And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand did the children of Judah carry away alive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 But the men of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Beth-horon, and smote of them three thousand, and thowrouth all Judah and Benjamin: and he nombred them from twenty yeere old and aboue, and founde among them three hundreth thousand chosen men, to goe forth to the warre, and to handle speare and shield.

6 He hyred also an hundreth thousand valiant men of valour out of Israel for an hundreth talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee: for the LORD is not with Israel, neither with all the house of Ephraim.

8 If not, goe thou on, doe it, make thy selfe strong for the battel, but God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah sayde to the man of God, What shall we do for the hundreth talents, which I have given to the army of Israel?

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the armie that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in fierce anger. {home again: Heb. to their place} {in great...: God’s anger}

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand did the children of Judah take alive, and carried them to the top of a rocke, and cast them downe from the top of the rocke, and they all burst to pieces.

13 But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Bethhoron, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil. {the soldiers...: Heb. the sons of the band}

14 Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

14 Now after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them vp to be his gods, and worshipped them, and burned incense vnto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought the gods of the people, which were not able to deliuer their owne people out of thine hand?

15 Wherefore the Lord was wroth with Amaziah, and sent vnto him a Prophet, which sayd vnto him, Why hast thou sought the gods of the people, which could not deliver their owne people out of thine hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counseler? cease thou: why should they smite thee? And the Prophet forbare, and said, I knowe that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

16 And as he talked with him, he said vnto him, Haue they made thee the Kings counseler? cease thou: why should they smite thee? And the Prophet ceased, but said, I knowe that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast

17 Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face.

17 Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a people, and went to the salt valley, and smote of the children of Seir, ten thousand.
done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 Then Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that is in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle. {thistle: or, furze bush, or, thorn} {a wild...: Heb. a beast of the field}

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten Edom; and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not hear; for it was of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought after the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah.

22 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to his tent.

23 And Joash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim unto the corner gate, four hundred cubits.

24 And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king’s house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.

26 And Amaziah gathered together all the valiant men of Israel, and went to war, and smote the Meunites, and slew 15,000 men of them.
23 And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. {the corner....: Heb. the gate of it that looketh}
24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed Edom, and in the treasures of the king’s house, and the children that were in hostage, and returned to Samaria.
25 And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.
26 Concerning the rest of the acts of Amaziah first and last, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?
27 Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away from following the LORD they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.
28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah. {Judah: that is, the city of David}
Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah. {Uzziah; or, Azariah}

2 He built Elath, and restored it to Judah after that the king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem: His mother’s name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

4 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.

5 And he set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions of God: and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

6 And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and he built cities in the country of Ashdod, and among the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in the country of Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Meunim.

8 And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly. {spread...: Heb. in the seeing of God}

9 Moreouer Uzziah buylt towres in Ierusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning, and at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning, and at the turning of the wall, and builded towers in the bowling place of the valley. {in the visions...: Heb. in the seeing of God}

10 And he warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath: and he builded cities in the land of the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities among the Philistines. {about...: or, in the country of Ashdod}

And all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah.

7 And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Meunim.

8 And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he waxed exceeding strong.
9 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. {fortified: or, repaired}

10 Also he built towers in the desert, and digged many cisterns: for he had much cattell; both in the lowland also, and in the plain: and he had husbandmen in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandrie.

11 Moreover Uzziah had an host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their reckoning, made by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king’s captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the families of the valiant men were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was a trained army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host, shields, and speares, and helmets, and besegoons, and bows, and slings to cast stones. {slings...:

15 He made also very artificial engins in Jerusalem, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the battlements, to shoot arrows and great stones withal.

16 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. {fortified: or, repaired}

17 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to shoot arrows and great stones withal.

18 And he built towers in the wilderness, and digged many cisterns: for he had much cattell both in the valleyes and playnes, plowmen, and dressers of vines in the mountaines, and in Carmel: for he loued husbandrie.

19 And Uzziah had also an hoste of fighting men that went out to warre by bandes, according to the count of their number vnder the hande of Ieiel the Scribe, and Maaseiah the ruler, and vnder the hand of Hananiah, one of the Kings captains.

20 The whole number of the chiefe of the families of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and sixe hundred.
And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvelously helped, till he was strong. {spread: Heb. went forth}

16 But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the Lord his God, and went into the Temple of the Lord to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah the Priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the Lord, valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the Lord, but to the Priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated for to offer incense: goe forth of the Sanctuarie: for thou hast transgressed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the Lord God.

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy brake forth in his forehead before the Priests in the house of the Lord beside the incense altar.

20 And they withstood Uzziah the King, and said unto him, It pertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the Lord, but to the Priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the Lord God.

21 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the Priests, the leprosy rose up in his forehead before the Priests in the house of the Lord beside the incense altar.

22 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It pertineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the Lord.

23 And they withdrew Vzziah the King, saying, and said unto him, It pertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the Lord, but to the Priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated for to offer incense: goe forth of the Sanctuarie: for thou hast transgressed; neither shalt thou haue none honour of the Lord God.

And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvelously helped, till he was strong. {spread: Heb. went forth}
And Ammon gave him the same year an hundred thousand shekels of silver.

2 And he fought also with the king of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred thousand shekels of silver.

3 And he built the upper gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.

5 He built also with the king of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred thousand shekels of silver.

6 For he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

22 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

7 He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of Ophel he built much.

8 For Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

9 And Jotham was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok.

10 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

11 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

12 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

13 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

14 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

15 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

16 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

17 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

18 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

19 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

20 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

21 And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

22 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

23 So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial, which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.
Moreover he built citis in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers. And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and made also molten images for the Baalim, and burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

5 And he fought with the King of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same yere an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley: this did the children of Ammon give him both in the second yere and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, because he directed his way before the LORD his God. Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the Kings of Israel, and Judah.

8 He was fiue and twentie yeere old when he began to reigne, and reigned sixteene yeere in Jerusalem. And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Daud: and Ahaz his sonne reigned in his stead.

9 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

Ahaz was twenty yeere old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteene yeere in Jerusalem.

2 For he walked in the ways of ye Kings of Israel, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like Dauid his father:

3 Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and made also molten images for the Baalim.
and made also molten images for Baalim.

3 Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel. {burnt... or, offered sacrifice}

4 He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter. {Damascus: Heb. Darmesek}

6 For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all valiant men, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. {valiant...: Heb. sons of valour}

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was next to the king. {next...: Heb. the second to the king}

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and caried away much spoyle of them, and brought them to Damascus: and he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him, and tooke of his, many prisoners, and brought them to Damascus: and he was also delivered into the hande of the King of the Aramites, and they smote him, and tooke of his, many prisoners, and brought them to Damascus.

9 But there was a Prophet of the Lordes, (whose name was Oded: and he went out to meet the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage which hath reached up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Israel, reached up unto heaven.
And daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage, that reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are not you such, that sinnest against the LORD your God?

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives againe, which ye have taken prisoners of your brethren: for ye purpose that which will bring fierce wrath against Israel.

12 Wherefore certaine of the chiefe of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Jehohanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Iehizkiah the sonne of Shallum, and Amasa the sonne of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, 13 And said vnto them, Bring not in the captiues hither: for ye entende to adde more to our sinnes and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against God.

14 So the armie left the captiues and the spoyle.

15 And the men which have been expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, unto their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.
15 And the men that were named by name, rose vp and tooke the prisoners, and with the spoyle clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.
16 At that time did King Ahaz sende vnto the Kings of Asshur, to helpe him.
17 (For the Edomites came moreouer, and slew of Judah, and caried away captiues. {captiues: Heb. a captivity})
18 The Philistims also inuaded the cities in the low countrey, and toward the South of Judah, and tooke Bethshemesh, and Aialon, and Gederoth and Sho-cho, with the villages thereof, and Timnah, with her villages, with her villages, and Gimzo, with her villages, and they dwelt there.
19 For the LORD had humbled Judah, because of Ahaz King of Israel; for he had brought vengeance vpon Judah, and had grievously trespassed against the Lord)
20 And Tilgath Pilneser king of Assyria came vnto him, who troubled him and did not strengthen him.
21 For Ahaz tooke a portion out of the house of the Lord and out of the Kings house and of the Princes, 21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this is that king Ahaz.

23 For he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel. {Damascus: Heb. Darmesek}

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD, the God of his fathers.

26 Now the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of Jerusalem; for they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.
Hezekiah began to reign when he was five and twenty years old; and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem: and his mother’s name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah.

2 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord, according to all that David his father had done.

3 He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the broad place on the east, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel.

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites; now sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the Lord our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs.

7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore the wrath of the Lord hath bin on us, even as it is this day.

9 And Hezekiah said unto all the Levites, which were present, and gathered them together into the broad place on the east, and said unto them, Sanctify yourselves with hay and put on your stoles; and go into the house of the Lord, and gather up from thence the silver, and the golden vessels, and the holy vessels, and bring them into the house of the Lord.

10 And King Hezekiah commanded all the people, and the priests and the Levites, and said, Take with you of the silver, and of the gold, and of the vessels, and go to the temple of the Lord your God, and store the silver and the gold in the treasuries of the house of the Lord.

11 And king Hezekiah and Azariah the high priest made up to the people, and to all Judah and Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, an offering unto the Lord.

12 And he commanded his servants, saying, Prepare you riches, for the inhabitants of this land have forsaken the Lord, and have served straw gods, which neither bring profit nor benefit nor deliverance: therefore now let us lay aside our straw gods, and serve the Lord, and have profited.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD; {by the words... or, in the business of the LORD}

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify it, and on the eight day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified it, and the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the Lord: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days, and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away when he trespassed, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD. We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of the LORD.

20 Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the princes of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary of the Lord, and for all Israel, and for the king.

22 The king commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to speak unto all Israel, saying, If any man be of the house of Israel, and be come upon hallowed things of the Lord, being unclean through a dead man; or if any man toucheth any unclean thing; or if any man toucheth the dead body of man: 23 Or a man that is unclean through any touch of uncleanness; or if a stranger toucheth any hallowed thing; or if the touch of the dead body of man: 24 Or a hallowed thing falleth into the water of uncleanness; 25 Or that which is cast into the water of uncleanness, falling out of hallowed things: 26 Or hallowed things fall into the water of uncleanness; 27 Or hallowed things fall into water of uncleanness; 28 Or hallowed things fall into hallowed things; 29 Or also if hallowed things fall into hallowed things, they shall be hallowed: 30 Or hallowed things fall into hallowed things, they shall be hallowed.
21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it upon the altar: they slew also the rams and sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought near the he-goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them:

24 And the priests slew them, and with the blood of them they clensed the altar to reconcile all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

25 He appointed also the Levites in the house of the LORD for the burnt offering and the sinne offering.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and of Gad the king’s seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for Judah. And he commanded the Priests the sonnes of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the Lord.

28 So they slew the bullockes, and the Priests received the blood, and sprinkled it upon the altar: they slew also the rammes and sprinkled the blood upon the altar, and they slew the lambes, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

29 Then they brought the hee goates for the sinne offering before the King and the Congregation, and they layde their hands vpon them.

30 And the Priests swelethem, and with the blood of them they clensed the altar to reconcile all Israel: for the king had commanded for all Israel the burnt offering and the sinne offering.

31 He appointed also the Levites in the house of the Lord with cymbales, with violes, and with harpes, according to the commandement of David, and Gad the Kings Seer, and Nathan the Prophet: for the commandement was by the hande of the Lord, and by the hande of his Prophets.

32 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the Priests with the trumpets.

33 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering vpon the altar: and when the burnt offring was offered and the sinne offring.

34 So they killed them, and they made atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

35 And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbales, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandement of David, and of Gad the king’s seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandement was by the hande of the Lord, and by the hande of his Prophets.
And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel. (when: Heb. in the time) (the instruments: Heb. hands of instruments)

And all the congregation worshipped, singing a song, and they blew the trumpets: all this continued vntill the burnt offering was finished.

And when they had made an ende of offering, the King and all that were present with him, bowed themselves, and worshipped.

Then Hezekiah the King and the princes commanded the Levites to praise the Lord with the wordes of Dauid, and of Asaph the Seer. so they prayed with ioy, and they bowed themselves, and worshipped.

Now ye haue consecrate your selues to the Lord: come neere and bring the sacrifices and offerings of prayse into the house of the Lord. And the Congregation brought sacrifices; and offrings of prayses, and euery man that was willing in heart, offred burnt offrings.

The number of the burnt offerings, which the Congregation brought, was seuenetie bullockes, an hundreth rammes, and two hundreth lambes: all these were for a burnt offering to the Lord:

And sixe hundreth bullockes, and three thousand sheepe.

But the Priests were too few, and were not able to flay all the burnt offrings: therefore their brethren offering upon the altar, And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also, and the trumpets, together with the instruments of David king of Israel.

And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves and worshipped.

Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings. (consecrated...: or, filled
2 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was three thousand head of cattle, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. (did help...: Heb. strengthened them)

35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had made the people so ready: for the thing was done suddenly.

And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month.

3 For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, neither had the people gathered themselves oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, because of that which God had prepared for the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passeover unto the Lord God of Israel.
And the King and his princes and all the Congregation had taken counsel in Jerusalem to keep the Passover in the second month.

For they could not keep it at that time, because there were not Priests enow sanctified, neither was the people gathered to Jerusalem.

And the thing pleased the King, and all the Congregation.

And they decreed to make proclamation throughout all Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover unto the Lord God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a great time, as it was written.

6 So the posts went with letters by the commission of the King, and his princes, thoroughout all Israel and Judah, and with the commandement of the King, saying, Ye children of Israel, turne againe vnto the Lord your God, that his fierce anger may be turned from you, and his Sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever, and the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the Kings of Asshur.

7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the Lord God of their fathers, so that he gave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now be ye not stiffenecked, as your fathers were; but yield yourselves unto the Lord, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever, and serve the Lord your God, that his fierce anger may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the Lord, your brethren together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing was right in the eyes of the king and of all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the Lord God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it in a long time in such sort as it is written.

6 So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria. {from: Heb. from the hand} and your children shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, and shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

11 And there assembled at Jerusalem much people of the princes, by the word of the LORD.

12 Also in Judah was the hand of God to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.

13 And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose, and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took them away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought burnt offerings into the house of the LORD.
16 And they stood in their place after their order, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites. {their place: Heb. their standing}

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified, therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one that setteth his heart to seek God, the LORD, the God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.

19 And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

20 And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the LORD.

21 And Hezekiah spake comfortably unto all the Levites that were well skilled in the service of the LORD.
Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the LORD. {present: Heb. found} {loud...: Heb. instruments of strength}

22 And Hezekiah spake comfortably unto all the Levites that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings, and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers. {comfortably...: Heb. to the heart of all}

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep it other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves. {did give: Heb. lifted up, or, offered} {gave: Heb. lifted up, or, offered}

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like thing in Jerusalem.

27 Then the Priests and the Levites arose, and blessed the people, and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy habitation, even unto heaven.
Now when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities. 2 And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the Priests and Levites by their turnes, every man according to his service, both Priests and Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD. 3 (And the Kings portion was of his owne substance) He appointed also the king’s portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the solemn feastes, as it is written in the law of the LORD. 4 Moreover he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the law of the LORD. 5 And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel gave in abundance the first-fruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all prayer came vp vnto heauen, to his holy habitation. And when all these things were finished, all Israel that were found in the cities of Judah, went out and brake the images, and cut downe the groves, and brake downe the hie places, and the altars thorow-out all Iudah and Beniamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, vntil they had made an ende: afterwarde all the children of Israel returned euery man to his possession, into their owne cities. 2 And Hezekiah appoynted the courses of the Priests and Leuites according to his office, both Priestes and Leuites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thankes, and to prayse in the gates of the tents of the Lord. 3 (And the Kings portion was of his owne substance) He appointed also the king’s portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, to wit, for the morning and of the euening, and the burnt offrings for the Sabbaths, and for the new moones, and for the solemne feastes, as it is written in the the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.
6 And the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them by heaps.
7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.
8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel.
9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.
10 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have eaten and had enough, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store.
11 Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them.
12 And they brought in the oblations and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: and over them Conaniah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was second.

13 And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Joazabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah
the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the Lord, and the most holy things.

15 And next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their set office, to give to 19 Also of the sons of Aaron the priests, which were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men that were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males of the Priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites.

20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and did well, and vprightly, and truely before the Lord his God.

21 And in all the works that he began in the service of the house of God, both in the Law and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

After these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and be-20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah; and he wrought that which was good and right and truth before the LORD his God.

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

After these things faithfully described, Saneherib King of Asshur came and entred into Iudah, and besieged the strong cities, and thought to winne them for himself. {to win...: Heb. to break them up}

2 When Hezekiah saw that Senehreber was come, and that his purpose was to fight against Jerusalem,
3 Then he took counsell with his princes and his nobles, to stoppe the water of the fountains without the city: and they did helpe him.
4 So many of the people assembled themselves, and stopt all the fountains, and the rier that ranne through the middes of the countrey, saying, Why should the Kings of Asshur come, and finde much water?
5 And he took courage, and built all the broken wall, and made vp the towers, and another wall without, and repaired Millo in the citie of Dauid, and made many dartes and shields.
6 And he set captnes of warre over the people, and gathered them together to him in the broade place of the gate of the city, and spake comfortably to them, saying,
7 Be strong and courageous: feare not, neither be afraid for the King of Asshur, neither for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us than with him.
8 with him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles.
9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (now he was before La-chish, and all his power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah.

Hezekiah did strengthen himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired Millo in the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance.

So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the Kings of Asshur come, and finde much water?
8 With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles.

9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his power with him,) unto Jerusalem, saying,

10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide the siege in Jerusalem?

11 Doeth not Hezekiah persuade you, to give over your selues vnto death by famine and by thirst, saying, The Lord our God shall deliuer vs out of the hande of the King of Assyria?

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burne incense vpon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers haue done unto the nations of other landes any ways able to deliuer their land out of mine hande?

14 Who is he of al the gods of those natios (that my fathers haue destroied) that could deliuer his people out of mine hande? that your God should be able to deliver his people out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither believe ye him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 With him:

17 And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah. {rested...: Heb. leaned}

18 They came therefore vnto him, and spake to him, saying, I Cyrus king of Persia hath made a deed, and hath sent word vnto many nations, and he also hath charged us: saying,

19 Ye shall build an house to solomons sonne, and to his sonne after him, in Jerusalem in Israel: and ye shall diuenge the place of his habitation.

20 And this is the deed which they have made vnto me: O Zerubbabel the governor, and ye men of Judah, and all Judah and Benjamin, and the habitants of Jerusalem, send ye to Cyrus king of Persia:

21 Thus spake Cyrus king of Persia vnto me, I Cyrus, saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, send vnto Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, saying,

22 The God of heaven hath giuen the kings of the Assyrians vnto me, for to spred his power through all the earth, and haue taken Nebuchodonosor his sonne captiue.

23 Then the king vnto Zerubbabel, Build the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem, and let the whole house of Judah and Benjamin come vnto it, and all that are left of the people, and of your nation.

24 For I am vnder the hand of the Lord vnto build an house for the name of the Lord, as he spake by his prophet Davids.

25 Now therefore let the hand of the Lord your God be with you: thus shall ye succeed, and take possession of the land which the Lord sware to giue vnto the children of Israel.

26 Then was there with him a band of Tobides, of the God of heaven, also to vouchsafe assistance vnto him:

27 Who entered into a covenant with the people and with the priest, to build the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem.
15 Nowe therefore let not Hezekiah deceiver you, nor seduce you after this sort, neither beleue ye him: for none of all the gods of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hande and out of the hande of my fathers: howe much lesse shall your gods deliuer you out of mine hande?

16 And his seruants spake yet more against the Lord God, and against his seruant Hezekiah.

17 He wrote also letters, to rail on the Lord God, and against his seruant Hezekiah.

18 They spake of the God of Jerusalem, as of the gods of the nations of other countreies could not deliuer their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliuer his people out of mine hande. Then they cried with a loude voyce in the Iewes language unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to feare them and to astonish them, that they might take the cite.

19 Thus they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, cuen the workes of mans hands, 20 But Hezekiah the King, and the Prophet Isaiah the sonne of Amoz prayed against this and cried to heauen.

21 And the Lord sent an Angel which destroyed all the valiant men, and the princes and capatains of the LORD God, and against his seruant Hezekiah.

20 And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the Prophet Isaiah the sonne of Amoz, prayed and cried to heauen.

in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhab-ittants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Je-that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth. {presents: Heb. precious things} the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up:

therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 And Hezekiah also had exceeding much riches and honour, and he gate him treasures of siluer, and of gold, and of precious stones, and of sweete odours, 27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasures for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels; {pleas...: Heb. instruments of desire}

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance exceeding much.

30 This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper springs of Gihon, and led them straight vnderneath towarde the citie of Dauid Westwarde. so Hezekiah prospered in all his workes.

31 But because of the ambassadours of the princes of Babel, which sent vnto him to enquire of the won-der that was done in the lande, God left him to trie him, and to knowe all that was in his heart.

32 Concerning the rest of the actes of Hezekiah, and his goodness, beholde, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the sonne of Amoz, in the booke of the Kings of Iudah and Israel.

33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buryed him in the highest sepulchre of the sons of Dauid: and all Iudah and the inhabitants of Ierusalem did him honour at his death: and Manasseh his sonne reigned in his stead.
Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:

And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

For he went backe and built the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; and he set vp altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the hoste of the heauen, and served them. {he built...: Heb. he returned and built}

Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall my Name be for euer.

And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

Also he caused his children to passe through the fire in the valley of Ben-hinnom: he gaue him selfe to witchcraft and to charming and to sorcerie, and he dealt with them that had familiar spirits, and soothsayers:

He also made his Children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed augury, and used enchantments, and practised sorcery, and dealt with them that had familiar spirits, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

And he set the graven image of the idol, which he had made in the house of God, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirtie years.

2 And he did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the Asherim, and the graven images, and the molten images:

4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the sun-images:

8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Johaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered ye money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the keepers of the door, had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin min; and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they put it in the hands of them that should doe the worke and had the oversight in the house of the Lord: and they gaue it to the workemen that wroght in the house of the LORD his God, to repair and amend the house.

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to bye hewed stone and timber for couples and for beames of the houses, which the Kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of the Kohathites, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of music.

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the hie Priest, they delievered ye money that was brought into the house of God, which the Leuites that kept the doore, had gathered at the hand of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and of all the residue of Israel, and of all Judah and Beniamin, and of the inhabitanites of Jerusalem.

10 And they put it in the hands of them that should doe the worke and had the oversight in the house of the Lord: and they gaue it to the workemen that wroght in the house of ye Lord, to repaire and amend the house.

12 And the men did the worke faithfully, and the overseers of them were Iahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the children of the Merari, and Zhecharia and Meshullem, of the children of the Kohathites to set it forward; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of music.
13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and set forward all that did the work in every manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 And when they brought out the money that was found in the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the book of the law of the LORD given by Moses. [KJV: 18 And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the Priest hath given me a book, and Shaphan read it before the King.]

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan. [KJV: 18 And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read therein before the king.]
20 And the King commanded Hilkiah, and Abi-kam the sonne of Shaphan, and Abdon the sonne of Micah, and Shaphan the chanceler, and Asaiah the Kings servaunt, saying,
21 Go ye, enquire of the LORD for me, and for the rest in Israel and Iudah, concerning the words of this booke that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is fallen vpon vs, because our fathers haue not kept the wordes of the LORD, to doe after all that is written in this booke.
22 Then Hilkiah and they that the King had appoynted, went to Huldah the Prophetesse ye wife of Shallum, the sonne of Tokhath, the sonne of Hasrah keeper of the wardrobe (and she dwelt in Jerusalem within the colleidge) and they communed hereof with her.
23 And shee answered them, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, Tell yee the man that sent you to me, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to doe after all that is written in this booke: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out vpon vs, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do according unto all that is written in this booke.
24 Thus saith the Lord, Beholde, I will bring euill vpon this place, and vpon the inhabitantes thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:
25 Because they haue forsaken me, and burnt incense vnto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore shall my wrath fall vpon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 But to the King of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the Lord, so shall ye say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The words which thou hast heard, shall come to passe.

27 But because thine heart did melt, and thou didest humble thy selfe before God, when thou hearest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thy selfe before me, and tarest thy clothes, and wepest before me, I haue also heard it, sayth the Lord.

5 And Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

6 And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.

7 And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem, and all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and compelled all that were found in Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God: so all his days they turned not backe from the Lord God of their fathers.

8 And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were found in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

9 The king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.

10 And he said unto the Levites that taught all Israel, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

11 Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem, and they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

12 Moreover Josiah kept a passover vnto the Lord in Jerusalem: and they slew the Passeouer in the fourteenth day of the first moneth.

31 And the king stood in his place, and made a cov

32 And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem, and Beniamin to stande to it: and the inhabitants of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel did build; there shall no more be a burden upon your shoulders: now serve the LORD your God, and his people Israel.
4 And prepare yourselves after your fathers’ houses by your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son.

5 And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the Levites, [the families of the fathers: Heb. the house of the fathers] [the people: Heb. the sons of the people] the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites: {the families of the fathers: Heb. the house of the fathers} {the people: Heb. the sons of the people}

6 So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

7 And Josiah gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king’s substance. {gave: Heb. offered}

8 And his princes offered willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for the passover offerings five thousand small cattle, and 7 Josia also gaue to the people sheepe, and lambs and kiddes, all for the Passover, euon to all that were present, to the number of thirtie thousand, and three thousande bullockes: these were of the Kings substance.

8 And his princes offred willingly vnto the people, to the Priests and to the Levites: Hilkiah, and Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gaue vnto the Priests for the Passeouer, euon two thousand and six hundrith sheepe, and three hun-
10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their courses, according to the king’s commandment.

11 And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them.

12 And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen.

13 And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings sod they in pots, pannes, and caldrons, and divided them speedily among all the people. {divided,...: Heb. made them run}

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

dreth bullockes.

9 Conaniah also and Shemaiah and Nethaneel his brethren, and Hashabiah and Ieiel and Iozabad, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for passover, five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen. {gave willingly: Heb. offered, etc}
15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. {place: Heb. station}

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah. {commandment: Heb. found}

17 And the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. {present: Heb. found}

18 And there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. {present: Heb. found}

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. {temple: Heb. house}

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war; and God hath commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.
22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Neco from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded.

24 So his servants took him out of the chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to Jerusalem; and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his good deeds, according to that which is written in the law of the LORD,
Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem.

2 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and set his brother Eliakim over the house of Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

6 Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon.

7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his fathers stead in Jerusalem.

2 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt put him down at Jerusalem, and condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem.

5 Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

6 Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon.

7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.
11 Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and the people, trespassed very greatly after all the abominations of the heathen; and they polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

12 And the LORD, the God of their fathers, sent to turn the heart of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead. {Jehoiachin: also called, Jeconiah, or, Coniah}

13 And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD, the God of Israel.

14 Concerning the rest of the acts of Jeconiah, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in the book of the Kings of Israel and Judah, and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

15 And the LORD, the God of their fathers, sent to turn the heart of the kings of Israel and Judah: and they polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

16 And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon with the precious vessels of the house of the Lord, and he made Zedekiah his brother King over Judah and Jerusalem.

17 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

18 Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and the people, trespassed very greatly after all the abominations of the heathen; and they polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

19 And the LORD, the God of their fathers, sent to turn the heart of the kings of Israel and Judah: and they polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

20 The rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in the book of the Kings of Israel and Judah, and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

21 And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon with the precious vessels of the house of the Lord, and he made Zedekiah his brother King over Judah and Jerusalem.

22 Zedekiah was twenty and one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem:

23 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; he humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the LORD.
13 And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Israel.

14 Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen; and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

15 And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place: {by: Heb. by the hand of} {betimes: that is, continually and carefully}

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his Prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy. {remedy: Heb. healing}

17 Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldeans, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man or aged. God gave all into his hand,

18 And all the vessels of the house of God great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon.

19 And they burnt the house of God, and brake downe the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

20 And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; and they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia:

21 to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths for people trespassed wonderfully, according to all the abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the Lord which he had sanctified in Jerusalem.
19 And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

20 And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia:

21 To fulfill the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfill seventie yeeres.

22 Now in the first yeere of Cyrus King of Persia (when the worde of the Lord, spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah, was finished) the Lord stirred vp the spirit of Cyrus King of Persia, and he made a proclamation through all his kingdome, and also by writing, saying,

23 Thus saith Cyrus King of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the Lord God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him an house in Jerusalem, that is in Judah. Who is among you of all his people, with whom the Lord his God is? let him goe vp.

21 To fulfill the worde of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, vntill the lande had her fill of her Sab- baths: for all the dayes that she lay desolate, she kept Sabbath, to fulfill seuentie yeeres.

22 But in the first yeere of Cyrus King of Persia (when the worde of the Lord, spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah, was finished) the Lord stirred vp the spirit of Cyrus King of Persia, and he made a proclamation through all his kingdome, and also by writing, saying,

23 Thus saith Cyrus King of Persia, All the king- domes of the earth hath the Lord God of heauen given me; and he hath charged me to build him an house in Jerusalem, that is in Judah. Who is among you of all his people, with whom the Lord his God is? let him goe vp.
Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, [made...; Heb. caused a voice to pass]

2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

4 And whosoever is left, in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, with gold, and with goods, and with precious things, and with cattell, and with precious thinges, beside the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, told the priests, and the Levites, even all whose spirit God had stirred to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all they that were round about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things.
besides all that was willingly offered.

7 Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his god.

8 Euen them did Cyrus King of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and counted them vnto Sheshbazzar the Prince of Iudah.

9 And this is the number of them, thirtie basins of golde, a thousand basins of siluer, nine and twentie knifes,

10 Thirty busses of gold, and of siluer busses of the second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of golde and siluer were five thousand and foure hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

Now these are the children of the province that went vp out of the captivity, of those which had been carried away unto Babylon, and came again unto Jerusalem and Judah, every one unto his city; things, beside all that was willingly offered.

7 Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, silver chargers of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up out of Babylon unto Jerusalem.

Now these are the children of the province, that went vp out of the captivity, of those which had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon, and that returned unto Jerusalem and Judah, every one unto his city;

And when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem.

2 Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God. {Jeshua: also called, Joshua} {Zerubbabel: Gr. | carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea, unto Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia. |
| 8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD. |
| 9 Then stood Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set the oversight of the work of the house of the LORD. |
| 10 And when the builders layed the foundation of the Temple of the Lord, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the order of David king of Israel. |
| 11 And they sang one to another in praising and giving thanks unto the Lord, saying, For he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And | 11 And they sang one to another in praising and giving thanks unto the Lord, saying, For he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And | 11 And they sang one to another in praising and giving thanks unto the Lord, saying, For he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And | after the ordinance of David King of Israel.

11 Thus they sang when they gave prays, and when they gave thankes vnnto the Lord, For he is good, for his mercie endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shoute, when they praysed the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was layed.

12 Many also of the Priests and the Leuites and the chiefe of the fathers, ancient men which had seen the first house, (when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes) wept with a loud voyce, and many shouted aloud for joy.

13 So that the people coulde not discerne the sound of the shoute for ioy, from the noyse of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud crie, and the noyse was heard farre off.

Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard, that the children of the captiuitie builded the Temple vnto the Lord God of Israel.
2 And they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of fathers, and sayd vnto them, We wil builde with you: for we seeke the Lord your God as ye do, and we haue sacrificed vnto him since the time of Esar Had- don king of Asshur, which brought vs vp hither.

3 Then Zerubbabel, and Ieshua, and the rest of the chief fathers of Israel, sayde vnto them, It is not for you, but for vs to buylde the house vnto our God: for we our selues together will buylde it vnto the Lord God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded vs.

4 Wherefore the people of the land discouraged the people of Iudah, and troubled them in buyldeing,

5 And they hired counsellors against them, to hinder their devise, all the dayes of Cyrus king of Persia, even vntill the reigne of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reigne of Ahashuerosh (in the beginning of his reigne) wrote they an accusation against the inhabitants of Iudah and Jerusalem.

7 And in the daies of Artahshashte, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions wrote when it was peace, vnto Artahshashte king of Persia, and the writing of the letter was the Aramites writing, and the thing declared was in the language of the Aramites.

8 Rehum the chancelour, and Shimshai the scribe moved against them.

of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building.

5 And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, "We are building the house, and the thing declared was in the language of the Aramites."

8 Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

10 And they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of fathers, and sayd vnto them, We wil builde with you: for we seeke the Lord your God as ye do, and we haue sacrificed vnto him since the time of Esar Had-don king of Asshur, which brought vs vp hither.

14 Rehum the chancelour, and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

15 then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dinaites, and the Aphansathchites, the Tarpeilites, the Aphansites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Shushanchites, the Dehaits, the Elamites, wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the King, in this sort.

9 Then wrote Rehum the chauncelour, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions Dinaie, and Apharsathcie, Tarpeia, Apharsia, Archeuaie, Bablaie, and Shushanchaie, Dehauie, Elmaie, noble Asnappar brought ouer, and set in the cities of Samaria, and other that are beyonde the River and Cheeneth.

11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent vnto King Artashashte, THY SERVANTS the men beyond the River and Cheeneth, salute thee.

13 Be it knowne nowe vnto the King, that if this citie be built, they will not giue tolle, tribute, nor custome: so shalt thou hinder the Kings tribute.

14 Nowe therefore because wee haue bene brought vp in the Kings palace, it was not meete for vs to see the kings dishonour, there for we haue sent and certified the king;

12 Be it known unto the king, that ye Iewes, which came vp from thee to vs, are come vnto Jerusalem, (a citie rebellious and wicked) and byulde, and lay the foundations of the walles, and haue ioyned the foundations.

13 Be it knowne nowe vnto the King, that if this citie be built, and the foundations of the walles layed, they will not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the revenue of the kings.

13 Be it knowne nowe vnto the King, that if this citie be builded, and the foundations of the walles set up again, then will they not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the revenue of the kings.

14 Nowe therefore because we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not meet for us to see the king’s dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king:

16 We certify the king that, if this city be builded, and the walls finished, by this means thou shalt have no portion beyond the river.

17 Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions: Chaldee, societies

10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asnappar brought ouer, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, and at such a time.

11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent vnto Artaxerxes the king; Thy servants the men beyond the river, and so forth.

12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee are come unto Jerusalem, they are building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the walls thereof, and joined the foundations. {set: Chaldee, sewed together}

13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be built, and the walls set up again, then will they not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the revenue of the kings.

That one may search in the book of the Chronicles of thy fathers, and thou shalt finde in the book of the Chronicles, and perceiue that this citie is rebellious and noysome vnto Kings and provincies, and that they haue moued sedition of olde time, for the which cause this citie was destroyed.

Wee certifie the King therefore, that if this citie be buylded, and the foundation of the walles layd, by this meanes the portion beyonde the Riuer shall not be thine.

The King sent an answere vnto Rehum the Chauncelour, and Shimshai the Scribe, and so the rest of their companions that dwelt in Samaria, and in the rest of the country beyond the river, Peace, and so forth.

The letter which yee sent vnto vs, hath bene openly read before me,

And I haue commanded and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all the country beyond the river; and tribute, custom, and toll, was paid unto them.

Make ye now a decree to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until a decree shall be made by me.

And take heed that ye be not slack herein: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

Then when the copy of king Artaxerxes’ letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power.

Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem; and it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Thus; Unto Darius the king, they sent a letter wherein was written beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.

The copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the river, and Shethar-bonzenai, and his companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem vnto the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power.

Then the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the sonne of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, even vnto them.

Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem; in the name of the God of Israel prophesied they unto them.

2 Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God, helping them.

3 At the same time came to them Tattenai, the governor beyond the river, and Shethar-bonzenai, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

4 Then spake we unto them after this manner, What is the eye of your God upon the elders of Judah, and upon Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, euen vnto them.

5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of Judah, and upon Jerusalem, and they did not make them cease, till another commandment should be given from me. {Give...: Chaldee, by arm and power} 6 The copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the river, and Shethar-bozenai, and his companions, were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel prophesied they unto them.

7 Then Haggai a Prophet and Zechariah the sonne of Iddo, prophesied vnto the Iewes that were in Jerusalem, and did stay vnto the second yeere of Darius King of Persia.

8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the other commandment.

22 Take heede nowe that ye fayle not to doe this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

23 When the copie of king Artahshashtes letter was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went vp in all the haste to Jerusalem vnto the Iewes, and caused them to cease by force and power.

24 Then ceased the worke of the house of God, which was in Jerusalem, and did stay vnto the second yeere of Darius King of Persia.

Then Haggai a Prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo a Prophet prophecied vnto the Iewes that were in Judah, and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, euen vnto them.
2 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Ioزادak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

3 At the same time came to them Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shether-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, Who hath com manded you to build this house, and to make up this wall?

4 Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building? We asked them their names also, to certify thee, and to finish this wall?

5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they an swered by letters thereof.

6 The copy of the letter, that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shether-boznai, and their companions, and the APharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king:

7 They sent a letter vnto him, wherein it was written thus, VNTO DARIVS the king, all peace.

8 Be it known vnto the King, that we went into the walls, and this worke is wrought speedily, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who gave you commandement to build this house, and to make up this wall?

10 We asked them their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were at the head of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and finished.

12 But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree to build this house of God.

14 And the gold and sliver vessels also of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is builded with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth on with diligence.

15 And the gold and sliver vessels also of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and with them were the Prophetes of God, which helped them.

16 At the same time came to them Tatnai, which was captaine beyond the Rier, and Shether-boznai and their companions, and sayd thus vnto them, Who hath gien you commandement to buylde this house, and to lay the foundations of these walles?

17 Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God, which is at Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God helping them.
9 Then asked we those Elders, and sayd vnto them thus, Who hath giuen you commandement to byylde this house, and to lay the foundation of these walles? 10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were their rulers.

11 But they answered vs thus, and sayd, We are the seruants of the God of heauen and earth, and buylde the house that was buylt of olde and many yeeres ago, which a great King of Israel builded, and founded it.

12 But after that our fathers had prouoked the God of heauen vnto wrath, he gaue them ouer into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar King of Babel the Caldean, and he destroyed this house, and caried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the first yere of Cyrus King of Babylon, King Cyrus made a decree to buylde this house of God.

14 And the vessels also of golde and siluer of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered up of the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospects well in their hands.

9 Then asked we those Elders, and sayd vnto them thus, Who hath giuen you commandement to byylde this house, and to lay the foundation of these walles? 10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were their rulers.

14 And the vessels also of golde and siluer of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered up of the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospects well in their hands.
unto one, whose name was Sheshbazar, whom he had made governor; {governor: or, deputy}

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazar and laid the foundation of the house of God, which is in Jerusalem, and since that time even unto nowe, hath it bene in byulding, yet is it not finished.

17 Nowe therefore, if it please the King, let there be search made in the house of the Kings treasuries, which is there in Babel, whether a decree hath bene made by King Cyrus, to build this house of God in Jerusalem, and let the King send his minde concerning this.

Then King Darius gaue commandement, and they made search in the librarie of the treasures, which were there layd vp in Babel.

2 And there was founde in a coffer (in the palace that was in the province of the Medes) a volume, and therein was it thus written, as a memoriall, that was in the prouince of the Medes, a roll, and therein were layd vp in Babylon.

Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. {rolls: Chaldee, books} {laid up: or, in a coffer}

3 IN THE FIRST yeere of King Cyrus, King Cyrus was thus written for a record. {Achmetha: or, Ecbatana, is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written: {Achmetha: or, Ecbatana,}

2 And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of Media, a roll, and therein was a record thus written: (Achmetha: or, Ecbatana,)

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king, the same Cyrus made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

4 with three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house:

5 And also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to its place, and thou shalt put them in the house of God.

6 Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the river, Shethar-bozenai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence:

4 With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house:

5 And also let them render the vessels of the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God. (brought again: Chaldee, their societies)

6 Therefore Tatnai, captaine beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be restored, and brought again unto the temple that is in Jerusalem to his place, and put them in the house of God.

7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits,

8 Moreover I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute of Persia and Babylonia, be restored, and brought unto the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which was in Jerusalem, and brought vnto Babel) and let him goe vnto the Temple which is at Jerusalem, and put them in the house of God.

9 And that which they shall have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for burnt offerings to God, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail:

10 That they may offer sacrifices of sweet savour unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons.

11 Also I have made a decree, that whatsoever shall alter this word, let a beam be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and fastened thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this:

12 and the God that hath caused his name to dwell there overthrew all kings and peoples, that shall put forth their hand to alter the same, to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with all diligence.

13 Then Tattenai, the governor beyond the river; Shethar-boznai, and their companions, because that together: let the height thereof be three score cubites, and the breadth thereof three score cubites,

4 Three orders of great stones, and one order of timber, and let the expenses be giuen of the Kings house.

5 And also let them render the vessels of the house of God (of golde and siluer, which Nebuchadnezzar tooke oute of the Temple, which was in Jerusalem, and brought vunto Babel) and let goe vnto the Temple that is in Jerusalem to his place, and put them in the house of God.

6 Therefore Tatnai captaine beyond the Riuier, and Shethar Boznai, (and their companions Apharse caie, which are beyonde the Riuier) be ye farre from thence.

7 Suffer ye the worke of this house of God, that the capitaine of the Iewes and the Elders of the Iewes may byulde this house of God in his place.

8 For I haue giuen a commandement what ye shall doe to the Elders of these Iewes, for the byulding of this house of God, that of the reuenues of the King, which is of the tribute beyonde the Riuier, there be incontinently expenses giuen vnto these men that they cease not.

And they builded and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the decree of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. 15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

Dariush the king which is in Jerusalem; I Darius have made a decree, and according to the decree of Cyrus and Artaxerxes, and of Darius, let it be given them day by day without fail:
9 And that they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. (of sweet...: Chaldee, of rest) 10 That they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, wheate, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail:

I Darius have made a decree, let it be done with speede.
13 Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar Boznai and their companions, according to that which Darius had sent, so they did speedily.
14 So the Elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered by the prophecying of Haggai the Prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, and they builded and finished it, according to the appointment of the God of Israel, and by the commandement of Cyrus and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.
themselves together; all of them were pure: and they killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

21 And the children of Israel, which were come again out of the captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD, the God of Israel, did eat,

22 and kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.
And the children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated them-selves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, euen the God of Israel.

Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes King of Persia, was Ezra the sonne of Seraiah, the sonne of Azariah, the sonne of Hilkiah,

2 The sonne of Shallum, the sonne of Zadok, the sonne of Ahitub,

3 The sonne of Amariah, the sonne of Azariah, the sonne of Meraioth,

4 The sonne of Zeraiah, the sonne of Uzzi, the sonne of Bukki,

5 The sonne of Abishua, the sonne of Phinehas, the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

7 And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him.
10 For Ezra had set his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.
11 Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artahshashte gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a writer of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.
12 Artahshashte, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.
13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel had given, and the King gave him all his request according to the hande of the Lord his God which was vpon him.
14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of heaven, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.
15 and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meal offerings and their drink offerings, and shalt offer them upon the altar of the house of thy God which is in Jerusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, doe ye it according to the will of your God.

19 And the vessels that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem.

20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestowe, thou shalt bestowe it out of the Kings treasure house.

21 And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, to bestowe, bestow it out of the Kings treasure house.

22 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meal offerings and their drink offerings, and shalt offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

23 Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done with all diligence, 25 Whateover is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven; for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

Now these are the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogie of them that came vp with mee from Babel, in the reigne of King Artashashte.

2 Of the sonnes of Phinehas, Gershom: of the sonnes of Ithamar, Daniel: of the sonnes of David, Hattush.

3 Of the sonnes of Shecaniah, of the sonnes of Pharosh, Ithamar; Daniel: of the sonnes of David, Hattush.

2 Of the sonnes of Phinehas, Gershom: of the sonnes of Ithamar, Daniel: of the sonnes of David, Hattush:

3 Of the sonnes of Shecaniah, of the sonnes of Pharosh, Zechariah, and with him the count of the males, an hundred and fiftie.

4 Of the sonnes of Pahath Moab, Elihoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundreth males.

4 Of the sons of Shecaniah; of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah, and with him two hundred males.

5 Of the sons of Shecaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

5 Of the sons of Shecaniah, the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males.

6 And of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan; and with him fifty males.

7 And of the sons of Obadiah, the son of Jehiel; and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

8 And of the sons of Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah; and with him an hundred and threescore males.

9 Of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel; and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

10 And of the sons of Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah; and with him an hundred and threescore males.

11 And of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai; and with him twenty and eight males.

12 And of the sons of Azzad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan; and with him an hundred and ten males.
13 And of the sons of Adonikam, that were the last; and these are their names, Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males.
14 And of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud; and with them seventy males.
15 And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there we encamped three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi. (abode: or, pitched)

11 And of the sons of Iddo, and his brethren the Nethinim, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elianathan, and for Jarib, and for Elphanan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshulam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elchanan, which were teachers.

17 And I sent them forth unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia; and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and his brethren the Nethinim, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

18 And according to the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen; 19 and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshiaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty; 20 and of the Nethinim, whom David and the 16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elkanah, and for Elnathan, and for Zerahiah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elam, men of understanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place of Casiphia, that they should bring unto them the silver, and the golden vessels, even the offering for the house of our God.

18 And by the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahali, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherubiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen.

19 Also Hashabiah, and with him Ieshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty; 20 And of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had set, and had for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were named by name.

21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 And I was ashamed to require of the king a band of horsemen and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them that forsake him.

23 So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was entreated of us.

24 Then I separated twelve of the chiefs of the priests, even Sherubiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them;

25 and weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his princes, and all Israel there present, had offered: 26 I even weighed into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents; of gold an hundred talents; 27 and twenty bowls of gold, of a thousand darics; 28 and twenty bowls of silver, of a thousand darics; 29 and talents; of gold an hundred talents; 30 and of gold an hundred talents; 31 and of silver vessels an hundred talents of silver.
The hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the lying in the way: because we had spoken to the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them that seek him, but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the King an armie and horsemen, to helpe vs against the enemie in the way, because we had spoken to the King, saying, The hande of our God is vpon all them that seeke him in goodnesse, but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.

23 So we fasted, and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of vs.

24 Then I separated twelue of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, and Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed them the silver and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of ye house of our God, which the King, and his counsellors, and his Princes, and all Israel that were present, had offered:

26 And I weighed vnto their hand sixe hundreth and fiftie talents of silver, and fiftie talents of siluer, and in siluer vessel, an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents;

27 Also twenty basons of gold, of a thousand drammes, and two vessels of shining brass very good, and precious as golde.

28 And I said vnto them, Ye are consecrate vnto the LORD, and the vessels are consecrate, and the gold and the silver are a freewill offering unto the LORD; the vessels are holy also; and the silver and gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them:

and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the LORD; the vessels are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD, the God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them:

24 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Eleazar the son of Phinehas;

25 And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his princes, and all Israel that were present had offered;

26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and sixty and six talents of silver, and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents,

27 And twenty basins of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine bright brass, precious as gold.

28 And I said vnto them, Ye are consecrate vnto the LORD, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers. and the silver are freely offered unto the Lord God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them until ye weigh them before the chief priests and the Levites, and the chief fathers of Israel in Jerusalem in the chambers of the house of the Lord.

30 So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and of the gold, and of the vessels to bring them to Jerusalem, unto the house of our God.

31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem:

32 And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

33 Now on the fourth day was the silver weighed, and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jehu, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites;

34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at the same time.

35 Also the children of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin offering: all the weight was written at that time.

36 And they delivered the king’s commissions unto the king’s satraps, and to the governors beyond the river: and they furthered the people and the house of God.

The children of the captivity, which were come out of exile, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto the Lord.

And they delivered the king’s commissions unto the king’s satraps, and to the governors beyond the river: and they furthered the people and the house of God.
this was a burnt offering unto the LORD.

36 And they delivered the king’s commissions unto the king’s lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river: and they furthered the people, and the house of God.

Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abomi-nations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Per-izzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, and the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

and of my beard, and sat down astonied.

When as these things were done, the rulers came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the Priests, and the Levites are not separated from the people of the lands (as touching their abominations) to wit, of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Iebusites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonied.

4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trem-

And when I heard this saying, I rent my clothes and my garment, and plucked off the heare of mine head, and of my beard, and sate downe astonied.

5 And at the evening oblation I arose up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my mantle rent; and I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God;

And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God, {heaviness: or, affliction}

And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for we have forsaken thy commandments, as it is this day.

And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments,

8 And now a little moment grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, in causing a remnant to be left, and to set up the house of our God, and to repair the ruins thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

9 For we are bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a little reviving to set up the house of our God, and to repair the ruins thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness.

11 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness.

7 Since the days of our fathers we have been exceeding guilty unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for a little moment grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. {space: Heb. moment} {a nail: or, a pin: that is, a constant and sure abode}

9 For we were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us life, and to erect the house of our God, and to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness.
12 now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this;

14 Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor any escaping?

15 O LORD, the God of Israel, thou art righteous; for we are left a remnant that is escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our guiltiness; for none can stand before thee because of this.
Now while Ezra prayed, and made confession, weeping, and casting himself down before the house of God, there was gathered together unto him out of all Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very sore. Whiles Ezra prayed thus, and confessed himself weeping, and falling downe before the house of God, there assembled vnto him of Israel a very great Congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept with a great lamentation.

2 Then shechaniah the sonne of Iehiel one of the sons of Elam answered, and sayd to Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wifes of the people of the land, yet nowe there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let vs make a couenant with our God, to put away all the wives, and such as are borne of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law. (to put...: Heb. to bring forth)

4 Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be of comfort and do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chiefe Priestes, the Leuites, and all Israel, to sweare that they would do according to this word. So they sweared.

6 Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the trespass of them of the captivity.

7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and it was published throughout all the congregation of Israel, the wifes of the people of the land, that they should cleanse themselves from their captivity.

8 And all the congregation gathered themselves together as one man, to make covenant with the Lord, the God of their fathers, and with his priests, and with Zechariah the priest, king's son: and they joyed exceedingly.

9 Then read Ezra in the book of the law of God, and of the commandement, and of the statutes and ordnances, before the congregation, before the men, and women, and all that could hear with understanding; and they made a covenant to worship the Lord, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies with their spirits and with their souls.

10 And Ezra laid hands on all them for this good work: and so they let all his words stand.

11 And the Levites taught all Israel, and the priests spake, and said, The Lord God of Israel appointed the priests, and the Levites in the matter of his Levitical officers, and of music in the house of the Lord for Israel, according to the counsel of Moses the man of God, and the Levites by the hand of his brother Eleazar, and the chief of the fathers of the fathers, and of all their brethren the heads of their fathers' houses. As for the Levites, they studied in the light of understanding, and taught the people knowledge and wisdom; and the Levites stirred up all Israel with knowledge and wisdom.

12 And there was war against the people of the land: for the people wept very sore. {wept...: Heb.}

13 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Benjamin, and called the people to Jerusalem that they might come and keep the feast of the passover unto the Lord God of their fathers, and so they did.

14 And there gathered themselves unto Jerusalem three hundred and ninety and five thousand of the people, of Israel, of the captivity, that had escaped the captivity, and they dwelt there for three days. And the Levites and the priests praised the Lord God of Israel with a great voice.

15 O LORD God of Israel, thou art righteous: for we have trespassed against thee, and have taken strange wifes, and such as are borne of them: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.
5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they should do according to this word. And they swore.

6 And Ezra rose vp from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Iohanan the sonne of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drunke water: for he mourned, because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem; and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should assemble themselves vnto Jerusalem.

8 And whosoeuer would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the Princes and Elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and he should be separate from the Congregation of them of the captivity.

9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembl'd theseles vs vnto Jerusalem within three days, which was the twentieth day of the ninth moneth, and all the people sate in the streete of the house of God, trembling for this matter, and for the raine.

10 And Ezra the Priest stoode vp, and said vnto them, Ye haue trespassed, and haue taken strange wiues, to increase the trespass of Israel. {have taken: Heb. transgressed}

11 Now therefore giue praise vnto the Lord God of your fathers, and do his will, and separate your selues from the strange women.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, as thou hast said concerning us, so must we do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we have greatly doe according to this worde. So they swere.

14 And Ezra rose vp from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Iohanan the sonne of Eliashib: he went euen thither, but he did eate no bread, nor drunke water: for he mourned, because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

15 And when he came thither, he did eat no bread, neither bread, nor drunke water: for he mourned, because of the great rain.

16 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within the three days; it was the ninth moneth, on the twentieth day of the month: and all the people sat in the broad place before the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the raine.

17 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem, to increase the guilt of Israel.

18 They made proclamation unto all the children of the captivity, that they should assemble themselves vnto Jerusalem.
11 Now therefore make confession unto the LORD, and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many that have offended in this thing.

14 Let our rulers stand therefore before all the congregation, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities, come at the time appointed, and sate downe in the first day of the tenth moneth to examine the matter.

15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahziah the sonne of Tikuah ouer this matter, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Leuites helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the month.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had transgressed in this thing. {were...: Heb. stood}

The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah. Now it came to pass in the month Chislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, 2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. 3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province, are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire. 4 And when I heard these words, I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven, 5 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments: 6 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor thy commandments, which I pray before thee at this time, which I pray before thee now, day and night for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee, yea, I and my father’s house have sinned.

And for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king’s letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 But Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, and it grieved them sore, that there was come a man which sought the wealth of the children of Israel.

11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three

12 And I rose in the night, I, and a few men with me: for I told no man, what God had put in mine heart to do at Jerusalem, and there was not a beast with me, save the beast whereon I rode.

13 And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king’s pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and so returned.

And the rulers knew not whither I was gone, nor what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that laboured in the work.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial in Jerusalem.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant an Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian heard it, they mocked us and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?

20 Then answered I them, and said to them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

But when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, then was he wroth and sore grieued, and mocked the Iewes, 2 And sayde before his brethren and the armie of Samaria, thus he sayde, What doe these weake Iewes? wil they fortifie them selues? wil they sacri fice? will they finish it in a day? will they make the stones whole againe out of the heapes of dust, seeing they are burnt?

merchants, over against the gate of Hammipkhd, and to the ascent of the corner.
32 And between the ascent of the corner and the sheep gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

But it came to pass that, when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.
2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feele Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, seeing they are burned?
3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall break down their stone wall.

Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn back their reproach upon their own head, and give them up to spoil in a land of captivity:
5 and cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.
6 So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto half the height thereof: for the people had a mind to work.
4 Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity; {despised: Heb. de-spite}

And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

Therefore set I in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, In the open places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

And it came to pass that, when the Jews which dwelt beside them) came, they told us ten times, From all places whence the people had a mind to work.

But it came to pass that, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth;

The we prayed unto our God, and set watchmen by them, day and night, because of them.

Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come into the midst of them, and cause the work to cease.

And conspired all together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it.

And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which has made heaven and earth.

And we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

But when the Iews (which dwelt beside them) came, they told vs ten times, From all places whence the people had a mind to work.

And it came to pass that, when the Jews which dwelt beside them) came, they told us ten times, From all places whence the people had a mind to work.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me, \{by his side: Heb. on his loins\}

19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us.

21 So we laboured in the work, and halfe of them held the speares, from the appearing of the morning, till the stars came forth.

22 And at the same time said I vnto the people, Let euery one with his seruant lodge within Ierusalem, that they may be a watch for vs in the night, and labour in the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my seruants, nor the men of the warde, (which followed me) none of vs did put off our clothes, saue euery one put them off for washing.

21 So we wrought in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing. {saving...: or, every one went with...}
Then there arose a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that said, We, our sons and our daughters, are many: let us get corn, that we may eat and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king’s tribute upon our lands and our vineyards.

5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, and our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and there be of our daughters now in subjection, and there is no power in our hand to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

7 Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the princes, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I held a great assembly against them. {I consulted...: Heb. my heart consulted in me}

8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and would ye even sell your brethren the Jews, which were sold to the heathen? and would ye exact usury of your brethren Hebrew - WTT

WHOEVER IS HUNGRY MAY GIVE THEM A SHARE OF THE MEAL: (NEHEMIAH 5:10)
8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of our enemies?

10 And I likewise, my brethren, and my servants, do not lend them money and corn on usury. I pray you, let us leave off this usury.

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their fields, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore it, and will not require anything of them. So will we do, even as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

13 So I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that they should do according to this promise.
Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.

But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver: yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

Neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

Moreover there were at my table an hundred and fifteen of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came thither together unto the work.

But rather I fortified a portion in the work of this wall, and we bought no lande, and all my seruants were not I, because of the fear of God.

And when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and all that I have done for this people.

Remember unto me, O my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

And when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had gathered thither unto the work.

Moreover there were at my table an hundred and fifty men, beside those that came thither together unto the work.

Now that which was prepared for me daily was an ox, and six choice sheep: also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine.

Now it came to pass, when it was reported to Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and unto the rest of our enemies, that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though the heathen, that are about us.

things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all would have made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

12 And I discerned, and, lo, God had not sent him: but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 Remember, O my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and Noadiah the prophetess also, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15 Notwithstanding the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.
16 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

17 Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them. {sent...: Heb. multiplied their letters}

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shecaniah the son of Arach; and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah, and his son Iehonathan had taken the daughter of Arah; and his son Jehonathan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear. {words: or, matters}

20 Also they spake of his good deeds before me, and told me his words: and Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed,

2 Then I commanded my brother Hanani and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand on guard, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar ye them: and Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand on guard, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and 16 And when all our enemies heard thereof, even all the heathen that were about vs, they were afraid, and their courage failed them: for they knew, that this worke was wrought by our God.

17 And in these days were there many of the princes of Judah, whose letters went vnto Tobiah, and those of Tobiah came vnto them.

18 For there were many in Judah, that were sworne vnto him: for he was the sonne in lawe of Shecaniah the sonne of Ieconiah, the sonne of Iehonathan had the daughter of Meshullam, the sonne of Berechiah.

19 Yea, they spake in his praise before me, and tolde me his wordes, and Tobiah sent letters to put me in feare.

Nowe when the wall was builded, and I had set vp the doors, and the porters, and the singers and the Leuites were appointed,

2 Then I commanded my brother Hanani and Hananiah the prince of the palace in Jerusalem (for he was doubtlesse a faithfull man, and feared God above many)

3 And I saide vnto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened, vntill the heate of the sunne:

Now it came to pass, when the wall was builded, and I had set vp the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Leuites were appointed,

And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate; and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

2 And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first bar of the seventh month. {that...: Heb. that understood in hearing}
3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law. {from...: Heb. from the light}

4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Uriah, and Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, on his left hand; and on his left hand, Pedahiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam. {pulpit...: Heb. tower of wood}

5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up: {sight: Heb. eyes}

6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting vp their hands: and they bowed themselves, and worshipped the Lord with their faces toward the ground.

7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites,

8 And they read in the book of the law of God distinctly, and gaue the sense, and caused them to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.

9 And Nehemiah, which was the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For the watergate (from the morning vntill the midday) before men and women, and them that vnderstooode it, and the eares of all the people hearkened vnto the booke of the Lawe.

10 And Ezra prayed the Lord the great God, and all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting vp their hands: and they bowed themselves, and worshipped the Lord with their faces toward the ground.

11 And Ezra opened the booke before all the people; for hee was aboue all the people: and when he opened it, all the people stood vp.

13 And Nehemiah, which was the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Uriah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedahiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

14 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up: {sight: Heb. eyes}

15 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting vp their hands: and they bowed themselves, and worshipped the Lord with their faces toward the ground.

16 And Ezra opened the booke before all the people; for he was above all the people: and when he opened it, all the people stood vp.

17 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting vp their hands: and they bowed themselves, and worshipped the Lord with their faces toward the ground.

18 And they read in the book of the Lawe of God distinctly, and gaue the sense, and caused them to understand; and the ears of all the people were atten dent unto the book of the law. {from...: Heb. from the light} all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorrow, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.

11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 And on the second day were gathered together the heads of fathers’ houses of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to give attention to the words of the law.

14 And they found written in the law, how that the Lord had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month:
and worshipped the LORD their God.

of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and made themselves booths, as it is written.

So the people went forth, and brought them, and made them booths, and went in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and wrote.

So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

And all the congregation of them that were come againe out of the captiuitie made booths, and sate vnder the bootes: for since the days of Jeshua the sonne of Nun vnto this day, had not the children of Israel done so, and there was very great ioy.

And he read in the booke of the Lawe of God euery day, from the first day vnto the last day: and they kept the feast seuen dayes, and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly according vnto the maner.

Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and 18 Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

17 And all the Congregation of them that were come againe out of the captiuitie made booths, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

And there was very great gladness.

16 So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water-gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

In the foure and twentieth day of this moneth the children of Israel sould dwell in booths in the feast of the seuenth moneth, being to declare, and to praise, and to make glad, all the children of Israel.

Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so, and there was very great ioy.

18 Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day. And there was very great gladness.

17 And all the Congregation of them that were come againe out of the captiuitie made booths, and sate under booths: for since the days of Jeshua the sonne of Nun vnto this day, had not the children of Israel done so, and there was very great ioy.

16 So the people went forth, and brought them, and made them booths, euerie one upon the roof of his house, and in their courtes, and in the courtes of the house of God, and in the streete by the water gate, and in the streete of the gate of Ephraim.

15 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth vnto the mount, and bring olie branches, and pine branches, and branches of thick trees, to make bootes, as it is written.

14 Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the lawe of God. And they kept the feast seuen dayes, and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly according unto the manner.

10 And shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against his name, as it is this day.

11 For thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on dry land; and those that pursued them, hast thou cast into the depths, as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover thou leadest them in the day by a pillar of cloud, and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way that they went.

13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them judgments and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, and spakest vnto them from heauen, and gauest them right iudgements, and true lawes, ordinances and good commandements,

15 and gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and commandedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst lifted up thine hand to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their neck, and hearkened not to thy commandments,
And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rocke for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them. {which: Heb. which thou hadst lifted up thine hand to give them}

But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments.

And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not. {a God...: Heb. a God of pardons}

And gavest them water for their thirst. and promisedst them that they should go in, and take possession of the land: for which thou haddest lift vp thine hand for to give them.

Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and waxed not old, and their feet swelled not. and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and forbearst not thy rocke for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in, and possess the land which thou swarest to give them.

Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsokest them not. {a God...: Heb. a God of pardons}

But thou in thy manifold mercies forsokest them not, and in thy compassion forsookest them not. {a God...: Heb. a God of pardons}

And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their heads to returne to their bondage by their rebellion: but thou, O God of mercies, gracious and full of compassion, of long suffering and of great mercie, yet forsookest them not.

Moreover, when they made them a molten calfe (and said, This is thy God that brought thee vp out of Egypt, and had wrought great blaspheemies, and committed great blaspheemies, and said, This is thy God that brought thee vp out of Egypt) and committed great blaspheemies, and committed great blaspheemies; and said, This is thy God that brought thee vp out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations; and said, This is thy God that brought thee vp out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations; and said, This is thy God that brought thee vp out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations; and said, This is thy God that brought thee vp out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations; and said, This is thy God that brought thee vp out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations; and said, This is thy God that brought thee vp out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations; and said, This is thy God that brought thee vp out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations.

Yet thou for thy great mercies forsokest them not. {a God...: Heb. a God of pardons}

And for thy great mercies forsookest them not, and in thy compassion forsookest them not. {a God...: Heb. a God of pardons}

And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their neck, and hearkened not to thy commandments, the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the pillar of cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud parted not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and wherewithal they were not disciplined for their stubbornness, neither didst thou forsake any city of the land that they desired.

And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and hearkened not vnto thy commandements, neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, nor from over them by day, to lead them in the way; not in the wilderness: the pillar of cloud departed not from over them by day, to lead them in the way, neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way whereby they should go.

23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou didst promise to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would. (as they...)

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them again unto thee, and they wrought great provocations.

27 Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their adversaries, who distressed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou hearest from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours who saved them out of the hand of their adversaries.
28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies; and protestedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. {withdrew...: Heb. they gave a withdrawing shoulder}
30 Yet many years didst thou bear with them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of their enemies, and lettest them be oppressed: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou deliveredst them according to thy great mercies many times,
31 Nevertheless in thy manifold mercies thou didst not make a full end of them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.
32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the travail seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers; and on all thy people, since the time of the 33 Howbeit thou art just in all that is come upon us; for thou hast dealt truly, but we have done wickedly:

34 neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

36 Behold, we are servants this day, and as for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it.
37 And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have power over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.
38 And yet for all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, our Levites, and our priests, seal unto it.
Then all the elders of Israel shall take possessions of the land, and divide it; and ye shall receive every man his inheritance, according to the阄

23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even unti the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

And the chiefs of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherubiah, and Jeshua the sonne of Kadmiel, and in the days of Nehe-} in the watches.

And in the days of Joia kim were priests, the chief fathers of the: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremia, Hananiah, 19 And of Joiarib, Mattenai, vnder Iedaiah, Vzzi, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priest, in the reign of Darius the Persian.
22 In the dayes of Eliashib, Ioiada, and Iohanan and Johanan the sonne of Eliashib, and in the days of Joiakim the governor, and of Ezra the priest the scribe.
23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even unti the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.
24 And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over against ward.

25 Mattaniah, and Babbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the thresholds of the gates. {thresholds: or, treasuries, or, assemblies}

26 These were in the days of Joiakim, the sonne of Ieshua, the sonne of Iozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the captaine, and of Ezra the Priest and scribe.

27 And in the dedication of the wall at Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication and gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with songs, cymbales, psalteries, and with harpes.

28 Then the singers gathered themselves together both from the plaine countrey about Jerusalem, and classed the people, and the gates, and the wall.

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had built them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the Priests and Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought vp the princes of Iudah vpon the wall, and appointed two great companies that gave thanks, and the one went on the right hand of the wall, and appointed two great companies to giue

thanks, and the one went on the right hand of the wall.

32 And after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah,

33 and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,

34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,

35 and certain of the priests’ sons with trumpets:

43 And they offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy; and the women also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David and Asaph, of old there was a chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, as every day required: and they sanctified for the Levites; and the Levites sanctified for the sons of Aaron.
47 And in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah did all Israel give portions unto the singers and porters, euery day his portion, and they gave the holy things vnto the Leuites, and the Leuites gaue the holy things vnto the sonsnes of Aaron.

46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

45 And before this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, being allied unto Tobiah, 44 and the heave offerings for the priests.

43 Andment to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; every day his portion: and they sanctified them unto the children of Aaron. {sanctified: that is, set apart}

42 But in all this time I was not at Jerusalem: for before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was pointed over the chambers of the house of our God, being allied unto Tobiah, 41 that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

40 And on that day did they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and it was found written therein, that the Ammonite, and the Moabite should not enter into the Congregation of God,

39 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

38 Now when they had heard the Lawe, they sepa rated from Israel all those that were mixed.

37 And it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

36 And now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

35 And before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, being allied unto Tobiah,

34 But in all this time I was not at Jerusalem: for before this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, being allied unto Tobiah,

33 And it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

32 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

31 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

30 And in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah did all Israel give portions unto the singers and porters, euery day his portion, and they gave the holy things vnto the Leuites, and the Leuites gaue the holy things vnto the sonsnes of Aaron.

And on that day did they reade in the booke of Moses, in the audience of the people, and it was found written therein, that the Ammonite, and the Moabite should not enter into the Congregation of God,
In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine and the oil unto the treasuries.

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in that hee had made him a chamber in the court of the house of God, and that euery one was fled to his lande, euen the Leuites and singers that executed the worke.

8 And it grieued me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 And I commanded them to clense ye chambers: and thither brought I againe the vessels of the house of our God, with the meat offring and the incense.

10 And I perceived that the portions of the Leuites had not bene giuen: and that euery one was fled to his field.

11 Then reproued I the rulers and sayd, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I assembled them, and set them in their place.

12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Leuites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests. {which...: Heb. the commandment of the Leuites}

13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their business was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the observances thereof.

15 In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine and the oil unto the treasuries, the meat offerings and the incense.

16 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth yere of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I vnto the King, and after certaine dayes I obtained of the king. {after...: Heb. at the end of days} {obtained...: or, I earnestly requested}

17 And when I was come to Jerusalem, I vnderstood of the commandment of the Levites, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests. {which...: or, I earnestly requested}

18 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the cham.

19 In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine and the oil unto the treasuries, and of oyle (appointed for the Leuites, and the singers, and the porters) and the offerings of the Priests.
11 Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place. {place: Heb. standing}

12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and new wine and the oil unto the treasuries. {treasuries: or, storehouses}

13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah, and under their hande Hanan the sonne of Zaccur, the sonne of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribu-ute vnto their brethren.

14 Remember me, O my God, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have shewed on the house of my God, and on the offices thereof. {good deeds: or, observations}

15 In those days saw I in Judah them, that trode the sabbath unto the children of Judah euen in Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day that they sold vitcailes.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish and all wares, and solde on the Sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

17 Then reprooued I the rulers of Iudah, and sayd to them, What evil thing is this that yee doe, and bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath day.

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this plague vpon vs, and vpon this citie? yet yee do yee this, and wil not heare.

19 And it came to pass that, when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I over the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath:

and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

23 In those days also I saw the Jews that had married women of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, and according to the language of the one people, and of the other people.

25 And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters for yourselves.

26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, and he was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did strange women cause to sin.

27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to trespass against our God in marrying strange women?

Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath. {about: Heb. before}

22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy. {greatness:

increase the wrath upon Israel, in breaking the Sabbath.

19 And when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded to shut the gates, and charged, that they should not be opened til after the Sabbath, and some of my servaunts set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the Sabbath day.

20 So the chapmen and marchants of al marchandise remained once or twice all night without Jerusalem.

21 Then I testified among them, and said unto them, Why tary ye all night about the wall? If ye do it once again, I will lay hands upon you. From that time came they no more on the Sabbath.

22 And I said unto the Levites, that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keepe the gates, to sanctifie the Sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and pardon me according to thy great mercy.

23 In those days also I saw the Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

24 And their children spake halfe in ye speach of Ashdod, and could not speake in the Jews language, and according to the language of the one people, and of the other people.
25 Then I reproved them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and pulled off their hair, and took an oath of them by God, ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor shall ye take of their daughters unto your sons, nor for your selues.

26 Did not Salomon the king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no King like him: for he was beloved of his God, and God had made him King over Israel: yet strange women caused him to sin.

27 Shall we then obey unto you, to doe all this great evil, and to transgresse against our God, euene to marry strange wiues?

28 And one of the sonnes of Ioiada the sonne of Eliashib the hie Priest was the sonne in law of Sanballat the Horonite: but I chased him from me.

29 Remember them, O my God, that defile the Priesthoode, and the covenant of the Priesthoode, and of the Leuites.

30 Then cleansed I them from all strangers, and appoynted the wardes of the Priestes and of the Leuites, euery one in his office,

31 And for the offring of the wood at times ap cpoyned, and for the first fruites. Remember me, O my God, in goodnes.

23 In those days also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab: {had...: Heb. had made to dwell with them}

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language. {could...: Heb. of people and people}

25 And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take of their daughters unto your sons, nor for yourselves. {cursed: or, reviled}

26 Did not Solomon the king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no King like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wiues?

28 And one of the sons of Ioiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son in law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me.

29 Remember them, O my God, that defile the Priesthoode, and the covenant of the Priesthoode, and of the Leuites.

30 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appoynted the wardes of the Priestes and of the Leuites, euery one in his office, 31 And for the offring of the wood at times appoynted, and for the first fruites. Remember me, O my God, in goodnes.

29 Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites. {because...: Heb. for the defilings}

30 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business;

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man’s pleasure.

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that ministered in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, {chamberlains: or, eunuches} to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on.

11 To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, that he might shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on.

12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king’s commandment by the chamberlains: therefore the king was very angry, and his anger burned in him.

13 Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the law and the judgment: {by his...: Heb. which was by the hand of his eunuchs} what shall we do vnto the Queene Vashti ac

15 What shall we do vnto the Queene Vashti ac
the word of the King Ahasuerus by the commission of the eunuch? 16 Then Memucan answered before the King and the Princes, The Queen Vashti hath not only done evil against the King, but against all the princes, and against all the people that are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

17 For the acte of the Queen shall come abroad vnto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their owne eyes, and shall say, The King Ahasuerus comanded Vashti the Queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 So shall the princesses of Persia and Media this day say vnto all the Kings Princes, when they heare of the acte of the Queene: thus shall there be much despitefulness and wrath.

19 If it please the King, let a royal decree proceede from him, and let it be written among the statutes of Persia, and Media, (and let it not be transgressed) that Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus: and let the King giue her royal estate vnto her companion that is better then she.

20 And when the decree of the King which he shall make shall be published throughout all his kingdom (though it be great) all the women shall giue their husbands honour, both great and small.

15 What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not done the bidding of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains? 16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king’s princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, that Vashti come no more before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she.

21 And this saying pleased the King and the princes, and the King did according to the words of Memucan.

22 For he sent letters into all the provinces of the King, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that he should publish it in the language of that same people.

After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.
2 Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hegai the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them: {unto the...:

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And this pleased the King, and he did so.

5 Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite;

6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar he king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maiden was fair and beautiful: and when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took her for his own daughter. {brought...: Heb. nourished}

8 So it came to pass, when the king's commandment, and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was taken into the king's house: and he removed her and her maids to the best place of the house of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with her portions, and the seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the house of the women, vnder the hand of Hegie the kings eunuche, keeper of the women, to give them their things for purification.

10 Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it.
8 So it came to pass, when the king’s commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king’s house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained favour in his sight: therefore he caused her things for purification to be given her speedily, and he state, and seven comely maidens to be giver her out of the Kings house, and he gave change to her and to her maides of the best in the house of the women.

10 But Esther shewed not her people and her kinred: for Mordecai had charged her, that shee should not shew it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the womens house, to knowe if Ester did well, and what should be done with her.

12 And when the course of euery mayd came, to go in to King Ahashuerosh, after that she had bene twelue moneths according to the maner of the women (for so were the dayes of their purifications accomplished, sixe moneths with oyle of myrrhe, and sixe moneths with sweete odours and in the purifying of the women:)

13 And thus went the maides vnto the King) what should become of her.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king’s chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king’s chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.
14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women under the hand of Shaashgaz the Kings eunuche, which kept the concubines: she came in to the King no more, except she pleased the King, and that she were called by name.

15 Now when the course of Ester the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai (which had taken her as his owne daughter) came, that she should go in to the King, she desired nothing, but what Hege the Kings eunuche the keeper of the women sayde: and Ester founde fauour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Ester was taken vnto King Ahasuerus into his house royall in the tenth moneth, which is the moneth Tebeth, in the seuenth yeere of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the crowne of the kingdome vpon her head, and made her Queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the King made a great feast vnto all his princes, and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the bounty of a King.

After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed down, and did reverence to Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not down, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not down, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto Haman, yet he would not heare them: therefore they tolde Haman, that they might see how Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had tolde them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

8 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from those of every people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those that have the charge of the king's business, to bring it into the king's treasur.

10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews adversary. {enemy: or, oppressor}

And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

Then were the kings scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the kings lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the kings ring. {scribes: or, secretaries}

And the letters were sent by postes into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

A copy of the writing, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published unto all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day.

The posts went forth in haste by the king's commandment, and the decree was given out in Shushan the palace: and the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.
13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.
14 The copy of the writing was, that there should be given a commandment in all provinces, and published unto all people, that they should be ready against the same day.
15 And the posts compelled by the Kings commandment went forth, and the commandment was given in the palace at Shushan: and the King and Haman sate drinking, but the citie of Shushan was in perplexitie.

Now when Mordecai knew all that was done, Morde-cai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry:
2 And he came even before the king's gate, but he might not enter within the Kings gate, being clothed with sackcloth.
3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

Now when Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordewent out into the midst of the city, and cried with a

3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping,

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her; and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him, for her people.

9 And Hathach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 Again Esther spake unto Hathach, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

11 All the king’s servants, and the people of the king’s provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law for him, that he be put to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esther’s words.

13 Then Mordecai bade them return answer unto Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king’s house, more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall deliverance arise to the Jews from another place, but thou and thy father’s house shall perish: and who knoweth whether thou and in ashes.

4 Then Esters maides and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king’s chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment vnto Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was. {appointed...: Heb. eunuchs}

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the streete of the citie, which was before the Kings gate.

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened at Shushan to destroy them, to shewe it vnto Ester and declare it vnto her, and of the summe of the siluer that Haman had promised to pay vnto the Kings treasuries, because of the Iewes, for to destroy them.

8 Also he gaue him the copy of the writing and commission that was giuen at Shushan, to destroy them, that he might shewe it vnto Ester and declare it vnto her, and to charge her that she should goe vnto the King, to make petition and supplication before him for her people.

9 So when Hatach came, he told Ester the wordes of Mordecai.

10 Then Ester sayde vnto Hatach, and commanded him to say vnto Mordecai, 11 All the kinges servants, and the people of the kinges provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come vnto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law for him, that he be put to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

Kings prouinces doe knowe, that whosoeuer, man he shall dye, except him to whom the King holdeth out the golden rodde, that he may liue. Now I haue

12 And they certified Mordecai of Esters wordes.
13 And Mordecai saide, that they should answere
Esther thus, Thinke not with thy selfe that thou shalt fort and deliuerance shall appeare to the Iewes out of 17 So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Ester had commanded him.

Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king’s house, over against the entrance of the house.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be given thee even to the half of the kingdom.

4 And Esther answered, If it please the King, let the King and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted.
8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said. {perform: Heb. do}

9 Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart; but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king’s gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was filled with wrath against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless Haman refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent, and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife. {called...: Heb. caused to come}

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared, saue me: and to morowe am I invited by her together with the king.

13 Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king’s gate.
Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

On that night could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus. {Bigthana: also called, Bigthan}

3 Then the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

4 And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman said in his heart,
5 And the kings servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the King sayd, Let him come in.

6 And when Haman came in, the King said vnto him, What shalbe done vnto ye man, whom the King will honour? Then Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the King do honour more then to me?

7 And Haman answered the King, The man whom the King would honour, 8 Let them bring for him royall apparell, which the King useth to wear, and the horse that the King rideth vpon, and that the crowne royall may be set vpon his head.

9 And let the raiment and the horse be deliuered to the hand of one of the Kinges most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the King delighteth to honour, and cause him to ride vpon horsebacke through the streete of the citie, and proclayme before him, Thus shall it be done vnto the man, whome the King will honour.

10 Then the King said to Haman, Make haste, take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and doe so vnto Mordecai the Iewe, that sitteth at the Kings gate: let nothing fayle of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and caused him to ride through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

12 And Mordecai came again to the kings gate. But Haman hasted to his house, mourning and having his house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.
10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sittest at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken. {let...: Heb. suffer not a whit to fall}

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

12 And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hasted home mourning, and having his head covered.

13 And Haman recounted unto Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men, and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 While they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

So the king and Haman came to banquet with the Queene Ester.

2 And the king said against unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall he granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request: 4 for we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my peace, although the adversary could not have compensated through the streete of the citie, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king will honour.

12 And Mordecai came againe to the Kings gate, but Haman hasted home mourning and his head covered.

13 And Haman tolde Zeresh his wife, and all his friends all that had befallen him. Then sayd his wise men, and Zeresh his wife vnto him, If Mordecai be of the seede of the Iewes, before whom thou hast begunne to fall; thou shalt not preuaile against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the Kings eunuches and hasted to bring Haman vnto the banket that Ester had prepared.

So the King and Haman came to banquet with the Queene Ester.
day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen

3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:

4 For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not have avenged the king’s damage.

5 Then King Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther, Who is he? and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so? And Esther said, The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

7 And the king arose from the banquet of wine in his wrath, and went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the house where they drank wine; and Haman was fallen upon the couch whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he even force the queen before me in the house? As the word went out of the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.

5 Then King Ahasuerus answered, and said vnto the Queene Ester, Who is he? and where is he that presumeth to doe thus?

6 And Ester said, The aduersarie and enemie is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afrayde before the King and the Queene. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

7 And the king arising from ye banket of wine in his wrath, and went into the palace garden: but Haman stood vp, to make request for his life to the Queene Ester: for he sawe that there was a mischiefe prepared for him of the king.

7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before him. So Esther arose, and stood before the king. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.

Esther 9

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur. Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come unto them, the Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to the writing thereof, and according to the appointed time thereof, every year;

28 and that these days should be remembered and kept it a day of feasting and joy.

21 Inioying them that they should keepe the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, to the poor.

22 According to the dayes wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the moneth which was turned vnto them from sorowe to ioy, and from mourning into a ioyfull day, to keepe them the dayes of feasting, and joy, and to sende presents euery man to his neyghbour, and giftes to the poore.

23 And the Jews promised to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written vnto them;

24 Because Haman the sonne of Hammedatha, the Agagite al the Iewes aduersarie, had imagined the Agagite al the Iewes aduersarie, had imagined

the Agagite al all the Iewes aduersarie, had devised

the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised

the Agagite al all the Iewes aduersarie, had devised

the Agagite al all the Iewes aduersarie, had devised

the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head; and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

25 but when the matter came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head; and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur. Esther 9

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur. Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come unto them, the Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to the writing thereof, and according to the appointed time thereof, every year;

28 and that these days should be remembered and kept it a day of feasting and joy.

22 According to the dayes wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the moneth which was turned vnto them from sorowe to ioy, and from mourning into a ioyfull day, to keepe them the dayes of feasting, and joy, and to sende presents euery man to his neyghbour, and giftes to the poore.

23 And the Jews promised to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written vnto them;

There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

3 His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job thought, It may be that my sons have sinned, and blasphemed God in their hearts: thus did Job continually.

6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.

7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, saying, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking with the children of the east.

8 And the Lord said vnto Satan, Hast thou not compassed the earth to and from, and from walking in it.

9 And Satan answered the Lord, saying, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 Have not his daughters reproached him, and his wife hardened her heart against him from the most section of days?

11 And the Lord said vnto Satan, Hast thou not shewed me all these things? and shewest thou me that I have done right?

12 Now therefore take away the spoil of his house, and let him have lesse in his hand.

13 Then Satan回答ed the Lord, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

14 Hast not he forbidden his children and house to reproach me?

15 And the Lord said vnto Satan, Hast thou not shewed me all these things? and shalt thou break his teeth for nought?

HEBREW - WTT
16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them: but I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Caldeans set out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have taken them, and have slain the servants with the edge of the sword: but I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, came an other, and said, Thy sons, and thy daughters were eating, and drinking wine in their eldest brother’s house, 19 And behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, which fell upon the children, and they are dead, and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job arose, and rent his garment, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped;

21 and he said, Naked came I out of my mother’s womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.

22 In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.
And on a day the children of God came and stood before the Lord, and Satan came also among them, and stood before the Lord.

2 Then the Lord said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? And Satan answered the Lord, and said, From compassing the earth to and from, and from walking in it.

3 And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou not considered my servant Job, how none is like him in the earth? an upright and just man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil:

4 And Satan answered the Lord, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

5 But stretch now out thine hand, and touch his bone and his flesh, to see if he will not blaspheme God, and escheweth evil: and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movest me against him, to destroy him without cause.

6 And the Lord said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; only spare his life.

7 So Satan went forth from the presence of the Lord, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself foolishness.

Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the Lord.

2 And the Lord said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

3 And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou not considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and yet he continueth in integrity, although thou movedst me against him, to destroy him without cause.

4 And Satan answered the Lord, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will renounce thee to thy face.

6 And the Lord said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; only spare his life.

7 So Satan went forth from the presence of the Lord, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself.
5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

6 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; but save his life. {but: or, only}

7 So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took a potsherd to scrape himself, and he sate downe among the ashes.

9 Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God, and die.

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

11 Now when Job’s three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.
After this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Job answered, and said, {spake: Heb. answered}

3 Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night which it was said, There is a man child conceived.

4 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let it be stain for the day thereof, and let them terrify it, as those who have a bitter day.

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; let it not be joined unto the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Yea, desolate be that night, and let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them that curse the day, (being ready to renew their mourning) curse it.

9 Let the stars of that twilight be dimme through their mourning) curse it.

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother’s womb, nor hid trouble from mine eyes.

11 Why did I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12 Why did the knees receive me? or why the breasts, that I should suck?

13 For now should I have lain down and been quiet;

14 For now should I have been quiet and quieted, saying, when shall I die?

15 Why did the knees receive me, and why the breasts, that I should suck?

16 Why did the days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

17 Why did the knees receive me, and why the breasts, that I should suck?

18 Why did the knees receive me, and why the breasts, that I should suck?

11 Why did the knees prevent me? and why did I sucke the breasts that I should suck?

Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but who can withhold himselfe from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and hast strengthened the feeble knees.

4 Thy words have upheld him that was falling, and strengthened the weak hands.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the vprightnesse of thy wayes?

Call now; is there any that will answer thee? and to which of the Saintes wilt thou turn?
2 Doubtlesse anger killeth the foolish, and enuie slayeth the idiote.
3 I haue seene the foolish well rooted, and suddenly I cursed his habitation,
4 His children shalbe farre from saluation, and they are cursed his habitation.
5 I haue seene the foolish well rooted: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.
6 For vexation killeth the foolish man, and jealousy which of the holy ones wilt thou turn?

Call now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the Saintes wilt thou turn?
6 Although affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doeth trouble spring out of the ground; affliction: or, iniquity

7 Yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward. trouble: or, labour sparks...: Heb. the sons of the burning coal lift up to fly

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause:

9 Which doeth great things and unsearchable; marvelous things without number: unsearchable: Heb. there is no search without...: Heb. till there be no number

10 Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields: fields: Heb. outplaces

11 To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.

12 He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise. their enterprise: or, any thing

13 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

14 They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope at noone day, as in the night.

15 But he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

6 For miserie commeth not forth of the dust, neither doeth affliction spring out of the earth.

7 But man is borne unto travaile, as the sparkes flie vpwarde.

8 But I would inquire at God, and turne my talke vnto God:

9 Which doeth great things and vnsearchable, and maruelous things without nomber.

10 He giueth raine vpon the earth, and powreth water vpon the streetes, 11 And setteth up on hie them that be low, that the sorowfull may be exalted to saluation.

12 He scattereth the deuices of the craftie: so that their handes can not accomplish that which they doe enterprise.

13 He taketh the wise in their craftinesse, and the counsel of the wicked is made foolish.

14 They meete with darkenesse in the day time, and grope at noonday as in the night.

15 But he saveth the poore from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hande of the mighty.

16 So that the poore hath his hope, but iniquitie shall stop her mouth.

17 Behold, blessed is the man whome God correc-teth: therefore refuse not thou the chastising of the Almighty.

13 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

14 They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope in the noonday as in the night.

15 But he saveth from the sword of their mouth, even the needy from the hand of the mighty.

16 So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

17 Behold, blessed is the man whome God correc-teth: therefore refuse not thou the chastising of the Almighty.

18 For he maketh sore, and bindeth up; he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

19 He shall deliver thee in six troubles; yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.

20 In famine he shall redeem thee from death; and in war from the power of the sword.

21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue; neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

22 At destruction and dearth thou shalt laugh; neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

23 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field; and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.

24 And thou shalt know that thy tent is in peace; and 16 So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

17 Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Al-mighty.

18 For he maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

19 He shall deliver thee in six troubles: yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.

20 In famine he shall redeem thee from death: and in battle from the power of the sword.

21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue, and thou shalt not be afraid of destruction when it commeth.

22 But thou shalt laugh at destruction and death, and shalt not be afraid of the beast of the earth.

23 For the stones of the field shall be in league with thee, and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.

24 And thou shalt knowe, that peace shall be in thy tabernacle, and thou shalt visite thine habitation, and shalt not sin.

25 Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be great, and thy posteritie as the grass of the earth.

26 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, as a shock of corn cometh in in its season.

27 Lo, thus haue we inquired of it, and so it is: heare this and knowe thou it for thy good.
Then Job answered and said,
2 Oh that my vexation were but weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together! {laid: Heb. lifted up}
3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore have my words been swallowed up. {my words:...: Heb. for thyself}
4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof my spirit drinketh up: the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.
5 Doth the wild ass bray when he hath grass? or the ox loweth the ox over his fodder? {when he...: Heb. at grass?}
6 Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
7 The things that my soul refused to touch are as my meat.
8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me the thing that I long for! {the thing...: the thing...: Heb. for thy good} 9 That is, that God would destroy me: that he would grant me the thing that I long for!
10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would let loose his hand, and cut me off!
11 What is my strength, that I should wait? and what is mine end, at I should be patient?

30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot my taste discern mischievous things?

Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth? and are not his days as the days of an hireling?
2 As a servant that earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work:
3 So have I had as an inheritance the moneths of vanity, and painefull nights have bene appointed vnto me.
4 If I layed me downe, I sayde, When shall I arise, and measuring the euening I am euen full with toss.
5 My flesh is clothed with wormes and filthinesse of the dust: my skinne is rent, and become horrible.
6 My dayes are swifter then a weauers shittle, and my skin closeth up and breaketh out afresh.
7 Oh remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall not returne to see pleasure.
8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.
9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he that goeth downe to the graue, shall come vp no more.
10 He shall returne no more to his house, neither shall his place knowe him any more.
11 Therefore I will not spare my mouth, but will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
12 Am I a sea, or a sea-monster, that thou settest a watch over me?

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;
14 Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions:
15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than these my bones.
16 I loathe my life; I would not live alway: let me alone; for my days are vanity.
17 What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him, and that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him, 18 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning, and try him every moment?
19 How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?
20 I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?
21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou seekest me in the morning, I shall not be found.

He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.
Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

15 Therefore my soul chuseth rather to be strangled and to die, then to be in my bones.
16 I abhorre it, I shall not live alway: spare me then, for my days are but vanity.
17 What is man, that thou doest magnifie him, and that thou settest thine vpon him?
18 And doest visite him euery morning, and tryest him euery moment?
19 Howe long will it be yer thou depart from me? thou wilt not let me alone whiles I may swallowe my spettle.
20 I haue sinned, what shall I do vnto thee? O thou preseruer of me, why hast thou set me as a marke against thee, so that I am a burden vnto my selfe?
21 And why doest thou not pardon my trespasse? and take away mine iniquitie? for nowe shall I sleepe in the dust, and if thou seekest me in the morning, I shall not be found.

He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.
Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

20 If I have sinned, what do I untō thee, O thou watcher of men? why hast thou set me as a mark for thee, so that I am a burden to myself?
21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I lie down in the dust; and thou shall seek me diligently, but I shall not be.
Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

3 Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

4 If thy children have sinned against him, and he hath sent them into the place of their iniquity,

5 If thou wouldest seek diligently unto God, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;

6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 And though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 Inquire therefore, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to search of their fathers:

9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the rush grow without mire? can the flag grow without water?

12 Whilst it is yet in its greenness, and not cut the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.
Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

12 Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish:

14 Whose confidence shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spider's web.

15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

18 If he be destroyed from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others spring.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil-doers:

21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought.

12 Though it were in green and not cut down, yet shall it wither before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of al that forget God, and the hypocrites hope shall perish.

14 His confidence also shall be cut off, and his trust shalbe as the house of a spyder.

15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall holde him fast by it, yet shall it not endure.

16 The tree is green before the sunne, and the branches spread over the garden thereof.

17 The rootes thereof are wrapped about the fountain, and are folden about ye house of stones.

18 If any plucke it from his place, and it denie, saying, I haue not seene thee, 19 Beholde, it will reioyce by this means, that it may growe in another molde.

20 Behold, God will not cast away an upright man, neither will he take the wicked by the hand, 21 Till he haue filled thy mouth with laughter, and thy lippes with ioy.

22 They that hate thee, shall be clothed with shame, and the dwelling of the wicked shall not remaine.

11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

12 Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hope of the godless man shall perish:

14 Whose confidence shall break in sunder, and whose trust is a spider's web.

15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold fast thereby, but it shall not endure.

Then Job answered and said,
2 Of a truth I know that it is so: for howe should man be just with God?
3 If he be pleased to contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.
4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and prospered?
5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not:
6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble.
7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and wonders without number.
8 Which alone stretcheth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.
9 Which maketh the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades, and walketh vpon the height of the sea.
10 He doeth great things, and vnsearcheable: yea, and the chambers of the south.
11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.
12 Behold, he seizeth the prey, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?
13 God will not withdraw his anger; the helpers of Rahab do stoop under him.
14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose

15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer; I would make supplication to mine adversary.

16 If I had called, and he had answered me; yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he destroyeth me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth my wounds without cause.

19 If we speak of strength, lo, he is strong: if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

30 If I wash myself with snowy water, and make my hands never so clean;

Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
2 Should not the multitude of words be answered?
and should a man full of talk be justified?
3 Should thy boastsings make men hold their peace?

or should a great talker be justified?
3 Should men holde their peace at thy lyes?
and when thou mockest others, shall none make thee ashamed?
4 For thou hast sayde, My doctrine is pure, and I am let not unrighteousness dwell in thy tents;

16 Because thou shalt forget thy misery; thou shalt remember it as waters that are passed away:

minde.

13 With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding. {With...: that is, With God}

14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again; he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up; also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

16 With him is strength and wisdom; the deceived and the deceiver are his.

17 He leadeth counsellors away spoiled, and maketh the judges fools.

18 He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle.

19 He leadeth priests away spoiled, and over-throweth the mighty.

20 He taketh away the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged. {speech...: Heb. lip of the faithful}
21 He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty. [weakeneth,... or, looseth the girdle of the strong]

22 He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

23 He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them again.

24 He taketh away the heart of the chiefs of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

25 They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

Loe, mine eye hath seen all this: mine ear hath heard, and understood it. 2 I knowe also as much as you knowe: I am not inferior unto you.

3 Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to dispute with God.

4 For in deede ye forge lyes, and all you are physicians of no value.

5 Oh, that you woulde holde your tongue, that it might be imputed to you for wisedome!

6 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of no value.

7 Will ye speak unrighteously for God, and talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye respect his person? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or as one deceiveth a man, will ye deceive him?

10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly respect persons.

11 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly respect persons. 12 He increaseth the people, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and bringeth them in againe. 13 He taketh away the heart of the chiefs of the people of the earth, and maketh them to wander in the wildernes out of the way. 14 They grope in the dark without light: and he maketh the to stagger like a drunken man.
11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid, and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes,
your defences are defences of clay.

13 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak,

16 He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration
with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes,
your defences are defences of clay.

13 Hold your peace, let me alone that I may speak, and let come on me what wilt.

14 Wherefore should I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand?

15 Though he slay me yet will I wait for him: nev-etheless I will maintain my ways before him.

16 This also shall be my salvation for a godless man shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech and my declaration
with your ears.

18 Behold now I have ordered my cause I know that I am righteous.

19 Who is he that will contend with me for now shall I hold my peace and give up the ghost.

20 Only do not two things unto me then will I not hide myself from thy face.

21 Withdraw thine hand far from me; and let not thy terror make me afraid.

22 Then call thou and I will answer; or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin.
24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?
25 Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?
26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.
27 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print thereof in the heels of my feet.
28 Such one consumeth like a rotten thing, and as a garment that is moth eaten.

Man that is born of a woman, is of few days, and full of trouble.
2 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.
3 And dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgment with thee?
4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.
5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months is with thee, and thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;
6 Look away from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day.
7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.
8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;
9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.
10 But man dieth, and wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?
11 As the waters pass from the sea, and as the flood decayeth and dryeth up, 12 So man lieth down, and riseth not: till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.
13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, and keepe me secret, vntill thy wrath were past, and I would come no more to see the world.

Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,
2 Should a wise man make answer with vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?
3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk, or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?
4 Yea, thou doest away with fear, and restrainest prayer before God.
5 For thy mouth utters the speech that is not profitable?
6 Thy own mouth condemns you, and not I; yea, thy own lips testify against thee.
7 Art thou the first man that was born? and wast thou made before the hills?
8 Hast thou heard the secret counsel of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?
9 What knowest thou that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?
10 With us are both the grayheaded and very aged men, much elder than thy father.
11 Are the consolations of God too small for thee, and the word that deals gently with thee?
12 Why dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself? and what do thy eyes wink at?
13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lestest such words go out of thy mouth.
14 What is man, that he should be clean? and he 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth?

14 What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15 Behold, he puttest no trust in his holy ones; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.

16 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water?

17 I will shew thee, hear thou me; and that which I have seen I will declare;

18 Which wise men have told from their fathers, and haue not hid it:

19 Unto whom alone the land was giuen, and no stranger passed through them.

20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

21 A sounde of feare is in his eares, and in prosperity the tyrant.

22 He wandreth abroad for bread where he seeth the sworde before him.

23 He wandeth to and from for bread where he is waited for of the sword.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall preuaile against him as a King readie to the battle:

25 Because he hath stretched out his hand against God, and behaveth himself proudly against the Al-which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

15 Beholde, he founde no stedfastnesse in his Saintes: yea, the heauens are not cleane in his sight.

16 How much more is man abominable, and filthie, which drinketh iniquitie like water?

17 I will tell thee: heare me, and I will declare that which I haue seene:

18 Which wise men haue tolde, as they haue heard of their fathers, and haue not kept it secret:

19 To whome alone the earth was giuen, and no stranger passed through them.

20 The wicked man is continually as one that travaileth with pain all his days, and he seeth the sworde before him.

21 A sounde of feare is in his eares, and in prosperity the tyrant.

22 He belieueth not to returne out of darknesse: for he seeth the sworde before him.

23 He wandere to and from for bread where he may: he knoweth that the day of darkenesse is pre-

24 Affliction and anguish shall make him afraide: they shall preuaile against him as a King readie to 25 For he hath stretched out his hand against GOD, and made him selfe strong against the Al-that is borne of woman, that he shoulde be iust?

26 Therefore God shall runn upon him, euen upon his necke, and against the most thicke part of his shield.
27 Because he hath couered his face with his fatnesse, and hath collops in his flanke.
28 Though he dwell in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, but are become heapes, 29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof in the earth.
30 He shall not depart out of darkenesse: the flame shall drie vp his branches, and he shall goe away with the breath of his mouth.
31 He beleueth not that he erreth in vanitie: therefore vanitie shalbe his change.
32 His branch shall not be greene, but shall be cut off before his day.
33 God shall destroy him as the vine her sower grape, and shall cast him off, as the oliue doeth her flowre.
34 For the congregation of the hypocrite shalbe desolate, and fire shall deuoure the houses of bribes.
35 They conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity, and their belly hath prepared deceit.
Then Job answered and said,
2 I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all. {miserable: or, troublesome}
3 Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest? {vain...: Heb. words of wind}
4 I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul’s stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake mine head at you.
5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the comfort of my lips should assuage your sorrow.
6 Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged: and the moving of my lips should assuage your sorrow.
7 But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made all my congregation desolate,
8 And hast made me full of wrinkles which is a burden upon me: and my leanness rising up in me is a witness against me: and my leanness riseth up against me,
9 His wrath hath torn me, and he hateth me, and persecuteth me: and his anger sitteth upon me.
10 They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me.
11 God delivereth me to the ungodly, and casteth me into the hands of the wicked.
12 I was at ease, and he brake me asunder; yea, he and their belly prepareth deceit. {vanity: or, iniquity}

Bvt Iob answered, and said,
2 I haue oft times heard such things: miserable comforters are ye all.
3 Shall there be none ende of wordes of winde? or what maketh thee bold so to answere?
4 I could also speake as yee doe: (but woulde God your soule were in my soules stead) I could keepe you company in speaking, and could shake mine head at you,
5 But I woulde strengthen you with my mouth, and the comfort of my lips shoulde assuage your sorrow.
6 Though I speake, my sorrow can not be asswaged: though I cease, what release haue I?
7 But now hee maketh mee wearie: O God, thou hast made all my congregation desolate,
8 And hast made me full of wrinkles which is a burden upon me: and my leannes ryseth vp in me, testifying the same in my face.
9 His wrath hath torne me, and hee hateth me, and gnasheth vpon mee with his teeth: mine enemie hath sharpened his eyes against me.
10 They haue opened their mouthes vpon me, and smitten me on the cheeke in reproch; they gather themselues together against me.
hath taken me by the neck, and dashed me to pieces: he hath also set me up for his mark.

13 His archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach; he runneth upon me like a giant.

15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and have abased my horn in the dust.

16 My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

17 Though there be no wickednesse in mine hands, and my prayer be pure.

18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry have no place.

19 Also now, behold, my witness is in heaven, and my record is on high.

20 My friends speak eloquently against me: but mine eye poureth out tears unto God.

21 O that one might plead with God, as man with his neighbour!

22 For the yeeres accounted come, and I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

Then Job answered and said,

Then Job answered and said,
2 Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolations.
3 Suffer me, and I also will speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on.
4 As for me, is my complaint to man? and why should I not be impatient?
5 Mark me, and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.
6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and horror taketh hold on my flesh.
7 Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?
8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their generation before their eyes.
9 Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.
10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.
11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.
12 They sing to the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the pipe.
13 They spend their days in prosperity, and in a moment they go down to Sheol.
14 Yet they said unto God, Depart from us; for we goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

But Job answered and said,
20 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God. {appoint...: Heb. of his decree from God}

But Job answered and said,
2 Hear diligently my words, and this shalbe in stead of your consolations.
3 Suffer mee, that I may speake, and after that I have speaken, mocke on.
4 Doe I direct my talke to man? If it were so, how should not my spirit be troubled?
5 Marke mee, and be abashd, and lay your hand uppon your mouth. {Mark...: Heb. Look unto me}
6 Even when I remember I am afrayde, and feare taketh hold on my flesh.
7 Wherefore do the wicked liue, and waxe olde, yea, seau, why should not my spirit be troubled?
8 Their seede is established in their sight with them, and grow in wealth?
9 Their houses are peaceable without feare, and the rod of God is not vpon them.
10 Their houses are peaceable without feare, and the rod of God is not vpon them. {safe...: Heb. peace from} 11 They send forth their children like sheepe, and their offspring before their eyes.
12 They sing to the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the pipe.
13 They spend their days in prosperity, and in a moment they go down to Sheol.
14 Yet they said unto God, Depart from us; for we goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.
22 They take the tabret and harp, and rejoice in the sound of the organs.
23 They spend their days in wealth, and suddenly they go down to the grave.
24 They say also unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.
25 Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we should pray unto him?

16 Lo, their wealth is not in their hand: the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
17 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out! and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

32 Where is the God of old, that is, the punishment of his iniquity} 33 Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him?

tasteth of good.

26 They lie down alike in the dust, and the worm covereth them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

28 For ye say, Where is the house of the prince? and where is the tabernacle of the wicked dwelling?

29 Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens?

30 But the wicked is reserved unto the day of destruction, and they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.

31 Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall reward him for that he hath done?

32 Yet shall he be brought to the grave, and shall remain in the heap.

33 The clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw after him, as there were innumerable before him.

34 How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth only falsehood?

24 His breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow. {breasts: or, milk pails}

25 And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

26 They shall sleepe both in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the enterprises, wherewith ye do me wrong.

28 For ye say, Where is the princes house? and where is the tabernacle of the wicked dwelling?

29 May ye not aske the that go by the way? and ye can not deny their signes.

30 But the wicked is kept unto the day of destruction, and they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.

31 Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall reward him for that he hath done?

32 Yet shall he be brought to the grave, and remaine in the heape.

33 The slimie valley shalbe sweete vnto him, and euery man shall draw after him, as before him there were innumerable.

34 How then comfort ye me in vaine, seeing in your answeres there remaine but lyes?
Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, and said,

2 Can a man be profitable unto God, as he that is wise may be profitable to himselfe? [as he...: or, if he may be profitable, both his good success depend thereon]

3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways vpright?

4 Is it for feare of thee that he will accuse thee? or is it for thy transgression? [as he...: or, if he may be profitable, doth his good success depend thereon?}

5 Is not thy wickednes great, and thine iniquities infinite?

6 For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

8 But as for the mighty man, he had the earth; and the honourable man, he dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast cast out widowes emptie, and the arms of the fatherles were broken.

10 Therefore snares are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee; and thou canst not see, and abundance of waters cover thee.

11 Or darkness, that thou canst not see, and behold the height of the stars, how high they are!

12 Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are!

13 And thou sayest, What doth God know? can he judge through the thick darkness?

Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 May a man be profitable vnsto God, as he that is wise, may be profitable to himselfe?

3 Is it any thing vnto the Almightie, that thou art righteous? or is it profitable to him, that thou makest thy wayes vpright?

4 Is it for feare of thee that he will accuse thee? or go with thee into judgement?

5 Is not thy wickednes great, and thine iniquities innumerable?

6 For thou hast taken the pledge from thy brother for nought, and spoyled the clothes of the naked.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and hast withdrawn bread from the hungry.

8 But the mightie man had the earth, and he that was in auctorite, dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast cast out widowes emptie, and the arms of the fatherles were broken.

10 Therefore snares are round about thee, and feare shall suddenly trouble thee:

21 Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace:

Then Job answered and said,
2 Though my talk be this day in bitterness, and my groaning greater than my groaning,
3 Would God yet I knew how to finde him, I would enter vnto his place.
4 I would pleade the cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.
5 I would knowe the wordes, that he would answere me, and would understand what he would say vnto me.
6 Would he plead against me with his great power? No, but he would put strength in me.
7 There the righteous might dispute with him, so I should be delivered for ever from my judge.
8 Would he plead against me with his great power? Nay; but he would give heed unto me.
9 If to the North where he worketh, yet I cannot see him: he wil hide himselfe in the South, and I cannot beholde him.
10 But he knoweth my way, and trieth mee, and I shall come forth like the gold.
11 My foot hath held fast to his steps; his way have I kept, and not declined.
12 Neither have I departed from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food. {esteemed: Heb. hid, or,} 13 But he is in one mind, and who can turn him?
13 Yet he is in one mind, and who can turne him? yea, he doeth what his minde desireth.
14 For he will performe that, which is decreed of me, and many such things are with him.
15 Therefore I am troubled at his presence, and in considering it, I am afraid of him.
16 For God hath softened mine heart, and the Almighty might have troubled me.
17 For I am not cut off in darknesse, but he hath hid the darknesse from my face.

12 For he performeth that which is appointed for me: and many such things are with him.
13 But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.
14 For he performeth the thing that is appointed for me: and many such things are with him.
15 Therefore am I troubled at his presence: when I consider, I am afraid of him.
16 For God made my heart faint, and the Almighty might have troubled me.
17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither did he cover the thick darkness from my face.

5 God forbid that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove mine integrity from me.

6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.

8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul?

9 Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?

11 I will teach you what is in the hand of God, and I will not conceal that which is with the Almightie.

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.
6 The stones of it are the place of saphirs: and it hath dust of gold. {dust...: or, gold ore}

36 Destruction and Death say, We have heard a rumour thereof with our ears.
37 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.
38 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven;
25 To make a weight for the wind; yea, he meteth out the waters by measure.
26 When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder:
27 Then did he see it, and declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.
28 And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.
So Iob proceeded and continued his parable, saying,
2 Oh that I were as in times past, when God preserved me!
3 When his light shined upon mine head: and when by his light I walked through the darkness, 4 As I was in the days of my youth: when God prudence was upon my tabernacle:
5 When the almighty was yet with me, and my children were about me;
6 When I washed my pathes with butter, and when the rock poured me out rivers of oil:
7 When I went forth to the gate unto the city, when I caused them to prepare my seat in the street, 8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves, and when the eye saw me, it gave witness unto me:
9 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.
10 The voice of the nobles was hushed, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth. {The nobles...
11 And when the ear heard me, it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gaue witness to me.
12 For I deliuered the poore that cryed, and the fatherless also, that had none to help him.
13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow’s heart to sing for joy.
when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

12 Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.

17 And I brake the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth. {the jaws: Heb. the jawteeth, or, the grinders} {plucked: Heb. cast}

18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.

19 My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch. {spread...: Heb. opened}

20 My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand. {fresh: Heb. new} {renewed: Heb. changed}

21 Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.

22 After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

24 If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat as chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.
Upon my right hand rise the rabble; they thrust they have cast off the bridle before me.

For he hath loosed his cord, and afflicted me, and spare not to spit in my face.

They abhor me, they stand aloof from me, and byword unto them.

And now I am become their song, yea, I am a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

But now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I have refused to set with the dogges of my flockes.

For whereto should the strength of their handes have serued mee, seeing age perished in them?

For pouertie and famine they were solitary, fleeing into the wildernes, which is darke, desolate and waste.

They cut vp nettels by the bushes, and the iuniper roots for their meat.

Therefore they dwelt in the clefts of riuers, in the caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

They roared among the bushes, and vnder the thistles theygathered themselves.

Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

But now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I disdained to set with the dogs of my flock.

Yea, the strength of their hands, whereto should it profit me, in whom old age is perished?

They were driven forth from among men: they were scourged out of the land.

They pluck salt-wort by the bushes; and the roots for their meat.

3 For want and famine they were solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste.

But now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I disdained to set with the dogs of my flock.

But now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I disdained to set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, the strength of their hands, whereto should it profit me, in whom ripe age is perished.

And now I am become their song, yea, I am a byword unto them.

They abhor me, they stand aloof from me, and spare not to spit in my face.

For he hath loosed his cord, and afflicted me, and they have cast off the bridle before me.

Upon my right hand rise the rabble; they thrust aside my feet, and they cast up against me their ways.
8 They were children of fools, yea, children of base men: they were viler than the earth. {base...: Heb. men of no name}
9 And now am I their song, yea, I am their byword.
10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face. {and...: Heb. and withhold not spittle from} 11 Because he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.
12 Upon my right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.
13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.
14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters, and under them the youth who have no helper.
15 Terrors are turned upon me, they pursue mine soul as the wind; and my welfare is passed away as a cloud.
16 Therefore my soul is nowe powred out upon me; the days of affliction haue taken holde on me.
17 In the night season my bones are pierced in me, and the dayes of affliction haue taken hold upon me.
18 For the great vehemencie is my garment changed, which compasseth me about as the collar of my coat.
19 He hath cast me into the myre, and I am become changed, which compasseth me about as the collar of my coat.
20 Whe I cry vnto thee, thou doest not heare me, like ashes and dust.
21 Thou art turned to be cruel to me: with the might of thy hand thou persecutest me.
22 Thou liftest me up to the wind, thou causest me to ride upon it; and thou dissolvest me in the storm.
23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.
24 Surely against a ruinous heap he will not put of destruction.

13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, even men that have no helper.
14 As through a wide breach in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.
15 Terrors are turned upon me, they pursue my soul as the wind; and my welfare is passed away as a cloud.
16 And now my soul is poured out upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.
17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season: days of affliction have taken hold upon me.
18 By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.
19 He hath cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.
20 Whe I cry vnto thee, thou dost not heare me, neither regardest me, when I stand vp.
20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.

21 Thou turnest thy selfe cruelly against me, and art enemy vnto mee with the strength of thine hand. Thou takest me vp and causest mee to ride vpon the winde, and makest my strength to faile.

22 Thou art become cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposest thyself against me. {become...: Heb.} {thy...: Heb. the strength of thy hand}

23 Surely I knowe that thou wilt bring mee to death, and to the house appoynted for all the liuing. Doubtles none can stretch his hand vnto the graue, though they cry in his destruction.

24 Did not I weep with him that was in trouble? was not my soule in heauinesse for the poore? In trouble: Heb. hard of day?

25 When I looked for good, euill came vnto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkenesse.

26 Yet when I looked for good, euill came vnto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkenesse.

27 My bowels did boyle without rest: for the dayes of affliction are come vpon me.

28 I went mourning without sunne: I stood vp in the congregation and cryed.

29 I am a brother to the dragons, and a companion to the ostriches.

30 My skinne is blacke vpon me, and my bones are burnt with heate.

31 Therefore mine harpe is turned to mourning, and mine organs into the voyce of them that weepe.
I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think on a maide?
2 For what portion should I have of God from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on hie?
3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and strange punishment to the workers of iniquitie?
4 Doeth not he see my ways, and number all my steps?
5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath cleaved to mine hands;
6 Let God weigh me in the iust balance, and he may know mine integrity; (Let...: Heb. Let him.)
7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, or if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands;
8 Then let me sow, and let another eat; yea, let my plants be rooted out,
9 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if any spot hath claeved to mine hands,
10 Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her.
11 For that were an heinous crime; yea, it were an iniquity to be punished by the judges:
12 For it is a fire that consumeth unto Destruction, and would root out all mine increase.
13 If I did despise the cause of my manservant or of my maid, and would root out all mine increase.
14 For it is a fire that consumeth unto Destruction, and would root out all mine increase.
15 If I have despised the cause of my manservant or of my maid, and would root out all mine increase.

18 For I have despised the cause of my manservant or of my maid, and would root out all mine increase.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.
13 If I did despise the cause of my maidservant or of my maidservant, when they contended with me;
14 What then shall I do when God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?
15 Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb? {her: that is, the widow}
16 If I restrained the poor of their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;
17 Or have eaten my morsel alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;
18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me as with a father, and I have been her guide from my mother's womb;) {her: that is, the widow}
19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or 20 If his loins have not blessed me, because he was a guide unto her)
21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless,
22 Then let my shoulder fall from my shoulder blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone. {bone: or, my maidservant, when they contended with me:
23 For calamity from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his excellency I could do nothing.
24 If I have made gold my hope, and have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;
25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much;
26 What then shall I do when God standeth vp? and when he shall visit me, what shall I answerere?
27 Nay, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father, and I have guided her from my mother's womb; {her: that is, the widow}

35 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much;
22 Let mine arm be broken from the bone.
23 For Gods punishment was fearfull vnto me, and I could not be deliuered from his highnes.
24 If I made gold mine hope, or haue sayd to the wedge of golde, Thou art my confidence, 25 If I rejoiced because my substance was great, or because mine hand had gotten much,
26 If I did behold the sunne, when it shined, or the moone, walking in her brightnes, 27 If mine heart did flatter me in secrete, or if my mouth did kisse mine hand,
28 (This also had bene an iniquitie to be condemned: for I had denied the God aboue)
29 If I rejoiced at his destruction that hated me, or was mooued to ioye when euill came vpon him, 30 Neither haue I suffred my mouth to sinne, by wishing a curse vnto his soule.
31 Did not the men of my Tabernacle say, Who shall give vs of his flesh? we can not bee satisfied.
32 The stranger did not lodge in the streete, but I opened my doores vnto him, that went by the way.
33 If I haue hid my sinne, as Adam, concealing mine iniquitie in my bosome,

So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he esteemed himselfe iust.
2 Then the wrath of Elihu the sonne of Barachel the Buzite, of the familye of Ram, was kindled: his anger had written a book. And he spake unto Job in like manner as his three friends.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.
4 Now Elihu had waited to speak unto Job, because they were elder than he.
5 And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.
6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I held back, and durst not shew you mine opinion.
7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he esteemed himself just.

4 Now Elihu had waited to speak unto Job, because they were elder than he.
5 And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.
6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I held back, and durst not shew you mine opinion.
7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.
Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himselfe more than God.

Also his anger was kindled against his three friends, because they could not finde an answere, and yet condemned Job.

(Now Elihu had waited til Job had spoken: for they were more ancient in yeeres then he)

So when Elihu saw, that there was none answere in the mouth of the three men, his wrath was kindled.

Therefore Elihu the sonne of Barachel, the Buzite answered, and sayd, I am yong in yeres, and ye are ancient: therefore I doubted, and was afrade to shewe you mine opinion.

For I said, The dayes shall speake, and the multitude of yeeres shall teach wisedome.

Surely there is a spirite in man, but the inspiration of the Almightie giueth understanding.

Great men are not alway wise, neither doe the aged alway understand judgement.

Therefore I say, Hearken me, and I will shew also mine opinion.

Behold, I did waite vpon your wordes, and hearkened unto your knowledge, whiles you sought out reasons.

Yea, when I had considered you, lo, there was none that convinced Job, or that answered his words, among you.

Beware lest ye say, We have found wisdom; God may vanquish him, not man:

For he hath not directed his words against me; neither will I answer him with your speeches.

They are amazed, they answer no more: they have not a word to say.

And shall I wait, because they speak not, because they stand still, and answer no more?

I also will answer my part, I also will shew mine opinion.

I am full of words; the spirit within me constraineth me.

Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; like new bottles it is ready to burst.

I will speak, that I may be refreshed; I will open my mouth.

But there is a spirit in man, and the breath of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

It is not the great that are wise, nor the aged that understand judgment.

Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will shew mine opinion.

Behold, I waited for your words, I listened for your reasons, whilst ye searched out what to say.

Yea, I attended unto you, and, behold, there was none that convinced Job, or that answered his words, among you.

For I am full of words; the spirit within me constraineth me.

Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; like new bottles it is ready to burst.

I will speak, that I may be refreshed; I will open my mouth.

8 But there is a spirit in man, and the breath of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

words:

13 Lest ye should say, We haue found wisedome: for God hath cast him downe, and no man.

14 Yet hath he not directed his words to me, neyther will I answere him by your wordes.

15 Then they fearing, answered no more, but left off their talke.

16 When I had wayted (for they spake not, but stood still and answered no more)

17 Then answered I in my turne, and I shewed mine opinion.

18 For I am full of matter, and the spirite within me compelleth me.

19 Beholde, my belly is as the wine, which hath no vent, and like the new bottels that brast.

20 Therefore will I speake, that I may take breath: I will open my lippes, and will answere.

21 I will not now accept the person of man, neyther will I giue titles to man.

22 For I know not to give flattering titles; else not account of any of his matters.

14 For God speaketh once, yea twice, though man regardeth it not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

16 Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction,

17 That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man;

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

19 He is also stricken with sorrow upon his bed, and the griefe of his bones is sore, 20 So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul daintie meat.

21 His flesh faileth that it can not be seen, and his bones which were not seen, clatter.

22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be with him an angel, an interpreter, one of a thousand to declare vnto man his righteousness,

24 Then will he have mercie vpon him, and will say, his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness:

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom. {a ransom: or, an atonement}

25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth: {a child's: Heb. childhood}

26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

27 He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not, {He...: or, He shall look upon men, and say}

28 He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light. {He...: or, He hath delivered my soul, etc, and my life}

29 Lo, all these things worketh God oftentimes with man, {oftentimes: Heb. twice or thrice}

30 To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

23 Deliuer him, that he go not downe into the pit: for I haue receiued a reconcileation.

25 Then shall his flesh be as fresh as a childes, and shall returne as in the dayes of his youth.

26 He shall pray vnto God, and he will be fauourable vnto him, and he shall see his face with ioy: for he will render vnto man his righteousnes.

27 He looketh vpon men, and if one say, I haue sinned, and peruered righteousnesse, and it did not profite me, 28 He will deliuer his soule from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

29 Lo, all these things will God worke twise or thrise with a man, 30 That he may turne backe his soule from the pit, to be illuminate in the light of the liuing.

31 Marke well, O Iob, and heare me: keepe silence, and I will speake.

32 If there be matter, answere me, and speak: for I desire to iustifie thee.

33 If thou hast not, hearken thou unto me: hold thy tongue, and I will teach thee wisedome.
Moreover Elihu answered, and said,

2 Hear my words, ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 For the ear trieth the words, as the mouth tasteth meat.

4 Let us choose for us that which is right: let us know among ourselves what is good.

5 For Job hath said, I am righteous: and God hath taken away my judgment.

6 Should I lie against my right? my wound of the arrow is grievous without my sinne.

7 What man is like Job, that drinketh scorning like water?

8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.

9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he know among ourselves what is good.

10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of wisedome, and from the Almighty, that he should delight himself with God.

11 For he will render vnto man according to his iniquitie in the Almightie.

12 Yea, of a surety, God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.

13 Who gave him a charge over the earth? or who shall teach thee wisdom.

ERV

11 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?
12 There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.
13 Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.
14 How much less when thou sayest thou beholdest him not, the cause is before him, and thou waitest for him!
15 But now, because he hath not visited in his anger, neither doth he greatly regard arrogance;
16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vanity; he multiplieth words without knowledge.
Elihu also proceeded, and said,
1 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee: for I have yet somewhat to say on God’s behalf. {Jehu, there are yet words for God}
2 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee: for I have yet to speak on God’s behalf. {I have...: Heb. there are yet words for God}
3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
4 For truly my words are not false: one that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.
5 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength of understanding.
6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but he giveth to the afflicted their right.
7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous:
8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;
9 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly.
10 He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth them that they return from iniquity.
11 If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.
12 But if they wil not obey, they shall passe by the dayes in prosperity, and their yeres in pleasures.
13 If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.
14 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;
15 He setteth them for ever, and they are exalted.
16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplied words without knowledge.
17 Elihu also proceeded, and sayde,
18 Suffer me a little, and I will instruct thee: for I haue yet to speake on Gods behalfe.

14 They die in youth, and their life perisheth among the unclean.
15 He deliuereth the afflicted by his affliction, and openeth their ear in oppression.
16 Yea, he would have led thee away out of distress into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which is set on thy table should be full of fatness.
17 But thou art ful of the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice take hold on thee.
18 Because there is wrath, beware lest thou be led away by thy sufficiency; neither let the greatness of the ransom turn thee aside.
19 Will thy riches suffice, that thou be not in distress, or all the forces of thy strength?
20 Desire not the night, when peoples are cut off in their place.
21 Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

2 Hear the sound of his voice, and the noyse that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it vnder the whole heauen, and his light vnto the endes of the world.

4 After it a noyse soundeth: hee thundereth with the voyce of his maiestie, and hee will not stay them when his voyce is heard.

5 God thundereth maruellously with his voyce: he worketh great things, which we know not.

6 For he sayth to the snowe, Be thou vpon the earth: likewise to the small rayne and to the great rayne of his power.

7 With the force thereof he shutteth vp euery man, that all men may knowe his worke.

8 Then the beastes go into the denne, and remaine in their places.

9 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the north.

10 By the breath of God ice is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Yea, he ladeth the thick cloud with moisture; he spreadeth abroad the cloud of his lightning:

12 And it is turned round about by his guidance, that they may doe whatsoeuer he commandeth them vpon the whole worlde:

5 God thundereth marvelously with his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For he saith to the snowe, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He sealeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work.

8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.

9 Out of the chamber of the south cometh the storm: and cold out of the north.

10 By the breath of God frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is made narrowe.

11 He maketh also the cloudes to labour, to water the earth, and scattereth the cloude of his light.

12 And it is turned about by his gouernment, that they may doe whatsoeuer he commandeth them vpon the whole worlde:

13 Whether it be for correction, or for his land, or for mercy, that he cause it to come.

14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

15 Dost thou know how God layeth his charge upon them, and causeth the lightning of his cloud to shine?
scattereth his bright cloud: {his...: Heb. the cloud of his light}

And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy. {correction: Heb. a rod}

Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

Whether it be for punishment, or for his lande, or of mercie, he causeth it to come.

 Hearken vnto this, O Iob: stand and consider the wonderous workes of God.

Diddest thou knowe when God disposed them? and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

Hast thou knowen the varietie of the cloude, and the wonderous workes of him, that is perfite in knowledge?

17 Or howe thy clothes are warme, when he maketh the earth quiet through the South winde?

18 Hast thou stretched out the heaues, which are strong, and as a molten glasse?

Tell vs what we shall say vnto him: for we can not dispose our matter because of darknes.

Shall it be told him when I speake? or shall man speake when he shalbe destroyed?

21 And nowe men see not the light, which shineth in the cloudes, but the winde passeth and clenseth them.

The brightnesse commeth out of the North: the praise thereof is to God, which is terrible.

Touching the Almighty, we can not find him out; he is excellent in power: and in judgment and abundaut in justice: he afflicteth not.

Men do therefore feare him: he regardeth not any that are wise of heart.
Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?
3 Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
4 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.
5 Who determined the measures thereof, if thou knowest, or who stretched the line upon it?
6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof?
7 When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
8 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?
9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and darknesse as the swaddling bands thereof:
10 When I stablished my commandement upon it, and set barres and doors,
11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no farther; and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?
12 Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days began, and caused the dayspring to know its place;
13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth,
14 Regarde any that are wise in their owne conceit.
15 Among the myriads of the wise, who shal be found like thee?
16 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?
17 When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
18 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?
19 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddlingband for it,
20 And prescribed for it my decree, and set bars and doors,
21 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no farther; and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

2 Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

3 Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

4 Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.

5 Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

6 Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

7 Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

8 Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be justified?

9 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

10 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.

11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12 Look on every one that is arrogant, and bring him low: and tread down the wicked in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together; and bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

15 Behold now behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as all ox.

16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the muscles of his belly.

17 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his thighs are knit together.

18 His bones are as tubes of brass; his limbs are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ways of God: he only that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food; where all the beasts of the field do play.

21 He lieth under the lotus trees, in the covert of the reed, and the fen.

22 The lotus trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about.

23 Behold, if a river overflow, he trembleth not: he is confident, though Jordan swell even to his mouth.

24 Shall any take him when he is on the watch, or pierce through his nose with a snare?
made him, will make his sword to approach unto him.
15 Surely the mountains bring him forth grass, where all the beasts of the field play.
16 Lyeth he under the trees in the covert of the reed and fennes?
17 Can the trees cover him with their shadow? or can the willowes of the river compass him about?
18 Behold, he spyleth the river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw vp Iorden into his mouth.
19 He taketh it with his eyes, and thrusteth his nose through whatsoever meeteth him.
20 Canst thou drawe out Liuiathan with an hooke, and with a line which thou shalt cast downe unto his tongue?
21 Canst thou cast an hooke into his nose? canst thou perce his iawes with an angle?
22 Will he make many prayers vnto thee, or speake thee faire?
23 Will he make a covenent with thee? and wilt thou take him as a seruant for euer?
24 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bynd him for thy maydes?
25 Shall the companions baket with him? shall they deuide him among the marchants?
26 Canst thou fill the basket with his skinne? or the eateth grass as an ox. (beemoth: an extinct animal of some kind)
16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.
17 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together. (He...: or, He setteth up)
18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.
19 He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.
20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.
21 He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed, and fens.
22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about.
23 Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Iordan into his mouth.
24 He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares. (He...: or, Will any take him in his sight, or, bore his nose with a gin?)
Canst thou draw out leviathan with a fish hook? or press down his tongue with a cord?
2 Canst thou put a rope into his nose? or pierce his jaw through with a hook?
3 Will he make many supplications unto thee? or will he speak soft words unto thee?
4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?
5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?
6 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?
7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears?
8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.
9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one cast down even at the sight of him?
10 None is so fierce that he dare stir him up: who is he that can stand before me?

12 I will not keep silence concerning his limbs, nor his mighty strength, nor his comely proportion.

16 The mightie are afraid of his majestie, and for feare they faint in themselves.

19 The archer canot make him flee: ye stones of the sling are turned into stubble vnto him:
20 The dartes are counted as strawe: and hee laugheth at the shaking of the speare.
21 Sharpe stones are vnder him, and he spreadeth sharpe things vpon the myre.
22 He maketh the depth to boyle like a pot, and maketh the sea like a pot of oyntment.
23 He maketh a path to shine after him: one would think the depth as an hoare head.

25 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle? {with: or, within} 24 In the earth there is none like him: he is made without fear.

25 He beholdeth all things: he is a King over all the children of pride.

27 He counteth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.
28 The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble.
29 Clubs are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the rushing of the javelin.
30 His underparts are like sharp potsherds: he spreadeth as it were a threshing wain upon the mire.

33 Upon earth there is not his like, that is made without fear.
34 He beholdeth every thing that is high: he is king over all the sons of pride.
Then Job answered the Lord, and said,
2 I know that thou canst do all things, and that there is no thought hidde from thee.
3 Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I spoken that I understood not, even things too wonderful for me, and which I knew not.
4 Heare, I beseech thee, and I will speake: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
5 I haue heard of thee by the hearing of the eare: but now mine eye seeth thee.
6 Wherefore I abhorre my selfe, and repent in dust and ashes.
7 And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.
8 Therefore take vnto you nowe seuen bullockes, and seuen rammes, and go to my seruant Iob, and offer vp for your selues a burnt offring, and my seruant Iob shall pray for you; for him will I accept, that I deal not with you after your folly; for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.
9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according to all that the LORD said.

15 In all the lande were no women found so faire as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job.

10 Then the Lord turned the captiuitie of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job.

11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had bene of his acquaintance before, and did eate bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him, as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them an inheritance among their brethren.
17 So Job died, being old and full of days.
Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth its fruit in its season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

4 The wicked are not so, but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgement, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the wicked shall perish.

Why do the nations rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,

3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

4 But he that dwelleth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

2 Many say to my soul, There is no help for him in God. Selah.
3 But thou Lord art a buckler for me: my glory, and the lifter vp of mine head. {for: or, about}
4 I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy mountain. Selah.
5 I layed me downe and slept; I awakened; for the Lord sustaine me.
6 I will not be afrayde for ten thousand of the people, that should beset me round about.
7 O Lord, arise: helpe me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies vpon the cheeke bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the wicked.
8 Salvation belongeth vnto the Lord, and thy blessing is vpon thy people. Selah.

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of David. Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast set me at large when I was in distress: have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, howe long shall my glory be turned into dishonour? howe long will ye love vanity, and seek after falsehood? [Selah]
3 But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.
4 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. [Selah]
5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.
6 Many there be that say, Who will shew us any good? LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.
7 Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.
8 In peace will I both lay me down and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

For the Chief Musician; with the Nehiloth. A Psalm of David. Give ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.
2 Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee do I pray.
3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord; in the morning will I order my prayer unto thee, and will wait.
4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.
5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.
6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak lies: the LORD abhorreth the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.
7 Thou hast gien mee more ioye of heart, then they have had, when their wheate and their wine did abound.
8 I will lay mee downe, and also sleepe in peace: for the time that their corn and their wine increased.

To him that excelleth upon Nehiloth. A Psalme of David. Give ear to my words, O LORD: vnderstande my meditation.
2 Hearken vnto the voice of my crie, my King and my meditation.
3 Heare my voyce in the morning, O Lord: for in the morning will I direct me vnto thee, and I will waite.
4 For thou art not a God that loueth wickednes: neither shall euill dwell with thee.
5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all them that worke iniquitie. {in...: Heb. before thine eyes}

8 I will lay mee downe, and also sleepe in peace: for the time that their wheate and their wine did... [Hebrew text]
6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the Lord will abhorre the bloodie man and deceitfull.
7 But I will come into thine house in the multitude of thy mercie: and in thy feare will I worship thine holy Temple.
8 Leade me, O Lord, in thy righteousnes, because of mine enemies: make thy way plaine before my face.
9 For no constancie is in their mouth: within, they are very corruption: their throte is an open sepulchre, and they flatter with their tongue.
10 Destroy them, O God: let them fall by their own counsels: cast them out for the multitude of their iniquities, because they haue rebelled against thee.
11 And let all them that trust in thee rejoice, let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that loue thy Name, be joyful in thee.
12 For thou wilt bless the righteous; O Lord, thou wilt compass him with favour as with a shielde.

8 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make thy way plain before my face.
9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness: their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.
10 Hold them guilty, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.
11 But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.
12 For thou wilt bless the righteous; O LORD, thou wilt compass him with favour as with a shielde.
To him that excelleth on Neginoth upon the eighth tune. A Psalme of Davids. O lord, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chaste me in thy hot displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O Lord; for I am weak: O Lord heale me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore troubled: but Lord how long wilt thou delay?

4 Returne, O Lord: deliuer my soule: saue me for thy mercies sake.

5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the graue who shall prayse thee?

6 I fainted in my mourning: I cause my bed euery night to swimme, and water my couch with my teares.

7 Mine eye is dimmed for despight, and sunke in because of all mine enemies.

8 Away from mee all ye workers of iniquitie: for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my supplication; the Lord will receive my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shall be confounded and sore vexed: they shall turn backe, they shall be ashamed suddenly.

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, set to the Sheminith. A Psalm of David. O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chaste me in thy hot displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O Lord; for I am withered away: O Lord, heal me; for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul also is sore vexed: but thou, O Lord, how long?

4 Return, O Lord, deliver my soul: save me for thy lovingkindness' sake.

5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

6 I am weary with my groaning; every night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears.

7 Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine adversaries.

8 Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my petition; the Lord will receive my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shall be ashamed and sore vexed: they shall turn back, they shall be ashamed suddenly.

but guide thou the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

10 My defence is in God, who preserveth the upright in heart.

11 God judgeth the righteous, and him that contemneth God every day.

12 Except he turne, he hath whet his sword: he hath bent his bowe and made it readie.

13 Hee hath also prepared him deadly weapons: hee will ordain his arrowes for them that persecute me.

14 Beholde, hee shall travaile with wickednes: for he hath conceiued mischief, but he shall bring forth a lye.

15 Hee hath made a pitte and digged it, and is fallen into the pit that he made.

16 His mischief shall returne vpon his owne head, and his crueltie shall fall vpon his owne pate.

17 I will praise the Lord according to his righteousnes, and will sing praise to the name of the Lord most high.

11 God is a righteous judge, yea, a God that hath indignation every day.

12 If a man turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

14 Behold, he travaileth with iniquity; yea, he hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

15 He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

17 I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.
To him that excelleth on Gittith. A Psalme of Dauid. O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy Name in all the worlde! which hast set thy glory aboue the heauens.
2 Out of the mouth of babes and suckelings hast thou ordeined strength, because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemie and the auenger.
3 When I beholde thine heauens, euen the workes of thy fingers, the moone and the starres which thou hast ordeined,
4 What is man, say I, that thou art mindefull of him? and the sonne of man, that thou visitest him?
5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the anges, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.
6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things vnder his feet:
7 All sheepe and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;
8 The foules of the ayre, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.
9 O Lord our Lord, howe excellent is thy name in all the world!

For the Chief Musician; set to the Gittith. A Psalm of David. O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory upon the heavens.
2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou established strength, because of thine adversaries, that thou mightest still the enemie and the avenger.
3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;
4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?
5 For thou hast made him but little lower than God, and crownest him with glory and honour.
6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:
7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;
8 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.
9 O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!
To him that excelleth upon Muthlabben. A Psalm of David. I will praise the Lord with my whole heart: I will speake of all thy maruellous works.
2 I will bee glad, and reioyce in thee: I will sing praise to thy Name, O most High,
3 For that mine enemies are turned backe: they shall fall, and perish at thy presence.
4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause: thou satest in the throne, and iudgest right.
5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen: thou hast destroyed the wicked: thou hast put out their name for ever and euer.
6 O enemie, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished ever.
7 But the Lord shall sit for euer: hee hath prepared his throne for iudgement.
8 For he shall iudge the worlde in righteousnes, and shall judge the people with equitie.
9 The Lord also wil be a refuge for the poore, a refuge in child time, euen in affliction.
10 And they that know thy Name, will put their trust in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O most High,

For the Chief Musician; set to Muthlabben. A Psalm of Dauid. I will praise the Lord with my whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.
2 I will be glad and reioyce in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou Most High.
3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.
4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging righteously.
5 Thou hast rebuked the nations, thou hast destroyed the wicked: thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.
6 The enemy are come to an end, they are desolate for ever; and the cities which thou hast overthrown, their very memorial is perished.
7 But the Lord sitteth as king for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.
8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the peoples in uprightness.
9 The Lord also will be a high tower for the oppressed, a high tower in times of trouble;
10 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee; for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.
11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion: declares among the people his doings.
12 For he that maketh inquisition for blood remembereth them: he forgettest not the cry of the poor.
13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; behold my affliction which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:
14 That I may shew forth all thy praise: in the gates of the daughter of Zion, I will rejoice in thy salvation.
15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.
16 The LORD hath made himself known, he hath executed judgment: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. [Higgaion. Selah]
17 The wicked shall return to Sheol, even all the nations that forget God.
18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.
19 Arise, O LORD; let not man prevail: let the heathen be judged in thy sight.
20 Put them in fear, O LORD: let the nations know themselves to be but men. [Selah]
Why standest thou far off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

2 In the pride of the wicked the poor is hotly pursued; let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

3 For the wicked hath made boast of his owne heartes desire, and the covetous blesseth himselfe: he doth contram the Lord.

4 The wicked is so proude that hee seeketh not for God: hee thinketh himselfe, he abhorreth the Lord.

5 His wayes alway prosper: thy iudgements are hie for I shall never be moved: nor aboue his sight: therefore defieth he all his enemies.

6 He saith in his heart, I shall neuer be moued, nor be in danger.

7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceite and fraude: vnder his tongue is mischiefe and iniquitie.

8 He lieth in waite in the villages: in the secret places doeth hee murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the helpless.

9 He lurketh in the covert as a lyon in his denne: he lyeth in waite secretly, euen as a lyon in his den: he lieth in waite to spoyle the poore: he doth catch the poore, when he draweth him into his net.

10 He croucheth, he boweth down, and the helpless fall by his strong ones.

11 Why standest thou in grave of mercy, O LORD? why hidest thee in grave of times of grave?

12 He croucheth, he boweth down, and the helpless when he draweth him in his net.

13 For the wicked hath made boast of his owne heartes desire, and the covetous blesseth himselfe: he doth contemn the Lord.

14 The wicked is so proude that hee seeketh not for God: hee thinketh himselfe, he abhorreth the Lord.

15 His wayes alway prosper: thy iudgements are hie for I shall never be in adversity.

16 He saith in his heart, I shall neuer be moued, nor aboue his sight: therefore defieth he all his enemies.

17 His mouth is full of cursing and deceite and fraude: vnder his tongue is mischiefe and iniquitie.

18 He lieth in waite in the villages: in the secret places doeth hee murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the helpless.

19 He lurketh in the covert as a lyon in his den: he lieth in waite to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him in his net.

20 He croucheth, he boweth down, and the helpless fall by his strong ones.

Why standest thou far off, O Lord, and hidest thee in grave of times of grave?
10 He croucheth and boweth: therefore heaps of the poor doe fall by his might.
11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten, he hideth away his face, and will neuer see.
12 Arise, O Lord God: lift vp thine hande: forget not the poore.
13 Wherefore doeth the wicked contemne God? he saith in his heart, Thou wilt not regard.
14 Yet thou hast scene it: for thou beholdest mischief and wrong, that thou mayest take it into thine handes: the poore committeth himselfe vnto thee: thou hast been the helper of the fatherlesse.
15 Break thou the arme of the wicked and malicious: searche his wickednes, and thou shalt finde none.
16 The Lord is King for euer and euer: the heathen are perished out of his land.
17 Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:
18 To judge the fatherlesse and poore, that earthly man cause to feare no more.
To him that excelleth. A Psalme of Dauid. In the Lord put I my trust: how say ye then to my soule, Flee to your mountaine as a birde?
2 For loe, the wicked bende their bowe, and make readie their arrowes vpon the string, that they may secretly shoote at them, which are upright in heart.
3 For the foundations are cast downe: what hath the righteous done?
4 The Lord is in his holy palace: the Lordes throne is in the heauen: his eyes wil consider: his eye lids will try the children of men.
5 The Lord will try the righteous: but the wicked and him that loueth iniquitie, doeth his soule hate.
6 Upon the wicked he shall raine snares, fire, and brimstone, and stormie tempest: this is the porcion of their cup.
7 For the righteous Lord loueth righteousnes: his countenance doeth behold the iust.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. In the LORD put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?
2 For, lo, the wicked bend the bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart. {privily: Heb. in dark-ness}
3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?
4 The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.
5 The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.
6 Upon the wicked he shall rain snares; fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup. {an horrible...: or, a burning tempest}
7 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doeth beholde the upright.
To him that excelleth upon the eighth tune. A Psalm of David. Helpe Lord, for there is not a godly man left: for the faithfull are fayled from among the children of men.

2 They speake deceitfully euery one with his neighbour, flattering with their lips, and speake with a double heart.

3 The Lord cut off all flattering lippes, and the tongue that speaketh proud things:

4 Which haue saide, With our tongue will we preuaile: our lippes are our owne: who is Lord ouer us?

5 Now for the oppression of the needy, and for the sighes of the poore, I will vp, saith the Lord, I will set at libertie him, whom the wicked hath snared.

6 The wordes of the LORD are pure wordes; as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seuen folde.

7 Thou wilt keepe them, O Lord: thou wilt preserue them from this generation for euer.

8 The wicked walke on euery side, when vileness is exalted among the sons of men.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. How long, O LORD, wilt thou forget me for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me? 2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me? 3 Consider and answer me, O LORD my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death; 4 Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; lest mine adversaries rejoice when I am moved. 5 But I have trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation: 6 I will sing unto the Lord, because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God: they have corrupted, and done an abominable worke: there is none that doeth good. 2 The Lord looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God. 3 All are gone out of the way: they are all corrupt: they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good. 4 Lest mine enemie say, I have preuailed against him: and those that afflict me rejoice when I am moved. 5 But I trust in thy mercie: mine heart shall rejoiece in thy salvation: I will sing to the Lord, because he hath delt louingly with me.
A Psalm of David. LORD, who shall sojourn in thy Tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?
2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh truth in his heart.
3 He that slandereth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.
4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his owne hinderance and changeth not.
5 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent: hee that doeth these things shall never be moved.

Upon the LORD.
5 There were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous.
6 Ye put to shame the counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge.
7 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

A Psalm of David. LORD, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?
2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.
3 He that slandereth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor receiveth a false report against his neighbour.
4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his owne hinderance and changeth not.
5 He that giueth not his money vnto vsurie, nor taketh reward against the innocent.

Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion: when the LORD turneth the captiuitie of his people, then Iaakob shall reioyce, and Israel shall be glad.
Michtam of David. Preserve me, O God: for in thee I put my trust.

2 I have said unto the LORD, Thou art my Lord: I have no good beyond thee.

3 As for the saints that are in the earth, they are the excellent in whom is all my delight.

4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

5 The LORD is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

7 I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons.

8 I have set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall dwell in safety.

10 For thou wilt not leave my soul in the grave; neither wilt thou suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

11 Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; in thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

ERV  HEBREW - WTT
A Prayer of David. Hear the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

1. For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

2. Let my sentence come forth from thy presence, and let thine eyes behold equity.

3. Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

4. Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

5. Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not. {slip...: Heb. be not moved}

6. I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

7. Shew thy marvellous lovingkindness, O thou that art the Saviour of them that trust in thee, from such as resist thy right hand.

8. Keep me as the apple of the eye: hide me under the shadow of thy wings,

9. From the wicked that spoil me, my deadly enemies, that compass me about.

10. They are enclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.

11. They have now compassed us in our steps: they set their eyes to cast us down to the earth.

12. Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy: and at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

4. Concerning the works of men, by the words of thy lips I kept mee from the paths of the cruel man.

5. Stay my steps in thy paths, that my feets doe not slide.

6. I haue called vpon thee: surely thou wilt heare me, O God: incline thine earre to me, and hearken vnto my worde.

7. Shewe thy maruellous mercies, thou that art the Saviour of them that trust in thee, from such as resist thy right hand.

12 He is like a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.
13 Arise, O LORD, confront him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked by thy sword;
14 From men, by thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, whose portion is in this life, whose bellies thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.
15 As for me, I shall behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.
For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the Lord, who spake unto the Lord the words of this song in the day that the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: and he said,> I will love thee, O Lord my strength.

2 The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strong rock, in him will I trust; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.

3 I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of wickedness made me afraid.

5 The cords of death compassed me, and the floods of wickedness made me afraid. [ungodly men: Heb. Belial]

6 But in my trouble did I call vpon the Lord, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 Then the earth shook and quaked: the foundations also of the mountains moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down, and out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

10 He judged the earth: he heard my voice out of his temple, 11 And my cry before him came into his ears.

12 The sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death overtook me.

13 The cords of Sheol were round about me: the snare of death came on me.

14 My soul was full of sorrows: my life fell into destruction.

15 I called upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

To him that excelleth. A Psalm of Dauid the seruant of the Lord, which spake unto the Lord the wordes of this song (in the day that the Lord delivereid him for the hande of all this enemies, and form the and of saul) and sayd, I will love thee dearely, O Lord my strength.

3 I will call vpon the Lord, which is worthie to be prayed: so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

4 The sorowes of death compassed me, and the floods of wickednes made me afaire.

5 The sorowes of the graue haue compassed me about: the floods of wickednes made me afraide.

33 He maketh my feet like hinds’ feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

40 Thou hast also made mine enemies turn their backs unto me, that I might cut off them that hate me.

They part my garments among them, and cast lots vpon my vesture. My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels. 21 Save me from the lion’s mouth; yea, from the horns of the wild-oxen thou hast answered me.
22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.
23 Prayse the Lord, ye that fear him: magnifie ye him, all the seede of Iaakob, and feare ye him, all the seede of Israel.
24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred ye afflic-tion of the poore: neither hath he hid his face from him, but when he called vnto him, he heard.
25 My praye shalbe of thee in the great Congregation: my vowes will I perfourme before them that feare him.
26 The poore shall eate and be satisfied: they that seeke after the Lord, shall prayse him: your heart shall liue for euer.
27 All the endes of the world shall remember themselves, and turne to the Lord: and all the kin-reds of the nations shall worship before thee.
28 For the kingdome is the Lords, and he ruleth among the nations.
29 All they that be fat in the earth, shall eate and worship: all they that go downe into the dust, shall unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

28 For the kingdom is the LORD's: and he is the governor among the nations. All they that be fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall how before him: and none can keep alive his own soul.

A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the LORD for a generation. They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, because he hath done it.

A Psalm of David. The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Doubtlesse kindnesse and mercie shall follow me unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

Their seede shall serue him: it shalbe counted vnto the Lord for a generation. They shall come, and shall declare his righteousnesse vnto a people that shall be borne, because he hath done it.

A Psalme of David. The Lord is my shepheard, I shall not want. He maketh me to rest in greene pasture, and leadeth me by the still waters. He restoreth my soule, and leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his Names sake. Yea, though I should walke through the valley of the shadowe of death, I will feare no euill: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staffe, they comfort me. Thou doest prepare a table before me in the sight of mine aduersaries: thou doest anoynt mine head with oyle, and my cuppe runneth ouer. Doubtlesse kindnesse and mercie shall follow me unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.
A Psalm of David. The earth is the LORD’S, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

2 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place?

4 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

5 He shall receive a blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. [Selah]

7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of glory shall come in.

8 Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors, and the King of glory shall come in.

10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. [Selah]

13 His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the land.

14 The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant.

15 Mine eyes are ever toward the LORD; for he will pluck my feet out of the net.

16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.

17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring me out of my distresses.

A Psalm of David. Judge me, O LORD, for I have walked in mine integrity: I have trusted also in the LORD; therefore shall I not slide.

3 For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes: and I have walked in thy truth.
4 I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers.
5 I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and will not sit with the wicked.

Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in distress: mine eye wasteth away with grief, yea, my soul and my body.

For my life is spent with sorrow, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.

I was a reproach among all mine enemies, especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me.

I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

For I have heard the defaming of many, terror on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God.

My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

Make thy face to shine upon thy servant, save me in thy lovingkindness.

Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, let them be silent in Sheol.

Let the lying lips be dumb; which speak against...
PSALM 31

16 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake.
17 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave. {silent...: or, cut off for}
18 Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemnuously against the righteous. {grievous...: Heb. a hard thing}
19 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!
20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.
21 Blessed be the LORD: for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city. {strong: or, fenced}
22 As for me, I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.
23 O love the LORD, all ye his saints: for the LORD preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.
24 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD.

the righteous insolently, with pride and contempt.
19 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee, which thou hast wrought for them that put their trust in thee, before the sons of men!
20 In the covert of thy presence shalt thou hide them from the plottings of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.
21 Blessed be the LORD: for he hath shewed me his marvelous lovingkindness in a strong city.
22 As for me, I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou hearest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.
23 O love the LORD, all ye his saints: the LORD preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.
24 All ye that trust in the LORD, be strong, and he shall establish your heart.
A Psalm of David. Maschil. Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my roaring all the day long.

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, neither hid I mine iniquity: for I thought, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

6 For this let every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time, when thou mayest be found: surely when thou art found, thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. [Selah]

7 Thou art my hiding place; thou wilt preserve me from trouble; thou wilt compass me about with songs of deliverance. [Selah]

8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way that thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose trappings must be bit and bridle, least they come near thee.
9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.

11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous: and be joyfull all ye, that are upright in heart.

Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous: for it became vpright men to be thankefull.

2 Give thanks unto the LORD with harp: sing unto him with viole and instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a newe song: sing cheerefully with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.

4 For the word of the LORD is right; and all his workes are faithfull.

5 He loueth righteousness and iudgement: the earth is full of the goodnesse of the Lord.

6 By the word of the LORD were the heauens made, and all the hoste of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: and layeth vp the depth in his treasurers.

8 Let all the earth feare the Lord: let al them that are upright in heart.

9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they will not come near to thee.

10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the Lord, mercie shall compass him about.

11 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous: and be joyfull all ye, that are upright in heart.

10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the nations to nought: he maketh the thoughts of the peoples to be of none effect.
11 The counsel of the LORD standeth fast for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.
12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.
13 The LORD looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men;
14 From the place of his habitation he looketh forth upon all the inhabitants of the earth;
15 He that fashioneth the hearts of them all, that considereth all their works.
16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by great strength.
17 An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great power.
18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;
19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.
20 Our soul hath waited for the LORD: he is our help and our shield.
21 For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.
21 Surely our heart shall rejoice in him, because we trusted in his holy Name.
22 Let thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we trust in thee.

A Psalm of David; when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed. I will alway giue thankes vnto the Lord: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 I will alway giue thankes vnto the Lord: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

3 O magnify the Lord with me, and let vs magnifie his name together.

4 I sought the Lord, and he answered me, and deliuered me out of all my feare.

5 They shall looke vnto him, and runne to him: and their faces shall not be ashamed, saying,

6 This poore man cryed, and the Lord heard him, and saued him out of all his troubles.

7 The Angel of the Lord pitcheth round about them, that feare him, and deliuereth them.

8 Taste ye and see, howe gratious the Lord is: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 Feare the Lord, ye his Saintes: for nothing wanteth to them that feare him.

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.

11 Surely our heart shall rejoice in him, because we trusted in his holy Name.
12 Let thy mercy, O Lord, be upon vs, as we trust in thee.

13 Truly our heart shall rejoice in him, because we trusted in his holy Name.
14 Let thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us, as we trust in thee.

15 O taste and see, howe gratious the Lord is: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.
16 Feare the Lord, ye his Saintes: for nothing wanteth to them that feare him.
17 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.

21 O taste and see, howe gratious the Lord is: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.
22 Feare the Lord, ye his Saintes: for nothing wanteth to them that feare him.

23 The man that trusteth in him shall not be moved: he shall be settled as a stone.
24 He that trusteth in the Lord shall be safe, and he that trusteth in his holy name shall not be moved.

25 O magnify the Lord with me, and let vs magnifie his name together.

26 I magnifie the Lord with vs all the day long, and in the night season will I not be moued.
27 With my song will I magnifie the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

28 I will magnifie the Lord, and I will magnifie the Lord.
29 I will magnifie the Lord, and I will magnifie the Lord.
30 I will magnifie the Lord, and I will magnifie the Lord.
31 I will magnifie the Lord, and I will magnifie the Lord.

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?
13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.
14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.
15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.
16 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.
17 The righteous cried, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.
18 The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart, and will save such as be of a contrite spirit.
19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all.
20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.
21 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous, shall perish.
22 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be condemned.
Psalm 35

A Psalm of David. Strive thou, O LORD, with them that strive with me: fight thou against them, that fight against me.

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy help.

4 Let them be ashamed and brought to dishonour that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion, that imagine mine hurt.

5 Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the Angel of the LORD drive them on.

6 Let their way be dark and slippery, and let the Angel of the LORD drive them on.

7 For without cause have they hid for me their net that they have hid catch himself: with destruction let him fall therein.

8 Let destruction come upon him at unawares; and let his net that he hath hid catch himself: with destruction let him fall therein.

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoice in his salvation.

10 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him and none, that trust in him, shall perish.
8 Let destruction come upon him at unawares; and destruction let him fall. {[as...: Heb. which he knoweth not of]} 9 And my soul shall be joyful in the Lord: it shall rejoice in his salvation.
10 All my bones shall say, Lord, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?
11 False witnesses did rise up; they laid to my charge things that I knew not. {False...: Heb. Wit.

12 They rewarded me evil for good, to have spoiled me, and ceased not:
13 Yet I, when they were sick, I was clothed with sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting; and my prayer returned into mine own bosom. {humbled:
as though...: Heb. as a friend, as a brother to me} 14 I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or brother: I bowed down heavy, as one that mour bled my selfe, mourning as one that mour; 15 But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: the abjects gathered them selves together against me, and I knew it not; they gnashed their teeth against me.
16 With the false skoffers at feasts, gnashing their teeth against me.
17 Lord, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul from their destruction, my darling from the lions.
18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation:
I will praise thee among much people.
19 Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me: neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.
20 For they speak not peace: but they devise deceit-his net, that he hath laid privulie, take him: let him fall into the same destruction.
21 Then my soul shall be joyful in the Lord: it shall rejoice in his salvation.
22 All my bones shall say, Lord, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him, that is too strong for him: yea, the poor and him that is in miserie, from him that spoyleth him!

thee, which deliverest the poore from him, that is

26 Lord, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul from their destruction, my darling from the lions.
27 Lord, how long wilt thou behold this? deliuer my soule from their tumult, euen my desolate soule that spoileth him?

18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation:

Psalm 35

18 So will I give thee thanks in a great congregation: I will praise thee among much people.
19 Let not them that are mine enemies, vniustly reioyce ouer mee, neyther let them winke with the eye, that hate mee without a cause.
20 For they speake not as friendes: but they imagine deceitfull woorde against the quiet of the lande.
21 And they gaped on mee with their mouthes, saying, Aha, aha, our eye hath seene.
22 Thou hast seene it, O Lord: keepe not silence: be not farre from me, O Lord.
23 Stir up thyself, and awake to my iudgement, euen to my cause, my God, and my Lord.
24 Judge me, O Lord my God, according to thy righteousness, and let them not reioyce over me.
25 Let them not say in their hearts, O our soule reioyce: neither let them say, We haue deuoured him.
26 Let them bee confounded, and put to shame together, that reioyce at mine hurt: let them bee clothed with confusion and shame, that lift vp themselves against me.
27 But let them be ioyful and glad, that loue my righteous cause: yea, let them say alway, Let the Lord be magnified, which loueht the prosperitie of his seruant.

16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth.
17 Lord, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul from their destructions, my darling from the lions.
18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among much people. {much: Heb. strong}
19 Let not them that are mine enemies, vniustly reioyce ouer mee, neyther let them winke with the eye, that hate mee without a cause. {wrongfully: Heb. falsely}
20 For they speak not peace: but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.
21 Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it.
22 This thou hast seen, O LORD; keep not silence: O Lord, be not far from me.
23 Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment, even unto my cause, my God and my Lord.
24 Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me.
25 Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we have it: let them not say, We have swallowed him up.
26 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that rejoice at mine hurt: let them bee clothed with confusion and shame, that lift vp themselves against me.
27 But let them be joyful and glad, that loue my righteousnesse: yea, let them say alway, Let the Lord be magnified, which loueth the prosperitie of his seruant.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD. The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful. {until...: Heb. to find his iniquity to hate} 3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to understand and to do good.

4 He deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

5 Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousness is like the mountains; thy judgments are like a great deep: thou, Lord, preservest man and beast.

7 How precious is thy lovingkindness, O God! and the children of men take refuge under the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

9 For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

10 O continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness unto the upright in heart.

PSALM 36

To him that excelleth. A Psalm of David, the servant of the Lord. Wickedness sayeth to the wicked man, euen in mine heart, that there is no feare of God before his eyes.

2 For hee flattereth himselfe in his owne eyes, while his iniquitie is foude worthy to be hated.

3 The wordes of his mouth are iniquitie and deceite: hee hath left off to understand and to doe good.

4 Hee imagineth mischief vpon his bed: he setteth himselfe vpon a way, that is not good, and doeth not abhorre euill.

5 Thy mercy, O Lord, reacheth vnto the heauens, and thy emoune vnto the cloudes.

6 Thy righteousnes is like the mightie moutaines: thy iudgements are like a teemeede: thou, Lord, preservest man and beast.

7 Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity:

8 It is like the precious oil upon the head, running down upon the face of Aaron.

9 It is the anointing oil upon thy house, running down upon the head of Zadock.

10 Answer me quickly, O Lord; my soul dependeth on thee: give me the face of mercy, and an answer from thy holy place.

11 Let the feet of those that go in to the temple of God be sped: let the prayer of David be pleasant, and our prayer unto thee, O Lord. {footes...: Heb. speedeth} judgments are a great deep: O LORD, thou preservest man and beast. {the...: Heb. the mountains of God}

7 How excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. {excellent: Heb. precious}

8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures. {abundantly: Heb. watered}

9 For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

10 O continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart. {continue: Heb. draw out at length}

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

A Psalm of David. Fret not thyself because of evil-doers, neither be thou envious against them that work unrighteousness.

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. {verily:}

4 And delight thyself in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass.

6 Add he shall make thy righteousness to go forth as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

7 Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself, it tendeth only to evil-doing.

9 For evil-doers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the land.
10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and he shall not be.
11 But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.
12 The wicked ploteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth. {ploteth: or, practiseth}
13 The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his day is coming.
14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, to spill such as be upright in the way:
15 But their sword shall enter into their own heart, and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.
16 Better is a little that the righteous hath than the abundance of many wicked.
17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the righteous upholdeth the righteous.
18 The LORD knoweth the days of the perfect: and their inheritance shall be for ever.
19 They shall not be ashamed in the time of evil: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.
20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as the excellency of the pastures: they shall consume; in smoke shall they consume away.

5 Commit thy way vnto the Lord, and trust in him, and he shall bring it to passe.
6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgement as the noone day.
7 Waite patiently vpon the Lord and hope in him: fret not thyself because of him which prospereth in his way: nor for the man that bringeth his enterprises to passe.
8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself because of him which prospereth in his way, nor for the man that bringeth his enterprises to passe.
9 For euill doers shalbe cut off, and they that wait selfe also to doe euill.
10 Therefore yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be found.
11 But meeke men shall possesse the earth, and shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and he shall not appeare, and thou shalt looke after his place, and he shall not be found.

1 And their bows shall be broken.
2 A small thing vnto the iust man is better, then great riches to the wicked and mightie.
3 For the armes of the wicked shall be broken: but the Lord vpholdeth the iust men.
4 The Lord knoweth the dayes of vpright men, and their inheritance shall bee perpetuall.
5 They shall not be confounded in the perilous time, and in the daies of famine they shall haue ynoough.
6 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the Lord shall be as the fatte of lambs: euuen with the smoke they shall consume away.
7 The Lord shall be as the fatte of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.
8 For such as be blessed of God, shall inherite the lande, and they that be cursed of him, shalbe cut off.
9 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the daies of famine they shall haue enioyeth the blessing.
10 The righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.
11 A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.
12 Their sword shall enter into their owne heart, and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.
13 The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord: and he delighteth in his way.
14 A man's goings are established of the Lord; and he delighteth in his way.
15 Their sword shall enter into their owne heart, and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.
16 A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not againe. but the righteous is mercifull, and giueth.
22 For such as be blessed of God, shall inherite the lande, and they that be cursed of him, shalbe cut off.
23 The pathes of man are directed by the Lord: for he loueth his way.
24 Though he fall, hee shall not be cast off: for the Lord putteth vnder his hand.
25 I haue beene yong, and am old: yet I sawe neuer
26 But hee is euer mercifull and lendeth, and his seede enioyeth the blessing.
27 Flee from euill and doe good, and dwell for euer.
28 For the LORD loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.
29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.
30 The mouth of the righteous talketh of wisdom, and his tongue speaketh judgment.
31 The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance. O Lord, rebuke me not in thy wrath, neither chastise me in thy hot displeasure.

2 For thine arrows are light upon me, and thine hand lyeth upon me.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh, because of thine indignation; neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin.

4 For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as a weightie burden they are too heauie for me.

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness.

6 I am pained and bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with burning; and there is no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am faint and sore bruised: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

9 Lord, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart throbeth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from me; and my kinsmen stand afar off.

12 They also that seek after my life lay snares for me; and they that seek my hurt speak mischievous
For my reins are full of burning, and there is nothing sound in my flesh.

I am weakened and sore broken: I roare for the very griefe of mine heart.

Lord, I powre my whole desire before thee, and my sighing is not hid from thee.

Mine heart panteth: my strength faileth me, and the light of mine eyes, euin they are not mine owne.

My lovers and my friends stand aside from my plague, and my kinsmen stand a farre off.

They also, that seeke after my life, laye snares, and they that go about to do me euil, talke wicked things and imagine deceite continually.

But I as a deafe man heard not, and am as a dumme man, which openeth not his mouth.

Thus am I as a man, that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofes.

For on thee, O Lord, do I waite: thou wilt heare me, my Lord, my God.

For I said, Heare me, lest they reioyce ouer me: when my foot slippeth, they extol themselues against me.

Surely I am ready to halte, and my sorrow is euver before me.

When I declare my paine, and am sory for my sinne,
3 LORD, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; let me know how frail I am. {how...: or, what time I have here}

5 Beholde, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: surely every man at his best estate is altogether vanity. [Selah]

6 Surely every man walketh in a vain shew: surely man at his best estate is altogether vanity. [Selah]

7 And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foolish.

9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.

10 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.

11 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin.

12 But mine enemies are lively, and they are strong: and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied. {are lively...: Heb. being living, are strong}

13 They also that render evil for good are mine adversaries; because I follow the thing that is good.

14 Forsake me not, O LORD: O my God, be not far from me.

15 Make haste to help me, O Lord my salvation. [to...: Heb. for my help]

To the excellent musician Jeduthun. I thought, I will take heed to my ways, that I sinne not with my tongue: I will keepe my mouth bridled, while the wicked is in my sight.

2 I was dumme and spake nothing; I kept silece even from good, and my sorrow was more stirred.

3 Mine heart was hote within me, and while I was musing the fire kindeled, and I spake with my tongue, saying,

4 LORD, let me know mine ende, and the measure of my dayes, what it is: let mee knowe howe long I haue to liue.

5 Beholde, thou hast made my dayes as an hand
5 Behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee:

6 Surely every man walketh in a vain shew: surely he is disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now Lord, what wait I for? my hope is euen in thee.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions, and make me not a rebuke unto the foolish.

9 I should have bene dumme, and not have opened my mouth, because thou didest it.

10 Remove thy plague away from me: for I am consumed by the stroke of thine hand.

11 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou as a mother makest his beautie to consume: surely every man is vanity. Selah.

12 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and hearken unto my cry: hold not thy peace at my tears, for I am a stranger with thee, a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

13 O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence and be no more.
To him that excelleth. A Psalm of David. I waited patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and ordered my goings.

3 And he hath put in my mouth a new song, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the Lord.

4 Blessed is the man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

5 Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order to thee, if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than I am able to express.

6 Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come; in the roll of the book it is written of me,

8 I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

9 I have published righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I will not refrain my lips, O LORD,
10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; but I have declared thy truth and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy mercie and thy truth alway preserue me.

12 For innumerable troubles have compassed mee: my sinnes have taken such holde vpon me, that I am not able to looke vp: yea, they are moe in nomber then the heares of mine head: therefore mine heart hath failed me.

13 Let it please thee, O Lord, to deliuer mee: make haste, O Lord, to helpe me.

14 Let them be ashamed and put to shame togethther, that seeke my soule to destroye it: let them be driuen backward and put to rebuke, that desire mine hurt.

15 Let them be destroyed for a rewarde of their shame, which say vnto me, Aha, aha.

16 Let all them, that seeke thee, reioyce and be glad in thee: and let them, that loue thy saluation, say alway, The Lord be praysed.

17 Though I be poore and needie, the Lord thinketh on mee: thou art mine helper and my deliuerer: my God, make no tarying.

thou knowest.

10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; but I have declared thy truth and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy mercie and thy truth continually preserue me.

12 For innumerable evils have compassed mee about: mine iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head, and my heart hath failed me.

13 Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me: make haste to help me, O Lord.

14 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it: let them be driuen backward and put to rebuke, that desire mine hurt.

15 Let them be destroyed for a reward of their shame, which say unto me, Aha, aha.

16 Let all them, that seekke thee, reioyce and be glad in thee: and let them, that loue thy saluation, say alway, The Lord be praysed.

17 Though I be poore and needie, the Lord thinketh on mee: thou art mine helper and my deliuerer: my God, make no tarying.
16 But I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh 17 upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer: make no tarrying, O my God.

10 Therefore, O Lord, have mercy upon me, and 11 raise me up, that I may requite them.

9 Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me.

8 An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him:
and his name perish?

7 All that hate me whisper together against me:
abroad, he telleth it.

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity;
and his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me, saying, When shall he die, and his name perish?

Therefore will we praise God continually, and will confess thy Name for ever. Selah.

But thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

But thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our hosts.

But thou hast cast us off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

Therefore will we praise God continually, and will confess thy Name for ever. Selah.

In God have we made our boast all the day long, and praise thy Name for ever.

But thou hast saved us from our adversaries, and hast put them to shame that hate us.

But thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

Therefore will we praise God continually, and will confess thy Name for ever. Selah.
13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a jest and a laughing stocke to them that are round about us.
14 Thou makest us a byword among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people.
15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, 16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and avenger.
17 All this is come upon us; yet have we not forget-ten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.
18 Our heart is not turned back, neither have our steps declined from thy way; {steps: or, goings} 19 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.
20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god; 21 Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth
the secrets of the heart.
22 Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long;
we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.
23 Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever.
24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?
25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly

To him that excelleth on Shoshannim a song of love to give instruction, committed to the sons of Korah. Mine heart will vter forth a good matter: I wil intreat in my works of the King: my tongue is as the pen of a swift writer.

1 Thou art fairer than the children of men: grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for euer.

2 Thou art fairer than the children of men; grace is thy right hand: they are in the heart of the king's enemies.

3 Gird thy sword vpon thy thigh, O most mightie, thy worship and thy glory, for ever.

4 And in thy majesty ride vpon the worde of trueth and meeknes and of righteousnes: so prosper thou, ride thou.

5 Thine arrowes are sharpe to pearce the heart of the King: thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

6 Thy throne, O God, is for euer and euer: the sceptre of thy kingdome is a right sceptre.

7 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated wickednesse: therefore God, thy God, hath anoynted thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

8 All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia; out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made thee glad.

9 Kings' daughters are among thy honourable women: at thy right hand doth stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

For the Chief Musician; set to Shoshannim; a Psalm of the sons of Korah, Maschil, A Song of loves: My heart overfloweth with a goodly matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the king: my tongue is as the pen of a ready writer.

9 Kings daugthers were among thine honorable wiues: vpon thy right hand did stand the Queene in a vesture of golde of Ophir.

thine eare; forget also thine owne people, and thy father’s house;

is thy Lord; and worship thou him.

gift; even the rich among the people shall intreat thy favour.

clothing is of broydred golde.

her shall be brought unto thee.

To him that excelleth upon Alamoth a song committed to the sons of Korah. God is our hope and strength, and help in troubles, ready to be found.
2 Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains fall into the midsts of the sea.
3 Though the waters thereof rage and be troubled, and the mountains shake at the surges of the same.
4 Yet there is a river, whose streams shall make glad the city of God, even the Sanitarie of the Tabernacles of the Most High.

For the Chief Musician; a Psalm of the sons of Korah. Hear this, all ye peoples; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2 Both low and high, rich and poor together.
3 My mouth shall speak wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.
4 I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my mouth of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of knowledge.
5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when iniquity at my heels compasseth me about?
6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;
7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him:
8 (For the redemption of their soul is costly, and must be let alone for ever:)
9 That he should still live alway, that he should not see corruption.
10 For he seeth that wise men die, the fool and the righteous are praising him, and they that curse him speak.

4 I will incline mine eare to a parable, and vtte my graue matter vpon the harp.
5 Wherefore should I feare in the euil dayes, when iniquitie shall compasse me about, as at mine heeles?

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation: and uphold me with thy free spirit.

13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation; and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness. {bloodguiltiness: Heb. bloods}

ERV
Psalm 51

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation: and uphold me with thy free spirit.

13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation; and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

15 O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

16 For thou delightest not in sacrifice; else would I give it: thou hast no pleasure in burnt offering.

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt thou delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

To him that excelleth. A Psalm of David to give instruction. When Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.> Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.
2 Thy tongue deviseth wickedness; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
3 Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.
4 Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.
5 God shall likewise destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee up, and pluck thee out of thy tent, and root thee out of the land of the living. [Selah]
6 The righteous also shall see it, and fear, and shall laugh at him, saying,
7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.
8 But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.
9 I will give thee thanks for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name, for it is good, in the presence of thy saints.

5 God shall likewise destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah. {destro...: Heb. beat thee down}

6 The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him:

7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the multitude of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness. {wickedness: or, substance}

8 But I shall be like a green olive tree in the house of God: for I trusted in the mercie of God for ever and ever.

9 I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy Saints.

To him that excelleth on Mahalath. A Psalme of David to give instruction. The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. they haue corrupted and done abominable wickednes: there is none that doeth good.

2 God looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men, to see if there were any that would understand, and seek God.

3 Euery one is gone backe: they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon God.

5 There were they in great fear, where no fear was: for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee; thou hast put them to shame, because God hath rejected them.

6 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

3 Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

To him that excelleth on Neginoth. A Psalm of David, to give instruction. When the Ziphims came and said unto Saul, Doth not David hide himself with us? Save mee, O God, by thy Name, and by thy power iudge me.

2 Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers are risen vp against me, and tyrants seeke after my soule: they haue not set God before them. Selah.

4 Behold, God is mine helper: the Lord is with them that vpholde my soule.

5 He shall requite the evil unto mine enemies: destroy thou them in thy truth.

6 With a freewill offering will I sacrifice unto thee: I will give thanks unto thy name, O LORD, for it is good.

10 The God of my mercy shall prevent me: God shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies.
11 Slay them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by thy power; and bring them down, O Lord our shield.
12 For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips, let them be taken in their pride, and for cursing and lying which they speak.

Psalm 62

To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

My soul waiteth only upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

2 Yet he is my strength and my salvation; he is my high tower; I shall not be greatly moved.

3 How long wilt thou imagine mischief against a man? thou shalt be slain all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency; their delight is in lies: they bless with their mouths, but curse with their hearts. Selah.

5 My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him.

6 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my high tower from the enemy.

7 He shall abide before God for ever: prepare my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

8 So will I sing praise unto thy Name in performing dayly my vows.

9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: in the balances they will go up; they are together lighter than vanity.

10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart thereon.

11 God hath spoken once, twice have I heard this; against the enemy.

12 He shall not be moved: he is greater than all the sons of haughtiness.

13 For the Chief Musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A Psalm of David. My soul waiteth only upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

14 Yet he shall be as a stone hid from the face of the sun; as a secret place; as a stone that is taken out of the wall.

15 They shall be afraid of him: all that desire him shall trouble themselves; they shall be ashamed.

16 All in whom is vanity shall be stubble: the fire shall burn them up; they shall go away like chaff on the floor.

17 But the counsel of the holy is that which endureth forever, even the word of God.

Psalm 64

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of evil-doers; from the tumult of the workers of iniquity:

3 Who have whet their tongue like a sword, and have aimed their arrows, even bitter words:

4 That they may shoot in secret places at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

5 They encourage themselves in an evil purpose; they commune of laying snares privily; they say, Who shall see them?

6 They search out iniquities; We have accomplished, say they, a diligent search: and the inward thought of every one, and the heart, is deep.

7 But God shall shoot at them; with an arrow suddenly shall they be wounded.

8 So they shall be made to stumble, their own tongue being against them: all that see them shall wag the head.

9 And all men shall fear; and they shall declare the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God: every one that sweareth by him shall rejoice in him: for the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

To him that excelleth. A Psalm or song of David. O God, praise waiteth for thee in Zion, and vnto thee shall the vows be performed.

2 Because thou hearest the prayer, vnto thee shall all flesh come.

3 Wicked deeds haue prevailed against me: but thou wilt be mercifull vnto our transgressions.

4 Blessed is he, whom thou chusest, and causest to come to thee: he shall dwell in thy courts, and we shall be satisfied with the pleasures of thine House, euens of thine holy Temple.

5 O God of our salvation, thou wilt answere vs with fearfull signes in thy righteousnes, O thou the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are farre off in the sea.

6 He establisheth the mountaines by his power: and is girded about with strength.

7 He appeaseth the noyse of the seas and the noyse of the waues thereof, and the tumults of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou shalt make the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice. (rejoice: or, sing)
9 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it. [And...: or, after thou hadst made it to desire rain]

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof. [settlest: or, causest rain to descend into] {makest...: Heb. makest it soft with showres: thou blessest the springing thereof.}

5 Come, and see the works of God; he is terrible in unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. [Selah]

6 He turned the sea into dry land: they went through his doing toward the children of men.

7 He ruleth by his might for ever; his eyes observe the river on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

3 Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works! [To the chief Musician. A Song or Psalm. Make a joyful noise unto God, all ye inhabitants of the earth.]

13 Let them be confounded and consumed that are against my soul: let them be covered with reproach and confusion, that seek mine hurt.
14 But I will wait continually, and will praise thee more and more.
15 My mouth shall daily rehearse thy righteousness, and thy salvation: for I know not the number thereof.
16 I will come forward in the strength of the Lord GOD: I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.
17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.
18 Yea, even when I am old and grayheaded, O God, forsake me not, until I have declared thy strength unto the next generation, thy might to every one that is to come.
19 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high; thou hast done great things, O God, who is like unto thee?

A Psalm of Asaph. Yet God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart. {Truly: or, Yet} A Psalm of Asaph. Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are pure in heart.
11 And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the Most High?
12 Behold, these are the wicked; and, being always at ease, they increase in riches.
13 Surely in vain have I cleansed my heart, and washed my hands in iniquity;
14 For all the day long have I been punished, and chastened every morning.
15 If I had said, I will speak thus; behold, I had dealt treacherously with the generation of thy children.
16 When I thought how I might know this, it was too painful for me;
17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God, and considered their latter end.
18 Surely thou setttest them in slippery places: thou castest them down to destruction.
19 How are they become a desolation in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.
20 As a dream when one awaketh; so, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.
21 For my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins:
22 So brutish was I, and ignorant; I was as a beast before thee.
23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou

Psalm 74

11 Why drawest thou back thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom and consume them.
12 Yet God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.
13 Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.
14 Thou brakest the heads of Leviathan in pieces, and gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness.
15 Thou didst cleave fountain and flood: thou driedst up mighty rivers.
16 The day is thine, and the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun.
17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.
18 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and that foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

19 O deliver not the soul of thy turtle-dove unto the wild beast: forget not the life of thy poor for ever.
20 Have respect unto the covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of violence.
21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy name.
22 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause: remember the Lord, and the foolish people hath blasphemed thy Name.
19 Giue not the soule of thy turtledove vnto the beast, and forget not the Congregation of thy poore for euer.
20 Consider thy covenant: for the darke places of the earth are full of the habitations of the cruell.
21 Oh let not the oppresed returne ashamed, but let the poore and needy prayse thy Name.

5 Lift not up your horn on high; speak not with a stiff neck.
6 For neither from the east, nor from the west, nor yet from the south, cometh lifting up.
7 But God is the judge: he putth down one, and lifteth up another.
8 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, and the wine foameth; it is full of mixture, and he poureth out of the same: surely the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.
9 But I will declare for ever, I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

4 We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, hath done.

even the children which should be born; who should 12 Marvelous things did he in the sight of their fathers in the lande of Egypt: euen in the fielde of Zoan.

13 He clave the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap.
14 In the day-time also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.
15 He clave rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.
16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind. [to blow: Heb. to go]

He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fouls like as the sand of the sea: [feathered:... Heb. foul of wing]

And he remembered that God was their rock, and the Most High God their redeemer.

Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

He caused the Eastwind to pass in the heaven, and through his power he brought in the South-winde.

He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fouls as the sand of the sea.

But they flattered him with their mouth, and lied strength, and the most high God their redeemer.

And they remembered that God was their rock, and his wonders.

Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years hastily.

So they did eat and were well filled: for he gave them their desire.

They were not turned from their lust, but the meate was yet in their mouthes.

When the wrath of God came even upon them, and slew the strongest of them, and smote down the chosen men in Israel.

While their meat was yet in their mouths,

They were not estranged from their lust. But they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire;

So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them of the corn of heaven.

When he slew them, then they inquired after him: and turned their rivers into blood, and their streams, that they could not drink.

He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them.

Man did eat the bread of Angels: he sent them meat to the full. {Man:... or, Every one did eat the bread of the mighty}

And turned their rivers into blood, and their streams, that they could not drink.

How often did they rebel against him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!

If they remembered not his hand, nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary.

How he set his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoon;

And turned their rivers into blood, and their streams, that they could not drink.

Man did eat angels’ food: he sent them meat to the full. {Man...: or, Every one did eat the bread of the mighty}

56 Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High God, and kept not his testimonies;
57 But turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow.
58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.
59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:
60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men;
61 And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the adversary’s hand.
62 He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.
63 Fire devoured their young men; and their maidens had no marriage-song.
64 Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation.
65 Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.
66 And he smote his adversaries backward: he put them to a perpetual reproach.
67 Moreover he refused the tent of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim;
68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved.
69 And he built his sanctuary like the heights, like the earth which he hath established for ever.
70 He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:
71 From following the ewes that give suck he brought him, to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.
72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

For the Chief Musician; set to the Gittith. A Psalm of Asaph. Sing aloud unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.

2 Take up the psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, at the full moon, on our solemn feast day.

4 For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
5 He appointed it in Joseph for testimony, when he went out over the land of Egypt: where I heard a language that I knew not.

6 I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands were freed from the potter's wheel.

7 Thou calledst in affliction, and I answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. [Selah]

8 Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me!

9 There shall be no strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god.

10 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 But my people hearkened not to my voice, and Israel would none of me.

12 So I gave them up to their hardnesse of heart, that they might walk in their own counsels.

13 Oh that my people had hearkened to my voice, that Israel had walked in my ways!

14 I should soon subdue their enemies, and turn my hand against their adversaries.

15 The haters of the LORD should submit themselves unto him: but their time should endure for ever.

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice, and Israel would none of me.

12 So I gave them up to their hardnesse of heart, that they might walk in their own counsels.

Asaph.> Sing aloud unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob. {of Asaph: or, for Asaph}

2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the newe moone, in the time appointed, at our feast day.

4 For this is a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he came out of the land of Egypt, where I heard a language, that I understood not.

6 I have withdrawn his shoulder from the burden, and his hands have left the pots.

7 Thou calldest in affliction and I delivered thee, and answered thee in the secret of the thunder: I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. Selah. {Meribah: or, Strife}

8 Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me,

9 Let there be no strange god in thee, neither worship thou any strange god.

10 For I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide and I will fill it.

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice, and Israel would none of me.

12 So I gave them up to their hardnesse of heart, that they might walk in their own counsels.
A Psalm of Asaph. God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods. {of Asaph: or, for Asaph}

2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and respect the persons of the wicked? Selah.

3 Judge the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and destitute.

4 Rescue the poor and needy: deliver them out of the hand of the wicked.

5 They know not, neither do they understand; they walk to and fro in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are moved.

6 I said, Ye are gods, and all of you sons of the Most High.

7 Nevertheless ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

8 Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all the nations.

A Psalm of Asaph. God standeth in the congregation of God; he judgeth among the gods.

2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.

3 Doe right to the poor and fatherlesse: doe justice to the afflicted and destitute.

4 Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

5 They know not, neither do they understand; they walk to and fro in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are moved.

15 So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm.
16 Fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy Name, O Lord.
17 Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:

For the Chief Musician; set to the Gittith. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. How amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts!

1 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the LORD; my heart and my flesh cry out unto the living God.

2 Those that go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God. {strength to...: or, company to company}

3 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. [Selah]

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the highways to Zion.

6 Passing through the valley of Baca make it a well; the rain also covereth the poolees. {Baca...: or, mulberry trees make him a well, etc} {filleth: Heb. covereth}

7 They go from strength to strength, every one of them appeareth before God in Zion.

8 O LORD God of hostes, hearre my prayer: hearken, O God of Iaakob. Selah.

9 Beholde, O God, our shielde, and looke vpon the face of thine Anointed.

10 For a day in thy courtes is better then a thousand. I had rather be a doore keeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For him that excelleth upon Gittith. A Psalm committed to the sons of Korah. O Lord of hosts, howe amiable are thy Tabernacles!

2 My soule longeth, yea, and fainteth for the courtes of the Lord: for mine heart and my flesh reioyce in the liuing God.

3 Yea, the sparrowe hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest for her, where she may lay her yong: euin by thine altars, O Lord of hostes, my King and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thine house: they will euer praise thee. Selah.

5 Blessed is the man, whose strength is in thee, and in whose heart are thy wayes.

6 They going through the vale of Baca, make welles therein: the raine also couereth the poolees.

7 They goe from strength to strength, till euery one appeare before God in Zion.

8 O Lord God of hostes, hearre my prayer: hearken, O God of Iaakob. Selah.

9 Beholde, O God, our shielde, and looke vpon the face of thine Anointed.

10 For a day in thy courtes is better then a thousand other where: I had rather be a doore keeper in the House of my God, then to dwell in the Tabernacles of wickednesse.
11 For the Lord God is the sunne and shield: the Lord will giue grace and glory, and no good thing will he withhold from them that walke uprightly.

12 O Lord of hostes, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. LORD, thou hast been favourable unto thy land: thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people, thou hast covered all their sin. Selah.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: thou hast turned thyself from the fiercenes of thine anger.

4 Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.

5 Wilt thou be angry with us for euer? wilt thou prolong thy wrath from one generation to another?

6 Wilt thou not turne againe and quicken vs, that thy people may reioyce in thee?

7 Shew vs thy mercie, O Lord, and graunt vs thy saluation.

10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness. {I had...: Heb. I would choose rather to sit at the threshold}

11 For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walke uprightly.

12 O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm for the sons of Korah. LORD, thou hast been favourable unto thy land: thou hast brought againe the captiuitie of Iaakob.

2 Thou hast forgiuen the iniquitie of thy people, and covered all their sinnes. Selah.

3 Thou hast withdrawn all thine anger, and hast turned backe from the fiercenes of thy wrath.

4 Turne vs, O God of our saluation, and release thine anger toward vs.

5 Wilt thou be angry with vs for euer? and wilt thou prolong thy wrath from one generation to another?

6 Wilt thou not turne againe and quicken vs, that thy people may reioyce in thee?

7 Shew vs thy mercie, O Lord, and graunt vs thy saluation.
A Prayer Of David. Bow down thine ear, O LORD, and answer me; for I am poor and needy.
2 Preserve my soul; for I am godly: O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.
3 Be merciful unto me, O Lord: for I cry unto thee dayly. {daily: or, all the day}
4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
5 For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive, and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.
6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; and hearken unto the voice of my supplications.
7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee; for thou wilt answer me.
8 There is none like unto thee among the gods, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works.

A prayer of David. Incline thine ear, O Lord, and grant us thy salvation.
2 I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not turn again to folly.
3 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.
4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
5 For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive, and merciful unto all them that call upon thee.
6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; and hearken unto the voice of my supplications.
7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee; for thou wilt answer me.
8 There is none like unto thee among the gods, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works.
9 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy Name.
10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.
11 Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.
12 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart; and I will glorify thy Name for evermore.
13 For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest pit. {hell: or, grave}
14 O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul; and have not set thee before them. {violent: Heb. terrible}
15 But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy and truth.
16 O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me; give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thine handmaid.
17 Shew me a token for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed, because thou, LORD, hast holpen me, and comforted me, and gracious, long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.
16 Turn unto me, and have mercy upon me; give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thy handmaid.
17 Shew me a token for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou, O Lord, hast holpen me and comforted me.

A Psalm or song committed to the sons of Korah. God layde his foundations among the holy mountaines.
2 The Lord loueth the gates of Zion above all the habitations of Iaakob.
3 Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God.
Selah.
4 I will make mention of Rahab and Babel among them that knowe me: beholde Palestina and Tyrus with Ethiopia; this man was born there.
5 And of Zion it shall be said, This one and that one was born in her; and the Most High himself shall establish her.
6 The Lord shall count, when hee writeth the peoples, this one was born there. Selah.
7 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in thee.

tion is in the holy mountains.
2 The LORD loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
3 Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God.

A Song, a Psalm of the sons of Korah; for the Chief Musician; set to Mahalath Leannoth. Maschil of Heman the Ezrahite. O LORD, the God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee:
2 Let my prayer enter into thy presence; incline thine ear unto my cry:
3 For my soul is full of troubles, and my life
draweth nigh unto Sheol.
4 I am counted with them that go down into the pit;
1 Let my prayer enter into thy presence: incline thine ear unto my cry.
2 For my soul is full of troubles: and my life draweth nigh to the grave.
3 Thine indignation lyeth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Selah.
4 I am counted among them that go downe unto the pit: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.
5 Free among the dead, like the slain lying in the grave, whom thou rememberst no more; and they are cut off from thy hand.
6 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps.
7 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Selah.
8 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; and my friends are cut off from thy hand.
9 Mine eye is sorrowfull by reason of affliction: I am as a man that hath no help.
10 Wilt thou shew a miracle to the dead? or shall they that are deceased arise and praise thee? [Selah]
11 Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in Destruction?
12 Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
13 But unto thee, O LORD, have I cried, and in the morning shall my prayer come before thee.
14 LORD, why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?
15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.
16 For my soul is full of troubles, and my life draweth nigh to the grave.
17 LORD, I call daily vpon thee: I stretch out mine hands vnto thee.
18 Lest mine eye sorrow for the dead, for those that go downe into the pit are not of my acquaintance.

Psalm 89

A Psalm to give instruction, of Ethan the Ezrahite.

I will sing of the mercies of the Lord for ever: with my mouth will I declare thy faithfulness to all generations.

I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant;

Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. {Selah}

And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Lord; thy faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.

Who in the skies can be compared unto the Sons of the Most High? who among the sons of the mighty is like unto the Lord?

Lord, why dost thou reiect my soule, and hidest thy face from me?

I am afflicted and at the point of death: from my youth up I suffer thy terrors, doubting of my life.

Thine indignations goe over me; thy feare have cut me off.

Miserable in spirit, while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness.

16 Thy fierce wrath is gone over me; thy terrors have cut me off.

17 They came round about me like water all the day long; they compassed me about together.

18 Lover and friend hast thou put away from me, and mine acquaintance hid themselves.

2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy trueth shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

A Psalme to give instruction, of Ethan the Ezrahite.

I will sing of the mercies of the Lord for ever: with my mouth will I declare thy faithfulness to all generations.

I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant;

Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. {Selah}

And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Lord; thy faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.

Who in the skies can be compared unto the Lords? who among the sons of the mighty is like unto the Lord?

A very terrible in the council of the holy ones, and to be feared above all them that are round about him?
3 I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant,
4 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah.
5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.
6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?
7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the Saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.
8 O LORD God of hosts, who is like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?
9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.
10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy mighty arm. {Rahab: or, Egypt} {thy...: Heb. the arm of thy strength}
11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as a strong arm. {the fulness...: or, all it containeth}
12 The north and the south thou hast created them: the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast stillest them.
13 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.
14 Righteousness and judgment are the foundation of thy throne: mercy and truth goe before thy face.
15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.
16 In thy name do they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness are they exalted.
17 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.
18 For our shield belongeth unto the LORD; and our king to the Holy One of Israel.
19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy saints, and 20 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and set vp thy throne from generation to generation. Selah.
21 For our shield belongeth unto the LORD; and we have a god to help us.
22 For in thy name we will not offer our horn, and in thy name we will not exalt our horn.
23 I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.
24 In God the salvation of Israel: he is the one that shall do great things for me.
25 In God do I put my trust; I will not be ashamed:
26 In God will I exalt him: I will not be confounded.
27 All my thoughts are, That, as for me, I will make supplication unto God; and I will not be confounded.
15 Blessed is the people, that can reioyce in thee: they shall walke in the light of thy countenance, O Lord.
16 They shall reioyce continually in thy Name, and in thy righteousneas they shall exalt them selues.
17 For thou art the glory of their strength, and by thy favoure our hornes shall be exalted.
18 For our shield apperteineth to the Lord, and our King to the holy one of Israel.
19 Thou spakest then in a vision vnto thine Holy one, and saydest, I haue layde helpe vpon one that is mightie: I haue exalted one chosen out of the people.
20 I haue found Dauid my seruant: with mine holy oil haue I anoynted him.
21 Therefore mine hande shall be established with him, and mine arme shall strengthen him.
22 The enemie shall not oppresse him, neither shall the wicked hurt him.
23 But I will destroy his foes before his face, and the wicked shall be avoide.
24 But my faithfulness and my mercie shall be with him, and in my Name shall his horn be exalted.
25 I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right arm also shall strengthen him.
26 He shall cry vnto mee, Thou art my Father, my hande on the rivers.
27 I also will make him my firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth.
28 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him.
29 His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven.
30 If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments;
31 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments;
32 For thou art my armour and sword, a shield and a sword of justice and truth shall go before thee.
33 The Lord is a strong mans tender mercie, and his hornes shall be exalted.
34 The Lord shall rule in mount Cariathiarbas, hee shall be king in mount Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.
35 The Lord is thy strength, and the shield of thy salvation; and in thy Name shall his hornes be exalted.
36 For our shield apperteineth to the Lord, and our hornes shall be exalted.
37 It shall be established for ever, and the heavens shall declare his Righteousnesse.
38 Blessed is the people, that know the joyful sound: and in thy Name shall his hornes be exalted.
39 In thy name shall they reioyce all the day: and in thy Name shall his hornes be exalted.
40 The enemy shall be put to shame in thy Name: the wicked shall be avoide.
41 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy Name shall his horn be exalted.
42 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness shall afflict him.
43 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy Name shall his horn be exalted.
44 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness shall afflict him.
45 The enemy shall not oppresse him, neither shall the wicked hurt him.
46 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness shall afflict him.
47 The enemy shall not oppresse him, neither shall the wicked hurt him.
48 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness shall afflict him.
49 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness shall afflict him.
50 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness shall afflict him.
51 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness shall afflict him.
52 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness shall afflict him.
53 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness shall afflict him.
32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.

33 But my mercy will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.

34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

35 Once have I sworn by mine holiness; I will not lie unto David;

36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.

37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as the faithful witness in the sky. [Selah]

38 But thou hast rejected and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine Anointed.

39 Thou hast broken the covenant of thy servant,
35 Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David. {that...: Heb. if I lie} 36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.
37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah.
38 But thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.
39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.
40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.
41 All that pass by the way spoil him: he is a reproch to his neighbours.
42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.
43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle.
44 Thou hast caused his dignitie to decay, and cast his throne to the ground. {glory: Heb. brightness} 45 The days of his youth hast thou shortened: thou hast covered him with shame. Selah.
46 How long, LORD? wilt thou hide thy selfe for ever? shall thy wrath burne like fire?
47 Remember how short my time is: for what vanity hast thou created all the children of men!
48 What man is he that shall live and not see death, that shall deliver his soul from the power of Sheol?
Selah.
49 Lord, where are thy former mercies, which thou swarest vnto Daud in thy trueth?
50 Remember, O Lord, the rebuke of thy seru-ants, which I beare in my bosome of all the mightie people.
51 For thine enemies haue reproched thee, O Lord, because they have reproached the footsteps of thine Anointed.
52 Praised be the Lord for evermore. So be it, even so be it.

A prayer of Moses, the man of God. Lord, thou hast bene our habitation from generation to generation.
2 Before the mountains were made, and before thou hadst formed the earth, and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting thou art our God.
3 Thou turnest man to destruction: againe thou sayest, Returne, ye sonnes of Adam.
4 For a thousande yeeres in thy sight are as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.
5 Thou hast overflowed them: they are as a sleepe: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.
6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.
7 For we are consumed in thine anger, and in thy wrath are we troubled.
8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.
9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we bring our years to an end as a tale that is told.
10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten, or even by reason of strength fourscore years; yet is their pride but labour and sorrow; for it is soon gone, and we fly away.

12 So teach us to number our days, that we may get us an heart of wisdom.
13 Return, O LORD; how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.
14 O satisfy us in the morning with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

A Psalm, a Song for the Sabbath day. It is a good thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High:

Psalm 92

1 A Psalm, a Song for the Sabbath day. It is a good thing to praise the Lord, and to sing vnto thy Name, O Most High,
2 To shew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night,
3 With an instrument of ten strings, and with the psaltery; with a solemn sound upon the harp.
4 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.
5 How great are thy works, O LORD! thy thoughts are very deep.
6 A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this:

8 But thou, O Lord, art most High for euermore.

9 For loe, thine enemies, O Lord: for loe, thine enemies shall perish: all the workers of iniquitie shall be destroyed.

10 But thou shalt exalt mine horne, like the unicorn: I shall be anoynted with fresh oil.

O LORD, thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, shine forth.

Come, let us sing unto the Lord: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth; the heights of the mountains are his also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it; and his hands formed the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the LORD our Maker:

7 For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. Today, Oh that ye would hear his voice!
And make a joyful noise unto him with psalms. Let us come before his presence with singing.

7 For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 Where your fathers tempted me, proved me, though they had seen my work.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

11 Wherefore I sware in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest.
Sing unto the Lord a new song: sing unto the Lord, all the earth.
2 Sing unto the Lord, and praise his Name: declare his salvation from day to day.
3 Declare his glory among all nations, and his wonders among all people.
4 For the Lord is great and much to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.
5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols: but the Lord made the heavens.
6 Strength and glory are before him: power and beauty are in his Sanctuary.
7 Give unto the Lord, ye families of the people: give unto the Lord glory and strength.
8 Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.
9 Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: bring an offering, and come into his courts.
10 Say among the nations, The Lord reigneth: surely the world shall be stable, and not move; he shall judge the people righteously.
11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad: let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; let the field be joyful, and all that is in it; then shall all the trees of the wood sing for joy;
12 Let the field exult, and all that is therein; then shall all the trees of the wood sing for joy;
13 Before the Lord, for he cometh; for he cometh and shall judge the peoples with equity.

5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols: but the Lord made the heavens.
6 Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
7 Give unto the Lord, ye kindreds of the peoples: give unto the Lord glory and strength.

Praise ye the LORD.

Give thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name; make known his doings among the people.

2 Sing unto him, sing praises unto him; talk ye of all his wondrous works.

3 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them that seek the Lord, reioyce.

4 Seek ye the LORD, and his strength: seek his face continually.

5 Remember his maruells worokes, that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

6 Ye seede of Abraham his seruant, ye children of his wonderous works.

7 He is the LORD our God: his judgments are in all the earth.

8 He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations;

9 The covenant which he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;

10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a statute, to Israel for an everlasting covenant:

11 Saying, Unito thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance:

12 When they were but a few men in number; yea,
Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

And he increased his people greatly, and made them stronger than their adversaries.

He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal stronger than their adversaries.

And he increased his people greatly, and made in the land of Ham.

To bind his princes at his pleasure, and teach his senators wisdom.

Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance:

Albeit they were few in number, yea, very few, and strangers in it.

When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people;

And walked about from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people;

When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in the land,

As he suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproved kings for their sakes, Saying, Touch not mine anointed ones, and do my Prophets no harm.

He suffered no man to do them wrong; yea, he reproved kings for their sakes, saying,

Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant:

Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his promise, that he made to a thousand generations,

Which he made to a thousand generations.

He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word of the LORD tried him.

Until the time that his word came to pass; the word of the LORD tried him.

Moreover he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread.

Yet suffered he no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproved Kings for their sakes, saying,

A servant:

He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance:

And he made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance:

Unto his appointed time came, and the counsell very few, and strangers in it.

13 But incontinently they forsook his works: they wayted not for his counsell, 14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.
15 Then he gave them their desire: but he sent leanness into their soul.
16 They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the holy one of the Lord.
17 Therefore the earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations for evermore.
32 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:
33 Because they were rebellious against his spirit, and he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

A Song or Psalm of David.

O God, my heart is fixed; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises, even with my glory.

2 Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

3 I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the peoples: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens, and thy truth reacheth unto the skies.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth.

6 That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer us.

7 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will exult: I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the defence of mine head; Judah is my sceptre.

9 Moab is my washpot; upon Edom will I cast out my shoe: over Philistia will I triumph.

20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul.
21 But thou, O Lord my God, deal with me according unto thy Name: deliver me, (for thy mercie is good) 22 Because I am poore and needie, and mine heart is wounded within me.
23 I depart like the shadowe when it declineth, and am shaken off as the grashopper.
24 My knees are weake through fasting, and my flesh hath lost all fatnes.
25 I became also a rebuke vnto them: they that looked vpon me, shaked their heads.
26 Helpe me, O Lord my God: saue me according to thy mercie.
27 And they shall know, that this is thine hand, and that thou, Lord, hast done it.
28 Though they curse, yet thou wilt blesse: they shall arise and be confounded, but thy servant shall reioyce.
29 Let mine aduersaries be clothed with dishonour, and let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a mantle.
30 I will give great thanks unto the LORD with my mouth; yea, I will praise him among the multitude.
31 For he shall stand at the right hand of the needy, to save him from them that judge his soul.
A Psalm of David. The LORD said unto my lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.
2 The LORD shall send forth the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.
3 Thy people offer themselves willingly in the day of thy power: in the beauties of holiness, from the womb of the morning, thou hast the dew of thy youth.
4 The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.
5 The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.
6 He shall judge among the heathen: he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.
7 He shall drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall he lift up his head.

30 I will give thanks vnto the Lord greatly with my mouth and praise him among ye multitude.
31 For he will stand at the right hand of the poore, to saue him from them that woulde condemne his soule.

3 His work is honourable and glorious: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

Praise ye the LORD. Praise, O ye servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD. {Praise ye...: Heb. Hallelujah}
2 Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and for evermore.
3 From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the LORD’S name is to be praised.
4 The LORD is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.
5 Who is like unto the LORD our God, who dwelleth on high, {dwelleth...: Heb. exalteth himself to dwell}
6 Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven and in the earth!
7 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the needy out of the dunghill;
8 That he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.
9 He maketh the barren woman to dwell with a family, and a joyfull mother of children. Praise ye the LORD.

When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language;

2 Judah was his sanctuary, and Israel his dominion.
3 The sea saw it, and fled: Jordan was driven back.
4 The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs.
5 What ailed thee, O sea, that thou fleddest?
6 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills, like lambs?
7 Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord;
at the presence of the God of Jacob;
8 Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters.
Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.
2 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is now
their God?
3 But our God is in the heavens: he hath done what soever he hath pleased.
4 Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.
5 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not:
6 They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not:
7 They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not; neither speak they through their throat.
8 They that make them shall be like unto them; yea,
Iaakob from the barbarous people,
2 Judah was his sanctification, and Israel his dominion.
3 The sea saw it and fled: Iorden was turned backe.
4 The mountains leaped like rams, and the hils as lambs.
5 What ailed thee, O Sea, that thou fleddest? O
Iorden, why wast thou turned backe?
6 Ye mountains, why leaped ye like rams, and ye hills as lambs?
7 The earth trembled at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Iaakob, 8 Which turneth the rocke into waterpooles, and the flint into a fountaine of water.
Not vnto vs, O Lord, not vnto vs, but vnto thy Name giu the glorie, for thy louing mercie and for thy truethes sake.
2 Wherefore shal the heathen say, Where is nowe
their God?
3 But our God is in heauen: he doeth what so euer he will.

mens hands.

7 They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat.
8 They that make them are like unto them: so is every one that trusteth in them.

14 The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children.
15 Ye are blessed of the LORD which made heaven and earth.
16 The heavens are the heavens of the LORD; but he hath given the earth to the children of men.

112 I have inclined mine heart to perform thy statutes alway, even unto the end. {to perform: Heb. to do}

113 SAMECH. I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love.

114 Thou art my hiding place and my shield: I hope in thy word.

115 Depart from me, ye evildoers: for I will keep the commandments of my God.

116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: and let me not be ashamed of my hope.

117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe: and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.

118 Thou hast trodden down all them that err from thy statutes; for their deceit is falsehood.

119 Thou puttest away all ye wicked of the earth like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies.

120 My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments.

121 AIN. I have done judgment and justice: leave me not to mine oppressors.

122 Be surety for thy servant for good: let not the proud oppress me.

123 Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for thy righteous word.

124 Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy, and teach me thy statutes.

125 I am thy servant, give me understanding; that I may know thy testimonies.

126 It is time for the LORD to work; for they have made void thy law.
121 AIN. I have executed judgment and justice: leave me not to mine oppressors.
122 Be surety for thy servant for good: let not the proud oppress me.
123 Mine eyes fail in waiting for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteousness.
124 Deal with thy servant according to thy mercy, and teach me thy statutes.
125 I am thy servant: grant me therefore understanding, that I may knowe thy testimonies.
126 It is time for thee Lord to work: for they have destroyed thy Lawe.
127 Therefore I love thy commandments above gold, yea, above most fine gold.
128 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts most just, and hate every false way.
129 PE. Thy testimonies are wonderful: therefore doeth my soule keepe them.
130 The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple.
132 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me, as thou usest to do unto those that love thy name.
133 Order my footsteps in thy word; and let not any iniquity have dominion over me.
134 Redeem me from the oppression of man: so will I observe thy precepts.
135 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant; and teach me thy statutes.
136 Mine eyes run down with rivers of water, because they observe not thy law.
137 TZADE. Righteous art thou, O LORD, and upright are thy judgments.
138 Thou hast commanded thy testimonies in righteousness and very faithfulness.
139 My zeal hath consumed me, because mine adversaries have forgotten thy words.
131 I opened my mouth and panted: for I longed for thy commandments.
132 Look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me, as thou usest to do unto those that love thy name. {as thou...: Heb. according to the custom toward those, etc} 133 Order my steps in thy word: and let not any iniquity have dominion over me.
134 Deliver me from the oppression of man: so will I keep thy precepts.
135 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant; and teach me thy statutes.
136 Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law.
137 TZADDI. Righteous art thou, O Lord, and upright are thy judgments.
138 Thy testimonies that thou hast commanded are righteous and very faithful. {righteous: Heb. righteousness} {faithful: Heb. faithfulness} 139 My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words. {consumed...: Heb. cut me off} 140 Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. {pure: Heb. tried, or, refined} 141 I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts.
142 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is truth.
143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me: yet are thy commandments my delight.
144 Thy testimonies are righteous for ever: give me understanding, and I shall live.
145 KOPH. I have cried with my whole heart; answer me, O LORD: I will keep thy statutes.
146 I have called unto thee; save me, and I shall observe thy testimonies.
147 I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried: I hoped in thy words.
148 Mine eyes prevented the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word.
149 Hear my voice according unto thy lovingkindness: quicken me, O Lord, according to thy judgments.
150 They draw nigh that follow after wickedness; they are far from thy law.
151 Thou art nigh, O Lord; and all thy commandments are truth.

A Song of Ascents. In my distress I cried unto the LORD, and he answered me.
2 Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue.
3 What shall be given unto thee, and what shall be done more unto thee, thou deceitful tongue?
4 Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.
5 Woe is me, that I sojourn in Meshech, that I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
6 My soul hath long had her dwelling with him that hateth peace.
7 I am for peace: but when I speak, they are for war.
ble, and he heard me.
2 Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips, and from a deceitfull tongue.
3 What doeth thy deceitfull tongue bring vnto thee?
or what doeth it auaile thee?
4 It is as the sharpe arrowes of a mightie man, and as the coales of iuniper.
5 Woe is to me that I remaine in Meschech, and dwell in the tentes of Kedar.
6 My soule hath too long dwelt with him that ha-teth peace.
7 I seeke peace, and when I speake thereof, they are bent to warre.

A Song of Ascents. I will lift up mine eyes unto the mountains, from whence mine helpe shall come.
2 My helpe cometh from the LORD, which made the heaven and the earth.
3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.
4 Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.
5 The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shadow at thy right hand.
6 The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon
by night.
7 The LORD shall keep thee from all evil; he shall keep thy soul.
8 The LORD shall keep thy going out and thy coming in, from this time forth and for evermore.
6 The sunne shall not smite thee by day, nor the moone by night.
7 The Lord shall preserue thee from all euil: he shall keepe thy soule.
8 The Lord shall preserue thy going out, and thy comming in from henceforth and for euer.

A song of degrees, or Psalme of David. I rejoiced, when they sayd to me, We wil go into the house of the Lord.
2 Our feete shall stand in thy gates, O Ierusalem.
3 Jerusalem is builded as a citie, that is compact together in it selfe:
4 Whereunto the Tribes, euen the Tribes of the Lord go vp according to the testimonie to Israel, to give thanks into the name of the LORD.
5 For there are set thrones for judgment, the thrones of the house of David. {are...: Heb. do sit}
6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.
7 Peace be within thy walls, and prosperitie within thy palaces.
8 For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.
9 For the sake of the house of the LORD our God I will seek thy good.
Because of the House of the Lord our God, I will procure thy wealth.

A song of degrees. I lift vp mine eyes, that dwell in the heavens.

Behold, as the eyes of servants looke vnto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a mayden vnto the hand of her mistres: so our eyes waite vpon the Lord our God vntil he haue mercie vpon vs.

Haue mercie vpon vs, O Lord, haue mercie vpon vs: for we haue suffered too much contempt.

Our soule is filled too full of ye mocking of the wealthy, and of the despitefulnes of the proude.

A Song of Ascents. Unto thee do I lift up mine eyes, O thou that sittest in the heavens.

Behold, as the eyes of servants lookunto the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until he have mercy upon us.

Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proude.

A Song of Ascents; of David. If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, (may Israel now say)

If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose vp against us:

Then they had swallowed us up quicke, when their wrath was kindled against us:

Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone ouer our soule:

Then the proud waters had gone ouer our soul.

Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.

Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made now say, Peace be within thee.

Because of the house of the LORD our God I will seek the good.

A Song of Ascents. Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proude.

If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose vp against us:

Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us:

Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:

Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

which withereth afore it groweth up:

7 Wherewith the reaper filleth not his hand, nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom.

8 Neither do they which go by say, The blessing of the Lord be upon you; we bless you in the name of the Lord.

A Song of Ascents. Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD.

2 Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

3 If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O LORD, who shall stand?

4 But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.

5 I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.

6 My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch the morning.

which withereth afore it groweth up:

7 Wherewith the reaper filleth not his hand, nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom.

8 Neither do they which go by say, The blessing of the Lord be upon you; we bless you in the name of the Lord.

A Song of Ascents; of David. Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron’s beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;

3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

A Song of Ascents. Behold, bless ye the LORD, all ye servants of the LORD, which by night stand in the house of the LORD.

2 Lift up your hands to the sanctuary, and bless ye the LORD.

3 The LORD bless thee out of Zion.

7 The idoles of the heathen are silver and golde, euen the worke of mens handes.

8 They have mouths, but they speake not: they haue eyes and see not.

9 They haue eares and heare not, neither is there any breath in their mouthes.

10 They haue a mouth, and speake not: eyes have work of men's hands.

11 The idols of the heathen are silver and golde, the work of his handes.

12 And he saith in his heart, I will speake, but not understand: I will prophesy, but not come to remembrance.

A Psalm of David. I will give thee thanks with my whole heart: before the gods will I sing praises unto thee.

2 I will worship toward thy holy temple, and give thanks unto thy Name, because of thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

3 In the day that I called thou answeredst me, thou didst encourage me with strength in my soul.

4 All the kings of the earth shall give thee thanks, O LORD, for they have heard the words of thy mouth.

5 How shall we sing the LORD’S song in a strange land? If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning.

6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.

7 Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof. O daughter of Babylon, that art to be destroyed; happy shall he be, that rewardeth thee, as thou hast served us.

8 Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

5 How shall we sing the LORD’S song in a strange land? If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning.

6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.

7 Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof. O daughter of Babylon, that art to be destroyed; blessed shall he be that rewardeth thee, as thou hast served us.

8 Blessed shall he be that taketh and dasheth thy children against the stones.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me. 2 Thou knowest my sitting and my rising: thou understandest my thought afar off. 3 Thou compasseth my path and my lying down, and art accustomed to all my ways. {compassest: or, winnowest}
7 Whither shall I from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?
8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in Sheol, behold, thou art there.
9 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.
11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.
12 Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee: but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and light are both alike.
13 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.
14 I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: wonderful are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.
15 My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.
16 Thine eyes did see mine unperfect substance, and in thy book were all my members written, which day by day were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.
17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.

Psalm 139

God! how great is the sum of them!
18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.
19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, ye bloodthirsty men.
20 For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.
21 Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee?
and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?
22 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.
23 Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me,
and know my thoughts:
24 And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. {wicked...: Heb. way of pain, or, grief}
To him that excelleth. A Psalm of David. Deliver me, O Lord, from the evil man: preserve me from the cruel man:
2 Which imagine evil things in their heart, and make warre continually.
3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent: adders poison is under their lips. Selah.
4 Keep me, O Lord, from the hands of the wicked: preserve mee from the cruell man, which purposeth to cause my steppes to slide.
5 The proude have layde a snare for me, and spred a net with cordes in my pathway, and set greannes for me. Selah.
6 Therefore I siade vnto the Lord, Thou art my God: heare, O Lord, the voyce of my prayers.
7 O Lord God the strength of my saluation, thou hast couered mine head in the day of battel.
8 Let not the wicked haue his desire, O Lord: perish not his wicked thought, lest they be proude.
9 As for the head of those that compass me about, let the mischiefe of their owne lippes cover them.
10 Let burning coals fall vpon them: let him cast them into the fire, and into the deepe pits, that they rise not.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. Deliver me, O LORD, from the evil man; preserve me from the violent man:
2 Which imagine mischiefs in their heart: continually do they gather themselves together for war.
3 They have sharpened their tongue like a serpent; adders’ poison is under their lips. Selah.
4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man: who have purposed to thrust aside my steps.
5 The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the way side; they have set gins for me. Selah.
6 I said unto the LORD, Thou art my God: hear me, O Lord, the voyce of my prayers.
7 O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation, thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.
8 Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked: lest they exalt themselves. Selah. {lest...: or, let them not be exalted}
9 As for the head of them, that compasse me about, let the mischief of their owne lippes come vpon them.
10 Let burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again.
11 An evil speaker shall not be established in the earth:
Psalm 141

A Psalm of David. Lord, I have called upon thee; make haste unto me: give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips.

4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to be occupied in deeds of wickedness with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.

5 Let the righteous smite me: for that is a kindness; and let him reprove me, and it shall be as oil upon the head; for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

6 Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock; and they shall hear my words: for they are sweet.

7 As when one ploweth and cleaveth the earth, our bones are scattered at the grave’s mouth.

8 Earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

9 I know that the Lord will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor.

10 Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

The earth: evil shall hunt the cruel man to destruction.

12 I know that the Lord will avenge the afflicted, and judge the poor.

13 Surely the righteous shall praise thy Name, and the just shall dwell in thy presence.
8 For mine eyes are unto thee, O GOD the Lord: in thee do I put my trust; leave not my soul destitute.
9 Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, and from the gins of the workers of iniquity.
10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal escape.

Maschil of David, when he was in the cave; a Prayer.

I cried unto thee, O LORD; I said, Thou art my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.

6 When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.
7 Our bones are scattered at the grave’s mouth, as he that heweth wood or diggeth in the earth.
8 But mine eyes looke vnto thee, O Lord God: in thee is my trust; leave not my soule destitute.
9 Kepe me from the snare, which they haue layde for me, and from the gennes of the workers of iniquitie.
10 Let the wicked fall into his nettes together, whilst I escape.

Our bones lye scattered at the graues mouth, as he that heweth wood or diggeth in the earth.

But mine eyes looke vnto thee, O Lord God: in thee is my trust; leave not my soule destitute.

Kepe me from the snare, which they haue layde for me, and from the gennes of the workers of iniquitie.

Let the wicked fall into his nettes together, whilst I escape.

A Psalm of David, to give instruction, and a prayer, when he was in the cave. I cryed vnto the Lord with my voyce: with my voyce I prayed vnto the Lord.

I powdered out my meditation before him, and declared mine affliction in his presence.

Though my spirit was in perplexitie in me, yet thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked, have they priuily layde a snare for me.

I looked vpon my right hand, and beheld, but there was none that would knowe me: all refuge failed me, and none cared for my soule.

Then cryed I vnto thee, O Lord, and sayde, thou art mine hope, and my portion in the land of the liuing.

When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.

Our bones are scattered at the grave’s mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.

But mine eyes are unto thee, O GOD the Lord: in thee is my trust; leave not my soul destitute. {leave...:

Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity.

Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal escape. {escape: Heb. pass over}

A Psalm of David. Hear my prayer, O Lord, and hearken unto my supplication: answer me in thy truth and in thy righteousness.
11 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy name’s sake: in thy righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.
12 And of thy mercy cut off mine enemies, and destroy all them that oppress mine soul: for I am thy servant.

A Psalm of David. Blessed be the Lord my rock, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight:
2 My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me. {My goodness: or, My strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight:} {strength: Heb. rock} {to war...: Heb. strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight:}

3 LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge in him? or the son of man, that thou makest account of him?
4 Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow, that passeth away.
5 Bow thy heavens, O Lord, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.
6 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them; send out thine arrows, and discomfit them.
7 Stretch forth thine hand from above; rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters, out of the hand of strangers;
8 Whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
9 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God: upon a psaltery of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.
10 It is he that giveth salvation unto kings: who rescueth David his servant from the hurtful sword.
11 Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hand of strangers, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
12 When our sons shall be as plants grown up in their youth; and our daughters as corner stones hewn after the similitude of a palace;
13 When our corners may be full, affording all manner of store; and our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields;
14 When our oxen are well laden; when there is no breaking in, and no going forth, and no outcry in our streets;
15 Happy is the people, that is in such a case: yea, happy is the people, whose God is the LORD.
A Psalm of praise; of David. I will extol thee, my God, O King; and I will bless thy Name for ever and ever.
2 Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy Name for ever and ever.
3 Great is the LORD, and highly to be praised; and his greatness is incomprehensible.
4 One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.
5 I will meditate of the beautie of thy glorious honour, and of thy wondrous works, will I meditate.
6 And men shall speak of the power of thy fearefull majestie, and thy wonderfull workes, and of thy wondrous works.

Praise ye the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul.
2 While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.
3 Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.
4 His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.
5 Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God:
6 Which made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever:
7 Which executeth judgment for the oppressed; which giveth food to the hungry: the LORD looseth the prisoners;
8 The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: the LORD raiseth up them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous;
9 The LORD preserveth the strangers; he upholdeth the fatherless and widow; but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.
10 The LORD shall reign for ever, thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the LORD.
9 The Lord keepeth the strangers: he relietheth the fatherlesse and widowe: but he ouerthroweth the way of the wicked.
10 The Lord shall reigne for euer: O Zion, thy God endureth from generation to generation. Prayse ye the Lord.

Praise ye the LORD, for it is good to sing praises unto our God: for it is a pleasant thing, and praise is comely.
2 The Lord doth build vp Jerusalem: and gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.
3 He healeth those that are broken in heart, and bindeth vp their sores.
4 He counteth the number of the starres, and calleth them all by their names.
5 Great is our Lord, and mighty in power: his understandinge is infinite. {his...: Heb. of his understanding}
6 The Lord relieueth the meeke, and abaseth the strong: he turneth upside down.
7 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving: sing praise upon the harp unto our God:
8 Which couereth the heauen with cloudes, and prepareth raine for the earth, and maketh the grasse to growe vpon the mountaines:
9 Who giueth to beasts their foode, and to the young rauens that crie.
10 The Lord shall reigne for euer, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the LORD.

Praise ye the LORD, for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant, and praise is comely.
2 The LORD doth build Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.
3 He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds. {wounds: Heb. griefs}
4 He telleth the number of the starres; he giveth them to growe vpon the mountaines:
5 Great is our Lord, and mighty in power; his understanding is infinite.
6 The LORD upholdeth the meek: he bringeth the wicked down to the ground.
7 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praises upon the harp unto our God:
8 Which covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, and maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains.
9 He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens that crie.
10 The Lord shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion.

23 Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

24 Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and none woulde regarde;

25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:

26 I will also laugh at your destruction, and mocke, when your feare commeth.

27 Whe your feare cometh like sudden desolation, and your destruction shall come like a whirlwind: when affliction and anguish shall come vpon you,

28 Then shall they call vpon me, but I will not answer: they shall seeke me early, but they shall not finde me, 29 Because they hated knowledge, and did not chuse the feare of the Lord.

30 They would none of my counsell, but despised all my correction.

31 Therefore shall they eate of ye fruite of their own way, and be filled with their owne deuises.

32 For ease slaieth the foolish, and the prosperitie of fools destroyeth them.

2 For length of days, and yeeres of life, and thy prosperitie.

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them upon the table of thine neck; write them upon the table of thine heart.

the wine of violence.

18 But the path of the righteous is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

19 The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.

20 My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings.

21 Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart.

22 For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh.

23 Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

24 Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.

25 Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

26 Make level the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established.

27 Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.
My son, attend unto my wisdom; incline thine ear to my understanding:
2 That thou mayest preserve discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge.
3 For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil: {mouth: Heb. palate}
4 But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.
5 Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on Sheol;
6 So that she findeth not the level path of life: her ways are unstable and she knoweth it not.
7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.
8 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house:
9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel:
10 Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth; and thy labours be in the house of a stranger; {thy wealth:}
11 And thou mourn at thy latter end, when thy flesh labours be in the house of an alien;
12 Lest strangers be filled with thy strength; and thy years unto the cruel:
13 Neither have I obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!
14 But the end of her is bitter as wormewood, and sharp as a two edged sword.
15 Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on Sheol.
16 In the end she is not Quarry, but she is a way of slaughter;
17 Because she hath endeared herself to the nations:
18 Yea, she hath sakeled into the bed of a stranger, she hath defiled the bed of a husband.
19 For he is endures to her, and she maketh not his heart to despise her.
20 She saith, I have apparel and gold; and I will also set my house in order.
21 My son, hearken unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding:
22 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge.
23 My son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding:

18 Let thy fountain be blessed; and rejoice with the wife of thy youth.
19 As a loving hind and a pleasant roe, let her breasts satisfy thee at all times; and be thou ravished always with her love.
20 For why shouldest thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life: {lamp: or, candle}

To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman. {of the...: or, of the strange tongue}

Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids.

For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life. {the adulteress: Heb. the woman of a man, or, a man's wife}

Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be scorched?

So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; who soever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry:

But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding; he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul. {understanding: Heb. heart} is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress hunteth for the precious life.

Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

Or can a man go upon coals, and his feete not be burnt?

So he that goeth in to his neighbours wife, shall not be innocent, whosoeuer toucheth her.

Men do not despise a thiefe, when he stealeth, to satisfie his soule, because he is hungrie.

But if he be found, he shall restore seuen folde; he shall give all the substance of his house.

He that committeth adultery with a woman is void of understanding: he that doeth it, destroyeth his own soule.

Wounds and dishonour shall he get; and his reproch shall neuer be put away.

For jealousy is the rage of a man; and he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

My son, keepe my wordes, and hide my commandments with thee.

2 Keepe my commandments, and thou shalt liue, and mine instruction as the apple of thine eyes.

3 Binde them vpon thy fingers, and write them vpon the table of thine heart.

4 Say vnto wisedome, Thou art my sister: and call the table of thine heart.

5 That they may keepe thee from the strange woman, understanding thy kinswoman:

9 In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night: {in the evening of days} tire of an harlot, and subtill of heart.

25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths.

ERV

23 I was set from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth;
when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the open places, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he established the heavens, I was there: when he set a circle upon the face of the depth: {a circle}

28 When he made firm the sides above: when the fountains of the deep became strong:

29 When he gave to the sea its bound, that the waters should not transgress his commandment: when he marked out the foundations of the earth:

30 Then I was by him, as a master workman: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;

31 Rejoicing in his habitable earth; and my delight was with the sons of men.

32 Now therefore, my sons, hearken unto me: for blessed are they that keep my ways.

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

34 Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD.
28 When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep:

29 When he gat to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth:

30 Then was I by him, as one brought up with him:

and was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him:

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men.

32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed are they that keep my ways.

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not: blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

34 Blessed is the man that findeth me, findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD.

35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the Lord.

36 But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

Wisdom hath builded her house, and hewn out her seven pillars.

2 She hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table.
{her beasts: Heb. her killing}

3 She hath sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city, saying,

4 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him who is simple, let him turn in hither.

5 Come, eat ye of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Leave off, ye simple ones, and live; and walk in the way of understanding.

7 He that correcteth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that reproveth a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 Reprove not a scorer, lest he hate thee: reprove a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
Proverbs 9

11 For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.
12 If thou art wise, thou art wise for thyself: and if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.
13 A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing.
14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,
15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

4 Who so is simple, let him come hither, and to him that is destitute of wisdom, she saith,
5 Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine that I have drawen.
6 Forsake your way, ye foolish, and ye shall liue: and walke in the way of understanding.
7 He that reproueth a scorner, purchaseth to him selfe shame: and he that rebuketh the wicked, getteth himselfe a blot.
8 Rebuke not a scorner, lest he hate thee: but rebuke a wise man, and he will loue thee.
9 Giue admonition to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.
10 The beginning of wisedome is the feare of the Lord, and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.
11 For thy dayes shalbe multiplied, and the yeeres of thy life shalbe augmented.
12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thy selfe, and if thou scornest, thou alone shalt suffer.
13 A foolish woman is troublesome: she is ignorant, and knoweth nothing.
14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the highest places of the city,
15 To call them that pass by, who go right on their ways,
The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from death.

3 The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away the substance of the wicked.

4 He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest, is a son that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: but a prating fool shall fall.

9 He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: but a prating fool shall fall.

11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all transgressions.

24 There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and he that withholdeth more than is meet, it tendeth only to want.

25 The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered also himself. {liberal...: Heb. soul of blessing}

26 He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

27 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour: but he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.

28 He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

29 He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

31 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: howe much more the wicked and the sinner?

22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout: so is a faire woman, which lacketh discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good: but the hope of the wicked is indignation.

30 The fruite of the righteous is as a tree of life, and he that winneth soules, is wise.

31 Beholde, the righteous shalbe recompensed in the earth: howe much more the wicked and the sinner?
Whoso loveth correction loveth knowledge: but he that hateth reproof is brutish.
2 A good man shall obtain favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn.
3 A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.
4 A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.
5 The thoughts of the righteous are just: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.
6 The words of the wicked are of lying in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.
7 The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.
8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised.
9 He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.
10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.
11 He that tilleth his land shall be satisfied with good.
bread: but he that followeth vain persons is void of understanding.

12 The wicked desireth the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.

13 In the transgression of the lips is a snare to the evil man: but the righteous shall come out of trouble.

14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: and the doings of a man’s hands shall be rendered unto him.

15 The way of the foolish is right in his own eyes: but he that is wise hearkeneth unto counsel.

16 A fool’s wrath is presently known: but he that covereth shame, is wise.

17 He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

18 There is that speaketh rashly like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

19 The lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

20 Deceit is in the heart of them that devise evil: but to the counsellors of peace shall be joy.

21 There shall no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.

22 Lying lips are an abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly are his delight.

23 A wise man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.
24 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute. {slothful: or, deceitful}
25 Heaviness in the heart of a man maketh it stoop; but the substance of a diligent man is precious.
26 Righteousness is more excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked will deceive them.
27 The deceitful man rosteth not, that hee tooke in hunting; but the riches of the diligent man are precious.
28 Life is in the way of righteousness, and in that pathway there is no death.

A WISE son heareth his father’s instruction: but a scorner heareth no rebuke.
2 A man shall eat good things by the fruit of his mouth: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.
3 He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall destroy.
4 The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.
5 A righteous man hateth lying: but a wicked man is deceitful.
6 Righteousness guardeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness overthroweth the sinner.
7 There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great of the foolish publisheth foolishness.
8 Woe unto him that buildeth a town, and dwelleth therein; that layeth up silver and gold, and there is none to dwell with.
9 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute. {slothful: or, deceitful}
10 A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.
11 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, but a simple man walketh on the crooked.
12 A wise son heareth his father’s instruction: but a scorner heareth not rebuke.
13 Whoso keepeth the law is wise: but a man that is a companion of gluttons shameeth himself.
14 Wealth and honours are in the house of the righteous: but the sinner shall have his eyes desirous thereof.
15 Good sense is a jewel, and with all that is acceptable is it to the eyes.
16 The fear of the LORD is a dwelling place of safety: but the desire of the wicked shall perish.
17 Righteousness of our days is a precious treasure: and favour is an hidden treasure.
18 At the end of the matter, all were found righteous: the conversation of the wise is gotten.
19 Wisdom is better than treasures: and the favour of men is better than silver.
20 The wise shall inherit glory: but the foolish shall have vanity.

2 He that walketh in his righteousness feareth the Lord: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

4 Where none oxen are, there the cribbe is emptie: but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 Fools make a mock at sinne: but among the righteous there is favour.

10 The heart knoweth his own bitterness; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

12 There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the issues thereof are the ways of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the end of that mirth is heaviness.

14 The heart that declineth, shall be saciate with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

15 The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil: but the fool beareth himself insolently, and is confident.

17 He that is soon angry will deal foolishly: and a man of wicked devices is hated.

2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the Lord pondereth the spirits.
3 Commit thy works into the Lord, and thy thoughts shall be established. [Commit: Heb. Roll]
4 The Lord hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.
5 Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord; though hand ioyne in hand, he shall not be unpunished. [unpunished: Heb. held innocent]
6 By mercy and truth iniquitie shalbe forgiuen, and by the fear of the Lord they depart from euill.
7 When the wayes of a man please the Lord, he will make also his enemies at peace with him.
8 Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right.
9 The heart of man purposeth his way: but the Lord directeth his steps.
10 A divine sentence is in the lips of the King: his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.
11 A just weight and balance are the LORD'S: all the weights of the bagge are his work. [the weights: Heb. Divination]
12 It is an abomination to Kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness.
13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.
14 The wrath of a King is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.
15 In the light of the king’s countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.
16 How much better is it to be of a lowly spirit with the poor, than to divide the spoil with the proud.
17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.
18 Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.
19 Better it is to be of a lowly spirit with the poor, than to divide the spoil with the proud.
20 He that giveth heed unto the word shall find good: and whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.
21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.
22 Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it: but the correction of fools is their folly.
13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death:
but a wise man will pacify it.

15 In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold!
and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!

17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil:
he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

18 Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good:
and whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he. {handleth...: or, understandeth a matter}

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.

23 The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and adddeth learning to his lips. {teacheth: Heb. maketh wise}

24 Pleasant words are as an honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

25 There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

26 The appetite of the labouring man laboureth for himselfe: for his mouth craveth it of him.

27 A worthless man deviseth mischief: and in his lips there is as a scorching fire.

28 A froward man scattereth abroad strife: and a whisperer separateth chief friends.

29 A man of violence enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him in a way that is not good.

30 He that shutteth his eyes, it is to devise froward things: he that compresseth his lips bringeth evil to pass.

31 The hoary head is a crown of glory, it shall be found in the way of righteousness.

32 He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty;
and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

33 The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole dispos-thing thereof is of the LORD.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.

26 Surely it is not good to condemne the iust, nor that ye princes should smite such for equitie.

24 Wisdom is before him that hath understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

27 Hee that hath knowledge, spareth his wordes, and a man of vnderstanding is of an excellent spirit.

25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, and as high wall in his own imagination.

11 The rich man’s wealth is his strong city, and as a flowr of wisdom as a flowing brook.

12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour goeth humility.

28 Euen a fowle, when he holbeth his peace, is counted wise, and hee that stoppeth his lips, prudent.

27 Hee that hath knowledge, spareth his wordes, and a man of vnderstanding is of an excellent spirit.

26 Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise, and he that stoppeth his lips, prudent.

For the desire thereof he will separate himselfe to seake it, and occupie himselfe in all wisdome.

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

14 The words of a man’s mouth are like deepe waters, and the wellspring of wisdom is as a flowing brook.

15 A fool’s mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

16 The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

17 The rich man’s wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own imagination.

12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour goeth humility.

13 He that giveth answer before he heareth, it is not good, to strike princes for equity.

11 The rich man’s wealth is his strong city, and as a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

10 To accept the person of the wicked is not good, nor to turn aside the righteous in judgment.

9 He also that is slack in his work is brother to him that is a destroyer.

8 The words of a whisperer are as dainty, morsels, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

7 A fool’s lips enter into contention, and with ignominy reproach.

6 A fool’s lips come with strife, and his mouth calleth for stripes.

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but only that his heart may be discouered.

5 When the wicked commeth, then cometh also contention, and with ignominy cometh reproach.

4 The words of a mans mouth are like deep waters; and the wellspring of wisdom is like a flowing rier.

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contention, and with ignominy cometh reproach.

2 The words of a man’s mouth are as deep waters, and the wellspring of wisdom is as a flowing brook.

1 To accept the person of the wicked is not good, nor to turn aside the righteous in judgment.

1 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but only that his heart may reveal itself.

He that separateth himselfe seeketh his own desire, and rageth against all sound wisdom.

A fool’s mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

The words of a whisperer are as dainty, morsels, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

He that separateth himselfe seeketh his own desire, and rageth against all sound wisdom.

A fool’s mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

foolly and shame unto him.
14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a broken spirit who can bear?
15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.
16 A man’s gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.
17 He that pleadeth his cause first seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him out.
18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.
19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and such contentions are like the bars of a castle.
20 A man’s belly shall be filled with the fruit of his mouth; with the increase of his lips shall he be satisfied.
21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.
22 Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.
23 The poor useth entreaties: but the rich answereth roughly.
24 He that maketh many friends doeth it to his own destruction: but there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.
Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity than he that pervarse in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

16 A man’s gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

17 He that is first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

20 A man’s belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

22 He that findeth a wife, findeth a good thing, and receiveth favour of the Lord.

23 The poor speaketh with prayers: but the rich answereth roughly.

24 A man that hath friends, ought to shew him self friendly: for a friend is neerer then a brother.

Better is the poor that walketh in his vprightnes, then he that abuseth his lips, and is a foole.

2 For without knowledge the minde is not good, then he that abuseth his lips, and is a fool.

Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity than he that pververse in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

23 The poor speaketh with prayers: but the rich answereth roughly.

24 A man that hath friends, ought to shew him self friendly: for a friend is neerer then a brother.
3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the LORD.

4 Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

5 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape. {unpunished: Heb. held innocent}

6 Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts. {him:...}

7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends depart farre from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

8 He that possesseth understanding, loueth his owne soule, and keepeth wisdom to finde goodnesse.

9 A false witness shall not be unpunished: and he that speaketh lies, shall perish.

10 Pleasure is not comely for a foole, much lesse for a servant to haue rule ouer princes.

11 The discretion of man deferreth his anger: and his glory is to passe over an offence.

12 The Kings wrath is like the roaring of a lyon: but his fauour is like the dewe vpon ye grasse.

13 A foolish sonne is the calamity of his father, and the contentions of a wife are like a continuall dropping.

14 House and riches are the inheritance of the fathers: but a prudent wife commeth of the Lord.

2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts.

3 To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice.

4 An high look, and a proud heart, even the lamp of the wicked, is sin.

5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness: but every one that is hasty only to want.

6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

7 The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

| 22 | For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward thee. | 11 A word spoken in his place, is like apples of gold, with pictures of siluer.

12 He that reprooueth the wise, and the obedient ear, is as a golden carering and an ornament of fine golde.

13 As the cold of the snowe in the time of harvest, so is a faithfull messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the soule of his masters.

14 A man that boasteth of false liberalitie, is like cloudes and wind without raine.

15 A Prince is pacified by staying of anger, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

16 Hast thou found hony, eate that is sufficient for thee, lest thou be ouerfull, and vomit it.

17 Let thy foot be seldom in thy neighbour’s house;
lest he be weary of thee, and hate thee.

18 A man that beareth false witnes against his neighbour, is like an hammer and a sword, and a sharpe arrowe.

19 Confidence in an unfaithfull man in time of trou ble, is like a broken tooth and a sliding foote.

20 As one that taketh off a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre, so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart.

21 If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat;
and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:

22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward thee.

23 The north wind bringeth forth rain: so doth a backbiting tongue an angry countenance.

24 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop,
20 He that taketh away the garment in the cold season, is like vinegar powred upon nitre, or like him that singeth songs to an heavy heart.

21 If hee that hateth thee be hungry, give him bread to eate, and if he be thirstie, give him water to drinke.

22 For thou shalt lay coles upon his head, and the Lord shall recompense thee.

23 As the Northwinde driueth away the raine, so doeth an angry countenance the slandering tongue.

24 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house top, then with a contentious woman in a wide house.

25 As are the colde waters to a weary soule, so is good newes from a farre countery.

26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.

27 It is not good to eat much hony: so for men to search their owne glory is not glory.

28 He whose spirit is without restraint is like a city that is broken down and hath no wall.
As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honour is not seemly for a fool.

2 As the sparrow in her wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come.

3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.

4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool, he that hireth them that pass by.

7 The legs of the lame are not equal: so is a parable in the month of fools.

8 As a bag of gems in a heap of stones, so is he that giveth honour to a fool.

9 As a thorn that goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 As an archer that woundeth all, so is he that hireth the fool and he that hireth them that pass by.

11 As a dog turneth to his vomit, so is a fool that repeateth his folly.

12 Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

13 The sluggard saith, There is a lion in the way; a

As the snowe in the sommer, and as the raine in the harvest are not meete, so is honour vnseemly for a fool.

2 As the sparrowe by flying, and the swallowe by flying escape, so the curse that is causeles, shall not come.

3 Vnto the horse belongeth a whip, to the ass a bridle, and a rod to the fooles backe.

4 Answer not a foole according to his foolishnes, least thou also be like him.

5 Answere a foole according to his foolishnes, lest he be wise in his owne conceite.

6 He that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that setteth a message by the hand of a fool.

7 As they that lift vp the legs of the lame, so is a parable.

8 As the closing vp of a precious stone in an heape of stones, so is he that giueth glory to a fool.

9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 The great God that formed all things, both righteous and unrighteous, is a parable in the mouth of fools.

11 As a dog returneth to his owne vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly. {returneth to his folly: Heb. iterateth}

12 Seest thou a man wise in his owne conceite?
12 Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets.

14 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.

15 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit, than seven men that can render a reason.

16 He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

17 As a madman who casteth firebrands, arrows, and death;

18 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I in sport?

19 For lack of wood the fire goeth out: and where there is no whisperer, contention ceaseth.

20 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: and where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth.

21 As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

22 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

23 Fervent lips and a wicked heart are like an earthen vessel overlaid with silver dross.

24 He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, but he layeth up deceit within him:

25 When he speaketh fair, believe him not; for there is more hope is of a fool than of him.
26 Though his hatred cover itself with guile, his wickedness shall be openly shewed before the congregation.
27 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it shall returne vnto him.
28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; a strangler, and not thine owne lips.

are seven abominations in his heart:
26 Though his hatred cover itself with guile, his wickedness shall be openly shewed before the congregation.
27 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it shall returne vnto him.
28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; a strangler, and not thine owne lips.

Boast not thy selfe of to morowe: for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.
2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine owne mouth: a stranger, and not thine owne lips.
3 A stone is heauie, and the sand weightie: but a foole’s wrath is heauier then them both.
4 Anger is cruell, and wrath is raging: but who can stand before enuie?
5 Open rebuke is better then secret loue.

The wicked flee when none pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge a realme likewise endureth long.

3 A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain which leaveth no food.

4 They that forsake the Law praise the wicked: but they that keep the Law set themselves against them.

favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.
24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer.
25 He that is of a greedy spirit stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.
26 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.
27 He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.
28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.
He that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 When the righteous are increased, the people rejoice: but when a wicked man beareth rule, the people mourn. (in...: or, increased)

3 Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it. {he...: Heb. a man of oblations}

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his steps.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doeth sing and rejoice.

7 The righteous taketh knowledge of the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not knowledge.

8 Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he be angry or laugh, there is no rest.

10 The bloodthirsty hate him that is upright: but the just regardeth the cause of the poor.

11 A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it back and stilleth it.

12 Of a prince that hearkeneth to lyes, all his service shall suddenly be broken, and that without remedy.

13 The poore and the vsurer meete together, and the ant is wicked.

14 Earnest men make a city strong: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

15 Afoole powreth out all his minde: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterward.

16 A man that is partly full of water is accounted of the water that is within him.

17 A king by iudgement mainteineth ye countrey: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

18 A man of reproofs is as an overseer to the blind: and he that is of few words is a ruler and a master of the house.

19 If a wise man be angry, he speaketh for the right: but the foolish man causeth wrath to come.

20 A fool as a stone in the way: and an upright man as a Refuge:

21 A king, and his chariot are of honour: and he that is of a base spirit hath but a name.

22 A wise man keepeth that which is holy: but the wicked are a reproach to him.

23 He that keepeth it back and stilleth it, shall suddenly be broken, and that without remedy.

24 A man that is hasty in his words is as a spur to his horse.

25 Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots wasteth his substance.

26 A King by iudgement mainteineth ye countrey: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

27 A king of men is the defender of poore: but a wadeth his owne house.

28 He that is oft reproved hardeneth his neck: but a wise man hearkeneth.

29 A fool also causeth evil: for the upright they seek his life.

30 Whosoloveth wisdom is he that loveth life: but the unwise will not know it.

31 Afoole shall fall at once: and a proude mahan shall stumble.

32 A man shall be satisfied with good: but they that hasten after evil come to the end of it.
12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and the deceitful man meet together: the LORD lighteth both their eyes. {the deceitful...: or, the usurer}

14 The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 The rod and correction give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall.

17 Correct thy son and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length.

22 An angry man stirreth up strife, and a wrathful man aboundeth in transgression.

23 A man's pride shall bring him low: but he that is of a lowly spirit shall obtain honour.

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth the adjuration and uttereth nothing.
25 The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteh trust in the LORD shall be safe.

26 Many seek the ruler’s favour: but a man’s judgement cometh from the LORD.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in his way is abomination to the wicked.

THE WORDS OF AGUR THE SON OF JAKEH. The prophecic which ye man spake vnto Ithiel, even to Ithiel, and Vcal.

2 Surely I am more foolish then any man, and haue not the understanding of a man.

3 For I haue not learned wisedome, nor atteined to the knowledge of holy things.

4 Who hath ascended vp to heauen, or descended?

5 Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto the humble in spirit.

6 Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I asked of thee; deny me them not before I die:

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neimans judgement commeth from the Lord.

27 A wicked man is abomination to the jist, and he that is vpright in his way, is abomination to the wicked.

20 Such is ye way also of an adulterous woman: she 22 For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meate;

23 For the hatefull woman, when she is married, and an handmaid that is heir to her mistres.
24 There be foure small things in the earth, yet they are wise and full of wisedome:
25 The pismires a people not strong, yet prepare they their meate in sommer:
26 The conies a people not mightie, yet make their houses in the rocke:

16 The grave, and the barren wombe, the earth that cannot be satisfied with water, and the fire that sayeth not, It is ynoough.

24 There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise: {exceeding...: Heb.
heart}
25 The pismires a people not strong, yet they provide their meate in the summer;
26 The conies a people not mightie, yet make they their houses in the rocks;
27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands;
28 The lizard taketh hold with her hands, yet is she
in kings’ palaces,
29 There be three things which are stately in their march, yea, four which are stately in going:
30 The lion, which is mightiest among beasts, and 25 The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;
26 The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they
their houses in the rocks;
27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands; {by...: Heb. gathered together} 28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings’ palaces.
29 There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:
30 A lion which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;
31 A greyhound; an he goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up.
32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, lay thine hand upon thy mouth.
33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

The words of king Lemuel; the oracle which his mother taught him.
2 What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows?

27 The grashopper hath no King, yet goe they forth
all by bandes:
28 The spider taketh holde with her handes, and is in Kings palaces.
29 There be three things that order well their going: yea, foure are comely in going,
30 A Lyon which is strong among beastes, and turneth not at the sight of any:
31 A lusty grayhound, and a goate, and a King against whom there is no rising vp.
32 If thou hast bene foolish in lifting thy selfe vp, and if thou hast thought wickedly, lay thine hand upon thy mouth.
33 When one churneth milke, he bringeth forth butter: he that wringeth his nose, causeth blood to come out: so he that forceth wrath, bringeth forth strifce.

KJV

The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; vanity of vanities, all is vanity.

3 What profit hath man of all his labour wherein he laboureth under the sun?

4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh; and the earth abideth for ever.

5 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and cometh; and the earth abideth for ever.

6 The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it turneth about continually in its course, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

7 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place whither the rivers go, thither they return again.

8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it:

9 What profit hath man of all his labour wherein he suffereth under the sun?

10 Is there a thing whereof men say, See, this is new? it hath been already in the ages which were before us.

11 There is no memory of the former, neither shall there be any remembrance of them that were before them: neither shall like generations be remembered of them after those be.

12 The thing that is, it is; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

13 What profit is there in the days of a man, that he should labour under the sun?

ERV

The words of the Preacher, the son of David King in Jerusalem.

2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher: vanity of vanities, all is vanity.

3 What remaineth vnto man in all his travaile, which he suffereth vnder ye sunne?

4 One generation goeth, and another generation succeedeth: but the earth remaineth alwayes.

5 The sunne riseth, and ye sunne goeth downe, and draweth to his place, where he riseth.

6 The winde goeth toward the South, and compasseth about unto the north; it turneth about continually in its course, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

7 All the riuers goe into the sea, yet the sea is not full; for the riuers goe vnto ye place, whence they returne, and goe.

8 All things are full of labour: man cannot utter it:

9 What is it that hath bene? that that shalbe: and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing vnder the sunne.

10 Is there any thing, whereof one may say, Beholde this is new? it hath bene already in the olde time, which 11 There is no memorie of the former, neither shall there be any remembrance of them that were before them: neither shall like generations be remembered of them after those be.

12 The thing that is, it is; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing vnder the sunne.
11 There is no remembrance of former generations; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

12 I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem:

13 And I have given mine heart to seek and finde out wisdom by all things that are done vnder the heaven: (this sore travaile hath God giuen to the sonnes of men, to humble them thereby)

14 I have considered all the workes that are done vnder the sunne, and beholde, all is vanitie, and vexation of the spirit.

15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which faileth, cannot be nombred.

16 I thought in mine heart, and said, Behold, I am became great, and excell in wisdome all them that haue bene before me in Jerusalem: and mine heart hath seene much wisdome and knowledge.

17 And I gaue mine heart to knowe wisdome and knowledge, madnes and foolishnes: I knew also that this is a vexation of the spirit.

18 For in the multitude of wisedome is much griefe: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorowe.

11 There is no remembrance of former generations; neither shall there be any remembrance of the latter generations that are to come, among those that shall come after.

12 I the Preacher hast beene King ouer Israel in Jerusalem:

13 And I haue giuen mine heart to search and finde out wisdome by all things that are done vnder the heauen: (this sore trauaile hath GOD giuen to the sonnes of men, to humble them thereby)

14 I haue considered all the workes that are done vnder the sunne, and beholde, all is vanitie, and vexation of the spirit.

15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which faileth, cannot be numbered.

16 I thought in mine heart, and said, Behold, I am become great, and excell in wisdome all them that haue bene before me in Jerusalem: and mine heart hath seene much wisdome and knowledge.

17 And I gaue mine heart to knowe wisdome and knowledge, madnes and foolishnes: I knew also that this is a vexation of the spirit.

18 For in the multitude of wisedome is much griefe: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorowe.
I said in mine heart, Go to nowe, I will prove thee with joye: therefore take thou pleasure in pleasant things: and behold, this also is vanity.

2 I said of laughter, Thou art mad: and of joye, What is this that thou doest?

3 I sought in mine heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, and to leade mine heart in wisdome, and to take holde of folie, till I might see where is that goodnesse of the children of men, which they enjoynder under the sunne: the whole number of the days of their life.

4 I haue made my great workings: I haue builded me houses: I haue planted me vineyards.

5 I haue gathered vnto me also siluer and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I haue provided me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, which they enioy vnder the heaven all the days of their life.

6 I haue made me cisternes of water, to water therewith the woods that growe with trees.

7 I haue gotten seruants and maides, and had chil- dren borne in the house: also I had great possession of beeues and sheepe aboue all that were before me in Jerusalem.

8 I gathered vnto me also siluer and gold, and the delites of the sonnes of men, as a woman taken captiue, and women taken captiues.

9 And I was great, and increased aboue all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom re-

ERV

15 What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?
16 I have seen the travail which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised therewith.
17 He hath made every thing beautiful in its time: also he hath set the world in their heart, yet can not man find out the work that God hath done from the beginning even to the end.
18 I knowe that whatsoeuer God shall doe, it shalbe nothing good in them, but to man can find out the work that God hath wrought from the beginning even to the end.
15 What is that that hath bene? that is nowe: and that that shalbe, hath now bene: for God requireth that which is past.
16 And moreouer I haue seene vnder the sunne the place of iudgement, that wickednesse was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquitie was there.
17 I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteoues and the wicked: for there is a time for every purpose and for every work.
18 I considered in mine heart the state of the children of men that God had purged them: yet to see to, they are in themselues as beastes.
19 For the condition of the children of men, and the condition of beasts are euen as one condition vnto them. As the one dyeth, so dyeth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.
20 All goe to one place, and all was of the dust, and all shall returne to the dust.
21 Who knoweth the spirit of man as it goeth vpward, and the spirit of the beast descend downeward to the earth?
22 Therefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that a man shoulde reioyce in his affaires, because that is his portion. For who shall bring him to see what shalbe after him?

men, that God may prove them, and that they may see that they themselves are but as beasts.
19 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; and man hath no preeminence above the beasts: for all is vanity.
20 All goe unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.
21 Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?
2 Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead, above the living which are yet alive; and behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; but they had no comforter. {side: Heb. hand}

2 Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead, above the living which are yet alive; and behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; but they had no comforter. {side: Heb. hand}

3 Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun:

6 Better is an handful with quietnesse, then two handfuls with labour and vexation of spirit.

6 Better is an handful with quietnesse, then two handfuls with labour and vexation of spirit.

7 Againe I returned, and sawe vanitie vnder the sunne.

9 Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

9 Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are wrought vnder the sunne, and beholde the teares of the oppressed, and none comforteth them: and lo, the strength is of the hand of them that oppresse them, and none comforteth them.

2 Wherefore I praised the dead which now are dead, above the liuing, which are yet alive, no end of all his labour, neither are his eyes satisfied with riches. For whom then, saith he, do I labour, and deprive my soul of good? This also is vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

2 Wherefore I praised the dead which now are dead, above the liuing, which are yet alive, no end of all his labour, neither are his eyes satisfied with riches. For whom then, saith he, do I labour, and deprive my soul of good? This also is vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

3 And I count him better then them both, which hath not yet bin: for he hath not seene the euill work that is done under the sunne:

3 And I count him better then them both, which hath not yet bin: for he hath not seene the euill work that is done under the sunne:

4 Wherefore I praysed the dead which are already dead, above the liuing which are yet alive; and behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. {side: Heb. hand}

4 Wherefore I praysed the dead which are already dead, above the liuing which are yet alive; and behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. {side: Heb. hand}

13 Better is an handful with quietnesse, then two handfuls with labour and vexation of spirit.

13 Better is an handful with quietnesse, then two handfuls with labour and vexation of spirit.

14 Also I beheld all travaile, and all perfection of workes that this is ye enuie of a man against his neighbour: this also is vanitie and vexation of spirit.

14 Also I beheld all travaile, and all perfection of workes that this is ye enuie of a man against his neighbour: this also is vanitie and vexation of spirit.
For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth, for he hath not another to help him up.

Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished.

For out of prison he cometh forth to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

I behelde all the living which walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the second, that stood up in his stead.

There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth, and hath not another to lift him up.

Again, if two tie together, then they have warmth: but how can one be warm alone?

And if a man prevail against him that is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king, who knoweth not how to receive admonition any more.

For out of prison he came forth to be king; yea, even in his kingdom he was born poor.

I beheld all the living which walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the second, that stood up in his stead.

There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was: yet they that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a striving after wind.
Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God; for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.

3 For a dream cometh with a multitude of business; and a fool’s voice is known by multitude of words.

4 When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it: for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

5 Better is it that thou shouldst not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for one higher than the high regardeth; and there be higher than they.

8 If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for one higher than the high regardeth; and there be higher than they.

9 The heart of the wise learneth knowledge: and the ear of the discerning seeketh it out.

10 A parable of the deceived soul: for which they should have been ashamed.

11 But it was hearkened unto by him, and delivered him not: that he should have been ashamed. Is there a man that is wise and understanding, and knoweth this thing?

12 The heart of fools is in the right hand; but wisdom is in the left hand.

13 The labor of the fools seeketh sloth: for it is gotten by the way of the ungodly.

17 Take heede to thy foote when thou entrest into the House of God, and be more neere to heare then to giue the sacrifice of fooles: for they knowe not that they doe euil.

Be not rash with thy mouth, nor let thine heart be hasty to vutter a thing before God: for God is in the heauens, and thou art on the earth: therefore let thy wordes be fewe.

2 For as a dreame commeth by the multitude of wordes be fewe.

3 When thou hast vowed a vowe to God, deferre not to pay it: for he deliteth not in foolies: pay there fore that thou hast vowed.

4 It is better that thou shouldest not vowe, then that thou shouldest vow and not pay it.

5 Suffer not thy mouth to make thy flesh to sinne: neither say before the Angel, that this is ignorance: for they consider not that they do evil.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 If in a countrey thou seest the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for one higher than the high regardeth; and there be higher than they.

8 If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for one higher than the high regardeth; and there be higher than they.

Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour, wherein he laboureth under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for this is his portion.

If a man beget an hundred children and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, but his soul be not filled with good, and moreover he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he:

for it cometh in vanity, and departeth in darkness, and the name thereof is covered with darkness;

moreover it hath not seen the sun nor known it;

and the name thereof is covered with darkness;

for it cometh in vanity, and departeth in darkness, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; for this is the gift of God.

Surely he will not much remember the days of his life, because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy upon men:

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he lacketh nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it; this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

If a man beget an hundred children and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, but his soul be not filled with good, and moreover he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he:

for it cometh in vanity, and departeth in darkness, and the name thereof is covered with darkness;

moreover it hath not seen the sun nor known it;

19 To whom God hath given riches, wealth, and power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

20 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is much among men:
3 If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial: I say, that an untimely birth is better than he.

4 For he cometh in vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6 Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled.

8 For what advantage hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

11 Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun. {good...: or, as good as an inheritance, pea, better too}

12 For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to him that hath it. {defence: Heb. shadow}

13 Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked?

14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him. {set: Heb. made}

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out any thing that shall be after him.

16 In the day of wealth be of good comfort, and in the day of affliction consider: God hath even made the one over against the other, to the intent that man should finde nothing after him.

21 Also take not heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

22 for oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that is the laughter of the foole: this also is vanitie.
ECCLESIASTES 7

18 It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

19 Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

20 For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee: {take...: Heb. gibe not thine heart}

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

24 That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out?

25 I turned about, and my heart was set to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the reason of things, and to know that wickedness is folly, and that foolishness is madness:

26 And I find a thing more bitter than death, even the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her. {whoso...: Heb. he}

27 Behold, this have I found, saith the Preacher; laying one thing to another, to find out the account: laying one thing to another, to find out the account:

28 Which my soul still seeketh, but I have not found: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.

29 Behold, this only have I found, that God made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.
28 And I finde more bitter then death the woman whose heart is as nettes and snares, and her handes, as bands: he that is good before God, shalbe deli-erved from her, but the sinner shall be taken by her.
29 Beholde, sayth the Preacher, this haue I founds, seking one by one to finde the count:
30 And yet my soule seeketh, but I finde it not: I haue found one man of a thousand: but a woman among them all haue I not founde.
31 Onely loe, this haue I founde, that God hath made man righteous: but they haue sought many inventions.

Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the hardness of his face is changed.
2 I aduertise thee to take heede to ye mouth of the King, and to the worde of the othe of God.
3 Haste not to goe forth of his sight: stand not in an euill thing: for he will doe whatsoeuer pleaseth him.
4 Where the word of ye King is, there is power, and who may say unto him, What doest thou?
5 He that keepeth the commandement shall knowe none euill thing, and the heart of the wise shall knowe the time and judgement.

Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the boldness of his face shall be changed.
2 I counsel thee, Keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God.
3 Be not hasty to goe forth of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.
4 Because the king's word hath power; and who may say unto him, What doest thou?
5 Whoso keepest the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth time and judgment. {shall...: Heb. shall know}

29 Behold, this only have I found, saith the preacher, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.
31 Only loe, this have I found, saith the preacher, this have I found,

14 There is a vanity, which is done upon the earth, that there be righteous men to whom it commeth according to the works of the wicked: and there be wicked men to whom it commeth according to the works of the just: I thought also that this is vanity.

15 And I prayed: for there is no goodnesse to man under the sun, saue to eate and to eande and to drinke and to reioyce: for this is auidoned to his labour, the dayes of his life: for God hath given him under the sun.

16 When I applied mine heart to knowe wisdom, and to behold the businesse that is done upon the earth, that neither day nor night the eyes of man take sleepe: for the which man laboureth to seeke it, 17 Then I behelde the whole worke of God, that man cannot finde out ye worke that is wrought vnder the sunne: be

For all this I laid to my heart, even to declare all this, that the iust, and the wise, and their worke are in the hand of God: whether it be love or hatred of all that is before them. I have surely giuen mine heart to all this, and to declare all this, that the iust, and the wise, and their worke are in the hand of God: and no man knoweth either love or hatred of all that is before them.

20 For all this I laid to my heart, even to declare all this; that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: whether it be love or hatred, man knoweth it not; all is before them.

2 All things come alike to all: and the same condition workes are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred of all that is before them.

All things come alike to all: there is one event to all: there is one condition to all: and there is one event unto all: yea, in every work of mankind, and whatsoever is done under the sun, there is one event unto all. Therefore, the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee, is thy portion in life, and in thy labour wherein thou labourest under the sun.

Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a cheerefull heart: for God nowe accepteth thy works.

Let thy garments be always white; and let not thy head lack ointment.

Live joyfully with the wife whom thou hast loued all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in life, and in thy labour wherein thou labourest under the sun.

Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but fame and chance happeneth to them all.

For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so, are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falldeth suddenly upon them.
them.
13 I have also seen wisdom under the sun on this wise, and it seemed great unto me:
14 There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:
15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.
16 Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man’s wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.
17 The words of the wise spoken in quiet are heard more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.
18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

hath giuen thee vnder the sunne all the dayes of thy vanitie: for this is thy portion in the life, and in thy traualuere wherein thou labourest vnder the sunne.
10 All that thine hand shall finde to doe, doe it with all thy power: for there is neither worke nor inuen-tion, nor knowledge, nor wisedome in the graue whither thou goest.
11 I returned, and I sawe vnder the sunne that the race is not to the swift, nor the battell to the strong, nor yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of under-standing, nor yet favoure to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.
12 For neither doth man knowe his time, but as the fishes which are taken in an euill net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare: so are the children of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.
13 I haue also seene this wisedome vnder the sunne, and it is great vnto me.
14 A litle citie and fewe men in it, and a great King came against it, and compassed it about, and builded fortres against it.
15 And there was founde therein a poore and wise man, and he deliuered the citie by his wisedome: but none remembred this poore man.
16 Then said I, Better is wisedome then strength:

Dead flies cause the ointment of the perfumer to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in estimation for wisedome, and for glorie.

Dead flies cause to stinke, and putrifie the ointment of the apoticarie: so doeth a litle folly him that is in estimation for wisedome, and for glorie.

Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days. {upon...: Heb. upon the face of the waters}
2 Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not which evil shall be upon the earth.
3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if a tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place that the tree falleth, there it shall be.
4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened: the strong men shall bow them selues, and the grinders shall cease, because they are few, and they waxe dull.

4 And the doores shall be shut in the streets, when the noise of the grinding, and he shall rise vp at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low:

8 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; all is vanity.

9 And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10 The preacher sought to find out pleasant words, and that which was written was upright, even words of truth. {acceptable...: Heb. words of delight}

14 For God shallbring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it be good or whether it be evil.
11 The words of the wise are like goads, and like nailes fastened by the masters of the assemblies, which are giuen by one pastour.

12 And of other things beside these, my sone, take thou heede: for there is none ende in making many bookes, and much reading is a wearines of the flesh.

13 Let vs heare the end of all: feare God and keepe his commandements: for this is the whole duetie of man.

The Song of songs, which is Solomon’s.

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine.

3 Thine ointments have a goodly fragrance; thy love is better than wine. The upright love thee.

4 I am blacke, O daughters of Jerusalem, but come, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtaines of Solomon.

5 Regard ye me not because I am blacke: for the sunne hath looked vpon mee. The sonnes of my mother were angry against mee: they made me the keeper of the vineyard; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

6 Shewe me, O thou, whome my soule loveth, where thou feedest thy flock, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as she that turneth aside to the flockes of thy companions?

7 If thou knowe not, O thou the fairest among women, get thee foorth by the steps of the flocke, and feede thy kids by the tents of the shepheards. |
9 I have compared thee, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots.
10 Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold.
11 We will make thee borders of gold with studs of silver.
12 While the king sat at his table, my spikenard sent forth its fragrance.
13 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of henna-leaves, that sendeth forth its fragrance.
14 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of camphire in the vineyards of Engedi.
15 Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes. {my love: or, my companion}
16 Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant: thine eyes are like doves.
17 The beams of our house are cedars, our rafters are firs.

I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys.
2 As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.
3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.
4 He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love.
5 Stay ye me with raisins, comfort me with apples: for I am sick of love.
6 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me.
7 I adjure you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.
8 The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.
9 My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh in at the windows, shewing himself through the lattice.
10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.
11 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;
12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land;
13 The fig tree ripeneth her yong figges: and the vines with their small grapes haue cast a savour: arise my love, my faire one, and come away.
14 O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the covert of the steep place, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice: for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

SONG OF SOLOMON 3

14 My dove, that art in the holes of ye rocke, in the secret places of the staires, shew mee thy sight, let mee heare thy voyce: for thy voyce is sweete, and thy sight comely.
15 Take vs the foxes, the little foxes, which destroy the vines: for our vines haue small grapes.
16 My welbeloued is mine, and I am his: hee feedeth among the lilies.

ERV

15 Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines; for our vines have tender grapes.
16 My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feedeth his vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

In my bed by night I sought him that my soule loueth: I sought him, but I found him not.
2 I will rise therefore nowe, and goe about in the citie, by the streetes and by the open places, and wil seeke him that my soule loueth: I sought him, but I found him not.
3 The watchmen that went about the citie, found mee: to whome I said, Haue you seene him, whome I said, Saw ye him whom my soule loveth?
4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother’s house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.
5 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hindes of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awaken love, until it please.
6 Who is this that cometh up out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?
4 When I had past a little from them, then I found him whom my soul loved: I took hold of him and left him not, till I had brought him into my mother's house into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

6 Who is she that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, and with all the spices of the merchant?

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.

9 King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go forth, O daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.
Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; your eyes are like the doves’ eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, that appear from mount Gilead.

2 Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one hath twins, and none is bereaved among them.

3 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind thy veil.

4 Thy neck is like the tower of David built for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all the shields of the mighty men.

5 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

6 Until the day be cool, and the shadows flee away,
I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

7 Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.

SONG OF SOLOMON 5

9 O the fairest among women, what is thy wel-beloued more then other welbeloued? what is thy wel-beloued more then another louer, that thou dost so charge vs?
10 My welbeloued is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand.
11 His head is as fine golde, his lockes curled, and blacke as a rauen.
12 His eyes are like doues vpon the riuers of waters, which are washt with milke, and remaine by the full vessels.
13 His cheekes are as a bedde of spices, and as sweete flowres, and his lippes like lilies dropping downe pure myrrhe.
14 His hands as rings of gold set with the chrysolite, his body is as ivory work overlaid with sapphires.
15 His legges are as pillars of marble, set vpon sockets of fine golde: his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.
16 His mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

10 My beloved is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand.
11 His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are bushy, and black as a raven.
12 His eyes are as the eyes of doves beside the water brooks; washed with milk, and fitly set.
13 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet herbs: his lips are as lilies, dropping liquid myrrh.
14 His hands are as rings of gold set with beryl: his body is as ivory work overlaid with sapphires.
15 His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his aspect is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.
16 His mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.
Whither is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee?

2 My beloved is gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

3 I am my beloved’s, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth his flock among the lilies.

4 Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.

5 Turn away thine eyes from me: for they have overme. Thy hair is as a flock of goats, that lie along the side of Gilead.

6 Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep which goe up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and none is barren among them.

7 Thy temples are within thy lockes as a piece of a pomegranate.

8 There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

9 My dove, my undefiled is but one, she is the only one of her mother; she is the choice one of her that bare her. The daughters saw her, and called her blessed; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

10 Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners!

My wellbeloved is gone downe into his garden to the beds of spices, to feede in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

2 I am my wellbeloveds, and my wellbeloved is mine, who feedeth among the lilies.

3 Thou art beautfull, my love, as Tirzah, comely as Ierusale, terrible as an army with baners.

4 Turne away thine eyes from me: for they ouercome mee: thine heare is like a flocke of goates, which looke downe from Gilead.

5 Thy teeth are like a flocke of sheepe, which goe vp from the washing, which every one bring out twinneis, and none is bereaved among them.

6 Thy temples are within thy lockes as a piece of a pomegranate.

7 There are threescore Queenes and fourescore concubines and of the damsels without nober.

8 But my doue is alone, and my vndefiled, she is the onely daughter of her mother, and shee is deare to her that bare her: the daughters haue seene her and counted her blessed: euen the Queenes and the concubines, and they haue praised her.

9 Who is shee that looketh foorth as the morning, fayre as the moone, pure as the sunne, terrible as an armie with baners!

10 I wente downe to the garden of nuttes, to see the women? whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee?
KJV | SONG OF SOLOMON 7 | GNV

| with banners? | fair as the moon, clear as the sun, terrible as an army with banners? | How beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince’s daughter! The joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman. |

| 8 I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the branches thereof: let thy breasts be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples; | Oh that thou wert as my brother that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, and none would despise me. |
| 9 And thy mouth like the best wine, that goeth down smoothly for my beloved, gliding through the lips of those that are asleep. | Oh that thou wert as my brother that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, and none would despise me. |
| 10 I am my beloved’s, and his desire is toward me. | Oh that thou wert as my brother that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, and none would despise me. |
| 11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages. | Oh that thou wert as my brother that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, and none would despise me. |
| 12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape appear, and whether the pomegranates be open, and the pomegranates be in flower: there will I give thee my love. | Oh that thou wert as my brother that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, and none would despise me. |
| 13 The mandrakes give forth fragrance, and at our doors are all manner of precious fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved. | Oh that thou wert as my brother that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, and none would despise me. |
2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother’s house, who would instruct me; I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine, of the juice of my pomegranate.
3 His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.
4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.
5 Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple tree: there thy mother brought thee forth: there she brought thee forth that bare thee.
6 Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.
7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.
8 We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?
9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

SONG OF SOLOMON 8

2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother’s house, who would instruct me; I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine, of the juice of my pomegranate.
3 His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.
4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until it please.
5 Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple tree: there thy mother brought thee forth: there she brought thee forth that bare thee.
6 Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.
7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, he would greatly contemne it.
8 We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister when she shall be spoken for?
9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a turret of silver: and if she be a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.
10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found peace. {favour: Heb. peace}
11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon: he let out the vineyard unto keepers: every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.
12 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.
13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: cause me to hear it.
14 Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe or to a young hart upon the mountains of spices.

silver: and if she be a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar.
10 I am a wall, and my breasts are as towres: then was I in his eyes as one that findeth peace.
11 Salomon had a vine in Baal-hamon: hee gaue the vineyarde vnto keepers: every one bringeth for ye fruite thereof a thousand pieces of siluer.
12 But my vineyarde which is mine, is before me: to thee, O Salomon appertaineth a thousand pieces of siluer, and two hundreth to them that keepe the fruite thereof.
13 O thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken for thy voice: cause me to heare it.
14 Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe or to the yong harte vpon ye mountaines of spices.
The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken.

3 The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master’s crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have despised the Holy One of Israel unto anger: they are gone backward.

5 Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart is heavy.

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is nothing sound in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, nor mollified with oil.

7 Your country is desolate; your cities are burnt with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a booth in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a cotage in a vineyarde, like a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a cotage in a vineyarde, like a lodge in a garden of cucumbers.
And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

9 Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and of the fat of fed beasts: and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, nor of lambs, nor of he-goats.

12 When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

13 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me: the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies,--I cannot away with iniquity nor solemn assemblies.

14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.

15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

16 Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil:

besieged city.

cucumbers, and like a besieged citie.
of your workes from before mine eyes: cease to doe euill.
17 Learne to doe well: seeke judgement, relieue the oppressed: judge the fatherlesse and defend the widowe.
18 Come nowe, and let vs reason together, sayth the Lord: though your sinnes were as crimsin, they shalbe made white as snowe: though they were red like skarlet, they shalbe as wooll.
19 If ye consent and obey, ye shall eate the good things of the land.
20 But if ye refuse and be rebellious, ye shalbe deuoured with the sword: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.
21 Howe is the faithfull city become an harlot? it was full of iudgement, and iustice lodged therein, but now they are murtherers.
22 Thy siluer is become drosse: thy wine mixt with water.
23 Thy Princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doeth the cause of the widow come unto them.
24 Therefore sayth the Lord God of hostes, the Mightie one of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:
25 and I will turn my hand upon thee, and throughly purge away thy dross, and will take away all thy tin:
26 and I will restore thy judges as at the first, and

24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and abende me of mine enemies:

25 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:

{purely: Heb. according to pureness}

26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward shalt thou be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness. {her...: or, they that return of her}

28 But the destruction of the transgressors and the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

31 And the strong shall be as tow, and his work as a spark; and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them. {maker...: or, and his work}

25 Then I will turne mine hand vpon thee, and burne out thy drosse, till it be pure, and take away all thy tinne.

26 And I will restore thy iudges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward shalt thou be called a citie of righteousnes, and a faithfull citie.

27 Zion shall be redeemed in iudgement, and they that returne in her, in iustice.

28 And the destruction of the transgressers and of the sinners shalbe together: and they that forsake the Lord, shalbe consumed.

29 For they shalbe confounded for the okes, which ye haue desired, and ye shall be ashamed of the gardens, that ye haue chosen.

30 For ye shalbe as an oke, whose leafe fadeth: and as a garden that hath no water.

31 And the strong shall be as towe, and the maker thereof, as a sparke: and they shall both burne together, and none shall quench them.

8 Their land also was full of idols: they worshipped the work of their own hands, which their own fingers have made.
9 And a man bowed himself, and a man humbled himself: therefore spare them not.
10 Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust from before the fear of the LORD, and from the glory of his majesty.
11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be abased, and the Lord onely shall be exalted in that day.
12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon all the proud and haughty, and upon all that is exalted: and it shall be brought low:
13 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan, 14 And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,
15 And upon every lofty tower, and upon every fenced wall,
16 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures.

2 In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel.

3 Then he that shall be left in Zion, and he that shall remain in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem,

4 When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.

5 And the Lord will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence. {upon all: or, above all} {defence: Heb. covering}

6 And there shall be a pavilion for a shadow in the day-time from the heat, and for a refuge and for a covert from storm and from rain.
Now will I sing to my beloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My beloved had a vineyard in a very fruitful hill:

2 And he hedged it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes.

5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down:

6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor treading; it shall be eaten up; I will break down the fence thereof, and it shall be trodden down:

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.
And he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry.

7 Surely the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are his pleasant plant; and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression: for righteousness, but behold a crying.

8 Woe vnto them that ioyne house to house, and laye fieles to fiele, till there bee no place, that ye may be placed by your selues in the mids of the earth.

9 This is in mine cares, saith the Lord of hostes. Surely many houses shall be desolate, euen great, and faire without inhabitant.

10 For ten acres of vines shall yelde one bath, and the seede of an homer shall yelde an ephah.

11 Woe vnto them, that rise vp early to follow drunkennes, and to them that continue vntill night, till the wine doe inflame them.

12 And the harp and the viole, timbrel, and pipe, and wine are in their feastes: but they regard not the worke of the Lord, neither consider the worke of his hands.

13 Therefore my people is gone into captiuitie, because they had no knowledge, and the glorie thereof are men famished, and the multitude thereof is dried vp with thirst.

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged it selfe, and hath opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth among them, descend into it.

15 And the mean man is bowed down, and the great man is humbled, and the eyes of the lofty are humbled; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain vpon it.
13 Then shall the lambs feed as in their pasture, and God the holy one of Israel shall be sanctified in righteousness. {God...: or, the holy God: Heb. the holy one of Israel}

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

15 And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness. {God...: or, the holy God: Heb. the holy one of Israel}

17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and God the holy shall be sanctified in righteousness, {God...: or, the holy God: Heb. the holy one of Israel}

18 Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope:

19 Which say, Let him make speed, let him hasten his worke, that wee may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw neere and come, that we may knowe it.

20 Woe unto them that speake good of euill, and euill of good, which put darkenes for light, and light for darkenes, that put bitter for sweete, and sweete for bitter! {call...: Heb. say concerning evil, It is good, etc}

21 Woe unto them that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

22 Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drinke:

23 which justify the wicked for a reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

24 Therefore as the tongue of fire devoureth the stubble, and as the dry grass sinketh down in the flame, so their root shall be as roteness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

25 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

26 And man shalbe brought down, and man shalbe humbled, even the eyes of the proud shall be humbled.

27 And the Lord of hostes shall be exalted in judgement, and the holy God shalbe sanctified in iustice.

28 Then shall the lambs feede after their maner, and the strangers shall eate the desolate places of the fat.

29 Woe unto them, that draw iniquitie with cordes of vanitie, and sinne, as with cart ropes:

30 And men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst. {honourable...: Heb. glory are men of famine} their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind;

29 His roaring shall be like a lion, and he shall roar like lyons whelpes: they shall roar, and lay hold of the praye: they shall take it away, and none shall deliver it.

30 And in that day they shall roar upon them, as the roaring of the sea: and if they looke vnto the earth, beholde darkenesse, and sorowe, and the light shalbe darkened in their skie.

In the yeere of the death of King Vzziah, I saw also the Lord sitting vpon an high throne, and lifted vp, and the lower partes thereof filled the Temple.

2 The Seraphims stoode vpon it: euery one had sixe wings: with twaine hee couered his face, and with twaine he couered his feete, and with twaine he did flie.

3 And one cried to another, and sayde, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hostes: the whole world is full of his glory.

4 And the lintles of the doore cheekes moued at the voyce of him that cryed, and the house was filled with smoke.

In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting vpon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

2 Above him stood the seraphim: each one had six wings: with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

7 and he touched my mouth with it, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

8 And I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then I said, Here am I; send me.

9 And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye:

5 Then I said, Wo is me! for I am undone, because I am a man of polluted lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of polluted lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken from the altar with the tongs:

7 And he touched my mouth, and said, Loe, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity shall be taken away, and thy sin shall be purged.

8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send? and who shall go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

9 And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn again, and be healed.

11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate,
And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it; but could not prevail against it.

12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and the heart of the king of Syria, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest are moved with the wind.

13 But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten up as an elme or an oke, which havea substance in them, when they cast their leaues: so the holy seede shall be the substance thereof.

And in the days of Ahaz, the sonne of Iotham, the sonne of Vzziach king of Judah, Rezin the King of Aram came vp, and Pekah the sonne of Remaliach King of Israel, to Jerusalem to fight against it, but he could not overcome it.

2 And it was tolde the house of Dauid, saying, Aram is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest are moved by the winde.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Goe forth nowe to meete Ahaz (thou and Sheariashub thy sonne) at the ende of the conduit of the vpper poole, in the path of the fullers field;

4 And say vnto him, Take heede, and be still: feare not, neither be faint hearted for these two tailed of smoking firebrads, for the furious wrath of Syria hath counselled evill against thee, Ephraim also, and the sonne of Remaliach, saying,

LORD shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all pastures.

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, shall even be for briers and thorns.

24 With arrows and with bow shall one come thither; because all the land shall be briers and thorns.

4 For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, he shall take away the riches of Damascus and the spoyle of Samaria, before the King of Asshur.

5 And the Lord spake yet againe vnto me, saying, Because this people hath refused the waters of Shiloah that runne softly, and rejoice with Rezin, and the sonne of Remaliah,

6 That the Lord bringeth up upon this people shall say, A conspiracy; neither fear ye this people, saying, The king of Asshur shall take away the riches, etc

7 Gather together on heapes, O ye peoples, and ye shall be broken in pieces, and hearken all ye of farre countries: gird your selues, and you shalbe broken and be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of farre lands.

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and passe through, and shall come vp to the necke, and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanu-el.

9 Make an uproar; O ye peoples, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of farre countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces. Take counsel together, and it shall be brought to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us.

10 For the LORD spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, 11 Say ye not, A conspiracy, concerning all whereof this people shall say, A conspiracy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be in dread thereof.

12 And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the inhabitants of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

13 And many shall stumble thereon, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

14 And I will wait for the LORD, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.
18 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

19 And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits and unto the wizards, that chirp and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? on behalf of the living should they seek unto the dead?

20 To the law and to the testimony! if they speak not according to this word, surely there is no morning for them.

21 And they shall pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse by their king and by their God, and turn their faces upward.

22 and they shall look unto the earth, and behold, distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and into thick darkness they shall be driven away.

10 Take counsel together, yet it shall be brought to nought; pronounce a decree, yet shall it not stand: for God is with us.

11 For the Lord spake thus to me in taking of mine hand, and taught me, that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 Say ye not, A confederacie to all them, to whom this people sayth a confederacie, neither feare you their feare, nor be afrayd of them.

13 Sanctifie the Lord of hostes, and let him be your feare, and let him be your dread,

14 And he shalbe as a Sanctuarie: but as a stumbling stone, and as a rocke to fall vpon, to both the houses of Israel, and as a snare and as a net to the inhabit-

15 And many among them shall stumble, and shall fall and shalbe broken and shalbe snared and shalbe taken.

16 Bind up the testimonie: seale vp the Law among my disciples.

17 Therefore I will waite vpon the Lord that hideth his face from the house of Iaakob, and I wil looke for him.

face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.

19 And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God for the living to the dead?

20 To the law, and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

21 Then he that is afflicted and famished, shall go to the law and their God, and look upward.

22 And when he shall looke to the earth, behold they shall go to the earth, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall gather together, they shall fret themselves, and curse their God, and their king, and their God, and look upward.

Yet the darkness shall not be according to the affliction that it had when at the first he touched lightly the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, nor afterward when he was more grievous by the way of the sea beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles.

2 The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

5 For all the armour of the armed man in the tumult, shall be driven to darkness.

6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with judgment and with righteousness from hence-
The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwelle in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

The ancient and the honourable man, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian.

The ancient and the honourable man, he is the head and tail, palm-branch and rush, in one day.

Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel hosts.

Yet the people hath not turned unto him that might save: but to turn unto the Lord with their faces:

Therefore the Lord shall set up on high against the inhabitants of Samaria, that say in pride and in the pride of their heart:

All this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

And they that are led of them are destroyed.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.
17 Therefore the Lord shall not rejoice over their young men, neither shall he have compassion on their fatherless and widows: for every one is profane and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

18 For wickedness burneth as the fire; it devoureth the briers and thorns: yea, it kindleth in the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in thick clouds of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land burnt up: the people also are as the fuel of fire; no man spareth his brother.

20 And one shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

13 For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have gathered all the earth: but none to move the wing or to open the mouth, or to peep.

14 And mine hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people, and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

15 Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? as if the rod should shake itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should lift up itself, as if it were no wood.

16 Therefore shall the Lord God of hosts send that which is not wood unto the Assyrians, and there shall be kindled a burning like the burning of fire, and it shall burn and devour the forest thereof as a flame, and it shall burn and devour the fruitful field, both soul and body: and it shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his holy one thereof as a flame, and it shall burne, and it shall devour the glory of his forest, and the excellency of his thorns and his briers in one day.

18 And he shall consume the glory of his forest, and the excellency of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and it shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth.

19 And the remnant of the trees of his forest shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of the trees of his forest shall be left, as when a standardbearer fainteth.

21 A remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them shall return: a consummation is determined, overflowing with righteousness.

23 For a consummation, and that determined, shall the Lord, the LORD of hosts, make in the midst of all the earth.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, O my people that dwell in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: though he smite thee with the idoles thereof, so doe to Jerusalem and to the idoles thereof.

25 But when the Lord hath accomplished all his works upon mount Zion and Jerusalem, I will visit the fruit of the proud heart of the King of Asshur, and his glorious and proud lookes, 26 Because he said, By ye power of mine owne hand haue I done it, and by my wisdome, because I am wise: therefore I haue remooued the borders of the people, and haue spoyled their treasures, and haue pulled downe the inhabitants like a valiant man.

27 And mine hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people, and haue spoyled their treasures, and haue pulled downe the inhabitants like a valiant man.

28 And as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth: and there was none to moue the wing or to open the mouth, or to whisper.

29 And the remnant of the trees of his forest shall be left, as when a standardbearer fainteth.

30 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and they that are escaped of the remnant of Israel, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

31 A remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.

32 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them shall return: a consummation is determined, overflowing with righteousness.

33 For a consummation, and that determined, shall the Lord, the LORD of hosts, make in the midst of all the earth.

34 Therefore thus saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, O my people that dwell in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: though he smite thee with the idoles thereof, so doe to Jerusalem and to the idoles thereof.
16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day;

18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body; and they shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth. (both...: Heb. from the soul, and even to the flesh)

19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them. (few: Heb. number)

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel in truth.

21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.

22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet shall the remnant of them return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness. (of them: Heb. in, or, among, etc) (with: or, in)

23 For the Lord GOD of hosts shall make the consumption, euen determined, in the midst of all the land.

24 Therefore thus saith ye Lord God of hosts, O my people, that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of Assyur: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staffe against thee after the maner of Egypt:

25 But yet a very litle time, and the wrath shall be consumed, and mine anger in their destruction.

26 And ye Lord of hosts shall raise vp a scourge for 16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

24 Therefore thus saith ye Lord God of hosts, O my people, that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of Assyur: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staffe against thee after the maner of Egypt:

27 And at that day shall his burden be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck: and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.

28 He is come to Aiath: he is passed into Migron: at Michmash shall he lay up his armour.

29 They have gone over the forde: they lodged in the lodging at Geba: Ramah is afraid: Gibeah of Saul is fled away.

30 Lift up thy voice, O daughter Gallim, cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth.

31 Madmenah is removed: the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves together.

32 Yet there is a time that he will stay at Nob: he shall lift vp his hand toward the mount of the daughter Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33 Behold, the Lord God of hosts shall cut off the bough with fear, and they of high stature shal be cut off, and the hie shal be humbled.

34 And he shall cut away the thicke places of the forest with yron, and Lebanon shall haue a mightie fall.

11 And I will visite the wickednes vpon the worlde, and the arrogancie of the proud to cease, and will cast downe the pride of tyrants.

12 I will make a man more precious then fine golde, a man aboue the wedge of golde of Ophir.

13 Therefore I will shake the heauen, and the earth shall come as a destruction from the Almightie.

14 And it shall come to pass, that as the chased roe, and as sheep that no man gathereth, they shall turn every man to his own people, and shall flee every man to his own land.

15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is taken shall fall by the sword.

16 Their infants also shall be dashed in pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver, and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.
12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.

14 And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

16 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.

19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

20 It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch his tents there, neither shall the shepherds make their foldes there.

21 But Zimm shall lodge there, and their houses shall be ful of Oheim: Ostriches shall dwell there, and her days shall not be prolonged.
For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the stranger shall join himself to them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.

3 And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve,

4 that thou shalt take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased!

5 The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, the sceptre of the rulers;

6 that smote the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, that ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that none restrained.

7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.

Satrys shall dance there.

22 And Im shall cry in their palaces, and drag-ons in their pleasant palaces: and the time thereof is readie to come, and the daies thereof shall not be prolonged.

For the Lord wil haue compassion of Iaakob, and wil yet chuse Israel, and cause them to rest in their owne lande: and the stranger shall loyne him selfe vnto them, and they shall cleave to the house of Iaakob.

2 And the people shall receiue them and bring them to their owne place, and the house of Israel shall possesse them in the land of the LORD, for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them prisoners, whose captiues they were, and haue rule ouer their oppressours.

3 And in that day when the Lord shall giue thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy feare, and from the hard bondage, wherein thou didest serue,

For the LORD will have compassion of Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the stranger shall join himself with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.

3 And in that day when the Lord shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou didest serve,
4 Then shalt thou take vp this prouerbe against the King of Babel, and say, Howe hath the oppressor ceased? and the gold thirsty Babel rested?
5 The Lord hath broken the rodde of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers:
6 Which smote the people in anger with a continuall plague, and ruled the nations in wrath: if any were persecuted, he did not let.
7 The whole world is at rest and is quiet: they sing for ioye.

because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned.
21 Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.
22 For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the LORD.

24 The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:
25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.
26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.
27 For the LORD of hosts hath determined it, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it away?
28 In the year that king Ahaz died was this burden.
29 Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because the rod that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent’s root shall come forth a basilisk, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.
30 And the firstborn of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root with famine, and thy remnant shall be slain.
31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city; thou art melted away, O Philistia, all of thee; for there cometh a smoke out of the north, and none standeth aloof at his appointed times.
32 What then shall one answer the messengers of the nation? That the LORD hath founded Zion, and in her shall the afflicted of his people take refuge.

4 And Heshbon crieth out, and Elealeh; their voice is heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud; his soul trembleth within him.

5 My heart crieth out for Moab; her nobles flee unto Zoar, to Eglath-shelishiyah: for by the ascent of Luhith with weeping they go up; for in the way of Horonaim they raise up a cry of destruction.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows.

And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz; therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

The burden of Egypt. Beholde, the Lord rideth vpon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt, and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of her. 2 And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: so euery one shall fight against his brother, and every one against his neighbour, city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. 3 And the spirit of Egypt shall faile in the midde of it. 4 And I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. 5 For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the springs with pruning hooks, and take away the outspread and polished branches. 6 They shall be left together unto the foules of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth; and the foules shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them. 7 In that time shall the present be brought unto the ends of the earth, and the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the Lord of hostes, (a people that is scattered abroade, and spoyled) to the place of the Name of the Lord of hostes, euen the mount Zion. 8 And I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts. 9 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and become dry. 10 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and become dry. 11 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and become dry. 12 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and become dry. 13 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and become dry.
3 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idoles, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

4 And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of the cruel Lords, and a mightie King shall rule over them, saith the Lord God of hosts.

9 Moreover they that work in combed flax, and they that weave white cloth, shall be confounded. {networks: or, networks:}

10 And their nettes shall be broken, and all they that make pondes, shalbe heauie in heart.

11 Surely the princes of Zoan are fooles: the counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of ancient kings?

12 Where then are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now; and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed concerning Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have caused Egypt to go astray, that are the corner stone of her tribes.

14 The LORD hath mingled a spirit of perverseness in the midst of her: and they have caused Egypt to go astray in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

15 Neither shall there be for Egypt any work, which head or tail, palm branch or rush, may do.
16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall tremble and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath determined against it.

18 In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and shall swear by the LORD of hosts. one shall be called the city of destruction.

23 In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians shall worship with the Assyrians.

In the yeere that Tartan came to Ashdod, (when Sargon King of Asshur sent him) and had fought against Ashdod, and taken it,
2 At the same time spake the Lord by ye hand of Isaiah the sonne of Amoz, saying, Go, and loose the sackcloth from thy loynes, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

3 And the Lord said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked, and barefoote three yeeres for a sign and wonder upon Egypt, and upon Ethiopia,
4 So shall the King of Asshur take away the captiuitie of Egypt, and the captiuitie of Ethiopia, both yong men and olde men, naked and barefoote, with their buttockes uncouered, to the shame of Egypt.
5 And they shall be afraid, and be ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.
6 Then shall the inhabitant of this yle say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we fledde for helpe to be deliuered from the King of Asshur, and howe shall we be deliuered?

In the year that Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it;

3 And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia;
4 So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.
5 And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.
6 And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and howe shall we escape?
The burden of the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south sweep through, it cometh from the wilderness, from a terrible land.

2 A grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Elam; besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

3 Therefore are my loins filled with anguish; pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman in travail: I am pained so that I cannot hear; I am dismayed so that I cannot see.

4 My heart panteth, horror hath affrighted me: the twilight that I desired hath been turned into trembling unto me.

5 They prepare the table, they set the watch, they eat, they drink: arise up, ye princes, anoint the shield.

6 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Go, set a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed.

7 And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, a chariot of camels, he shall hearken and take diligent heed.

8 And he cried as a lion: O Lord, I stand continually upon the watchtower in the daytime, and am set in my watch whole nights: {he...: or, cried as a lion}

9 And beholde, this mans charret cometh with two horsemen, horsemen in pairs. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen: and, behold, here cometh a troop of men, horsemen in pairs, a troop of asses, a troop of camels, he shall hearken and take diligent heed.

10 And he cried, A lion: My lord, I stand continually upon the watchtower in the daytime, and I am set in my watch whole nights: {he...: or, cried as a lion}

11 And he cried, A lion: My lord, I stand continually upon the watchtower in the daytime, and I am set in my watch whole nights: {he...: or, cried as a lion}

The burden of the wilderness Sea. As the whirlwindes in the South vse to passe from the wilderness, so shall it come from the horrible land.

2 A grievous vision was shewed vnto me, The transgressour against a transgressour, and the destroyer against a destroyer. Goe vp Elam, besiege Media: I have caused all the mourning thereof to cease.

3 Therefore are my loines filled with sorrow: sorrowes have taken me as the sorrowes of a woman that travauleth: I was bowed downe when I heard it, and I was amased when I sawe it.

4 Mine heart failed: fearfulness troubled me: the night of my pleasures hath he turned into feare vnto me.

5 Prepare thou the table: watch in the watch towre: eate, drinke: arise, ye princes, anoynt the shielde.

6 For thus hath the Lord said vnto me, Go, set a watchman, to tell what he seeth.

7 And he sawe a charet with two horsemen: a charet of an asse, and a charet of a camel: and he hearkened diligently with much heed.

8 And he cryed, A lyon: my lorde, I stand continu:

9 And beholde, this mans charret cometh with two horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen: and, behold, here cometh a troop of men, horsemen in pairs, a troop of asses, a troop of camels, he shall hearken and take diligent heed.

10 And he cried, A lion: O Lord, I stand continually upon the watchtower in the day-time, and am set in my ward whole nights: {he...: or, cried as a lion}
9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said,

10 O my threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, haue I shewed vnto you. {corn: Heb. son}

11 The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what was in ye night? Watchman, what of the night?

12 The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night. If yee will aske, enquire: returne and come.

13 The burden against Arabia. In the forest of Arabia shall yee tarie all night, euen in the waies of Dedanim.

14 Unto him that was thirsty they brought water; the inhabitants of the lande of Tema did meet the fugitives with their bread.

15 For they fled from the drawen swords, euen from the drawen sword, and from the bent bowe, and from the grieuousnesse of warre.

16 For thus hath the Lord sayd vnto me, Yet a yeere according to the yeeres of an hireling, and all the glorie of Kedar shall faile.

17 And the residue of the number of ye strong archers of the sonnes of Kedar shall be fewe: for the Lord God of Israel hath spoken it.
17 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it. {archers: Heb. bows}

The burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the housetops?

2 Thou that art full of shakings, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy slain are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

3 All thy princes shall flee together from the bowe: all that shall be found in thee, shall be bound together, which have fled from far. {by...: Heb. of the bow}

4 Therefore said I, Look away from me: I will weep bitterly: labour not to comfort me, for the spoiling of the daughter of my people. {weep...: Heb. be bitter in weeping}

5 For it is a day of discomfiture, and of treading down, of destruction, and of perplexity from the Lord, the LORD of hosts in the valley of vision; a breaking down of the walls, and of crying unto the mountains.

6 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield. {uncovered: Heb. made naked}

7 And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate.

8 And hee discovered the covering of Iudah: and thou didst look in that day to the armour in the house of the forest.

9 And ye saw the breaches of the city of David, that they were many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool.
shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate. {thy...: Heb. the choice of the valley} {at: or, toward}

And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest.

9 Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David: for they were many, and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses haue ye broken down to fortifie the wall.

11 Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day did the Lord God of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

13 And beholde, joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die.

14 And it was declared in ye eares of the Lord of hosts: Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you, til ye die, saith the Lord God of hosts.

15 Thus sayeth the Lord God of hostes, Goe, get thee to that treasurer, even unto Shebna, the steward of the house, and say,

16 What haste thou to doe here? and whome hast thou here, that thou shouldest here hewe thee out a sepulchre? hew thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say, 17 Behold, the Lord will hurl thee away violently as a strong man; yea, he will wrap thee up closely.

18 He will surely turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country; there shalt thou die, and there shall thou didest looke in that day to the armour of the house of the forest.

9 And ye haue see the breaches of the citie of David: for they were many, and ye gathered the waters of the lower poole.

10 And yee nombred the houses of Israel, and the houses haue yee brake downe to fortifie the wall, 11 And haue also made a ditch betweene the two walles, for the waters of the olde poole, and haue not looked vnto the maker thereof, neither had respect vnto him that formed it of olde.

12 And in that day did the Lord God of hosts call vnto weeping and mourning, and to baldnes and to girding with sackecloth.

13 And beholde, joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheepe, eating flesh, and drinking wine, eating and drinking: for to morowe we shall die.

14 And it was declared in ye eares of the Lord of hostes: Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you, til ye die, saith the Lord God of hostes.

15 Thus sayeth the Lord God of hostes, Goe, get thee to that treasurer, even unto Shebna, the steward of the house, and say,

16 What haste thou to doe here? and whome hast thou here? that thou shouldest here hewe thee out a unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say,

16 What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graven a habitation for himself in a rock? {as...: or,
O he}

17 Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee. {will

18 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house. {large: Heb. large of spaces}

19 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down.

20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah:

21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut;
and he shall shut, and none shall open.

23 And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a throne of glory to his father's house.

24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the vessels of cups even to all the vessels of flagons.

25 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that was fastened in a sure place give way; and it shall be hewn down, and fall, and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off; for the LORD hath spoken it.

The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for it is destroyed, so that there is none house: none shall come from the lande of Chittim: it is reuiled vnto them.

2 Be still, yee that dwell in the yles: thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that passe ouer the sea, haue traversed, nor brought vp virgins.

3 And by great waters the seede of Sihor, the harvest of the riuer, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoiled thee.

5 When the report cometh to Egypt, they shall be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days, whose feet carried her afar off to sojourn?

8 Who hath purposed this against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

13 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

14 You shall be as a wife cast off, saith the Lord of hosts.

15 For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the lande of Chittim it is revealed to them.

16 The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for it is destroyed, so that there is no house: none shall come from the lande of Chittim: it is reuiled vnto them.

18 And her merchandise and her hire shall be holy, for she shall return to her hire, and shall play the harlot with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

17 And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall return to her hire, and shall play the harlot with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

15 The Lord of hosts hath decreed this against Tyre (that is the crowneth men) whose marchantes are princes? whose chapmen are the honourable of the earth?

14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strong hold is laid waste.

13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people is laid waste.

12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

11 He hath stretched out his hand upon the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment concerning Canaan, to destroy the strong holds thereof.

10 Pass through thy lande like a flood to the daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength. (strength: Heb. girdle)

Behold, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

20 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

21 The earth shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled; for the LORD hath spoken this word.

22 The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the lofty people of the earth do languish.

23 The earth also is polluted under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

24 Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are found guilty: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

O LORD, thou art my God: I will exalt thee, I will praise thy Name: for thou hast done wonderful things, even counsels of old, in faithfulness and truth.
2 For thou hast made of a city an heap; of a strong city a ruin: even the palace of strangers of a city, it shall never be built.
3 Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.
4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strong hold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.
5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat with the shadow of a cloud, the branch of the terrible ones shall be a strong hold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.
6 And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of fined wines and of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.
7 And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations.
8 He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the covering that is cast over all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations, shall be taken away.
In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

2 Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

5 And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, and he will saue vs.

6 This is the Lord, we have waited for him: we will reioyce and be joyfull in his salvation.

7 And he shall stretche out his hande in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth, stretcheth them out to swimme) and with the strength of his handes shall he bring downe their pride.

8 In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; salvation will God set there with the craft of his hands.

9 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim: and he shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands.

10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be trodden down under him, even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill.

11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst thereof, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim: and he shall lay low his pride together with the craft of his hands.

12 And the fortress of the high fort of thy walls shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

13 And he shall stretche out his hande in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swimme) and with the strength of his handes shall he bring downe their pride.

4 Trust in the Lord for ever: for in the Lord God is strength for evermore.
5 For he will bring down them that dwell on high: the hie citie he will abase: euen vnto the ground will he cast it downe, and bring it vnto dust.
6 The foote shall tread it downe, euen the feete of the poore, and the steppes of the needle.
7 The way of the iust is righteousnesse: thou wilt make equall the righteous path of the iust.
8 Also we, O Lord, haue waited for thee in the way of thy judgemets: the desire of our soule is to thy Name, and to the remembrance of thee.
9 With my soule haue I desired thee in the night, yea, and with my spirit within mee will I seeke thee early: for seeing thy iudgements are in the morning: for how much more wilt thou of thy iudgemets: the desire of our soule is to thy Name, and to the remembrance of thee.
10 Let mercie bee shewed to the wicked, yet hee will not learne righteousnesse: in the land of vprightnesse will he do wickedly, and will not beholde the majestie of the Lord.
11 O Lord, they will not beholde thine hie hande: but they shall see it, and bee confounded with the zeale of the people, and the fire of thine enemies shall deuoure them.

5 For he hath brought down them that dwell on high, the lofty city: he layeth it low, he layeth it low even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

7 The way of the just is uprightness: thou, most righteous, dost direct the path of the just.
8 Also we, O Lord, have waited for thee in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.
9 With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world shall learn righteousness.
10 Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he deal wrongfully, and will not behold the majesty of the Lord.
11 LORD, thy hand is lifted up, yet they see not: but they shall see thy zeal for the people, and be ashamed; yea, fire shall devour thine adversaries.
12 LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou hast also wrought all our works for us.

14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation; thou art glorified: thou hadst removed it far unto all the ends of the earth.

16 LORD, in trouble have they visited thee, they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them. {prayer: Heb. secret speech}

17 Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbes, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 Come, my people: enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors after thee: hide thyself for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.
very little while, until the indignation pass over.

21 For lo, the Lord commeth out of his place, to visite the iniquity of the inhabitants of the earth upon them: and the earth shall disclose her blood, and shall no more hide her slain.

In that day the Lord with his sore and great and mighty sword shall visite Liuiathan, that pearing serpent, euen Liuiathan, that crooked serpent, and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that daye sing ye to her, A vineyard of red wine.

3 I the Lord doe keepe it: I will water it euery moneth: lest any assaile it, I will keep it night and day.

4 Fury is not in me: who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would go through them, I would burne them together.

5 Or else let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; yea, let him make peace with me.

6 He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

6 Hereafter, Iaakob shall take root: Israel shall flourish and growe, and the world shall be filled with fruite.
7 Hath hee smitten him as hee smote those that smote him? or is hee slain according to the slaughter of them that were slain by him?
8 In measure in the branches thereof wilt thou contende with it, when he bloweth with his rough winde in the day of the East winde.
9 By this therefore shall the iniquitie of Iaakob be purged, and this is all the fruit, the taking away of his sinne: whe he shall make all the stones of the altars, as chalke stones broken in pieces, that the groues and images may not stand vp.
10 Yet the defenced citie shalbe desolate, and the habitation shalbe forsaken, and left like a wildernes.
11 When the boughes of it are drie, they shalbe broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for it is a people of no understanding: therefore hee that made them, shall not haue compassion of them, and he that formed them, shall haue no mercie on them.
12 And in that day shall the Lord thresh from the channel of the Riuer vnto the riuer of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered, one by one, O children of Israel.
13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great trumpet shall be blown; and they shall come, which perished in the land of Assyria, and they that were chased into the lande of Asshur: and they that were outcasts in the land of Egypt; and they shall worship the LORD in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

9 Therefore by this shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged, and this is all the fruit of taking away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalk-stones that are beaten in sunder, so that the Asherim and the sun-images shall rise no more.
10 For the defenced city is solitary, an habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.
11 When the boughes thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them, shall not haue compassion of them, and he that formed them, shall haue no mercie on them.
12 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall beat off his fruit, from the flood of the River unto the brook of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.
13 In that day also shall the great trumpet be blowen, and they shall come, which perished in the land of Assyria, and they that were chased into the lande of Asshur: and they that were outcasts in the land of Egypt; and they shall worship the LORD in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.
unto the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which is on the head of the fat vallies of them that are overcome with wine! {overcome: Heb. broken}

2 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, as a tempest of hail, a destroying storm, as a tempest of mighty waters overflowing, shall he cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a tempest of mighty waters overflowing, shall be trodden under feet: {under...: Heb. with feet}

4 For his glorious beautie shall be a fading floure, which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up.

5 In that day shall the LORD of hostes be for a diadem of beautie, unto the residue of his people:
6 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

7 But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 Whom will he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept, line vnto line, line vnto line, there a little, there a little; that they may go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

11 Nay, but by men of strange lips and with another tongue shall he speake vnto this people.

12 To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

13 Therefore shall the worde of the Lord be vnto them precept vpon precept, precept vpon precept, line vnto line, line vnto line, there a little, and there a little.

14 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem:

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us; for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:
14 Wherefore hear the word of the L ORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement: though a scourge runne ouer, and passe through, it shall not come at vs: for we haue made falshood our refuge, and vnder vanitiie are we hid,

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I laye in Zion a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: Hee that belieueth, shall not make haste.

17 Judgment also will I laye to the rule, and righteousnesse to the balance, and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the vaine place.

18 And your covenant with death shalbe disanulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand: when a scourge shall runne ouer and passe through, then shall ye be trode downe by it. {trodden...: Heb. a treading down to it}

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you; for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only to understand the hearing.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it; and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the L ORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his strange work, and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now therefore be ye not scorners, lest your bands be made strong: for a consummation, and that determined, have I heard from the Lord, the L ORD
20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the Lord shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bonds increase: for I haue heard of the Lord of hostes a consumption, euen determined vpon the whole earth.

23 Hearken ye, and heare my voyce: hearken ye, and heare my speach.

24 Doeth the plowe man plowe all day, to sowe? doeth he open, and break the clods of his ground?

25 When he hath made it plaine, wil he then sowe the fitches, and sowe cummin, and cast in wheat by measure, and the appointed barley and rye in their place?

26 For his God doeth instruct him to haue discretion, and doeth teach him.

27 For fitches shall not be threshed with a threshing instrument, neither shall a cart wheelle be turned about vpon the cummin: but ye fitches are beaten out with a staffe, and cummin with a rod.

28 Bread corne when it is threshed, hee doeth not the report. {to...: or, when he shall make you to understand doctrine}
KJV
27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever thresh it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

29 This also commeth forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

ERV
and it shall be as when an hungry man dreameth, a vision of the night.
strong hold, and that distress her, shall be as a dream, or, like small dust, and the multitude of strong men shall whisper out of the dust.

Ah altar, altar of the citie that David dwelt in: add ye year to year: let them kill lambs.

2 But I will bring the altar into distresse, and there shalbe heauines and sorrow, and it shall be vnto me like an altar.

3 And I will besiege thee as a circle, and fight against thee on a mount, and will cast vp ramparts against thee.

4 So shalt thou be humbled, and shalt speake out of the ground, and thy voyce shall be low out of the ground, and thy speach shalbe as out of the dust: thy speech shall be as of one that hath a spirite of diuination, and thy talking shall also be as of one that hath a spirite of diuination, and thy speaking shall whisper out of the dust.

5 Moreover, the multitude of thy strangers shalbe like small dust, and the multitude of strong men shall whisper out of the dust.

GNV
39:7 This also commeth forth from the LORD of hostes, which is wonderful in counsell, and excellent in workes.
5 Moreover the multitude of the strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as shaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly.

6 Thou shalt be visited of the Lord of hostes with thunder, and shaking, and a great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against the altar, shalbe as a dreame or vision by night: euen all they that make the warre against it, and strong holds against it, and lay siege vnto it.

8 And it shalbe like as an hungry man dreameth, and he eateth: and when he awaketh, his soule is emptie: or like as a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; and when he awaketh, his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all nations be that fight against mount Zion.

9 Stay yourselves, and wonder: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not by strong drinke.

10 For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the Prophets, and your heads, the seers hath he covered.

11 And the vision of them all is become vnto you, as the wordes of a booke that is sealed vp, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he shalbe as chaffe that passeth away, and it shall be in a moment, euen suddenly.

12 And the LORD said, Forasmuch as this people am not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot, for it is sealed:

13 And the Lord said, Nevertheless I will cause him to hear a saying of mine: it shall come to pass, when he shall hear, that he shall not understand; and when he shall understand, then he shall not remember, and when he shall remember, then he shall forget.

14 And the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw nigh unto me, and with their mouth and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of men which hath been taught them:

15 therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work.

ter}

12 And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.

13 Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me was taught by the precept of men,

14 Therefore behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. {proceed: Heb. add}

15 Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?

16 Ye turn things upside down! Shall the potter be counted as clay; that the thing made should say of him that made it, He made me not; or the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?

17 Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be counted for a forest?

work and a wonder: and the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

15 Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?

16 Ye turn things upside down! Shall the potter be counted as clay; that the thing made should say of him that made it, He made me not; or the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?

17 Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be counted for a forest?

18 And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity and out of darkness.

19 The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

20 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner ceaseth, and all they that watch for iniquity are cut off:

21 that make a man an offender in a cause, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just with a thing of nought.
18 And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.
19 The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. {increase: Heb. add}
20 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner is consumed: and all that watch for iniquity are cut off:
21 Which made a man to sinne in ye worde, and tooke him in a snare: which reproved them in the gate, and made the just to fall without cause.
22 Therefore thus saith the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob, Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale.
23 But when he seeth his children, the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name; yea, they shall sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel.
24 They also that err in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale.
23 But when he seeth his children, the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name; yea, they shall sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall stand in awe of the God of Israel.
24 They also that err in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured, shall learn doctrine.
Woe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin:

2 That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!

3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.

4 For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came unto Hanes.

5 They shall all be ashamed of a people that cannot profit them, that are not an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

6 The burden of the beasts of the South: through the land of trouble and anguish, from whence shall come the young ass, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

7 For Egypt helpeth in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I called her Rahab that sitteth still.

8 Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it {concerning...: or, to her} strength is to sit still. Therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still.
therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the horses. Therefore shall ye flee.

9 That it is a rebellious people, lying children, and children that would not hear the law of the Lord.

10 Which say unto the Seers, See not; and to the Prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things: but speak flattering things vnto vs: prophesie errours.

11 Depart out of the way: go aside out of the path: cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from vs.

12 Therefore thus saith the holy one of Israel, Be smooth things, prophesy deceits:

13 Therefore this iniquitie shalbe vnto you as a breach that faileth, or a swelling in an hie wall, whose breaking commeth suddenly in a moment.

14 And the breaking thereof is like the breaking of a potters pot, which is broken without pitie, and in the breaking thereof is not found a sheard to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

15 For thus said the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not.

16 For ye haue sayd, No, but we wil flee away vpon horses. Therefore shall ye flee. We will ride vpon the horses. Therefore shall ye flee.

17 But ye said, No, for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue ye be swifter.
17 A thousand as one shall flee at the rebuke of one: at the rebuke of five shall ye flee, till ye be left as a shipmaste vpon the top of a mountaine, and as a beaken vpon an hill.

18 Yet therefore will the LORD wait, that he may haue mercy vpon you, and therefore wil he be exalted, that hee may haue compassion vpon you: for the Lord is the God of judgument. Blessed are all they that wait for him.

19 Surely a people shall dwell in Zion, and in Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy crye: when he heareth thee, he wil answere thee.

20 And when the Lord hath giuen you the bread of aduersitie, and the water of affliction, thy raine shalbe no more kept backe, but thine eyes shall see thy raine.

21 And thine ears shall heare a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walke ye in it, when thou turnest to the right hand, and when thou turnest to the left.

22 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it; when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

23 Then shall hee giue raine vnto thy seede, when thou shalt say vnto it, Get thee hence.

24 And though the Lord give you the bread of adversitie, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be hidden any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers:

25 And thine eares shall heare a worde behind thee, sayinge, This is the way, walke ye in it, when thou turnest to the right hand, and when thou turnest to the left.

26 And thou shalt defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as an unclean thing; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.

5 And they shall take up a song of thanksgiving; and with the harp shall they sing praises unto the Lord.

6 Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the eyes of the blind shall be opened:

7 And the weak hands shall be strengthened, and the feeble knees shall be made strong; and they that were bowed down shall straighten themselves; and they that were in sorrow shall be glad.

8 For the Lord shall comfort Zion: he will console her uttermost waste places; therefore shall Zion now be coined, and shall be brought unto her own place.
unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God.
3 Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feebkle knees.
4 Say unto them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; he will come and save
you. {fearful: Heb. hasty} 5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.
6 Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the waters break out, and streams in the desert.

7 And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where they lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushed. {grass..., or, a court for reeds, etc} 8 And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall 4 Say unto them that are fearefull, Bee you strong, feare not: beholde, your God commeth with vengeance: euen God with a recompense, he will come and saue you.

5 Then shall the eyes of the blinde be lightened, and the eares of the deafe be opened.
6 Then shall ye lame man leape as an hart, and the dumme mans tongue shall sing: for in the wildernes shall waters breake out, and riuers in ye desert.
7 And the dry ground shall be as a poole, and the thirsty (as springs of water in the habitation of dragons: where they lay) shall be a place for reedes and rushes.
8 And there shalbe a path and a way, and the way shallbe called holy: the polluted shall not passe by it: for he shalbe with them, and walke in the way, and the fooles shall not erre.
9 There shall be no lyon, nor noysome beastes shall ascend by it, neither shall they be found there, that the redeemed may walke.
10 Therefore the redeemed of the Lord shall returne and come to Zion with prayse: and euerverlasting ioy unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency
of our God.
3 Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the

Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fenced cities of Judah and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great arm.: And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller’s field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph’s son, the recorder.

4 And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great King, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, thy counsel and strength for the war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Behold, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt to all that trust on him.

7 But if thou say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my altar?
96

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the Lord our God. Is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah took down, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?
8 Now therefore give hostages to my lord the King of Asshur, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.
9 For howe canst thou despise any capitaine of the least of my lorde servants? and put thy trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?
10 And am I now come vp without the Lord to this land to destroy it? The Lord said vnto me, Goe vp against this land and destroy it.
11 Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Ioah vnto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy seruants in the Aramites language, (for we understand it) and speake these wordes to thy master, and to thee to speake these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit on the wall, to speake these words?
12 But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, to speake these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eate their owne doung, and drinke their owne water with their face in the Iewes language, and said, Hear ye the voyce in the Iewes language, and sayd, Heare the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.
13 So Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loude voice in the Jews' language, and sayd, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.
14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for he shall not be able to deliver you: 15 neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us;
13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews’ language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you to trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be given over into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern:

17 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they among all the gods of these countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king’s commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the recorder.
20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?
21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king’s commandment was, saying, Answer him not.
22 Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with rent clothes, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

And when the King Hezekiah heard it, he rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth and came into the House of the Lord.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of contempt: for the children are come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth.
4 If so be the LORD thy God will hear the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king Assyria have blasphemed me.
5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
6 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king Assyria have blasphemed me.
7 Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and he shall hear...
the words which the LORD thy God hath heard:
wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left. [left: Heb. found]
So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.
7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return unto his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.
8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.
9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to fight against thee. And when he heard it, he sent other messengers to Hezekiah, saying,
10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God deceive thee, in whom thou trustest, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.
11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered?
12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?
13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?
14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before heard, then lift thou vp thy prayer for the remnant that are left.
So the servants of the King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
And Isaiah sayde vnto them, Thus say vnto your master, Thus saith the Lord, Be not afraide of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyρur have blasphemed me.
7 Beholde, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a noyse, and returne to his owne land, and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his owne land.
8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the King of Assyria fighting against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.
9 He heard also men say of Tirhakah, King of Ethiopia, Beholde, he is come out to fight against thee: and when he heard it, he sent other messengers to Hezekiah, saying,
10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah King of Judah, saying, Let not thy God deceiue thee, in whom thou trustest, saying, Jerusalem shall not be giuen into the hand of the king of Asshur.
11 Beholde, thou hast heard what the Kings of Assyr, have blasphemed me.
12 Haue the gods of the nations deliuered them, which I haue done to all lands, by destroying them, and shalt thou be deliuered?
12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Iwah?

14 And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying, "O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.

16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art very God alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to blaspheme the living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries, {nations: Heb. lands}

19 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. {cast: Heb. stone: therefore they destroyed them}
23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

24 By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will goe vp to the height of his top and to the forest of his fruitful places.

25 I have digged and drunked the waters, and with the sole of my feete will I dryed all the riuers of Egypt.

26 Hast thou not heard how I have of olde time made it, and haue formed it long ago? and should I haue made it, and haue formed it without you? and determinate the time thereof without you?

27 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass of the field, and as a field of corn before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy sitting down, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy raging against me.

29 Because of thy raging against me, and for that thine arrogancy is come up into mine ears, therefore may knowe, that thou onely art the Lord.
25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besieged places. {besieged: or, fenced and closed}

26 Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps. {Hast...: or, Hast thou not heard how I have made it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? should I now bring it to be laid waste, and defenced cities to be ruinous heaps?}

27 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, and are afraid and confounded: they are like the grass of the field, and grene herbe, or grasse on the house tops, or corn blasted afore it be grown.

28 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy comming in, and thy rage against me. {abode: or, sitting}

29 Because thou ragest against me, and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hooke in thy nostrels, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee backe againe the same way thou camest.

30 And this shall be a signe vnto thee, O Hezekiah, Thou shalt eate this yeere such as groweth of it selfe: and in the second yeere, such things as growe without sowing: and in the third yeere, sowe ye and reap, and plant vineyards, and eate the fruite thereof.

31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Iudah, shall againe take roote downward and beare fruite vpward.

32 For out of Ierusalem shall goe a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeale of the Lord of hostes shall doe this.

33 Therefore thus sayth the Lord, concerning the King of Asshur, He shall not enter into this citie, nor shoote an arrow there, nor come before it with 34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and he shall not come unto this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David’s sake.

36 And the angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when men arose on ruinous heapes, as cities defensed?

27 Whose inhabitants haue small power, and are afraid and confounded: they are like the grasse of the field and grene herbe, or grasse on the house tops, or come blassed afore it be grown.

28 But I know thy dwelling, and thy going out, and thy comming in, and thy fury against me.

29 Because thou ragest against me, and thy tumult is come vnto mine eares, therefore will I put mine hooke in thy nostrels, and my bridle in thy lips, and wil bring thee backe againe the same way thou camest.

30 And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, O Hezekiah, Thou shalt eate this yeere such as groweth of it selfe: and in the second yeere, such things as growe without sowing: and in the third yeere, sowe ye and reap, and plant vineyards, and eate the fruite thereof.

31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Iudah, shall againe take roote downward and beare fruite vpward.

32 For out of Ierusalem shall goe a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeale of the Lord of hostes shall doe this.

35 For I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David’s sake.

36 And the angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when men arose on ruinous heapes, as cities defensed?
31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward: {the remnant...: Heb. the escaping of the house of Judah that remaineth}

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this. {they...: Heb. the escaping}

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and not come into this citie, saith the Lord.

35 For I will defend this citie to save it, for mine owne sake, and for my seruant Dauids sake.

36 Then the Angel of the Lord went out, and smote in the camp of Asshur an hundreth, fourescore, and fiue thousand: so when they arose early in the morning, beholde, they were all dead corpses.

37 So Seneherib king of Asshur departed, and went away and returned, and dwelt at Nineueh.

38 And as he was in the temple worshipping of Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Ararat: and Esar-haddon his sonne reigned in his steade.

early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

38 And as he was in the temple worshipping of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of Ararat: and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.
In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live. 2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying, 3 And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. 4 Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying, 5 Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, and have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. 6 And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the King of Assyria, and I will defend this city. 7 And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken:

About that time was Hezekiah sick vnto the death, and the Prophet Isaiah sonne of Amoz came vnto him, and sayd vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord, Put thine house in an order, for thou shalt dye, and not liue.

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the Lord, 3 And said, I beseeche thee, Lord, remember now howe I have walked before thee in trueh, and with a perfite heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiah wept sore. 4 Then came the worde of the Lord to Isaiah, saying, 5 Goe, and say vnto Hezekiah, Thus saith the Lord God of Daud thy father, I haue heard thy prayer, and seene thy teares: behold, I will adde vnto thy dayes fiftene yeeres. 6 And I will deliuer thee out of the hand of the King of Asshur, and this citie: for I will defende this citie. 7 And this signe shalt thou haue of ye Lord, that ye Lord will do this thing that he hath spoken, 9 The writing of Hezekiah King of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness.

10 I said, In the noontide of my days I shall go into the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.

11 I said, I shall not see the Lord, even the Lord in the land of the living: I shall see man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 Mine habitation is departed, and is removed from me, like a shepherd's tent: I have rolled up like a weaver my life; he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

13 I quieted myself until morning; as a lion, so he breaketh all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

14 Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter; I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward:

15 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years because of the bitterness of my soul.

16 O Lord, by these things men live, and wholly therein is the life of my spirit: wherefore recover thou me, and make me to live.

17 Behold, it was for my peace that I had great bitterness: but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it
16 O Lord, to them that overliue them, and to all that are in them, the life of my spirite shalbe knowen, that thou causest me to sleepe and hast giuen life to me.

17 Beholde, for felicite I had bitter griefe, but it was thy pleasure to deliuer my soule from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sinnes behinde thy backe.

18 For the graue cannot confesse thee: death cannot praise thee: they that goe downe into the pit, cannot hope for thy trueth.

19 But the liuing, the liuing, he shall confesse thee, as I doe this day: the father to the children shall declare thy trueth.

20 The Lord was ready to saue me: therefore we will sing my song, all the dayes of our life in the House of the Lord.

21 Now Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover.

22 Also Hezekiah had said, What is ye signe, that I shall goe vp into the House of the Lord?

from the pit of corruption; for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

18 For the grave cannot praise thee, death cannot celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD is ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

21 Now Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it upon the boil, and he shall recover.

22 Also Hezekiah had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?
At that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house haue they seene: there is nothing among my treasures, that I haue not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hostes:

6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carryed to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy sons, that shall proceede out of thee, which

At the same time, Merodach Baladan, the son of Baladan, King of Babel, sent letters, and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had bene sicke, and was recovered.

2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 Then came Isaiah the Prophet vnto King Heze-

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house haue they seene: there is nothing among my treasures, that I haue not shewed them.

5 And Isaiah saide to Hezekiah, Heare the worde of the Lord of hostes,

6 Beholde, the dayes come, that all that is in thine house, and which thy fathers have layed vp in store untill this day, shall be caried to Babel: nothing shall be left, saith the Lord.

7 And of thy sonnes, that shall proceede out of thee, and which thou shalt beget, they shall take away, and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the King of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, The word of the Lord is good, which thou hast spoken: and he said, Yet let there be peace, and truth in my days.

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, say.

2 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warrefare be accomplished, that her iniquity be pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord’s hand double for all her sins.

3 The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain:

5 And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field:

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; because the breath of the Lord bloweth upon it: surely the

109
15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the dust of the balance: behold, he taketh away the yles as a little dust.
16 And Lebanon is not sufficient for fire, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.
17 All nations before him are as nothing, and they are counted to him, lesse than nothing, and vanity.
18 To whom then will ye liken God? or what similitude will ye set vp vnto him?
19 The workman melteth an image, or the goldsmith beateth it out in golde, or the goldesmith maketh silver plates.
20 Doeth not the poore chuse out a tree that will not rot, for an oblation? he seeketh also vnto him a cunning workeman, to prepare an image, that shall not be moued.
21 Know ye nothing? haue ye not heard it? hath it not bene tolled you from the beginning? haue ye not vnderstand it by the foundation of the earth?
22 He sitteth vpon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grashoppers, hee stretcheth out the heavens as a curtaine, and spreadeth them out, as a tent to dwell in.
23 He bringeth the princes to nothing, and maketh the iudges of the earth, as vanitie, 24 As though they were not plated, as though they are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.
17 All nations before him are as nothing; they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.
18 To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?
19 The graven image, a workman melted it, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.
20 He that is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to set up a graven image, that shall not be moved.
21 Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?
22 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:
23 That bringeth princes to nothing; he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity, 24 Yea, they have not been planted; yea, they have not been sown; yea, their stock hath not taken root.
were not sown, as though their stocke tooke no roote in the earth: for he did euen blow vpon them, and they withered, and the whirlewinde will take them away as stubble.

25 To whom nowe will ye liken me, that I should be like him, saith the Holy one?

26 Lift vp your eyes on hie, and beholde who hath created these things, and bringeth out their armies by number, and calleth them all by names? by the greatnesse of his power and mightie strength nothing faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Iaakob, and speakest O Israel, My way is hid from the Lord, and my judegment is passed ouer of my God?

28 Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the euerlasting God, the Lord hath created the endes of the earth? he neither fainteth, nor is wearie: there is no searching of his vnderstanding.

29 But he giueth strength vnto him that fainteth, and vnto him that hath no strength, he encreaseth power.

30 Euen the yong men shall faint, and be wearie, and the yong men shall stumble and fall.

31 But they that waite upon the Lord, shall renue their strength: they shall mount up with wings as the eagles: they shall runne, and not be weary, and they in the earth: moreover he bloweth upon them, and they wither, and the whirlwind taketh them away as stubble.

25 To whom then will ye liken me, that I should be equal to him? saith the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and see who hath created these, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, and for that he is strong in power, not one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the Lord, and my judgement is passed away from my God?

28 Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord hath created the endes of the earth? he neither fainteth, nor is wearie: there is no searching of his understanding.

29 But he giueth strength vnto him that fainteth, and vnto him that hath no strength, he encreaseth power.

30 Euen the yong men shall faint, and be wearie, and the yong men shall stumble and fall.

31 But they that waite vpon the Lord, shall renew their strength: they shall mount up with wings as the eagles: they shall runne, and not be weary, and they Keep silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.

2 Who hath raised up one from the east, whom he calleth righteousness to his foot? he giveth them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursued them, and passed safely; even by the generations from the beginning I the LORD am he.

4 Who hath wrought and done it? he that calleth the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first, and the last; I am he.

5 The isles saw, and feared; the ends of the earth trembled: they drew near, and came.

6 Every man helped his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage.

7 So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smiteth with the hammer him that smiteth the anvil, saying of the soldering, It is good: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.

8 But thou, Israel, my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend;

9 thou whom I have taken hold of from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the corners thereof,

10 I will give thee for a covenant of the people, and a light of the Gentiles: to open the eyes of the blind, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house.

11 But now hath he that shall cause to rise me up set me upon my ways: he shall execute justice for me; he shall bring me unto the path of his saints.

12 As the eagle hath power over the wings of the fowls, so the LORD hath power over the heart of the sons of men.
6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage. {Heb. Be... Be strong}

7 So the carpenter comforted the goldsmith, and he that smoothen with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the reeding; and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.

8 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I have chosen thee, the seed of Abraham my friend.

9 For I haue taken thee from the endes of the earth, and called thee before the chiefe thereof, and said vnto thee, Thou art my seruant: I haue chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 Fear thou not, for I am with thee; be not disafraide, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee, and will susteine thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Beholde, all they that prouoke thee, shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing, and the men that warre against thee, as a thing of nothing; and they that striue with thee, shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seeke them, and shalt not finde them: they that strive with thee, shall be ashamed and confounded: they shalbe as nothing, and they that striue with thee, shall perish.

13 For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying vnto thee, Feare not, I wil helpe thee.

14 Beholde, all they that were incensed against thee, for they shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nothing; and they that striue with thee shall be as nothing, and the men of thy strife, for they shall be as nothing, and they that warre against thee, as they that warre against thee, shall be as nothing, and the men that warre against thee, shall be as nothing.

15 Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff.

16 Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, thou shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

25 I have raised up one from the north, and he is come; from the rising of the sun one that calleth upon my name: and he shall come upon rulers as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

26 Who hath declared it from the beginning, that we may know? and beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that sheweth, yea, there is none that heareth your words.

28 And when I look, there is no man; even among them there is no counsellor, that, when I ask of them, can answer a word.

29 Behold, all of them, their works are vanity and nought: their molten images are wind and confusion.

23 Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, doe good or doe euill, that we may declare it, and beholde it together.

24 Beholde, ye are of no value, and your making is of naught: man hath chosen an abomination by them.

27 I first will say unto Zion, Behold, behold them; and I will give to Jerusalem one that shall bring good tidings.
Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth: I have put my spirit upon him; he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth. {smoking: or, dimly burning} {quench: Heb. quench it}

4 He shall not fail nor be discouraged till he have set judgment in truth.

5 Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them forth; he that spread abroad the earth and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to the ones that walk therein:

6 He shall not fail nor be discouraged till he have set judgment in the earth; and the isles shall wait for his law. {discouraged: Heb. broken}

7 to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house.

8 I am the LORD; that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise unto graven images.

28 But when I behelde, there was none, and when I inquired of them, there was no counsellor, and when I demaunded of them, they answerd not a woord.

29 Beholde, they are all vanitie: their worke is of nothing, their works are wind and confusion.

21 The LORD is willing for his righteousnesse sake that he may magnifie the Lawe, and exalt it.
22 But this people is robbed and spoiled, and shall be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not over flow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

23 When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the floods, that they doe not keep not back; bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the end of the earth; 24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? Did not ye Lord, because we have sinned against him? for they would not walke in his waies, neither be obedient vnto his Lawe.

25 Therefore he hath powred vpon him his fierce wrath, and the strength of battle: and it set him on fire round about, yet he knewe not, and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

But nowe thus sayeth the Lord, that created thee, O Iaakob: and hee that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name, thou art mine.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy saviour; I have given Egypt as thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

119
I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of the Chaldeans, in the ships of their rejoicing.

And I will bring down all of them as fugitives, even one of Israel: For your sake I have sent to Babylon, my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and hear, and say, It is truth.

Therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servants whom I have chosen: therefore ye shall be justified: or let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them declare this and shew us former things? let them bring forth their people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: therefore ye shall overflow thee. When thou walkest through the very fire, thou shalt not be burnt, neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

8 Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: therefore ye shall overflow thee. When thou walkest through the very fire, thou shalt not be burnt, neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the Lord thy God, the holy one of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia, and Seba for thee.

4 Because thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I loved thee: therefore will I give man for thee, and people for thy sake.

5 Fear not, for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the East, and gather thee from the West.

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth.

7 Even every one that is called by my name: for I have made him, I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; and said unto him, Thou art my servant, whom I have chosen: that ye may know and hear, and say, It is truth.

Israel, your King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;
17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow:
18 Remember ye not the former things, neither regard the things of old.
19 Behold, I do a new thing: now shall it come to pass, and shall ye not know it? I will give water in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to my people, my chosen:
20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the jackals and the ostriches: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen:
21 The people which I formed for myself, that they might set forth my praise.
22 Yet thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.
23 Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not made thee to serve with offerings, nor wearied thee with frankincense.
24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrif-18 Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen. {owls: or, ostriches: Heb. daughters of the owl}

21 This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise.

22 But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.

23 Thou hast not brought me the sheepe of thy burnt offrings, neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offring, nor weared thee with incense. {small...:
Heb. lambs, or, kids}

24 Thou boughtest me no sweete sauver with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fatte of thy sacrifices, but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities. {filled...: Heb. made me drunk, or, abundantly moistened}

25 I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sinnes: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast weared me with thine iniquities.

26 Put me in remembrance; let us plead together: set thou forth thy cause, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy first father sinned, and thy interpreters have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanct-tuary, and I will make Jacob a curse, and Israel a reviling.
Yet now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:

2 Thus sayeth the Lord, that made thee, and formed thee from the womb: he will helpe thee. Fear not, O Iaakob, my seruant, and thou, Jesurun, whom I haue chosen.

3 For I will powre water vpon the thirstie, and floods vpon the drie ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seede, and my blessing vpon thy buddes.

4 And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willowes by the riuers of waters.

5 One shall say, I am the Lordes: another shalbe called by the name of Iaakob: and another shall subscribe with his hand vnto the Lord, and name himselfe by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his surname himselfe by the name of Israel.
redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.

7 And who is like me, that shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order before me, since I appointed the ancient people? and what is at hand, and what things are to come? let them shew vnto them.

8 Feare ye not, neither be afraid: haue not I toldt thee of olde, and haue declared it? you are euem my witnesses, whether there be a God beside me, and I that there is no God that I knowe not.

9 All they that make an image, are vanitie, and their delictable things shall not profit; and they are their owne witnesses, that they see not nor know:
therefore they shalbe confounded.

10 Who hath made a god, or molten an image, that is profitable for nothing?

11 Beholde, all that are of the fellowship thereof, shall be confounded: for the workemen themselues are men: let them all be gathered together, and stand vp, yet they shall feare, and be confounded together.

12 The smith maketh an axe, and worketh in the coales, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his armes: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he facioneth
his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the holm tree and the oak, and strentheneth for himself one the rain doth nourish it.

that is profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered to-shall be ashamed together.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread, yet he maketh a god, and worshippeth it: he maketh it an idole and boweth vnto it.

16 He burneth the halfe thereof euuen in the fire, and vpon the halfe thereof he eateth flesh: he rosteth the roste and is satisfied: also he warmeth himselfe and sayth, Aha, I am warme, I haue bene at the fire.

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, euuen his idole: he boweth vnto it, and worshippeth and prayeth vnto it, and sayeth, Deluier me: for thou art my god.

21 Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant; I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

22 I have put away thy transgressions like a cloud, and thy sins, as a mist: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee.

23 Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth; break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and will glorify himself in Israel.

24 Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD, that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself: that frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers, saying to Jacob, She shall be inhabited; and of the cities of Judah, They shall be built, and I will raise up the waste places thereof: that saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers: That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying of Jerusalem, She shall be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

20 He feedeth of ashes: a seduced heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

21 Remember these (O Iaakob and Israel) for thou art my servant: I have formed thee: thou art my servant: O Israel forget me not.

22 I have put away thy transgressions like a cloude, and thy sinnes, as a mist: turne vnto me, for I have redeemed thee.

23 Rejoyce, ye heavens: for the Lord hath done it: shoute, ye lower partes of the earth: brast foorth into prayses, ye mountaines, O forest and euery tree therein: for the Lord hath redeemed Iaakob and will be glorified in Israel.

24 Thus sayeth the Lord thy redeemer and he that formed thee from the wombe, I am the Lord, that made all things, that spred out the heauens alone, and stretched out the earth by my selfe.

25 I destroy the tokens of ye southsayers, and make them that coniecture, fooles, and turne the wise men backwarde, and make their knowledge foolishnesse.

26 He confirmeth the worde of his seruant and perfometh the counsel of his messengers, saying to Thus saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him, and I will loose the loins of kings; to open the doors before him, and the gates shall not be shut;

2 I will go before thee, and make the rugged places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron:

3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I am the LORD, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

4 For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine that I, the LORD, which call thee by thy name, am he that maketh all things known:

And maketh their knowledge foolish;

elect, I will even call thee by thy name and name thee, though thou hast not known me.
5 I am the Lord and there is none other: there is no God besides me: I girded thee though thou hast not known me, 6 That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the West, that there is none besides me. I am the Lord, and there is none other.
7 I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the Lord do all these things.
8 Ye heavens, send the dew from above, and let the clouds drop down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the Lord have created it.
9 Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth, shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou?
10 Woe unto him that saith to his father, What hast thou begotten? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?
11 Thus saith the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands cometh not.
12 I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded.

13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts. {direct: or, make straight} speak righteousness, and declare righteous things.

together, ye abject of the Gentiles: they have no knowledge, that set vp the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.

2 They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity. {themselves: Heb. their soul}

3 Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which have been borne from the womb: and even to old age I am he, and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.

4 Therefore unto old age, I the same, even I will bear you: I haue made you: and I will also beare you, and I will carry you and I will carry you until the hoare heares: I haue made you: I have made, and I will bear; from the belly, which are carried from the womb: the remnant of the house of Israel, which are borne of me from the womb, and brought vp of me from the birth.

5 To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like?

6 They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god; they fall down, yea, they worship.

7 They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, and set him in his place: so doeth he stand, and from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

8 Remember this, and shew yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors.

11 Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man of my counsel from a far country: rea, I have spoken, it will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, and I will doe it. {that...: Heb. of my counsel}
12 Hearken unto me, ye stouthearted, that are far from righteousness: {that...: Heb. of my counsel}
13 I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far from righteousness:

13 I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far from righteousness:

Comes down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.
2 Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy nakedness, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and will accept cannot remove from his place. Though one crie vunto him, yet can he not answere, nor deliuer him out of his tribulation.

13 I bring neere my iustice: it shall not be farre off,
13 I bring neere my iustice: it shall not be farre off,

3 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meete thee as a man.

4 Our redeemer, the Lord of hostes is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

6 I was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou diddest not lay these things to thy heart, neither diddest thou remember the latter end thereof.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children.

9 But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness; thou hast said, None seeth me; thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee: and thou hast said...
10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me. {perverted... or, caused thee to turn away}

11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know. {from...: Heb. the morning thereof}

12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels: let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it. {themselves: Heb. their souls}
Hear ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah: which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel; whose Name is the Lord of hosts.

3 I have declared the former things from of old; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass; {obstinate: Heb. hard}

5 Therefore I have declared it to thee of old; before it came to pass I shewed it thee, lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my carved image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things, euen from the beginning things, which thou hast not known.

7 They are created now, and not of olde, and euen now, and hid things, which thou knewest not.

8 Yea, thou hearest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, thou shalt wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

Hear ye this, O house of Isakob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come out of the waters of Judah: which swear by the name of the Lord, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel, whose Name is the Lord of hostes.

3 I have declared ye former things of old, and they were not in truth, nor in righteousness.

4 Because I knew, that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass;

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee, lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my carved image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, behold all this; and ye, will ye not declare it? I have shewed thee newe things, euen from the beginning things, which thou hast not known.

7 They are created now, and not from of old; and before this day thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

Hear ye me, O yles, and hearken, yee people, from far: The Lord hath called me from the wombe, and made mention of my name from my mothers bellie. 2 And hee hath made my mouth like a sharpe sword: vnder the shadowe of his hande hath he hid me, and made me a chosen shafte, and hid me in his quier,

3 And sayd vnto me, Thou art my seruaunt, Israel, for I will be glorious in thee.

4 Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought and vanity: yet surely my judge ment is with the Lord, and my worke with my God. 5 And now sayeth the Lord, that formed me from the wombe to be his servant, to bring Jacob againe to him, though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the Lord, and my God shall be my strength: Though Israel be not gathered, etc}

6 And hee sayde, It is a small thing that thou shouldest be my servant, to raise vp the tribes of Iaakob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him that is despised.

Listen, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye peoples, from far: The Lord hath called me from the wombe; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name:

2 And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword: in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft, in his quiver hath he hid me;

3 And said vnto me, Thou art my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified.

21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

22 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

23 And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their faces toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

24 Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered?

25 But thus saith the Lord, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away: and the prey of the tyrant shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

26 And I will feede them that spoile thee, with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy saviour, and thy redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

14 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail.

18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up.

5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was broken for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his stripes we are healed.

6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way, and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb; yea, he opened not his mouth.

8 By oppression and judgment he was taken away; and as for his generation, who among them considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living? for the transgression of my people was he stricken.

9 And they made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath made his soul an offering for sin: he shall see his seed and shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many: for he shall bear their sorrows.
KJV  ISAIAH 54  GNV

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoyle with the strong; because he hath poured out his soule unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sinne of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear: break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travaile with childe: for the desolate hath moe childe than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed, neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and the reproach of thy widowhood shalt thou remember no more.

For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name: and the Holy One of Israel is thy redeemer; the God of the whole earth shall he be called.

For the LORD hath called thee as a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a wife of youth, when she is cast off, saith thy God.

For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. [thou... or, his soul shall make an offering]

Rejoice, O barren that diddest not beare: break forth into ioy and reioyce, thou that diddest not travaile with childe: for the desolate hath moe childe than the children of the married wife, saith the Lord.

Enlarge the place of thy tents, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes; for thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and dwell in the desolate cities.

Fear not: for thou shalt not be ashamed, neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and the reproach of thy widowhood shalt thou remember no more.

Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

6 Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, and giveth seed to the sower and bread to the eater;

11 so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle.

Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

6 Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

11 So shall my word be, that goeth out of my mouth: it shall not returne vnto me voide, but it shall accomplish that which I will, and it shall prosper in the thing whereunto I sent it.

12 Therefore ye shall go out with ioy, and be led forth with peace: the mountaines and the hilles shall breake forth before you into ioye, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the firre trees: for nettles shall growe the myrrhe tree, and it shalbe to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting signe that shall not be taken away.

Thus saith the Lord, Keep ye judgement, and doe justice: for my salvation is at hand to come, and my righteousness to be revealed. {judgment: or, equity}

1 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from profaning it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of righteousness to be revealed.
3 And let not the sonne of the stranger, which is ioyned to the Lord, speake and say, The Lord hath surely separate me from his people: neither let the Eunuch say, Beholde, I am a drye tree.

4 For thus saith the Lord vnto the Eunuches, that keepe my Sabbaths, and chuse the thing that pleaseth me, and take holde of my covenante, 5 Euen vnto them wil I giue in mine House and within my walles, a place and a name better then of the sonnes and of the daughters: I will giue them an everlasting name, that shall not be put out.

6 Also the strangers that cleaue vnto the Lord, to serue him, and to loue the Name of the Lord, and to be his servaunts: every one that keepeth the Sabbath, and polluteth it not and imbraceth my covenant,

7 Them wil I bring also to mine holy mountaine, and make them ioyfull in mine House of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted vpon mine altar: for mine House shall be called an house of prayer for all people.

8 The Lord GOD which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him. {beside...: Heb. to his gathered}
The righteous perished, and no man layeth it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.
2 He entereth into peace; they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness. {enter into: or, go in} {in his...: or, before him}
3 But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.
4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood,
5 ye that inflame yourselves among the oaks, under the clefts of the rocks?
6 Among the smooth stones of the valley is thy portion; that slay the children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks?
7 Upon a high and lofty mountain hast thou set thy bed: thither also wastest thou up to offer sacrifice.
8 And behind the doors and the posts hast thou set up thy memorial: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it.
9 And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and sendest thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

10 Thou wast wearied with the length of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou didst find no comfort in these.

11 And of whom hast thou been afraid and in fear, that thou liest, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of long time, and fearest me not?

12 I will declare thy righteousness; and as for thy iniquity, thou hast found no hope.

13 When thou criest, let them which thou hast gathered deliver thee; but the wind shall take them, a breath shall carry them all away: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain.

14 And he shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the 16 Thy portion is in the smooth stones of the river: they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering; thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I delight in these?

17 Thou hast made thy bed upon a very high mountain: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

18 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and hast gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; and hast lovedst their bed in every place where thou sawest it.

19 Thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thine messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

20 They, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou gathered deliver thee; but the wind shall take them, a breath shall carry them all away: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain.

21 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of his covetousness I am angry with him, and have smitten him: I hid me, and was angry, yet he went away, and turned after the way of his own heart. {frowardly: Heb. turning away}

18 I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comfort unto him and to his mourners.

19 I create the fruit of the lips: Peace, peace, to him that is far off and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.

20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea; for it cannot rest, and its waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.
Cry aloude, spare not: lift vp thy voyce like a trumpet, and shewe my people their transgression, and to the house of Iaakob, their sinnes.

2 Yet they seeke me dayly, and will knowe my wayes, even as a nation that did righteously, and had not forsaken the statutes of their God: they aske of me the ordinances of justice: they wil drawe neere vnto God, saying,

3 Wherefore haue we fasted, and thou seest it not? we haue punished our selues, and thou regardest it not. Beholde, in the day of your fast you will seeke your will, and require all your dettes.

4 Beholde, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickednesse: ye shall not fast as ye doe to day, to make your voyce to be heard aboue.

5 Is it such the fast that I haue chosen, that a man to afflict his soule for a day, and to bowe downe his head as a nation that did righteously, and had not the ordinance of their God, they ask of me righteousnesse?

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the bands of the yoke, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house, and those that lament him.

8 I create the fruit of the lips: Peace, peace to them that are farre off, and to them that are neere, sayth the Lord: for I will heale him.

9 But the wicked are like the raging sea, that can not rest, whose waters cast vp myre and dirt.

10 There is no peace, sayth my God, to the wicked.
KJV

5 Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD? {a day... or, to afflict his soul for a day?}

6 Is it not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? {the heavy... Heb. the bundles of the yoke} {op-pressed: Heb. broken}

7 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

8 Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall grow speedily: thy righteousness shall go before thee; and the glory of the Lord shall embrace thee.

9 Then shalt thou call, and the Lord shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and wicked speaking; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am: if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him, and hide not thyself from thine own flesh? then shalt thy light rise in darkness, and thine obscurity be as the noonday:

11 And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and thy healing shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the Lord shall be thy rearward. {be...: Heb. gather}

12 And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

14 Then shalt thou delight in the Lord, and I will cause thee to mount upon the high places of the earth, and I will feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

Beholde, the Lordes hande is not shortened, that it cannot saue: neither is his eare heauie, that it cannot hear:

12 And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 If thou turn away thy foot from the Sabbath, from doing thy will on mine holy day, and call the Sabbath a delite, to consecrate it, as glorious to the Lord, and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor seeking thine owne will, nor speaking a vaine word,

14 Then shalt thou delight in the Lord, and I will cause thee to mount upon the high places of the earth, and I will feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of ye Lord hath spoken it.

Beholde, the LORD'S hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

4 None sueth in righteousness, and none pleadeth in truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch basilisks’ eggs, and weave the spider’s web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence

14 Then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will make thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and I will feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

Behold, the LORD’S hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither is his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

5 They hatch basilisks’ eggs, and weave the spider’s web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words:

and your God, and your sinnes haide his face from you, that he will not heare.
3 For your handes are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquitie; your lips have spoken lies and your tongue hath murmured iniquitie.
4 No man calleth for justice: no man contendeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquitie.
5 They hatch cockatrice’ eggs, and weave the spider’s web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is trode vpon, breaketh out into a serpent.
6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they couer themselves with their labours: for their works are works of iniquitie, and the worke of crueltie is in their hands.
7 Their feete runne to euill, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are wicked thoughts: desolation and destruction is in their paths.
8 The way of peace they knowe not, and there is none equity in their goings: they haue made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein, shall not know peace.
9 Therefore is judgement farre from vs, neither doe thist justice come neere vnto vs: we waite for light, but loe, it is darkenesse: for brightnesse, but we walke in obscurity.
10 We grope for the wall like the blind, yea, we grope as they that have no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the twilight; among them that are lusty we are as dead men.
11 We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.
12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them: 13 in transgressing and denying the LORD, and turning away from following our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.
10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We roar all like bears, and mourn like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them.

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it upheld him.

17 And he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

18 According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence.

19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun: for he shall come as a rushing stream, which the breath of the LORD driveth.

20 And a redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

21 And as for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD: my spirit that is upon thee, and unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee; the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; they all shall come from Sheba: they shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praises of the LORD.

4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: they all gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be carried in the arms. 5 Then thou shalt see and be lightened, and thine heart shall tremble and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be turned unto thee, the wealth of the nations shall come unto thee. 6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the filthiness of men shall be consumed with fire. 7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee; the camels of Midian and Ephah; they all shall come from Sheba: they shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praises of the LORD.

The following verses describe the glory and majesty that will accompany the Lord's return and the blessings that will come to those who trust in him.

17 For he put on righteousnesses, as an habergeon, and an helmet of salvation vpon his head, and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeale as a cloe.

18 As to make recompence, as to requite the furie of the aduersaries with a recompence to his enemies: he will fully reparer the ylands.

19 So shall they fear the Name of the LORD from the West, and his glory from the rising of the sun: for the enemie shall come like a flood: but the Spirit of the Lord shall chase him away.

20 And the Redeemer shall come vnto Zion, and vnto them that turne from iniquitie in Iaakob, saith the Lord.

21 And I will make this my couenant with them, saith the Lord.

"Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD, from henceforth and for ever."
LORD is risen upon thee. {shine...: or, be enlightened; for thy light cometh}

2 For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged, because the multitude of the Gentiles shall come unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense, for the name of the LORD is risen upon thee. {shine...: or, be enlightened; or, wealth}

9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of the LORD is risen upon thee.

10 And strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Thy gates also shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the wealth of the nations; and their kings led with them.

12 For that nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine, and the box tree together; to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 And the sons of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall be ashamed.

15 And the sons of them that despised thee shall come; and all they that hated thee shall be gathered together unto thee, and they that despised thee shall be gathered together; and they shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nourished at thy side.

16 And the sons of them that despised thee shall come unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee.

8 For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

For Zion’s sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem’s sake I will not rest, until her righteousness go forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burneth.

2 And the nations shall see thy righteousness, and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with a garland, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

For Zion’s sake will I not hold my tongue, and for Jerusalem’s sake I will not rest, until her righteousness go forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burneth.

9 And their seed shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.

For Zion’s sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem’s sake I will not rest, until her righteousness go forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burneth.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.
Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzibah, and thy land Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem; they shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence, and give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and strangers shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

But they that have garnered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have gathered it shall drink it in the courts of my sanctuary.
8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for which thou hast laboured: [Surely... Heb. If I give, etc]

9 But they that have gathered it, shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

10 Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up an ensign for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.

12 And they shall call them The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called Sought out, A city not forsaken.

Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? he is glorious in his apparel, marching in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat?

3 I have trodden the winepress alone; and of all the peoples there was no man with me: yea, I trod them in mine anger, and trampled them in my fury; and their lifeblood is sprinkled upon my garments, and I have stained all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance was in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I 3 I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour.

9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled, and grieved his holy Spirit:
therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and himself fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? where is he that put his holy spirit in the midst of them?
12 that caused his glorious arm to go at the right people there was none with mee: for I will tred them in mine anger, and tred them vnder foote in my wrath, and their blood shalbe sprinkled vpon my garments, and I will staine all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the yeere of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to helpe, and I wondered that there was none to vpholde: therefore mine owne arme helped me, and my wrath it selfe sustained me.

6 Therefore I wil tred downe the people in my wrath, and make them drunken in mine indignation, and wil bring downe their strength to the earth.

7 I wil remember the merces of the Lord and the prayses of the Lord according vnto all that the Lord hath giuen vs, and for the great goodnesse toward the house of Israel, which hee hath giuen them actording to his tender loue, and according to his great merces.

8 For he saide, Surely they are my people, children that wil not lie: so he was their Saviour.

9 In all their troubles he was troubled, and the Angel of his presence saued them: in his loue and in his mercie he redeemed them, and he bare them and caried them always continually.

10 But they rebelled and vexed his holy Spirit:
therefore was he turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the Sea with the shepherd of his sheep? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

12 He led them by the right hand of Moses with his owne glorious arme, deuinding the water before them, to make himself an everlasting Name.

13 Hee led them through the deepe, as an horse in the wildernes, that they should not stumble, 14 As the beast goeth downe into the valley, the Spirit of the Lord gaue them rest: so diddest thou leade thy people, to make thy selfe a glorious Name.

15 Looke downe from heauen, and beholde from the dwelling place of thine holines, and of thy glory. Where is thy zeale and thy strength, the multitude of thy mercies, and of thy compassions? they are restrained from me.

16 Doubtles thou art our father: though Abraham be ignorant of vs, and Israel knowe vs not, yet thou, O Lord, art our Father, and our redeemer: thy Name is for euer.

17 O Lord, why hast thou made vs to erre from thy wayes? and hardened our heart from thy feare? Returne for thy seruants sake, and for the tribes of thine
17 O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called by thy name. {they...: Heb. thy name was not called upon them}

Oh, that thou wouldest rend the heavens, and come downe, and that the mountains might melt at thy presence!
