ears of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard concerning Jesus, he sent unto him elders of the Jews, asking him that he would come and save his servant.

4 And they, when they came to Jesus, besought him earnestly, saying, He is worthy that thou shouldest do this for him:

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

And heal his servant.

And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. {one: Gr. this man}

Wherefore I thought not myself worthy to come vnto thee: but say the word, and my seruant shall be whole:

For I likewise am a man set vnder authoritie, and haue vnder mee soldiours, and I say vnto one, Goe, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and bee cometh: and to my seruant, Doe this, and hee doeth it.

When Jesus heard these things, he marueled at him, and turned him about, and said to the people, that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, there was carried out one that was dead, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

And he gave him to his mother.

And fear took hold on all: and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet is arisen among us: and, God hath visited his people.

And this report went forth concerning him in the 21 And he that was dead, sate up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he bestowed sight.

14 And he went and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. (bier: or, coffin)

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

12 Nowe when hee came neere to the gate of the city, went with him, and a great multitude.

11 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said vnto her, Weepe not.

10 And he answered and said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have good tidings preached to them.

9 And John calling unto him two of his disciples, and sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we wait for another?

8 And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

7 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judaea, and throughout all the region round about.

6 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is risen among them.

5 Then there came a feare on them all, and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen among them.

4 In that same hour he cured many of their diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and on many that were blind he bestowed sight.

3 And he delivered him to his mother.

2 In that hour he cured many of their diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and on many that were blind he bestowed sight.

1 And he answered and said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have good tidings preached to them.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall find none occasion of stumbling in me.

24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken with the wind?

Art thou he that should come, or shall we wait for another?
1 And at that time, he cured many of their sicknesses, and plagues, and of euill spirites, and vnto many blinde men he gaue sight frely.
22 And Jesus answered, and saide vnto them, Goe your wayes and shewe Iohn, what things ye haue seene and heard: that the blinde see, the halt goe, the lepers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead are raised, and the poore receiue the Gospel.
23 And blessed is he, that shall not be offended in me.
24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, hee began to speake vnto the people, concerning Iohn.
25 But what went ye out to see? a man clothed in soft rayment? beholde, they which are gorgeously appareld, and liue delicately, are in Kings courtes.
26 But what went ye foorth to see? A Prophet? yea, I say to you, and greater then a Prophet.
27 This is he of whom it is written, Beholde, I sende my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.
28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.
29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.
30 But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected for themselves the counsel of God, being not baptized of him.
31 Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation, and to what are they like?
32 They are like unto children that sit in the marketplace, and call one to another; which say, We piped, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.
33 For John the Baptist is come eating no bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.
34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at table in the Pharises house, she brought a boxe of oynment.

40 And Jesus answered, and saide vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender which had two detters: the one ought fiue hundreth pence, and the other fiftie:

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, couereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which it seemeth that he hath.

19 Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

21 But he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word, and keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

22 Now it came to pass on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples; and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake: and they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. And he awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And being afraid they marveled, saying one to another, away the wordes out of their hearts, lest they should beleue, and be saued.

26 But they that are on the stones, are they which have heard, and after their departure are choked with cares and with riches, and voluptuous living, and bring forth no fruit.

27 But that which fell in good ground, are they which with an honest and good heart heare the wordes, and kepe it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

28 But take heed how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which it seemeth that he hath.

29 And when Jesus was come into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked of his disciples, whom men say that I am.

30 And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

31 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

32 And I say unto you, That because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

33 And as they were going in the way, Jesus took the twelves apart, and began to对他们 said, Verily I say unto you, That there be some here of you that shall not taste death, until they see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the glory of the Father.

34 And Peter answered and said unto him, Lord, art thou here to set up thy kingdom, and to fight against them that fight against us?

35 And Jesus said unto him, Get thee behind me, Simon: for thou art a Satan, and not mine: for thou shalt be adversaries unto me this day.

36 But I say unto you, That they shall not taste death, till they have seen the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the glory of the Father."
And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

And they launched forth.

Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, 22 And he answered, and said vnto them, My mother and my brethren are these which heare the worde of God, and doe it.

22 And it came to passe on a certaine day, that he went into a ship with his discipules, and he sayd vnto them, Let vs goe vnto the other side of the lake.

And they went into a ship with his disciples: and he sayd vnto them, Let vs goe vnto the other side of the lake. And they lanched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardie.

23 And as they sayled, he fell a sleepe, and there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardie.

24 Then they went to him, and awoke him, saying,

24 Then they went to him, and awoke him, saying, What manner of man is this? for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

25 Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, 25 Then he sayde vnto them, Where is your fayth? and they feared, and wondered among them selues, saying, Who is this that commandeth both the windes and water, and they obey him?

26 So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Galile.

26 So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galile.

27 And when he was come forth upon the land, there met him a certaine man out of the citie, which had deuils long time, and wore no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombes.

27 And when he went out to land, there met him a man out of the city, which had devils long time, and went no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

Who then is this, that he commandeth even the winds and the water, and they obey him?

28 And when he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I beseech thee, torment me not.

28 And when he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were in jeopardy.

29 For he commanded the unclean spirit to come out from the man. For oftentimes it had seized him:

29 For he commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had seized him:

30 And it was tolde him by certaine which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, and would see thee.

30 And Jesus asked him, What is thy name? And he said, Legion; for many devils were entered into him.

31 And they entreated him that he would not com

30 But he answered, and sayd vnto them, My mother and my brethren are these which heare the worde of God, and doe it.

31 And they entreated him that he would not come into the abyss.

32 And he answered, and sayd vnto them, My mother and my brethren are these which heare the word of God, and would see thee.

32 And they entreated him that he would not come into the abyss.

33 And the devil came out from the man, and could not come neere to him for the preasse.

33 But the devils came out from the man, and gave them leave.
And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and behold, there came a man named Jairus, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had taught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on an hill: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they tolde it in the city and in the country.

35 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

36 And they that saw it told them how he that was possessed with devils was made whole.

37 And all the people of the country of the Gerasenes round about asked him to depart from them; for they were holden with great fear: and he entered into a boat, and returned.

38 But the man from whom the devils were gone out prayed him that he might be with him: but he sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thy house, and declare how great things God hath done for thee. And he went his way, publishing throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done for him.

40 And as Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed him; for they were all waiting for him.

41 And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into the lake, and were choked.

42 For I saw thee, O Son of God most high, I beseech thee, torment me not.
he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus’ feet, and besought him that he would come into his house.

43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, had no remedy: but when she came to Jesus, fell down at his feet, and besought him that he would have compassion on her.

44 And it came to pass, when Jesus was come nigh to the gate of Gadara, two dumb devils came out of the man, and went into the herd of swine: and the herd rushed over a precipice into the sea, and perished:

45 And when they that were by the sea saw what was done, they said, Surely it is a great prophet that cometh out of Judea. And the multitude sought to know of him, whether he would come into their city.

46 And when Jesus was come into Peter’s house, Jesus saw the multitude gathered together, and said to Peter, What think ye of the multitude that is come to see thee? Who is it that hath sent them?

47 And Peter answered, Master, the multitudes press thee and crush thee, and thou bearest with them.

48 But Jesus said to him, Man, the multitudes press thee and crush thee: for I have inward power that none can withstand; and I was sent for this.
is dead; trouble not the Master.
50 But Jesus hearing it, answered him, Fear not: only believe, and she shall be made whole.
51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to enter in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.
52 And all were weeping, and bewailing her: but he said, Weep not; for she is not dead, but sleepeoth.
53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.
54 But he, taking her by the hand, called, saying, Maiden, arise.
55 And her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately: and he commanded that something be given her to eat.
56 And her parents were amazed: but he charged them to tell no man what had been done.
not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them forth to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, nor money; neither have two coats apiece.

Συνκαλεσάμενος δὲ τοὺς δώδεκα ἔδωκεν αὐτοῖς δύναμιν καὶ ἐξουσίαν ἐπὶ πάντα τὰ δαιμόνια καὶ νόσους θεραπεύειν,

2 καὶ ἀπέστειλεν αὐτοὺς κηρύσσειν τὴν βασιλείαν τοῦ θεοῦ καὶ ἰᾶσθαι,

3 καὶ εἶπεν πρὸς αὐτούς• μηδὲν αἴρετε εἰς τὴν ὁδόν, μήτε ῥάβδον μήτε πήραν μήτε ἄρτον μήτε ἀργύριον, μήτε ἀνὰ δύο χιτῶνας ἔχειν.

4 καὶ εἰς ἣν ἂν οἰκίαν εἰσέλθητε, ἐκεῖ μένετε καὶ ἐκεῖθεν ἐξέρχεσθε.

5 καὶ ὅσοι ἂν μὴ δέχωνται ὑμᾶς, ἐξερχόμενοι ἀπὸ τῆς πόλεως ἐκείνης καὶ τὸν κονιορτὸν ἀπὸ τῶν ποδῶν ὑμῶν ἀποτινάσσετε εἰς μαρτύριον ἐπ᾽ αὐτούς.

6 ἐξερχόμενοι δὲ διήρχοντο κατὰ τὰς κώμας εὐαγγελίζομεν καὶ θεραπεύομεν πανταχοῦ.

7 Ηὔκουσεν δὲ Ἡρώδης ὁ τετραάρχης τὰ γινόμενα πάντα, καὶ διηπόρει διὰ τὸ λέγεσθαι ὑπό τινων ὅτι Ἰωάννης ἠγέρθη ἐκ νεκρῶν, 8 καὶ ὑπό τινων ὅτι Ἡλείας ἐφάνη, καὶ ὑπό τινων ὅτι προφήτης τις τῶν ἀρχαίων ἀνέστη.

9 καὶ Ἡρώδης εἶπεν• Ἰωάννης ἐγὼ ἀπεκεφάλισα• τίς δέ ἐστιν οὗτος περὶ οὗ ἀκούω τοιαῦτα; καὶ ἐζήτει ἰδεῖν αὐτὸν.

10 Ἀποστολικοὶ, διὰ τὸν χρόνον ἐγέρθη ὑπὸ τῶν νεκρῶν, καὶ παραλαβόν τοὺς ὑπεχώρησαν κατ᾽ ἱδίαν εἰς πόλιν καλουμένην
4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimonio against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared: and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 Then Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 And when the Apostles returned, they tolde him what great things they had done. Then he tooke them to him, and went aside into a solitarie place, neere to the citie called Bethsaida.

11 But when the people knew it, they followed him: and he receiued them, and spake vnto them of the kingdome of God, and healed them that had neede to be healed.

12 And when the day began to weare away, the tweleue came, and sayd vnto him, Sende the people away, that they may goe into the townes and villages round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are wearie.

Bethsaida.

11 But the multitudes perceiving it followed him: and he welcomed them, and spake to them of the kingdom of God, and them that had need of healing he healed.

12 And the day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more than five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy food for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said unto his disciples, Make them sit down in companies, about fifty each.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake; and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up that which remained over to them of broken pieces, twelve baskets.

18 And it came to pass, as he was praying alone, the multitudes perceived it, followed him: and he welcomed them, and spake to them of the kingdome of God, and them that had need of healing he healed.

19 Then Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

κατὰ μόνας συνῆσαν αὐτῷ οἱ μαθηταί, καὶ ἐγένετο ἐν τῷ εἶναι αὐτὸν προσευχόμενον ἐποίησαν οὕτως καὶ κατέκλιναν ἅπαντας.

οἱ δὲ εἶπαν. οὐκ εἰσίν ἡμῖν πλεῖον ἢ ἄρτοι πέντε καὶ δύο κλίσιας ἀνὰ πεντήκοντα.

ὁ δὲ ἡμέρα ἤρξατο κλίνειν• προσελθόντες δὲ οἱ δώδεκα εἶπαν αὐτῷ• κατακλίνατε αὐτοὺς καὶ κατέκλασεν, καὶ ἐδίδου τοῖς μαθηταῖς αὐτοῖς φαγεῖν ὑμεῖς.
13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the multitudes say that I am?

19 They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

21 But he charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.

23 And he said unto all, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever would save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man profited, if he gain the whole world, and lose or forfeit his own self?

26 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in his own glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels.

27 But I tell you of a truth, There be some of them that stand here, which shall in no wise taste of death, things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

For whoever shall be ashamed of me and of my sayings, he shall be ashamed of the Son of Man when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father’s, and of the holy angels.

But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

And I tell you of a suretie, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God.

And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

As he was praying, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

And when the voice came, Jesus was found is my Son, my chosen: hear ye him.

And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my Son, my chosen: hear ye him.

And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my Son, my chosen: hear ye him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.
41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.
42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him to his father.
43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God: But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.
45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.
46 Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.
47 When Iesus saw the thoughtes of their heartes, he tooke a litle childe, and set him by him, 48 and said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same is great.
49 And John answered and said, Master, we saw one Casting out devils in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.
50 But Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against you is for you.
51 And it came to pass, when the days were well-nigh come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem,
52 and sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.
53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he were going to Jerusalem.
54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we bid fire to come down from heaven, and consume them?

he is all that I haue.
39 And loe, a spirit taketh him, and suddenly he crieth, and he teareth him, that he fometh, and hardly departeth from him, when he hath bruised him.
40 Nowe I haue besought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.
41 Then Iesus answered, and said, O generation faithlesse, and crooked, howe long now shall I be with you, and suffer you? bring thy sonne hither.
42 And whiles he was yet comming, the deviull rent him, and tare him: and Iesus rebuked the vnclene spirite, and healed the childe, and deliered him to his father.
43 And they were all amazed at the mightie power of God: and while they all wondered at al things, which Iesus did, he said vnto his disciples, 44 Marke these wordes diligently: for it shall come to passe, that the Sonne of man shalbe deliered into the handes of men.
45 But they vnderstood not that word: for it was hid from them, so that they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aske him of that worde.
46 Then there arose a disputation among them, which of them should be the greatest.
47 When Iesus sawe the thoughtes of their heartes, he tooke a little childe, and set him by him, 48 and said vnto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same is great.
53 And he said unto them, Whosoever receieth this little childe in my Name, receieth me: and whosoever shall receieth me, receieth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, he shall be great.

54 And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy Name, and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.

55 Then Jesus saide vnto him, Forbid ye him not: for he that is not against vs, is with vs.

56 And it came to passe, when the days were accomplished, that he should be received vp, he setted himselfe fully to goe to Hierusalem, 57 And sent messengers before his face: and they went and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

58 But they would not receiue him, because his face was, as though he would go to Hierusalem.

59 And when his disciples, Iames and Iohn sawe this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we commaund, that fire come downe from heauen, and consume them, euen as Elias did?

60 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye knowe not of what spirit ye are.

61 For the Sonne of man is not come to destroy mens liues, but to save them. Then they went to another village.

55 But he turned, and rebuked them.

56 And they went to another village.

57 And as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 But he said unto him, Leave the dead to bury their own dead; but go thou and publish abroad the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, I will follow thee, Lord; but first suffer me to bid farewell to them that are at my house.

62 But Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.
Now after these things the Lord appointed other seventy others, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 And he said unto them, The harvest is plenteous, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs in the midst of wolves.

4 Carry no purse, no wallet, no shoes: and salute no man on the way.

5 And into whatsoever house ye shall enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon him: but if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in that same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: 9 and heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye shall enter, and they receive you not, go out into the streets thereof and say,
Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way.

And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: and if the son of peace be there, your peace shall be to that house.

But into whatsoever city ye enter, if they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, The kingdom of God is come neere vnto you.

But into whatsoever city ye shall enter, if they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall be to this house.

And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh.

Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on vs of you, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh.

Even the dust from your city, that cleaveth to our feet, we do wipe off against you: howbeit knowe this, that the kingdome of God was come neere vnto you.

Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

Beare no bagge, neither scrippie, nor shoes, and salute no man by the way.

And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

And if the sonne of peace be there, your peace shall rest vpon him: if not, it shall turne to you againe.

And in that house tary still, eating and drinking such things as by them shall be set before you: for the labourer is worthy of his wages. Goe not from house to house.

For I say to you, that it shall be easie in that day for them of Sodom, then for that citie.
21 In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes: yea, Father; for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight.

22 All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth who the Son is, save the Father, and who the Father is, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal him.

23 And turning to the disciples, he said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: for I say unto you, that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not.

24 And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

27 And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.

Jesus, And who is my neighbour?
30 Jesus made answer and said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho; and he fell where he was: and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion, pouring on them oil and wine; and he set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, I, when I come back again, will repay thee.

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the holy Ghost to them that ask him? And when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

23 He that is not with me is against me; and he that doeth not the works of the Father, the same is not of me. When the strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace: but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him his whole armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his goods.

24 The unclean spirit when he is gone out of the house, garneth not with me scattereth. The things that he hath left, the vultures gather unto themselves.

25 And when he is come, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more evil than himself; and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first.

26 And it came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck.

27 And it came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck. And when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

28 And it came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck.
28 But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.
29 And when the multitudes were gathering together unto him, he began to say, This generation is an evil generation: it seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the Prophet.
30 For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

29 Τῶν δὲ ὄχλων ἐπαινοῦμένων ἥρατο λέγειν· ἢ γενεὰ αὐτή γενεὰ πονηρὰ ἐστίν· σημεῖον ζητεῖ, καὶ σημεῖον οὐ δοθήσεται αὐτῇ εἰ μὴ τὸ σημεῖον Ἰωνᾶ.
30 καθὼς γὰρ ἐγένετο Ἰωνᾶς τοῖς Νινευείταις σημεῖον, οὕτως ἔσται καὶ ὁ υἱὸς τοῦ ἀνθρώπου τῇ γενεᾷ ταύτῃ.
31 βασιλεύσα νότην ἐνεργήσεται ἐν τῇ κρίσει μετὰ τὸν ἄνδρον τῆς γενεᾶς ταύτης καὶ κατακρινεῖ αὐτούς· ὅτι ἤλθεν ἐκ τῶν περάτων τῆς γῆς ἀκοῦσαι τὴν σοφίαν Σολομώνος, καὶ ἰδοὺ πλείον Σολομώνος ὤδε.
32 Ἀνδρέας Νινευείταις ἀναστήσεται ἐν τῇ κρίσει μετὰ τῆς γενεᾶς ταύτης καὶ κατακρινοῦσιν αὐτούς· ὅτι μετενόησαν εἰς τὸ κήρυγμα Ἰωνᾶ, καὶ ἰδοὺ πλείον Ἰωνᾶ ὤδε.
33 Οὐδεὶς ἔλεγεν· ἡ γένεσις τούτη ἡμεῖς πονηρὴ· ἐπὶ τὴν ἡμέραν τῆς ἁλωνίας ἡ γένεσις τούτη ἡμεῖς πονηρὴ· ἐπὶ τὴν ἡμέραν τῆς ἁλωνίας ἡ γένεσις τούτη ἡμεῖς πονηρὴ.
31 The Queen of the South shall rise in judgement, with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and beholde, a greater then Solomon is here.

32 The men of Ninue shall rise in judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and beholde, a greater then Jonas is here.

33 No man when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a priuie place, neither vnder a bushell: but on a candlesticke, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The light of the bodie is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, then is thy whole bodie light: but if thine eye be euil, then thy bodie is darke.

35 Take heed therefore, that the light which is in thee, be not darkenesse.

36 If therefore thy whole body shall be light, having no part darke, then shall all be light, euen as when a candle doth light thee with the brightnesse.

37 And as he spake, a certaine Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sate downe at table.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marueled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisayes cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter; but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness.

40 Ye foolish ones, did not he that made the outside wash before dinner.

41 Howbeit give for alms those things which are within; and behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 But woe unto you Pharisayes! for ye tithe mint and rue and every herb, and pass over judgment and the love of God: but these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 Woe unto you Pharisayes! for ye love the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces.

44 Woe unto you! for ye are as the tombs which appear not, and the men that walk over them know it not.

36 If therefore thy whole body be full of light, having no part dark, it shall be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining doth give thee light.

37 Now as he spake, a Pharisee asketh him to dine with him: and he went in, and sate down to meat.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 And as he spake, a certaine Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

40 Ye foolish ones, did not he that made the outside wash before dinner.

39 And when the Pharisees saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

42 But he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers: for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and yee yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

43 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

44 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and pass over their tombs.

45 Therefore said the wisdom of God, I will send unto them prophets and apostles; and some of them they shall kill and persecute;

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

47 Woe unto you! for ye build the tombs of the prophets, and pass over their judgments and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to have left the other undone.

48 So ye are witnesses and consent unto the works of those things which ye have, and beholde, all things shall be cleane to you.

49 Therefore, give almes of those things which you have, and ye are witnesses and consent unto the works of those things which ye have, and yee your selues touche not the burdens with one of your fingers.

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary: yea, I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation.

52 Woe unto you lawyers! for ye took away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 But there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have said in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 And I say unto you, My friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell: yea, I say unto you, Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell: yea, I say unto you, him shall the Son of man also confess before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings? and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered: fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.
And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven.

And when they shall bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

For the Holy Ghost shall teache you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

Therefore he thought with himselfe, saying, What shall I do, because I have not room where to bestow my fruits?

But he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge, or a divider ouer you?

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years, take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.
20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? {thy...: Gr. do they require thy soul}

22 And he spake vnto his discipules, Therefore I say vnto you, Take no thought for your life, what yee shall eate: neither for your body, what yee shall put on.
23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. {neither...: or,} 30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 Sell that ye have, and give alms; make for your purses, which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief draweth near, neither moth destroyeth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, 40 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

41 And Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall set over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But if that servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

37 Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord when he cometh shall finde waking: verely I say vnto you, he will girde himselfe about, and make them to sit downe at table, and will come forth, and serue them.

38 And if he come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and shall finde them so, blessed are those servants.

39 Nowe vnderstand this, that if the good man of the house had known what houre the theefe would haue come, he would haue watched, and would not haue suffered his house to be digged through.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man will come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter saide vnto him, Master, tellest thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord saide, Who is a faithfull steward and wise, whom the master shall make ruler over his householde, to giue them their portion of meate in season?

43 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master when he commeth, shall finde so doing.

44 Of a truth I say vnto you, that he wil make him ruler ouer all that he hath.

45 But if that seruant say in his heart, My master wole not come.
46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. {cut... or, cut him off}

47 And that servant, which knew his lord’s will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much; and to whom men have committed much, of him they will require: and to whom they commit much, of him shall much be required: and to whom much is given, of him shall much be required: and to whom much is committed, the more of him will they ask.

49 And he said to the multitudes also, When ye see a cloud rising up out of the west, then straightway ye know that a great rain is nigh.

50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! {straitened: or, grieved}

51 Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division: for from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

52 And that servant which knew his masters will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the father against the son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother in law against her daughter in law, and daughter in law against her mother in law.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

11 And behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years; and she was bowed together, and could in no wise lift herself up.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and finde none: cut it down: why cumbereth it this tree, and finde none: cut it down; why cumbereth it also the ground?

5 I tell you, nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or think ye that those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners aboue all men that dwel in Hierusalem?

3 I tell you, nay: but except ye amend your lies, ye shall all likewise perish.

2 And he answered them again, saying, Are the servants of God more righteous than sinners?

1 Now when he had finished these sayings, he told a similitude, saying:
said to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thy disease. And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus healed on the Sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day. Then answered him the Lord, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God? It is like unto leaven, which a woman took and cast into his own garden; and it grew, and became a tree; and the birds of the heaven were ashamed: but all the people rejoiced at all the glorious things that were done by him. And as he said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him. And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, loe, eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day? Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it? But the Lord answered him, and said, Ye hypocrites, doth not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced at all the excellent things, that were done by him. And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound, lo, eighteen yeeres, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day? And then he said, What is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I compare it? And when he said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: but all the people rejoiced at all the excellent things, that were done by him. And when the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath day, answered and said to the multitude, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the day of the sabbath. And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.
23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When the good man of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are:
26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.
27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.
28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.
29 And they shall come from the east and the west, and from the north and south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.
30 And behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.
31 In that very hour there came certain Pharisees,

22 And he went through all cities and townes, teaching, and journeying towards Hierusalem.
23 Then saide one vnto him, Lord, are there fewe that shalbe saved? And he said vnto them,

And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.

And it came to pass, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, there were sitting at the table with him the chief Pharisees.

And he said unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath, or not?

4 But they held their peace. And he took him, and went away from them.

And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, there were sitting at the table with him the chief Pharisees.

31 The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, and said vnto him, Depart, and goe hence: for Herod will kill thee.

32 Then said he vnto them, Goe ye and tell that foxe, Beholde, I cast out oudeil, and will heale stille to day, and to morowe, and the third day I shalbe perfected.

33 Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a Prophet should perish out of Hierusalem.

34 O Hierusalem, Hierusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonesth them that are sent to thee, howe often would I haue gathered thy children together, as the henne gathereth her brood vnder her wings, and ye would not!

35 Beholde, your house is left vnto you desolate: and verely I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until ye shall say, Blessed is he that commeth in the name of the Lord.

36 And it came to passe that when he was entred into the house of one of the chiefe Pharises on the Sab-
2 And beholde, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsie.

3 And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. Then he tooke him, and healed him, and let him goe,

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and wil not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not answere again unto these things.

7 He spake also a parable to the ghestes, when he marked howe they chose out the chiefe roome, and said vnto them,

8 When thou shalt be bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not downe in the chiefest place, lest a more honourable man then thou, be bidden of him,

9 And he that bade both him and thee, come, and say to thee, Giue this man roome, and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest roome.

10 But when thou art bidden, goe and sit downe in the lowest roome, that when he that bade thee, may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at thine head day, to eate bread, they watched him.
Then said he also to him that had hidden him,
When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, and thy brethren neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours;
lest they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee.

1. But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, and the blind:

2. And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now ready.

3. Then said he to him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

4. And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

5. Then said he also to him that had bidden him, When thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, and the blind:

6. And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a field, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

7. And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

8. And another said, I have married a wife, and I cannot come.

9. And another said, I have bought a piece of land, and I go to see it: I pray thee have me excused.

10. And another said, I have taken five yoke of vineyard, and I go to plough them: I pray thee have me excused.

11. Then sent he his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

12. And they all with one consent began to make excuse.

13. But when thou makest a feast, call them which are bidden to the marriage feast, and bid them as many as thou eatest bread in the kingdom of God.

14. And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed in the resurrection of the just.

15. And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16. Then said he unto them, Which of you, when he hath a friend to a feast, will not bid him enter in to the feast?

17. And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

18. And another said, I have bought a piece of land, and I go to see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19. And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

20. And sent his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and call the poor, the maimed, the lame, and the blind,

21. And the servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and call the poor, the maimed, the lame, and the blind,

22. And the servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and call the poor, the maimed, the lame, and the blind,
And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee, have me excused.

And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee, have me excused.

And one of the servants said unto him, Lord, what thou biddest, I am not able to finish.

And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee, have me excused.

For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

Nowe there went great multitudes with him, and he turned and said vnto them,

Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.

Now all the publicans and sinners were drawing near unto him for to hear him.

2 And both the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 And he spake unto them this parable, saying, 4 What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? 5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and his neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost.

11 And he said, A certain man had two sons:
12 and the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of thy substance that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country; and there he wasted his substance with riotous living.
11 And he sayde moreouer, A certaine man had two sonnes.

12 And the younger of them sayde to his father, Father, give mee the portion of the goods that falleth to me. So he deuided vnto them his substance.

13 So not many daies after, when the younger sonne had gathered all together, hee tooke his journey into a farre countrey, and there hee wasted his goods with riotous lying.

14 Nowe when hee had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and hee began to be in necessitie.

15 Then hee went and claue to a citizen of that countrey, and hee sent him to his farme, to feede swine.

16 And hee would faine haue filled his bellie with the huskes, that the swine ate: but no man gaue them unto him.

17 Then he came to him selfe, and said, Howe many hired seruaunts at my fathers haue bread ynough, and to spare, and I perish here with hunger!

18 I will arise and goe to my father, and say vnto him,
Father, I haue sinned against heaue, and before thee, and I die for hunger?

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired seruants.

20 So hee arose and came to his father, and when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: I am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 But when he came to himselfe he said, How many necessitie.

18 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

19 I am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired seruants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But while he was yet afar off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: I am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:
23 And bring the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, and make merry:
24 for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.
25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing.
26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.
27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.
28 But he was angry, and would not go in: and his father came out, and entreated him.
29 But he answered and said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, and I never transgressed a commandment of thine: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:
30 but when this thy son came, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou killedst for him the fat fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that is mine is thine.
32 But it was meet to make merry and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.
I at any time thy commendation, and yet thou never gavest mee a kidde that I might make merie with my friends.

And he said also unto his masters, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him, that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, What is this that I hear of thee? give an account of thy stewardship. I cannot dig, and to begge I am ashamed.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I doe, seeing that my master taketh away the stewardship? I cannot dig; to begge I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord’s debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, A hundred measures of oil. And he said to the second, How much owest thou?

7 And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. He said unto him, Take thy bond, and sit down quickly and write fifty.

8 And his lord commended the unrighteous steward because he had done wisely: for the sons of this world are for their own generation wiser than the sons of the light.

And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, What is this that I hear of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to begge I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 Then called he vnto him euery one of his masters

Τὸν μαμωνᾶ τῆς ἀδικίας, ἵνα ὅταν ἐκλίπῃ δέξωνται ἑαυτοῖς ποιήσατε φίλους ἐκ τοὺς οἴκους ἑαυτῶν.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends by means of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? {mammon: or, riches}

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other: or else he will hate the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

18 And the Lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely. Wherefore the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

19 For it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, and the least measure of oil that is in the original containeth about fourteen bushels and two quarts {measures: the word Eodos in the A.D.O.T.}

from the rich man’s table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham’s bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father’s house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one come vnto them from the dead, they will amend:

31 If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, if one rise from the dead.
And he said unto his disciples, It is impossible that occasions of stumbling should come: but woe unto him, through whom they come!

2 It was well for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 Take heede to your selues: if thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he sin against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye would say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But who is it also of you, that having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come in from the field, Come straightway and sit down to meat;

8 and will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

And he said unto them, Nay, father Abraham: but if one rose from the dead, they will repent.

Then said he unto his disciples, It is impossible that but that offences will come, but wo be to him by whom they come.

2 It is better for him that a great milstone were hanged about his neck, and that he was cast into ye sea, then that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 Take heede to your selues: if thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him: and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And though he sinne against thee seuen times in a day, and seuen times turne againe to thee, saying, It repenteth mee, thou shalt forgiue him.

5 And the Apostles saide vnto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith, as much as is a graine of mustard seede, and shoule say vnto this mulberie tree, Plucke thy selfe vp by the rootes, and plant thy selfe in the sea, it should euen obey you.

7 Who is it also of you, that having a servant plow-
9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.
10 Even so ye also, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.
11 And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.
12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off:
13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.
14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go, shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.
15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, 16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.
17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?
18 Were there none found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger?
19 And he said unto him, Arise, and go thy way: thy faith hath saved thee.
29 But in the day that Lot went out from Sodom, they planted, they builded; 30 Likewise even as it came to pass in the days of Lot.

26 And as it was in the days of Noah, even so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. 27 They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. 28 Likewise even as it came to pass in the days of Lot; they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; 29 but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom, they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

20 And being asked by the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: 21 neither shall they say, Lo here! or, There! for, lo, the kingdom of God is within you. 22 And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it. 23 And they shall say to you, Behold, the kingdom of God is within you. 24 For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

25 But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation. 26 And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. 27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.
entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;

But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

Remember Lot's wife.

Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

I say unto you, In that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

Two shall be in the field; one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

And they answering say unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Where the body is, thither will the eagles also be gathered together.

And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be in the days of the Sonne of man.

They ate, they drank, they married wives, and gave in marriage unto the day that Noe went into the Arke: and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

Likewise also, as it was in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they solde, they planted, they builded.

But in the day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all.

After these enamples shall it be in the day when the Sonne of man is reveiled.

At that day hee that is upon the house, and his stufte in ye house, let him not come downe to take it out: and he that is in the fielde likewise, let him not turne backe to that he left behinde.

Remember Lots wife.

Whosoever will seek to save his soule, shall loose it: and whosoever shall loose it, shall get it life.

I say unto you, in that night there shall be two in one bed: the one shall be receiued, and the other shalbe left.

There shall be two women grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

And they answered and said unto him, Where,
And he spake also a parable unto them, to this end, that they ought always to pray, and not to wax faint,

2 Saying, There was a judge in a certain city, which feared not God, neither revereeced man.

3 And there was a widow in that city, which came vnto him, saying, Doe mee iustice against mine adversarie.

4 And he would not of a long time: but afterward he said with himself, Though I fear not God, nor reuerence man,

5 Yet because this widow troubleth mee, I will doe her right, lest at the last shee come and make me wearie.

6 And the Lord said, Heare what the vnrighteous judge saith.

7 Now shall not God auenge his elect, which cry day and night vnto him, yea, though he suffer long with them?

8 I tell you that he will auenge them speedily.

9 And he spake also this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and set all others at nought:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with him:-

37 And they answered, and saide to him, Where, Lord? And he said vnto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither shall also the eagles bee gathered together.
9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: {that... or, as being righteous}

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 And they brought unto him also babes, that he should touch them. And when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, saying, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no telónhs.

11 οὐδεὶς ἀγαθὸς εἰ μὴ εἷς θεός.

19 εἶπεν δὲ αὐτῷ ὁ Ἰησοῦς• τί με λέγεις ἀγαθόν; none is good, save one, even God.

10 Two men went vp into the Temple to pray: the one a Pharisee, and the other a Publician.

11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, O God, I thank thee that I am not as other men, extortioners, vniust, adulterers, or euen as this Publician.

12 I fast twise in the weeke: I giue tithe of all that euer I possesse.

13 But the Publican standing a farre off, would not lift vp so much as his eyes to heauen, but smote his brest, saying, O God, be mercifull to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man departed to his house justified, rather then the other: for euery man that exalteth himselfe, shall be brought lowe, and he that humbleth himselfe, shaile exalted.

15 They brought vnto him also babes that he should touche them. And when his disciples sawe it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them vnto him, and said, Suffer the babes to come vnto mee, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdome of God.

11 ο Φαρισαῖος σταθεὶς ταῦτα προσηύχετο• ὁ θεός, εὐχαριστοῦ σοι ὅτι οὐκ εἰμὶ ὡσπερ οἱ λοιποὶ τῶν ἄνθρωπον ἄρπαγες, ἄδικοι, μοιχοὶ, ἢ καὶ ὡς οὗτος ὁ τελὼνς•

10 ο Φαρισαῖος σταθεὶς ταῦτα προσηύχετο• ὁ θεός, εὐχαριστοῦ σοι ὅτι οὐκ εἰμὶ ὥσπερ οἱ λοιποὶ τῶν ἄνθρωπον ἄρπαγες, ἄδικοι, μοιχοὶ, ἢ καὶ ὡς οὗτος ὁ τελὼνς•

11 ο Φαρισαῖος σταθεὶς ταῦτα προσηύχετο• ὁ θεός, εὐχαριστοῦ σοι ὅτι οὐκ εἰμὶ ὥσπερ οἱ λοιποὶ τῶν ἄνθρωπον ἄρπαγες, ἄδικοι, μοιχοὶ, ἢ καὶ ὡς οὗτος ὁ τελὼνς•

12 νηστεύω δὶς τοῦ σαββάτου, ἀποδεκατεύω πάντα ὅσα κτῶμαι.

13 ὁ δὲ τελώνης μακρόθεν ἑστὼς οὐκ ἤθελεν τοὺς ὀφθαλμοὺς ἐπᾶραι εἰς τὸν οὐρανόν, ἀλλ᾽ ἐτυπτεν τὸ στῆθος αὐτοῦ λέγων• ὁ θεός, ἱλάσθητί ὑμῖν, ὅτι ἐστιν ἡμῶν τῶν ἄγαθων, ὅτι ἐστὶν ἡμῶν τῶν ἄνθρωπων ἡμῶν ὑπέρ τούτων, ἢ γὰρ ἐστίν ἡμῶν τῶν ἄνθρωπων τὸ σωτηρίου τοῦ θανάτου χρείαν ἂν ἔχωμεν.
17 Verily I say vnto you, whosoeuer receiue not the kingdom of God as a babe, he shall not enter therein.

18 Then a certayne ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what ought I to doe, to inherite eternall life?

19 And Jesus said vnto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, saue one, euin God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, Thou shalt not commit adulterie: Thou shalt not steal: Thou shalt not beare false witness: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he saide, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Nowe when Jesus heard that, he saide vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing. Sell all that euer thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt have treasure in heauen, and come follow mee.

23 But when he heard those things, he was very heauie: for he was maruellous riche.

24 And when Jesus sawe him very sorowfull, he said, With what difficultie shall they that haue riches, enter into the kingdome of God!

25 Surely it is easier for a camel to go through a needles eye, then for a riche man to enter into the kingdome of God.

26 Then said they that heard it, And who then can mit adulterie, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and mother.

21 And he said, All these things have I observed from my youth.

22 And when Jesus heard it, he said unto him, One thing thou lackest yet: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 But when he heard these things, he became exceeding sorrowful; for he was very rich.

24 And Jesus seeing him said, How hardly shall they that haue riches enter into the kyngeidom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.
28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and fol-owed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you,

There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God’s sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spit upon:

33 And when they have scourged him, they will put him to death: but the third day he shall rise again.

34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 And it came to pass, as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth pas-and in the world to come eternal life.

31 And he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written by the prophets shall be accomplished unto the Son of man.

32 For he shall be delivered up unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shamefully entreated, and spit upon:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death:
and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And they understood none of these things; and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things that were said.

35 And it came to pass, as he drew nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:

36 And hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.

39 And they that went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he be saued?

27 And he said, The things which are vnpossible with men, are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Loe, we haue left all, and haue followed thee.

29 And he said vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children for the kin dome of Gods sake,

30 Which shall not receive much more in this world, and in the world to come life everlast ing.

31 Then Iesus tooke vnto him ye twel ye, and said vnto them, Beholde, we goe vp to Hierusalem, and all things shalbe fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are writtn by the Prophets.

32 For he shall be deliuered unto the Gentiles, and shalbe mocked, and shalbe spitefully entreated, and shalbe spittet on.

33 And when they haue scourged him, they will put him to death: but the thirde day hee shall rise again.

34 But they vnderstood none of these things, and this saying was hidde from them, neither perceiued they the things, which were spoken.

35 And it came to passe, that as he was come neere vnto Iericho, a certayne blinde man sate by the way side, begging.

36 For he shall be deliuered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shalbe spittefully entreated, and shalbe spitten on.

37 And when they haue scourged him, they will put him to death: but the third day hee shall rise again.

39 And they that went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he

And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the crowd, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran on before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and said unto him, Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for today I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, He is gone in to lodge with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zaccheus stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have wrongfully exacted aught of any man, I will give it again.

9 And Jesus said unto him, Today is salvation come to this house, because he also is a prophet.

10 For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost.

36 And when he heard the people passe by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they said vnto him, that Iesus of Nazareth passed by.

38 Then he cried, saying, Iesus the Sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that he should holde his peace, but he cried much more, O Sone of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be brought vnto him. And when he was come neere, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said vnto him, Receiue thy sight: thy faith hath saued thee.

43 Then immediatly he receiued his sight, and followed him, praysing God: and all the people, when they sawe this, gaue praise to God.
4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him; for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zaccheus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying,
That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zaccheus stood, and said unto the Lord;
Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

9 Then Jesus said to him, This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to restore fourfold.

13 And he called ten servants of his, and gave them ten pounds, and said unto them, Trade ye herewith till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent an ambas-sage after him, saying, We will not that this man reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, when he was come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these servants, unto whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by trading.

16 And the first came before him, saying, Lord, thy pound hath made ten pounds more.

17 And when all they saw it, they murmured, saying, that he was gone in to lodge with a sinfull man.

18 And Zaccheus stood forth, and said vnto the Lord, Beholde, Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken from any man by forged cauillation, I restore him foure folde.

19 Then Jesus said to him, This day is salvation come vnto this house, forasmuch as hee is also become the sonne of Abraham.

20 For the Sonne of man is come to secke, and to saue that which was lost.

21 And whiles they heard these thinges, hee continued and spake a parable, because hee was neere to Hierusalem, and because also they thought that the kingdom of God should shortly appeare.

22 He saide therefore, A certaine noble man went into a far countrie to receiue for himselfe a kingdome, and to
"spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because also they thought that the kingdom of God should shortly appear.

23 And he called his servants, and gave them money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by trading.

24 And the first came before him, saying, Lord, thy pound hath made ten pounds more.
17 And he said unto him, Well done, thou good servant: because thou hast done what was faithful and just; thou hast received that for which thou wast sent. And I say unto thee, be thou over five cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound has gained five pieces.

19 And the same said, Be thou also ruler over five cities. For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a straight man: thou takest vp, that thou layedst not downe, and reapest that thou didst not sow; and reaping that I did not sowe.

22 He saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I am an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sowe;

23 Then wherefore gavest thou not my money into the bank, and I at my coming should have required it of thee with interest?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take away from him the pound, and give it unto him that hath ten pounds.

25 And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.

26 I say unto you, that unto every one that hath shall be given; but from him that hath not, even that which is called a straight man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow; and reaping that I did not sowe.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And shall make thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 He went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

And it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple, and preaching the gospel, there came upon him the chief priests and the scribes with the elders;

2 and they spake, saying unto him, Tell us: By what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I also will ask you a question; and tell me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why did ye not believe him?

6 But if we shall say, From men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they knew not whence it was.
he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,
2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

ask you one thing; and answer me:

7 Therefore they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.
8 Then Jesus sayd vnto them, Neither tell I you, by 9 Then began he to speake to ye people this parable,

A certaine man planted a vineyarde, and let it forth to husbandmen: and went into a strange countrey, for a long time.
10 And at the season he sent a servant to the hus-bandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

the Gospel, the hic Priests and the Scribes came upon him with the Elders, thoritie thou doest these things, or who is hee that hath giuen thee this authoritie?

ask you one thing; tell me therefore:

we shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then a servant, that they should give him of the fruit of the wounded, and cast him forth.

13 And the lord of the vineyard said, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him.
14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reaoned one with another, saying, This is the heir: let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.
15 And they cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

and will give the vineyard unto others. And when 25 And he said unto them, Then render unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's: and render unto me the things which are mine.

26 And they were not able to catch him of any speaking, either by reason of the multitude, or because they were afraid of the people; for they knew that these words had proceeded out of the authority. Then desisting from him they marvelled one at another, saying, This is a good saying.

27 And he said to them, What man is this? to what law and to what authority does he teach? for he is not spoken of, save as concerning Moses, and as concerning the prophets; and that he is spoken of as the Christ.

28 And when the chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on him in that very hour; and they feared the multitude, they left off, because they knew that he had spoken this parable against them.

29 Then they sent out unto him the Pharisees and the Herodians, that they might take hold of his speech, and catch him by a snare, and bring him to an end: for they watched him, and sent forth spies, and spied upon him, saying, What shall we say? for fear they might say, We have been taken by trickery. For now they spake against him of good things; but we know what this menigth be.

30 And they came to him, and said, Speak unto us of that parable. He answered and said unto them, He that soweth good seed into the land is the Son of man.

31 The field then is the world; and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the thistle is the children of the evil one;

32 And the enemy that sowed them is the devil; and the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. As therefore the thistle is gathered, and burned in the fire; so shall it be at the end of the world.

33 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend and all them that do wicked things;

34 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then said the disciples, Behold, why doth the devil marvel? for he hath known us from our youth.

35 Jesus answered and said, Have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by the prophets, concerning the递相位的使命的？

36 And when the people sought to lay hands on him to take him, his disciples withdrew, and he escaped from them.

37 And Jesus going up into the mountain, called unto him to disciples; and when they were gathered together, his disciples and a great multitude of people, he said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall not hunger; and he that believeth in me shall not thirst.

38 But I said unto you, You have seen me, and believe not: the provisional signs that I did among the Jews, for which ye were not believing, are done to you in the presence of the Greeks.

39 For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him that sent me.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that of all that see me, they may believe on me, so that they might have eternal life in my name.

41 For God gave not the Son to be judged of the world; but of the world he gave judgment to him.

42 And all that see the Son, and believe on him, shall have eternal life: and they shall never come into judgment; but the eternal life which he hath given him is life eternal, that they might be called the children of God:

43 For that which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

44 So the Son of man came, as it was written of him, to destroy the works of the devil.

45 For he saith, I sent my beloved Son into the world, that through him, all people might live; and though he sends his beloved Son into the world, as he sent him, so do I, that he may live by him, and that he may be called the Son of man.

46 And he that believeth on the Son hath eternal life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God is on him.
19 Then the hie Priests, and the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should faine themselves just men, to take him in his talke, and to deliver him vnto the power and authoritie of the goernour.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest, and teachest right, neither doest thou accept mans person, but teachest the way of God truely.

22 Is it lawfull for us to giue Cesar tribute or no? They answered, and sayd vnto them, Why tempt ye me?

23 But he perceived their craftines, and said vnto his people: but they marueiled at his answere, and helde their peace.

24 Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered, and sayd, Cesars.

25 Then he sayd vnto them, Giue then vnto Cesar the things which are Cesars, and to God those which are Gods.

26 And they could not reproue his saying before the people: but they marueled at his answer, and helde their peace.

27 Then came to him certain of the Sadduces, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any the things that are Caesar’s, and unto God the things that are God’s.

26 And they were not able to take hold of the saying before the people: and they maraved at his answer, and helde their peace.

27 And there came to him certain of the Sadduces, which say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him, 28 saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, that if a man’s brother die, having a wife, and he be childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died childless;

30 and the second;

31 and the third took her; and likewise the seven

32 Afterward the woman also died.

33 In the resurrection therefore whose wife of them shall she be? for the seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus said unto them, The sons of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 but they that are accounted worthy to attain to that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 for neither can they die any more: for they are 28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto vs, If any mans brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

29 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he dyed childlesse.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seuen also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seuen had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him.

39 Then certain of the scribes answering said, Mas-

40 For they durst not any more ask him any question.

41 And he said unto them, How say they that the Christ is David’s son?

42 For David himself saith in the book of Psalms, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43  ἕως ἂν θῶ τοὺς ἐχθρούς σου ὑποπόδιον τῶν ποδῶν σου;

44  Δαυεὶδ οὖν κύριον αὐτὸν καλεῖ, καὶ πῶς αὐτοῦ υἱός ἐστιν;

45  Ἀκούοντος δὲ παντὸς τοῦ λαοῦ εἶπεν τοῖς μαθηταῖς•

46  προσέχετε ἀπὸ τῶν γραμματέων τῶν θελόντων περιπατεῖν ἐν στολαῖς καὶ φιλούντων ἀσπασμοὺς ἐν ταῖς ἁγοραῖς καὶ πρωτοκαθεδρίαις ἐν ταῖς συναγωγαῖς καὶ πρωτοκλισίαις ἐν τοῖς δείπνοις, οὗτοι λήμψονται περισσότερον κρίμα.

47  οἱ κατεσθίουσιν τὰς οἰκίας τῶν χηρῶν καὶ προφάσει μακρὰ προσεύχονται• οὕτωι λήμψονται περισσότερον κρίμα.
And he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in two mites, and she, out of her poverty, put in all that she had.

5 And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and offerings, he said,

6 As for these things, which ye behold, the days will come, in which there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

10 Then said he to them, Behold, ye shall hear of wars and tumults: these shall be the sign when these things are about to come to pass:

11 And as he beheld, he saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

And he said, Take heed that ye be not led astray: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am he; and, The time is at hand: go ye not after them.

9 And when ye shall hear of wars and tumults, be ready to bear witness: and whoso shall be taken in the snare of the law, let him depart not.

12 And ye shall hear of nations and kingdoms that shall be troubled: see that ye be not troubled: for it must needs be that all shall be fulfilled.

13 But watch ye in prayer, and pray thus, Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

16 And the Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 Seeing David called him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 Then in the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples,

46 Beware of the Scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;
3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:
4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 Nowe as some spake of the Temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,
6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.
7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what signe shall there be when these things shall come to pass?
8 And he sayd, Take heed, that ye be not deceiued: for many will come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and the time draweth neere: follow ye not them.
9 And when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not afraid: for these things must first come, but the ende followeth not by and by.
10 Then said hee vnto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:
11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.
12 Prò δὲ τούτων πάντων ἐπιβαλοῦσιν ἑφ’ ύμᾶς τὰς γείτριας αὐτῶν καὶ διώκοντον, παραδίδοντες εἰς τὰς συναγωγὰς καὶ φυλακὰς, ἀπαγομένους εἰπι βασιλεῖς καὶ ἡγεμόνας ἕνεκεν τοῦ ὄνομάτος μου•

14 ἔσται μεγάλα ἔσται.

17 καὶ θεόν ὑμῶν εἰς τὰς κυρίας ὑμῶν μὴ προμελετᾶν ἀπολογηθῆναι•
18 καὶ θρία ὑμῶν ἐκ τῆς κεφαλῆς ὑμῶν οὐ μὴ ἀπόληται•
19 ἐν τῇ ὑπομονῇ ὑμῶν κτήσασθε τὰς ψυχὰς ὑμῶν, καὶ ἐστήσεται μισοῦσθαι εἰς τὸ ὄνομά μου.

21 Then let them that are in Judæa flee unto the mountains; and let them that are in the midst of her depart out; and let not them that are in the country enter therein.

22 For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that are in the countrey, enter therein.

Then he spake to them a parable: Behold the fig tree:

great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the syna gogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name’s sake.

13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

16 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 Woe unto them that are with child, and to them that are in travail with woman; for the time is come that they that are travailing shall be in trouble, because they shall see the sons of men."
22 For these be the days of vengeance, to fulfill all things that are written.

23 But woe be to them that be with child, and to them that give suck in those days: for there shall be great distress in this land, and wrath over this people.

24 And they shall fall on the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations, and Jerusalem shall be trodden vnder foot of the Gentiles, vntill the time of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 Then there shall be signs in the sunne, and in the moone, and in the stars, and vpon the earth trouble among the nations with perplexitie: the sea and the waters shall roare.

26 And mens hearts shall fail them for feare, and for looking after those thinges which shall come on the worlde: for the powers of heauen shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Sonne of man come in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things beginne to come to passe, then looke vp, and lift vp your heades: for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable, Behold, the figge tree, and all trees, 30 When they nowe shoot forth, ye see it and know of your owne selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all things be accomplished.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

34 But take heed to yourselves, lest haply your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day come on you suddenly as a snare:

35 For so shall it come upon all them that dwell on the face of all the earth.

36 But watch ye at every season, making supplication, that ye may prevail to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

37 And every day he was teaching in the temple; and every night he went out, and lodged in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.
31 So likewise yee, when yee see these things come to passe, knowe ye that the kingdome of God is neere.
32 Verely I say vnto you, This age shall not passe, till all these things be done:
33 Heauen and earth shall passe away, but my wordes shall not passe away.
34 Take heede to your selues, lest at any time your hearts be oppressed with surfeting and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and least that day come on you at vnwares.
35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.
36 Watche therefore, and pray continually, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to passe, and that ye may stand before the Sonne of man.
37 Nowe in the day time hee taught in the Temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.
38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to heare him.
2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, and was of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covened to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude. {in the... or, without tumult}

7 Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou, that we prepare it?

10 Then he said vnto them, Beholde, when ye are entered into the citie, there shall a man meete you, bearing a pitcher of water: folowe him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And say vnto the good man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 Then he shall shewe you a great hie chamber trimmed: there make it ready.

13 So they went, and found as he had said vnto them.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the apostles with him.

15 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and said vnto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the citie, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water: folowe him into the house where he entereth in.

16 Then he said unto them, Beholde, when ye be entred into the citie, there shall a man meete you, bearing a pitcher of water: folowe him into the house where he entereth in.

20 And the cup in like manner after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood, even that which is poured out for you.

21 But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is...
And he might sift you as wheat:

Simon, Simon, behold, Satan asked to have you,

31 tribes of Israel.

30 that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom appointed unto me,

29 and I appoint unto you a kingdom, even as my Father appointed unto me, my temptations;

28 But ye are they which have continued with me in my midst of you as he that serveth.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that doth serve.

26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is the greater among you, let him become as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doeth serve.

25 and they made ready the passover.

24 And there arose also a contention among them, which of them it should be, that should do that thing.

23 Then they began to question among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

22 For the Son of man indeed goeth, as it hath been determined: but woe unto that man through whom he is betrayed!

21 But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

20 Likewise also the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

19 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and said, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves, which of them it should be, that should do this thing.

16 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man, by whom he is betrayed!

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

11 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

22 For the Son of man indeed goeth, as it hath been determined: but woe unto that man which of them it should be, that should do this thing.

21 Yet beholde, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the table.

20 Likewise also after supper he took the cup, saying, This cup is that new Testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

19 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

18 For I say vnto you, I will not drinke of the fruite of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

17 And hee took the cup, and gaue thankes, and said, Take this, and deuide it among you, which is shed for you.

16 For I say vnto you, Hencefoorth I will not eate of this Passeouer with you, before I suffer.

15 Then he saide vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eat this Passeouer with you before I suffer:

14 And when the houre was come, hee sate downe, and the twelue Apostles with him.

10 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

11 The chief priests also and scribes stood forth, and accused him vehemently.

12 And Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

15 no, nor yet Herod: for he sent him back unto us; and behold, nothing worthy of death hath been done by him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

And when they were come to the place, which is called The skull, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on the left.

And when they came unto the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on the left.

Simon of Cyrene, coming out of the field, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after him.

And as they led him away, they caught one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after him.

And as they led him away, they took him and delivered him to be crucified: and the voices of them and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

And parting his garments among them, they cast lots.

For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

The people stood beholding. And the rulers also mocked him, saying, Art not thou the Christ? save thyself, if this is the Christ of God, his chosen.

33 And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the euiul doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them: for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 The soldiery also mocked him, and came and offered him vinegar, 37 And said, If thou be the King of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.

38 And a superscription was also written ouer him, in Greeke letters, and in Latin, and in Hebrewe, THIS IS THAT KING OF THE JEWES.

39 And one of the euill doers, which were hanged, reigned him, saying, If thou be that Christ, saue others: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receiue things worthy of that we haue done: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 But the other answered and rebuked him, saying, Fearest thou not God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

43 And we indeed justly; for we receiue the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

44 And it was now about the sixth hour, and a darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour, 45 the sun’s light failing: and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit; and having said this, he gave up the ghost.

47 And when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

50 And behold, a man named Joseph, who was a councellor, a good man and a righteous man (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), followed with him from Galilee, stood afar off, seeing these things.
a man of Arimathaea, a city of the Jews, who was looking for the kingdom of God:
52 this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.
53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was hewn in stone, where never man had yet lain.

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came unto the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, while they were perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 and as they were affrighted, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 saying that the Son of man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembered his words,

9 and returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 Now they were Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James: and the other women with them told these things unto the apostles.

11 And these words appeared in their sight as idle talk; and they disbelieved them.

12 Nowe the first day of the weeke early in the morning, they came vnto the sepulchre, and brought the odours, which they had prepared, and certaine women with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre,

3 And went in, but found not the body of the Lord Iesus.

4 And it came to passe, that as they were amased thereat, beholde, two men suddenly stood by them in shining vestures.

Τῇ δὲ μιᾷ τῶν σαββάτων ὄρθρου βαθέως ἐπὶ τὸ μνῆμα ἦλθον φέρουσαι ἃ ἡτοίμασαν ἀρώματα.

2 εὗρον δὲ τὸ λιθον ἀποκεκυλισμένον ἀπὸ τοῦ μνημείου, ἐεισελθοῦσαι δὲ οὐχ εὗρον τὸ σῶμα τοῦ κυρίου Ἰησοῦ.

3 καὶ ἐγένετο ἐν τῷ ἀπορεῖσθαι αὐτὰς περὶ τούτου, καὶ ἰδοὺ ἄνδρες δύο ἐπέστησαν αὐτοῖς ἐν ἐσθῆτι ἀστραπτούσῃ• ἐμφόβων δὲ γενομένων αὐτῶν καὶ κλινουσῶν τὰ πρόσωπα εἰς τὴν γῆν εἶπαν πρὸς αὐτάς• τί ζητεῖτε τὸν ζῶντα μετὰ τῶν νεκρῶν; οὐκ ἔστιν ὧδε, ἀλλὰ ἠγέρθη. μνήσθητε ὡς ἔλαλησεν ὑμῖν ἔτι ὦν ἐν τῇ Γαλιλαίᾳ,

8 And they remembered his words,
And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

17 And he said unto them, What communications are these that ye have one with another, as ye walk?
And they stood still, looking sad.

18 And one of them, named Cleopas, answering said unto him, Dost thou alone sojourn in Jerusalem and not know the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, The things concerning Jesus of Nazare-

8 And they remembred his wordes,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and tolde all these things vnto the eleuen, and to all the remnant.

10 Now it was Mary Magdalene, and Ioanna, and Mary the mother of Iames, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their wordes seemed vnto them, as a fained thing, neither beleued they them.

12 Then arose Peter, and ran vnto the sepulchre, and

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.
31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him: and he vanished out of their sight.
32 And they said betweene themselues, Did not our heartes burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when he opened to vs the Scriptures?
33 And they rose vp the samehoure, and returned to Hierusalem, and found the Eleuen gathered to-
And when he had said this, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they still disbelieved for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here anything to eat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish.

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, These are the words, which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me.

45 Then opened he their mind, that they might understand the scriptures;

46 And he said unto them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer, and rise again from the dead the third day;

47 and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name unto all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

48 Ye are witnesses of these things.

49 And behold, I send forth the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city, until ye be clothed with power from on high.

50 And he led them out until they were over against Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

51 And he went up into a mountain, and there prayed: and sundry people came to hear, and were healed of their diseases:

52 And they spread abroad among them how he had received power from his Father. And his name spread abroad by the whole country of Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

53 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any one of them that ought of the things which he had possessed was his own; but they had all things in common.

54 And with great power gave he the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.

55 And it came to pass, as they spake, the Lord himselfe stood in the midst of them, and saide vnto them, Peace vnto you.

56 But they were terrified and affrighted, and suppose that they had seen a spirit.

57 And he saide vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do so great doutes arise in your hearts?

58 Beholde mine handes and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle me, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me haue.

59 And hee tooke it, and did eate before them.

60 And they gave him a piece of a broyled fish, and of an honie combe, 61 And he saide vnto them, These are the words, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you.

51 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he parted from them, and was carried up into heaven.
52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:
53 and were continually in the temple, blessing God.
In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 This was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

Ἐν ἀρχῇ ἦν ὁ λόγος, καὶ ὁ λόγος ἦν πρὸς τὸν θεόν, καὶ θεὸς ἦν ὁ λόγος.

2 οὗτος ἦν ἐν ἀρχῇ πρὸς τὸν θεόν.

3 πάντα δι᾽ αὐτοῦ ἐγένετο, καὶ χωρὶς αὐτοῦ ἐγένετο οὐδὲ ἐν ὁ γέγονεν

4 ἐν αὐτῷ ζωὴ ἐστιν, καὶ ἡ ζωὴ ἦν τὸ φῶς τῶν ἄνθρωπων.

5 καὶ τὸ φῶς ἐν τῇ σκοτίᾳ φαίνει, καὶ ἡ σκοτία αὐτὸ ὑπονοεῖ.

6 Ἐγένετο ἄνθρωπος, ἀπεσταλμένος παρὰ θεοῦ, ὄνομα αὐτῷ Ἰωάννης•

7 οὗτος ἦλθεν εἰς μαρτυρίαν, ἵνα μαρτυρήσῃ περὶ τοῦ φωτός, ἵνα πάντες πιστεύσωσιν δι᾽ αὐτοῦ.

8 οὐκ ἦν ἐκεῖνος τὸ φῶς, ἀλλ᾽ ἵνα μαρτυρήσῃ περὶ τοῦ φωτός.

9 Ἦν τὸ φῶς τοῦ κόσμου, καὶ ἡ σκοτία αὐτὸ ὑπονοεῖ.

10 ἐν τῷ κόσμῳ ἦν, καὶ ὁ κόσμος δι᾽ αὐτοῦ ἐγένετο, καὶ ὁ κόσμος αὐτὸν οὐκ ἔγνω.

11 εἰς τὰ ἴδια ἦλθεν, καὶ οἱ ἴδιοι αὐτὸν οὐ κατέλαβαν.

12 ὅσοι δὲ ἔλαβον αὐτὸν, ἔδωκεν αὐτοῖς ἐξουσίαν τέκνα θεοῦ γενέσθαι, τοῖς πιστεύουσιν εἰς τὸ ὄνομα αὐτοῦ.

13 οἵ οὖν εἰς αἵματον οὐδὲ ἐκ θελήματος σαρκὸς οὖν ἐκ θελήματος ἄνδρός ἄλλος ἐκ θεοῦ
And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

15 John beareth witness of him, and crieth, saying, This was he of whom I said, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 Then this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed and denied not, and said plainly, I am not that Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he said, I am not. Art thou that Prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? That we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said John to his disciples.

43 On the morrow he was minded to go forth into Galilee, and he findeth Philip: and Jesus saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter.

good wine; and when men have drunk freely, then that which is worse: thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of his signs did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 And the passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 And he found in the temple those that sold oxen, sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house a house of merchandise.

17 And the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?
18 Then answered the Jews, and said vnto him, What signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?
19 Jesus answered, and said vnto them, Destroy this Temple, and in three daies I will raise it vp againe.
20 Then said the Jews, Fourtie and sixe yeeres was this Temple a building, and wilt thou reare it vp in three daies?
21 But he spake of the temple of his bodie.
22 Assoone therefore as he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembred that hee thus sayde vnto them: and they beleeued the Scripture, and the worde which Jesus had saide.
23 Nowe when he was at Hierusalem at the Passeouer in the feast, many beleeued on his name, when they sawe his miracles which he did.
24 But Jesus did not commit him selfe vnto them, for he knew all men, 25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

There was nowe a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:
2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said vnto him, Rabbi, we knowe ye thou art a teacher come from God: for no man could do these miracles that thou doest these things?
22 ὅτε οὖν ἦγερθη ἐκ νεκρῶν, ἐμνήσθησαν οἱ μαθηταὶ αὐτοῦ ὅτι τοῦτο ἔλεγεν, καὶ ἐπίστευσαν τῷ γραφῇ καὶ τῷ λόγῳ ὃν εἶπεν ὁ Ἰησοῦς.
23 Ὡς δὲ ἦν ἐν τοῖς Ἱεροσολύμοις ἐν τῷ πάσχα ἐν τῇ ἑορτῇ, πολλοὶ ἐπίστευσαν εἰς τὸ ὄνομα αὐτοῦ, θεωροῦντες αὐτοῦ τὰ σημεῖα ἃ ἐποίει•
24 αὐτὸς δὲ Ἰησοῦς οὐκ ἐπίστευεν αὐτὸν αὐτοῖς διὰ τὸ αὐτὸν γινώσκειν πάντας,

And no man hath ascended into heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even as the Son of man which is in the heaven.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not; how shall ye believe, if I tell you heavenly things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou the teacher of Israel, and knowest not these things?

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou heardest the voice thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. {again: or, from above}

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God. {again: or, from above} which is in heaven.

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the Name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, and neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. {reproved: or, discovered}

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his

which is in heaven.

ness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

al life.

16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him.

18 He that believeth on him is not judged: he that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the judgment, that the light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

The journey, sate thus on the well: it was about the sixth hour.

7 There came a woman of Samaria to draw water. Iesus sayd vnto her, Gie me drinke.
8 For his disciples were gone away into the citie, to buy meat.
9 Then sayde the woman of Samaria vnto him, Howe is it, that thou being a lewe, askest drinke of me, which am a woman of Samaria? For the Iewes meddle not with the Samaritans.
10 Iesus answered and saide vnto her, If thou knewest that gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Gie mee drincke, thou wouldest have asked of him, and hee woulde haue giuen thee, water of life.
11 The woman saide vnto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to drawe with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that living water?
12 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?
13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again.
14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be more a thirst: but the water that I shall giue him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

Some were going to a city to buy meat.

7 And a woman of Samaria came to draw water: and Jesus saith unto her, Give me a drink.
8 (for his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)
9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which art a woman of Samaria?
10 For the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his sons, and his cattle?
13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall giue him, shall become in him a well of water springing up unto eternal life.

37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: others have laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, and they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

41 And many more believed because of his word; and they said to the woman, Nowe we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard for ourselves, and knowe that this is in deede the Saviour of the world.

42 And they said vnto the woman, Nowe we beleue, not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selues, and knowe that this is in deede that Christ the Sauiour of the world.

43 Nowe after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Jesus himselfe had testified, that a Prophet hath no honour in his owne countrey.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 He told me all that ever I did.

48 So when he came into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did there.

49 Where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

50 And from that city many of the Samaritans believed on him because of the word of the woman, who testified, and he abode there two days.

51 And many more believed because of his word; and they said to the woman, Nowe we believe, not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selues, and knowe that this is in deede the Saviour of the world.

52 And they said vnto the woman, Nowe we beleue, not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selues, and knowe that this is in deede that Christ the Sauiour of the world.

53 So two dayes after he departed thence, and went into Galile.

54 For Jesus himselfe had testified, that a Prophet hath none honour in his owne countrey.

55 And many more beleued because of his owne word.

56 42 And they said vnto the woman, Nowe we beleue, not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selues, and knowe that this is in deede that Christ the Sauiour of the world. 43 So two dayes after he departed thence, and went into Galile. 44 For Jesus himselfe had testified, that a Prophet hath none honour in his owne countrey.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Iudea into Galile, he went vnto him, and besought him that he would come downe, and heale his sonne: for he was euene ready to die.

48 Then saide Jesus vnto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye will not beleeue.

49 The ruler saith unto him, Syr, goe downe before my sonne dye.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy sonne liueth: and the man beleeued the worde that Jesus had spoken vnto him, and went his way.

51 And as he was nowe going downe, his seruants met him, and told him, saying, Thy sonne liueth.

52 Then enquired he of them the houre when he began to amend. And they said vnto him, Yesterday at the seuenth houre the feuer left him.

53 Then the father knew, that it was the same houre, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy sonne liueth: and him selfe believed, and his whole house.

54 This is againe the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Iudea into Galile.

45 Entonces, cuando llegó a Galilea, los galileos aprendieron de él, que había visto todos los acontecimientos que realizó en Jerusalén en el festival; por eso también idieron a la fiesta.

46 Entonces Jesus volvió a Cana, un pueblo de Galilea, donde había hecho agua en vino. Allí había un cierto noble hombre, cuyo hijo estaba enfermo en Capernaum.

47 Al oir que Jesús había salido de Judea a Galilea, él fue a él y le pidió que bajara y curara a su hijo; que estaba en el borde de la muerte.

48 Entonces dijo Jesús a él, a menos que veas señales y milagros, no creerás.

49 El noble había dicho a él, Señor, baja antes de que mi hijo muera.

50 Jesús dijo a él, Vete, tu hijo está vivo; y la gente creyó la palabra que Jesús le había dicho, y se fue.

51 Y mientras estaba ahora bajando, sus sirvientes le dijeron, tu hijo está vivo.

52 Entonces, preguntó a ellos cuándo comenzó a mejorar. Y dijeron a él, el sábado a la séptima hora, el fiebre se fue de él.

53 Entonces el padre supo que era la misma hora en que Jesús dijo a él, tu hijo está vivo: y él mismo creyó, y toda su casa.

54 Esto es el segundo milagro que Jesús realizó, cuando salió de Judea a Galilea.

54 Esto es el segundo milagro que Jesús realizó, cuando salió de Judea a Galilea.
After these things there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is in Jerusalem by the sheep gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the stirring of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had been thirty and eight years

6 When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And straightway the man was made whole, and took up his bed and walked. Now it was the sabbath on that day.

10 So the Jews said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath, and it is not lawful for thee to take up thy bed.

11 But he answered them, He that made me whole, liueth. And he beleued, and all his houshold.

54 This second miracle did Iesus againe, after he was come out of Iudea into Galile.

After that, there was a feast of the lewes, and Iesus went vp to Hierusalem.

2 And there is in Hierusalem by the place of the sheepe, a poole called in Ebrew Bethesda, hauing fiue porches:

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blinde, halte, and withered, wayting for the mowing of the water.

4 For an Angel went downe at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certaine man was there, which had bene diseased eight and thirtie yeres.

6 When Iesus sawe him lie, and knew that he nowe long time had bene diseased, he saide vnto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the poole: but while I am comming, another steppeth downe before me.

8 Iesus said vnto him, Rise: take vp thy bed, and Metá tauta ἤν ἡ ὥρτη τῶν Ἰουδαίων, καὶ ἀνέβη Ἰησοῦς εἰς Ἰεροσόλυμα.

2 ἦστιν δὲ ἐν τοῖς Ἱεροσολύμοις ἐπὶ τῇ προβατικῇ κολυμβήθρᾳ, τὸ λεγόμενον Ἑβραϊστὶ Βηθζαθά, πέντε στοὰς ἔχουσα.

3 ἐν ταύταις κατέκειτο πλῆθος τῶν ἀσθενούντων, τυφλῶν, χωλῶν, ξηρῶν.

4 ἦν δέ τις ἄνθρωπος ἐκεῖ τριάκοντα καὶ ὀκτὼ ἔτη ἐχὼν ἐν τῇ ἀσθενείᾳ αὐτοῦ•

6 ὁ Ἰησοῦς κατακείμενον, καὶ γνοὺς ὅτι πολὺν ἤδη χρόνον ἔχει, λέγει αὐτῷ• θέλεις ὑγιὴ γενέσθαι;

7 ἀπεκρίθη αὐτῷ ὁ ἀσθενῶν• κύριε, ἄνθρωπον οὐκ ἔχω, ἵνα ὅταν ταραχθῇ τὸ ὕδωρ βάλῃ με εἰς τὴν κολυμβήθραν• ἐν ᾧ δὲ ἔρχομαι ἐγὼ ἄλλος πρὸ ἐμοῦ καταβαίνει.

8 Ἰησοῦς λέγει αὐτῷ• ἔγειρε ἆρον τὸν κράβαττόν σου καὶ περιπάτει.

9 καὶ ἐγένετο ὑγιὴς ὁ ἄνθρωπος, καὶ ἦρεν τὸν κράβαττόν αὐτοῦ καὶ περιεπάτει• ἦν δὲ σάββατον ἐν ἐκείνῃ τῇ ἡμέρᾳ.

10 ἦσσον οὖν οἱ Ἰουδαῖοι τῷ τεθεραπευμένῳ• σάββατον ἐστιν, καὶ οὐκ ἔξεστίν σοι ἀρά τοῦ κράβαττον.

11 ἀπεκρίθη αὐτῷ• ὁ ποιήσας με ὑγιῆ, ἐκεῖνός μοι ἐλεφαντεύεται. And he beleeued, and all his houshold.
9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

10 The lewes therefore said unto him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, he said vnto me, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said vnto thee, Take vp thy bed and walke?

13 And he that was healed was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conueied himselfe away, a multitude being in that place. {a multitude...: or, from the multitude that was}

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said vnto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 The man departed, and tolde the lewes that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the lewes did persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the lewes sought the more to kill him: not onely because he had broken the Sabbath: but εἰπεν· ἄρον τὸν κραβαττόν σου καὶ περιπάτει·

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and walke.

10 The lewes therefore said unto him that was made whole, Is it the Sabbath day: it is not lawfull for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, he said vnto me, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said vnto thee, Take vp thy bed and walke?

13 And he that was healed, knewe not who it was: for Jesus had conueied himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Jesus founde him in the Temple, and said vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: sinne no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 The man departed and tolde the lewes that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the lewes did persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the lewes sought the more to kill him: not onely because he had broken the Sabbath: but ἐκπεν· ἄρον τὸν κραβαττόν σου καὶ περιπάτει· because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can doe nothing of himselfe, saue that he seeth the Father doe: for what soever things he doth, the same things doeth the Son in like maner.

20 For the Father loueth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himselfe doeth; and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marueile.

21 For likewise as the Father rayseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all jugdement unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath ever lasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verely, verely I say vnto you, the houre shall come, and now is, when the dead shall heare the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himselfe; so hath he passed from death unto life.

27 and he gave him authority to execute jugdement, that all may honour the Son, even as they honour the Father.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour cometh, in which all that are in the tombs shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done ill, unto the resurrection of jugdement.

30 I can of myselfe do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is righteous; because I seek not mine equall with God.

said also that God was his Father, and made himselfe equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus, and said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can doe nothing of himselfe, saue that he seeth the Father doe: for what soever things he doth, the same things doeth the Sonne in like maner.

20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, and sheweth him all things, whatsoever he doeth, and he will shew him greater workes then these, that ye should marueile.

21 For likewise as the Father rayseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committted all jugdement vnto the Sonne, 23 Because that all men should honour the Sonne, as they honour the Father: he that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoureth not the Father, which hath sent him.

24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that heareth my worde, and believeueth him that sent me, hath euerylasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.

25 Verely, verely I say vnto you, the houre shall come, and now is, when the dead shall heare the voice of the Sonne in like maner.

26 For as the Father hath life in himselfe: so he is the Son of man.

27 and he gave him authority to execute jugdement, that all may honour the Sonne, even as they honour the Father.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour cometh, in which all that are in the tombs shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done ill, unto the resurrection of jugdement.

30 I can of myselfe do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is righteous; because I seek not mine equall with God.
27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: neither have I sought mine own glory; but the glory of him that sent me, and which was greater than I, even the Father; who hath sent a light into the world.

35 He was the lamp that burneth and shineth: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 But the witness which I have is greater than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the very works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father which sent me, he hath borne witness of me.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for ye seek not the will of God, but the will of him which sendeth you.

39 Ye search the scriptures, because ye think that in them ye have eternal life; and these are they which bear witness of me; and ye will not to me, that ye may have life.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye may have eternal life; and these are they which bear witness of me, and yet ye believe not that I am he, even the One whom he hath sent.
35 He was a burning, and a shining candle: and ye would for a season have rejoiced in his light.
36 But I haue greater witnesse then the witnesse of Iohn: for the workes which the Father hath giuen me to finish, the same workes that I doe, beareth witnesse of me, that the Father sent me.
37 And the Father himselfe, which hath sent me, beareth witnesse of me. Ye haue not heard his voynce at any time, neither haue ye seene his shape.
38 And his worde haue ye not abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.
39 Search the Scriptures: for in them ye thinke to haue eternall life, and they are they which testifie of me.
40 But ye will not come to me, that ye might haue life.
41 I receiue not the prayse of men.
42 But I know you, that ye haue not the loue of God in you.
43 I am come in my Fathers name, and ye receiue me not: if another shall come in his owne name, him ye will receiue.
44 How can ye believe, which receiue honour one of another, and seeke not the honour that cometh from God only?
45 Doe not thinke that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.
46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me.
47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

And two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

And entered into a ship, and went over the sea, and drawing nigh unto the boat: and they were afraid.

But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

They were willing therefore to receive him into that we may work the works of God?

28 They said therefore unto him, What must we do, that we may work the works of God?

29 Iesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, he that eateth the flesh of the Son of man, and drinketh his blood, hath everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

30 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed, among men.

31 He that eateth my flesh, and喝areth my blood, hath everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

32 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed, among men.

33 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

34 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed, among men.

35 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

36 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed, among men.

37 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

38 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed, among men.

39 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

40 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed, among men.

41 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

42 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed, among men.

43 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

44 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed, among men.

45 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

46 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed, among men.
29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, What signe shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert, as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, Moses gaue you not that bread from heaven, but my Father giueth you that true bread from heaven.

33 For the breade of God is hee which commeth downe from heauen, and giueth life unto the world.

34 Then they said vnto him, Lord, euermore giue us this bread.

35 And Jesus said vnto them, I am the bread of: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that 48 I am the bread of life.
39 And this is the will of him that sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.
40 For this is the will of my Father, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.
41 The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, I am the bread which came down out of heaven.
42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how doth he now say, I am come down out of heaven?
43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murrum not among yourselves.
44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me drawe him: and I will raise him vp at the last day.
45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall all be taught of God. Every man therefore that hath hearde, believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.
37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that commeth to me I will in no wise cast out.
38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine owne will, but the will of him that sent me.
39 And this is the Father’s will which is from God, he hath seen the Father.
40 For this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him vp at the last day.
41 The Jewes therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, I am the bread which came down out of heaven.
42 And they said, Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?
43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murrum not among yourselves.
44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me drawe him: and I will raise him vp at the last day.
45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall all be taught of God. Every man therefore that hath hearde, 45 It is written in the Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, commmeth vnto me:

46 Not that any man hath seene the Father, saue he which is of God, he hath seene the Father.

47 Verely, verily I say vnto you, hee that beleueth in me, hath eternall life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eate Manna in the wildernessse, and are dead.

50 This is that bread, which commeth downe from heauen, that hee which eateh of it, shoulde not die.

51 I am that liuing bread, which came downe from heauen: if any man eate of this breade, hee shall liue for euer: and the breade that I will giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

52 The Jewes stroue among themselves, saying, Howe can this man giue vs his flesh to eate?

53 Then Iesus saide vnto them, Verely, verily I say vnto you, Except yee eate the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, yee haue no life in you.

54 Whoso eateh my flesh, and drinkeh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drinke in deede.
57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: Hee that eateth of this bread, shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they heard this, said, This is an hard saying: who can hear it?

61 But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear it?

62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend vp where he was before?

63 It is the spirit that quickeneth: the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of the Father.

66 From that time many of his disciples went back, and no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto me.

59 ταῦτα εἶπεν ἐν συναγωγῇ διδάσκων ἐν Καφαρναοῦμ.

60 Πολλοὶ οὖν ἀκούσαντες ἐκ τῶν μαθητῶν αὐτοῦ ἐίπον• σκληρός ἐστιν ὁ λόγος οὗτος• τίς δύναται αὐτῷ ἀκούειν;

61 εἰδὼς δὲ ὁ Ἰησοῦς ἐν αὐτῷ ὅτι γογγύζουσιν περὶ τοῦτούτου οἱ μαθηταὶ αὐτοῦ εἶπεν αὐτοῖς• τοῦτο ὑμᾶς σκανδαλίζει;

63 ὁ υἱὸς τοῦ ἀνθρώπου ἀναβαίνεται ὅπου ἦν τὸ πρότερον;

65 καὶ ἔλεγεν• διὰ τοῦτο ἑαυτὸ ἡμῖν ὅτι ὁ θεὸς ἐστιν ὁ παπάς ἡμῶν, καὶ ὁ κόσμος ἐστιν τοιοῦτος πῶς ἔσται ἡ κυρία τῆς σκελετοῦ πάντων τῶν ἀνθρώπων.

66 ἐκ τοῦτούτου οὖν οἱ μαθηταὶ αὐτοῦ ἀπῆλθον εἰς τὰ ὀπίσω καὶ οὐκέτι μετʼ αὐτοῦ ἦσαν μαθηταὶ αὐτοῦ.

67 ἔδειξεν οὖν ὁ Ἰησοῦς τοῖς μαθηταῖς αὐτοῦ ἀναβαίνεται ὅπου ἦν τὸ πρότερον;

68 Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 And we have believed and know that thou art the living bread which came down from heaven.
69 καὶ ἡμεῖς πεπιστεύκαμεν καὶ ἐγνώκαμεν ὅτι σὺ εἶ ὁ ἅγιος τοῦ θεοῦ.
66 From that time, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.
70 ἀπεκρίθη αὐτοῖς• οὐκ ἐγὼ ὑμᾶς τοὺς δώδεκα ἐξελεξάμην; καὶ ἐξ ὑμῶν εἷς διάβολός ἐστιν.
71 ἔλεγεν δὲ τὸν Ἰούδαν Σίμωνος Ἰσκαριώτου• οὗτος γὰρ ἔμελλεν αὐτὸν παραδίδοναι, εἷς ὢν ἐκ τῶν δώδεκα.

And after these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judæa, because the Jews sought to kill him.
2 Now the feast of the Jews, the feast of tabernacles, was at hand.
3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou dost.
4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, shew thyself to the world.

5 For even his brethren did not believe on him.
6 Jesus therefore saith unto them, My time is not yet come; but your time is always ready.
7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that its works are evil.
8 Go ye up unto the feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; because my time is not yet fulfilled.
9 And having said these things unto them, he abode him of my Father.

Holy One of God.
70 Jesus answered them, Did not I choose you the twelve, and one of you is a devil?
71 Now he spake of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

After these things Jesus walked in Galile: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.
2 Nowe the Iewes feast of the Tabernacles was at hande.
3 His brethren therefore sayde vnto him, Depart hence, and goe into Iudea, that thy disciples may see thy workes that thou doest.
4 For there is no man that doeth any thing secretly, and hee himselfe seeketh to be famous. If thou doest these things, shewe thy selfe to the world.
these things, sheweth thy selfe to the world.
5 For as yet his brethren beleued not in him.
6 Then Iesus saide vnto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway readie.
7 The world can not hate you: but me it hateth, because I testifie of it, that the works thereof are euill.
8 Go ye vp vnto this feast: I wil not go vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.
9 These things he sayde vnto them, and abode still in Galile.
10 But assoone as his brethren were gone vp, then went hee also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuile.
11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

17 Si un hombre hiciere lo que quiere, conocerá la doctrina de Dios, o si hablo de mi mismo.
18 Ése que habla de sí mismo busque con ello su gloria. Ése que busca su gloria que me ha enviado, el mismo es cierto, y no hay injusticia en él.
19 ¿No me dio Moisés la ley, y ¿no la guardan todos? ¿Por qué vais a matarme?
20 Los hombres respondieron y dijeron: tienes un espíritu: ¿quién va a matarte?
21 Jesús respondió y les dijo: hice una obra, y todos la admiráis.
22 Moisés, por tanto, dio la circuncisión; (no porque sea de Moisés, sino de los padres,) y en el sábado cincunciscís a un hombre.
23 Si un hombre recibe circuncisión en el sábado, no está en el error.
24 No juzgueis por el aspecto, sino juzgad con justeza.
25 Entonces dijeron algunos de Jerusalén: ¿es ése el que buscan matar?
26 ¿Y ha visto, quién habla con tanta libertad, y no dicen nada contra él? ¿No lo conocen los gobernantes?
27 Sin embargo, sabemos de donde es ése: pero el que busca su gloria que me ha enviado, el mismo es cierto, y no hay injusticia en él.
28 Ése que habla de sí mismo busca su propia gloria: pero ése que busca su gloria que me ha enviado, el mismo es cierto, y no hay injusticia en él.
29 Sé quién soy, y no he venido de mí mismo; pero el que me envió, es cierto, y no lo conocéis.
29 I know him; because I am from him, and he sent me.
30 They sought therefore to take him: and no man laid his hand on him, because his hour was not yet come.
31 But of the multitude many believed on him, and said, Whither will this man go that we shall not find him? will he go unto the Dispersion among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles? {Gentiles: or, Greeks}
32 The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to take him.
33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.
34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, ye cannot come.
35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will this man go that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles? {Gentiles: or, Greeks}
36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye are not able to come unto me? but I know him, and am from him, and he sent me.
37 Now on the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, Ye both know me, and knowe whence I am: and yet am I not come of myself, but he that sent me, is true, whom ye knowe not.
38 But I knowe him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.
39 Then they sought to take him: but no man layed hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.
40 And the Pharisees sent officers to take him.
41 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ shall come, will he do more miracles than this man hath done? 42 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured these things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.
43 Then saide the Iewes amongs themselues, Whith he shall we not finde him? will he goe, that we shall not find him? will he goe unto them that are dispersed among the Gre-
39 But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believed on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, But shall that Christ come out of Galilee?

42 Hath not the Scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this.
50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them), {to Jesus: Gr. to him}
51 Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?
52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.
53 And every man went unto his own house.

And Jesus went unto the mount of Olives,
2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.
3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,
4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery: did our law judge her?
5 Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such: what then sayest thou of her?
6 And this they said, tempting him, that they might have whereof to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground.
7 But when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.
8 And again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground.
in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them great not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hast no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn thee: go thy way; from hence forth sin no more.

12 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou beariest record of thyself: thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Even if I beareth witness of thyself; thy witness is not true.

15 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou saidst that the witness of two men is true.

16 Yea and if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 Yea and in your law it is written, that the witness of two men is true.

18 I am he that beareth witness of myself, and the testimony which I bear is true: and the 14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I beareth recorde of my selfe, thy reorde is not true.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh: I judge no man.

16 And ye iudge my iudgement is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go: but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

17 It is also written in your lawe, that the testimonie of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myselfe, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 They said therefore unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as hee spake in the temple: and no man took him; because he saith, Whither I goe, ye cannot come.

21 Then said Jesus againe vnto them, I goe my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sinnes.

22 Then said the Iewes, Will he kill himselfe, because he saith, Whither I goe, ye cannot come.

23 And he said vnto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

Father that sent me beareth witness of me. 19 They said therefore unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye know neither me, nor my Father: if ye knew me, ye would know my Father also.

20 These words spake he in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man took him; because his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said he againe vnto them, I go away, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sinnes, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himselfe, because he saith, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23 And hee spake vnto them, Ye are from beneath, I am from above: ye are of this world, I am not of this world.
24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself, but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone, for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which had believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye truly my disciples, and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, ye shall be free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples;

35 And the bondservant abideth not in the house for ever: the son abideth for ever.

36 If therefore the Son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; yet ye seek worlds.

24 I said therefore vnto you, That ye shall die in your sinnes: for except ye beleue, that I am he, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then saide they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus saide vnto them, Euen the same thing that I said vnto you from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, and to judge of you: but he that sent me, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the world.

27 They understooode not that hee speake to them of the Father.

28 Then saide Iesus vnto them, When ye haue lift vp the Sonne of man, then shal ye know that I am he, and that I doe nothing of my selfe, but as my Father hath taught me, so speake these things.

29 For he that sent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone, because I do always those things that please him.

30 As hee speake these things, many beleueved in him.

31 Then saide Iesus to the Iewes which beleueued in him, If ye continue in my worde, ye are verely my disciples, 32 And shall know the trueth, and the trueth shall make you free.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus said unto them, I am the Son of God.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true, and the things that I have heard of him, those speak I to the world.

34 οἶδα ὅτι πᾶς ὁ ποιῶν τὴν ἁμαρτίαν δοῦλός ἐστιν τῆς ἁμαρτίας.

35 ἐὰν οὖν ὁ λόγος ὁ ἐμὸς οὐ χωρεῖ ἐν ὑμῖν. For he that sent me, is true, and the things that I have heard of him, those speak I to the world.

36 ἐὰν οὖν ὁ λόγος ὁ ἐμὸς οὐ χωρεῖ ἐν ὑμῖν, ὄντως ἐλευθερώσει ὑμᾶς. But he that sent me, is true, and the things that I have heard of him, those speak I to the world.

37 οἶδα ὅτι σπέρμα Ἀβραάμ ἐστε• ἀλλὰ ζητεῖτε με. I am the Son of God.

38 ἐγὼ δὲ δεῦρος ὑμῖν ἀποκτείνω τὰς ἁμαρτίας. I am the Son of God.

45 But because I say the truth, ye believe me not. 46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? If I say truth, why do ye not believe me? 47 He that is of God heareth the words of God: for this cause ye hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 The Jews answered and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil? 49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye dishonour me.

50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh it, and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my word, he shall never see death. 52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; 53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou a devil?

42 Therefore Jesus sayde vnto them, If God were your Father, then woulde ye loue mee: for I proceeded forth, and came from God, neither came I of my selfe, but he sent me. 43 Why doe ye not vnderstande my talke? because ye cannot heare my worde.

44 Ye are of your father the deuill, and the lustes of your father ye will doe: hee hath bene a murtherer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no trueth in him. When hee speaketh a lie, then speaketh hee of his owne: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

45 And because I tell you the truth, yee beleue me not. 46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne? and if I say the trueth, why do ye not beleue me? 47 He that is of God heareth Gods words: yee therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.

54 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God:

55 Yet ye have not known him; but I know him, and if I should say I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Rabbi, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he should be born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither did this man sin, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 We must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 When I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

I know not: one thing I know, that whereas I was blind, and said unto him, Give glory to God: we know that this man is a sinner.

24 So they called a second time the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give glory to God: we know that this man is a sinner.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

22 These things said his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

21 but how he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

20 His parents answered and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

19 and asked them, saying, Is this your son, whom ye say was born blind? how doeth he now see?

18 The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, because he hath opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a Prophet.

16 Then said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the Sabbath day.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him, how he had received sight. And hee said vnto them, He layd clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

14 And it was the sabbath day, when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

13 They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I can not tell.

11 They brought to the Pharisees him that was once blind.

10 He therefore answered, Whether he be a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, and said unto him, Give glory to God: we know that this man is a sinner.

9 He therefore answered, Whether he be a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, and said unto him, Give glory to God: we know that this man is a sinner.

who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age;
ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 They said therefore unto him, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple: we be Moses disciples.

29 We know that God spake with Moses: but this man, we know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

30 The man answered and said unto them, Why, even now I see.

31 We know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

32 Then again called they the man that had been blinde, and sayd vnto him, Giue glory vnto God: we know that this man is a sinner.

28 Then reuiled they him, and sayd, Be thou his disciple: we be Moses disciples.

29 We know that God spake with Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and said unto them, Why is herein a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 We know that God hath spoken unto Moses: but as for this man, we know not whence he is.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and finding him, he said, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?
31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out. {cast...: or, excommunicated him}

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and he it is that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might become blind.

40 Those of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we also blind?

41 Jesus answered and said, And who is he, Lord, that I may believe on him?

42 Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

44 And Jesus said, I am come into this world, that they which see not may see; and that they which see may become blind.

κόσμον τοῦτον ἦλθον, ἵνα οἱ μὴ βλέποντες βλέπωσιν καὶ οἱ βλέποντες τυφλοὶ γένωνται.

40 ἠκούσαν ἐκ τῶν Φαρισαίων οἱ μετ᾽ αὐτοῦ ὄντες, καὶ εἶπαν αὐτῷ• μὴ καὶ ἡμεῖς τυφλοὶ ἐσμέν; 41 εἶπεν αὐτοῖς ὁ Ἰησοῦς• εἰ τυφλοὶ ἦτε, οὐκ ἂν εἶχετε ἁμαρτίαν• νῦν δὲ λέγετε ὃτι βλέπομεν• ἢ ἁμαρτία ὑμῶν μένει.

Verely, verily I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and go out, and shall find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly.
11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd layeth down his life for the sheep.

12 He that is a hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf snatcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 He fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and know mine own, and mine own know me, 15 even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, one shepherd.

17 Therefore doeth the Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. This commandment received I from my Father.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment received I from my Father.

19 There arose a division again among the Jews because of these words.

20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?
21 Others said, These are not the sayings of one possessed with a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?
22 And it was the feast of the dedication at Jerusalem: it was winter.
23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon’s porch.
24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.
25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believe not: the works that I do in my Father’s name, they bear witness of me.
26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep.
27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:
28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.
29 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father’s hand.
30 I and the Father are one.
31 The Jews took up stones again to stone him.
32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I done, which ye disbelieve: for which work ye seek me, that ye may see it, and believe.
all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30 I and my Father are one.

31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest, because I said, I am the Son of God?

37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand,

And went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode.

I shewed you from the Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came (and the scripture cannot be broken),

36 say ye of him, whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest, because I said, I am the Son of God?

37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me
not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the Father.

39 They sought again to take him: and he went forth out of their hand.

40 And he went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode.

καὶ πολλοὶ ἦλθον πρὸς αὐτὸν καὶ ἔλεγον ὅτι Ἰωάννης μὲν σημεῖον ἐποίησεν οὐδέν, πάντα δὲ ὅσα Ἰωάννης περὶ τούτου ἀληθῆ ἦν.

41 And many came unto him; and they said, John indeed did no sign: but all things whatsoever John spake of this man were true.

42 And many believed on him there.
Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister Martha.

2 And it was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 But when Jesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When therefore he heard that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judaea again.

And a certain man was sick, named Lazarus of Bethany, the towne of Marie, and her sister Martha.

2 (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feete with her heare, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou louest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Nowe Jesus loved Martha and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after he had heard that he was sicke, yet abode hee two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, said he to his discipiles, Let vs goe into Iudaeu again.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man were true.

39 Againe they went about to take him: but he escaped out of their handes, 40 And went againe beyonde Iordan, into the place where Iohn first baptized, and there abode.

41 And many resorted vnto him, and saide, Iohn did no miracle: but all thinges that Iohn spake of this man, were true.

42 And many beleued in him there.

ERV

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then Jesus said unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off; {about...: that is, about two miles}
And many of ye Iewes were come to Martha and Marie to comfort them for their brother.
Then Martha, when shee heard that Jesus was comming, went to meete him: but Mary sate still in the house.
Then said Martha vnto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst bene here, my brother had not bene dead.
But now I know also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.
Jesus saide vnto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that belieueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.
22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.
As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came vnto him.

and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying unto him,
Mary therefore, when she came where Jesus was, supposing that she was going unto the tomb to weep there, she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, and were comforting her, when they saw Mary, that she was going unto the tomb to weep there.
31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, were still in the place where Martha met him.
30 (Now Jesus was not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha met him.)
31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, were still in the place where Martha met him.
30 (Now Jesus was not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha met him.)
31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, were still in the place where Martha met him.
30 (Now Jesus was not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha met him.)
31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, were still in the place where Martha met him.
30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.
31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.
32 Then Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, {was troubled: Gr. he troubled himself}
34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.
35 Jesus wept.
36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!
37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of him that was blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?
38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.
39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.
40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou believedst, thou shouldest see the glory of God? 41 So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou heardest me.
42 And I knew that thou hearest me: but beński

Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, {was troubled: Gr. he troubled himself}
34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.
35 Jesus wept.
36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!
37 And some of them said, Could not he, which opened the eyes of the blind, have made also, that this man should not have died?
38 Jesus therefore again groined in himselfe, and came to the grave. And it was a cave, and a stone was layde vpon it.
39 Jesus saide, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, saide vnto him, Lord, he is not yet come into the towne, he saw her weeping, and the Iewes also weeping which came with her, he groned in the spirit, and was troubled, {was troubled: Gr. he troubled himself}
34 And saide, Where haue ye layde him? They said vnto him, Lord, come and see.
35 And Iesus wept.
36 Then saide the Iewes, Beholde, how he loued him.
37 And some of them saide, Coulde not he, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also, that this man should not haue died?
38 Iesus therefore againe groned in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was layde vpon it.
39 Iesus saide, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, saide vnto him, Lord, he is not yet come into the towne, he saw her weeping, and the Iewes also weeping which came with her, he groned in the spirit, and was troubled, {was troubled: Gr. he troubled himself}
34 And saide, Where haue ye layde him? They said vnto him, Lord, come and see.
35 And Iesus wept.
36 Then saide the Iewes, Beholde, how he loued him.
37 And some of them saide, Coulde not he, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also, that this man should not haue died?
38 Iesus therefore againe groned in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was layde vpon it.
39 Iesus saide, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, saide vnto him, Lord, he is not yet come into the towne, he saw her weeping, and the Iewes also weeping which came with her, he groned in the spirit, and was troubled, {was troubled: Gr. he troubled himself}

34 And saide, Where haue ye layde him? They said vnto him, Lord, come and see.
35 And Iesus wept.

priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die.

51 Now this he said not of himself; but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die;

stinketh alreadie: for he hath bene dead foure dayes.

40 Jesus saide vnto her, Saide I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleeeve, thou shouldest see the glorie of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was layde. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, and saide, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I knowe that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I said it, that they may beleue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As hee had spoken these things, hee cried with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bound hande and foote with bandes, and his face was bound with a napkin. Iesus said vnto them, Loose him, and let him goe.

45 Then many of the lewes, which came to Mary, and had seene the thinges, which Iesus did, beleued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharises, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 Then they gathered a council, and said, What shall we doe? For this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will beleieue in our place and nation.
49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all.

50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation:

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye? That he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, he should shew it, that they might take him.
Jesus therefore six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper: and Martha served; but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then said one of his disciples, even Judas Iscariot Simons son, which should betray him, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 Now he said this, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 The common people therefore of the Jews learned that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests took counsel that they might giuen a commandement, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.
9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 On the next day much people that were come to Jerusalem, went away, and believed on Jesus.

13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, having found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, 15 Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare witness.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they had seen these things that were done.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Behold how ye prevail nothing: lo, the world is gone after him.

20 For this cause they also met him, for that they heard that he had raised from the dead.

11 ὅτι πολλοὶ ὅτι αὐτὸν ὑψήλον τῶν Ἰουδαίων καὶ ἐπίστευσαν εἰς τὸν Ἰησοῦν.

19 οἱ οὖν Φαρισαῖοι ἔτον πρὸς ἐλληνες θεωρεῖτε ὅτι αὐτῷ ὁ ψυχήν ἐνοχήν, ἵνα δὲ ὁ κόσμος ὁ ποιῶν αὐτῷ ἀπήλθη.

20 Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast:
21 These therefore came to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.
22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.
23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.
24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself alone:
25 But if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.
26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serveth me, him will my Father honour.
27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour. But for this cause came I unto this hour.
28 Father, glorify thy name. There came therefore a voice out of heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.
29 The multitude therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it had thundered: others said, An angel hath spoken to him.
30 Hath not this scripture said, that a great voice out of heaven cometh to him, whom they call Lord of his soul? Then said the multitude, Which of these two shall goeth first after him?
31 The multitude therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it had thundered: others said, An angel hath spoken to him.
32 And the Pharisees said among themselves, Perceivest thou how he prevaleth nothing? Behold, the world goeth after him.
33 And they came to Philip, which was of Bethsaida in Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see that Jesus.
34 Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.
35 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.
36 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.
37 And if any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serveth me, him will my Father honour.
38 Where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serveth me, him will my Father honour.
39 The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.
40 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.
41 He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.
42 And if any man serve me, let him follow me; for where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serveth me, him will my Father honour.
43 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, saue me from this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre.
44 Father, saue me from this houre; but for this cause came I vnto this houre.
45 They therefore said among themselves, Behold, he saith nothing equal to other men.
46 And from that time they took counsel how they might destroy him.

| 28 Padre, gloríficame tu nombre. Entonces vino una voz de los cielos diciendo: he hecho y anhelaba ser glorificado, y lo habrá de ser. |
| 29 Luego dijeron los que estaban allí, oímos un trueno: otros dijeron: un ángel se lo dijo. |
| 30 Jesús contestó y dijo: esta voz no viene para mí, sino para vosotros. |
| 31 Ahora es el juicio de este mundo: ahora dejará de estar el príncipe de este mundo. |
| 32 Y si yo me levanto sobre la tierra, atraeré a todos. |
| 33 Y dijo esto, significando qué muerte debía morir. |
| 34 Así contestaron los que estaban allí: hemos oído que el Cristo permanece para siempre; y cómo dices que el Hijo del Hombre debe levantarse? ¿Quién es el Hijo del Hombre? |
| 35 Entonces Jesús les dijo: todavía un poco de tiempo es la luz con vosotros. Andad mientras tengáis luz, porque la oscuridad os tomará. Si andas en la oscuridad no sabes hacia dónde vas. |
| 36 Mientras tengáis luz, creáis en la luz, de manera que podáis ser hijos de la luz. Estas cosas dijo Jesús, y se fue y se escondió de ellos. |

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esias said again,

40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Esias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharishees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the Synagogue:

43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not in me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.

51 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, forasmuch as he loved his owne which were in the world, unto the end he loved them.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? {Peter saith:}

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So when he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye call me, Master, and Lord: and ye say well; for so am I.

14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord: neither one that is sent greater than he that sent him.

16 If ye know these things, blessed are ye if ye do them.

17 I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth my bread lifted up his heel against me.

18 I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth my bread lifted up his heel against me.

19 ἀμὴν ἀμὴν λέγω ὑμῖν, ὁ δὲ ἐμὲ λαμβάνων λαμβάνει τὸν ἄρτον ἐπῆρκεν ἐπ᾽ ἐμὲ τὴν πτέρναν μετ᾽ ἐμοῦ τὸν ἄρτον ἐπῆρκεν ἐπ᾽ ἐμὲ τὴν πτέρναν ὁ διδάσκαλος, καὶ ὑμεῖς ὀφείλετε ἀλλήλων νίπτειν τοὺς πόδας• εἰμὶ γάρ.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he came to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

17 If ye know these things, ye are blessed if ye do them.

18 I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in the Spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth him, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

22 When Jesus had said these things, he was troubled in the Spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, one of you shall betray me.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus’ bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in the Spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

22 When Jesus had said these things, he was troubled in the Spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, one of you shall betray me.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus’ bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

18 I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in the Spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, one of you shall betray me.

22 When Jesus had said these things, he was troubled in the Spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, one of you shall betray me.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus’ bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then, as he leaned on Iesus breast, said unto him, Lord, who is it?

25 He then lying on Jesus’ breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he taketh and giveth it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.

26 Jesus therefore saith unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

25 He then lying on Jesus’ breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus therefore answered, He it is, for whom I shall dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped the sop, he taketh and giveth it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.

26 Jesus therefore saith unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he came to pass, ye may believe that I am he.
36 Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a soppe, when I have dipt it: and hee wet a soppe, and gaue it to Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall giue a soppe, that when I haue dipt it: and hee wet a soppe, and gaue it to Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

29 For some thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should giue something to the poor.

31 When hee was gone out, Jesus said, Nowe is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

30 Assoone then as he had receiued the soppe, he went immediately out, and it was night.

28 But none of them that were at table, knew, for what cause he spake it vnto him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himselfe, and shall straightway glorifie him.

34 A newe commandement giue I vnto you, that ye love one another; as I haue loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men knowe that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another.

33 Little children, yet a little while am I with you: ye shall seeke me, but as I sayde vnto the Iewes, Whither I goe, can ye not come: also to you say I nowe, A newe commandement giue I vnto you, that ye loue one another: as I haue loved you, that ye also loue one another.

37 Peter saith unto him, That thou doest, doe quickly.

38 Jesus answereth, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me?
thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I goe, thou canst not follow me nowe; but thou shalt follow me afterward.

37 Peter sayd vnto him, Lord, why can I not follow thee now? I will lay downe my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay downe thy life for my sake? Verily, verely I say vnto thee, The cocke shall not crowe, till thou haue denied me thrise.

Let not your heart be troubled: ye beleeue in God, beleeye also in me.

2 In my Fathers house are many dwelling places: if it were not so, I would haue tolde you: I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go to prepare a place for you, I wil com againe, and receiue you vnto my selfe, that where I am, there ye maye be also.

4 And whither I go, ye knowe, and the way ye knowe.

5 Thomas sayd vnto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest: how can we then know ye way?

6 Jesus saith vnto him, I am that Way, and that Trueth, and that Life. No man commeth vnto the Father, but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should haue known I

Μὴ ταρασσέσθω ὑμῶν ἡ καρδία• πιστεύετε εἰς τὸν θεόν, καὶ εἰς ἐμὲ πιστεύετε.

2 ἐν τῇ οἰκίᾳ τοῦ πατρός μου μοναὶ πολλαί εἰσίν• εἰ δὲ μή, εἶπον ἂν ὑμῖν• ὅτι πορεύομαι ἑτοιμάσαι τόπον ὑμῖν•

3 καὶ ἐὰν πορευθῶ καὶ ἑτοιμάσω τόπον ὑμῖν, πάλιν ἔρχομαι καὶ παραλήμψομαι ὑμᾶς πρὸς ἐμαυτόν, ἵνα ὑμοί ἐγὼ καὶ ὑμεῖς ἦτε.

4 καὶ ὅπου ἐγὼ ὑπάγω οἴδατε τὴν ὁδόν.

5 Λέγει αὐτῷ Θωμᾶς• κύριε, οὐκ οἴδαμεν ποῦ ὑπάγετε, καὶ πῶς οἴδαμεν τὴν ὁδὸν;

6 λέγει αὐτῷ ὁ Ἰησοῦς• ἐγώ εἰμι ἡ ἀλήθεια καὶ ἡ ζωή• οὐδεὶς ἔρχεται πρὸς τὸν πατέρα εἰ μὴ δι᾽ ἐμοῦ.

7 εἰ ἐγνώκατέ ἐμέ, καὶ τὸν πατέρα μου γνώσεσθε• καὶ ἀπάρτι γινώσκετε αὐτὸν καὶ ἑώρακατε αὐτὸν.

8 Λέγει αὐτῷ Φίλιππος• κύριε, δεῖξον ἡμῖν τὸν πατέρα, καὶ ἀρκεῖ ἡμῖν.

9 λέγει αὐτῷ ὁ Ἰησοῦς• τοσοῦτο χρόνῳ μεθ’ ὑμῶν ἐμι, καὶ οὐκ ἐγνώκακας με, Φίλιππε; ὁ ἑώρακές ἐμὲ ἑώρακεν τὸν πατέρα• πῶς σὺ λέγεις• δεῖξον ἡμῖν τὸν πατέρα;

10 οὐ πιστεῖς ὅτι ἐγὼ ἐν τῷ πατρί καὶ ὁ πατὴρ ἐν ἐμοί ἔστιν; τὰ ρήματα ὧν ἐγὼ λέγω ὑμῖν ἀπὸ ἐμαυτοῦ οὐ λαλῶ• ὁ δὲ πατὴρ ἐν ἐμοί μένων ποιεῖ τὰ ἔργα αὐτοῦ.
my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip sayd vnto him, Lord, shewe vs thy Father, and it sufficeth vs.

9 Jesus sayd vnto him, I haue bene so long time with you, and hast thou not knowen me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou, Shew us the Father?

10 Belieuest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speake unto you I spake not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works's sake.

12 Verily, verily I say vnto you, He that beleeueth not that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me? The wordes that I speake vnto you, I speake not of my selfe: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my Name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my Name, I will doe it.

15 If ye love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

18 I will not leave you desolate: I come unto you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world beholdeth me no more; but ye behold me: because I live, ye shall live also.

20 In that day ye shall know that I am in my Father,
17 Even the Spirit of truth, whom the world can not receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him: for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. {comfortless: or, orphans}

19 Yet a little while, and the world shall see me no more, but ye shall see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my words: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said unto you. and ye in me, and I in you. 21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. 22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? 23 Jesus answered, and said unto him, If any man loveth me, he will keep my word: and my Father will love him, and we wil come vnto him, and wil dwell with him. 24 He that loueth me not, keepeth not my wordes, and the worde which ye heare, is not mine, but the Fathers which sent me. 21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will loue him, and wil shewe mine owne selfe to him. 22 Iudas sayd vnto him (not Iscariot) Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shewe thy selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the world? 23 Jesus answered, and sayd vnto him, If any man loue me, he will keepe my worde, and my Father will loue him, and we wil come vnto him, and wil dwell with him. 24 He that loueth me not, keepeth not my wordes, and the worde which ye heare, is not mine, but the Fathers which sent me. 21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. 22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

22 Iudas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered, and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keepe my word: and my Father will love him, and we wil come vnto him, and wil dwell with him. 24 He that loueth me not, keepeth not my wordes, and the worde which ye heare, is not mine, but the Fathers which sent me. 23 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, If any man loue me, he will keepe my word: and my Father will loue him, and we wil come vnto him, and wil dwell with him. 24 He that loueth me not, keepeth not my wordes, and the worde which ye heare, is not mine, but the Fathers which sent me. 21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. 22 Iudas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?
joiced, because I go unto the Father: for the Father is greater than I.
29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe.
30 I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me;
31 but that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.
2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleaneth it, that it may bear more fruit.
3 Already ye are clean because of the word which I have spoken unto you.
4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; so neither can ye, except ye abide in me.
5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing.
6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you, being present with you.
26 But the Comforter, which is the holy Ghost, whom the Father wil send in my Name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, which I haue tolde you.
27 Peace I leaue with you: my peace I giue vnto you: not as the worlde giueth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor feare.
28 Ye haue heard howe I saide vnto you, I goe away, and will come vnto you. If ye loved me, ye would verely reioyce, because I said, I goe vnto the Father: for the Father is greater then I.
29 And nowe haue I spoken vnto you, before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleue.
30 Hereafter will I not speake many things vnto you: for the prince of this world commeth, and hath nought in me.
31 But it is that the world may knowe that I loue my Father: and as the Father hath commanded me, so I doe. Arise, let vs goe hence.

I Am that true vine, and my Father is that husbandman.
2 Euery branch that beareth not fruite in me, he taketh it away, and euery branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bear more fruit.
3 Everi ye are cleane because of the word which I haue tolde you.
4 Abide in me, and I in you. As euery branch cannot beare fruit of it self, euery branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may beare more fruit.
5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruite: for apart from me ye can do nothing.
6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

19 If I had not done among them the works which none other did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated me and my Father.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you: The servant is not greater than his lord. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no excuse for their sin.

23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me before it hated you.

26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall bear witness of me.
21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin.

23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now they hate both me, and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

27 And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

28 These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended. {offended: scandalized or, made to stumble}

29 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

30 These things will they do, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

31 But these things have I said unto you, that when their hour is come, ye may remember them, how that I told you. And these things I said not unto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

32 But now I go unto him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

33 But because I have spoken these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

34 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go, I will send him unto you.

35 And he, when he is come, will convict the world in respect of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:
19 Jesus perceived that they were desirous to ask they have not known ye Father, nor me.
4 But these things have I told you, that when the hour shall come, ye may remember, that I tolde you them. And these things said I not vnto you from ye beginning, because I was with you.
5 But now I go my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?
6 But because I haue saide these things vnto you, your hearts are full of sorrowe.
7 Yet I tell you the truth, It is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I goe not away, that Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will send him vnto you.
8 And when he is come, he will reproue the worlde of sinne, and of righteousnesse, and of judgement.
9 Of sinne, because they beleuued not in me:
10 Of righteousnesse, because I goe to my Father, and ye shall see me no more:
11 Of iudgement, because the prince of this world is judged.
12 I haue yet many things to say vnto you, but ye cannot beare them nowe.
13 Howbeit, when he is come which is the Spirit of trueth, he will leade you into all trueth: for he cannot beare them nowe.
14 He shall glorify me: for he shall take of mine, and shall declare it unto you.
15 All things whatsoever the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he taketh of mine, and shall declare it unto you.
16 A little while, and ye behold me no more; and again a little while, and ye shall see me.
17 Some of his disciples therefore said one to another, What is this that he saith, A little while, and ye behold me not; and again a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?
18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? We know not what he saith.
19 Jesus perceived that they were desirious to ask
9 of sin, because they believe not on me;
10 of righteousness, because I go to the Father, and ye behold me no more;
11 of judgment, because the prince of this world hath been judged.
12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.
13 Howbeit, when he is come, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth; for he shall not speak of himself. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.
14 He shall glorify me: for he shall take of mine, and shall declare it unto you.
15 All things whatsoever the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he taketh of mine, and shall declare it unto you.
16 A little while, and ye behold me no more; and again a little while, and ye shall see me.
17 Some of his disciples therefore said one to another, What is this that he saith, A little while, and ye behold me not; and again a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?
18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? We know not what he saith.
19 Jesus perceived that they were desirious to ask him, and he said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, A little while, and ye behold me not, and again a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye therefore now have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one taketh away from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If ye shall ask anything of the Father, he will give it you in my name.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be fulfilled.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: the hour cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but shall tell you plainly of the Father.

26 In that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say unto you, that I will pray the Father for you; and he will shew you things to come.

27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye things to come.

28 Ye have heard the doctrine of the Father; and I say the same things to you, that ye might be kept from error.

29 Ye are of your father the devil, and ye will do the works of your father. He hath from the beginning sought to kill you, that ye should not be made perfect in good.

30 But I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may be with you for ever:

31 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him, for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

32 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

33 In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.
have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from the Father.
28 I came out from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go unto the Father.
29 His disciples say, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.
30 Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.
31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?
32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.
33 These things have I spoken unto you, that in me ye may have peace. In the world ye have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Greek Text:

ἵνα τίς σε ἐρωτᾷ• ἐν τούτῳ πιστεύομεν ὅτι ἀπὸ θεοῦ ἐξῆλθες.
31 ἀπεκρίθη αὐτοῖς Ἰησοῦς• ἄρτι πιστεύετε;
32 ἰδοὺ ἔρχεται ὥρα καὶ ἐλήλυθεν ἵνα σκορπισθῆτε ἕκαστος εἰς τὰ ἴδια κἀμὲ μόνον ἀφῆτε• καὶ οὐκ εἰμὶ μόνος, ὅτι ὁ πατὴρ μετ᾽ ἐμοῦ ἐστιν.
33 ταῦτα λελάληκα ὑμῖν ἵνα ἐν ἐμοὶ εἰρήνην ἔχητε. ἐν τῷ κόσμῳ θλῖψιν ἔχετε• ἀλλὰ θαρσεῖτε, ἐγὼ νενίκηκα τὸν κόσμον.
and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

These things spake Jesus; and lifting up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that the Son may glorify thee:

2 even as thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they should know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth, having accomplished the work which thou hast given me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I manifested thy name unto the men whom thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them to me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they know that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are from thee: for the words which thou gavest me I have given unto them; and they received them, and knew of a truth that I came forth from thee, and they believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for those whom thou hast given me; for they are thine.
10 and all things that are mine are thine, and thine are mine: and I am glorified in them.
11 And I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.
12 While I was with them, I kept them in thy name; those that thou gavest me, I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.
13 And now come I to thee, and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

κόσμῳ εἰσίν, κάγῳ πρὸς σε έρχομαι. πάτερ ἅγιε, τήρησον αὐτοὺς ἐν τῷ ὄνοματί σου ὃ δέδωκας μοι, ἵνα ὄσιν ἐν καθὼς ἡμεῖς.
12 ὅτε ἦμην μετ᾽ αὐτῶν ἐγὼ ἐπήρησον αὐτοὺς ἐν τῷ ὄνοματι σου ὃ δέδωκας μοι, καὶ ἐφύλαξα, καὶ οὐδεὶς εξ αὐτῶν ἀπώλετο εἰ μὴ ὁ νίς τῆς ἀπωλείας, ἵνα ἡ γραφή πληρωθῇ.
13 τὸν δὲ πρὸς σε έρχομαι, καὶ ταῦτα λαλῶ ἐν τῷ κόσμῳ ἵνα ἔχωσιν τὴν χαρὰν τὴν ἐμὴν πεπληρωμένην ἐν ἑαυτοῖς.
14 ἐγὼ δέδωκα αὐτοὺς τὸν λόγον σου, καὶ ὁ κόσμος ἐμίσησεν αὐτοὺς, ὅτι οὐκ εἰσίν ἐκ τοῦ κόσμου καθὼς ἐγὼ οὐκ εἰμί ἐκ τοῦ κόσμου.
16 εἴκ τοῦ κόσμου οὐκ εἰσίν καθὼς ἐγὼ οὐκ εἰμί ἐκ τοῦ κόσμου.
17 ἀγίασον αὐτοὺς ἐν τῇ ἀληθείᾳ• ὁ λόγος ὁ σὸς ἀληθεῖα ἐστιν.
21 ἵνα πάντες ἐν ὄσιν, καθὼς σὺ πατήρ ἐν ἑμοίκον.
14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also may be sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

24 Father, I will that they which thou hast given me, κἀγὼ ἐν σοί, ἵνα καὶ αὐτοὶ ἐν ἡμῖν ὦσιν, ἵνα ὁ κόσμος πιστεύῃ ὅτι σύ με ἀπέστειλας.

22 κἀγὼ τὴν δόξαν ἣν δέδωκάς μοι δέδωκα αὐτοῖς, ἵνα ὤσιν ἐν καθὼς ἡμεῖς ἕν•

23 ἐγὼ ἐν αὐτοῖς καὶ σὺ ἐν ἐμοί, ἵνα ὦσιν τετελειωμένοι εἰς ἕν, ἵνα γινώσκῃ ὁ κόσμος ὅτι σύ με ἀπέστειλας καὶ ἠγάπησας αὐτοὺς καθὼς ἐμὲ ἠγάπησας.

When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oft times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Judas then, having received a band of men and officers of the chief priests and Pharisees, came thither with lanterns and torches, and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, was standing with them.

6 When therefore he said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Again therefore he asked them, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: 9 that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, Of those whom thou hast given me I lost not one. 10 Simon Peter therefore having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest’s servant, and cut off his right ear. Now the servant’s name was Malchus.

11 Jesus therefore said unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, and led him away to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was high priest that year.

13 And led him away to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year. And Annas sent Jesus bound unto Caiaphas the high priest; for the people.

14 Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the iewes, that it was expedient that one man should die.
28 They lead Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the palace of the high priest.
27 Peter therefore denied again: and straightway the cock crew.
26 One of the servants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?
25 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore unto him, Art thou also one of this man's disciples?
24 Annas therefore sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest, and said unto him, Art thou also one of this man's disciples?
23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?
22 And when he had said this, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?
21 Why askest thou me? ask them that have heard me, what I spake unto them: behold, they know what I said nothing.
20 Jesus answered him, I have spoken openly to the world: I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, and of his doctrine.
19 The high priest therefore asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.
18 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the hall of the high Priest: therefore he went in with Jesus into the hall of the high priest.
17 Then saide the maide that kept the doore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He sayd, I am not.
16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out the other disciple which was known vnto the high Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.
15 Nowe Simon Peter folowed Iesus, and another disciple, and that disciple was known of the hie Priest: therefore he went in with Iesus into the hall of the hie Priest:
14 The damsel then said, I know not what I sayde. Then said Peter, I am not.
13 One of the servants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?
12 The damsel then said, I know not what I sayde. Peter therefore denied again: and straightway the cock crew.
11 They then lead Jesus from Caiaphas into the palace of the high priest.
10 Simon therefore went on before into the high priest's hall, and said unto them, I am not a disciple of this man.
9 But Peter answered and said, Man, I know not what thou saydest. When he was gone out, he smote himselfe, saying, What I have said I know not.
8 Now Simon Peter stood and warming himself. They said therefore unto him, Art thou also one of this man's disciples?
7 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out the other disciple which was known vnto the hie Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter. Then saide the maide that kept the doore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He sayd, I am not.
23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if it well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

28 Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pilate therefore went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not an evil-doer, we should not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should die.

33 Pilate therefore entered again into the palace, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered, Sayest thou this of thyself, or did others tell it thee concerning me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to 37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a King then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a King: for this cause was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find no crime in him. 39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? 40 They cried therefore again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.
Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and arrayed him in a purple garment; and they came unto him, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck him with their hands. And Pilate went out again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him. Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold, the man! When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take him yourselves, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. When Pilate therefore heard this saying, he was the more afraid; and he entered into the palace again, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands. Then Pilate went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him. Then Pilate went forth again, and said unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I finde no fault in him at all. Then came Jesus forth wearing a crown of thorns, and a purple garment. And Pilate said unto them, Beholde the man. Then when the chief priests and officers saw him, they cried, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said unto them, Take yee him and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him. The Jews answered him, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe he ought to die, because he made himselfe the Sonne of God. Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their roddes. Then Pilate went forth againe, and said vnto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may knowe, that I finde no fault in him at all. Then came Jesus forth wearing a crown of thorns, and a purple garment. And Pilate said vnto them, Beholde the man. Then when the hee Priests and officers sawe him, they cried, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take yee him and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him. The Iewes answered him, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe he ought to die, because he made himselfe the Sonne of God. Then Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;
9 And went again into the common hall, and saide vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answere.

10 Then saide Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that deliuered me vnto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cried out, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cesars friende: whosoever maketh himself a king speakest against Caesar.

13 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place called the Pavement, but in the Hebrewe, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the passoover, and about the sixth hour: and hee sayde vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

15 But they cried, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate saith vnto them, Shall I crucifie you? The chief priests answered, We haue no king but Caesar.

16 Then did he him therefore unto them to be crucified.

17 They took Jesus therefore: and he went out, bearing the cross for himself, unto the place called The place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew Golgotha: 18 where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

9 And went again into the chamber, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were given thee from aboue: therefore he that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the greater sin.

12 From thence forth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cried out, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cesars friend: for whosoeuer maketh himself a King, speakest against Caesar.

13 When Pilate heard this woorde, hee brought Iesus forth, and sate downe in the iudgement seate in a place called the Pauement, and in Hebrewe, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the Preparation of the Passeouer, and about the sixt houre: and hee sayde vnto the Iewes, Behold your King.

15 But they cried, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate sayde vnto them, Shall I crucifie you? The high Priestes answered, We haue no King but Caesar.

16 Then did he him therefore unto them to be crucifie.

19 And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWES.
20 This title therefore read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was cruified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, Greeke and Latin.
21 The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he sayd, I am King of the Jews.
22 Pilate answered, What I haue written I haue written.
23 Then the souldiers, when they had cruified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every souldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. {woven: or, wrought}
25 Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. (Cleophas: or, Clopas)

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother!

28 After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, said, I thirst.

29 Now was set a vessel full of vinegar: so they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, that the bodies should not remain on the cross on the Sabbath day, (for that Sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, that they might be taken away.

32 The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 Howbeit one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came out blood and water.
33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:
34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.
35 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.
36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.
37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.
38 And after this Joseph of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.
39 And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.
40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.
41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.
42 There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Preparation of the Jews: and it was the preparation of the Passover.
The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

4 And they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

7 And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 So the disciples went away again unto their own hand.

Nowe the first day of the weeke came Marie Magdalene, early when it was yet darke, vnto the sepulchre, and sawe the stone taken away from the tombe.

2 Then she ranne, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loued, and saide vnto them, They haue taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we knowe not where they haue laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ranne both together, but the other disciple did outrunne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stouped downe, and sawe the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and sawe the linnen clothes lye, and came to the sepulchre, and we knowe not where they haue laid him.

7 And the kerchiefe that was vpon his head, not lying with the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selle.

8 Then went in also the other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 So the disciples went away again unto their own hand.
first to the sepulchre, and he saw it, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, 12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And when she had thus said, she turned herselfe back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, said vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith vnto her, Marie. She turned her selfe, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith vnto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but goe to my brethren, and say to them, I ascend unto my Father and your Father, and my God and your God.

9 For as yet they knewe not the Scripture, That he must rise againe from the dead.

10 And the disciples went away againe vnto their owne home.

11 But Marie stooede without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she bowed her selfe into the sepulchre, 12 And sawe two Angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feete, where the body of Iesus had laien.

13 And they said vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She said vnto them, They haue taken away my Lord, and I know not where they haue laide him.

14 When she had thus said, she turned her selfe backe, and sawe Jesus standing, and knewe not that it was Jesus.

15 Iesus saith vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She supposing that he had bene the gardener, said vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Iesus saith vnto her, Marie. She turned her selfe, and said vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus saith vnto her, Touch me not: for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but goe to my brethren.

After these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise into his side, I will not believe it.

26 And eight days after, again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Jesus, when the doors were shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 After saide he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see mine hands, and put forth thine hand, and put it into my side, and be not faithlesse, but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and said vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Jesus saide vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene me, thou beleeuest: blessed are they that haue not seene, and haue beleue."
Simon Peter therefore went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and a hundred cubits off, dragging the net full of fishes.

But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the shore: howbeit the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

Jesus therefore saith unto them, Children, have ye meat? They answered him, No. {Children: or, Sirs}

Jesus therefore said vnto them, vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his coate to him (for he was naked), and cast himselfe into the sea.

Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith vnto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his fisher's coat about him and cast himself into the sea.

But when the morning was nowe come, Iesus stood on the shore: neuerthelesse the discipiles knewe not that it was Iesus.

But when day was nowe breaking, Jesus stood on the shore: howbeit the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

Therefore said the disciple whom Iesus loued, vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his coate to him (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.

But the other discipiles came by shippe (for they were not farre from land, but about two hundreth cubites) and they drewe the net with fishes.

And the other discipiles came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundreth cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

Simon Peter saith vnto them, I go a fishing. They answered him, No. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

Simon Peter therefore went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three:

That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved saith vnto Peter, It is the Lord. So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat about him and cast himself into the sea.

But when the morning was nowe come, Jesus stood on the shore: howbeit the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

Simon Peter therefore went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three:

Three and for all there were so many, the net was not to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three:

Simon Peter therefore went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three:

Simon Peter therefore went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three:

Simon Peter therefore went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three:
12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and break your fast. And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had dined, Jesus said to Simon Peter, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me more than these? He said vnto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He said vnto him againe the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He said vnto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He said vnto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saide vnto him the third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? Peter was sorie because he knewe that he was the Lord.

17 He said vnto him, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he knew that it was the Lord.

18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou willedst; but when thou art old, thou shalt stretch thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.ู้

20 And verily, verily, I say unto thee, That when thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou willedst: but when thou art old, thou shalt stretch thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

21 Ye shall drink no more of the fruit of the vine, neither eat of bread;

22 But eat of the tree of life, and liest no more, because thou hast kept my commandments.

23 And in the morning it was even, there came into the house all the disciples, 24 And saith unto him, Lord, lovest thou me? he saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

25 And he saith unto him, Lord, lovest thou me? he saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Tend my sheep.

26 And he saith unto him, Lord, lovest thou me? he saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

27 Blessed are they that keep my commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

28 For I am come down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.
18 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thy selfe, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be olde, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whom JESUS loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Peter therefore seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, what shall this man doe?

22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is it to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we know that his testimonie is true.
mony is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

testimonie is true.

25 Nowe there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, I suppose the world coulde not conteine the bookees that shoulde be written, Amen.

And when he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven, as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This Jesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shall so come, as yee haue seene him goe into heauen.

12 Then returned they vnto Hierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of Oliues, which is neere to Hierusalem, being from it a Sabbath daies journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an upper chamber, where abode both Peter and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zealotes, and Judas the brother of James, 14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Marie the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

15 And when they were in one place were about an hundred and twenty,)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was Samaria, and vnto the vtermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they behelde, he was taken vp: for a cloude tooke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked steadfastly toward heauen, as hee went, beholde, two men stoode by them in white apparell, 11 Which also sayde, Yee men of Galile, why stande yee gasing into heauen? This Jesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shall so come, as yee haue seene him goe into heauen.

12 Then returned they vnto Hierusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.

14 These all with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Marie the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

15 And in these days Peter stood up in the midst of the brethren, and said (and there was a multitude of persons gathered together, about a hundred and twenty), νεφέλη ὑπέλαβεν αὐτὸν ἀπὸ τῶν ὀρφαλμῶν αὐτῶν.

15 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and sayde (nowe the number of names that were in one place were about an hun-
16 Brethren, it was needful that the scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost spake before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide to them that took Jesus.
17 For he was numbered among us, and received his portion in this ministry.
18 (Now this man obtained a field with the reward of iniquity: and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.
19 And it became known to all the dwellers at Jerusalem, in so much, that that field is called in their own language, Aceldama, That is, the field of blood.
20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be void, and let no man dwell therein:
21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and went out among us,
22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that day that he was taken up from us, of these must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection.
23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, and Matthias.
24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew of these two the one whom thou hast chosen,
And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

And suddenly there came from heaven a sound as of the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

And they were all amazed and marveled, saying, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans?

And how hear we, every man in our own lan-

And it shall be in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons shall prophesy, and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

8 And how then shall we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, in Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers from Rome, Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretans and Arabians, we do hear them speaking in our tongues the mighty works of God.

10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and of the parts of Libya which is beside Cyrene, and strangers from Rome, and Cretans, and Arabians: we hear them speak in our own tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 They were all then amazed, and douted, saying one to another, What may this be?

13 And others mocked, and said, They are full of new wine.

14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, since it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and among themselves, Behold, are not all these which speak, of Galile?
your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.

I. 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by mighty works, and wonders, and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw him, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; Moreover my flesh also shall dwell in hope:

18 Καὶ ἀνάμεσά σοι καὶ συνάδολοί σου καὶ ἐπὶ τὰς δώλιας ταύτας ἡμέρας έκκείναις εκχέω ἀπό τοῦ πνεύματος μου, καὶ προφητεύσωσιν.

19 καὶ ὁ δόσις τέρατα ἐν τῷ οὐρανῷ καὶ σημεία ἐπὶ τῆς γῆς κάτω, καὶ εἴπην ἔπι τῷ θεεῖ τούτῳ, καὶ σαίδηται καὶ σημεία ἐν τῇ γῇ σοι·

20 ὁ θεὸς εἰς τὴν δόξαν χειρός μου ἀνείλης καὶ σημείας καὶ τερατών καὶ σήματων ἐποίησε ναζωραίι τοῦ θεοῦ εἰς τῆς δόξας μου εἰς ὑμᾶς δυνάμεις καὶ ὑπερήφανοις ἐν τῇ δόξῃ σαίδηται καὶ σημείοις.

21 καὶ έσται πᾶς δεῖ ἐπὶ ταῦτα και ταῦτα τοῦ Θεοῦ προφητεύομεν.

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out of my Spirit in those days, and they shall prophesy.

19 And I will shew wonders in the heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; Blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 The Sunne shalbe turned into darkenesse, and the moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 And it shall be, that whosoever shall call on the Name of the Lord, shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, heare these woordes, JESUS of Nazareth, a man approvéd of God among you by great workes, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as yee your selues also knowe:

23 Him, I say, being deliuered by the determinate counsell, and foreknowledge of God, after you had taken, with wicked handes you haue crucified and slaine.

24 Whome God hath raised vp, and loosed the sorrowes of death, because it was vnpossible that he should be holden of it.
25 For David sayeth concerning him, I beheld the Lord alwaies before me: for hee is at my right hand, that I should not be shaken.
26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, and my tongue was glad, and moreouer also my flesh shal rest in hope, 27 Because thou wilt not leave my soule in graue, neither wilt suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.
28 Thou hast shewed me the waies of life, and shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.
29 Men and brethren, I may boldly speake vnto you of the Patriarke Dauid, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre remaineth with vs vnto this day.
30 Therefore, seeing hee was a Prophet, and knewe that God had sworne with an othe to him, that of the fruite of his loynes hee woulde raise vp Christ concerning the flesh, to set him vpon his throne, 31 Hee knowing this before, spake of the resurreccion of Christ, that his soule shoulde not bee left in graue, neither his flesh shoulde see corruption.
32 This Jesus hath God raised vp, whereof we all are witnesses.
33 Since then that he by the right hande of God hath bene exalted, and hath receiued of his Father the promise of the holy Ghost, hee hath shed foorth this, which ye now see and hear.
34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The LORD said unto my Lord, he saith himself, The LORD said unto my Lord, that I should not be moved; and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.
35 Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.
Sit thou on my right hand,
this which yee nowe see and heare.

Until I make thy foes the footstool.
For Daviud is not ascended into heauen, but he sayth, The Lord sayd to my Lord, Sit at my right hande,

Therefore let all the house of Israel know assur-dly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.
Vntill I make thine enemies thy footstoole.

Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the Name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

And fear came upon every soul: and many won-deed and signs were done by the apostles.
And all that believed were together, and had all things common;

And all that believed were together, and had all and fellowship, in the breaking of bread and Church about three thousand soules.

And they continued stedfastly in the apostles’
doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and

And they gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this ungodly generation.

Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized euery one of you in the Name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sinnes: and ye shall receiue the gift of the holy Ghost.

Then they that gladly receiued his word, were baptized: and the same day there were added to the Church about three thousand soules.

And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.
And they continued in the Apostles doctrine,

for the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord
our God shall call.

And with many other words he besought and exhorted them, saying, Saue your selues from this froward generation.

And they continued stedfastly in the apostles’
doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and

And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.
And all that believed were together, and had all
things common;

For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord
our God shall call.

For they then that received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, what shall we do?

Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this ungodly generation.

And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.
And all that believed were together, and had all
things common;
43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by ye Apostles.
44 And all that believed, were in one place, and had all things common.
45 And they sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, as every one had need.
46 And they continued daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

45 and they sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had need.
46 And day by day, continuing steadfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they did take their food with gladness and singleness of heart,
47 praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to them daily those that were being saved.

Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.
2 And a certain man which was a creeple from his mothers wombe, was caried, whom they layde daily at the gate of the Temple called Beautiful, to ask almes of them that entered into ye Temple.
3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked to receive an alms.
4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on us.
5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

from the dead; whereof we are witnesses.
16 And by faith in his name hath his name made this man strong, whom ye behold and know: yea, the faith which is through him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.
17 And now, brethren, I wot that in ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

19 Amend your liues therefore, and turne, that your sinnes may be put away, whie the time of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.
20 And he shall send Iesus Christ, which before was preached vnto you, Whome the heauen must containe vntill the time of restoration of all things, whereof God spake by the mouth of his holy prophets which have been since the world began.
22 Moses indeed said, A prophet shall the Lord God raise up unto you from among your brethren, like unto me; to him shall ye hearken in all things whatsoever he shall speak unto you.
23 And it shall be, that every soul, which shall not hearken to that prophet, shall be utterly destroyed from among the people.
23 For it shall be that every person which shall not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed out of the people.
24 Also all the Prophets from Samuel, and thenceforth as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.
25 Ye are the children of the Prophets, and of the covenant which God hath made unto our fathers, saying unto Abraham, Even in thy seede shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.
26 First vnto you hath God raised vp his Sonne Iesus, and him hee hath sent to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your iniquities.

And as they spake vnto the people, the Priestes and the Captaine of the Temple, and the Sadducees came upon them,
2 Taking it grieuously that they taught the people, and preached in Iesus Name the resurrection from the dead.
3 And they layde handes on them, and put them in holde, vntill the next day: for it was now euentide.
4 But many of them that heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.
5 And it came to passe on the morrow, that their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem;
6 and Annas the high priest was there, and Caiaphas,

And as they spake vnto the people, the Captain of the Temple, and the Sadducees came upon them,
2 Being sore troubled because they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.
3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.
4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.
5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem;
6 and Annas the high priest was there, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, that by the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye have crucified, whom God raised again from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

9 If we this day are examined of the good deed done to an impotent man, by what means this man is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even in him doth this man stand here before you.

11 This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.
And beholding the man which was healed standing among them, they could say nothing against it.

But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves.

Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you rather than unto God, judge ye:

But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obey you rather than God, judge ye.

For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.

And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

And they, when they had further threatened them, they could say nothing against it.

Then they commanded them to go aside out of the council, and conferred among themselves, surely a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly known to all them that dwell in Hierusalem: and we cannot denie it.

But that it be noysed no farther among the people, let vs threaten and charge them, that they speake hencefoorth to no man in this Name.

So they called them, and commanded them, that in no wise they should speake or teach in the Name of Jesus.

But Peter and John answered vnto them, and said, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

For we cannot but speake the things which we have seene and heard.

So they threatened them, and let them goe, and found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done.

For the man was aboue fourtie yeeres olde, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them, that they had bin with Iesus:

And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

Then they commanded them to goe aside out of the council, and conferred among themselves, for that surely a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly known to all them that dwell in Hierusalem: and we cannot denie it.

And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them, that they had bin with Iesus:
voice to God with one accord, and said, O Lord, thou didst make the heaven and the earth, and all that in them is:

25 who by the Holy Ghost, by the mouth of our father David thy servant, didst say, Why did the Gentiles rage, and the peoples imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth set themselves in array, And the rulers were gathered together, Against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For doubtlesse, against thine holy Sonne Iesus, whome thou haddest anoynted, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, gathered themselves together, 28 To doe whatsoever thine hand, and thy counsell had determined before to be done.

29 And nowe, O Lord, beholde their threatenings, and graunt vnto thy seruants with all boldnesse to speake thy word, 30 So that thou stretch forth thine hand, that healing, and signes, and wonders may be done by the Name of thine holy Sonne Iesus.

24 οἱ δὲ ἁκούοντες οὐμουθμαθῶν ἠραν φωνῆν πρὸς τὸν θεόν καὶ εἶπαν, δέσποτα, σὺ ο ποιήσας τὸν οὐρανὸν καὶ τὴν γῆν καὶ τὴν θάλασσαν καὶ πάντα τὰ ἐν αὐτοῖς, 25 ο τοῦ πατρὸς ἡμῶν διὰ πνεύματος ἁγίου στόματος Δαυεὶδ παιδός σου εἰπόν, ἵνα ἐφρύαξαν ἐν θεόν καὶ λαοὶ ἐμελέτησαν καὶ κατὰ τοῦ Χριστοῦ αὐτοῦ.

26 οὐρανὸν καὶ τὴν γῆν καὶ τὴν θάλασσαν καὶ πάντα τὰ ἐν αὐτοῖς,
31 And when as they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God boldly.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles’ feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles’ feet.

38 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles’ feet.

39 But Peter said, Ananias, why hast thou agreed with Satan to lie to God, to keep back part of the price of the land?

40 Thine owne women also knoweth, that thou gavest lies to God, and keepest back part.

41 And Ananias hearing these words fell down and gave up the ghost: and great fear fell upon all them that heard these things.

42 And Peter answered, with great joy, for he had the Holy Ghost also given upon him, saying, Why is it that ye both of you think it necessary that I should bewail one, whom God hath raised up for to save them that believe? 43 Cast ye away therefore this doctrine of your fathers, and receive ye the word of Christ; and be saved: for I perceive that God is able to save every one from death. 44 And ye, brethren, be zealous to keep the laws of the apostles, as ye have received me of the Lord; and I shall also keep it.

45 And after this he left those things, and received other instruction; and he spake the word of God boldly, and greatly amazed Jerusalem, and the people, and the priests, and the scribes, and the soldiers; who were in authority over the people, and over them that were in strange quarters. 46 And the witnesses agreed, testifying of the same things; and they had all one accord. 47 And Peter perceived the man that he had cast out, was healed, standing there with them. 48 And, all the people saw it, and wondered; and they laid much weight to these things: 49 Saying, What shall this mean? and they turned their eyes upon Peter and John, and considered them. 50 And Peter, and John, raising up their voice unto them, said unto them, Why is it ye regard not the feat of God, who hath given unto you a doctrine of our Lord Jesus Christ, to believe him, and to repent of your sins? 51 And they set them before the council, and said, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to hearken unto you, more than to God?

But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and kept back part of the price of the land that he sold, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles’ feet.

But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and kept back part of the price of the land that he sold, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles’ feet.
12 And by the hands of the apostles were many wonders and signs wrought among the people: and they believed the message, and glorified God. And there was great joy in the city.

13 But when those who did not believe had gathered together, they spoke against the name of the Lord, and reproached the apostles. Then Peter said, men of Israel, why do you reproach us, saying, why have you cast down by the feet of men the word of God?

14 Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Joseph, a just and prudent man, a member of the council, 15 A man of good report among the Jews, counted with the God-fearing Jews, and feared God, and was expecting the appearing of the Messiah, and fasted and prayed continually at the desk of Solomon.

16 And when Peter had mentioned these words, Ananias hearing these words, falling down, gave up the ghost.

17 For it was about the space of three hours after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

18 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

19 And Peter said unto her, Why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou shouldst lie vnto the holy Ghost, and keepe away part of the price of this possession?

20 And she answered him, Yea, we sold the land for so much. And he said, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? beholde, the feete of them which haue buried thine husband, are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

21 And his wife, sold a possession, yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them:
but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folk, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and were filled with indignation,
were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees),
and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the doors of the prison: and they became all joyful, and called Peter and哪怕是约拿单，他们一听见，就出来求告耶和华，

20 Go ye, and stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this Life.

21 And when they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called are at the door, and shall carie thee out.

10 Then she fell downe straightway at his feete, and yielded vp the ghost: and the yong men came in, and found her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and on
as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the hands of the Apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among the people (and they were all with one accord in Salomons porche.

13 And of the other durst no man ioyne him selfe to them: neuerthelesse the people magnified them.

14 Also the number of them that beleuued in the Lord, both of men and women, grewe more and more)

15 In so much that they brought the sicke into the streets, and layd them on beds and couches, that at the least way the shadowe of Peter, when he came by, might shadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about into Hierusalem, bringing sicke folkes, and them which were vexed with vnclene spirits,
who were all healed.

17 Then the chiefe Priest rose vp, and all they that were with him (which was the sect of the Sadducees) and were full of indignation,
20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and shewed them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, 28 Saying, Did we not strictly command you that ye should not teach in this name: and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with trouble, and the keepers standing at the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

29 But Peter and the apostles answered and said, We must obey God rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye killed and hanged on a tree.

31 But God raised him from the dead: and to this we are witnesses.

32 And therefore are all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever belives in him shall receive remission of sins.

33 But when they believed, they used to say, The men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teach the people.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the Councill, and the chiefe Priest asked them, that ye should not teach in this Name? and behold, ye have filled Hierusalem with your doctrine, and ye would bring this mans blood upon vs.

28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you, that ye should not teach in this Name? and behold, ye have filled Hierusalem with your doctrine, and ye would bring this mans blood upon vs.

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and said, We ought rather to obey God then men.

30 The God of our fathers hath raised vp Jesus, whom ye slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right hand, to be a Prince and a Saviour, to give repentance to Israel, and forguines of sinnes.

32 And we are witnesses concerning these things which we say: yea, and the holy Ghost, whome God hath giuen to them that obey him.

33 Now when they heard it, they brast for anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stoode there vp in the Councill a certaine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctor of the Lawe, honoured of all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forth a little space, 35 And sayd vnto them, Men of Israel, take heede to your selues, what ye intende to doe touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Thedas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and slew, hanging him on a tree.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the enrollment, and drew away some of the people after him: he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

Now in these days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a murmuring of the Grecian Jews against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 But there arose certain of them that were of the Synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Syria, and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and power of the Holy Ghost, and by which he spake.

11 Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

And the Lord said unto him, Loose the shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have surely seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them: and now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? him hath God sent to be both a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

37 This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.

38 This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness forty years.

39 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

40 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sinai, an Angel of the Lord in a flame of fire, in a bush.

41 And when Moses saw it, hee wondered at the sight: and as he drew neere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying,
38 This is he that was in the Congregation, in the wilderness with the Angel, which spake to him in mount Sina, and with our fathers, who received the lively oracles to give unto vs.

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but refused, and in their hearts turned backe againe into Egypt:

40 Saying vnto Aaron, Make vs gods that may goe before vs: for we knowe not what is become of this Moses that brought vs out of the land of Egypt.

41 And they made a calfe in those days, and offered sacrifices vs to serue the hoste of heauen, as it is written in the booke of the Prophets, O house of Israel, haue ye offered to me vp to serue the idol, and rejoyned in the works of their owne handes.

42 Then God turned himselfe away, and gaue them vp to serue the host of heauen, as it is written in the booke of the Prophets, O house of Israel, haue ye offerd to vs the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made vp to serue vs: and I will carie you beyond Babylon.

43 And ye tooke vp the tabernacle of Moloch, and the starre of your god Rephan, The figures which ye made to serue them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calfe in those days, and brought a sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoyned in the works of their hands.

42 But God turned, and gave them up to serve the hoste of heauen; as it is written in the booke of the Prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offerd to me vp to serue the idol, and rejoyned in the works of their owne handes.

42 Then God turned, and gave them vp to serve the hoste of heauen, as it is written in the booke of the Prophets, O house of Israel, haue ye offerd to vs the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made vp to serue vs: and I will carie you beyond Babylon.

and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, named Saul.
And Saul consented to his death, and at that time, there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, caried Steuen amongs them, to be buried, and made great lamentation for him.
3 But Saul made hauocke of the Church, and entred into euery house, and drewe out both men and women, and put them into prison.
4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went to and from preaching the worde.
5 Then came Philip into the citie of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.
6 And the people that were with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philippe spake, with one accorde, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.
7 For unclean spirits, crying with a loud voyce, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.
8 And there was great joy in that city.
9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying that he himselfe was some great man.
10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.
11 And they gave heed vnto him, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.
12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name that were palsied, and that were lame, were healed.

Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near and join thyself to yonder chariot.

And Philip ran thither, and heard him read the Prophet Esaias, and said, But understandest thou what thou readest?

And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?

And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way.

or of some other?

35 And Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this scripture, preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

38 And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

and saide, I believe that Jesus Christ is that guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

He was led as a sheep to the slaughter: and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. Then he answered, and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way. and saide, I believe that Jesus Christ is that guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way.
But Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus unto the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to believe this day.

6 And he said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And he said, Lord, persecute me not now, Lord. And the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is achosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

8 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

9 And Saul arose from the earth: and when his eyes were opened, he saw nothing: and they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

10 And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

11 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and the Lord said unto him in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Lord, behold, I am here, Lord.

12 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street, and straighten a certain man, named Saul, of Tarsus, which dwelleth by the way, and is come hither with them.

13 But Saul yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of ye Lord, went vnto the hie Priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the Synagogues, that if he found any that were of that way (either men or women) hee might bring them bound vnto Hierusalem.

3 Now as he iourneyed, it came to passe that as he was come neere to Damascus, suddenly there shined rounde about him a light from heauen.

4 And hee fell to the earth, and heard a voyce, sayyng to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou mee?

5 And he sayd, Who are you, Lord? And the Lord sayd, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is harte for thee to believe.

6 But rise, and enter into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men that journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing the voice, but beholding no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth: and when his eyes were opened, he saw nothing: and they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink.

10 Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and the Lord said unto him in a visi- tion, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.
And he was baptized.

And straightway there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and he received his sight; and he arose and was baptized;

for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 He then both trembling and astonied, sayd, Lord, what wilt thou that I doe? And the Lord sayd vnto him, Arise and goe into the cite, and it shall be tolde thee what thou shalt doe.

7 The men also which journeyed with him, stood amased, hearing his voyce, but seeing no man. And Saul arose from the ground, and opened his eyes, but sawe no man. Then led they him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus, 9 Where he was three dayes without sight, and neither ate nor dranke.

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he sayd, Beholde, I am heere, Lord.

12 And he sawe in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hands on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I haue heard by many of this man, howe much euill hee hath done to thy saints at Hierusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call upon thy name.

16 for I will shew him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 And Ananias departed, and entered into the house; and laying his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way which thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost.

19 And straightway there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and he received his sight; and he arose and was baptized;

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias, and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Beholde, I am here, Lord.

11 Then the Lord sayd vnto him, Arise, and goe into the streete which is called Straight, and seeke in the house of Iudas after one called Saul of Tarsus: for beholde, he prayeth.

12 (And he sawe in a vision a man named Ananias comming in to him, and putting his hands on him, that he might receive his sight.)

11 And the Lord sayd unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be tolde thee what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord sayd vnto him, Arise and goe into the cite, and it shall be tolde thee what thou shalt doe.

12 and he hath seen a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 But Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call upon thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles and kings, and the children of Israel:

16 for I will shew him how many things he must suffer for my name’s sake.

17 And Ananias departed, and entered into the house; and laying his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way which thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost.

Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas:

22 But Saul encreased the more in strength, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damascus, confirming, that this was that Christ.

23 And after that many dayes were fulfilled, the Iewes tooke counsell together, to kill him, 24 But their laying awaite was knowne of Saul: nowe they watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples tooke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe by a rope in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Hierusalem, he assayed to ioyne himselfe with the disciples: but they were all afrayd of him, and beleeued not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, and brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how he had spoken boldly at Damascus in the Name of Jesus.

28 And hee was conversant with them at Hierusalem, and spake and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

29 And he spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and spake and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knewe it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them going in and going out at Jerusalem,

29 preaching boldly in the name of the Lord: and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

30 But when the brethren knewe it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 And it came to pass, as Peter went throughout all parts, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named AEneas, which had kept his bed eight years; for he was palsied.

34 And Peter said unto him, AEnneas, Jesus Christ healeth thee: arise, and make thy bed. And straightway he arose.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

36 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas:

and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus.
And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: and when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper chamber.

Now as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men unto him, entreating him, Delay not to come on unto us.

And Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, he said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

Calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive.

And he gave her his hand, and raised her up; and calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive.

And it became known throughout all Joppa: and many believed on the Lord.

And it came to pass, that he abode many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.
Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,
2 a devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.
3 He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.
4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and

Then Peter arose and came with them: and when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber, where all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coates and garments, which Dorcas made, while she was with them.
40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed, and turned him to the body, and said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.
41 Then he gave her the hand and lifted her up, and called the Saints and widows, and restored her alive. And it was known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.
43 And it came to passe that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

Furthermore there was a certain man in Cesarea called Cornelius, a captain of the band called the Italian band,
2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his householde, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed God continually.
3 He saw in a vision evidently (about the ninth hour of the day) an Angel of God comming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.
4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and delay to come vnto them.
39 Then Peter arose and came with them: and when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber, where all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coates and garments, which Dorcas made, while she was with them.
40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed, and turned him to the body, and sayd, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sate vp.
41 Then he gave her the hand and lift her vp, and called the Saints and widows, and restored her alie.
42 And it was known throughout all Ioppa, and many beleued in the Lord.
43 And it came to passe that he tarried many dayes in Ioppa with one Simon a Tanner.
said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God. And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter: he lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do. And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; and when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa. On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the house top to pray about the sixth hour. While he thought on these things, the Spirit surnamed Peter, were lodging there. And while Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his seruants, and a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him, and drew nigh vnto the cite, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the sixt houre. Then waxed hee an hungred, and would haue eaten: but while they made some thing ready, he fell into a trance. Wherein were all maner of foure footed beastes of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air. And hee sawe heauen opened, and a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheete, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth. Wherein were all manner of foure footed beastes.

And when the Spirit surnamed Peter, were lodging there. And while Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. 4 But when hee looked on him, hee was afrayd, and said, What is it, Lord? and hee said vnto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come vp into remembrance before God. 5 Nowe therefore send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter. 6 Hee lodgeth with one Simon a Tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to doe. 7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his seruants, and a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him, and drew nigh vnto the city, Peter went uppon the house to pray, about the sixt houre. 8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Ioppa. 9 On the morow as they went on their iourney, and drew neere vnto the citie, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the sixt houre. 10 Then waxed hee an hungred, and would haue eaten: but while they made some thing ready, he fell into a trance. 11 And hee sawe heauen opened, and a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheete, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth. 12 Wherein were all manner of foure footed beastes of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.
20 But arise, and get thee down, and go with them, nothing doubting: for I have sent them.
21 And Peter went down to the men, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?
22 And they said, Cornelius the captain, a Just man, and one that feareth God, and well reported among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by a holy angel to send for thee into his house.

But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

And as he talked with him, he went in, and found Simon’s house, and stood before the gate.

And when it came to pass that Peter entered, Cornelius waited for them, having called certain of the brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

And on the morrow they entered into Caesarea.

The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

And whilst Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had inquired for Simon’s house, and stood at the gate.

And Peter went down to the men, and said, Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Arise, Peter: Kill, and eat.

22 And they sayd, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned of God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and hear words from thee.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was drawn vp againe into heauen.

23 And he called them in and lodged them. And on the morrow he arose and went forth with them, and certain of the brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And on the morrow he arose and went forth with them, and worshipped him.

25 And when it came to pass that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter raised him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and foundeth many come together:

28 And he said unto them, Ye yourselves know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to join himself or come unto one of another nation; and of the earth, and wilde beasts and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: kill, and eate.

14 But Peter sayd, Not so, Lord: for I haue never eaten any thing that is polluted, or vnclene.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the second time, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

16 This was so done thrice: and the vessel was drawn vp againe into heauen.

17 Nowe while Peter douted in himselfe what this vision which he had seene, meant, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius had inquired for Simons house, and stoode at the gate, 18 And when Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit sayde vnto him, Beholde, three men seeke thee.

19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said vnto him, Beholde, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and goe with them, and doute nothing: For I haue sent them.

21 Then Peter went downe to the men, which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayd, Beholde, I am he whome ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they sayd, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and well reported of by all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words from thee.
23 And called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 As Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him. But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man. And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man common or unclean.

26 But Peter took him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euuen I my selfe am a man. And as he talked with him, he came in, and found many that were come together.

27 And as he spake with him, he went in, and found many that were come together. And it came to passe as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feete, and worshipped him. Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fastening until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright apparel, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen, and special friends. And it came to passe as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feete, and worshipped him.

31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and myelve also am a man. And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawfull thing for a man that is a Iewe, to company, or come vnto one of another nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man polluted, or vncline.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call unto thee Simon, who is surnamed Peter; he lodgeth in the house of Simon a tanner, by the sea side.

33 Forthwith therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to hear all things that have been commanded thee of the Lord.

34 And Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him.

36 The word which he sent unto the children of Israel, preaching good tidings of peace by Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all)--- thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:

37 That saying ye yourselves know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;

38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom he pressed of the devil; for God was with him.

40 Him God raised up the third day, and gave him to be made manifest, not to all the people, but unto witnesses that were chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

41 And he charged us to preach unto the people, and to testify that this is he which is ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

42 And he charged us to preach unto the people, and to testify that this is he which is ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

43 To him bear all the prophets witness, that through his name every one that believeth on him shall receive remission of sins.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

46 And they marvelled, when they heard that the gift of God was had in remembrance of them also.
40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil: for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Hierusalem, whom they slew, hanging him on a tree.

40 Him God raised up the third day, and caused that he was shewed openly:

41 Not to all the people, but unto the witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

43 To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

47 μήτι τὸ ὕδωρ δύναται κωλύσαί τις τοῦ μὴ βαπτισθῆναι τοῦτοις οἵτινες τὸ πνεῦμα τὸ ἅγιον ἐλαβον ὡς καὶ ἡμεῖς;

48 προσέταξεν δὲ αὐτοῖς ἐν τῷ ὅνοματι Ἰησοῦ Χριστοῦ βαπτισθῆναι. τότε ἤρωτησαν αὐτὸν ἐπιμεῖναι ἡμέρας τινάς.
And the apostles and brethren that were in Judaea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him, Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

But Peter began, and expounded the matter unto them in order, saying,

I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; kill and eat.

But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

Now the apostles and the brethren that were in Judaea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended against him, Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to them, saying,

I was in the city of Joppa, praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel coming downe as it had bene a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me.

Towarde the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

Also I heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eate.

And I said, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entered into my mouth.
11 And behold, forthwith three men stood before the house in which we were, having been sent from Caesarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, making no distinction. And these six brethren also accompanied me; and we entered into the man’s house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how he said, Iohn indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 As he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.
19 Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Greeks, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of those things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad; and he exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost, and faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seek for Saul: and when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that even for a whole year they were gathered together with the church, and taught much people: and the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem to Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be a great famine over all the world: which came to pass throughout till they came vnto Phenice and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the worde to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

29 Now some of them were men of Cyprus and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the Grecians, and preached the Lord Jesus.

30 But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Greeks also, preaching the Lord Jesus.

31 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number that believed turned unto the Lord.

32 And it came to pass, that even for a whole year they were gathered together with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians at first in Antioch.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, so that a great number believing and turned vnto the Lord. And tidings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Hierusalem, and they sent foorth Barnabas, that he should goe vnto Antiochia.

22 Then tydings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Hierusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should goe vnto Antiochia.

23 Who when he was come and had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would continue in the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people ioyned them selues vnto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seke Saul: And when he had founde him, he brought him frist in Antioch.

26 And when they had heard these things, they helde their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles graunted repentance vnto life.

27 And they which were scattered abroad because of the affliction that arose about Steuen, went throughout till they came vnto Phenice and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the worde to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.
unto Antioch.

And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar.

Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judaea:

Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

And when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)
5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.
6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.
7 And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.
8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.
9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knewe not that it was true, which was done by the Angel,
but thought he had seene a vision.
10 Nowe when they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.
11 And when Peter was come to himselfe, he said,
Nowe I know for a trueth, that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of ye Church vnto God for him.
6 And when Herod would have brought him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betweene two souldiers, bound with two chains, and the keepers before the doore, kept the prison.
7 And behold the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and rased him vp, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his handes.
8 And the Angel saide vnto him, Girde thy selfe, and binde on thy sandales. And so he did. Then he said vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.
9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knewe
not that it was true, which was done by the Angel,
but thought he had seene a vision.
10 Nowe when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the yron gate, that lead-eth vnto the citie, which opened to them by it owne accord, and they went out, and passed through one streete, and by and by the Angel departed from him.
11 And when Peter was come to himselfe, he said,
Nowe I know for a trueth, that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of the side, and awoke him, saying, Rise up quickly.

And his chains fell off from his hands.
8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And he did so. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.
9 And he went out, and followed; and he wist not that it was true which was done by the angel, but thought he saw a vision.
10 And when they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.
11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said,
Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.
And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying. And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda. And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate. And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel. But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished. But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place. Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter. And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he departed, and went down from Judaea to Caesarea, and there abode. And Herod, and from all the waying for of the people of the Iewes.

And as he considered the thing, he came to the house of Marie, the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together, and prayed. And when Peter knocked at the entrie doore, a maide came fourth to hearken, named Rhode, and tolde howe Peter stood before the entrie. But they said vnto her, Thou art mad. Yet she affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then said they, It is his Angel. But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and sawe him, they were astonied. And he beckened vnto them with the hand, to hold their peace, and told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Goe shewe these things vnto Iames and to the brethren: and he departed, and went into an other place. Nowe assoone as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter. And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he departed, and went forth from Judaea to Caesarea, and thare abode.
And immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

But the word of God grew and multiplied.

And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.

Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

And when they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John as their attendant.

And when they had gone through the whole island.

And immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

But the word of God grew and multiplied.

And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

There were also in the church that was at Antioch, certain prophets and teachers, as Barnabas, and Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen (which had been brought up with Herod the Tetrarch), and Saul.

Now as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.

Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

And when they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John as their attendant.

And when they had gone through the whole island.
unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Ghost, fastened his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

13 Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem.
14 But they, passing through from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia; and they went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, hearken.

17 The God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred and fifty years.

20 And for about the time of forty years suffered he them out of it.

21 The God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm led he them forth out of it.

22 And for about the time of fourty yeeres, suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

23 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred and fifty years.

24 And when he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king; to whom also he bare witness, saying, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man vpon thee, and thou shalt be blinde, and not see the sunne for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

25 Then the Deputie when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

26 Nowe when Paul and they that were with him were departed by shippe from Paphus, they came to Perga a citie of Pamphylia: then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Hierusalem.

27 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch a citie of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on ye Sabbath day, and sate down.

28 And for about the time of forty years suffered he them out of it.

29 The God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

30 And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

31 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred and fifty years:

32 And after these things he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet.

33 And afterward they asked for a king; and God gave unto them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for the space of forty years.

made unto the fathers,
33 how that God hath fulfilled the same unto our children, in that he raised up Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.
34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.
35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.
36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:
37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he raised vp Iesus, euen as it is written in the seconde Psalme, Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.
33 Wherefore he sayeth also in another place, Thou wilt not suffer thine Holy one to see corruption.
34 Nowe as concerning that he raised him vp from the dead, no more to returne to corruption, he hath said thus, I will give you the holy things of Dauid, which are faithfull.
35 Wherefore hee sayeth also in another place, Thou wilt not suffer thine Holy one to see corruption.
36 Howbeit, Dauid after hee had serued his time by the counsell of God, hee slept, and was laid with his sure blessings of David.

31 And he was seen many days of them which came vp with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, which are his witnesses unto the people.
30 But God raised him from the dead:
29 And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they took him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.
28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kill him.
27 They took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.
26 And when the centurion, and they which were with him, saw the things that were done, they also feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Sonne of God.
25 Then came there a certain Jew, asleep among the dead, and was laid in the sepulchre with them.
24 And when he was to be buried, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.
23 So also Jesus suffered, and died, and rose again the third day according to the scriptures.
22 The graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose;
21 And came with him, and entered into the sepulchre.
20 And when the centurion, and they which were with him, saw the things that were done, they also feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.
19 And when the centurion and they which were with him, seeing the manner of his death, said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
18 And that day were recorded, how he was crucified.
17 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they entered into the temple: and Jesus went about through all the city, teaching.
16 And when the centurion and they which were with him, seeing the manner of his death, said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
15 And that day were recorded, how he was crucified.
14 And when the centurion and they which were with him, seeing the manner of his death, said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
13 And that day were recorded, how he was crucified.
12 And when the centurion and they which were with him, seeing the manner of his death, said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
11 And that day were recorded, how he was crucified.
10 And when the centurion and they which were with him, seeing the manner of his death, said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
9 And that day were recorded, how he was crucified.
8 And when the centurion and they which were with him, seeing the manner of his death, said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
7 And that day were recorded, how he was crucified.
6 And when the centurion and they which were with him, seeing the manner of his death, said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
5 And that day were recorded, how he was crucified.
4 And when the centurion and they which were with him, seeing the manner of his death, said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
3 And that day were recorded, how he was crucified.
2 And when the centurion and they which were with him, seeing the manner of his death, said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
1 And that day were recorded, how he was crucified.

And that day were recorded, how he was crucified.

And when the centurion and they which were with him, seeing the manner of his death, said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

And that day were recorded, how he was crucified.

And that day were recorded, how he was crucified.

And when the centurion and they which were with him, seeing the manner of his death, said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

And that day were recorded, how he was crucified.

And when the centurion and they which were with him, seeing the manner of his death, said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
38 He it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

39 And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which was spoken of in the prophets, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins.

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be spoken to them the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

44 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and blasphemed.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from away: for I woorke a woorke in your daies, a woorke which yee shall not beleue, if a man would declare it you.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

48 And as the Jews heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was spread abroad throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews urged on the devout women of honourable estate, and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and cast them out of their borders.
51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.
52 And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Ghost.

And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.
50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honour able women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled
them out of their coasts.
51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.
52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

And it came to pass in Iconium, that they entered to together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed.
2 But the Jews that were disobedient stirred up the souls of the Gentiles, and made them evil affected against the brethren.

6 They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

8 Nowe there sate a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his feete, which was a creeple from his mothers womb, who never had walked:
9 He heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to be healed,
10 Said with a loude voyce, Stand vpright on thy feete. And he leaped vp, and walked.
11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.
12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercury, because he was the chief speaker.
13 And the priest of Jupiter whose temple was before the city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the multitudes.
14 But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they rent their garments, and sprang forth among the multitude, crying out 15 and saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these vain things unto the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that are therein:

17 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having 24 And they passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:
26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.
27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how that he had opened a door of faith unto the Gentiles.

6 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

7 And when there had been much questioning, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

Then came downe certaine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying, Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

15 And to this agree the words of the Prophets, as it is written,
16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down, and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:
17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.
18 From the beginning of the world, God knoweth all his works.
19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God, 20 But that we write unto them, that they abstaine themselves from filthinesse of idoles, and fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.
21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.
22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:
23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner;
24 Forasmuch as we have heard that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls; to whom we gave no commandment;
25 it seemed good unto us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,
The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia:

Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

26 men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation.

It seemed therefore good to us, when we were come together with one accord, to send chosen men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, Men that have given vp their lives for the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

And when they had read it, they rejoiced for the consolation.

And when they had read it, they rejoiced for the consolation.

36 And after some days Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us return now and visit our brethren in every city wherein we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought it not meete to take him unto their companie, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

39 Then were they so stirred, that they departed asunder one from the other, so that Barnabas took Mark, and sailed vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

32 And Judas and Silas, being Prophets, exhorted the brethren with many wordes, and strengthened them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let goe in peace from the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding Silas thought good to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with many other, the worde of the Lord.

36 But after certaine dayes, Paul said vnto Barnabas, Let vs returne, and visite our brethren in euery citie, where we haue preached the worde of the Lord, and see how they doe.

37 And Barnabas counselled to take with them Iohn, called Marke.

38 But Paul thought it not meete to take him vnto their companie, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, stablish-
Then came he to Derbe and to Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

2 Which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and he assayed to go into Bithynia; and the Spirit of the Lord suffered them not.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, which were ordained of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Jerusalem.

5 And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and Galatia, they were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,

7 and when they were come over against Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 Therefore they passed through Mysia, and came down to Troas.

9 Where a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 As he was praying the churches.
10 And when he had seen the vision, straightway we sought to go into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis;

12 and from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the sabbath day we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one that worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, to give heed unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 And it came to pass, as we were going to the place of prayer, that a certain maid having a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying.
17 The same following Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the Most High God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, turned and said to the spirit, I charge thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

19 And when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 And set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent their clothes off them, and commanded them to be beaten with rods.

23 And when they had beaten them sore, they cast them into prison, commanding the jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them surely:

19 Nowe when her masters sawe that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drewe them into the market place vnto the Magistrates,

20 And brought them to the gouernours, saying, These men which are Iewes, trouble our citie, for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

21 The people also rose vp together against them, and the gouernours rent their clothes, and commannded them to be beaten with roddes.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, and to all that were in his house.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God.

35 But when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Do them into the inner prison, and made their feete fast in the stockes.

25 Nowe at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sung Psalms vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by and by all the doores opened, and euery mans bands were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and when he saw the prison doors open, he drew out his sword and would haue killed himselfe, supposing the prisoners had bin fled.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 and Paul, as his custom was, went in unto them, and for three sabbath days reasoned with them from the scriptures,

3 opening and alleging, that it behoved the Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead:

4 and that his serulants declare this, as it is written, saying, That the Christ must suffer, and rise from the dead the third day:

5 and that repentance towards God, and faith towards the Lord, should be preached unto every nation:

Now the word of God fell upon all them that heard it.

20 And the multitude of them that believed confessed, and many miracles were done by the apostles.

21 And the rulers of the synagogue were filled with jealousy; and rose up against them, and put them out of the city, charging the whole multitude to forbear to hear them.

22 And they went out unto the countries about Lycaonia, and Iconium: and from thence travelled through Pamphilia, and entered into Perga.

23 And a certain Jew named Attapeus was with them, which had also been the chief speaker of the Stoics: who when he had辩论 against Paul with the philosophers, was answered and克服ed.

24 And when they had laid hands on them, they delivered them unto the authorities of the city: and when they had beaten them, they cast them out.

25 But a certain Jew named Timotheus, whose mother was a Greek, and his father a Jew, was brought up, and was taught the way of the Lord.

26 And he believed, and entered in with the brethren, and was zealous in maintaining and teaching the scriptures.

27 And as he was too zealous in maintaining the law, that he answered Paul and the brethren, he fell into the hands of the multitude:

28 And when they were about to kill him, he escaped through the windows, and came to Iconium.

29 And he went through Iconium, and Lystra, and Derbe, and in other cities, preaching the gospel, and confirming the souls of the disciples.

30 And the brethren which were at Lystra and Iconium: having knowledge of the coming of Paul, sent unto him a man named Timotheus, that he might come unto them: and when he came to them, they were glad.

31 And the brethren which were at Lystra and Iconium, when they had seen him, sent unto the apostles for the word of grace: who, when they were come, delivered unto them their things written, and exhorted them: and after they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.
2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three Sabbath days disputed with them by the Scriptures,

3 Opening, and alleging that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them were more noble than those in Thessalonica, and unied with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 But the Jews, being moved with jealousy, took unto them certain vile fellows of the rabble sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

8 Then they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, crying, These are they which have subverted the state of the world, and here they are,

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Beroea: who when they were come thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 Now these were more noble than those in Thesalonica, and unied with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, and the heads of the multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

9 And when they had taken security from Jason and of the other, they let them go.

3 Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

9 And when they had taken security from Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Beroea: who when they were come thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, and unied with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.
10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Beroea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timothy abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him, as he beheld the city wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with them that met with him.

18 And certain also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, What would this babbler say? other some, He seem-

What will this babbler say? other some, He seem-ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars’ hill, and and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are somewhat superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO AN UN-worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth saying, Yee men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and behelde your deuotions, I founde an altar wherein was written, VNTO THE 25 Neither is worshipped with mens handes, as though he needed any thing, seeing hee giveth to all life and breath and all things;

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;

27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from each one of us:

28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being, as also certaine of your owne poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then, as we are the generation of God, we ought not to thinke that ye Godhead is like unto gold, or siluer, or stone grauen by arte and device of man.

30 The times of this ignorance God winked at: but nowe hee admonisheth all men euyery where to repent, 31 Because he hath appoynted a day in the which hee will judge the world in righteousness by his man whom he hath ordained; whereof hee hath giuen assurance to all men, in that hee hath raised him from the dead.

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.
32 Now when they heard of the resurrection from the dead, some mocked, and other said, We will hear thee againe of this thing.

33 And so Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certaine men clave vnto Paul, and beleued: among whome was also Denys Areopagita, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

After these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth.

2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jewes to depart from Rome:) and came vnto them.

3 And because hee was of the same crafte, he abode with them, and wrought (for their crafte was to make tentes.)

4 And he disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes, and the Grecians.

5 Now when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul, forced in spirit, testified to the Iewes that Jesus was the Christ.

and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

After these things he departed from Athens, and came to Corinth.

2 And he found a certain man named Titus Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagoge.

8 And Crispus, the ruler of the synagoge, believed 32 Καὶ εἶδαν ὅτι πήραξεν τὸν Χριστόν ἐν ἑαυτῷ καὶ τοὺς κατάνομος ἑαυτοῦ, ἐκτιναξάμενος τὰ ἱμάτια εἶπεν πρὸς αὐτούς, τὸ αἷμα ὑμῶν ἐπὶ τὴν κεφαλὴν ὑμῶν• καθαρὸς ἐγώ• ἀπὸ τοῦ ἀπὸ τοῦ νῦν εἰς τὰ ἔθνη πορεύσομαι.

34 καὶ διὰ τὸ ὁμότεχνον εἶναι ἔμενεν παρ᾽ αὐτοῖς καὶ ἠργάζοντο• ἦσαν γὰρ σκηνοποιοὶ τῇ τέχνῃ.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded Jews and Greeks.

5 And when Silas and Timothy were come from Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the word, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads: I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

And Paul, having tarried after this yet many days, seat. And Gallio cared for none of these things.

Then they all laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment-seat. And Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked villany, O ye Jews, reason maintaine you.

14 But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill deede, O ye Iewes, I would according to your Lawe, looke yee to it your selues: for I will be no judge of such matters.

And he drave them from the judgment seat. Gallio said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or wicked levendness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

And he drave them from the judgment seat. And Gallio said, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

And Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and rising the word of God among them.

18 But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, hee tooke leaue of the brethren, and sailed into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that he had shorne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.
19 Then hee came to Ephesus, and left them there: but hee entred into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes.
20 Who desired him to tarie a longer time with them: but he would not consent, 21 But bade the farewell, saying, I must needs keepe this feast that commeth in Hierusalem: but I will returne againe vnto you, if God will. So he sailed from Ephesus.
22 And when hee came downe to Cesarea, he went vp to Hierusalem: and when he had saluted the Church, he went downe vnto Antiochia.
23 Nowe when he had taried there a while, he departed, and went thorowe the countrey of Galatia and Phrygia by order, strengthening all the disciples.

And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:

For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John’s baptism.

And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Achaia, the brethren encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him: and when he was come, he helped them much which had believed through grace:

for he powerfully confuted the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

And it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinth, that Paul when he passed thorow the upper coasts, came to Ephesus, and found certaine discipules,

2 And saide vnto them, Haue ye receiued the holy Ghost since ye beleeued? And they saide vnto him, We haue not so much as heard whether there be an holy Ghost.

3 And he said vnto them, Vnto what were ye then baptizde• ἃς παραγενόμενος συνεβάλετο πολὺ τοῖς πεπιστευκόσιν διὰ τῆς χάριτος•

28 εὐτόνως γὰρ τοῖς Ἰουδαίοις διακατηλέγετο δημοσίᾳ ἐπιδεικνύς εἶναι τὸν Χριστὸν Ἰησοῦν.

And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus, and finding certain disciples,

2 And he said unto them, Did ye receive the Holy Ghost when ye believed? And they said unto him, Nay, we did not so much as hear whether the Holy Ghost was given.

3 And he said, Into what then were ye baptized? οἱ δὲ πρὸς αὐτὸν, ἀλλ᾽ οὐδ᾽ εἰ πνεῦμα ἅγιον ἔστιν ἠκούσαμεν.

3  ὁ δὲ εἶπέν• εἰς τί οὖν ἐβαπτίσθητε; οἱ δὲ εἶπαν, εἰς τὸ Ἰωάννου βάπτισμα.

4 And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Jesus.

5 And when they heard this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them,
12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 But certain also of the strolling Jews, exorcists, took upon them to name over them which had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, a chief priest, which did this.

15 And when they heard it, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 16 And the evil spirits went out of them.

17 And it came to pass, that, when this was reported, all that dwell in the coasts of Phrygia and Asia were afraid, and turned to the Lord with one accord.

18 And the Lord wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul: so that handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

19 Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, gathered themselves together, and moved all the people, saying, That which Paul hath wrought, he doth with other necromancers by his chicanery.

20 For this cause also certain people, of the Gentile nation, made themselves of the circumcision.

21 Saying, That over forty years ago, which Paul came into the city, they have kicked against the head of all the Gentiles, and are full of all vanity.

22 But now, having seen Paul and Barnabas, they are full of wonder, saying, These men are of the Holy Ghost.
And about that time there arose no small stir among the Jews and Greeks who dwelt at Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all, and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

19 Many also of them which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them in the sight of all: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily grew the word of the Lord and prevailed.

21 After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 And he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a while.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, that dwelt at Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 Many also of them which used curious arts brought their books, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the worde of God grewe mightily, and prevailed.

20 So the worde of God grewe mightily, and prevailed.
23 And the same time there arose no small stir about that way.
24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines of Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;
25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.
26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:
27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be made of no account, and that her magnificence should be despised, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.
28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, That they be not gods, which are made with hands:
29 And the city was filled with the confusion: and they rushed with Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.
30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.
31 And certain also of the chief officers of Asia, being his friends, sent unto him, and besought him not to adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the townclerk had quieted the multitude, he saith, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there who knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken otherwise, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are not robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law concerning his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the townclerk had quieted the multitude, he saith, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there who knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken otherwise, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are not robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your goddess.

38 If therefore Demetrius, and the craftsmen that are with him, have a matter against any man, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls: let them accuse one another.
And after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece.

3 And when he had spent three months there, and a plot was laid against him by the Jews, as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him as far as Asia Sophater of Berea, the son of Pyrrhus; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.

5 But these had gone before, and were waiting for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, to go into Macedonia.

7 In one month we arrived at Troas.

8 There Paul found a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image, which came downe from Iupiter?

9 Seeing then that no man can speake against these things, ye ought to be appeased, and to doe nothing rashly.

10 For yee haue brought hither these men, which haue neither committed sacrilege, neither doe blaspheme your goddesse.

11 Wherefore, if Demetrius and the craftes men which are with him, haue a matter against any man, the lawe is open, and there are Deputies: let them accuse one another.

12 But if ye inquire any thing concerning other matters, it may be determined in a lawful assembly.

13 For we are even in iepedarie to be accused of this dayes sedition, for as much as there is no cause, whereby we may giue a reason of this concourse of people.

14 And when he had thus spoken, hee took the assembly depart.

Nowe after the tumult was appeased, Paul called the disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

2 And when hee had gone through those parts, and had exhorted them with many words, he came into Greece.

39 But if ye enquire anything about other matters, it shall be settled in the regular assembly.

40 For indeed we are in danger to be accused concerning this day’s riot, there being no cause for it: and as touching it we shall not be able to give account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

And after the tumult was appeased, Paul having sent for the disciples and exhorted them, took leave of them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

3 And there abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.

5 These going before tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul discoursed unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he was overcome with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 But Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had eaten, and talked with them a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the lad alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 But we, going before to the ship, set sail for Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, intending himself to go by land.

14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.
15 And sailing from thence, we came the following day over against Chios; and the next day we touched at Samos, and the day after we arrived at Miletus, wherefore from Miletus, he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

16 For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 Who when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: and from house to house, testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

19 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye yourselves know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: and from house to house, testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

20 How that I shrank not from declaring unto you anything that was profitable, and teaching you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

21 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

22 And they brought the boye alieue, and they were not a little comforted.

23 Save that the Holy Ghost testifieth unto me in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide still break of day, so he departed.

24 And he hasted to be, if he could possible, at Hierusalem, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

25 Now when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, and eaten, having spoken a long while till the dawning of the day, hee so had received him, we came to Mitylenes.

26 And wee sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios, and the next day we arriued at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletus.

27 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

28 Wherefore from Miletus, hee sent to Ephesus, and calleed the Elders of the Church.

29 Who when they were come to him, hee said vnto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I haue bene with you at all seasons,

30 Not a litle comforted.

31 And they brought the young man alive, and were broken bread, and eaten, having spoken a long while, even till the dawning of the day, hee so had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

32 And wee sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios, and the next day we arriued at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletus.

33 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

34 Wherefore from Miletus, hee sent to Ephesus, and calleed the Elders of the Church.

35 Who when they were come to him, hee said vnto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I haue bene with you at all seasons,

36 Not a litle comforted.

37 And they brought the young man alive, and were broken bread, and eaten, having spoken a long while, even till the dawning of the day, hee so had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

38 And wee sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios, and the next day we arriued at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletus.

39 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

40 Wherefore from Miletus, hee sent to Ephesus, and calleed the Elders of the Church.

41 Who when they were come to him, hee said vnto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I haue bene with you at all seasons,

42 Not a litle comforted.
20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house,
21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.
22 And now, behold, I go bound in the Spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befal me there:
23 Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.
24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I may accomplish my course, with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.
25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom, shall see my face no more.
26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.
27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.
28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.
29 And from among your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them.
30 And after my departing grievous wolves shall enter in among you, not sparing the flock; but first shall some man deliver me up to death, and shall see my face no more.
31 Wherefore watch ye, remembering that by the space of three years I ceased not to admonish every one night and day with tears.
32 And now I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ;
33 Whom I have loved in greater measure than they know.
34 Wherefore the brethren that are with me shall shew you nothing but that which I write unto you:
35 That ye continue stedfastly in the things which ye have learned, and have been assured of, knowing such an one as I Paul, arrested with pertinacity, who also bore witness in the Spirit; that ye finish your course with joy, and the ministry, which I received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.
28 Take heed therefore unto your selues, and to all the flocke, whereof the holy Ghost hath made you Overseers, to feede the Church of God, which hee hath purchased with that his owne blood.

29 For I knowe this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flocke.

30 Moreover of your owne selues shall men arise speaking peruerse things, to drawe disciples after them.

31 Therefore watche, and remember, that by the space of three yeres I ceased not to warne euery one, both night and day with teares.

32 And nowe brethren, I commend you to God, and to the worde of his grace, which is able to build fur-ther, and to giue you an inheritance, among all them, which are sanctified.

33 I haue coveted no mans siluer, nor gold, nor app-arel.

34 Yea, ye knowe, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, howe that so labou-ring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, howe that he saide, It is more blessed to giue, rather then to receive.

36 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck.
And it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the next day unto Rhodos, and from thence unto Patara: and finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth. And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, even out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

And when we were parted from them, we took ship, and they returned home. And as we launched forth, and were departed from them, we came with a straight course vnto Coos, and the day following vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara. And when we had embraced one another, we kneeled downe on the shore, prayed. And they wept all abundantly, and fell on Paul's necke, and kissed him, That they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him vnto the shippe.

36 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled downe, and prayed with them all. 37 Then they wept all abundantly, and fell on Pauls necke, and kissed him, 38 Being chiefly sorie for the words which he spake, That they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him vnto the shippe.
7 And when we had ended the course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, Paul and we that were with him, departed, and came into Cesarea: and we entered into the house of Philippe the Evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 Now he had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came a certain Prophet from Judea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul’s girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we had heard these things, both we and other of the same place besought him that he would not go vp to Hierusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and sayd, What doe ye weeping and breaking mine heart? For I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Hierusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we trussed vp our fardels, and went up to Hierusalem.

16 And there went with us also certain of the disciples from Cesarea, bringing with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Hierusalem, the brethren we took ship; and they returned home again.
18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present.
19 And when he had saluted them, he rehearsed one particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.
20 And when they heard it, they glorified God, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:
21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, and sayest that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

And when we were come to Hierusalem, the brethren received us gladly.
17 And when we were come to Hierusalem, the brethren received us gladly.
18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto Iames: and all the Elders were there assembled.
19 And when he had embraced them, hee tolde by all order things, that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministration.
20 So when they heard it, they glorified God, and sayd vnto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousand lewes there are which beleue, and they are all zealous of the Law:
21 Now they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes, which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, and sayest that they ought not to circumcise their sonnes, neither to liue after the customes.
22 What is then to be done? the multitude must needs come together: for they shall heare that thou art come.

Jerusalem was in confusion.
32 And forthwith he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down upon them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.
33 Then the chief captain came near, and laid hold on him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and inquired who he was, and what he had done.
34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the 39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city:

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people.

Brethren and fathers, hear ye the defence which I now make unto you.
2 And when they heard that he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, they were the more quiet: and he saith,
3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as ye all are this day:
4 And I persecuted this Way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.
5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and journeyed to Damascus, to bring them also which were there unto Jerusalem in bonds, for to be punished.
6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and drew nigh unto Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about...
5 As also the high priest both bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 Moreover they that were with me, saw indeed the light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, and came into Damascus.

10 Then I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with me, and came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt with me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 Moreover they that were with me, saw indeed the light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, and came into Damascus.

10 Then I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 So when I could not see for the glory of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with me, and came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias a godly man, as perteining to the Lawe, hauing good report of all the Iewes which dwelt there, 13 Came vnto me, and stooed, and sayd vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy sight: and that same houre I looked vpon him.

14 And he sayd, The God of our fathers hath appoined thee, that thou shouldest knowe his wil, and shouldest see that J ust one, and shouldest hearre the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witnes unto all men of the things which thou hast seen and heard.

16 Now therefore why tariest thou? Arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sinnes, in calling on the Name of the Lord.

17 And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Hierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a traunce,

18 And saw him saying vnto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Hierusalem: for they will not receive thy witnes concerning me.

19 Then I sayd, Lord, they know that I prisoned, and beat in euery Synagogue them that beleeued in thee.

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Steuen was shed, I also stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.

21 Then he sayd vnto me, Depart: for I will send thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 And they heard him vnto this worde, but then they so shouted against him.

16 And now why tariest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on his name. 17 And it came to pass, that, when I had returned to Jerusalem, while I prayed in the temple, I fell into a trance, 18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: because they will not receive of thee testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the garments of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

13 Came unto me, and stood, and sayd vnto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same houre I looked up upon him.

14 And he sayd, The God of our fathers hath appoined thee, that thou shouldest knowe his wil, and shouldest see that Just one, and shouldest hearre the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witnes unto all men of the things which thou hast seen and heard.

16 Now therefore why tariest thou? Arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sinnes, in calling on the Name of the Lord.

17 And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Hierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a traunce,

18 And saw him saying vnto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Hierusalem: for they will not receive thy witnes concerning me.

19 Then I sayd, Lord, they know that I prisoned, and beat in euery Synagogue them that beleeued in thee.

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Steuen was shed, I also stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.

21 Then he sayd vnto me, Depart: for I will send thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 And they heard him vnto this worde, but then they so shouted against him.
22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.
23 And as they cried and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be led into the castle, and bade that he should be scourged, and examined, that he might know wherefore they cryed so on him.
25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?
26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest:
for this man is a Roman.
27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him,
Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.
28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.
29 Then straightway they departed from him, which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.
30 But on the morrow, desiring to know the certain-ity, wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.
And Paul beheld earnestly the Council, and sayde, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conscience serued God untill this day.

2 Then the hie Priest Ananias commanded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then sayd Paul to him, God will smite thee, thou whited wall: for thou sittest to iudge me according to the Lawe, and transgressing the Lawe, commandest thou me to be smitten?

4 And they that stood by, sayd, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then sayd Paul, I knewe not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it was written, Thou shalt not speake euill of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one part were Sadduces, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Brethren, I am a Pharisee, son of a Pharise: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissen- sion betweene the Pharises and the Sadduces: and the assembly was divided.

8 For the Sadduces say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great clamour: and some of the certainie wherefore he was accused of the Iewes, he loosed him from his bonds, and commanded the hie Priests and all their Councill to come together: and he brought Paul, and set him before them.

And Paul beheld earnestly the Council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 The high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul to him, God will smite thee, thou whited wall: for thou sittest to judge me according to the Lawe, and transgressing the Lawe, commandest thou me to be smitten?

4 And they that stood by, said, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then sayd Paul, I knewe not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it was written, Thou shalt not speake euill of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one part were Sadduces, and the other of the Pharises, he cried in the council, Brethren, I am a Pharise, the son of a Pharise: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when hee had saide this, there was a dissen- sion betweene the Pharises and the Sadduces, so that And Paul, looking stedfastly on the council, said, Brethren, I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the Lawe, and transgressing the Lawe, commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadduces, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Brethren, I am a Pharise, a son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the assembly was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great clamour: and some of the certainie wherefore he was accused of the Iewes, he loosed him from his bonds, and commanded the hie Priests and all their Councill to come together: and he brought Paul, and set him before them.
8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharisees part rose vp, and streue, saying, Wee finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have bene pulled in pieces of them, commanded the souldiers to go downe, and take him from among them, and to bring him into the castel.

11 Nowe the night folowing, the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of mee in Hierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Jews banded together, and bounde themselues under a curse, saying, that they woulde neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fourtie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priestes and Elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eate nothing vntill we haue slaine Paul.

15 And they came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

16 But Paul’s sister’s son heard of their lying in wait, and he came and entered into the castle, and the multitude was deuided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharisees part rose vp, and streue, saying, We finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have bene pulled in pieces of them, commanded the souldiers to go downe, and take him from among them, and to bring him into the castel.

11 Nowe the night folowing, the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of mee in Hierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Jews banded together, and bounde themselues under a curse, saying, that they woulde neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fourtie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priestes and Elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eate nothing vntill we haue slaine Paul.

For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both. And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees’ part arose, and streue, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God. 10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle. 11 Nowe the night folowing, the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of mee in Hierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome. 12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Jews banded together, and bounde themselues under a curse, saying, that they woulde neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul. 13 And they were more then fourtie, which had made this conspiracie. 14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eate nothing vntill we haue slaine Paul.
15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul’s sister’s son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and going aside asked him privately, What is that thou hast to say to me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there be three score and ten horsemen threescore and ten, and said, Take this young man hence to morrow, as though you would know some thing more perfectly of him, and we, or ever he come neere, will be readie to kill him.

22 So the chief captain let the young man go, charginge him, Tell no man that thou hast signified these things to me.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves under a curse, neither to eat nor to drink till they have slain him: and now are they ready, looking for the promise from thee.

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly:

21 But let them not persuade thee: for there lie in wait for him of them, more then fourtie men, which have bound themselves with a curse, that they will haue something to shewe me, that they will.
they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

and charged him. See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen three score and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

And he provided them beasts, that they might set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

And he wrote a letter after this manner:

25 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them, when I came upon them with an army, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

And when it was shewn to me that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to thee forthwith, charging his accusers also to speak against him before thee.

So the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

But on the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night:

But on the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their Lawe, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bondes.

And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

And when it was told me how that the Jews laid what they had against him. Farewell.

So the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

Felix, greeting.

Claudius Lysias vnto the most noble Gouernour Felix sendeth greeting.

Claudius Lysias vnto the most excellent governor Felix.

28 And desiring to know the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their Council:

And when it was shewn to me that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to thee forthwith, charging his accusers also to speak against him before thee.

And he called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may go to Caesarea, and horsemen three score and ten, and two hundred with darters, at the thirde houre of the night.

And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

23 And he called vnto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, to go to Caesarea, and horsemen three score and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And he bid them provide beasts, that they might set Paul thereon, and bring him safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

And he bade them provide beasts, that they might set Paul thereon, and bring him safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

And when it was shewn to me that there would be a plot against the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their Council:

This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be slain of them, when I came upon them with the garison, and rescued him, perceiving that he was a Romane.

26 Claudius Lysias vnto the most noble Gouernour Felix sendeth greeting.

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul thereon, and bring him safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

23 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged his accusers also to speak against him before thee.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the yong man depart, after hee had charged him to vtter it to no man, that he had shewed him these things.

21 And he called vnto him two centauntes, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, to go to Caesarea, and horsemen three score and ten, and two hundred with darters, at the thirde houre of the night.

20 And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the yong man depart, after hee had charged him to vtter it to no man, that he had shewed him these things.

21 And he called vnto him two certauntes, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, to go to Caesarea, and horsemen three score and ten, and two hundred with darters, at the thirde houre of the night.

20 And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.
And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I entreat thee to hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

6 who moreover assayed to profane the temple: on livered the letter to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when he had read it, he asked of what province he was; and when he understood that he was of Cilicia, 35 I will hear thy cause, said he, when thine accusers also are come, and commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.

Now after five days, Ananias the high priest came down with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certain orator, which appeared before the Governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that we have obtained great quietness through thee, and that many worthy things are done unto this nation through thee, and that many worthy things are done unto this nation through thee, and that many worthy things are done unto this nation through thee.

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I entreat thee to hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

6 who moreover assayed to profane the temple: on
4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.
5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarites:
6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.
7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,
8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thou mayest (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things whereof we accuse him.
9 And the Jews also assented, saying that it was so.
10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckened unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:
11 Because that thou hast of many years a judge unto this nation, I do cheerfully make my defence:
12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing for to worship.
13 Neither can they prove to thee the things whereof they now accuse me.
14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the Way which they call a sect, so serve I the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets:
15 Having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there shall be a resurrection both of the just and unjust.
16 And they likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.
17 But the chief captain Lysias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our handes, and therefore wee tooke him, and woulde haue judged him according to our Lawe:
18 Having been the chief maintainer of the secte of the Nazarites:
19 And certainely we haue found this man a pestilence fellowe, and a moouer of sedition among all the Iewes throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarites:
20 Wherefore also we laid hold:
21 And neither in the temple did they find me disputing with any man or stirring up a crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city.
22 Neither can they prove to thee the things whereof they now accuse me.
23 For we have found this man a pestilence fellowe, and a moouer of sedition among all the Iewes throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarites:
24 Therefore wee tooke him, and woulde haue judged him according to our Lawe:
16 Herein do I also exercise myself to have a conscience void of offense toward God, and toward men.
17 Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings:
18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.
19 Who ought to have been present before thee, and to make accusation, if they had ought against me.
20 Or else let these men themselves say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them. Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

16 ἐν τῷ τραγουδίῳ δὲ πλειονοῦ ἐλεημοσύνης ποιήσας εἰς τὸ ἔθνος μου παραγεγομένην καὶ προσφοράς, 17 ἢ περὶ μιᾶς ταύτης φωνῆς ἧς ἐκέκραγα ἐν αὐτοῖς, ἢ περὶ αὐτοῦ ἐπὶ σοῦ παρεῖναι καὶ κατηγορεῖν εἰ τι ἐξέχειν πρὸς ὑμᾶς ἡμῖν.
18 ἢ αὐτὸι αὐτοῦ εἰπάτωσαν τί εὗρον ἀδίκημα στάντος μου ἐπὶ τοῦ συνεδρίου κατηγορεῖν εἰ τι ἐξέχειν πρὸς ὑμᾶς.
19 ἢ περὶ μιᾶς ταύτης φωνῆς ἧς ἐκέκραγα ἐν αὐτοῖς, ἢ περὶ μιᾶς ταύτης φωνῆς ἧς ἐκέκραγα ἐν αὐτοῖς, ἢ περὶ αὐτοῦ ἐπὶ σοῦ παρεῖναι καὶ κατηγορεῖν εἰ τι ἐξέχειν πρὸς ὑμᾶς.
20 ἢ περὶ μιᾶς ταύτης φωνῆς ἧς ἐκέκραγα ἐν αὐτοῖς, ἢ περὶ αὐτοῦ ἐπὶ σοῦ παρεῖναι καὶ κατηγορεῖν εἰ τι ἐξέχειν πρὸς ὑμᾶς.
22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I shall more perfectly know the things which concern this way, by the coming of Lysias the chief captain, I will discise your matter.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftner, and communed with him.

27 But when two years were expired, Porcius Festus came into Felix’ room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.
When Festus was then come into the province, after three days he went vp from Caesarea vnto Hierusalem.
2 Then the high Priest, and the chiefe of the Iewes aperead before him against Paul: and they besought him,
3 And desired fauour against him, that hee would send for him to Hierusalem: and they layd waite to kill him by the way.
4 But Festus answered, that Paul should bee kept at Caesarea, and that he himselfe would shortly depart thither.
5 Let them therefore, saide he, which among you are able, come downe with vs: and if there be any wickednes in the man, let them accuse him.
6 And when he had tarried among them no more then ten dayes, hee went downe to Caesarea, and the next day sate in the iudgement seat, and commanded Paul to be brought.
7 And when he was come, the Iews which were come from Hierusalem, stoode about him and layd many and grieuous complaints against Paul, whereof they could make no plaine prooffe,
8 Forasmuch as he answered, that he had neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all.

When Festus was then come into the province, after three days he ascended from Caesarea to Jerusalem.
2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,
3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him,
4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept in Caesarea, and that he himselfe would shortly depart thither.
5 Let them therefore, saide he, which among you are able, go downe with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.
6 And when he had tarried among them not more than ten days, he went down unto Caesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.
7 And when he was come, the Jews which had come down from Jerusalem stood round about him, bringing against him many and grievous charges, which they could not prove.
8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all.
9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?
10 Then said Paul, I stand at Caesar’s judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the Council, answered, Thou hast appealed unto Caesar?
13 And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Caesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there many days, Festus declared Paul’s cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:
15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

10 Yet Festus willing to get favour of the Iewes, answered Paul and said, Wilt thou goe vp to Hierusalem, and there be judged of these things before mee?
11 For if I have done wrong, or committed any thing worthie of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man, to pleasure them, can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Caesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with the Council, hee answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Caesar? vnto
Caesar shalt thou goe.
13 And after certaine days, King Agrippa and Bernice came doun to Caesarea to salute Festus.
14 And when they had remained there many dayes, Festus declared Pauls cause vnto the King, saying,
There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix,
15 Of whom when I came to Hierusalem, the high Priestes and Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue judgement against him.
16 To whome I answered, that it is not the maner

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I should send him to Caesar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. Tomorrow, saith he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice with great pomp, and was entered into the Common hall with the chief captaines and principal men of the city, at Festus’ commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus saith, King Agrippa, and all men principal men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought forth.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following I sat on the judgement-seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of question, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the examination of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept, till I might send him to Caesar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. Tomorrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow when Agrippa was come and Bernice with great pomp, and were entred into the Common hall with the chief captains and chiefie men of the citie, at Festus commandement Paul was brought forth.
which are here present with us, ye behold this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews made suit to me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death: and as he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my Lord: Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, King Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the causes laid against him.

And Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answere this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Chiefly, because thou art expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life then from my youth up, which was from the beginning among mine own nation, and at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 having knowledge of me from the first, if they be willing to testify, how that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers;

7 unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope’s sake, O King Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible unto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verely thought in my selfe, that I ought to doe many contrarie things against the Name of Iesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Hierusalem: for many of the Saints I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the hie Priests, and when they were put to death, I gaue my sentence.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

6 καὶ νῦν ἐπ’ ἔλπιδι τῆς εἰς τοὺς πατέρας ἡμῶν ἐπαγγελίας γενομένης ὑπὸ τοῦ θεοῦ ἔστηκα κρινόμενος,

7 εἰς ἄνευ τοῦ δωδεκάφυλον ἡμῶν ἐν ἑκτενείᾳ νύκτα καὶ ἡμέραν λατρεῦον ἐλπίζει καταντῆσαι· περὶ ἤς ἐλπίδος ἐγκαλοῦμαι ὑπὸ Ἰουδαίων, βασιλεῦ.

8 τί ἄπιστον κρίνεται παρ᾽ ὑμῖν εἰ ὁ θεὸς νεκροὺς ἐγείρει;

9 εἰς τοῦ Ναζωραίου δεῖν πολλὰ ἐναντία πρᾶξαι•

10 ὃ καὶ ἐποίησα ἐν Ἱεροσολύμοις, καὶ πολλούς τε τοῦ Ναζωραίου δεῖν πολλὰ ἐναντία πρᾶξαι•

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being more mad against them, I persecuted them, even unto strange cities.

12 At which time, euon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission of the chief priests, 13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But arise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee, to appoint thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom I send thee;

18 To open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance.

21 For this cause the Jews seized me in the temple, authoritie, and commission from the heuie Priests, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judaea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance.

14 So when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 Then I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand up on thy feet: for I have appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witnesse, both of the things which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I will appeare vnto thee.

17 Delivering thee from this people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I send thee.

18 To open their eyes, that they may turne from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiuenes of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by fayth in me.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedied vnto the heauenly vision, 20 But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turne from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiuenes of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by fayth in me.

20 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedied vnto the heauenly vision, 21 For this cause the Jews seized me in the temple,

21 And for these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself: much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, unto whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 And Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, that whether with little or with much, not thou only, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And the king rose up, and the governor, and Ber-and the gouvernor, and Bernice, and they that sate with them:

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betweene themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.
32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might haue bene loosed, if hee had not appealed vnto Caesar.

Now when it was concluded, that we should sayle into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certaine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Iulius, of the band of Augustus.
2 And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.
3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon: and Iulius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends, and refresh himself.

were come with difficulty over against Cnidus, the wind not further suffering us, we sailed under the lee of Crete, over against Salome; 8 and with difficulty coasting along it we came unto a certaine place called Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lassea. 9 And when much time was spent, and sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them, 10 and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives. 11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul. 12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, there to winter, which is an haven of Crete, and lyeth neere to Salmone.
13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Cauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And as we laboured exceedingly with the storm, they lightened the ship.

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars shone upon us for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was now taken away.

21 And when they had been long without food, then Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have set sail from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night an angel of the God whose I am, whom also I serve, 24 saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must stand before the ship.

13 And when the Southernne winde blew softly, they supposing to atteine their purpose, loosed neerer, and sailed by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormy winde called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the winde, we let her goe, and were carried away.

16 And we ran vnder a little Yle named Cauda, and had much a doe to get the boat.

17 Which they tooke vp and vsed all helpe, vnder-girding the ship, fearing least they should haue fallen into Syrtes, and they strake saile, and so were caried.

18 The next day when we were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lightened the ship.

19 And the third day we cast out with our owne hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that we should be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinance, Paul stood forth in the mids of them, and said, Syrs, ye should haue hearkened to me, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue gained this hurt and losse.

Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, 2 (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,) 3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh; 4 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead: 5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his Name among al ye Gentiles, 6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ: 7 To all that are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. 8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because your faith is published throughout the whole world. 9 For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you; always in my prayers; 10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up to vile passions: for even their women did change the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working unseemliness, and received in themselves that recompence of their error which was due.

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and received in themselves that recompence of their error which was due.

7 That is, to them which through patience in well doing, seeke glorie, and honour, and immortalitie, euerlasting life:

8 But vnto them that are contentious and disobey the trueth, and obey vnrighteousnesse, shalbe indigination, 9 Tribulation and anguish shalbe vpon the soule of euery man that doeth euill: of the Iewe first, and also of the Grecian.

10 But to euery man that doeth good, shalbe glory,
11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;

13 (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified."

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another:)

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God, and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth;

18 And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, who teacheth another, teacheth he which hath the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou rob temples?

23 Thou who gloriest in the law, through thy transgression of the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you, even as it is written.

25 For circumcision indeed profiteth, if thou be a

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without the Lawe, shall perish also without the Lawe: and as many as have sinned in the Lawe, shall be judged by the Lawe, 13 (For the hearers of the Lawe are not righteous before God: but the doers of the Lawe shall be justified."

14 For when the Gentiles which have not the Lawe, doe by nature, the things contenied in the Lawe, they having not the Lawe, are a Lawe vnto themselves.

15 Which shew the effect of the Lawe written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witnes, and their thoughts accusing one another, or excusing, 16 At the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my Gospel.

17 Beholde, thou art called a Iewe, and restest in the Lawe, and gloriest in God,

18 And knowest his will, and triest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the Lawe:

19 And persuadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkenesse, by nature the things contenied in the Lawe, these, having not the Lawe, are a Lawe vnto themselues,

20 An instructor of them which lacke discretion, thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

21 Thou therefore, which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe? thou that preachest, A man should not steale, doest thou steal?

22 Thou that saist, A man should not commit adulterie, doest thou commit adulterie? thou that abhorrest idoles, committest thou sacrilege?

23 Thou that gloriest in the Lawe, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For ye Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

25 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou do the Lawe: but if thou be a transgressour of the Lawe, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the ordnances of the Lawe, shall not his vncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfill the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the Lawe?

28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.
What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

5 But if our unrighteousness commendeth the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous which taketh vengeance? (I speak after the manner of men.)

What advantage then hath the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision?
As it is written, There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh God.

12 They have all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 Their throat is an open sepulchre: they have used deceit: the poison of asps is under their lips.

14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: under their lips they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips.

15 Their feet are swift to shed blood: their tongues to deceit: the poison of asps is under their lips.

16 Destruction and calamity are in their ways; their feet are swift to shed blood: their tongues to deceit: the poison of asps is under their lips.

17 And ye way of peace they have not known: there is none that understandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

18 The fear of God is not before their eyes. There is none that understandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

19 Now we know that whatsoeuer ye Lawe saith, it saith to them which are vnder ye Law, that euery mouth may bee stopped, and all the world may be subiect to the judgement of God.

20 Therefore by the worke of the Lawe shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the Lawe com meth the knowledge of sinne.

21 But nowe is the righteousnesse of God made manifest without the Lawe, hauing witnes of the Lawe and of the Prophets, 22 To wit, the righteousnesse of God by the faith of Jesus Christ unto all them that believe; for there is not one.

What shall we say that Abraham, our forefather, as no distinction;

23 For all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God;
24 being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:
25 whom God set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood to declare his righteousness through faith, because of the passing over of the sins done aforetime, through the forbearance of God;
26 for the shewing, I say, of his righteousness at this time his righteousness, that he might be just, and the justifier of him which is of the faith of Jesus.
27 Where then is the glorying? It is excluded. By what law is it justified? Of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith, without the works of the law.
29 Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not also of the Gentiles also? Yea, of the Gentiles also:
30 for it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and the uncircumcision by faith.
31 Do we then make the law of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

What shall we say then, that Abraham, our father, as Jesus Christ, unto all, and upon all them that believe:

23 For there is no difference: for all have sinned, and are deprived of the glory of God,
24 And are justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,
25 Whom God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood to declare his righteousness, by the forgiveness of the sins that are passed,
26 Through the patience of God, to shew at this time his righteousness, that he might be just, and a justifier of him which is of the faith of Jesus.
27 Where is then the rejoycing? It is excluded. By what law? of workes? Nay: but by the Lawe of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is justified by faith, without the works of the Lawe.
29 God, is he the God of the Iewes onely, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.
30 For it is one God, who shall justifie circumcision of faith, and vn circumcision through faith.
31 Doe we then make the Lawe of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the Lawe.

What shall we say then, that Abraham our father, as hath found concerning the flesh?

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them who believe not works, saying,

7 Saying, Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man, to whom the Lord will not give, And whose sins are covered.

9 Came this blessedness then upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed unto Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 After, he received the signe of circumcision, as a seal of the righteousness of ye faith which he according to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now how to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but belieueth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man, to whom the Lord imputeth righteousness not sinne.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say, that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them who believe.
12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 For the law causeth wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might come by grace; to the end that the promise might be sure to all the seed;

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) even before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his body, as it were, not to that only which is of the Law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

20 (as it is written, He that believeth on me, the water shall become the Spirit;) that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

21 And that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

22 (As it is written, that he received the inheritance of the righteous to them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also,)

23 Not to them only which are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was uncircumcised.

24 But of him was the circumcision made, and from him were all the fathers of the circumcision made of the flesh, that righteousness might be imputed unto them also,

25 Not to them only which are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had, when he was uncircumcised.
which be not, as though they were.
18 Which Abraham aboue hope, beleue vnder hope, that he should be the father of many nations: according to that which was spoken to him, So shall thy seede be.
19 And he not weake in the faith, considered not his owne bodie, which was nowe dead, being almost an hundreth yeere olde, neither the deadnes of Saraes wombe.
20 Neither did he doubt of the promise of God through vnbeliefe, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue glorie to God, 21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to doe it.
22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.
23 Nowe it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteousnesse,
24 But also for vs, to whom it shalbe imputed for righteousness, which beleue in him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead, 25 Who was deliuered to death for our sinnes, and is risen againe for our iustification.

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, So shall thy seed be.
19 And without being weakened in faith he consid ered his own body now as good as dead (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah’s womb:
20 yea, looking unto the promise of God, he wa vered not through unbelief, but waxed strong through faith, giving glory to God,
21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.
22 Wherefore also it was reckoned unto him for righteousness.
23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;
24 But for us also, unto whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead,
25 Who was delivered to death for our sinnes, and is risen againe for our justification.

Then being justified by faith, we haue peace toward God through our Lord Jesus Christ;

2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

6 For ourence, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

7 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

8 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, shall we be saved from wrath through him.

9 But God setteth out his love towards us, seeing that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more being reconciled, shall we be saved by his life;

11 And not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all sinned:--

13 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, shall we be saved from wrath through him.

14 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet without strength, in due season Christ died for the ungodly.

15 Unperadventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

16 Doubtless one will scarce die for a righteous man: but yet for a good man it may be that one dare die.

17 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

18 But God setteth out his love towards us, seeing that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

19 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, shall we be saved from wrath through him.

20 For if we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life,

21 And not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

22 Therefore, as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death passed unto all men, for that all sinned:--

23 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

24 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

25 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

26 For ourence, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

27 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

28 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, shall we be saved from wrath through him.

29 But God setteth out his love towards us, seeing that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

30 For if we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life,

31 And not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

32 Therefore, as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death passed unto all men, for that all sinned:--

37 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

38 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, shall we be saved from wrath through him.

39 But God setteth out his love towards us, seeing that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

40 For if we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life, men: in who all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the time of the Law was sinne in the worlde, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no lawe.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses, euuen over them also that sinned not after the likeman of that transgression of Adam, which was the figure of him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of that one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Jesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entred in by one that sinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is of many offences to justification.

17 For if, by the offence of the one, death reigned through one; much more shall they which receiue that abundance of grace, and of that gift of righteousness, reign in life through one, that is, Jesus Christ.

10 And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.
11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.
12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.
13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.
14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.
15 For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that I do.
16 But if what I would not, that I do, I consent unto the law that it is good.
17 Nowe then, it is no more I, that doe it, but sinne that dwelleth in me.
18 For I know, that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.
19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.
20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwelleth in me.

10 But I died: and the same commandement which was ordained unto life, was found to be unto me unto death.
11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceived me, and thereby slewe me.
12 Wherefore the Lawe is holy, and that commandement is holy, and just, and good.
13 Was that then which is good, made death unto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might appeare sinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinfull by the commandement.
14 For we knowe that the Lawe is spirituall, but I am carnall, solde vnder sinne.
15 For I alow not that which I do: for what I the euil, which I would not, that do I.

against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me out of the body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

There is therefore now no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Oüðεν ἀρα νῦν κατάκριμα τοῖς ἐν Χριστῷ Ἰησοῦ• 2 ο γὰρ νόμος τοῦ πνεύματος τῆς ζωῆς ἐν Χριστῷ Ἰησοῦ ἠλευθέρωσεν σε ἐπὶ τοῦ νόμου τῆς ἁμαρτίας καὶ τοῦ θανάτου.

3 τὸ γὰρ ἀδύνατον τοῦ νόμου, ἐν ᾧ ἠσθένει διὰ τῆς σαρκός, ἀλλὰ ἐν τῷ θεῷ ἀρέσαι οὐ δύνανται, ὅτι τὸ φρόνημα τῆς σαρκὸς ἔχθρα εἰς θεόν, καὶ τὸν ἑαυτοῦ υἱὸν πέμψας ἐν τῇ σαρκί, ὁ θεὸς τὸν ἑαυτοῦ υἱὸν πέμψας ἐν τῇ σαρκί, ὁμοιώματι σαρκὸς ἁμαρτίας καὶ περὶ ἁμαρτίας κατέκρινεν τὴν ἁμαρτίαν ἐν τῇ σαρκί.
4 Ιησοῦ ζῳοποιήσει καὶ τὰ θνητὰ σώματα ὑμῶν διὰ τῆς σαρκὸς ἁμαρτίας καὶ περὶ ἁμαρτίας κατέκρινεν τὴν ἁμαρτίαν ἐν τῇ σαρκί, ὁ θεὸς τὸν ἑαυτοῦ υἱὸν πέμψας ἐν τῇ σαρκί, ὁμοιώματι σαρκὸς ἁμαρτίας καὶ περὶ ἁμαρτίας κατέκρινεν τὴν ἁμαρτίαν ἐν τῇ σαρκί.
5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified with him.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, but to the Spirit. For the whole body is not meat only, but also the breath thereof.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they indeed can it be:

8 and they that are in the flesh cannot please God. 9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. 10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, but to the Spirit. For the whole body is not meat only, but also the breath thereof.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they filled in vs, which walke not after ye flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, sauour the things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wisdome of the flesh is death: but the wisdome of the Spirit is life and peace,

7 Because the wisdome of the flesh is enimitie against God: for it is not subject to the Lawe of God, neither in deede can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, can not please
God.

9 Now ye are not in the flesh, but in ye Spirit, because ye spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not ye Spirit of Christ, ye same is not his.

10 And if Christ bee in you, the body is dead, because of sinne: but the Spirite is life for righteous nesse sакe.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodies, by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, wee are detters not to the flesh, to liue after the flesh:

13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the body by the Spirit, ye are the sons of God.

13 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not of itself, willingly, but by reason of him who subjected it under hope, 21 Because the creature also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For by hope were we saved: but hope that is seen is not hope: for who hopeth for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that which we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 And in like manner the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity: for we know not how to pray as we ought; but the Spirit himself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered;

27 and he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is present.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed to us-ward.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, 21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

27 and he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is present.

22 οἴδαμεν γὰρ ὅτι πᾶσα ἡ κτίσις συστενάζει καὶ συνωδίνει ἄχρι τοῦ νῦν•

23 οὗ μόνον δὲ, ἄλλα καὶ αὐτοὶ τὴν ἀπαρχήν τοῦ πνεύματος ἔχοντες ἥμετρος καὶ αὐτοὶ ἐν εἰκόνι συνεργεῖ εἰς ἀγαθόν, τοῖς κατὰ πρόθεσιν κλητοῖς συνεργεῖ εἰς ἀγαθόν, τοῖς κατὰ πρόθεσιν κλητοῖς

27 ὁ δὲ ἐραυνῶν τὰς καρδίας οἶδεν τί τὸ φρόνημα οὐκ έστιν ἐλπίς• ὃ γὰρ βλέπει τί καὶ ἐλπίζει;
23 And not only the creature, but also which have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we do sigh in our السلع، esperantante la adoption, even the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, we do with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought:

27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

28 And we know that all things work together for good, even to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to bee made like to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost.
2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in mine heart.
3 For I would wish myself to be separate from Christ, for my brethren that are my kinsemen according to the flesh,
4 Which are the Israelites, to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;
5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.
6 Not as though the word of God had taken none effect: for they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:
7 Neither because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.
8 That is, they which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.
9 For this is the word of promise, In this same time will I come, and Sara shall have a son.
10 And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac;
11 For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth, 12 it was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.
13 Even as it is written, Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.
14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.
15 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion.
16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that hath mercy.
17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might shew in thee my power, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth.

18 So then he hath mercy on whom he will, and whom he will, he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the potter power of the clay to make of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering vessels of wrath fitted unto destruction:

23 and that he might make known the riches of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he afore prepared unto glory,

24 even us, whom he also called, not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Hosea, I will call that my people, which was not my people; And her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And it shall be, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, There shall have neither done good, nor euill (that the purpose of God might remaine according to election, not by workes, but by him that calleth)
22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction:
23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory,
24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?
25 As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her, beloved, which was not beloved.
26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there shall they be called the children of the living God.
27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet shall but a remnant be saved:
28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.
29 And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, We had become as Sodom, and had been like unto Gomorrha.
30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of the same lump one vessel to honour, and another vnto dishonour?
22 What and if God would, to shewe his wrath, and to make his power known, suffer with long patience the vessels of wrath, prepared to destruction?
23 And that hee might declare the riches of his glory upon the vessels of mercy, which hee hath prepared vnto glory?
24 Euen vs whome hee hath called, not of of the Iewes onely, but also of the Gentiles, 25 As he sayth also in Osee, I will call them, My people, which were not my people: and her, Beloved, which was not beloued.
26 And it shalbe in the place where it was said vnto them, Ye are not my people, that there they shalbe called, The children of the liuing God.
27 Also Esaias cryeth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel were as the sand of the sea, yet shall but a remnant be saved.
28 For he wil make his account, and gather it into a short summe with righteousnes: for the Lord will make a short count in the earth.
29 And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of hostes had left vs a seede, we had bene made as Sodoma, and had bene like to Gomorrha.
30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which they be called sons of the living God.
27 And Isaiah crieth concerning Israel, If the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, it is the remnant that shall be saved:
28 for the Lord will execute his word upon the earth, finishing it and cutting it short.
29 And, as Isaiah hath said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, We had become as Sodom, and had been made like unto Gomorrah.
30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of προσκόμματος καὶ πέτραν σκανδάλου, και ὁ πιστεύων ἐπ᾽ αὐτῷ οὐ καταισχυνθήσεται.
Brethren, my heart’s desire and prayer to God for

2 For I bear them record that they have a zeal of

3 For they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For Christ is the end of the Law unto righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the Law.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on things, shall live thereby.

31 But Israel, which followed after the Law of righteousness, hath not attained to the Law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the Law.

33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone, and a rock to make men fall: and every one that believeth in him, shall not be ashamed.

it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I demand, Haue they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went out into all the earth, and their wordes unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will prouoke you to enuiosity by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 And Esaias is bolde, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not: I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, All day long I have strethed forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he fore knew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias?

3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have digged down thine altars: and I am left alone, and seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I say then, Did God cast off his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 But if it is by grace, it is no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace.

7 What then? That which Israel seeketh for, that he obtained not; but the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened:

8 according as it is written, God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that would not hear, unto this day.

20 Well: through unbelief they are broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear:
21 for if God spared not the natural branches, neither will he spare thee.
22 Behold then the goodness and severity of God: toward them that fell, severity; but toward thee, God’s goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.
23 And they also, if they continue not in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.
24 For if thou wast cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and wast grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?
25 For I would not, brethren, have you ignorant of this mystery, lest ye be wise in your own conceits, that a hardening in part hath befallen Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in;
26 and so all Israel shall be saved: even as it is writ-

23 And they also, if they continue not in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

orant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulnesse of the Gentiles be come in.
34 For as ye in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, 35 even so have these also now been disobedient, that by the mercy shewn to you they also may now obtain mercy.

all things. To him be the glory for ever. Amen.

shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:
27 And this is my covenant unto them, When I shall take away their sins.
28 As touching the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers’ sakes.
29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.
30 For even as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:
31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.
32 For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.
33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!
34 For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?
35 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?
36 For of him, and through him, and for him are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.
2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is the good and acceptable service.
3 For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but so to think as to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to each one a measure of faith.
4 And having gifts differing according to the grace that was given me, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith;
5 or ministry, let us give ourselves to our ministry;
6 or he that teacheth, to his teaching;
7 or he that giveth, let him do it with liberality; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.
9 Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is loved for the fathers’ sakes.

Παρακαλῶ οὖν ὑμᾶς, ἀδελφοί, διὰ τοῦ ὀικτημοντος τοῦ θεοῦ, παραστῆσαι τὰ σώματα ὑμῶν θυσίαν ζῶσαν ἁγίαν τῷ θεῷ εὐάρεστον, τὴν λογικὴν λατρείαν ὑμῶν•
2 καὶ μὴ συνσχηματίζεσθε τῷ αἰῶνι τούτῳ, ἀλλὰ μεταμορφοῦσθε τῇ ἀνακαινώσει τοῦ νοοῦ, εἰς τὸ δοκιμαζέαν ὑμᾶς τί τὸ θεόν εὐάρεστον, τὸ ἀγαθόν καὶ εὐάρεστον καὶ τέλειον.
3 λέγω γὰρ διὰ τῆς χάριτος τῆς δοθήσεως μοι παντὶ τῶν ὄντων ὑμῶν μὴ υπερφρονεῖτε παρ’ ὃ δεῖ φρονεῖν, ἀλλὰ φρονεῖν εἰς τὸ σωφρονεῖν, ἑκάστῳ ως ὁ θεὸς ἐμέρισεν μέτρον πίστεως.
4 καθάπερ γὰρ ἐν ἑνὶ σώματι πολλὰ μέλη ἔχομεν, τὰ δὲ μέλη πάντα οὐ τῆς αὐτῆς ἐχεῖ πράξειν,
5 οὕτως οἱ πολλοὶ ἐν σώμα ἐσμέν ἐν Χριστῷ, τὸ δὲ καθ’ εἰς ἀλλήλοις μέλην.

7 εἴτε διακονίας, ἐν τῇ διακονίᾳ, εἴτε ὁ διδάσκων ἐν τῇ διδασκαλίᾳ•
8 εἴτε ὁ παρακαλῶν, ἐν τῇ παρακλήσει• ὁ μεταδίδοντος ἐν ἀπλότητι, ὁ προιστάμενος ἐν σπουδῇ, ὁ ἔλεον ἐν ἀλατρότητι.
9 Ἡ ἀγάπη ἀνυπόκριτος. ἀποστυγοῦντες τὸ πονηρόν, κολλῶμεν τῷ ἀγαθῷ• transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, distributeth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence: he that sheweth mercie, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that civeness; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

10 Be affectioned to loue one another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing stedfastly in prayer;

13 communicating to the necessities of the saints;
given to hospitality.

14 Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse
not.

15 Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with them that weep.

16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Set not your mind on high things, but condescend to things that are lowly. Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 Render to no man evil for evil. Take thought for things honourable in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as in you lieth, be at peace with all men.

19 Avenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance belongeth unto me; I will recompense, saith the Lord.

20 But if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him to drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head.
12 Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;
13 Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.
14 Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.
15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.
16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate.
17 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.
18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.
19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.
20 Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.
21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.
Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God; and the powers that be are ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive unto themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be in subjection, not only for the wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause ye pay also tribute: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man anything, but to love one another: for he that loveth his neighbour hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not defraud; but whatever things whatsoever thou wilt, that thou wouldest that they should do to thee, do thou even so to them. For this is the whole law and the prophets.
10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we first believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

13 Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, nor in strife and jealousy.

14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts thereof.

10 Love doeth not evil to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the Lawe.

11 And this, knowing the season, that it is now time that we should arise from sleep: for now is our salvation neerer, then when we beleieved it.

12 The night is past, and the day is at hand, let vs put away the works of darkenesse, and let vs put on the armour of light, 13 So that wee walke honestly, as in the day: not in glutonie, and drunkennesse, neither in chambering and wantonnes, nor in strife and enuying.

14 But put yee on the Lord JESUS CHRIST, and take no thought for the flesh, to fulfill the lustes of it.

Him that is weake in the faith, receiue vnto you, but not for doublous disputations.

2 One beleeueth that he may eate of all things: and another, who is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath receiue him.

shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnes, Thou shalt not couet: and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, euen in this, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

10 Love doeth not euill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the Lawe.

11 And that, considering the season, that it is now time that we should arise from sleepe: for now is our salvation neerer, then when we beleieved it.

12 The night is past, and the day is at hande, let vs put away the works of darkenesse, and let vs put on the armour of light, 13 So that we should arise from sleepe: for now is our salvation neerer, then when we beleived it.

14 But put yee on the Lord JESUS CHRIST, and take no thought for the flesh, to fulfill the lustes of it.

Him that is weake in the faith, receiue vnto you, but not for doublous disputations.

2 One beleeueth that he may eate of all things: and another, who is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath receiue him.

shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnes, Thou shalt not couet: and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, euen in this, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.
4 Who art thou that condemnest another man’s servant? to his own lord he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord: and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord; and he that eateth not, unto the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and none dieth to himself.

8 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and the living.

10 But thou, why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, to me every knee shall bow, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then each one of us shall give account of himself to God.
13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block or an occasion to fall in his brother’s way.
14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.
16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:
17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.
18 For he that serveth Christ is acceptable unto God, and approved of men.
19 So then let us follow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may edify one another.
20 Overthrow not for meat’s sake the work of God. All things indeed are clean; howbeit it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.
21 It is good neither to eate flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is made weak.
22 But let every one that estimeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
23 If to those who have weak consciences any thing is unclean, by the reason that he thinketh it unclean, he is to him unclean.
24 If thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ dyed.
25 But let every one judge his own work, and that by himself to God.
26 For whether any thing is cleane or unclean, altogether it is cleane to thee, if thou regard it so: but if it be an offence to them that are weak, the same is unholy to thee.
27 One man regardeth a thing clean, and another unclean: if the unclean is put in his bread, he that eateth will sin against his own soul.
28 But God shall judge between the Gentiles. For there is one end of the Law, that he that shall speak according to the Law shall live.
29 But the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned.
30 From whom is born亚韵ity, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God.
23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Now we that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.
Let each one of us please his neighbour for that which is good to edification.
For Christ also pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.
For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that through patience and comfort of the scriptures we might have hope.
Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you that ye be of the same mind one toward another according to Christ Jesus:
That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Wherefore receive ye one another, even as Christ also received you, to the glory of God.

We which are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selues.
Therefore let every man please his neighbour in that that is good to edification.
For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, The rebukes of them which rebuke thee fell on me.
For whatsoever things are written aforetime, are wrote for our learning, that we through patience, and comfort of the scriptures might haue hope.
Now the God of patience and consolation giue you that ye be like minded one towards another, according to Christ Iesus,
That ye with one minde, and with one mouth may prayse God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.
Wherefore receiue ye one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the glory of God.

We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.
Let each one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.
For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, The reproaches of them which reproached thee, fell upon me.
For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.
Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ Jesus:
That with one accord ye may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Wherefore receive ye one another, even as Christ also received you, to the glory of God.

Ὅφείλομεν δὲ ἡμεῖς οἱ δυνατοὶ τὰ ἀσθενήματα τῶν ἀδυνάτων βαστάζειν, καὶ μὴ ἑαυτοῖς ἀρέσκειν.
καὶ γὰρ ὁ Χριστὸς οὐχ ἑαυτῷ ἤρεσεν• ἀλλὰ καθὼς γέγραπται, οἱ ὀνειδισμοὶ τῶν ὀνειδιζόντων σε ἐπέπεσαν ἐπ᾽ ἐμέ.
ὅσα γὰρ προεγράφη, εἰς τὴν ἡμετέραν διδασκαλίαν ἐγράφη, ἵνα διὰ τῆς ὑπομονῆς καὶ διὰ τῆς παρακλήσεως τῶν γραφῶν τὴν ἐλπίδα ἔχωμεν.
ὁ δὲ θεὸς τῆς ὑπομονῆς καὶ τῆς παρακλήσεως δῴη ὑμῖν τὸ αὐτὸ φρονεῖν κατὰ Χριστὸν Ἰησοῦν, τὰ δὲ ἔθνη ὑπὲρ ἐλέους δοξάσαι τὸν θεὸν, καθὼς γέγραπται• διὰ τοῦτο ἐξομολογήσομαι τῷ ὀνόματί σου ψαλῶ.
καὶ πάλιν λέγει, εὐφράνθητε, ἔθνη, μετὰ τοῦ λαοῦ αὐτοῦ.
καὶ πάλιν, αἰνεῖτε, πάντα τὰ ἔθνη, τὸν κύριον, things pertaining to God.

17 I have therefore my glorying in Christ Jesus in mercy; as it is written, Therefore will I give praise unto thee among the Gentiles, And sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God,
through the power of the Holy Ghost.

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through

18 For I will not dare to speak of any things save those which Christ wrought through me, for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, 19 in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Holy Ghost; so that from Jerusalem, and round about even unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ; 20 yea, making it my aim so to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, lest I should build upon another man’s foundation: 21 but, as it is written, They shall see, to whom no sound of his voice was heard, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand. 22 Therefore also I have been somewhat filled with your company.—

18 For it hath been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia 19 that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the holy Ghost. 17 I have therefore rejoyced in Christ Jesus in those things which pertain to God. 18 For I dare not speak of any thing, which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient in word and deed, 19 With the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: so that from Hierusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have caused to abound the Gospel of Christ. 20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should haue built on another mans foundation. 21 But as it is written, To whome hee was not spoken of, they shall see him, and they that heard not, shall understand him. 22 Therefore also I haue bene oft let to come vnto you: 23 But nowe seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue bene desirous many yeeres agone to come vnto you, 24 When I shall take my iourney into Spaine, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my iourney, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, after that I haue bene somewhat filled with your company.
poor among the saints that are at Jerusalem.

27 Yea, it hath been their good pleasure; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by you unto Spain.

29 And I know that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

30 Also brethren, I beseech you for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 That I may be delivered from them which are disobedient in Judaea, and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;

32 That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, 2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, even them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:
3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
4 I thank my God always on your behalf for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus;
5 That in everything ye were enriched in him, in all utterance and all knowledge;
6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:
7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ;
8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless, in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
9 God is faithful, through whom ye were called into fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
10 Now I beseech you, brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no dissensions among you: but be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

3 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, both theirs and ours:
4 I thank my God always on your behalf for the grace of God which is given you in Christ Jesus;
5 That in everything ye are made rich in him, in all grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;
6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in utterance, and in all knowledge;
7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:
8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless, in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
9 God is faithful, through whom ye are called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ our Lord, that ye all speake one thing, and that there be no dissensions among you: but be ye knit together in one mind, and in one judgement.

Paul called to be an Apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,
2 Vnto the Church of God, which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, Saints by calling, with all that call on the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, both their Lord, and ours:
3 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
4 I thanke my God always on your behalfe for the grace of God, which is giuen you in Iesus Christ,
5 That in all things ye are made rich in him, in all kinde of speach, and in all knowledge:
6 As the testimonie of Iesus Christ hath bene confirmed in you:
7 So that ye are not destitute of any gift: wayting for the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ.
8 Who shall also confirme you vnto the ende, that ye may be blamelesse, in the day of our Lord Iesus Christ.
9 God is faithfull, by whom ye are called vnto the fellowship of his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord.
10 Nowe I beseeche you, brethren, by the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that ye all speake one thing, and that there be no dissensions among you: but be ye knit together in one mind, and in one judgement.
11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

you, my brethren, by them which are of the household of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I mean, that each one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized into the name of Paul?

14 I thank God, that I baptized none of you, but Crispus, and Gaius, 15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized into mine own name.

16 I baptized also the household of Stephanas: furthermore knowe I not, whether I baptized any other.

17 For CHRIST sent me not to baptize, but to preache the Gospel, not with wisdom of wordes, lest the crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For that preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs, which are saued, it is the power of God.

19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdome of the wise, and will cast away the understandinge of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the Scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdome of this worlde foolishnesse?
21 For seeing the world by wisedome knewe not God in the wisedome of GOD, it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching to saue them that beleue;
22 Seeing also that the Iewes require a signe, and the Greeks seke after wisdome.
23 But wee preach Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnesse:
24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grecians, we preach Christ, the power of God, and the wisedome of God.
25 For the foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weake of God is stronger then men.
26 For brethren, you seing your calling, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called;
27 But God chose the foolish things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and thinges which are mighty;
28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and thinges which are mighty;
29 That no flesh shoulde glory in his presence.
30 But ye are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

good pleasure through the foolishnesse of the preaching to save them that believe.
22 Seeing that Jews ask for signs, and Greeks seek after wisdom:
23 but we preach Christ crucified, unto Jews a stumblingblock, and unto Gentiles foolishness;
24 but unto them that are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.
25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.
26 For behold your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:
27 but God chose the foolish things of the world, that he might put to shame them that are wise; and God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong;
28 and the base things of the world, and the things that are despised, did God choose, yea and the things that are not, that he might bring to nought the things that are:
29 that no flesh should glory before God.
30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

καθὼς γέγραπται, ὁ καυχώμενος ἐν κυρίῳ ἀναπήλπησον, ὁ καυχώμενος ἐν κυρίῳ ἀναπήλπησον, ἐγενήθη σοφία ἡμῖν ἀπὸ θεοῦ, δικαιοσύνη τε καὶ ἁγιασμὸς καὶ ἀπολύτρωσις,

And I, brethren, when I came unto you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

For I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

And my speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

And we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, which come to nought:

but we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

31 that, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.
9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man’s wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him; and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he might instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

4 For when one sayeth, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not men?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

7 So then neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For we are God's fellow-workers: ye are God's husbandry, God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto of Christ.

And I could not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spiritual men, but as vnto carnall, euen as vnto babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, and not meat: for yee were not yet able to beare it, neither yet nowe are yee able.

3 For yee are yet carnall: for whereas there is among yee enuying, and strife, and diuisions, are ye not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one sayeth, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are yee not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whome yee beleueed, and as the Lord gaue to euerie man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watred, but God gaue the increase.

7 So then, neither is hee that planteth any thing, neither hee that watreth, but God that giueth the increase.

8 And he that planteth and he that watereth are one: but each shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For we together are Gods labourers: yee are Gods husbandrie, and Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God which was given unto of Christ.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 But if any man buildeth on this foundation gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man’s work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man’s work of what sort it is.

14 If any man’s work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroyeth the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He that taketh the wise in their craftiness.

20 and again, The Lord knoweth the reasonings of the wise, that they are vain.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to mee, as a skilfull master builder, I haue laide the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let euery man take heede how he buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man laie, then that which is laied, which is Jesus Christ.

12 And if any man buildle on this foundation, golde, silver, costly stones, timber, haye, or stubble, 13 Every mans worke shalbe made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shalbe reueiled by the fire: and the fire shall trie euery mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that he hath built vpon, abide, he shall receiue wages.

15 If any mans worke burne, he shall lose, but he shalbe sauied himselfe: neuerthelesse yet as it were by the fire.

16 Knowe ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwellleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue himselfe: If any man among you seeme to be wise in this world, let him be a foole, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this worlde is foolishnesse.
21 Wherefore let no one glory in men. For all things are yours;
22 whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;
23 and ye are Christ’s; and Christ is God’s.

Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.
2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.
3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man’s judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.
4 For I know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.
5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.
6 Nowe these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes; that in us ye might learn not to go beyond the things which are written; that no one of you be puffed up for the one against the other.
transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

For who maketh thee to differ? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hastad not received it?

Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

1 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christ’s sake, but ye are wise in Christ: we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

12 And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things, even unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved children.

For I write not these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children.

For though ye should have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I begat you through the gospel.

that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present,

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 Your rejoicing is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither in the leaven of maliciousnes and wickedness: but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle to have no company with fornicators;

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world:

11 But now I write unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no, not to eat.

12 For what have I to do with judging them that are without? Do not ye judge them that are within, whereas they that are without God judgeth? Put together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, 5 to deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminatione not together: if any that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or couetous, or an idolater, or a rayler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do ye not judge them that are within?

13 But God judgeth them that are without. Put away therefore from among your selues that wicked man.

Dare any of you, having businesse against an other, be judged vnder the vniust, and not vnder the Saintes?

2 Or know ye not, that the Saintes shall judge the world? If the world then shalbe judged by you, are ye unworthie to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgements of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Nay, already it is altogether a defect in you, that ye have lawsuits one with another. Why do ye not away the wicked man from among yourselves.

Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Or know ye not that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

more things that pertain to this life?

this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in 5 I say this to move you to shame. Is it so, that there cannot be found among you one wise man, who shall be able to decide between his brethren,

6 but brother goeth to law with brother, and that before unbelievers?

7 Nay, already it is altogether a defect in you, that ye have lawsuits one with another. Why not rather take wrong? why not rather be defrauded?

8 Nay, but ye yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Or know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effemirather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethen.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, or idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor revilers, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkeys, nor revilers, nor extorters, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.

14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take away the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 Or know ye not that he that is joined unto a harlot is one body? for, The twain, saith he, shall become one flesh.

17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication you, in that ye goe to lawe one with another: why rather suffer ye not wrong? why rather susteine yee not harme?

8 Nay, yee your selues doe wrong, and doe harme, and that to your brethren.

9 Knowe yee not that the vnrighteous shall not inherit the kingdome of God? Be not deceiued:
neither fornicatours, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor wantons, nor buggerers,

10 Nor theeues, nor couetous, nor drunkeys, nor railers, nor extorters shall inherite the kingdome of God.

11 And such were some of you: but yee are washed, but yee are sanctified, but yee are justified in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All thinges are lawfull vnto mee, but all thinges are not profitable. I may doe all things, but I will not be broucht vnder the power of any thing.

13 Meates are ordeined for the bellie, and the belly for the meates: but God shall destroy both it, and them. Nowe the bodie is not for fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the bodie.

14 And God hath also raised vp the Lord, and shall raise vs vp by his power.

15 Knowe yee not, that your bodies are the members
16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the bodie: but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own bodie.

19 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

21 Wherefore he that mortifieth his own members shall be saved: even such as love not the world.

22 Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

23 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

24 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

25 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power over his own body, but the wife.

26 But this I say by way of permission, not of commandment.

27 Yet I would that all men were even as I myself. Howbeit every man hath his own gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that.
8 But I say to the unmarried and to widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I do.
9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.
10 But unto the married I give charge, yea not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:
11 (but and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.
12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.
13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

but ye husband: and likewise also the husband hath not ye power of his own body, but the wife.
5 Defraud not one another, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.
6 But I speake this by permission, not by commandement.
7 For I would that all men were even as I myself.
8 Therefore I say vnto the vnmaried, and vnto the widowes, It is good for them if they abide euen as I doe.
9 But if they cannot abstaine, let them marrie: for it is better to marrie then to burne.
10 And vnto ye maried I comand, not I, but ye Lord, Let not ye wife depart from her husband.
11 But and if shee depart, let her remaine vnmarried, or be reconciled vnto her husband, and let not the husband put away his wife.
12 But to ye remnant I speake, and not ye Lord, If any brother haue a wife, ye beleeueth not, if she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.
13 And the woman which hath an husband that beleeueth not, if he be content to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

8 But I say to the unmarried and to widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I. 9 But if they have not continency, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. 10 But unto the married I give charge, yea not I, but the Lord, That the wife depart not from her husband 11 (but and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband); and that the husband leave not his wife. 12 But to the rest say I, not the Lord: If any brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is content to dwell with him, let him not leave her. 13 And the woman which hath an unbelieving husband, and he is content to dwell with her, let her not leave her husband. 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. 15 Yet if the unbelieving departeth, let him depart: the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us in peace. 16 For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife? 17 Only, as the Lord hath distributed to each man,
1 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean: but now are they holy.

2 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases:

3 but God hath called us to peace.

4 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt saue thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

5 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not in subiection in such things: but God hath called us in peace.

6 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt saue thy husband? Or what knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

7 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches.

8 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him be circumcised.

9 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

10 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

11 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

12 For he that was called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord’s freedman: likewise he that was called, being free, is Christ’s servant.

13 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified to the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified to the husband, els were your children vnneale: but nowe are they holie.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart: A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt saue thine husband? Or what knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called vs in peace.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not gather his uncircumcision: is any called vncircumcised? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that was called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord’s freedman: likewise he that is called, being free, is Christ’s servant.

23 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let each man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: but I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I think therefore that this is good by reason of the present distress, namely, that it is good for a man to be as he is.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be her not forsake him.
Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed.

Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgin marry, she sinneth not. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned, and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

He that is married careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

And that ye may attend upon the Lord without dis

but he that is married careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

But this I say, brethren, the time is shortened, for the fashion of this world passeth away.

And they that use this world, as not abusing it:

And those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

And they that use the world, as not abusing it:

And those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

For the fashion of this world passeth away.

And they that use this world, as not abusing it:

And those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

And they that use this world, as not abusing it:

And those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

For the fashion of this world passeth away.

And they that use this world, as not abusing it:

And those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

For the fashion of this world passeth away.

And they that use this world, as not abusing it:

And those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

And they that use this world, as not abusing it:

And those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

For the fashion of this world passeth away.

And they that use this world, as not abusing it:

And they that use this world, as not abusing it:

And those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

For the fashion of this world passeth away.
There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. There is difference also betwenee a virgine and a wife: the vnmaried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirite: but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, howe shee may please her husband. And this I speake for your owne commoditie, not to tangle you in a snare, but that yee follow that, which is honest, and that yee may cleaue fast vnto the Lord without distraction. But if any man thinketh that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if shee passe the flower of her age, and neede so require, let him do what he will; he sinneth not: let them be maried. Nevertheless hee that standeth stedfast in his heart, that he hath no neede, but hath power over his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that hee will keepe his virgine, hee doeth well. So then hee that giueth her to mariage, doeth well, but he that giueth her not to mariage, doeth better. The wife is bounde by the lawe, as long as her husband liueth: but if her husband bee dead, shee is at libertie to marie with whome she will, onely in the Lord. But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.
Now as touching things offered unto idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 If any man thinketh that he knoweth anything, he knoweth not yet as he ought to know;
3 but if any man loveth God, the same is known of him.

4 Concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though such there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,) 6 yet to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we unto him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat not, are we the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better.

9 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to the weak.

3 My defence to them that examine me, is this, and haue not power to eat and to drinke.
4 Or haue we not power to lead about a wife being a sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?
5 Or I only and Barnabas, haue not we power not to forbear working?
6 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne coste? who planteth a vineyarde, and eateh not of the fruite thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?
7 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?
8 For it is written in the lawe of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take care for oxen?
9 For it is written in the lawe of Moses, Thou shalt not sowe your sower seede of every man in his owne vesture:
10 Either saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sake it was written: that he that eareth, should eare in hope, and that he that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.
11 If we sowed vnto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reape your carnall thinges?
12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are we not rather? Nevertheless we haue not vsed this power: but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know, that they which minister about the holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?
14 Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.
15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.
16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!
17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward:
but if against my will, I have a stewardship intrusted to me.
18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel without charge, so as to abuse not my power in the gospel.
19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.
20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;
21 to them that are without law, as without law, not being myself under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; 22 to the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak: I am become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some.
23 And I do all things for the gospel’s sake, that I may be a joint partaker thereof.

18 Behold Israel after the flesh: have not they which eat the sacrifices communion with the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

23 All things are lawful; but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.
24 Let no man seek his own, but every man another’s wealth.
25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:
26 For the earth is the Lord’s, and the fulness thereof.
27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?
31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.
32 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God:
33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

32 άπρόσκοποι καὶ Ἰουδαίοις γίνεσθε καὶ Ἑλλησίων καὶ τῷ ἐκκλησίᾳ τοῦ θεοῦ.
33 καθὼς καὶ πάντα πάσιν ἀρέσκω, μη ἐν σοφοῦ τῷ ἐμαυτοῦ σύμφορον ἀλλα τῷ τῶν πολλῶν, ἵνα σωθῶσιν.

26
Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.
2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.
3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.
4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.
5 But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for it is one and the same thing as if she were shaven.
6 Therefore if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.
7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
8 For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.
9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.
10 For this cause ought the woman to have power on the man, but the man for the woman:
11 Howbeit neither is the woman without the man, nor the man without the woman, in the Lord.
12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman; but all things are of God.
13 Judge ye in yourselves: is it seemly that a woman pray unto God unvouched?
14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a dishonour unto him?
15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.
16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the Churches of God.
17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.
18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I hear that there are dissentions among you: and I believe it to be true in some part.
19 For there must be heresies among you, that ye come together not with profit, but with hurt.
20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord’s supper.
21 For every man when they should eate, taketh his owne supper afore, and one is hungry, and another is drunken.
22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and put them to her head, because of the Angels.
11 Neuertheles, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.
12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman: but all things are of God.
13 Judge in your selues, Is it comely that a woman pray vnto God vncouered?
14 Doeth not nature it selfe teach you, that if a man haue long heare, it is a shame vnto him?
15 But if a woman haue long heare, it is a prayse vnto her: for her heare is giuen her for a couering.
16 But if any man lust to be contentious, we haue no such custome, neither the Churches of God.
17 Nowe in this that I declare, I praye you not, that ye come together, not with profite, but with hurt.
18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there be dissentions among you: and I beleeue it to be true in some part.
19 For there must be hereysies euon among you, that they which are approoued among you, might be known.
20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lords Supper.
21 For every man when they should eate, taketh his owne supper afore, and one is hungry, and another is own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunk.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in?

23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 And when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death till he come.

27 Wherefore whereoeuer shall eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh his owne damnation, because he discerneth not the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep.

31 But if we discerned ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord for our OWN fault.

33 Wherefore, whether ye eat or drink, when ye do so, give thanks; for ye eat the bread of the presence of the Lord, and the cup of his blood.

34 And let this doctrine, passe not out of your mouth; but give that which is good to them that need it, who are either hungry or thirsty.

35 Let this doctrine, be your comfort, and let this doctrine, be your strength.

36  εἴ τις πεινᾷ, ἐν οἴκῳ ἐσθιέτω, ἵνα μὴ εἰς κρίμα ἀλλήλους ἐκδέχεσθε.

31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, and were carried away unto the dumb idols, as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

1 Corinthians 12

But now hath God set the members each one of the same which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge, by the same Spirit; to another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gift of healings by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another the gift of prophecy; to another the interpretation of tongues: and to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the discerning of spirits; to another diversities of tongues: and to another, the gift of healing; to another, the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; to another, the word of wisdom by the same Spirit; to another various kinds of faith; to another the giving of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: and to another the knowledge of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; and to another the knowledge of spirits: and to another the working of miracles; and to another the working of prophecies; and to another the interpretation of tongues; and to another the knowledge of spirits.

9 And to another the gift of tongues; and to another the gift of prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits: and to another, the interpretation of tongues: and to another divers kinds of tongues; and to another the interpretation of tongues: and to another the working of miracles; and to another the working of prophecies; and to another the interpretation of tongues; and to another the knowledge of spirits.

10 And to another the operations of great works: and to another, the discerning of spirits: and to another, diversities of tongues: and to another, the interpretation of tongues: and to another the knowledge of spirits.

11 And all these things worketh one and the selfsame Spirit, distributing to every man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many. For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: even so is the body.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? If the whole were hearing, where was the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? If the whole were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members each one of the body in order. Even as he desired, so he disposed with all the body.

19 And if the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. Even so is the body.

20 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: even so is the body.

21 O that ye knew what ye yourselves possessed! For ye have not so much as all the members of the body.

22  ἀλλὰ πολλῷ μᾶλλον τὰ δοκοῦντα μέλη τοῦ σώματός σου οὐκ ἔχω• ποῦ τὸ σῶμα; ἢ πάλιν ἡ κεφαλὴ τοῖς ποσίν, χρείαν ἔχειν•  νῦν δὲ πολλὰ μὲν μέλη, ἓν δὲ σῶμα.  εἰ δὲ ἦν τὰ πάντα ἓν μέλος, ποῦ τὸ σῶμα;  εἰ μὴ δὲ τὸ σῶμα ἡ κεφαλή, χρείαν ἔχειν•  νῦν δὲ πολλὰ μὲν μέλη, ἓν δὲ σῶμα.  νῦν δὲ πολλὰ μὲν μέλη, ἓν δὲ σῶμα.  νῦν δὲ πολλὰ μὲν μέλη, ἓν δὲ σῶμα.

If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I become as sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal.

Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that speaketh in a tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself: but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 Now I would have you all speak with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he expound it, that the church may receive edification.

6 And nowe, brethren, if I come vnto you speake to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harpe, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himselfe to the battle?

9 So also ye, unless ye utter by the tongue speech easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is 10 τοσαῦτα εἰ τύχοι γένη φωνῶν εἰσιν ἐν κόσμῳ, ἐσεσθε γὰρ εἰς ἀέρα λαλοῦντες.

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.
10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.
11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice,
I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.
12 Even so, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spir-tual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.
13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.
14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing ing also.

shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say the Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

21 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them that believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, and is judged of all.

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 What is it then, brethren? When ye come together, each one hath a psalm, hath a teaching, hath a revelation, hath a tongue, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speak five words with mine understanding, that I might also instruct others, then ten thousande words in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in vnderstanding, but as concerning malicousnes be children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Lawe it is written, By men of other tongues, and by other languages will I speake unto this people: yet so shall they not heare me, sayth the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleue, but to them that beleue not: but prophesying serveth not for them that beleue not, but for them which beleue.

23 If therefore when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleue not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wittes?

24 But if all prophecie, and there come in one that beleueth not, or one vnlearned, hee is rebuked of all men, and is judged of all, words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in mind: howbeit in malice be ye babies, but in mind be men.

21 In the law it is written, By men of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them that believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be assembled together, and all speak with tongues, and there come in men unlearned or unbelieving, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one unbelieving or unlearned, he is reproved by all, he is judged by all;

25 the secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed.

26 What is it then, brethren? When ye come together, each one hath a psalm, hath a teaching, hath a revelation, hath a tongue, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.
26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speaketh in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all the churches of the saints.

34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their own husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most, by three, and that by course, and let one interprete.

30 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speak to himselfe, and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake two, or three, and let the other judge.

30 And if any thing be reveiled to another that sitteth by, let the first holde his peace.

31 For ye may all prophecie one by one, that all may haue comfort.

32 And the spirits of the Prophets are subject to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all ye Churches of the Saints.

34 Let your women keepe silence in the Churches: πάντες μανθάνωσιν καὶ πάντες παρακαλῶνται, καὶ πνεύματα προφητῶν προφήταις ὑποτάσσεται• ὥστε, ἀδελφοί μου, ζηλοῦτε τὸ προφητεύειν, καὶ τὸ λαλεῖν μὴ κωλύετε γλώσσαις• πάντα δὲ εὐσχημόνως καὶ κατὰ τάξιν γινέσθω.
I write unto you, that they are the commandment of the Lord.

38 But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, my brethren, desire earnestly to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 But let all things be done decently and in order.

Now I make known unto you brethren, the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye received, wherein also ye stand,

2 by which also ye are saved; I make known, I say, in what words I preached it unto you, if ye hold it fast, except ye believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

4 and that he was buried; and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subject, as also the Lawe sayth.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them aske their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 Came the worde of God out from you? either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke him selfe to be a Prophet, or spirituall, let him acknowledge, that the things, that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, couet to prophecie, and forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things be done honestly, and by order.

Moreover, brethren, I declare vnto you the Gospel, which I preached vnto you, which ye haue receiued, and wherein ye continue,

2 And whereby ye are saued, if ye keepe in memorie, after what maner I preached it vnto you, except ye haue beleeued in vaine.

3 For first of all, I deliuered vnto you that which I receiued, how that Christ died for our sinnes, according to the Scriptures,

4 And that he was buried, and that he arose the third day, according to the Scriptures,

5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve:
6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at one; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.
7 After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.
8 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.
9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.
10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace which was bestowed upon me was not found in vain; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.
12 Now if Christ be preached that he hath been raised from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?
13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither hath Christ been raised:
14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith also is vain.
15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ:
16 For if the dead are not raised, then is our preaching vain, and ye are yet in your sins.
17 And if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.
18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

12 And we, which are sealed, are regenerate, having perished. 13 And they also which are fallen asleep in Christ shall not have perished. 14 But if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. 15 And if Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching vain, and your faith also is vain. 16 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. 17 For even if we have been preaching in Christ, ourselves also are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are not raised.
18 But if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and ye haue beleeued. 19 And if Christ be not arisen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.
20 Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?
21 For if the dead are not raised, neither hath Christ been raised: 22 How say some of you that there is no resurrection of the dead? 23 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: 24 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.
25 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither hath Christ been raised: 26 And if Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching vain, your faith also is vain.
27 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are not raised.
28 But if the dead are not raised, neither hath Christ been raised: 29 And if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.
30 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

11 Wherefore, whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleeued.
12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?
13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: 14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.
15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ:
16 For if the dead are not raised, neither hath Christ been raised:
17 And if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain: ye are yet in your sins.
18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most pitiable.

20 But now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ’s, at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall deliver up the kingdom to God, even the Father, when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all his enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is mani for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised vp Christ: whom he hath not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vaine: ye are yet in your sinnes.

18 And so they which are a sleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life onely wee haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But nowe is Christ risen from the dead, and was made the first fruities of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alie, 23 But every man in his owne order: the first fruities is Christ, afterward, they that are of Christ, at his comming shall rise againe.

All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another flesh of fishes, and another of birds.

There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the terrestrial is another.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 But when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law:

57 but thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not vain in the Lord.

Concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I am come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberalitie unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

6 But I will come unto you, after I haue gone through Macedonia (for I will passe through Macedonia.)

7 For I do not wish to see you now by the way; for I hope to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost;

9 for a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timothy come, see that he be with you without fear; for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do:

11 let no man therefore despise him. But set him forward on his journey in peace, that he may come with me through Macedonia.
12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his mind was not at all to come at this time; howbeit he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye: stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, and be strong.

14 Let all your things be done in love.

15 Nowe brethren, I beseeche you (ye knowe the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they haue giuen themselues to min\nister vnto the Saints,) that they haue set themselves to minister unto the saints, 16 that ye also be in subjection unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the comming of Stephanas, and For-18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The churches of Asia salute you: Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with a holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

The first Epistle to the Corinthians, written from Philippi by Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus and Timotheus.
2 CORINTHIANS 1

Paul an apostle of JESVS Christ, by the will of God, and our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God which is at Corinth with all the Saints, which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort, 4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abounde in vs, so may we be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is wrought in the induring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as much as we know that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not have you ignorant of our trouble which came vnto vs in Asia, howe we were pressed out of measure passing strength, insomuch that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, insomuch that we despaired even of life: yea, we ourselves have had the answer of death
17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I shew set forward on my journey unto Judaea.
16 and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again before unto you, that ye might have a second benefit;
15 And in this confidence I was minded to come of the Lord Jesus.
14 as also ye did acknowledge us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus.
13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or even acknowledge, and I hope ye will acknowledge unto the end:
12 For our glorying is this, the testimony of our persons thanks may be given by many per supplication; that, for the gift bestowed upon us by whom we have set our hope that he will deliver us;
11 ye also helping together on our behalf by your prayer for us, that we should not trust in our selves, but in God which raiseth the dead:
10 who delivered us out of so great a death, and doeth deliver: on whom we have set our hope that he will deliver vs: in whom we trust, that yet hereafter he will deliver vs;
9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we despaired even of life:
8 within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:
7 who delivered us from so great a death, and will deliver us of the Lord Jesus.
6 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judaea.
5 But I shew set forward on my way toward Judaea.
4 And by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come unto you, and of you to be set forward on my journey unto Judaea.
3 When I therefore was thus minded, did I shew set forward on my journey unto Judaea.
2 as also ye also helping together by prayer for us, that ye might have a second benefit;
1 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you, that ye might have a second benefit;

Εξαπορθήθησα ήμᾶς καὶ τοῦ ζῆν• led forth towards Judea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or minded I those things which I minded, according to the flesh, that with me should be, Yea, yea, and Nay, nay?

18 Yea, God is faithful, that our word to Judea was not Yea, and Nay.

19 For the Son of God Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was Yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and are in him Amen, unto the glory of God through us.

21 And it is God which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anoynted us.

22 Who hath also sealed us, and hath giuen the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Now I call God for a record unto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not that we have dominion over your faith, but we are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but he that is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this very thing, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea and the nay nay?

18 But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timothy, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God through us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not that we have dominion over your faith, but we are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

2 But I determined this for myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by fickleness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the yea yea and the nay nay?

18 But as God is faithful, our word toward you is not yea and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timothy, was not yea and nay, but in him is yea.

20 For how many soever be the promises of God, in him is the yea: wherefore also through him is the Amen, unto the glory of God through us.

21 Now he that stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not that we have dominion over your faith, but we are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

But I determined this for myself, that I would not come again to you with sorrow.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is then that is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this very thing, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to
3 And I wrote this same thing vnto you, lest when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioye is the ioye of you all.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye should be made sorie, but that ye might perceiue the loue which I haue, specially vnto you.

5 And if any hath caused sorowe, the same hath not made mee sorie, but partly (lest I should more charge him) you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that hee was rebuked of many.

7 So that nowe contrariwise yee ought rather to forgue him, and comfort him, lest the same shoulde be swallowed vp with ouermuch heauinesse.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you woulde confirme your loue towards him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might knowe the proofe of you, whether yee woulde obedient in all things.

10 To whome yee forgue any thing, I forgue also: for what I also have forguen, if I have forguen any thing, to whom I forgue it, for your sakes have I forguen it in the person of Christ;

11 Lest Satan should circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach...
12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ’s Gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I founde not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of them, and went away into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always maketh vs to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the sauour of his knowledge by vs in every place.
15 For we are vnto God the sweete sauour of Christ, in them that are saued, and in them which perish.
16 To the one we are the sauour of death, vnto death, and to the other the sauour of life unto life: and who is sufficient for these things?
17 For we are not as many, which make marchandise of the woorde of God: but as of sinceritie, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

18 Yee are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is understand, and read of all men;
19 Forasmuch as ye are manifest, to be the Epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

20 Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is understand, and read of all men;
21 Forasmuch as ye are manifest, to be the Epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

12 Seeing then that we have such trust, we use great boldness of speech.

13 And we are not as Moses, which put a vail upon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the ende of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the olde Testament, which vail in Christ is put away.

15 But euven vnto this day, whe Moses is read, the vail is layd ouer their hearts.

16 Neuertheles when their heart shall be turned to the Lord, the vail is taken away.

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Therefore seeing we have this ministrie, as we have receiued mercy, we faint not:

2 But haue cast from vs ye clokes of shame, and walke not in craftines, neither handle we the worde of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 But and if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled in them plaine}\nness of speech:

16 ηνίκα δὲ ἐὰν ἐπιστρέψῃ πρὸς κύριον, περιαιρεῖται τὸ κάλυμμα.

17 ὁ δὲ κύριος τὸ πνεῦμα ἐστίν• οὗ δὲ τὸ πνεῦμα κυρίου, ἐλευθερία.

18 ἡμεῖς δὲ πάντες ἀνακεκαλυμμένοι τὴν δόξαν κυρίου κατοπτριζόμενοι τὴν αὐτὴν εἰκόνα μεταμορφούμεθα ἀπὸ δόξης εἰς δόξαν, καθάπερ ἀπὸ κυρίου πνεύματος.

Διὰ τούτου, ἔχοντες τὴν διακονίαν ταῦτην, καθὼς ἠλεήθημεν, οὐκ ἐγκακοῦμεν,

2 ἀλλὰ ἀπειπάμεθα τὰ κρυπτὰ τῆς αἰσχύνης, μὴ περιπατοῦντες ἐν πανουργίᾳ μηδὲ δολοῦντες τὸν λόγον τοῦ θεοῦ, ἀλλὰ τῇ φανερώσει τῆς ἀληθείας συνιστάντες ἑαυτοὺς πρὸς πᾶσαν συνείδησιν ἐνώπιον τοῦ θεοῦ.

3 εἰ δὲ καὶ ἔστιν κεκαλυμμένον τὸ εὐαγγέλιον τῶν ἀπίστων εἰς τὸ μὴ αὐγάσαι τὸν φωτισμὸν τῆς δόξης τοῦ Χριστοῦ, ὃς ἐστιν εἰκὼν τοῦ θεοῦ.

5 οὐ γὰρ ἐαυτοὺς κηρύσσομεν ἀλλὰ Χριστὸν Ἰησοῦν κύριον, ἕαυτος δὲ δούλους ὑμῶν διὰ Ἰησοῦν.

6 ὅτι ὁ θεὸς ὁ εἰπὼν, ἐκ σκότους φῶς λάμψει, δὲ
3 But if our gospel be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.
4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.
5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus’ sake.
6 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power might be of God, and not of us.
8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;
9 we are pressed on every side, yet not straitened; we are buffeted, but not destroyed;
10 always bearing about in the body the dying of Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

The sight of God.
3 If our Gospel be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.
4 In whom the God of this world hath blinded the minds, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospels of Christ, which is the image of God, should not shine unto them.
5 For we preach not our selues, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and our selues your seruaunts for Jesus sake.
6 For God that commanded the light to shine out of darkness, is he which hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of that power might be of God, and not of vs.
8 Wee are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distress: we are in doubt, but yet wee despaire not.
9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.
10 Every where we beare about in our bodie the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.
11 For we which lye, are alwaies deliered vnto death for Jesus sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.
12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.
13 And because we have the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;
14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.
15 For all things are for your sakes, that that most plenteous grace by the thanksgiving of many, may redound to the glory of God.
16 Therefore we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed daily.
17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, causes us to glory in this our despised thing: for the kingdom which is not seen is eternal.
18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are not seen are eternal.

For we know that if the earthly house of this tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building given of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
Oreademyan άνθρωπος διαφθηρείται, ἀλλ᾽ ο ἡμῶν ἄνακαινον σώμα τοῦ πνεύματος.
17 τὸ γὰρ παραυτίκα ἐλαφρὸν τῆς θλίψεως ἡμῶν καθ᾽ ὑπερβολὴν εἰς ὑπερβολὴν αἰώνιον βάρος δόξης κατεργάζεται ἡμῖν, 18 μὴ σκοποῦντος ἡμῶν τὰ βλεπόμενα ἀλλὰ τὰ μὴ βλεπόμενα• τὰ γὰρ βλεπόμενα πρόσκαιρα, τὰ δὲ μὴ βλεπόμενα αἰώνια.

For we know that if the earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building given of God, that is, an house not made with handes, but eternall in the heauens.

For we know that if the earthly house of this tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens.

For we know that if the earthly house of our tabernacle be dissolved, we a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens.
3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the same thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight):

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord:

9 Wherefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well-pleasing unto him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer our house, which is from heauen.

3 Because that if we be clothed, we shall not be found naked.

4 For in deed we that are in this tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, because we would not be vnclothed, but would be clothed vpon, that mortalitie might be swallowed vp of life.

5 And he that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are alway bolde, though we knowe

7 Whilest that whiles we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

8 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer our house, which is from heauen.

9 Wherefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well-pleasing unto him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or euill.

11 Knowing therefore that terrour of the Lord, we persuade men, and we are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also that we are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer our house, which is from heauen.

2 CORINTHIANS 5
12 For we prayse not our selues againe vnto you, but give you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that ye may have to answere against them, which reioyce in the face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether we be out of our wit, we are it to God: or whether we be in our right minde, we are it vnto you.

14 For that loue of Christ constraineth vs, because we thus iudge, that if one be dead for all, then were all dead.

15 And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea though wee had known Christ after the flesh, yet nowe henceforth know we him no more.

17 Wherefore if any man be in Christ, let him be a newe creature. Olde things are passed away: behold, all things are become new.

18 But all things are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and gave unto us the ministy of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.
21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

So we therefore as workers together beseech you, that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold nowe is the accepted time, behold nowe is the day of salvation.)

3 Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God; by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour, and dishonour, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true;

9 as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;

11 Τὸ στόμα ἡμῶν ἀνέῳγεν πρὸς ὑμᾶς, Κορίνθιοι, ἡ καρδία ἡμῶν πεπλάτυνται•
10 as sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 Our mouth is open unto you, O Corinthians, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own affections.

13 Now for a recompense in like kind (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? or what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an unbeliever?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for we are the temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.
Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Open your hearts to us: we wronged no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak it not to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die together and live together.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our affliction.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless God, that comforteth the lowly, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

7 And not by his coming only, but also by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season. For though I made you sorrow, though but for a season.

Seing then we have these promises, dearly beloved, let vs clense our afelices from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, and finish our sanctification in the fear of God.

2 Receive vs: we have done wrong to no man: we have corrupted no man.

3 I speak it not to your condemnation: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts, to die and live together.

4 I use great boldnesse of speach toward you: I rejoice greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding joyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side, fightings without, and terours within.

6 But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the coming of Titus:

7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith he was comforted of you, when he tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your fervent minde to me warde, so that I reioyced much more.

8 For though I made you sorie with a letter, I re-

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye were made sorry unto repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly sort, that ye might suffer
For a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted: but rather we reioyced much more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, so our glorying also, which I made before Titus, was found to be truth.

15 And his inward affection is more abundantly toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience
Moreover, brethren, we do make known to you the grace of God which hath been given in the churches of Macedonia;

2 how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that we exhorted Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.
and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 If there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I say not this, that others may be eased, and ye distressed:

14 But by equality; your abundance being a supply for their want; that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 And thanks be vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus.

17 For indeed he accepted our exhortation; but be-16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 Because he accepted the exhortation, yea, he was so careful that of his own accord he went vnto you.

18 And we have sent also with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel throughout all the Churches.

19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a fellowe in our iourney, concerning this grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glorie of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt minde)

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance that is ministred by vs, 21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also before men.

22 And we haue sent with them our brother, whom we haue oft times prooued to be diligent in many things, but nowe much more diligent, for the great confidence, which I haue in you.

23 Whether any doe inquire of Titus, he is my fellowe and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the Churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the Churches the proofe of your loue, and of the reioyc-
For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know your readiness of mind, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achaia was prepared a yeere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Nowe haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioycing ouer you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that yee (as I haue sayde) be readie;

4 Lest if they of Macedonia come with me, and finde you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to entreat the brethren, lest our glorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect;

6 But this I say, He that soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerefull giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace abound toward ing that we haue of you.

9 Wherefore, I thought it necessarie to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might be readie, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of niggardli-
Now I Paul myself entreat you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in your presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

that ye always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 (As it is written, He hath scattered abroad; he hath sparsed abroad and hath giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remayneth for ever.

10 Also hee that findeth seede to the sower, will minister likewise bread for foode, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)

11 Ye being enriched in every thing to all bountiful-ness, which causeth through vs thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this servise not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for the obedience of you; for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)

14 And in their prayer for you, to log after you greatly, for the abundant grace of God in you.

15 Thanks therefore bee vnto God for his vn-speakable gift.

Nowe I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenes, and gentlenes of Christ, which when I am present among you am base, but am bolde toward you being warde you, that ye always having all sufficiencie in all things, may abounde in euery good worke,
2 And this I require you, that I need not to be bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to bee bolde against some, which esteeme vs as though wee walked according to the flesh.

3 Neuerthelesse, though wee walke in the flesh, yet we do not warre after the flesh.

4 (For the weapons of our warrefare are not carnall, but mightie through God, to cast downe holds.)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke yee on things after the appearance? If any man trust in himselfe that he is Christes, let him consider this againe of himself, that as he is Christes, euuen so are we Christes.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as it were to feare you with letters.

age toward you:

2 yea, I beseech you, that I may not when present shew courage with the confidence wherewith I count to be bolde against some, which count of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the casting down of strong holds);

5 casting down imaginations, and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ;

6 and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience shall be fulfilled.

7 Ye look at the things that are before your face. If any man trusteth in himself that he is Christ’s, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ’s, so also are we.

8 For though I should glory somewhat abundantly concerning our authority (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down), I shall not be put to shame:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by my letters.
KJV
10 For, His letters, they say, are weighty and strong; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such a one think this, that, what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith is increased, to bee magnified by you according to our line abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man’s line of things made ready to our hand.

17 But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

GNV
10 For the letters, sayeth hee, are sore and strong, but his bodily presence is weake, and his speache is of no value.

11 Let such one think this, that such as wee are in woorde by letters, when we are absent, such wil we be also in deede, when we are present.

12 For wee dare not make our selves of the number, or compare our selves to them, which praise themselves: but they understand not that they measure themselves with themselves, and compare themselves with themselves.

13 But we will not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, but according to the measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to atteaine euen vnto you.

14 For we strechte not our selues beyonde our measure, as though wee had not atteained vnto you: for euen to you also haue we come in preaching the Gospel of Christ,

15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to bee magnified by you according to our line abundantly,

16 And to preache the Gospel in those regions which are beyonde you: not to reioyce in another mans line, that is, in the thinges that are prepared for euen to you also haue we come in preaching the Gospel of Christ,

17 But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

Would that ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me.

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy:
for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtility, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 Verely I suppose that I was not inferior to the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge, but among you wee haue beene made manifest among all men to you-ward.

7 Or did I commit a sin in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

17 But let him that rejoiceth, rejoiceth in the Lord.
18 For hee that praiseth himselfe, is not alowed, but he whome the Lord praiseth.

Would to God ye could suffer a little my foolishnes, and in deed, ye suffer me.

2 For I am icelous ouer you, with godly icelousie: for I haue prepared you for one husband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ.

3 But I feare least as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your mindes should be corrupted from the simplicitie that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh, preacheth another Iesus whome we haue not preached: or if yee receiue another spirite whome ye haue not receiued: either another Gospell, which yee haue not receiued, ye might well haue suffered him.

5 Verely I suppose that I was not inferior to the very chief Apostles.

6 And though I be rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you wee haue beene made manifest to the vttermost, in all things.

7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that ye might be exalted, and because I preached to you ye Gospell of God freely?
8 I robbed other Churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that they might be found like unto vs in that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness;

16 I say again, Let no man think me foolish; but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

17 That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory a little.

19 I robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you seruice.

20 And when I was present with you, and had neede, I was not slothfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the bretherne which came from Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I kept and will kepe my selfe, that I should not be grieuous to you.

21 The truth of Christ is in me, that this reioycing shall not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.

14 And no marvel: for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness;

16 I say againe, Let no man thinke that I am fooling to their workes.

17 That which I speake, I speake it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory a little.

19 I robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you seruice.

20 And when I was present with you, and had neede, I was not slothfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the bretherne which came from Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I kept and will kepe my selfe, that I should not be grieuous to you.

21 The truth of Christ is in me, that this reioycing shall not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.

14 And no marvel: for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

16 I say againe, Let no man thinke that I am fooling to their workes.

17 That which I speake, I speake it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

21 The truth of Christ is in me, that this reioycing shall not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.
glory also.
19 For ye bear with the foolish gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.
20 For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.
21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.
22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I.
23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.
24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one.
25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day have I been in the deep;
26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;
27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings and fastings, being present in labours, in sleeplessness;
28 Withal are they against nature; for they walk in the things which they ought not; and he that is corrupted in his mind proceedeth to a bad thing.
29 Who is weak between us? who is palpable? who is garrulous? who is wise? who is under the impression? who is weak? who is apt to be disquieted? who is perilous? who is false? who is a brethren? who is a city? who is a false city? who is a sea? who is a perils? who is a wilderness? who is a peril? who is a shipwreck? who is a night? who is a day? who is a deep? who is a perils? who is a city? who is a false city? who is a sea? who is a perils? who is a wilderness? who is a peril? who is a shipwreck? who is a night? who is a day? who is a deep?

In labour and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. 28 Beside those things that are without, there is that which presseth upon me daily, anxiety for all the churches. 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is made to stumble, and I burn not? 30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things that concern my weakness. 31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, he who is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not. 32 In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes, in order to take me: 33 and through a window was I let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands. I must needs glory, though it is not expedient; for I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I do not know; or whether out of the body, I do not know; God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I do not know; God knoweth;) 4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would glory, I shall not be foolish; for I shall speak the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth in me,

7 And lest I should be exalted out of measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 Concerning this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness.

10 Wherefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become foolish: ye compelled me; for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing was I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I

12 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell; God knoweth;) which was taken up into the third heaven.

13 That which was catched up together with me was not I, but a thorn of mine infirmity, or a messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

14 I besought him thrice, that it might depart from me; and said unto him, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come unto my house: yet he会使 me; and said, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

15 But he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

16 Wherefore I will very much rather glory of mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. For when I am weak, then am I strong.
Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ’s sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burden some to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, I did not myself burden you; but, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did I take advantage of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfected; be of the same mind; live in peace: and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally brethren, fare ye well: be perfect: be of good comfort: be of one minde: liue in peace, and the God of loue and peace shalbe with you.

12 Greeete one another with an holy kisse. All the Saintes salute you.

13 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all, Amen. <The seconde Epistle to the Corinthiains was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.>
1 Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia:

3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, which ye received, let him be anathema.

4 To whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever, Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel;

7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

9 As we have said before, so say I now again, If any man preacheth unto you any gospel other than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

10 For am I now persuading men, or God? or am I seeking to please men? if I were still pleasing men, I should not be the servant of Christ.
For I make known to you, brethren, as touching the gospel which was preached by me, that it is not after man. For neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ. For ye have heard of my manner of life in time past, in the Jews' religion, how that I persecuted the Church of God, and was hated: and again I returned unto Damascus. But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: And profited in the Jewish religion beyond many of my companions of mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. But when the good pleasure of God, who called me through his grace, separated me, even from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, I persecuted the church of God, and made havoc of it: I was profited in the Jewish religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it: For neither did I receive it of man, nor was it taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. For I neither received it of man, nor was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. For ye have heard of my conversation in time past, in the Jewish religion, how that I persecuted the church of God, extremely, and wasted it, and was much more zealous of the traditions of my fathers. But when it pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace) To reuile his Sonne in me, that I should preach him among the Gentiles, immediately I communicated not with flesh and blood: Neither came I againe to Hierusalem to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and turned againe vnto Damascus. Then after three yeeres I came againe to Hierusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteene dayes. And none other of the Apostles sawe I, saue Iames the Lords brother. But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lords brother. Nowe the things which I write vnto you, beholde, I witnes before God, that I lie not. And other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lords brother. Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia; And was unknown by face unto the churches of use. away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Cephas before them all, If thou being a Jew, livest as do the Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We being Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, 16 yet knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: because that by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we our selues are found sinners, is Christ a minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I through the law died unto the law, that I might live unto God.

20 I have been crucified with Christ; yet I live; and yet no longer I, but Christ liveth in me: and that life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me.

έπεσεν, ἀρὰ Χριστὸς ἁμαρτίας διάκονος; μὴ γένοιτο.

18 εἰ γὰρ διὰ νόμου δικαιοσύνη, ἄρα Χριστὸς δωρεὰν ἀπέθανεν.

20 εἰ γὰρ διὰ νόμου δικαιοσύνη, ἄρα Χριστὸς δωρεὰν ἀπέθανεν.
21 I do not make void the grace of God: for if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nought.

O foolish Galatians, who did bewitch you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly set forth, crucified?

2 This only would I learn from you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Did ye suffer so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore that supplieth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which are of faith, the same are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 That no man is justified by the law before God, and that the righteousness of God is by faith of Jesus Christ, and not of works, lest man should glory.

12 For our faith is the efficacy of God’s righteousness through Jesus Christ unto us: and not through our works, lest we should have any ground of boasting.

13 For if a man be a Jew, and walketh not in the law of Moses, he is not a Jew.

14 And if a man be a worshipper, and doth not the commandments of God, he is not a worshipper.

15 But if a man be a doer of the work of the law, he is approved unto the law, yea, he shall be justified by the law, he self only, and not he that worketh, but he that believeth on the works.

16 For the writing is without effect, forasmuch as the work is done, which the law required, even the faith of Abraham, who had it, and worked it, and had it imputed unto him for righteousness.

17 For the scripture saith, In the faith of Abraham shall they that fear God be blessed.

18 And Jacob said, I will take hold of that promise by the hand, and shall not let thee go, except thou bless me first.

19 And Joseph said, Swear to me, and I will show thee the secret of my mouth.

20 And he said, Behold, I will swear in this season, I will shew thee: and Joseph bowed down, and kissed Benjamin his son, weeping and embracing him.

21 And the steward went in haste to tell his lord, saying, A man was found of the bondmen of my lord’s brethren, which shall eat with my lord’s brethren.

22 And his lord said, Is it not yet aught found in my house? and hath he left anything of mine in the house, or hath he done any harm to me?

23 And Joseph said, Nay, my lord, but thou hast found this already, that the steward was guilty: and are not the sins of my lord’s servants laid upon me?

24 And he said, What then shall I do for this man? and he said, Let it be done for my lord in what seemeth good to him.

25 And the lord said, Peace be to Jacob, and to all the house of Israel; and peace be to Joseph’s house, and to all the house of Ephraim.

26 The great God, which hath shewed me all these things, and from the beginning hath sent me, and hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and a shepherd to all this people: and now content thyself.

27 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come on, and I will shew you the king’s palace, and the place where we shall eat bread: and I will do all honour to you.

28 And Joseph brought his brethren unto the palace of the king, and gave them to see the palace.

29 And Joseph’s brethren were afraid, and said, Seeing we are in an evil case.

30 And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for am I in such a condition as ye were in Egypt, when I sold you, and brought you up out of the land of Egypt? and is it a matter of death, or of life, which ye fear? go and serve the king, and it shall be well unto you; and ye shall see his face; and he shall speak your words.

31 And they said, Thou hast well said. Behold, we do see the face of the king, and that he shall speak with us.

32 And Joseph foretold unto his brethren, saying, Behold, I shall die: but God will surely visit you, and bring you forth out of this land into the land of which he spake.

33 And Joseph took an oath of his brethren, saying, God will surely visit you, and bring you forth out of this land into the land of which he spake.

34 And it shall come to pass, when he bringeth you out and setteth you in this land, that ye shall keep every man his vineyard and his field.

35 And I will be there with you, and will also produce you up a seed of Jacob, and will raise up an house of Israel.

36 And the land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners with me.

37 And in all the land of Egypt, where ye dwell, ye shall be Men of few words, and shall not make much ado among yourselves.

38 And they said, We will do according to all that thou sayest: we will buy and sell among us, and will lend money and take it again.

39 And Joseph said, Let it be according to your words: see, it is even a covenant in the Lord: and he made it a covenant with Joseph, and with all the house of Israel: and gave unto Israel a nation, and made them a great nation; and blessed them.

40 And Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they preserved his body, and the body of his father, until the time of the came, who shewed unto Joseph, that they should come to Joseph’s land.

41 And Joseph gave commandment unto his brethren, and said, I pray you, do this, and it shall be well unto you; that ye may be fruitful in the land.

42 And he gave them a charge, saying, When God shall give you increase, and multiply you, and give you the land which he sware unto your fathers, to be your inheritance, 43 Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the land.

44 And the children of Jacob were two hundred and twenty, which the angel of the Lord shewed unto Jacob at Succoth.

45 And Joseph feared the children of the Egyptians, because they said, Joseph seeks to subvert us.

46 And Joseph took his brethren, and brought them near to himself; and he told them his father’s name.

47 And Joseph spake to his brethren, and said, I am Joseph; do ye know my father? and we shall say, Behold, thy father is dead: and he shall say, I will go and see my brother.

48 And he shall say, I pray you, go and fetch me my son’s son; and I will speak unto him, and perhaps he will return with me.

49 And Joseph said, Peace be to thee, my brother, and peace be to the house of thy father, and peace be unto all that are with thee.

50 And now, behold, it was not my will, but God’s, that ye should be gathered together, and I sent to call you, that ye might come to my father’s house.

51 And now, behold, thy sons and thy sons’ sons, whom thou wast afraid to bring to me to Joseph, are come.”
faithful Abraham.
10 For as many as are of the works of the Law are under a curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the Law, to do them.

11 Now that no man is justified by the Law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith: but, He that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law, making a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That upon the Gentiles might come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no one maketh it void, or addeth any thing thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the Law, which was made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

18 For if the promise be of the Law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the Law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise of none effect.

firmed afore of God in respect of Christ, the Lawe which was foure hundreth and thirtie yeeres after, can not disanull, that it shoulde make the promise of none effect.
18 For if the inheritance be of the Lawe, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it freely vnto
Abraham by promise.
19 Wherefore then serueth the Law? It was added because of the transgressions, til the seed came, vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordineyd by Angels in the hande of a Mediatour.
20 Nowe a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one:
but God is one.
21 Is the Lawe then against the promises of God?
God forbid: For if there had bene a Lawe giuen which coulde haue giuen life, surely righteousnes should haue bene by the Lawe.
22 But the scripture hath concluded all vnder sinne, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ should be given to them that beleeue.
23 But before faith came, we were kept vnder the Law, as vnder a garison, and shut vp vnto that faith, which should afterward be reuiled.
24 Wherefore the Lawe was our schoolmaster to bring vs to Christ, that we might be made righteous by faith.

21  ὁ οὖν νόμος κατὰ τῶν ἐπαγγελιῶν τοῦ θεοῦ;

ἁμαρτίαν ἵνα ἡ ἐπαγγελία ἐκ πίστεως Ἰησοῦ Χριστοῦ δοθῇ τοῖς πιστεύουσιν.
23  πρὸ τοῦ δὲ ἐλθεῖν τὴν πίστιν ὑπὸ νόμον ἢ the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but God hath granted it to Abraham by promise.
19 What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator.
20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one: but God is one.
21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: For if there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness should have been by the law.
22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ should be given to them that believe.
23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.
24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.
25 But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a tutor.
26 For ye are all sons of God, through faith, in Christ Jesus.
25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a scholemaster.
26 For ye are all the sons of God by faith, in Christ Jesus.
27 For all ye that are baptized into Christ, haue put on Christ.
28 There is neither Iewe nor Grecian: there is neither bonde nor free: there is neither male nor female:
for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.
29 And if ye be Christes, then are ye Abrahams seede, and heires by promise.

30 For I say, that the heire as long as hee is a childe, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be Lord
of all,
31 But is under tutors and gouernours, vntil the time appointed of the Father.
32 Even so, we when wee were children, were in bondage under the rudiments of the world.
33 But when the fulnesse of time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, and made vnder
the Lawe,
34 That hee might redeeme them which were vnder the Law, that we might receiue the adoption of the sonnes.
35 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba,

Then I say, that the heire as long as hee is a childe, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be Lord
of all,
2 But is under tutors and governed, vntil the time
appointed of the Father.
3 Even so, we when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:
4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son made of a woman, and made vnder
the Lawe,
5 That hee might redeem them which were vnder
the Law, that we might receiue the adoption of the sonnes.
6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent foorth
the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba, 13 ὡστε εἴρηκεν ὑμῖν ὁ θεὸς τὸν Ισραήλ τὸν ἀπόστολόν τοῦ σαρκὸς τοῦ αὐτοῦ, ἐν οἷς ἐνέπαγγελμα ἡ θεία ἐδέξατο με, ὡς Χριστὸν Ἰησοῦν Χριστὸν Ἰησοῦν. 14 Καὶ τὸν πειρασμὸν ὑμῶν ἐν τῇ σαρκὶ μου οὐκ ἔδωκατε μοι. 15 Ποῦ οὖν ὁ μακαρισμὸς ὑμῶν; μαρτυρῶ γὰρ ὑμῖν, ὡς Χριστὸν Ἰησοῦν. 16 ὥστε ἐχθρὸς ὑμῶν γέγονα ἀληθεύων ὑμῖν; 17 ζηλοῦσιν ὑμᾶς οὐ καλῶς, ἀλλὰ ἐκκλεῖσαι ὑμᾶς ἵνα ζηλοῦτε. 18 θέλουσιν, ἵνα αὐτοὺς ζηλοῦτε, ἵνα αὐτοὶ ὑμᾶς ζηλοῦσιν πάντοτε, καὶ μὴ ὡς ἄγγελον ὑπῆρξεν ὑμῖν, ὡς Χριστὸν Ἰησοῦν. 19 Τοῦτο γὰρ εἴρηκεν ἐν τῇ σαρκὶ μου ὁ ἄγγελος, ὡς Χριστὸν Ἰησοῦν. 20 ἤθελον δὲ παρεῖναι πρὸς ὑμᾶς ἄρτι, καὶ ἀλλὰ οὖ χαροῦμαι ὑμῖν ὡς ἐκκλεῖσαι ὑμᾶς ἵνα αὐτοὶ ζηλοῦσιν ὑμᾶς. 21 ἤγγικεν ἄνευ ὑμῶν καὶ ἀλλὰ οὖ νῦν ἐχθρὸς μόνον ἐν τῷ παρεῖναί με πρὸς ὑμᾶς. 22 ὶστε εἴρηκεν ὑμῖν ὁ θεὸς τὸν Ισραήλ τὸν ἀπόστολόν τοῦ σαρκὸς τοῦ αὐτοῦ, ἐν οἷς ἐνέπαγγελμα ἡ θεία ἐδέξατο με, ὡς Χριστὸν Ἰησοῦν. 23 Καὶ τὸν πειρασμὸν ὑμῶν ἐν τῇ σαρκὶ μου οὐκ ἔδωκατε μοι. 24 ἤστε εἴρηκεν ὡς ἐπαγγελίας. 25 Καὶ τὸν πειρασμὸν ὑμῶν ἐν τῇ σαρκὶ μου οὐκ ἔδωκατε μοι. 26 ἤστε εἴρηκεν ὡς ἐπαγγελίας. 27 Καὶ τὸν πειρασμὸν ὑμῶν ἐν τῇ σαρκὶ μου οὐκ ἔδωκατε μοι. 28 ἤστε εἴρηκεν ὡς ἐπαγγελίας. 29 Καὶ τὸν πειρασμὸν ὑμῶν ἐν τῇ σαρκὶ μου οὐκ ἔδωκατε μοι. 30 ἤστε εἴρηκεν ὡς ἐπαγγελίας. 31 Καὶ τὸν πειρασμὸν ὑμῶν ἐν τῇ σαρκὶ μου οὐκ ἔδωκατε μοι. 32 ἤστε εἴρηκεν ὡς ἐπαγγελίας. 33 Καὶ τὸν πειρασμὸν ὑμῶν ἐν τῇ σαρκὶ μου οὐκ ἔδωκατε μοι. 34 ἤστε εἴρηκεν ὡς ἐπαγγελίας. 35 Καὶ τὸν πειρασμὸν ὑμῶν ἐν τῇ σαρκὶ μου οὐκ ἔδωκατε μοι. 36 ἤστε εἴρηκεν ὡς ἐπαγγελίας. 37 Καὶ τὸν πειρασμὸν ὑμῶν ἐν τῇ σαρκὶ μου οὐκ ἔδωκατε μοι. 38 ἤστε εἴρηκεν ὡς ἐπαγγελίας. 39 Καὶ τὸν πειρασμὸν ὑμῶν ἐν τῇ σαρκὶ μου οὐκ ἔδωκατε μοι. 40 ἤστε εἴρηκεν ὡς ἐπαγγελίας.
16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?
17 They are zealous over you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.
18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.
19 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.
21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?
22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.
23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was born by promise.
24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.
25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.
26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is our mother.
27 For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not: break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

γεννῶσα, ἥτις ἐστὶν Ἄγαρ.
25 ὁ γὰρ Σινᾶ ὄρος ἐστὶν ἐν τῇ Ἀραβίᾳ• συνστοιχεῖ δὲ τῇ νῦν Ἱερουσαλήμ, σουλευεῖ γάρ μετὰ τῶν τέκνων αὐτῆς.
26 ἡ δὲ ἄνω Ἱερουσαλήμ ἐλευθέρα ἐστίν, ἥτις ἐστίν μήτηρ ἡμῶν•
27 γέγραπται γάρ, εὐφράνθητι, στεῖρα ἡ οὐ τίκτουσα• ῥῆξον καὶ βόησον, ἡ οὐκ ὠδίνουσα• ὅτι πολλὰ τὰ τέκνα τῆς ἐρήμου μᾶλλον ἢ τῆς ἐχούσης τὸν ἄνδρα.
28 ὑμεῖς δέ, ἀδελφοί, κατὰ Ἰσαὰκ ἐπαγγελίας τέκνα ἐστέ.
29 ἀλλ᾽ ὥσπερ τότε ὁ κατὰ σάρκα γεννηθεὶς ἐδίωκεν τὸν κατὰ πνεῦμα, οὐ γὰρ μὴ κληρονομήσει ὁ υἱὸς τῆς παιδίσκης μετὰ τοῦ υἱοῦ αὐτῆς.
30 διό, ἀδελφοί, οὐκ ἐσμὲν παιδίσκης τέκνα ἀλλὰ τῆς ἐλευθέρας.
28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the handmaid and her son: for the son of the handmaid shall not be heir with the son of the free.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the handmaid, but of the free.

Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that receiveth circumcision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 Ye are severed from Christ, ye who would be justified by the law; ye are fallen away from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness.

6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith working through love.

7 Ye were running well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion came not of him that calleth you. A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

9 I have confidence to you-ward in the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that trouthe mother of vs all.

27 For it is written, Reioyce thou barren that bearest no children: breake forth, and cry, thou that trauailest not: for the desolate hath many moe children, then she which hath an husband.

28 Therefore, brethren, wee are after the maner of Isaac, children of the promise.

29 But as then hee that was born after the flesh, persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, eu-so it is nowe.

30 But what sayth the Scripture? Put out the seru-

Τῇ ἐλευθερίᾳ ἡμᾶς Χριστὸς ἠλευθέρωσεν. στήκετο οὖν καὶ μὴ πάλιν ζυγῷ δουλίας ἐνέχεσθε.

7 Τῇ ἐλευθερίᾳ ἡμᾶς Χριστὸς ἠλευθέρωσεν. στήκετο righteousness by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith which worketh by love.
7 Ye did runne well: who did let you, that ye did not obey the truth?
8 It is not the perswasion of him that calleth you.
9 A little leauen doeth leauen the whole lump.
10 I haue trust in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but hee that troubleth you, shall beare his condemnation, whosoeuer he be.
11 And, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why should I yet suffer persecution? Then is the slander of the crosse abolished.
12 Would to God they were euen cut off, which doe disquiet you.
13 For brethren, ye haue bene called vnto libertie: onely vse not your libertie as an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.
14 For all the Lawe is fulfilled in one worde, which is this, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.
15 If ye bite and deuoure one another, take heede lest ye be consumed one of another.
16 Then I say, Walke in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lustes of the flesh.
17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the bleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? then hath the stumblingblock of the cross been done away.
12 I would that they which unsettle you would even cut themselves off.
13 For ye, brethren, were called for freedom; only use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love be servants one to another.
14 For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.
16 But I say, Walk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.
17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are contrary the righteousness by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith which worketh by love.
7 Ye did runne well: who did let you, that ye did not obey the truth?
8 It is not the perswasion of him that calleth you.
9 A little leauen doeth leauen the whole lump.
10 I haue trust in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but hee that troubleth you, shall beare his condemnation, whosoeuer he be.
11 And, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why should I yet suffer persecution? Then is the slander of the crosse abolished.
12 Would to God they were euen cut off, which doe disquiet you.
13 For brethren, ye haue bene called vnto libertie: onely vse not your libertie as an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.
14 For all the Lawe is fulfilled in one worde, which is this, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.
15 If ye bite and deuoure one another, take heede lest ye be consumed one of another.
16 Then I say, Walke in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lustes of the flesh.

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which of the which I forewarn you, even as I did forewarn you, that they which practise such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. 22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. 24 And they that are of Christ have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. 25 If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. 26 Let us not be vainglorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

Brethren, if a man be suddenly taken in any offence, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of meekness; looking to thyself, lest thou also be tempted. 2 Bear ye one another’s burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. 3 For if a man thinketh himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. 4 But let each man prove his own work, and then shall he have his glorying in regard of himself alone, and not of his neighbour. 5 For each man shall bear his own burden.
are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.
2 Beare ye one another’s burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.
3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.
4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.
5 For every man shall bear his own burden.
6 Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.
7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.
8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap everlasting life.
9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.
10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good: for we shall reap, if we faint not.
11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.
12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.
13 For not even they who receive circumcision do themselves keep the law; but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.
14 But far be it from me to glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world hath been crucified unto me, and I unto the world.
15 For neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.
16 And as many as shall walk by this rule, peace be ye which are spiritual, restore such one with the spirit of meekenes, considering thy selfe, least thou also be tempted.
17 And as many as shall walk by this rule, peace be

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;
15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace;
16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:
17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.
18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.
19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but citizens with the Saints, and of the household of God,
20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;
21 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:
22 In whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God through the Spirit.
For this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,--
2 if so be that ye have heard of the dispensation of that grace of God, which was given me to you-ward;
3 how that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery, as I wrote afore in few words,
4 whereby, when ye read, ye may perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ;
5 which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;
6 that the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:
7 whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.
8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,
9 and to make all men see what is the dispensation of the mystery, which from all ages hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:
10 to the intent, that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, which is hid in Christ.

To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be made known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:

2 If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to you-ward,
3 That is, that God by revelation hath shewed this mystery vnto me (as I wrote aboue in fewe wordes, understanding in the mystery of Christ)
4 Whereby when ye reade, ye may knowe mine
5 Which in other ages was not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is nowe reuiled vnto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit,
6 That the Gentiles should be inhereitors also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel,
7 Whereof I am made a minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto me through the effectuall working of his power.
8 Euen vnto me the least of all Saints is this grace giuen, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,
9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the fellow-ship of the mysterie is, which from the beginning of the world hath bene hid in God, who hath created all things by Jesus Christ,
10 To the intent, that nowe vnto principallities and powers in heauenly places, might be knowne by the world.
Church the manifolde wisdom of God,
11 According to the eternall purpose, which he wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord:
12 In whom we haue boldenes and access with confidence, by faith in him.
13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.
14 For this cause I bowe my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, 15 (Of whom is named the whole familie in heauen and earth)
16 That he might graunt you according to the riches of his glorie, that ye may be strengthened by his Spirit in the inner man,
17 That Christ may dwell in your heartes by faith:
18 That ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with al Saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height:
19 And to knowe the loue of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled with all the fulnesse of God.
20 Vnto him therefore that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we aske or thinke, accord

God,
11 according to the eternal purpose which he pur
12 in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in him.
13 Wherefore I ask that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which are your glory.
14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father, 15 from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,
16 that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man;
17 that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,
18 may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, 19 and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled unto all the fulnesse of God.
20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,
21 unto him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus unto all generations for ever and ever. Amen.
I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthily of the vocation wherewith ye are called,
2 with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love;
3 Endeaouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called
5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,
6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and in all, and through all, and in you all.
7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.
9 (Now this, He ascended, what is it but that he also had descended first into the lowest partes of the earth?)
10 He that descended is the same also that ascended farre above all heauens, that hee might fill all things.
11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;
12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of ministering, unto the building up of the body of Christ:
12 For the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
11 And he gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;
12 for the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministering, unto the building up of the body of Christ:
11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;
12 for the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having the understanding darkened, and being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:

19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

For the repairing of the Saints, for the woork of the ministerie, and for the edification of the bodie of Christ,

12 Till we all meete together (in the vnitie of faith and that acknowledging of the Sonne of God) vnto a perfecte man, and vnto the measure of the age of the fulnesse of Christ,

13 Till we all attaine unto the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a fullgrown man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, wauering and caried about with everie winde of doctrine, by the deceit of men, and with craftines, whereby they lay in wait to deceiue.

15 But let vs folowe the truth in loue, and in all things, grow vp into him, which is the head, that is, Christ.

16 By whome al the body being coupled and knit together by everie ioynt, for ye furniture thereof (ac­cording to the effectual power, which is in the measure of evry part) receiueh increase of the body, vnto the edifying of itselfe in loue.

17 This I say therefore and testifie in the Lord, that yee hencefoorth walke not as other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of their minde, strangers from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardnesse of their heart:

18 Hauing their vnderstanding darkened, and being strangers from the life of God by the deceit of men, and with craftines, whereby they lie in wait to deceiue.

19 That we henceforth be no more children, wauering and caried about with everie winde of doctrine, by the deceit of men, and with craftines, whereby they lay in wait to deceiue.

20 But ye ye have not so learned Christ;

Christ and the church.

Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
31 For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and they twain shall be one flesh.
32 This is a great secret, but I speak concerning Christ, and concerning the Church.
33 Therefore every one of you, doe ye so: let every one love his wife, even as himselfe, and let the wife see that she fear her husband.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
2 Honour thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise;)
3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.
4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
5 Servants, be obedient unto them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;
6 Not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;
7 with good will doing service, as unto the Lord, and not unto men:
8 knowing that whatsoever good thing each one doeth, the same shall he receive again from the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.
10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.
11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against spiritual wickedness in high places.
13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.
14 Stand therefore, having your loins girded about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;
15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;
16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.
17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:
18 With all prayer and supplication praying at all seasons in the Spirit, and watching thereunto in all perseverance and supplication for all the saints,
19 And on my behalf, that utterance may be given of me also in all the churches.
20 Not to the reproving of the world, but to the reproof of fools from justice;
21 For they themselves shall be punished, being reproved; whereof the day shall declare, and your verities shall condemn them that reproach you in any manner.
22 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his kingdom, and unto the kingdom of the precious: on whose behalf I also am in bonds.
23 Grace be with you all. Amen.

unto me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel,

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:
22 whom I have sent unto you for this very purpose, that ye might know our state, and that he might comfort your hearts.
23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
24 Grace be with all them which love our Lord Jesus Christ, to their immortalitie, Amen. Written from Rome vnto the Ephesians, and sent by Tychicus.
Paul and Timotheus, servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon all my remembrance of you, 4 always in every prayer of mine for you all making my supplication with joy,

5 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

Paul and Timotheus the servants of IESVS CHRIST, to all the Saintes in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the Bishops, and Deacons:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thanke my God, having you in perfect memorie, 4 (Always in all my praiers for all you, praying with gladnesse)

5 Because of the fellowship which ye haue in the Gospel, from the first day vnto nowe,

6 And I am persuaded of this same thing, that he that hath begunne this good worke in you, wil perfourme it vntill the day of Christ,

7 As it becommeth me so to iudge of you all, because I haue you in remembrance that both in my bands, and in my defence, and confirmation of the Gospell you all were partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my recorde, howe I long after you all from the very heart roote in Iesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgment,

10 That ye may alowe those things which are best, that ye may be pure, and without offence vntill the day of Christ, 11 Filled with the fruites of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ vnto the glorie and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

8 He humbled himselfe, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the Crosse.
9 Wherefore God hath also highly exalted him, and giuen him a Name aboue euery name,
10 That at the Name of Jesus shoulde euery knee bowe, both of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things vnder the earth, 11 And that euery tongue shoulde confesse that καὶ οὐκ ἀκουετε ἐν ἐμοί.

For I have no man likeminded, who will care when I know your state.

But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, and to work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

For the same cause also do ye also joy, and rejoice with me.

Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all:

Yea, and if I am offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all:

Holding forth the word of life; that I may have joy and reioyce in the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain, neither have laboured in vain.

holding forth the word of life; that I may have joy and reioyce in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither have laboured in vain.

And I trust in the Lord Jesus, to sende Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I knowe your state.

For I haue no man like minded, who will faith when I knowe your state.

And I trust in the Lord Iesus, to sende Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I knowe your state.

For I have no man likeminded, who will care when I know your state.

19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man likeminded, who will care when I know your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye are seen as lights in the world, fully care for your matters.
21 For all seeke their owne, and not that which is Jesus Christes.
22 But yee knowe the proofe of him, that as a sonne with the father, hee hath serued with me in the Gospel.
23 Him therefore I hope to send asoone as I knowe howe it will goe with me, 24 And trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe shall come shortly.
25 But I supposed it necessarie to sende my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my companion in labour, and fellowe soulldier, euen your messenger, and he that ministred vnto me such things as I wanted.
26 For he longed after all you, and was full of heauinesse, because yee had heard that hee had beene sicke.
27 And no doubt he was sicke, very neere vnto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should haue sorowe vpon sorowe.
28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when yee shoulde see him againe, yee might reioyce, and I might be the lesse sorowfull.
29 Receiue him therefore in the Lord with all gladnees, and make much of such:
30 Because for the work of Christ he came nigh unto death, hazarding his life to supply that which was Jesus Christ's.

τέκνον σὺν ἐμοὶ ἐδούλευσεν εἰς τὸ εὐαγγέλιον.
23  τοῦτον μὲν οὖν ἐλπίζω πέμψαι ὡς ἂν ἀφίδω τὰ περὶ ἐμὲ ἐξαυτῆς•
24  πέποιθα δὲ ἐν κυρίῳ ὅτι καὶ αὐτὸς ταχέως ἐλεύσομαι.
25  Ἀναγκαῖον δὲ ἡγησάμην Ἐπαφρόδιτον τὸν ἀδελφὸν καὶ συνεργὸν καὶ συνστρατιώτην μου, ὑμῶν δὲ ἀπόστολον καὶ λειτουργὸν τῆς χρείας μου, πέμψαι πρὸς ὑμᾶς, 26  ἐπειδὴ ἐπιποθῶν ἦν πάντας ὑμᾶς, καὶ ἀδημονῶν διότι ἠκούσατε ὅτι ἠσθένησε.
27  καὶ γὰρ ἠσθένησε παραπλήσιον θανάτῳ• ἀλλὰ ὁ θεὸς ἠλέησεν αὐτόν, οὐκ αὐτὸν δὲ μόνον ἀλλὰ καὶ ἐμέ, ἵνα μὴ λύπην ἐπὶ λύπην σχῶ.
28  σπουδαιοτέρως οὖν ἔπεμψα αὐτὸν ἵνα ἰδόντες αὐτὸν πάλιν χαρῆτε κἀγὼ ἀλυπότερος ὦ.
29  προσδέχεσθε οὖν αὐτὸν τὸν πάντας ὑμᾶς, καὶ ἀδήμονον διότι ἤκουσατε ὅτι ὤσθηνεν.
30  καὶ γὰρ ὤσθηνεν παραπλήσιον θανάτῳ· ἀλλὰ ὁ θεὸς ἠλέησεν αὐτόν, οὐκ αὐτὸν δὲ μόνον ἀλλὰ καὶ ἐμὲ, ἵνα μὴ λύπην ἐπὶ λύπην σχῶ.
31  σπουδαιοτέρως δέν ἔγειρεν τὸν ἀπόστολον τὸν ἀληθινὸν ἵνα ἀναπληρώσῃ τὸ ὑμῶν ὑστέρημα τῆς πρός με λειτουργίας.
30 Because that for the work of Christ he was neere vnto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfill that service which was lacking on your part towarde me.

Moreouer, my brethren, reioyce in the Lord. It grieueth mee not to write the same things to you, and for you it is a sure thing.

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirite, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence in the flesh:

4 Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh.

5 Circumcised the eight day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Beniamin, an Ebrewe of the Ebrewes, by the Lawe a Pharise.

6 Concerning zeale, I persecuted ye Church: touching the righteousnesse which is in the Law, I was vnrebukeable.

7 But the thinges that were vantage vnto me, the same I counted losse for Christes sake.

8 Yea, doubtlesse I thinke all thinges but losse for the excellency of the knowledge sake of Christ Iesus my Lord: for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and be found in him, not having a righteousness lacking in your service toward me.

Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not irksome, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the concision:

3 for we are the circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God, and glory in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh:

4 though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh: if any other man thinketh to have confidence in the flesh, I more:

5 circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;

6 as touching zeal, persecuting the church; as touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted lost for Christ.

8 Yea doubtlesse I think all thinges but losse for the excellent knowledge sake of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and be found in him, not having a righteousness and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, 9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:
10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;
11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrecution of the dead.
12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.
13 Brethren, I count not myself yet to have apprehended: but I press on, if so be that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.
14 I press on toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.
15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in anything ye are otherwise minded,
God shall reveal even this unto you.
16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained,
God shall reveal even this unto you.
17 Brethren, be ye imitators together of me, and mark them which so walk even as ye have us for an ensample.
18 Many walk, as I have said, as they dream.
19 But as concerning me and the more things of these, ye know of my presence and token among you, both by letter and in absence of our God;
20 The testimony of Christ Jesus, which is of God by faith:
21 Who for the hope of glory, sustained the cross of Christ, and despised reproach and scorn of people:
22 Even so God hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:
23 That at the name of Jesus every knee shall bow, even those of principalities and powers, and things seen and things unseen;
24 And that every tongue shall confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God, the Father.
25 Wherefore, we, seeing these things, are comforted.
26 For if the glory of God was such in the cross of Christ, how much more shall the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ be manifest in our body?
27 For the world passeth away, and the lust thereof:
but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.
28 And this is the will of God, even your sanctification: that ye should abstain from fornication:
29 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God, the Father.
30 But when Christ, who is our righteousness, ap-ppeared, then became we the righteousness of God in
him:
31 And is made unto us by righteousness of faith, as a gift: that we might become the righteousness of God in him.
17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample.

18 For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.

20 For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, even the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my beloved.

2 I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 Yea, I beseech thee also, true yokefellow, help these women, for they laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: again I will say, Rejoice.

5 Let your forbearance be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 In nothing be anxious; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.
7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.
8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.
9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shalbe with you.
10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that nowe at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.
11 Not that I speak not because of want: for I haue learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

καὶ εἰδετε ἐν ἐμοί, ταῦτα πράσσετε• καὶ ὁ θεός τῆς εἰρήνης ἔσται μεθ’ ὑμῶν.

11 οὐχ ὅτι καθ᾽ ὑστέρησιν λέγω, ἐγὼ γὰρ ἔμαθον, εἰ δοκεῖ τοῦ ἐμοῦ συνέχειαν, ἐφ᾽ ἣν θαυμάσθητε, ἐλθὼν ἐπὶ ἐμοὶ ὑπομονῆν.

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.
3 We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,
4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,
5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven,
6 Which is come unto you; even as it is also in all the world;
7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;
8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.
9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray and make request for you, that ye might be fulfilled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;
10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in wisdom and spiritual understanding,

Παύλος ἀπόστολος Χριστοῦ Ἰησοῦ διὰ θελήματος θεοῦ καὶ Τιμόθεος ὁ ἀδελφός
2 τοῖς ἐν Κολοσσαῖς ἀγίοις καὶ πιστοῖς ἀδελφοῖς ἐν Χριστῷ· χάρις υἱῷ καὶ εἰρήνη ἀπὸ θεοῦ πατρὸς ἡμῶν.
3 Εὐχαριστοῦμεν τοῦ θεοῦ καὶ πατρὶ τοῦ κυρίου ἡμῶν Ιησοῦ Χριστοῦ πάντες περὶ υἱῶν προσευχόμενοι,
4 ἀκούσαντες τὴν πίστιν υἱῶν ἐν Χριστῷ Ιησοῦ καὶ τὴν ἄγαπὴν ἦν ἐχετε εἰς πάντας τοὺς ἄγιους

9 Πάντα τούτο καὶ ἡμέτερος ἢρ ἤ ἡμέρας ἢκούσαμεν, οὐ πανομέθα ὑπὲρ υἱῶν προσευχόμενοι καὶ αἰτούμενοι ἵνα πληρώθητε τὴν ἐπίγνωσιν τοῦ θελήματος αὐτοῦ ἐν πάση σοφίᾳ καὶ συνέσει
11 Strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, unto all patience and longsuffering with joy;
12 giving thanks unto the Father, who made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:
13 Who hath delivered us out of the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:
14 In whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins:
15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature,
16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:
17 And he is before all things, and in him all things consist.
18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence.
19 For it pleased him in all things, being fruitfull in all good works, and increasing in the knowledge of God, 20 and through him to reconcile all things unto himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross; through him, I say, whether things upon the earth, or things in the heavens.

21 And you, being in time past alienated and enemies in your mind by evil works, yet now hath he reconciled

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and without fault in his sight:

23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and stedfast, and not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which hath been preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister.

24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fulfill the word of God, whereof I am made a minister.

25 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which was given me to youward, to fulfill the word of God, whereof I Paul am a minister.

26 Which is the mystery hid since the world began, and from all ages, but nowe is made manifest to his saints,

27 To whom God would make known what is the fulness of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles;
6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:
7 Rooted and built in him, and stablished in the assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God, even Christ,
2 That their hearts might be comforted, they being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to know the mystery of God, even the Father, and of Christ;
3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and mystery of God, even Christ,
4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words:
5 For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.
6 As therefore ye received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:
7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the Lord, so walke in him, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.
5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, reioycing and beholding your order, and your stedfast faith in Christ.
4 This I say, that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech.
5 For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.
6 As therefore ye received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him,
7 rooted and builded up in him, and stablished in your faith, even as ye were taught, abounding in is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:
28 whom we proclaim, admonishing every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ:
29 Whereunto I labour also, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.
27 To whome God woulde make knowen what is the riches of his glorious mysterie among the Gentiles, which riches is Christ in you, the hope of glory,
15 And having spoiled the Principalities, and Powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, thanksgiving.

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth at the right hand of God.

2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatrie.

6 For the which things sake ye wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience.

7 Wherein ye also walked once, when ye lived in them.

8 But now put ye away even all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his doings,

10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:

11 Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond,

2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ which is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry.

10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:

11 Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond,
12 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering;

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfectness.

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with a grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father through him.

18 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing in the Lord.

21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be provoke not your children to anger, lest they be provoked to anger, and they be provoked to anger, and they be provoked to anger.

But Christ is all, and in all things.

12 Now therefore as the elect of God holy and beloved, put on the bowels of mercies, kindnesse, humblenesse of minde, meekenesse, long sufferinge: Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man haue a quarrel to another: euen as Christ forgave, euen so doe ye.

14 And above all these things put on loue, which is the bond of perfectnes.

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which ye are called in one body, and be ye thankful.

16 Let the words of Christ dwell in you plenteously in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing your owne selues, in Psalms, and hymnes, and spiritual songs, singing with a grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thankes to God euen the Father by him.

18 Wives, submit your selues vnto your husbands, as it is comely in the Lord.

19 Husbands, loue your wiues, and be not bitter vnto them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all thing for that is well pleasing vnto the Lord.

21 Fathers, prouoke not your children to anger, lest they be prouoke not your children to anger, lest they be prouoke not your children to anger, lest they be they be discouraged.

22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

Masters, render unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving;

3 Withal praying also for us, that God may open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.
with salt, that ye may know how to answer every one.
7 All my affairs shall Tychicus make known unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord:
8 Whom I have sent unto you for this same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;
9 With Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.
10 Aristarchus my fellow-prisoner saluteth you, and Marcus, Barnabas cousin (touching whom ye received commandments; if he come unto you, receive him);
11 And Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow-workers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto my spirit in prison;
12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.
13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for your hearts;
14 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you, and for you, and for them in Laodicea, and for them in Hierapolis.

14 Luke the beloved physician greeteth you, and Demas.
15 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the Church which is in his house.
16 And when this Epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.
17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it.
18 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bands. Grace be with you. Amen. Written from Rome to Colossians, and sent by Tychicus, and Onesimus.

Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;
3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;
4 Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.
5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost;
6 And ye became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of much assurance; even as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.
7 So that ye were an ensample to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.
8 For from you sounded forth the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we need not to speak anything.
9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be with you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give God thanks always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;
3 Without ceasing, remembering your effectual faith, and diligent love, and the patience of your hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God even our Father,
4 Knowing, beloved brethren, that ye are elect of God.
5 For our gospel was not vnto you in worde only, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know after what maner we were among you for your sakes.
6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and received the worde in much affliction, with ioy of the holy Ghost,
7 So that ye were as enamples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and in Achaia.
8 For from you sounded out the worde of the Lord, not in Macedonia and in Achaia only: but your faith also which is toward God, spread abroad in all quarters, that we neede not to speake any thing.

Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 We give God thankes alwayes for you all, making mention of you in our prayers,
3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labour of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father;
4 Knowing, beloved brethren, your election of God,
5 how that our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; even as ye know what manner of men we shewed ourselves toward you for your sake.
6 And ye became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost;
7 so that ye became an ensample to all that believe in Macedonia and in Achaia.
8 For from you hath sounded forth the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we need not to speak anything.
9 For they themselves report concerning us what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how ye turned unto God from idols, to serve a living and true God,
For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi,

3 and we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

4 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness:

6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor of others, when we might have been burdensome,

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

For they themselves show of vs what manner of entrance in we had vnto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serue the liuing and true God,

10 And to looke for his sonne from heauen, whome he raised from the dead, euen Jesus which delivereth vs from that wrath to come.

For ye your selues knowe, brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in vaine,

2 But but euen after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated at Philippi, (as ye knowe) we were bolde in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospell of God with much striuynge.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by uncleannes, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God, that the Gospel should be committed vnto vs, so we speake, not as they that please men, but God, which approoueth our hearts.

5 Neither yet did we ever use flattering words, as ye knowe, nor coloured couetousnes, God is recorde.

6 Neither sought we prayse of men, neither of you, nor of others, when we might haue bene chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, euen as a nurse cherisheth her children.

The text is a bilingual exhibition of the passage from 1 Thessalonians 2:1 to 10 in KJV, GNV, ERV, and Tischendorf Greek.
8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, that ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

12 To the end that ye should walk worthily of God, who hath called you, and comforted, and besought every one of you (as a father his children)

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually working also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became imitators of the churches of God, which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also suffered the same things of your own country men, even as they did of the Jews;

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:

16 For for ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

17 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly, and unblameably we behaved our selues among you that believe.

18 As ye knowe how that we exhorted you, and comforted, and besought every one of you (as a father his children)

19 That ye would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glorie.

20 That ye would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glorie.

21 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God, which ye heard of vs, ye receiued it not as the worde of men, but as it is in deede the worde of God, which also worketh in you that beleue.

22 For brethren, ye are become folowers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in Christ Iesus, because ye haue also suffred the same things of your owne countrey men, euen as they haue of the Ieues, 23 Who both killed the Lord Iesus and their owne countrey men, euen as they haue of the Iewes, Prophets, and have persecuted vs away, and God they please not, and are contrary to all men, 16 And forbid vs to preach vnto the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fill their sinnes alwayes: for the wrath of God is come on them, to the utmost.

17 Forasmuch, brethren, as we were kept from you for a season, concerning sight, but not in the heart, we enforced the more to see your face with great desire.
18 Therefore we would have come vnto you (I Paul, at least once or twice) but Satan hindered vs.
19 For what is our hope or ioye, or crown of rejoicing? are not even ye it in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his comming?
20 Yea, ye are our glory and ioy.

Wherefore since we could no longer forbare, wee thought it good to remaine at Athens alone, 2 And haue sent Timotheus our brother and minister of God, and our labour felow in the Gospel of Christ, to stablish you, and to comfort you touching your faith,
3 That no man should be moued with these afflic-	ions: for ye your selues knowe, that we are appointed thereunto.

Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;
2 And sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:
3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.
4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you be-wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being bereaved of you for a short season, in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more exceedingly to see your face with great desire:
18 because we would fain have come unto you, I Paul once and again; but Satan hindered us.
19 For what is our hope or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye, before our Lord Jesus at his coming?
20 For ye are our glory and joy.

Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone;
2 And sent Timotheus, our brother and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:
3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.

fore that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

For this cause, when I could no longer forbear,
I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter had tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and char-coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

4 For verily when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulations, even as it came to passe, and ye knowe it.

5 Euen for this cause, when I could no longer for-beare, I sent him that I might knowe of your faith, lest the tempter had tempted you in any sort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.

6 But now lately when Timotheus came from you unto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith and love, and that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring to see vs, as we also do you,
7 Therefore, brethren, we had consolation in you, in

8 For nowe are we alieue, if ye stand fast in the Lord.
9 For what thankes can we render againe to God againe for you, for all the ioy wherewith we reioyce for your sakes before our God, 10 Night and day, praying exceedingly that wee might see your face, and might accomplish that which is lacking in your faith?
11 Nowe God himselfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, guide our iourney vnto you, 12 And the Lord increase you, and make you abound in loue one toward another, and toward all men, euen as we doe toward you:
6 But when Timothy came even now unto us from you, and brought us glad tidings of your faith and love, and that ye have good remembrance of us al-always, longing to see us, even as we also to see you;
7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith:
8 for now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.
9 For what thanksgiving can we render again to God before our God, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;
10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?
11 Now may our God and Father himself, and our 13 To make your hearts stable and blameless in holiness before God our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his Saints.

And furthermore we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that ye increase more and more, as ye have received of vs, how ye ought to walk, and to please God.

2 For ye know what commandements we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God even your sanctification, and that ye should abstaine from fornication, and every one of you should know, how to possess his vessel in holiness and honour,

5 And not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man oppresse or defraude his brother in any matter: because the Lord is an avenger of all such things, as we also have tolde you before time, and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.

8 He therefore that despiseth these thinges, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye neede not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.

Finally then, brethren, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as ye received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, even as ye do walk,—that ye abound more and more.

2 For ye know what charge we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess himself of his own vessel in sanctification and honour,

5 Not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man do beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is an avenger of all such things, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification.

8 Therefore he that rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God, who giveth his Holy Spirit unto you.

9 But concerning love of the brethren ye have no need that one write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another;

10 for indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, that ye abound more and more;

11 and that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own
10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;
11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;
12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.
13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.
14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.
15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.
16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven, with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:
17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.
18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

For God hath not appointed us unto wrath, but to obtain salvation by the means of our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 Which died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore comfort yourselves one another, and edifie one another, even as ye do.

12 Nowe we beseeche you, brethren, that ye acknowledge them, which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.

14 Nowe we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

15 See that none render evil for evil unto any man: but alway follow after that which is good, one to another, and toward all.

16 Rejoice evermore.

17 Pray without ceasing.

18 In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

19 Quench not the Spirit.

20 Despise not prophesyings.

21 Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

22 Abstain from all appearance of evil.

23 And the God of peace himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord.
23 Nowe the very God of peace sanctifie you throughout: and I pray God that your whole spirite and soule and body, may be kept blamelesse vnto the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ.

24 Faithfull is hee which calleth you, which will also doe it.

25 Brethren, pray for vs.

26 Greete all the brethren with an holy kiss.

Paul and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ;

2 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren, even as it is meet, for that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the love of each one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God, as it is meete, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you toward each other.

5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

6 For it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall shewe himselfe from heauen with his mightie Angels,

8 In flaming fire, rendering vengeance vnto them, that doe not know God, and which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ,

9 Which shall be punished with euerlasting perdition, from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power,
Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him; that ye be not suddenly moved from your mind, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a departing first, and that man of sin be revealed, even the son of perdition;

Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God, and that he is God.

Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told ye these things; that he doeth now sit as God in the Temple of God, setting himself forth as that is called God or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, setting himself forth as God.

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be made marvellous in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore, we also pray always for you, that our God may make you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:

12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our assembling unto him,

2 That ye be not suddenly moved from your mind, nor troubled neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as it were from us, as though the day of Christ were at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there be a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, even the son of perdition;

4 Which is an adversaries, and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he doeth sit as God in the Temple of God,
5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?
6 And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.
7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he which now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.
8 And then shall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall abolish with the brightness of his coming,
9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,
10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness for them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they should believe a lie:
11 And for this cause God sendeth them a working of error, that they should believe a lie:
12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.
13 But we are bound to give thanks to God alway for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, for that God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation, through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:
14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to shewing him selfe that he is God.
15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast and keep the instructions, which ye have been taught, either by word, or by our Epistle.
16 Now the same Jesus Christ our Lord; and our God even the Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every word and good work.

15 ἄρα οὖν, ἀδελφοί, στήκετε, καὶ κρατεῖτε τὰς παραδόσεις ἃς ἐδιδάχθητε εἴτε διὰ λόγου εἴτε δι᾽ ἐπιστολῆς ἡμῶν.
16 αὐτὸς δὲ ὁ κύριος ἡμῶν Ἰησοῦς Χριστὸς καὶ ὁ θεὸς ὁ πατὴρ ἡμῶν, ὁ ἀγαπήσας ἡμᾶς καὶ δοὺς παράκλησιν αἰωνίαν καὶ ἑλπίδα ἀγαθὴν ἐν χάριτι,
17 παρακαλέσαι ὑμῶν τὰς καρδίας καὶ στηρίξαι ἐν παντὶ ἔργῳ καὶ λόγῳ ἀγαθῷ.

Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even as it is with you,
2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men: for all men have not faith.
3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.
4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.
5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.
6 We warne you, brethren, in the Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

15 ὠρα οὖν, ἀδελφοί, στήκετε, καὶ κρατεῖτε τὰς παραδόσεις ἃς ἐδιδάχθητε εἴτε διὰ λόγου εἴτε δι᾽ ἐπιστολῆς ἡμῶν.
16 αὐτὸς δὲ ὁ κύριος ἡμῶν Ἰησοῦς Χριστὸς καὶ ὁ θεὸς ὁ πατὴρ ἡμῶν, ὁ ἀγαπήσας ἡμᾶς καὶ δοὺς παράκλησιν αἰωνίαν καὶ ἑλπίδα ἀγαθὴν ἐν χάριτι,
17 παρακαλέσαι ὑμῶν τὰς καρδίας καὶ στηρίξαι ἐν παντὶ ἔργῳ καὶ λόγῳ ἀγαθῷ.

Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, even as it is with you,
2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men: for all men have not faith.
3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.
4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.
5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.
6 We warne you, brethren, in the Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

15 Whereunto he called you by our Gospel, to obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.
For yourselves know how ye ought to imitate us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; neither did we eat any man’s bread for nought: but we wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable any of you: Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, If any will not work, neither let him eat. 10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither let him eat.

But ye, brethren, be not weary in well-doing. 13 And if any man obeyeth not our word by this epistle, note that man, that ye have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

For we hear of some that walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. 12 Therefore them that are such, we warne and exhort by our Lord Iesus Christ, that they worke with quietnes, and eate their owne bread.

And yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. 16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all.

For ye your selues know, how ye ought to follow us: so I write. 7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behauled not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 Neither did we eat any man’s bread for nought: but we wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable any of you: 9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we comanded you, that if any would not work, neither let him eat. 11 For even when we were with you, this we warned you of, that if there were any, which would not work, that he should not eate.

For we hear of some that walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. 12 Therefore them that are such, we warne and exhort by our Lord Iesus Christ, that they worke with quietnes, and eate their owne bread.

The Lord be with you all. 17 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.
15 Yet count him not as an enemie, but admonish him as a brother.
16 Now the Lord himselfe of peace giue you peace alwayes by all meanes. The Lord be with you all.
17 The salutation of me Paul, with mine owne hand, which is ye token in every Epistle: so I write, 18 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen. The second epistle to the Thessalonians, written from Athens.

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;
11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.
12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;
13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecuter, and injurious; but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.
14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
15 Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief:
16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for an ensample of them which should hereafter believe on him unto eternal life.
17 Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.
18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou mayest know how that from a child thou hast known the holy writ, 19 And that thou suffer no man to steal thy crown; but manifest the works of Christ Jesus; that wherein I have noted thee from others.
20 Now unto the prince of the kingdom of the air, the spirit of sedition and of power, the spirit which now worketh in the children of disobedience,
21 According to the counsel of the ancient world, which now workings in lies, and, being led by the spirit of error, they reject the truth of God, and spurn his grace.
22 But ye have obtained mercy, that ye might believe, and that ye might receive mercy; and the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
23 I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into his service;
24 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly through unbelief.
25 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
26 Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief:
27 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for an ensample of them which should hereafter believe on him unto eternal life.
28 Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.
29 This commandement commit I vnto thee, sonne Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee.

8 I desire therefore that the men pray in every place, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.
9 In like manner, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;
10 but (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in quietness with all subjection.
12 But I permit not a woman to teach, nor to have domination over the man, but to be in quietness.
13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve;
14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being beguiled was in the transgression.
15 Nevertheless she shall be saved if they continue in faith, and love, and sanctification with sobriety.

8 πῶς ἐκκλησίας θεοῦ ἐπιμελήσεται;
9 εἰ δέ τις τοῦ ἰδίου οἴκου προστῆναι οὐκ οἶδεν,
10 φιλόξενον, διδακτικόν,

14 καὶ Ἀδὰμ οὐκ ἠπατήθη, ἡ δὲ γυνὴ ἐξαπατηθεῖσα
15 σωθήσεται δὲ διὰ τῆς τεκνογονίας, ἐὰν μείνωσιν

This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.
2 A bishop therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, soberminded, orderly, given to hospitality, apt to teach;
3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre;
4 τοῦ ἰδίου οἴκου καλῶς προϊστάμενον, τέκνα
5 εἴ δὲ τις τοῦ ἰδίου οἴκου προστῆναι οὐκ οἶδεν, πώς ἔκκλησιάς θεοῦ ἐπιμελήσεται;

9 ὡσαύτως καὶ γυναῖκας ἐν καταστολῇ κοσμίῳ μετὰ αἰδοῦς καὶ σωφροσύνης κοσμείναι ἐκτέλεσαι, μή ἐν πλέγμασιν καὶ χρυσῷ ἢ μαργαρίταις ἢ ἱματισμῷ πολυτελεῖ,· 10 ἀλλ᾽ ὃ πρέπει γυναιξὶν ἐπαγγελλομέναι θεοσέβειαν, δι᾽ ἔργων ἀγαθῶν.
11 οὐκ ἐπικατασταθήσεται ἐν ἀρχῇ καταστασίᾳ, ἀλλὰ ἐν ἐκκλησίᾳ θεοῦ ἐπιμελήσεται;·
12 μή πάροινον, μή πλήκτην, ἀλλὰ ἐπιεικῆ, ἄμαχον, ἀφιλάργυρον,· 13 ἀνδρός, ἀλλ᾽ εἶναι ἐν ἡσυχίᾳ.

Faithful is the saying, If a man seeketh the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.
2 The bishop therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, soberminded, orderly, given to hospitality, apt to teach;
3 no brawler, no striker; but gentle, not contentious, no lover of money;
14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

14 These things write I unto thee, trusting to come unto thee shortly:

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;
5 (For if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)
6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.
7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.
8 Likewise must Deacons be grave, not doubltongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;
9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.
10 And let them first be proved; then let them serve as deacons, if they be found blameless.
11 Likewise their wives must be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.
12 Let the Deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.
13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;
5 (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)
6 He may not be a yong scholer, lest he being puffed vp fall into the condemnation of the deuill.
7 He must also be well reported of, euen of them which are without, lest he fall into rebuke, and the snare of the deuill.
8 Likewise must Deacons be graue, not doubltongued, not giuen vnto much wine, neither to filthy lucre, 9 Hauing the mysterie of the faith in pure conscience.
10 And let them first be proved: then let them minisiter, if they be found blameles.
11 Likewise their wiues must be honest, not euill speakers, but sober, and faithfull in all things.
12 Let the Deacons be the husbands of one wife, and such as can rule their children well, and their owne housholdes.
13 For they that haue ministred well, get them selues a good degree, and great libertie in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus.
14 These things write I vnto thee, trusting to come unto thee shortly:
15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how 16 And without controversy great is the mystery of goldliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up in glory.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doc-very shortly vnto thee.

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, and shall giue heed to spirits of error, and doctrines of deuils, 2 Which speake lies through hypocrisie, and haue their cosciences burned with an hot yron, 3 Forbidding to marrie, and commanding to abstain from meates, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which beleeue and know the truth.

And without controversie, great is the mysterie of godlinessse, which is, God is manifested in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, scene of Angels, preachen vnto the Gentiles, beleuued on in the world, and receiued vp in glorie.

But the Spirit saith expressly, that in later times some shall fall away from the faith, giving heed to seduc-ing spirits, and doctrines of devils, 2 through the hypocrisy of men that speak lies, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron;
3 forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meates, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by them that believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be receiued with thankes giuing.
5 For it is sanctified by the worde of God, and prayer.
6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which thou hast followed until now:

things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, which hast bene nourished vp in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, which thou hast continually followed.

7 But cast away prophane, and olde wiues fables, and exercise thy selfe vnto godlinessse.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godlinessse is profitable vnto all things, which hath the promise of the life present, and of that of that is to come.

9 This is a true saying, and by all meanes worthie to be receiued.

10 For therefore we labour and are rebuked, because we trust in the liuing God, which is the Sauiour of all men, specially of those that beleeue.

11 These things warne and teache.

12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an ensample to them that beleeue, in word, in manner of life, in love, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, giue attendance to reading, to exhortation, and to doctrine.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was giuen thee by prophecie with the laying on of the hands of the companie of the Eldership.

15 Be diligent in these things; give thyself wholly to them; that it may be seene howe thou profitest among all men.

16 Take heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt save both thyself and them that hear thee.
16 Take heed to thy selfe, and vnto learning: and the younger men as brethren; and to the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.
4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.
5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, hath her hope set on God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.
6 But she that liveth in pleasure is dead, while she liveth.
7 These things therefore warne them of, that they may be blameless.
8 But if any provideth not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.
9 Let none be enrolled as a widow under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man, 21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one to another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

23 Be no longer a drinker of water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are evident, going before unto judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but let them serve them the rather, because they that partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teacheth a different doctrine, and consenteth not to sound words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

4 he is puffed up, knowing nothing, but doting about questionings and disputes of words, whereof cometh
1 TIMOTHY 6

1 For the love of money is the root of all evil: which some reaching after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.
2 But godliness is great gain: if a man be content with that he hath.
3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine, which is according to godliness;
4 He is puffed up, and knoweth nothing, but doeth about questions and strife of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, euill surmisings,
5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt mindes, and questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, euill surmisings,
6 But godliness with contentment is great gain.
7 For we brought nothing into the world, for neither can we carry anything out.
8 Therefore when we haue foode and raiment, let vs therewith be content.
9 For they that will be rich, fall into temptation and snares, and into many foolish and noysome lustes, which drown men in perdition and destruction.
10 For the desire of money is the roote of all euill, which drowne men in destruction and perdition.
11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.
12 Fight the good fight of the faith, lay hold on the life eternal, whereunto thou wast called, and dist confess the good confession in the sight of many witnesses.
13 I charge thee in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and of Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed the good confession;
14 that thou keep the commandment, without spot,
11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession;

14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, and unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ;

15 Which in due time he shall shew, that is blessed and Prince only, the King of kings and Lord of lords, 16 Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting, Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this present world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;

19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on the life which is life indeed.

20 O Timothy, guard that which is committed unto thee, turning away from the profane babblings and oppositions of the knowledge which is falsely so called;

21 Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with you.

20 O Timotheus, keepe that which is committed vnto thee, and auoide prophane and vaine babblings, and oppositios of science falsely so called, 21 Which while some professe, they haue erred concerning the faith. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 Very desiring to see thee, remembering thy tears, that I may be filled with joy:

6 Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance that thou stirre up the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

7 For God gave us not the spirit of fearfulness; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9 Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus.

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, remembering thy tears, that I may be filled with joy:

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance that thou stirre up the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began,

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13 Hold the pattern of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

Jesus before times eternal,
10 but hath now been manifested by the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and incorruption to light through the gospel, 11 whereunto I was appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I was also suffer these things: yet I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13 Hold the pattern of sound words, which thou hast heard of me in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost, which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me: of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain, 17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him, that he may find mercy of the Lord at that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, which shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if any man also strie for a Masterie, he is not crowned, except he striue as he ought to doe.

6 The husbandman that laboureth must be the first to partake of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, of the seed of David, according to my gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

Therefore I suffer all things, for the elects sake, that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Iesus, with eternall glorie.

11 It is a true saying, For if we be dead together with him, we also shall live together with him.

12 If we suffer, we shall also reign together with him: if we denie him, he also will denie vs.

13 If we beleue not, yet abideth he fullfaull: he cannot deny himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lord, that they strue not about words, which is to no profit, but to the peruerting of the hearers.

15 Studie to shewe thy selfe approved vnto God, a workeman that needeth not to be ashamed, diuiding the worde of trueth aright.

16 Stay prophane, and vaine babblings: for they shall encrease vnto more vngodlinesse.

17 And their worde shall fret as a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus;

18 Which as concerning ye trueth haue erred from the marke, saying that the resurrection is past alreadie, and do destroy the faith of certaine.

19 But the foundation of God remaineth sure, and hath this seale, The Lord knoweth who are his: and, Let every one that calleth on the Name of Christ,

11 Faithful is the saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 if we endure, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and, Let every one that nameth the name of the Lord

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.
20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master’s use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 And foolish and ignorant questionings refuse, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive, but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,

25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance, to the acknowledging of the truth;

26 And come to amendment out of that snare of the devil, of whom they are taken prisoners, to do his will.
rather than lovers of God;
5 holding a form of godliness, but having denied the power thereof: from these also turn away.
6 For of these are they that creep into houses, and take captive silly women laden with sins, led away by divers lusts,
7 ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
8 And like as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.
9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly and uncleanness is manifest; they going after their own lusts, so do these also resist the truth, men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.
10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of living, purpose, faith, long suffering, love, patience, 11 persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.
12 Yea, and all that would live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.
13 But evil men and impostors shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.
14 But thou hast learned in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;
15 and hast known the love of Christ, which is more precious than silver and gold.
16 Wherefore let them that be unlearned, being instructed with the word of truth, take heed that they be not the root of briers and thorns, but an excellent tree in those things which God approved, having been taught by God, so that they be not fruitless trees, cast forth into the fire.
17 But the fruits of righteousness are sown in peace by them that make peace.

16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God’s elect, and the acknowledgment of the truth which is according to godliness;

2 In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children.

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

7 In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruption, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Let servants be subject to their masters, and please them well in all things; not answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God hath appeared, bringing salvation to all men,

12 Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world;

5 Not by the works of righteousness, which we had done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of the new birth, and the renewing of the holy Ghost,
6 Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour,
7 That we, being justified by his grace, should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.
8 This is a true saying, and these things I will thou shouldest affirm, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.
9 But stay foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and brawlings about the Law: for they are unprofitable and vain.
10 A man that is an heretic after the first and second admonition refuse;
11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.
12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.
13 Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.
14 And let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.
15 All that are with me salute thee. Salute them that love us in faith. Grace be with you all.

Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellow-labourer, 2 And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in thy house: 3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always, making mention of thee in my prayers, 5 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast towards the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints; 6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For I had much joy and comfort in thy love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed by thee, 8 Wherefore, though I have all boldness in Christ to command thee that which is convenient, 9 Yet for love’s sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, even Paul aged, and even now a prisoner of Jesus Christ. 10 I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds: 11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me: 12 Whom I have sent back to thee in his own person, as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner also of Christ Jesus.

That is, my very heart:

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my heart in Christ.

21 Having confidence in thine obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt do even beyond what I say.

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I hope that through your prayers I shall be granted unto you.
22 Moreover also prepare mee lodging: for I trust through your prayers I shall be freely giuen vnto you.

Wherefore God, cue thy God, hath anointed thee with the oyle of gladness aboue thy fellows.

10 And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine handes.

11 They shall perish, but thou dost remaine: and they all shall waxe olde as doeth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them vp, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not faile.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstoole?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

Δια το τουτο δει περισσοτερως προσεχειν ημας τοις άκουονθειν, μηποτε παραρουμεν.

2 ει γαρ ο δι’ αγγελου λαληθεις λογος εγεντο βεβαιος, και πασα παραβασις και παρακοη ελαβεν ενδικων μισθαποδοσιαν,

3 ποις ημες εκφευξαμενα τηλικαυτης ημελειωσας σωτηριας; ητε, αρχην λαβουσα λαλησθαι δια το κυριον, υπο τον άκουοντα εις ημας εβεβαιωθη,

4 συνεπαιματουργουτος τον θεου σημειου τε και τερατου και ποικιλας δυναστειας και πνευματος
4 God also bearing witness with them, both by signs and wonders, and by manifold powers, and by gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will.

5 For not unto angels did he subject the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one hath somewhere testified, saying, What is man, that thou shouldest be mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things subjected unto him.

9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, because of the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, and by whom are all things subjected, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctifieth and they that are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren.
Through afflictions.

11 For he that sanctifieth, and they which are sanctified, are all of one: wherefore he is not ashamed to call them brethren.

12 Saying, I will declare thy Name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I sing praises unto thee.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily not of angels doth he take hold, but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore it behoved him in all things to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he suffered, and was tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

Ashamed to call them brethren,

12 Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the congregation will I sing thy praise.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And might deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily not of angels doth he take hold, but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore it behoved him in all things to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he suffered, and was tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.
Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also was Moses in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that build all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house we are, if we hold fast our boldness and the glorying of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore, even as the Holy Ghost saith, To day if ye shall hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was displeased with this generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart, and they have not known my ways.

11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest, they shall not enter

Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly vocation, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession Christ Jesus:

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appointed him, euen as Moses was in al his house.

3 For this man is counted worthy of more glory then Moses, inasmuch as he which hath builded the house, hath more honour then the house.

4 For every house is bulid of some man, and he that hath build all things, is God.

5 Now Moses verely was faithfull in all his house, as a servant, for a witnesse of the things which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, overer his owne house, whose house we are, if we holde fast that confidence and that reioycing of that hope vnto the ende.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost sayth, To day if ye shall heare his voyce, 8 Harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wildernes, and sayde, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they known my ways.

9 Wherefore I was grieued with that generation, and sawe my workes fortye yeeres long.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with this generation, And said, They do alway err in their heart: But they did not know my ways;
11 As I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.
12 Take heed, brethren, lest haply there shall be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God:
13 but exhort one another daily, while it is called Today; lest any one of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin:
14 for we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm unto the end:
15 while it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.
16 For some, when they heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.
17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness?
18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that were disobedient?
19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

11 ἐγὼ δὲ σφηκότα ὀμολογήσας, οὐκ ἐνταῦθ᾽ οὐκ ἔταν ἀδύνατον ἀρρενώτητι ἀπεισόντας ἐν τῷ ἀποστῆσαι ἀπὸ θεοῦ κατάπαυσίν μου.
12 ἀλλὰ παρακαλεῖτε ἑαυτοὺς καθ’ ἑκάστην ἑκάστην ἑκάστην, ἄχρις οὗ τὸ σήμερον καλεῖται, ἵνα μὴ σκληρύνητε τὰς καρδίας ὑμῶν ὡς ἐν τῷ παραπικρασμῷ.
13 τίνες γὰρ ἀκούσαντες παρεπίκραναν; ἀλλ’ οὐ πάντες οἱ ἐξελθόντες ἐξ Αἰγύπτου διὰ Μωϋσέως;
14 μέτοχοι γὰρ τοῦ Χριστοῦ γεγόναμεν, ἐάνπερ τὴν ἀρχὴν τῆς ὑποστάσεως μέχρι τέλους βεβαίαν κατάσχωμεν, 15 ἐν τῷ λέγεσθαι, σήμερον ἐὰν τῆς φωνῆς αὐτοῦ ἀκούσητε, μὴ σκληρύνητε τὰς καρδίας ὑμῶν ὡς ἐν τῷ παραπικρασμῷ.
16 τίνες γὰρ ἀκούσαντες παρεπίκραναν; ἀλλ’ οὐ πάντες οἱ ἐξελθόντες ἐξ Αἰγύπτου διὰ Μωϋσέως;
17 τίνες δὲ προσόγκλησαν τεσσεράκοντα ἐτῶν τίς ἡμάρτησεν τίς ἠμάρτησε; ὁ ἡμών ἐπετελεσθέν τῇ ἐρήμῳ;

19 καὶ βλέπομεν ὅτι οὐκ ἠδυνήθησαν εἰσελθεῖν δι’ ἀπιστίαν.

Let us therefore fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.
2 For unto us was the Gospel preached, as also unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said. As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, As I sware in my wrath, they shall not enter thereinto, and they to whom the good tidings were before preached failed to enter in because of unbelief:

5 And in this place again, They shall not enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter thereinto, and they to whom it was first preached entered not because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time, as it hath been before said, Today if ye shall hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath entered into the rest himself; although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.
For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

and find grace to help us in time of need.

For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

any man fall after the same example of disobedience.

For the word of God is lively, and mightie in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and entret through, even unto the dividing asunder of the soule and the spirit, and of the joints, and the marow, and is a discerner of the thoughtes, and the intents of the heart.

For euery hie Priest is taken from among men, and is ordained for men, in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both giftes and sacrifices for sinnes, and finde grace to helpe in time of neede.

For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

for that he himself also is also rested from his works, as God did from his.

compelled with infirmity.

3 And by reason thereof he ought, as for the people, so for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, I have begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh did offer up prayers and supplications, with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that which he feared.

8 Though he was a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered.

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him.

10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when ye ought to be teachers, ye have need again that some one teach you because that he is also compassed with infirmity,

3 And for the same sake he is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his own part, as for ye peoples

4 And no man taketh this honor unto him selfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to him selfe this honour, to be made the high Priest, but hee that sayd vnto him, Thou art my Sonne, this day begate I thee, gaue it him.

6 As he also in another place speaketh, Thou art a Priest for euer, after ye order of Melchi-sedec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh did offer vp prayers and supplications, with strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also heard in that which he feared.

8 And though he were ye Sonne, yet learned he obedience, by the things which he suffered.

9 And being consecrate, was made the authour of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an hie Priest after the order of Melchi-sedec.

11 Of whome we haue many things to say, which are hard to be vtttered, because ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning ye time ye ought to be teachers, ye haue ye neede againe that we teach you what are the first principles of the worde of God: and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.
13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.
14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 For it is impossible that they which were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And tasted of the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, it is impossible to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by which it is easeed, is condemned, and whereby it bringeth forth unmeet herbs and spoile.

8 But solid food is for fullgrown men, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

9 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised, to discern good and evil.

Therefore, leaving the doctrine of the beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe ye foundation of repentance from dead worke, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and laying on of hands, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternall judgment.

3 And this will we do if God permit.

4 For it is impossible that they which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heauenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good word of God, and of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fal away, should be renued againe by repentance: seeing they crucifie againe to themselues the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drunketh in the raine that commeth oft vpon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by which it is easeed, is condemned, and whereby it bringeth forth unmeet herbs and spoile.

8 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of full age, which through long custome haue their wits exercised, to discern both good and euille.

9 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, which through long custome haue their wits exercised, to discern both good and evil.

the rudiments of the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have neede of milke, and not of solid food.

13 For every one that partaketh of milk is without experience of the word of righteousness; for he is a babe.

14 But solid food is for fullgrown men, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

Wherefore let us cease to speak of the first principles of Christ, and press on unto perfection; not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the teaching of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 For as touching those who were once enlightened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come,

6 and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

Therefore, leaving the doctrine of the beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe ye foundation of repentance from dead worke, and of faith toward God, meete for them by whome it is dressed, receiueth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briers, is re protected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues bet ter things of you, and such as accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous, that hee should for get your worke, and labour of loue, which ye shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministred vnto the Saints, and ye minister.

11 And we desire that euery one of you shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the ende,

12 That ye be not slothfull, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare by, he sware by himself, 14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew shame.

7 For the land which hath drank the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receiueth blessing from God:

8 but if it beareth thornes and thistles, it is rejected and nigh unto a curse; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak:

10 For God is not unrighteous, that he should forget your worke, and labour of loue, which ye shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministred vnto the Saints, and ye minister.

11 And we desire that euery one of you shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the ende,

12 That ye be not slothfull, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare by, he sware by himselfe, 14 Saying, Surely I wil abundantly blesse thee and multiply thee marueilously.

15 And so after that he had taried patiently, he enjoyed the promise.

16 For men verely swear by him that is greater then Spanish unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, which have fled for refuge to lay hold upon that hope set before us:

19 Which hope we have, as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that which is within the veil:

20 Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him:

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

And unto themelves, and an othe for confirmation is among them an ende of all strife.

17 So God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heires of promise the stablenes of his counsell, bound himselfe by an othe,

18 That by two immutable things, wherein it is vnpossible that God should lye, we might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to lay holde vpon that hope that is set before vs,

19 Which hope we haue, as an ancre of the soule, both sure and stedfast, and it entreth into that which is within the vaile, 20 Whither the forerunner is for vs entred in, euen Jesus that is made an hie Priest for euer after the order of Melchi-sedec.

For this Melchi-sedec was King of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham, as he returned from the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed him:

2 To whom also Abraham gaue the tithe of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, without kinred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, neither ende.

For this Melchisedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him,

2 to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto the Son of God), abideth a priest continually.

of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertained to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Judah; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident, that for that the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as it is not without the taking of oath of necessity must there be a change of the Lawe.

21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but he with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever)

22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better hope, through which we drawe neere vnto God.

20 And for as much as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priestes without an othe):

14 For it is evident that our Lord hath sprung out of Judah, concerning the which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priests.

15 And what we say is yet more abundantly evident, for he of whom these things are said belongeth to another tribe, from which no man gave attendance at the altar.

16 For he of whom these things are spoken pertained to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

17 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever After the order of Melchisedek:

18 Which is not made Priest after the Law of the carnal commandment, but after the power of the endless life.

19 For the Law made nothing perfite, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw neere vnto God.

20 And inasmuch as it is not without the taking of oath

21 (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath; but he with an oath by him that saith of him, The Lord swarde and will not repent himself, Thou art a priest for ever);
21 But this is made with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Melchsedec)
22 By so much is Jesus made a suretie of a better Testament.
23 And among them many were made Priests, because they were not suffered to endure, by the reason of death.
24 But this man, because heendureth euer, hath a Priesthood, which cannot passe from one to another.
25 Wherefore, hee is able also to save them that come vnto God by him, seeing he euer liueth, to make intercession for them.
26 For such an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmeless, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heauens:
27 Which needeth not daily, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his owne sinnes, and then for the people’s: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.
28 For the law appointeth men high priests, having infirmity: but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for evermore.
Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern that was shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a ministry the more excellent, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which hath been enacted upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for a second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant which I made with their fathers in the day of my power, when I took them out of the hand of the Egyptians:

10 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah,

11 That he might make an end of the sins of man; and that he might cause the sacrifice of the atonement to be taken away, and that there should no more be a remembrance of sins.

12 But this high priest entered into heaven itself, not bringing the blood of another person, but his own; for he is able to save unto the uttermost them that come to God by him,

13 Who both purifies our conscience from dead works to serve the living God, 14 And makes perfect forever those who are sanctified.

Now in the things which we are saying the chief point is this: We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,

2 a minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man.

3 For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this high priest also have somewhat to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing there are priests that according to the Law offer gifts,

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was warned of God when he was about to finish the Tabernacle. See, saide he, that thou make all things according to the pattern, shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our hie Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, in as much as he is the Mediatour of a better Testament, which is established upon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bene vnblameable, then should no place have bene sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make with the house of Israel and with the house of Iuda a covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Iuda:

9 Not according to the covenant which I made with their fathers in the day of my power, when I took them out of the hand of the Egyptians:

10 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah,
Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a tabernacle made: the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; of Judah;

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers In the day that I took them by the hand to lead them forth out of the land of Egypt: For they continued not in my covenant, And I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my Lawes in their minde, and in their heart I will write them, and I wil be their God, and they shalbe my people, 11 And they shall not teach every man his neigbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

12 For I will bee mercifull to their unrighteousnes, and I wil remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that he saith a new Testament, he hath abrogate the olde: nowe that which is disanulled and waxed olde, is ready to vanish away.

Then the first Testament had also ordinances of religion, and a worldly Sanctuary.

2 For the first Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread,
3 And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holy of holies,
4 having a golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;
5 And over it the cherubims of glory overshadowing the mercy-seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.
6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service;
7 But into the second went the high priest alone once in every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:
8 The Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the Holiest of all was not yet opened, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:
9 Which was a figure for that present time, wherein were offered gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; which Tabernacle is called the Holy places.
10 Which only stood in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed until the time of reformation.
11 But Christ being come an high priest of good reformation, things to come, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, 12 nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in for all into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:
14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?
15 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that a death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the former testament, they which were called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.
16 For where a testament is, there must of necessity be the death of the testator.
17 For a testament is of force where there hath been death: for doth it ever avail while he that made it liveth?
18 Wherefore even the first covenant hath not been dedicated without blood.
19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, 20 saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined upon you. And he put banks to the table, and bars to the loaves.
21 And into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.
22 And almost all things are made by him, that by the sacrifice of one he might exceedingly sanctify the tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this building:
23 He said before, This is the blood of the testament, which God hath enjoined upon you.
24 Wherefore all things are purified through the blood, according as the Scriptures say, The high priest shall bear the iniquity for ever.
all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these;
but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ entered not into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place year by year with hands, like in pattern to the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear before the face of God for us:

26 Else must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once at the end of the ages hath he been manifested to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but to the foundation of the world (but now once in the end of the ages hath he been manifested to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.)
For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offer yeere by yeere continually, sanctifie the commers thereunto.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sins?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sins euery yeere.

4 For it is vnpossible that the blood of bulles and goats should take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when he commeth into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offring thou wouldest not: but a body hast thou ordeined me.

6 In burnt offerings, and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (In the beginning of the volume of the book it is written of me) To do thy will, O God.
8 Saying above, Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein (the which are offered according to the law), 9 then hath he said, Lo, I am come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. 10 By which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:
12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; 13 from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. 14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also beareth witness to us: for after that he had said before, 16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; 17 and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;

28 He that despiseth Moses Law, dieth without mercy vnder two, or three witnesses:

29 Of howe much soruer punishement suppose ye shall hee be worthy, which treadeth vnder foote the Sonne of God, and counteth the blood of the Testamen as an vnholie thing, wherewith he was sanctified, and doeth despite the Spirit of grace?

38 Now the just shall live by faith; but if any man hath great recompense of reward.
Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

5 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 And without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seek him that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seek 39 But we are not of them that shrink back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

38 But my righteous one shall live by faith: And if he shrink back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

37 For yet a very little while, and hee that shall come, will come, and will not tarry.

38 Nowe the iust shall liue by faith: but if any with- drawe himselfe, my soule shall haue no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not they which withdrawe our selues vnto perdition, but follow faith vnto the conservation of the soule.

Now faith is the grounds of things, which are hoped for, and the evidence of things which are not scene.

2 For by it our elders were well reported of.

3 Through faith we vnderstand that the world was ordeined by the worde of God, so that the things which we see, are not made of things which did appear.

4 By faith Abel offered vnto God a greater sacrifice then Cain, by the which he obtained witnes that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: by the which also he being dead, yet speaketh.

5 By faith was Enoch translated, that he should not see death: and was not found, because God had reported of, that he had pleased God.

6 But without faith it is vnpossible to please him:

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king’s commandment.
24 By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter;
25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;
26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of reward.
27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.
28 Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should not touch them.
29 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were swallowed up.
30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.
31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.
32 And what shall I more say? for the time would not permit; but, indeed, lest there should be need of many things, these things, briefly, have now been written for your instruction. Profit therefore from them, brethren, as from spiritual milk, to growth in the grace which is in Christ Jesus.

Therefore let us also, seeing that we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin:

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation, which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and he scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God offereth himselfe to be made perfect in you, whose son he is whom the father chasteneth.

8 But if ye be without chastening, whereof all have been made partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 And these all through faith obtained good report, and received not the promise, 10 God providing a better thing for vs, that they without vs should not be made perfite.

Wherefore, let vs also, seeing that we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, cast away every thing that preseth downe, and the sinne that hangeth so fast on: let vs runne with patience the race that is set before vs.
9 Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chaste us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now chastening seemeth for the present to be not joyous, but grievous: yet afterward it yieldeth peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the palsied knees;

13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God: lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled:

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his own birthright.

17 For ye know that even when he afterward desired unto you as unto sons: for what sonne is it whom the father chasteneth not?

8 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof al are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Moreover we have had the fathers of our bodies which corrected vs, and we gaueme them reverence: should we not much rather be in subjection vnto the father of spirites, that we might live?
17 For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected; for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard entreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touche the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:) But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, 22 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better than that of Abel.

23 To the general assembly and church of the first born, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, 24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new Testament, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaketh better than the blood of Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not, when they refused him that warned to inherit the blessing, he was rejected (for he found no place of repentance), though he sought it diligently with tears.

17 For ye knowe howe that afterwarde also when he would haue inherited the blessing, he was reieected: for he founde no place to repentance, though he sought that blessing with teares.

18 For ye are not come vnto the mount that might be touched, nor vnto burning fire, nor to blacknes and darkenes, and tempest,

19 Neither vnto the sounde of a trumpet, and the voyce of worde, which they that hearde it, excused themselues, that the word should not be spoken to them any more,

20 (For they were not able to abide that which was commanded, yea, though a beast touche the mountaine, it shalbe stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 And so terrible was the sight which appeared, that Moses said, I feare and quake.) But ye are come vnto the mount Sion, and to the cite of the liuing God, the celestill Hierusalem, and to ye company of innumerable Angels,

22 But ye are come vnto the mount Sion, and to the cite of the liuing God, the celestill Hierusalem, and to ye company of innumerable Angels,

23 And to the assemble and congregacion of the first borne, which are written in heauen, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of iust and perfite men,

11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let us therefore go forth unto him without the gate.

14 For here have we no continuing city, but we seek an heavenly.

6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper; I will not fear: What shall man do unto me?

7 Remember them which have the oversight of you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and to day, and to ever.

9 Be not carried away with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat, which serve in the tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

12 Therefore even Jesus, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let us therefore go forth unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

14 For here have we no continuing city, but we seek an heavenly.

6 I will not fail thee, neither forsake thee:

7 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is mine helper, neither will I fear what man can do unto me.

8 Remember them which have the oversight of you, which have declared unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering what hath bene the end of their conversation. Jesus Christ yesterday, and to day, the same also is for ever.

9 Be not carried away with divers and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 We have an altar, whereof they have no authority to eate, which serve in the tabernacle.

12 Therefore even Jesus, that he might sanctifie the people with his owne blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let us therefore go forth unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

14 For we have not here an abiding city, but we seek after the city which is to come.

15 Through him then let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of lips to God continually, that is, the fruit of lips.
which make confession to his name.

16 But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for this were unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, desiring to live honestly.

19 And I desire you somewhat the more earnestly, that ye do this, that I may be restored to you more quickly.

20 The God of peace, that brought againe from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, 21 Make you perfect in all good workes, to doe his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

22 But I exhort you, brethren, bear with the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 Know ye that our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.
24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.
25 Grace be with you all. Amen.
James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, salutation.

2 Count it all joy, my brethren, when ye fall into manifold temptations;
3 Knowing that the proof of your faith worketh patience.
4 And let patience have its perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.
5 If any of you lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.
6 But let him ask in faith, nothing doubting: for he that wavereth is like the surge of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.
7 Neither let that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.
8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.
9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:
10 But let the rich man fade away in his ways.

11 For the sun ariseth with the scorching wind, and the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

For as when the sunne riseth with heate, then the flower of the grasse, shall he vanish away.

Againe hee that is rich, in that hee is made lowe: because as the flower of the grasse, shall he vanish away.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavereth. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind, and caried away.
7 Neither let that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.
8 A double minded man is vnstable in all his waies.
9 Let the brother of lowe degree reioyce in that he is exalted:
10 Againe hee that is rich, in that hee is made lowe: for as the flower of the grasse, shall he vanish away.
11 For as when the sunne riseth with heate, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, and the goodly shape of it perisheth: euen so shall the rich man wither away in all his waies.
12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Be not deceived, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect boon is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow that is cast by turning.

18 Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore laying apart all filthiness and superfluity of wickedness, receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, maraνθήσεται.

12 Μακάριος ἀνήρ δέ ύπομένει πειρασμόν, ὅτι δόκιμος γενόμενος λήμψεται τὸν στέφανον τῆς ζωῆς, ὃν ἐπηγγέλατο τοῖς ἀγαπῶσιν αὐτόν.

implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 And be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any one is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a mirror:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth away, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But he that looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man thinketh himself to be religious, while he bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God, even the Father, is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

My brethren, haue not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, with respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a golde ring, and in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poor man in vile clothing;

My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your synagogue a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, and there come in also a poor man in vile clothing;
3 And ye haue respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool.

4 Are ye yet not then partial in yourselves, and be come judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye haue despised the poor. Do not the riche oppress you, and themselves drag you before the judgment seats?

7 Doe nor they blaspheme that worthy name by the Scripture, which saith, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, yee doe well.

9 But if yee regarde the persons, yee commit sinne, and are rebuked of the Lawe, as transgressours.

10 For whosoeuer shall keepe the whole lawe, and yet are convicted by the law as transgressors.

6 But ye haue despised the poor. Do not the riche oppress you, and themselves drag you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme the honourable name by the Scripture, which saith, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy selfe, yee doe well: for if ye keep the whole lawe, and yet faileth in one poynt, hee is guiltie of all.

8 But if ye fulfill the royall Lawe according to the scripture, which saith, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well: for if ye keep the whole lawe, and yet faileth in one poynt, hee is guiltie of all.

9 But if yee regarde the persons, yee commit sinne, and are rebuked of the Lawe, as transgressours.

10 For whosoeuer shall keepe the whole lawe, and yet are convicted by the law as transgressors.

11 For he that said, Thou shalt not commit adulterie, said also, Thou shalt not kill. Nowe though thou commit no adulterie, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as men that are to be judged by the law of liberty.
13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against him that sheweth not mercy.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, but have not works? can that faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Euen so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O thou vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him:

24 That the faith which is without workes, is dead?

25 But some man might say, Thou hast faith, and I have workes: shew me thy faith apart from thy works, and I will shewe thee my faith by my workes.

26 Thou belieuest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

27 But wilt thou understand, O thou vaine man, that faith which is without workes, is dead in it selfe.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him:

29 That the faith which is without workes, is dead?

30 But some man might say, Thou hast faith, when he hath no workes? can that faith save him?

31 Say he hath faith, when he hath no workes? can faith save him?
ham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

Be not many teachers, my brethren, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses’ mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven by rough winds, yet are they driven by a very small rudder, whither the impulse of the steersman willeth.

5 So the tongue also is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how much wood is kindled by how small a fire!

6 And the tongue is a fire: the world of iniquity workes, when he offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou not that the faith wrought with his workes? and through the workes was the faith made perfect.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which sayeth, Abraham beleued God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousnesse: and hee was called the friende of God.

24 Ye see then howe that of workes a man is justified, and not of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified through workes, when she had receiued ye messengers, and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without ye spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the heavier judgment.

2 For in many things we offend all. If any man sinne not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bittes into the horses mouthes, that they should obey us, and we turne about all their bodie.

4 Behold also the shippes, which though they be so great, and are driven by rough winds, are yet turned about by a very small rudder, whither the impulse of the steersman willeth.

5 So the tongue also is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how much wood is kindled by how small a fire!

6 And the tongue is a fire: the world of iniquity workes, when he offered Isaac his son upon the altar?
16 For where jealousy and faction are, there is confusion and all kinds of evil.

15 This wisdom is not a wisdom that cometh down from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

14 But if ye have bitter jealousy and faction in your heart, glory not and lie not against the truth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a little fire kindleth!

4 Therewith bless we God, even the Father, and withal curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

From whence come wars and contentions among you? Are they not from your desires, that war in your members? 2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, ye have not, because ye ask not. 3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts. 4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world maketh himself an enemy of God. 5 Or think ye that the scripture speaketh in vain? Doth the spirit which he made to dwell in us long unto envying? 6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore the scripture saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble. 7Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. 8 Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double-minded. 9 Be sorrowful, be mourning, be weeping: for the spirit is sorrowful for the spirit's sake, and the spirit is mourning for the spirit's sake, being marred by the body of sin. 10 Receive then the gospel of God, that ye may be sanctified through the truth. 11 Lay not your hands upon any one hastily, neither be thou 北方信義會 - 尼祿新版本: 《新約聖經》第8頁。 άληθείας καὶ ἐπιστρέψῃ τις αὐτόν,

20 γινοσκέτω ὅτι ὁ ἐπιστρέψας ἁμαρτωλόν ἐκ πλάνης ὁδὸν αὐτοῦ σώσαι ψυχήν αὐτοῦ ἐκ θανάτου καὶ καλύψει πλῆθος ἁμαρτιῶν.
Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect who are sojourners of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ:

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a little season (if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations),

7 That the proof of your faith, being more precious than gold that perisheth, though it be tried by fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

8 Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.
9 receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.
10 Concerning which salvation the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:
11 searching what time or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.
12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto them selves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.
13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and trust perfectly on that grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;
14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:
15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;
16 Because it is written, Ye shall be holy; for I am holy.
17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect to persons judgeth according to every man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear:
18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed of persons, but of persons judgeth according to euery mans woorke,
17 And if ye call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to each man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning in fear:
18 knowing that ye were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from your vain manner of life handed down from your fathers;
19 but with precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:
20 who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifested at the end of the times for you,
21 who through him are believers in God, which raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God.
22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:
23 being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth.
24 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:
25 but the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisy, and envious, and evil speakings,

2 As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth therein, shall not be ashamed.

7 Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which disbelieve, The stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner;

8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient:

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that ye may praise him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light:

10 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: that ye might shew forth the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light:

the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord’s sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evil-doers and for praise to them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that by well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men, 16 As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

17 Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is acceptable, if for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for it, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye should shew forth the virtues of him that hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light,

10 Which in time past were not a people, yet are now the people of God: which in time past were not vnder mercie, but nowe haue obtained mercie.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseeche you, as strangers and pilgrims, abstaine from fleshly lusts, which fight against the soule, 12 And haue your conuersation honest among the Gentiles, that they which speake euill of you as of euill doers, may by your good worke which they shall see, glorifie God in the day of visitation.

13 Therefore submitem your selues vnto all maner ordi

14 Or vnto gouernours, as vnto them that are sent of him, for the punishment of euill doers, and for the praise of them that doe well.

15 For so is the will of God, that by well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men, 16 As free, and not as hauing the libertie for a cloke of wickedness, but as the seruauntes of God.

17 Honour all men: loue brotherly fellowship: feare of malic peace, but as the seruauntes of God.

18 Servaunts, be subject to your masters with all fear; not onely to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

Therefore submitem your selues vnto all maner ordi

Or vnto gouernours, as vnto them that are sent of him, for the punishment of euill doers, and for the praise of them that doe well.

For so is the will of God, that by well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men,

As free, and not as having the libertie for a cloke of wickednesse, but as the seruauntes of God.

Honour all men: loue brotherly fellowship: feare of maliciousnesse, but as the seruauntes of God.

Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not onely to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for it, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye should shew forth the virtues of him that hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light,
Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also do well, and suffer for it, ye shall take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

21 For hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 Who, when he was rebiled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, having died unto sins, might live unto righteousness; by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

11 And let him turn away from evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and pursue it.

10 For, He that would love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that speak no guile:

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should be heirs of blessing.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous, be not afraid with any terror.

7 Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with your wives, as unto the weaker vessel, as being also joint-heirs of the grace of life; to the end that your prayers be not hindered.

6 As Sarah obeyed Abraham, and called him lord: whose children ye now are, if ye do well, and are not afraid with any terror.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, that they speak no guile:

10 For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good: let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 But and if ye suffer for righteousness’ sake, be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear, 16 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you as of evil doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sinners, the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God,

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

10 As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing were come vnto you:

13 But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ’s sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of his glory you may be glorified through Jesus Christ, whose is the praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

14 If ye are reproached for the name of Christ, blessed are ye; because the Spirit of glory and the Spirit of God resteth upon you.

15 For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil-doer, or as a meddler in other men’s matters:

7 But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore of sound mind, and be sober unto prayer:

12 Dearely beloued, thinke it not strange concerning the firie triall, which is among you to prooue you, as though some strange thing were come vnto you:

χαρίτος θεοῦ.

11 εἰ τις λαλεῖ, ὡς λόγια θεοῦ• εἰ τις διακονεῖ, ὡς ἔξω ἱσχύος ἢς ἤχηγεν ὁ θεὸς• ἵνα ἐν πάσιν δοξάζηται ὁ θεὸς διὰ Ἰησοῦ Χριστοῦ, ὅ ἐστι πάντα καὶ τὸ κράτος εἰς τούς αἰῶνας τοῦ αἰῶνος• ἀμήν.

12 Αγαπητοί, μὴ ξενίζεσθε τῇ ἐν ὑμῖν πυρώσει πρὸς πειρασμὸν ὑμῖν γινομένη ὡς ἐν ὑμῖν συμβαίνοντος.

13 ἀλλὰ καθὼς κοινωνεῖτε τοῖς τοῦ Χριστοῦ παθήμασιν χαίρετε, ἵνα καὶ ἐν τῇ ἀποκαλύψει τῆς δόξης αὐτοῦ χαρῆτε ἀγαλλιάμενοι.

14 εἰ δὲ ἔνοικεσθεν ἐν ὑμνῷ πυρώσει πρὸς πειρασμὸν ὑμῖν γινομένη ὡς ἐν ὑμῖν συμβαίνοντος, μὴ γάρ τις τῶν ὑμῶν πασχέτω ὡς φονεύς ἢ κλέπτης ἢ κακοποιοῦς ἢ ὡς ἄλλοτριπτίκεος•

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this name.

17 For the time is come for judgment to begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

2 Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;
Neither as being lords over God’s heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.

And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.
Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Pea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:
Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

Simon Peter a servant and an Apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the acknowledging of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 Yea, and for this very cause adding on your part: see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of our God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the acknowledgment of him that hath called us to glory and vertue.

4 Whereby most great and precious promises are giuen vs, that by them ye should be partakers of the diuine nature, in that ye flee the corruption, which is in the worlde through lust.

5 Therefore giue euie all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreouer vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godlines:

7 And with godlines, brotherly kindnes: and with brotherly kindnes, loue.

8 For if these things be among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither shalbe idle, nor unfruitfull in the acknowledging of our Lord Iesus Christ:

9 For he that hath not these things, is blinde, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.
10 Wherefore, brethren, give the more diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meete as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavoure that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and excellence of his majesty:

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard,

But there arose false prophets also among the people, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring vpon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose condemnation long since resteth not, and their destruction slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not angels when they sinned,
4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;
5 Neither hath spared the olde worlde, but saued Noe the eight person a preacher of righteousnesseness, and brought in the flood upon the world of the ungodly,
6 And turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, and made them an ensample unto those that after should live ungody;
7 And delivered just Lot vexed with the vncleanly conuersation of the wicked:
8 (For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawfull deedes.)
9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgement vnder punishment.
10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vncleneanness, and despise gouernement, which are bolde, and stand in their owne conceite, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

20 For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein and overcome, the last state is become worse with them than the first. | 21 For it were better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered unto them. | But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog turning to his own vomit again; and the sow that had washed to her wallowing in the mire. |
| 22 It has happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog turning to his own vomit again, and the sow that had washed to wallowing in the mire. | 22 It is come vnto them, according to the true proverb, The dogge is returned to his owne vomit: and, The sowe that was washed, to the wallowing in the myre. | This is now, beloved, the second epistle that I write unto you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by putting you in remembrance; 2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour: | things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they wilfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth compacted out of water and amidst water, by the word of God;

6 by which means the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 but the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

8 But forget not this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but is longsuffering to youward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in holy conversation and godliness, 12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?
13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.
14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.
15 And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;
16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; among the which some things are hard to be understood, which they that are vnlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.
17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things beforehand, beware lest ye be also plucked away with the errour of the wicked, and fall from your own stedfastness.
18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ: to him be glory both now and for evermore. Amen.
That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life;

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us);

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things we write, that our joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkenes. If wee say that wee haue fellowship with him, and walke in darkenesse, we lie, and doe not truely:

6 If wee say that wee haue fellowship with him, and walk in the light, as he is in the light, we haue fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we lie, and do not the truth:

8 If we say that we haue no sin, we deceiue our selues, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confess our sins, he is faithfull and just to forgive us our sinnes, and to clense us from all un.
10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily hath the love of God perfected. Hereby know we that we are in him:

6 He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Beloved, no new commandment write I unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Just.

2 And he is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of the whole world.

3 And hereby we are sure that we knowe him, if we kepe his commandements.

4 Hee that saith, I knowe him, and keepeth not his commandements, is a liar, and the trueth is not in him.

5 But hee that keepeth his worde, in him is the loue of God perfect in deede: hereby wee knowe that ye are in him.

6 He saith he remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it both not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

3 and every man that hath this hope set on him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even that eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you, concerning them that deceive you.

27 But that anointing which ye received of him, dwelleth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and it is true, and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may be bold, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, know ye that he which doeth righteously, is born of him.

Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we children of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised vs, even that eternal life.

26 These things have I written vnto you, concerning them that deceive you.

27 But that anointing which ye received of him, dwelleth in you: and ye neede not that any man teach you: but as the same Anoynting teacheth you of all things, and it is true, and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And nowe, litle children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his comming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, know ye that he which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

Behold, what loue the Father hath giuen to vs, that we should be called the sonnes of God: for this cause this world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearely beloued, nowe are we the sonnes of God, but yet it is not made manifest what we shall be: and we know that, if he shall be manifested, we shallbe like him; for we shall see him even as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him puri-geth himself, euen as he is pure.

even the life eternal.

26 These things have I written vnto you concerning them that would lead you astray.

27 And as for you, the anointing which ye received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any one teach you; but as his anointing teacheth you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, ye abide in him.

28 And now, my little children, abide in him; that, if he shall be manifested, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before him at his comming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one also that doeth righteousness is begotten of him.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.
4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the Law: for sin is the transgression of the Law.
5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.
6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.
7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.
8 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.
9 Whosoever is born of God doeth not sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.
10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.
11 For this is the message which ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.
12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.
13 Marvel not, brethren, if the world hate you. Our old adversary the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

And sin is lawlessness.
5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away sins; and in him is no sin.
6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.
7 My little children, let no man lead you astray: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous:
8 he that doeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. To this end was the Son of God manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.
9 Whosoever is begotten of God doeth no sin, because his seed abideth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is begotten of God.
10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.
11 For this is the message which ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another:
12 not as Cain was of the evil one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous.
13 Marvel not, brethren, if the world hateth you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because the old man died, and the spirit of life is given unto us through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.
1 John 3

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.
15 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.
16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.
17 But whoso hath this world’s goods, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?
18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.
19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.
20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.
21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.
22 And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.
23 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he gave us commandment.
24 And he that keepeth his commandments abideth in good.
13 Marueile not, my brethren, though this world hate you.
14 We know that we are translated from death unto life, because we loue the brethren: he that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.
15 Whosoever hateth his brother, is a manslayer:
and ye know that no manslayer hath eternall life abiding in him.
16 Hereby haue we perceived loue, that he layde downe his life for vs: therefore we ought also to lay downe our lives for the brethren.
17 And whosoever hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compas-son from him, howe dwelleth the loue of God in him?
18 My little children, let vs not loue in worde, neither in tongue onely, but in decee and in trueth.

19 For thereby we know that we are of the trueth, and shall before him assure our hearts.
20 For if our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.
21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue
we boldnes toward God.
22 And whatsoeuer we aske we receiue of him, because we keepe his commandements, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.
23 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he gave us commandment.

in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits: whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit which confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And every spirit which confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is the spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is begotten of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.
7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.
8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.
9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.
10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.
11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.
12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.
13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.
14 And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.
15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.
16 And we know and have believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.
17 Herein is love made perfect with us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as he is, even so are we in this world.
18 There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath punishment; and he that is not of God, heareth not. Hereby know we love of God, because he hath given us of his Spirit.
17 And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 And who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and with the blood.

7 And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because
5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?
6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ: not by water only, but by water and blood.
7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.
8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.
9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.
10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness of God: who is greater, God the Father, or God the Son?
11 And this is the record, that God gave of his Son.
12 He that hath the Son hath the life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.
13 These things have I written unto you, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that you have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the Son of God.

1 John 5

1 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?
2 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ: not by water only, but by water and blood.
3 And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.
4 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.
5 Who is it that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?
6 This is he that came by water and blood: not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is that Spirit, that beareth witness: for that Spirit is truth.
7 For there are three, which bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.
8 And there are three, which bear record in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.
9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he testified of his Son.
10 He that believeth in that Son of God, hath the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Son.
11 And this is the record, to wit, that God gave testimony of his Son.
12 He that hath the Son hath life: he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.
13 These things have I written unto you, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that you have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the Son of God.

The Spirit is the truth.
8 For there are three who bear witness, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and the three agree in one.
9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Son.
10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness of God: who is greater, God the Father, or God the Son?

Omega Xristos: οὐκ ἐν τῷ ὑδάτι μόνον ἄλλῳ ἐν τῷ ὑδάτι καὶ ἐν τῷ αἵματι· καὶ τὸ πνεῦμα ἐστὶν τὸ μαρτυροῦν, ὅτι τὸ πνεῦμα ἐστὶν ἡ ἀλήθεια. Τοῦτο ἐστὶν τὸ πνεῦμα τοῦ θεοῦ· καὶ τὸ πνεῦμα τοῦ θεοῦ ἐστὶν ἡ ἀλήθεια.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he heareth us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that was begotten of God keepeth himself, and the evil one toucheth him not.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

21 Little children, keep your selves from idoles, Amen.
The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth;

2 For the truth’s sake which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever:

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, (not as writing a new commandment unto thee, but that same which we had from the beginning) that we love one another.

6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This commandment is, Even as ye have heard from the beginning, that ye should walk in it.

7 For many deceivers are gone forth into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh.

8 Look to yourselves, that ye lose not the things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

9 Whosoever goeth onward and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, hath both the Father and the Son of the Father.

10 εἴ τις ἔρχεται πρὸς ὑμᾶς καὶ ταύτην τὴν διδαχὴν καὶ τὸν πατέρα καὶ τὸν υἱὸν ἔχει.

9 πᾶς ὁ προάγων καὶ μὴ μένων ἐν τῇ διδαχῇ τοῦ Θεοῦ, οὐκ ἔχει τὸν πατέρα καὶ τὸν υἱὸν.

8 βλέπετε ἑαυτούς, ἵνα μὴ ἀπολέσητε ἃ ἐν τῷ κόσμῳ ἔχετε καὶ τὸν υἱὸν ἐχεῖ.

7 ὁμολογοῦντες Ἰησοῦν Χριστὸν ἐρχόμενον ἐν σαρκί• ὅτι μὴ ἔχετε τὸν πατέρα καὶ τὸν υἱὸν ἔχετε.

6 ἐστιν τὰς ἐντολὰς αὐτοῦ• ὅτι μὴ ἔχετε τὸν πατέρα καὶ τὸν υἱὸν ἔχετε.

13 ἀσπάζεται σε τὰ τέκνα τῆς ἀδελφῆς σου τῆς ἐκλεκτῆς.
The elder unto the beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and bare witness unto thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

4 Greater joy have I none than this, to hear of my children walking in the truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest a faithful work in whatsoever thou doest toward them that are brethren and strangers;

6 Who bare witness of thy love before the church: whom thou wilt do well to set forward on their journey; for the sake of the Name they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

7 Because that for the sake of the Name they went forth, as it beseemeth according to God, thou shalt do well,

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.

9 I wrote somewhat unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will call to remembrance the deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that walk in the truth.

11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good: for he that doeth good is of God; but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

The Elder vnto the beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I wish chiefly that thou prosperedst and faredest well as thy soule prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the truth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the truth.

4 I haue no greater joy then these, that is, to heare that my sonnes walke in veritie.

5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully, whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers,

6 Which bare witnesse of thy loue before the Churches. Whom if thou bringest on their journey as it beseemeth according to God, thou shalt doe well, 7 Because that for his Names sake they went forth, and tooke nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receiue such, that we might be helpers to the trueth.

9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueh vs not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will call to your rememwhich is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

would he forbiddeth, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, imitate not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he doeth evil hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath the witness of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear witness; and thou knowest that our witness is true.

13 I had many things to write unto thee, but I am unwilling to write them to thee with ink and pen:
14 but I hope shortly to see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be unto thee. The friends salute thee. Salute the friends by name.
Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in privily, even they who were of old set forth unto this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 Now I desire to put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

6 The angels also which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them, which in like manner as they did, committed fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

1 Iudæs Ἰησοῦν Χριστοῦ δοῦλος, ἀδελφὸς δὲ Ἰακώβου, τοῖς ἐν θεῷ πατρὶ ἠγαπημένοις καὶ Ἰησοῦν Χριστὸν τετηρημένοις κλητοῖς·

2 ἔλεος ὑμῖν καὶ εἰρήνη καὶ ἀγάπη πληθυνθείη.

3 ἀγαπητοί, πᾶσαν σπουδὴν ποιούμενος γράφειν ὑμῖν περὶ τῆς κοινῆς ἡμῶν σωτηρίας, ἀσεβεῖς, τῆς ἑπισκοπῆς τῶν ἀσεβῶν εἰς ἀνομίαν, ἀσέλγειαν, διεισέκασθαι τῷ θεῷ μητρὸς, ὁμοίως μὲν τοῖς μὴ πιστεύσαντες ἀπώλεσεν, τῶν μὲν δὲ πιστεύσαντές ἀνεξάσθησαν.

4 παρεισέδυσαν γάρ τινες ἄνθρωποι, οἱ πάλαι προγεγραμμένοι εἰς τοῦτο τὸ κρίμα, ἀσεβεῖς, τὴν τοῦ θεοῦ ἡμῶν ἡμέραν μετατιθέντες εἰς ἀσέλγειαν, καὶ τὸν τόν δεσπότην καὶ κύριον ἡμῶν Ἰησοῦν Χριστὸν ἀναφορεῖσθαι.

5 ήμισκόνθησι δὲ ὑμῖν ἄνθρωποι, εἰδότας ὑπὲρ ἀπαράλληλον, ὁτι κύριος ἡμῶν λαὸς ἐκ γῆς ἀναστὰς τὸν δεύτερον τοὺς μή πιστεύσαντες ἀπόλεσεν, ἀσέλγειαν ἀποδοθέσθαι τῷ θεῷ μητρὸς, ἀνομίαν τῷ δὲ πιστεύσαντι ἀνεξάσθῃ.

6 ἀγγέλου τοῦ θεοῦ ἡμῶν καὶ ἡμῶν ἀναφορεῖσθαι εἰς κρίσιν μεγάλης ἡμέρας ἀσέλγειας, ἀνομίας, ἀσεβείας ἀναφορεῖσθαι,

7 ἐν αὐτῷ τῷ θεῷ μητρῷ ἡμῶν καὶ ἠγαπημένῳ ἡμῶν τῷ Σοδόμῳ καὶ Γόμορρα καὶ ἡμῖν ἑπὶ τῶν ἄνθρωπων πόλεως, τὸν θρόνον τούτου εἰς ἀποκάλυψιν καὶ ἀπελθόντες ὁ παρεισέδυσαν εἰς ἀσέλγειαν καὶ ἀνομίαν, ἐξελθασαν καὶ ἐποίησαν διέγγαλαν, διάφορον εἰς κρίσιν μεγάλης ἡμέρας πεσεῖς, καὶ τὸν τόν δεσπότην καὶ κύριον ἡμῶν Ἰησοῦν Ἰησοῦν Χριστὸν ἀναφορέσθαι.
8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.
9 But Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.
10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.
11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for wages, and perish in the gainsaying of Core.
12 These are spots in your feasts of charity when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness hath been reserved for ever.
13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness hath been reserved for ever.
14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 John to the seven churches which are in Asia:

5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and that first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth, Unto him that loved us, and loosed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they which pierced him; and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne,

9 Grace to you and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come, and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne, and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne,

10 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly be done: which he sent, and shewed by his Angel unto his servant John,

11 Who bare record of ye word of God, and of the testimonie of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

12 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophacie, and keipe those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

13 John, to the seuen Churches which are in Asia, Grace be with you and peace, from him, Which is, and Which was, and Which is to come, and from the seuen Spirits which are before his Throne, of many waters.

And his head and his hair were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; and his feet like unto burnished brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; and in the midst of the candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

And having turned I saw seven golden candlesticks; and in the midst of the candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the breasts with a golden girdle.

Then I turned back to see the voice, that spake with me: and when I was turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;

And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the feet, and girded about the paps with a golden girdle.

And his head, and heares were white as white wooll, and as snow, and his eyes were as a flame of fire, and his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

And it was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet,

And I was rauished in spirit on the Lordes day, and heard behinde me a great voyce, as it had bene of a trumpet,

And I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behinde me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp two edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead: and he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not: I am the first and the last; and I am he that liveth, and was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and I have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write therefore the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall come to pass hereafter; the mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

20 Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks:

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and how thou holdest fast my word, which I have laid before thee, even Jesus' word.

3 And I will give unto every one of you as thou hast done; even I will give to every one of you a field for thy labour, and to every one that toucheth thee they shall be a mouth;

4 But thou, in that thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my yea and amen, even these things shall be done unto thee.

5 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna; and will give him a white stone, and withal a new name written, which no man knoweth but he that receiveth it.
3 And thou hast patience and didst bear for my name’s sake, and hast not grown weary.
4 But I have this against thee, that thou didst leave thy first love.
5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of its place, except thou repent.
6 But this thou hast, that thou hast the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.
7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches: To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of God.
8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write, These things saith he that is first, and last, which was dead, and is alive;
9 I know thy tribulation, and thy poverty (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.
10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life.

5 ὁ ἐχὼν οὖς ἀκουσάτω τί τὸ πνεῦμα λέγει ταῖς ἐκκλησίαις. τῷ νικῶν οὐ μὴ ἀδικηθῇ ἐκ τοῦ θανάτου, καὶ δώσω σοι τὸν στέφανον τῆς ζωῆς.
6 οἷς ἔχουσιν ἀγάπην ἀλλὰ μὴ πιστεύσουσιν εἰς ἐκείνον ὁ διάβολος ἐκ τῆς συναγωγῆς τοῦ σατανᾶ.
7 οἷς ἔχουσιν ἀγάπην ἀλλὰ μὴ πεπιστεύσουσιν εἰς ἐκείνον ὁ διάβολος ἐκ τῆς συναγωγῆς τοῦ σατανᾶ.
8 οἷς ἔχουσιν ἀγάπην ἀλλὰ μὴ πεπιστεύσουσιν εἰς ἐκείνον ὁ διάβολος ἐκ τῆς συναγωγῆς τοῦ σατανᾶ.
9 οἷς ἔχουσιν ἀγάπην ἀλλὰ μὴ πεπιστεύσουσιν εἰς ἐκείνον ὁ διάβολος ἐκ τῆς συναγωγῆς τοῦ σατανᾶ.
10 οἷς ἔχουσιν ἀγάπην ἀλλὰ μὴ πεπιστεύσουσιν εἰς ἐκείνον ὁ διάβολος ἐκ τῆς συναγωγῆς τοῦ σατανᾶ.
11 οἷς ἔχουσιν ἀγάπην ἀλλὰ μὴ πεπιστεύσουσιν εἰς ἐκείνον ὁ διάβολος ἐκ τῆς συναγωγῆς τοῦ σατανᾶ.
12 οἷς ἔχουσιν ἀγάπην ἀλλὰ μὴ πεπιστεύσουσιν εἰς ἐκείνον ὁ διάβολος ἐκ τῆς συναγωγῆς τοῦ σατανᾶ.
11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches: He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges:

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan’s seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, which taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and commit fornication.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches: To him that overcometh will I give of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and upon the stone a new name written, which no one knoweth but he that receiveth it.

18 To the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith he which hath the sharp two-edged sword:

19 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan’s throne is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days when Antipas my faithfull martyr was slaine among you, where Satan dwelleth.

20 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that maintain the doctrine of Balaam, which taught Balac to put a stumbling block before ye children of Israel, that they should eat of things sacrificed vnto Idoles, and commit fornication.

21 Repent thy selfe, or els I will come vnto thee shortly, and will fight against them with the sworde
18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things say the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass:

19 I know thy works, and thy love and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to you I say, to the rest that are in Thyatira, one of you according to your works.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her, into great tribulation, except they repent of their works.

23 And I will kill her children with death: and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto each one of you according to your works.

24 But to you I say, to the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this teaching, which know not the deep things of Satan, as they say; I cast upon you none other burden.

25 Howbeit that which ye have, hold fast till I come, of my mouth.

17 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirite saith unto the Churches. To him that overcommeth, will I give to eate of the Manna that is hid, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a name written, which no man knoweth sauing he that receiueth it.

18 And vnto ye Angel of the Church which is at Thyatira write, These things saith the Sonne of God, which hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his feete like fine brasse.

19 I knowe thy workes and thy loue, and seruice, and that thy faith, and thy patience, and thy workes, and that they are more at the last, then at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I haue a few things against thee, that thou sufferest the woman Iezabel, which calleth her selfe a prophetesse, to teache and to deceiue my seruants to make them commit fornication, and to eate meates sacrificed vnto idoles.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Beholde, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her, into great affliction, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the Churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira ye which have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.
25 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.
26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:
27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall be broken to shivers:
even as I received of my Father.
28 And I will give him the morning star.
29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

30 And unto the angel of the church which is at Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and thou art dead.

31 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

32 Remember therefore how thou hast received and didst hear; and keep it, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

33 But thou hast a few names in Sardis which did not defile their garments: and they shall walk with me in white; for they are worthy.

34 But he that overcometh, and that keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:
35 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall be broken to shivers:
even as I received of my Father:
36 And I will give him the morning star.
37 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

38 And to the angel of the church which is at Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth and no man shutteth, and shutteth and no man openeth:

39 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

40 But thou hast a few names in Philadelphia which did not defile their garments: and they shall walk with me in white; for they are worthy.

41 But he that overcometh, and that keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:
42 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall be broken to shivers:
even as I received of my Father:
43 And I will give him the morning star.
44 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

45 And to the angel of the church which is at Laodicea write; These things saith he that is the Son of God, who is from before ever, and from before a name was given to the world, the Son of God, the bright and morning star.

46 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to be profaned:
47 For I have not found thy works perfect before God.

48 Remember therefore how thou hast received and didst hear; and keep it, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

49 But thou hast a few names in Laodicea which did not defile their garments: and they shall walk with me in white; for they are worthy.

50 But he that overcometh, and that keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:
51 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall be broken to shivers:
even as I received of my Father:
52 And I will give him the morning star.
3 Remember therefore, how thou hast received and heard, and held fast and repented. If therefore thou wilt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Notwithstanding thou hast a few names yet in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments: and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works. Behold, I have set before thee an open door, which none can shut, for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of trial, which is to come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 I come quickly: hold fast that which thou hast, that no one take thy crown.

12 He that overcometh, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go out thence no more: and I will write upon him the name of my Father, and his name.
also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 Therefore, because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold refined by fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest become rich; and white garments, that the shame of thy nakedness be not made manifest; and eyesalve to anoint thine eyes, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I love, I reprove and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

shall come and worship before thy feete, and shall knowe that I haue loued thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the woord of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the houre of tentation, which will come vpon all the world, to trie them that dwell vpon the earth.

11 Beholde, I come shortly: holde that which thou hast, that no man take thy crowne.

12 Him that overcometh, will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and he shall goe no more out: and I will write vpon him the Name of my God, and the name of the citie of my God, which is the newe Hierusalem, which commeth downe out of heauen from my God, and I will write vpon him my newe Name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what ye Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angell of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things saith Amen, the faithfull and true witnesse, that beginning of the creatures of God.

15 I knowe thy worokes, that thou art neither colde nor hote: I woulde thou werest colde or hote.

16 Therefore, because thou art luke warme, and nei ther colde nor hote, it will come to passe, that I shall spewe thee out of my mouth.

God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God, and mine own new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

14 And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God:

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest become rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest become rich; and white garments, that the shame of thy nakedness be not made manifest; and eyesalve to anoint thine eyes, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I love, I reprove and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.
17 For thou saiest, I am rich and increased with goods, and haue neede of nothing, and knowest not howe thou art wretched and miserable, and poore, and blinde, and naked.

18 I counsell thee to bye of me gold tried by the fire, that thou maiest bee made rich: and white raiment, that thou maiest be clothed, and that thy filthie nakednesse doe not appeare: and anoynt thine eyes with eye salue, that thou maiest see.

19 As many as I loue, I rebuke and chasten: be zeal-ous therefore and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: If any man heare my voice, and open ye doore, I wil come in vnto him, and will suppe with him, and he with me.

21 To him that ouercommeth, will I graunt to sit with me in my throne, euen as I ouercame, and sit with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an eare, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the Churches.

After this I looked, and beholde, a door was opened in heauen, and the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet speaking with me; which said, Come vp hither, and I will shew thee the things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediatly I was in the Spirit: and behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting upon the throne;

3 and he that sat was to look upon like a jasper stone and a sardius: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, like an emerald to look upon.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty thrones: and upon the thrones I saw four and twenty elders sitting, arrayed in white garments; and on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceed lightnings and voices and thunders. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God;

6 and before the throne, as it were a glassy sea like behold, a throne was set in heauen, and one sate upon the throne.

3 And he that sate was to looke vp, like vnto a jasper stone, and a sardine, and there was a rainbowe rounde about the throne, in sight like to an emery.

4 And round about the throne were foure and twentie seates, and vpon the seates I sawe foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crownes of golde.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundrings, and voyces, and there were seuen lampes of fire burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like vnto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, four living creatures full of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first creature was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the foure beasts had each of them sixe wings about him; and they were full of eyes round about and within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,

10 the four and twenty elders shall fall downe before him that sitteth on the throne, and shall worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and shall cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 Worthy art thou, our Lord and our God, to receive the glory and the honour and the power: for thou didst create all things, and because of thy will they were, and were created.

8 καὶ τὰ τέσσερα ζώα, ἓν καθ᾽ ἓν αὐτῶν ἔχουν ἀνὰ πτέρυγας ἑκατόν, κυκλόθεν καὶ ἔσωθεν γέμουσιν ὀφθαλμῶν• καὶ ἀνάπαυσιν οὐκ ἔχουσιν ἡμέρας καὶ νυκτὸς λέγοντες, ἅγιος ἅγιος ἅγιος κύριος ὁ θεὸς ὁ παντοκράτωρ ὁ ἦν καὶ ὁ ὢν καὶ ὁ ἐρχόμενος.

9 καὶ ὅταν δώσουσιν τὰ ζώα δόξαν καὶ τιμὴν καὶ εὐχαριστίαν τῷ καθημένῳ ἐπὶ τῷ θρόνῳ, τῷ ἐρχόμενῳ ἐπί τῷ θρόνῳ, τῷ ζῶντι εἰς τοὺς αἰῶνας τῶν αἰώνων, πεσοῦνται οἱ εἴκοσι τέσσαρες πρεσβύτεροι εἰς τὸν θρόνον τοῦ κυρίου, καὶ προσκυνήσουσιν τῷ ζῶντι εἰς τοὺς αἰῶνας τῶν αἰώνων, καὶ βαλοῦσιν τοὺς στέφανους αὐτῶν εἰς τὸν θρόνον τοῦ θεοῦ ἐκείνου.
And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

And no man in heaven, nor on the earth, nor under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look thereon.

And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open the book, neither to look thereon.

And I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth.

And he came, and he taketh it out of the right hand of him that sat on the throne. And when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having each one a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

And the four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having each one a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,
11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

10 The four and twenty Elders fell downe before him that sat on the throne and worshipped him that liueth for euermore, and cast their crownes before the throne, saying, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.
11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy wils sake they are, and haue beene created.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders,

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints.

9 And they sung a new song, saying, Worthy art thou to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast purchase unto God with thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I saw, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the living creatures and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and might, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And every created thing which is in the heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and on the sea, and all things that are in them, heard I saying, Unto him that sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb, be the blessing, and the honour, and the glory, and the dominion, for ever and ever.

14 And the four living creatures said, Amen. And the elders fell down and worshipped.
And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, Come.

2 And I saw, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat thereon had a bow; and there was given unto him a crown: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

4 And another horse came forth, a red horse: and to him that sat thereon it was given to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a horse that was black: and he that sat thereon had a great sword.

And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, Come.

2 And I saw, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat thereon had a bow; and there was given unto him a crown: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

4 And another horse came forth, a red horse: and to him that sat thereon it was given to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a horse that was black: and he that sat thereon had a great sword.

That was killed to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and praise.

13 And al the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and al that are in them, heard I, saying, Praise, and honour, and glory, and power be vnto him that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beasts said, Amen, and the foure and twenty Elders fell downe and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

After, I beheld whe the Lambe had opened one of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beastes say, as it were the noise of thunder, Come and see.

2 Therefore I behelde, and loe, there was a white horse, and hee that sate on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering that he might overcome.

3 And when he had opened the seconde seale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out an other horse, that was red, and power was giuen to him that sate thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

9 And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that had been slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Master, the holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest for a little season, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, These which are arrayed in white robes, who are they, and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, My lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun strike upon them, nor any heat:

17 for the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall be their shepherd, and shall guide them unto fountains of waters of life: and God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.
And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.

And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunberings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

And he that sitteth on the throne, will dwell among them.

And they shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sun shine upon them, neither any heat.

And for the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne, shall govern them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.
6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.
7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.
8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.
9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.
10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell from heaven a great star, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters.
11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormwood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.
12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.
13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the heaven, saying with a great voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the names of the third angels voice; for in you is the wrath of her multitudes come to pass.
14 And I looked, and I heard the voice of the angel of the temple saying with a loud voice to the angel that spoke to the children of Israel, saying,
15 What are you doing here? for your días have come, and the days of your multitudes have reached their limit.
16 And those who dwell on the earth shall be grieved over the sound of a trumpet, and of a voice, and of a sickle, and of a scythe, and of a fire, and of a sword: for the multitudes of the earth are come to grief.
17 And the angel answered, These are the multitudes which have not accepted the truth of God, and the multitudes which have not accepted the voice of the third angel, who spoke to these multitudes.
18 And I looked, and I saw an angel flying with a great trumpet round about the earth, and he said, Woe, woe, woe to the multitudes of the earth, because of the multitudes of the multitudes, who have not accepted the truth of God, and the multitudes of the multitudes who have not accepted the voice of the third angel.
19 And I beheld, and I saw a great and powerful mountain burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the thirde part of the sea became blood, and the thirde part of the shippes were destroyed.
20 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea, and had life, died; and the thirde part of the ships were destroyed.
21 And the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a great starre from heauen, burning like a torche, and it fell into the thirde part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.
22 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the thirde part of the sunne was smitten, and the thirde part of the moon, and the thirde part of the starres; so as the thirde part of them was darkened: and the day was smitten, that the thirde part of it could not shine for the thirde part of it, and the night in like manner.
23 And I saw, and I heard an eagle, flying in mid heaven, saying with a great voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the multitudes of the earth, because of the third Angel's voice; for in you is the wrath of her multitudes come to pass.

And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from heaven fallen unto the earth: and there was given to him the key of the pit of the abyss.

And he opened the pit of the abyss; and there went up a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

And out of the smoke came forth locusts upon the earth; and power was given them, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

And it was said unto them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not shine, and likewise the night.

And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared for war; and upon their heads as it were crowns like unto gold, and their faces were as men’s faces.

And they had hair as the hair of women, and their not shine, and likewise the night.

And the fifth Angel blew the trumpet, and I saw a starre fall from heaven vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the smoke of a great fornace, and the sunne, and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke Locustes vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen power, as the scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was comanded them, that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but onely those men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was comanded that they should not kill them, but that they should be vexed fiue moneths, and that their paine should be as the paine that commeth of a scorpion, when he hath stung a man.

6 Therefore in those dayes shall men seeke death, not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 They have over them as king the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek tongue he hath the name Apollyon.

12 One woe is past: behold, there come yet two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before God, saying to the sixth angel, which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

8 καὶ εἶχον τρίχας ὡς τρίχας γυναικῶν, καὶ οἱ ὀδόντες αὐτῶν ὡς λεόντων ἦσαν, καὶ εἶχον ὀφθαλμοὺς ὁμοίας σκορπίων, καὶ ἐν ταῖς οὐραῖς αὐτῶν ἡ ἐξουσία αὐτῶν ἀδικῆσαι τοὺς ἀνθρώπους μῆνας πέντε.

unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

And I took the little book out of the angel’s hand, and ate it up, and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

And they say unto me, Thou must prophesy again over many peoples and nations, and tongues and kings.

And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

Then was given me a reed like unto a rod, and a line, and a measuring reed: and one said, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and thirty days, clothed in sackcloth.

9 And I went unto the angel, saying unto him that he should give me the little book. And he saith unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 Then I took the little book out of ye Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as sweete as hony: but whe I had eaten it my belly was bitter.

Then was given me a reed, like vnto a rod, and the Angel stood by, saying, Rise and mete the Temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. But the court which is without the temple cast out, and mete it not: for it is given vnto the Gentiles, and the holy citie shall they trade vnder foote, two and fourtie moneths.

15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their thrones, fell upon their faces and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art and which wast; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast obtained great voices in heaven, and they said, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

18 And the nations were wroth, and thy wrath came, and the time of the dead to be judged, and the time to give their reward to thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were sore feared, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there were great voices, saying, The seventh voice began to sound: and there were voices as it were great thunders, saying, The kings of this world have received their kingdom, and their kingdom is become the kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

14 The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe will come anon.

15 And the seventh Angell blew the trumpet, and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are our Lords, and his Christes, and he shall reign for euermore.

16 Then the foure and twentie Elders, which sate before God on their seates, fell vpon their faces, and worshipped God,

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels going forth to war with the dragon; and the dragon warred and his angels;

8 And they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon was cast down, the old serpent, he that is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world; he was cast down into the earth, and his angels were cast down with him.

10 And I heard a great voice in heaven, saying, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, and be carried away of the flood.

13 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

14 But to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman, like a flood, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 But the earth holp the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

18 And I stood on the sea sand. And I saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power.
3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to war with him?

5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and there was given to him authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation.

8 And all that dwell on the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb that hath been slain from the foundation of the world.

9 If any man hath an ear, let him hear.

10 If any man is for captivity, into captivity he goeth: if any man shall kill with the sword, with the sword must he be killed. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men.

14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and should cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

16 And he made all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a 6 And I saw another angel flying in mid heaven, without blemish.

5 And in their mouth was found no lie: they are God and unto the Lamb.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, to be the firstfruits unto God and unto the Lamb.

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders: and no man could learn the song save the hundred and four thousand, which were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and unto the Lamb.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps.

18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding, count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man, and his number is six hundred threescore and six.

Then I looked, and lo, a Lamb stood on mount Zion, and with him an hundred and four and four thousand, having his Fathers Name written in their foreheads.

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song, but the one hundred and forty and four thousand, having his name, and the name of his Father, written on their foreheads.

4 These are they which are not defiled with women: for they are virgins: these follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, to be the firstfruits unto God and unto the Lamb.

7 and he saith with a great voice, Fear God, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And another, a second angel, followed, saying, Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, which hath made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and whomsoever receiveth the mark of his name,

10 The same shall drink of the wine of ye wrath of God, yea, of the pure wine, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his wrath, and he shall be tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lamb.

11 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend up for ever and ever: and they shall have no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Send forth thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud cast his sickle upon the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire, and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and reap: for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

19 And the angel cast his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and cast it into the winepress of the wrath of God.

20 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and there came out blood from the winepress, even the blood of the saints which were slained in the land of Judea, even unto the thigh.

and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues: for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and there came out from the temple the seven angels having the seven plagues, which are marvelous, seven angels having seven plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

And after these things I saw, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels to do their work: and it was opened in heaven, the tabernacle of the testimony.

And the golden girdles.

And they sung the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy name? for thou only art holy, and all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy righteous acts have been made manifest.

Who shall not fear, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee: for thy righteous acts have been made manifest.

And after that I looked, and beheld, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

And after that I looked, and beheld, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.
7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

1 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon every living soul died, even the things that were in the sea.

2 And the second poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living thing dyed in the sea.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood as of a dead man; and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and it became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying, Righteous art thou, which art and which wast, thou Holy One, because thou didst thus judge:

6 For they poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and blood hast thou given them to drink: for they are worthy.

7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, which liveth for evermore.

8 And the Temple was full of the smoke of the glory of God and of his power, and no man was able to enter into the Temple, till the seven plagues of the seven Angels were fulfilled.

And I heard a great voice out of the Temple, saying to the seven Angels, Go your ways, and powre out the seuen vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the first went and powred out his viall vpon the earth: and there fell a noysome, and a grieuous sore vpon the men, which had the marke of ye beast, and vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angel powed out his viall vpon the sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man: and euery living thing dyed in the sea.

4 And the third Angel powed out his viall vpon the riwers and fountaines of waters, and they became blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For they shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink: for they are worthy.

7 And one of the four living creatures gave unto the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the Temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and of his power, and no man was able to enter into the Temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels should be finished.

And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go ye, and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God into the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his bowl upon the earth; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died, even the things that were in the sea.

3 And the second poured out his bowl upon the sea; and it became blood as of a dead man; and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third poured out his bowl into the rivers and the fountains of the waters; and it became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying, Righteous art thou, which art and which wast, thou Holy One, because thou didst thus judge:

6 For they poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and blood hast thou given them to drink: for they are worthy.
7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.
8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.
9 And men were scorchèd with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.
10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was darkened; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,
11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores; and they repented not of their works.
12 And the sixth poured out his bowl upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way might be made ready for the kings of the east to prepare.
13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, and out of the mouth of the beast; and his kingdom was darkened; and they gnawed their tongues for sorrow, and they blasphemed the God of heaven for their pains, and for their sores, and repented not of their works.
14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them together unto the war of the great day of God, the Almighty.
15 Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since there were men upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so great an earthquake, such as was not since there were men upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And great hail, every stone about the weight of a talent, cometh down out of heaven upon men: and men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.
And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit into a wilderness: and I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stone and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, A mystery, that great Babylon, that mother of whoredomes, and abominations of the earth.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with a great wonder.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou wonder? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

Then there came one of the seven Angels, which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come: I will shewe thee the damnation of the great whore that sitteth vpon many waters,

2 With whom have committed fornication the Kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are drunken with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he caried me away into the wildernes in the Spirit, and I saw a woman sit vpon a skarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemie, which had seuen heads, and tenne horns.

4 And the woman was arayed in purple and skarlet, and giled with golde, and precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of gold in her hand, full of abomina tions, and filthines of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, A mysterie, that great Babylon, that mother of whores domes, and abominations of the earth.

6 And I saw ye woman drunken with the blood of Saintes, and with the blood of the Martyrs of IESVS: and when I saw her, I wondred with great marueile.

7 Then the Angel saide vnto me, Wherefore marueilest thou? I will shewe thee the misterie of that woman, and of that beast, that beareth her, which hath seuen heads, and tenne horns.

TISCHENDORF GREEK

41
And I heard another voice from heaven, saying,

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to do his mind, and to agree, and to give their kingdom unto the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

18 And that woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

And after these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth had a hold of every unclean and hateful bird.

And the woman whom thou sawest is the great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

And the woman whom thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of ye earth.

And after these things I saw another Angel come downe from heauen, hauing great power, so that the earth was lightened with his glorie.

2 And he cried out mightily with a loud voyce, saying, It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon that great citie, and is become the habitation of deuils, and the holde of every foule spirit, and a cage of euery vncleane and hatefull birde.

3 For all nations haue drunken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the harlot sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God should be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest is the great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come forth, my people, out of her, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sins have reached even unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: and in the cup that she hath filled to her fill, fill her ye double.

7 In as much as she glorified herself, and lived deliciously with her, so much give her of torment and mourning: for she saith in her heart, I sit being a queene, and am no widowe, and shall see no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for that God which condemneth her, is a strong Lord.

9 And the kings of the earth shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and of fine linen, and of purple, and of silk, and of scarlet, and of all manner of precious goods.

Come forth, my people, out of her, that ye have no fellowship with her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues:

5 For her sins have reached even unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Render unto her even as she rendered you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously with her, so much give her of torment and mourning: for she saith in her heart, I sit being a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, say, Come forth, my people, out of her, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sins are come up into heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her, even as she hath rewarded you, and give her double according to her works: and in the cup that she hath filled to you, fill her ye double.

7 In as much as she glorified herself, and lived in pleasure, so much give ye to her torment and sorow: for she saith in her heart, I sit being a queen, and am no widowe, and shall see no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death, and sorow, and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire: for that God which condemneth her, is a strong Lord.

9 And the kings of the earth shall bewail her, and lament for her, which have committed fornication, and lived in pleasure with her, when they shall see that smoke of that her burning,

10 And shall stand a farre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that mighty citie Babylon, that mightie citie: for in one houre is thy judgement come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and wayle over her: for no man byeth their ware any more:
12 merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stone, and pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet; and all thine wood, and every vessel of ivory, and every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble;

13 and cinnamon, and spice, and incense, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep, and horses; and merchants of horses and chariots and slaves; and souls of men.

14 And the fruits which thy soul lusted after are gone from thee, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous are perished from thee, and men shall find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning;

16 saying, Woe, woe, the great city, that was arrayed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stone and pearl!

17 for in one hour so great riches is made desolate. And every shipmaster, and every one that saileth any whither, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood afar off off,
19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her. And the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more in thee: for thy marchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy enchantments were all nations deceived.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with such violence shall that great city Babylon be cast, and shalbe found no more.

22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the voice of a millstone shall be heard no more in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more in thee: for thy marchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy enchantments were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all that have been slaine upon the earth.
And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia: Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia: and that her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And the four and twenty elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Hallelujah.

5 And a voice came forth from the throne, saying, Amen; Hallelujah.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunders, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us rejoice and be exceeding glad, and let us give the glory unto him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And it was given unto her that she should array herself in fine linen, bright and pure: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they that have been called unto the marriage feast of the Lamb. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, bright and pure: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

10 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they that have kept the commandments of God, and the faithfulness of Jesus.

11 And after these things I heard a great voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, Hallelujah, Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God:

12 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath condemned that great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants shed by her hand.

13 And they have redeemed them unto God and to the Lamb: and they shall be his priests, and shall inherit the kingdom of God: and God shall be with them, and shall be their God:

14 And they shall see his face, and his name shall be on their foreheads:

15 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of sun: for the Lord God shall be their light, and they shall walk by the light of it:

16 And they shall lead them unto the springs of the living waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

And he saith unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant with thee and with thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: and he shall smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness of the wrath of Almighty God.

11 And I saw the heaven opened; and behold, a white horse, and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True; and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 And his eyes were as a flame of fire, and upon his head are many diadems; and he hath a name written, that no one knoweth but he himself.

13 And he is arrayed in a garment sprinkled with blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

14 And the armies which are in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and pure.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the souls that were in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat upon the horse, and against his army.

20 But ye beast was taken, and with him that false prophet that wrought miracles before him, whereby he deceived them that receiued ye beastes marke, and him that worshipped his image. These both were alie cast into a lake of fire, burning with brimstone.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in mid heaven, Come and be gathered together unto the great supper of God;

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of them that sit thereon, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat upon the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought the signs in his sight, wherewith he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image: they twain were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone:

21 And the rest were killed with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, even the sword which came forth out of his mouth: and all the birds were filled with their flesh.
And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years.

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or upon their hands;

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished: this is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: for on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are finished, Satan shall be loosed for a little time.

8 And he must be loosed for a little season: after this he must be loosed for a little time.

9 And they lived, and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

10 If any man shall write, adding unto these things, or taking away from these things, he shall be destroyed from among the dead, and his name shall not be found in the book of life.

11 And, I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

12 And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years.

25 And they lived, and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

26 If any man shall write, adding unto these things, or taking away from these things, he shall be destroyed from among the dead, and his name shall not be found in the book of life.
7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,
8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.
9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the tents of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.
10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where was also the beast and the false prophet.
11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat upon it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.
12 And I saw the dead, both great and small, standing before the throne; and books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.
13 And the sea gave up her dead, which were in her, and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.
And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his peoples, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sitteth on the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of life, the water of life.

5 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly come to pass.

6 And I John am he that heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever lotheth or maketh a lie.

16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the Churches: I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues, that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
